Part III dated 27-4-1983.](b)When travelling by air, Minister is entitled to draw the fare paid for the journey by air and, if actually paid, the cost of transporting all [personal effects by rail at passenger rates or by road and railway fares, actually paid, for not more than six personal servants at the lowest class rates. He may, in the alternative draw travelling allowance, as is admissible to a Government servant of Grade I, under the rules contained in Chapter II of the Travelling Allowance Rules, Punjab Civil Service Rules (Volume III) (First Edition, 1953). If, at either end of the journey by air, a Minister has to perform a connected journey by rail or road, he may draw travelling allowance admissible for such journeys under rules 3 and 4 above. No allowance may, however, be drawn in respect of the surface transport which forms part of the air journeys and is included in the fare paid for the air journey.] [See Legislative Suppl. Part III dated 22.4.1983.]

A Minister is entitled to travel beyond the limits of the State of Punjab on official business.

A Minister may while on tour, draw daily allowance at the rate of [three hundred rupees in addition to the above payments.] [Substituted vide Legislative Supplement Part III dated 9.9.1998.] Provided that -(i) the daily allowance for the days of departure from and arrival at headquarters shall be such as provided under rules 3(e) and 4(2); (ii) in the case of a Minister, who is treated as a State Guest during an official visit outside the State of Punjab, his daily allowance shall be limited to one-fourth, if he is provided free board and lodging officially and one-half, if he is charged either for board or for lodging.

On proceeding to join office a Minister may, in respect of the journey from his home to the headquarters of Government, avail himself of all the travelling allowance facilities under these rules. Similar facilities, from the headquarters of Government to his home, shall be allowed to a Minister on demitting office.

(1) Subject to sub-rule (2) below, when a Minister for whom special railway accommodation is provided or who is entitled under these rules to reserve railway accommodation by requisition travels in such reserved accommodation on tour the entire cost of haulage is borne by Government. (2) Unless it be otherwise expressly provided in these rules, any person travelling with the Minister in the reserved accommodation must pay the usual fares to the railway by the purchase of the required allowance in respect of journey performed in reserved accommodation, the Minister reserving the accommodation must specify the number of persons who travelled with him and certify that the necessary number of tickets were purchased by them. Notes. - (1) The Minister reserving the accommodation shall be required before beginning the journey to have the number and other details of the tickets purchased for the persons travelling with him in the reserved accommodation entered on the requisition form by the Station Master of the Station from which the journey is commenced. This is necessary in order to enable an adjustment to be made between the Civil and Railway Departments in respect of the fares realised by the Railways. When in the case of a

Minister who travels in reserved railway accommodation, no travelling allowance bills are received by the Audit Officer but only debits are received on account of Railway Requisitions, the Audit Officer will call for a certificate from the Minister to the effect that the journey covered by the requisition was on public duty.(2)If it is necessary in the public interest for a Private Secretary, a Stenographer or a Clerk to accompany a Minister in the reserved accommodation, then he may do so, even when the number of persons travelling in reserved accommodation already exceeds the number of fares charged by the Railway for reserving the accommodation : provided that he purchases a ticket for the class of accommodation in which he is entitled to travel. In such a case, the Minister shall certify in the bill for his travelling allowance that it was in the interest of the public service that the Private Secretary, Stenographer or Clerk travelled with him in the reserved accommodation and that he actually purchased a ticket of the class to which he was entitled. The cost of the ticket will not be deducted from the charge on account of haulage of reserved accommodation payable to the Railway.

(1)A Minister is entitled to a conveyance allowance of Rs. 300 per mensem. This is not subject to any reduction for any day for which ordinary travelling allowance is drawn. The State Government shall, however, be competent to provide for a Minister a State Car, in lieu of the conveyance allowance, and when a State Car is so provided, the expenses for maintenance and propulsion shall be borne by the State Government.(2)While performing journeys on tour in a State Car, the Minister shall be entitled to daily allowance only. For private journeys within a radius of ten miles from the place of half while on tour or the headquarters, nothing shall be charged from the Minister but in respect of such portions of journeys as are beyond a radius of the aforesaid ten miles, the Minister shall provide petrol and mobil oil at his own expense; provided that if the place of halt is Delhi, 20 miles shall be substituted for ten in this sub-clause.Note. - A Minister, who uses a State Car for a private journey beyond a radius of 10 or 20 miles, as the case may be, shall record a certificate in the following form on the T.A. Bill :-"Certificate that the charges for the private journey(s) performed in the State Car beyond a radius of *10/20 miles of  _____ on _____ have actually been paid to Government account, vide Treasury Voucher/Challan No. _____ dated _____.*Strike off whichever is inapplicable. Herein indicate the place of half."(3)(1) [An advance may be made to a Minister, proceeding on a long and expensive tour, of an amount sufficient to cover his personal travelling expenses, subject to adjustment, on completion of the tour or the 31st day of March, whichever is earlier, against the amount of travelling allowance admissible to him.] [Added by Punjab Government Notification No. 10237 PI 59/38859, dated 15.12.1959.]

11. [[Added by Punjab Government Notification No. 9299 P 60/28887 dated 21.11.1960.]

(1)When a Minister goes to a place outside his headquarters at his own expense of an organisation other than Government] [Added vide Punjab Government Notification dated 23-11- 1994.] [whether in connection with an election to the State Legislature or Parliament or any local body or for any other private work, he may be allowed air conditioned/1st Class railway fare or the fare journey by air or for a single seat in a rail car, as the case may be if he is required in public interest to come back at the headquarters or at any other place in the State by interrupting the election or private work in connection with which he had gone] [The words 'or on a free railway pass admissible for journeys of such type' omitted by Punjab Government Notification No. Pol. 2(2) 61/12233, dated 20.5.1961.]:Provided that if in the absence of railway, service or train connections the journey is performed by the Minister by bus or private car or by ferry in part or in whole he may be allowed his actual travelling expenses on his certificate to the effect that the amount charged was actually paid and does not include any charges for refreshments, hotel or staging bungalow.(2)The concession mentioned in sub-rule (1) will also be admissible to the Minister for his return journey to the place, from which he was required to come in public interest, provided such return journey is performed within twenty-four hours of his arrival at the headquarters or at any other places in the State, as the case may be.Note. - The word "Minister" wherever occurring in these rules shall include "Chief Minister".
