Ms. No. 2603, Development, dated 23rd November 1937; Notification No. 722, dated 6th November 1937, page 1918, Fort St. George Gazette, Part 1, dated 16th November 1937)G. O. No. 1322, Development, dated 8th August 1936. - In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 17-A and section 63 of the Tamil Nadu Forest Act, 1882 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1882), as amended by Tamil Nadu Act VII of 1936, the Government of Tamil Nadu are hereby pleased to make the following rules regarding the form in which the notice referred to in the said sub-section (2) (specifying the corrections proposed by a notification redefining the limits of a reserved forest and calling for objections thereto) shall be given and the manner of publication thereof:-

Every notice published under sub-section (2) of section 17-A of the Tamil Nadu Forest Act, 1882 (Tamil Nadu Act V of 1882) (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") shall be in the Form specified in the Schedule annexed to these rules.

2.

The District Forest Officer shall publish such notice -(a)at the headquarters of each taluk in which any portion of the land included within the limits of the forest as proposed to be redefined by the notification under sub-section (1) of section 17-A of the Act is situated; and(b)in every town and village in the neighbourhood of such land.

3.

The District Forest Officer shall also cause a copy of such notice to be served on every known or reputed owner of any land included in, or adjoining, the reserved forest the limits of which are proposed to be redefined and if any such owner resides beyond the limits of the district in which the reserved forest is situated, the notice shall be sent to him at his last known address by registered post:Provided that, if in any case, the number of such owners is in the opinion of the Government of Tamil Nadu so large as to render compliance with this rule difficult or impracticable, they may dispense with such compliance.Explanation I. - The fact that any owner or owners have not been served with notice or have not had notice sent to them as required by this rule shall not be deemed to invalidate the proceedings under section 17-A of the Act.Explanation II. - The decision of the Government of Tamil Nadu under the proviso to this rule shall be final.Annexure
