Chapter-III Foreman

18. Procedure in the case of security given by the foreman.

(1)In case of cash deposited in an approved Bank in the name of the Registrar under Clause (a) of Sub-section (1) of Section 23 the receipt or the book issued by the approved Bank mentioned in the chit agreement shall be delivered to the Registrar.(2)In case of Government securities transferred in favour of the Registrar under Clause (b) of Sub-section (1) of Section 20, the Registrar shall keep them in safe custody under his control in any Government Treasury.(3)If the security charged is movable property other than deposit in an approved Bank or Government securities, the foreman shall make all necessary arrangements for their deposit with the Registrar or with such Bank or other agency as may be approved by the Registrar for ensuring that the property deposited is available as security for the proper conduct of a chit.(4)in case of trustee securities to be transferred in favour of the Registrar under Clause (c) of Sub-section (1) of Section 20-(i)where the security is other than immovable property, the value of the security shall not be less than one and a half times the value of the chit amount; and(ii)in respect of security of immovable property, the value of the security shall not be less than two times the value of the chit amount.(5)A foreman of a chit proposing to give movable or immovable property as security for the proper conduct of a chit shall apply to the Registrar in Form X. The application under this sub-rule shall clearly furnish the correct and complete information regarding the property offered as security. Where the property offered is immovable property, the application shall be accompanied by the documents of title to the property and an encumbrance certificate for 30 years relating to the property.(6)Where the immovable property offered as security is situated outside the jurisdiction of the Registrar having jurisdiction over the chit, the Inspection of the property shall, under the orders of the State Government, be made by the Registrar concerned as to the sufficiency of the security.(7)If the security offered is accepted as sufficient by the Registrar, he shall record in writing and attach a certificate of sufficiency in Form XI and a statement of the valuation made to the application.(8)If the security offered is not accepted by the Registrar, he shall record it in writing on the application to that affect.

19. Valuation of chit amount in grain chits.

- In a grain chit, for the purpose of security under Section 2 the grain shall be valued by the Registrar as follows ;(a)the total quantity of grain due from all subscribers at one instalment of the chit shall be ascertained;(b)the market value for the time being of the total quantity referred to in Clause (a) shall then be calculated;(c)in assessing the market value, the Registrar shall adopt the current market prices prevailing at the nearest taluk/town as ascertained from the Tahasildar having jurisdiction;(d)one and quarter times the market value mentioned in Clause (b) shall be taken to be the chit amount for the purpose of furnishing security by the foreman under Sub-section (1) of Section 20.

20. Substitution of security.

(1)During the currency of a chit, the foreman may apply to the Registrar in Form XII for permission to substitute the security given by him in the proper conduct of the chit by fresh security.(2)The Registrar may grant permission after satisfying himself-(i)that the request of the foreman for substitution of the security given under Section 20 is reasonable; and(ii)that the fresh security offered is adequate.(3)The procedure prescribed in Rule 18 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the substituted security given by the foreman under this rule.

21. Procedure for accepting fresh security.

(1)The Registrar shall, if so required by the foreman, execute and register a deed of release in respect of the original security at the cost of the foreman.(2)If the original security to be returned is Government securities deposited in a Government treasury the Registrar shall arrange to return the securities offered by the foreman after making endorsements of re-transfer in the pass-book (receipt) or Government security (or other record), as the case may be.(3)If the original security to be returned is movable property other than Government security, the Registrar shall arrange to return such security by executing such deed or making such endorsement as may be necessary for an effective re-transfer in favour of the foreman.

22. Application for release of security.

- On termination of the chit, the foreman may apply to the Registrar for the release of the security given by him.

23. Declaration by foreman.

- The application for release of security under Sub-section (5) of Section 20 shall contain a declaration separately signed by the foreman stating that the claims of all the subscribers have been fully satisfied and that all dues payable by the foreman under the Act to the Registrar or any other officer have been fully paid.

24. Procedure for release of security.

(1)(a)The Registrar may, for the purpose of releasing the security under Sub-section (5) of Section 20 call upon the foreman to produce a copy duly certified to be a true copy of any register and books of account maintained by the foreman and shall exhibit a notice on his office notice board stating that the security is proposed to be released and that any person objecting to such release may file with the Registrar his statement of objections, if any, within fifteen days from the date of exhibition of the notice.(b)If no objection is received within the period specified in the notice, the Registrar shall release the security.(2)If any objection is received, the Registrar shall enquire into the objections summarily within fourteen days after the date of expiry of the period specified in the notice referred to in Sub-rule (1) and record his decision in writing and forward a copy thereof to the foreman and to the objector.

25. Books of accounts to be maintained by the foreman.

- In addition to the book of minutes of draws mentioned in Section 17, every foreman shall keep the following registers and books of accounts in the forms mentioned against each or in the forms as near thereto as possible : (1)A register of subscribers in Form XIII.(2)A ledger in Form XIV.(3)A day book in Form X.(4)A receipt book in Form XVI duly certified by the foreman as to the number of pages in duplicate.(5)A book containing copies of all notices issued by the foreman to the subscribers.(6)A file containing the letters of authorisation of the subscribers, for subscribing his name in the chit agreement and for participating in the auction of the chit.(7)A file containing the vouchers for payment made by the foreman.(8)A file containing documents relating to securities offered by the prized subscribers.

26. Accounts to be written up promptly.

(1)Every entry in the register of subscribers, the ledger or the day book mentioned in Rule 25 shall be made as and when the particular event occurs.(2)On receipt of any money, a receipt shall immediately be prepared or cause to be prepared by the foreman in Form XVI and delivered to the payer.(3)The foreman shall, at the time of issuing every notice, prepare a copy thereof in the book mentioned under Clause (5) of Rule 25, certify it to be true copy and enter therein under his signature, the date of despatch of the notice.(4)A voucher duly signed by the recipient shall be obtained by the foreman at the time any payment is made to him and such voucher shall be immediately filed in the file specified in Clause (7) of Rule 25 after due verification of all the particulars entered therein.(5)Every document relating to the security given by prized subscribers shall, as soon as it is received, be filed in the file mentioned in Clause (8) of Rule 25. The file shall contain an Index for facilitating the scrutiny of the documents.

27. Filing of vouchers.

- As soon as each payment is made, the foreman shall obtain a voucher from the payee. He shall verify whether the voucher specifies the purpose for which the payment was received and whether it is properly signed by the recipient and preserve it in the file mentioned in Clause (7) of Rule 25 after assigning a serial number thereto for each calendar month.

28. Date for submission of balance sheet.

(1)The balance sheet prepared in accordance with the provisions of Section 24 shall be filed with the Registrar within a period of three months from the expiry of the period with reference to which it is prepared.(2)Receipts and expenditure account and statement showing the assets and liabilities of the individual chit group shall be filed in the Form XXI with the Registrar within a period of two months from the termination of the chit when the duration of the chit does not exceed one year and when the duration of chit exceeds one year on expiry of every period of twelve months and also on the termination of the chit.

28A.

The fate of interest payable by a defaulting subscriber in pursuance of the proviso to Section 28 (1) of the Act shall not exceed twelve per cent per annum.

29. Audit by a Chit Auditor.

(1)If a foreman desires to have the balance sheet and profit and loss account audited by a Chit Auditor appointed under Sub-section (2) of Section 61, the foreman shall, immediately after the preparation of the balance sheet, make an application for such audit to the Registrar within whose jurisdiction the chit is conducted, specifying whether the audit shall be at the premises of the foreman or not. The application shall be accompanied by the amount of fee set out in Schedule II.(2)The Registrar shall forward the application to the Inspector of Chits having jurisdiction, who shall cause the balance sheet and profit and loss account to be audited by the Chit Auditor, as expeditiously as possible. On receipt of the application, the Inspector of Chits shall forward it to the Chit Auditor, who shall thereupon call upon the foreman to produce the chit records on such date, time and place as he may fix and the foreman shall produce all registers, books of accounts and other records relating to the chit accordingly and furnish such information and give such facilities as may be necessary or required for the proper audit of the balance sheet and profit and loss account and receipt and expenditure account of individual chit at the time and place fixed by the Chit Auditor.(3)Notice of not less than seven days shall be given to the foreman as to the date of audit in the premises of the foreman or for the production of registers, books of account and other records relating to the chit business, as the case may be.

30. Audit certificate and report of the Chit Auditor to be in quadruplicate.

- The Chit Auditor shall prepare his report and audit certificate in quadruplicate and shall send one copy to the foreman the second copy to the Registrar, the third copy to the Inspector of Chits and keep the remaining copy for his own file.

31. Time for filing balance sheets audited by a Chit Auditor or other Auditors.

(1)Where the audit is done by the Chit Auditor, the foreman shall file with the Registrar a copy of the balance sheet and profit and loss account together with the audit certificate and the Auditor's report within one month from the date of the receipt of the audit certificate and audit report from the Chit Auditor or, within three months from the last day of the period covered by the balance sheet, whichever is earlier.(2)In the case of audit by an Auditor qualified to act as Auditor of companies under the Companies Act, 1956 (Act 1 of 1956), the foreman shall file with the Registrar the documents referred to in Sub-rule (1) within three months from the expiry of the period with reference to which the balance sheet is prepared under Section 24, and in case of individual chit as referred to in Sub-rule (2) of Rule 28, within a period of two months.Chapter-IV Winding up of Chits

32. Form of petition for winding up and presentation.

- A petition for winding up of a chit shall contain the following particulars, namely : (1)Full name, description, occupation and address of the petitioner (2)Address of his advocate, if any, for the service of all notices, processes- etc. (3)Address of the foreman - (4)Particulars of the chit- (i)Number and date of registration of the chit agreement; (ii)Office where the chit agreement was registered; (iii)The chit amount ; (iv)The total number of tickets; (v)The number of subscribers and the number of tickets subscribed by each subscriber ; (vi)The number of non-prized subscribers on the date of the petition; and (vii)The number of unpaid prized subscribers, if any. (5)Facts on which the petitioner relies in support of the petition. (6)Particulars relating to the award and execution of other process which has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part, if the ground of the petition is that execution of other process issued on an award or order of the Registrar in favour of any subscriber in respect of the amounts due to him from the foreman was returned unsatisfied in whole or in part. (7)Full details to show that the condition prescribed in Clause (a) of the proviso to Section 49 is satisfied if the winding up of the chit is applied for under Clause (d) of Section 48 and if the said Clause (a) applicable. (8)Whether the previous sanction of the State Government has been obtained, if Clause (b) of the proviso to Section 49 applies. (A copy of the relevant or the State Government shall be attached).

33. Proposals for collection and distribution of chit assets.

(1)The Receiver shall, as soon as possible, settle and submit to the Registrar a statement (hereinafter referred to as the "provisional statement") showing-(a)the names of subscribers and other persons from whom moneys are due to the chit ;(b)the names of the subscribers and other persons to whom moneys are due from the chit ;(c)proposals as to how the chit assets are to be applied in the discharge of its liabilities ; and(d)the amount proposed to be paid to each of the persons specified in Clause (b).(2)Notice of the preparation of the provisional statement accompanied by a copy thereof shall be published and be served on the petitioner, the subscribers and other persons mentioned by the Receiver in such manner as the Registrar may direct. If the number of persons on whom notice is to be served is large, the notice may, in the discretion of the Registrar, be served on the petitioner only and advertised in one or more daily newspapers. The notice shall specify the date on which objections, to the provisional statement will be heard and shall call upon any person having such objections : (i)to submit his statement of objections and the grounds therefor supported by an affidavit before the date appointed by the Registrar in this behalf; and(ii)to appear in person or by advocate on the date of hearing with all the evidence in support of his objections.

34. Set-off to be allowed.

- When money is due from the foreman to a subscriber and also from the subscriber to the foreman, the subscriber shall be allowed the benefit of a set-off.

35. Hearing of objections to the provisional statement.

- On the date fixed for the hearing of the objections under Sub-rule (2) of Rule 33, the Registrar shall enquire into the objections and after considering the evidence, if any, adduced in support thereof pass orders on the objections and call upon the Receiver to revise, if necessary, the provisional statement in accordance with his orders. The Registrar shall fix a date by which such revision is to be made and intimate orally or in writing such date to the persons who have appeared in person or through their advocates on the date of the hearing.

36. Final orders of settlement by Registrar.

(1)As soon as possible thereafter and at least ten days before the date fixed under Rule 35, the Receiver shall submit to the Registrar a fresh list of subscribers or other persons to whom or from whom moneys are due and fresh proposals for the distribution of the available chit assets after making such further enquiry as may be necessary. The Registrar shall, thereupon, consider the said list and proposals and approve or modify them in such manner as he considers necessary. The Registrar shall pass final orders accordingly on the date fixed under Rule 35 for the collection and distribution of the chit assets. The Registrar may also pass such orders as may be necessary for the distribution of the available chit assets in case such assets happen to be insufficient to meet the sums which have to be paid to the subscribers.(2)The final orders passed by the Registrar under this rule shall be conclusive evidence of the several claims to be met out of the chit assets.

37. Provision for expenses of winding up.

- In making proposals for the distribution of the chit assets, the Receiver shall specify the estimated amount of the cost of winding up including remuneration for the Receiver and such other items of expenditure as are incidental to the winding up and such estimated amount shall first be provided for and deducted from the value of the chit assets and the balance amount shall also be proposed for distribution in the provisional statement and the fresh list mentioned in Rule 36.

38. Filing of final accounts by Receiver.

(1) Upon the termination of the proceedings relating to the winding up, the Receiver shall file his final accounts with the Registrar within fifteen days of such final accounts being passed by the Registrar, the balance of money in the hands of the Receiver shall be paid to the Registrar. The Receiver shall also state how the balance amount may be disposed of together with the reasons for his proposals. He shall also deposit with the Registrar all books, accounts and all other records relating to the chit which has been wound up. (2) The Receiver may thereafter apply to the Registrar for a certificate of discharge from the duties as Receiver and for the vacating of his recognizance bonds entered into by him and the sureties, if any. On receipt of such application, the Registrar may pass orders of such discharge and vacating of the bonds and for the disposal of the final balance of the chit asset, if any.

39. Final order of winding up by the Registrar.

(1) After the affairs of a chit have been completely wound up, the Registrar shall make an order recording the fact of such winding up. (2) A copy of such order shall be exhibited on the notice board of the Registrar.

40. Disposal of records.

- The books and papers of a chit which has been completely wound up and of the Receiver shall be retained and disposed of in such manner as the Registrar may direct.

41. Meetings.

- When the number of subscribers is large and the Registrar, whether on application of the Receiver or not, at any stage considers that a meeting of all such parties is necessary in order to ascertain their wishes in any matter, the Registrar may pass an order for holding such a meeting. The Registrar may direct the manner in which and the time and place at which the meeting shall be held and the Receiver shall convene and hold the meeting accordingly.

42. Table of fees.

- The fees payable to the Registrar for matters specified in Section 63 shall be as set out in Schedule II and shall be paid in cash.

43. Receipt for fees.

- The Registrar shall grant receipts for all fees received by him.

44. Refund of fees.

- The Registrar may refund any fee paid to him in excess of the amount prescribed or any fee that is unearned. Explanation - The expression "fee that is unearned" in this rule means fees paid in connection with the registration of the chit agreement, the filing of a document or other service to be performed by the Registrar where such registration or filing is not actually effected or the service is not actually rendered. Chapter-VI Disputes and Arbitration

45. Reference of dispute.

- A reference of a dispute under Section 64 shall be made in writing to the Registrar in Form XVII. Wherever necessary, the Registrar may require the party referring the dispute to him to produce a certified copy of the relevant records on which the dispute is based and such other statements or records as may be required by him, before proceeding with the consideration of such reference.

46. Registrar's satisfaction regarding existence of a dispute.

- Where any reference of a dispute is made to the Registrar or any matter is brought to his notice, the Registrar shall, on the basis of the reference (if any) made to him in Form XVII and the relevant records and statements submitted to him, record his decision together with the reasons therefor, whether he is, or is not satisfied about the existence of a dispute within the meaning of Section 64. Such recording of decision shall be sufficient proof of the Registrar's satisfaction whether the matter is or is not a dispute, as the case may be.

47. Disposal of a dispute or reference to a nominee.

(1) Where the Registrar is satisfied that there is a dispute the Registrar may decide the dispute himself or refer it for disposal to his nominee. (2) Neither the Registrar nor his nominee shall take up for consideration any dispute, unless the parties concerned pay to the Registrar the fees prescribed under Rule 42.

48. Qualification for appointment as Registrar's nominees.

- The Registrar may appoint a person to be his nominee; provided that-(a)he has practised as an Advocate, for not less than five years, or(b)he is enrolled as an Advocate or holds a degree or other qualification in Law of any University established by law or of any other authority which entitles him to be enrolled as an Advocate, and either (i) has held office not lower in rank than that of Deputy Registrar of Chits for not less than five years, or (ii) possesses good knowledge and experience of chit fund legislation and practice.

49. Procedure for hearing and decision of disputes.

(1)The Registrar or his nominee shall record in the official language in the State, the evidence of the parties to the dispute and the witnesses who attend. Upon the evidence so recorded and upon consideration of any documentary evidence produced by the parties, a decision shall be given by him In writing. Such decision shall be pronounced openly either at once or as so on as may be practicable on some future day, of which due notice shall be given to the parties.(2)Where neither party appears when the dispute is called out for hearing, the Registrar or his nominee may make an order that it be dismissed for default.(3)Where the opponent appears and the disputant does not appear when the dispute is called out for hearing, the Registrar or his nominee may make an order that the dispute be dismissed, unless the opponent admits the claims or a part thereof, in which case the Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, may make an order against the opponent upon such admission, and where, part only of the claim is admitted, may dismiss the dispute in so far as it relates to the remainder.(4)Where the disputant appears and the opponent does not appear when the dispute is called out for hearing, then if the Registrar or his nominee is satisfied from the record and proceedings that the summons was duly served, the Registrar or his nominee may proceed with the dispute ex parte. Where the summons is served by any officer of the Registrar or his nominee, he shall make his report of service on oath.(5)The Registrar or his nominee may not ordinarily grant more than two adjournments to each party to the dispute at his request. The Registrar or his nominee may, however, at his discretion grant such further adjournments on payment of such cost's to the other side and such fees to the Registrar or his nominee as the Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, may direct.(6)Any party to a dispute may apply for and obtain a certified copy of any order, judgement or award made by the Registrar or his nominee on payment of copying fees, at the rate prescribed in Schedule II.

50. Summonses, notices and fixing of dates, place etc. in connection with the disputes.

(1)The Registrar, or as the case may be, his nominee, may issue summonses or notices at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the hearing of the dispute requiring-(i)the attendance of the parties to the dispute and of witnesses, if any; and(ii)the production of all books and documents relating to the matter in dispute.(2)Summonses or notices issued by the Registrar or his nominee may be served through the Tahasildar of the Tahasil or any employee of the Chit Department or by registered post with acknowledgement due.(3)The officer serving a summons or notice shall, in all cases in which summons or notice has been served, endorse or annex or cause to be endorsed on or annexed to, the original summons or notice, a return stating the time when, and the manner in which the summons or, as the case may be, notice was served, and the name and address of the person (if any) identifying the person served and witnessing the delivery or render of summons or the notice.(4)The Registrar or his nominee who issued the summons or notice may examine the serving officer on oath or cause him to be so examined by the Tahasildar through whom it is served and may make such further inquiry in the matter as he thinks fit, and shall either declare that the summons or, as the case may be, notice has been duly served or order it to be served in such manner as he thinks fit.(5)The mode of serving summonses and notices as laid down in Sub-rules (1) to (4) shall mutatis mutandis apply to the service of summonses or notices issued by the Registrar or the person authorised by him, when acting under Section 46.

51. Investigation of claims and objections against any attachment.

- When any claim or objection has been preferred against the attachment of any property under Section 68 on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment, the Registrar, or as the case may be, his nominee, shall investigate into the claim or objection and dispose it of on merits :Provided that, no such investigation shall be made when the Registrar or his nominee considers that the claim or objection is frivolous.

52. Procedure for the custody of property attachment under Section 68.

(1)Where the property to be attached is movable property, other than agricultural produce in the possession of the debtor the attachment shall be made by actual seizure and the attaching officer shall keep the property in his own custody or in the custody of one of his subordinates, or of a Receiver, if one is appointed under Sub-rule (2) and shall be responsible for due custody thereof :Provided that when the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expenses of keeping it in custody is likely to exceed its value, the attaching officer may sell it at once in public auction, where the owner may also be allowed to bid if he so likes. The sale proceeds thus obtained shall be deposited by the attaching officer in the Treasury till the disposal of the case or till further order is passed.(2)Where it appears to the officer ordering conditional attachment under Section 68 to be just and convenient, he may appoint a Receiver for the custody of the movable property attached under that section and his duties and liabilities shall be identical with those of a Receiver appointed under Order XL in the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.(3)(i)Where the property to be attached is immovable, the attachment shall be made by an order prohibiting the debtor from transferring or changing the property in any way, all persons from taking any benefit from such transfer or change.(ii)The order shall be proclaimed at same place on, or adjacent to, such property by beat of drum or other customary mode, and a copy of the order shall be fixed on a conspicuous part of the property and upon a conspicuous part of the village chavdi, and where the property is land paying revenue to the State Government also in the office of the Collector of the district and in the office of the Tahasildar within whose jurisdiction the property is situated.

53. Procedure for attachment and sale of property for realisation of any security given by person in course of execution proceedings.

- The procedure laid down in Rules 51 and 52 shall mutatis mutandis apply for attachment and sale of property for the realisation of any security given by a person in the course of execution proceedings.

54. Issue of proclamation prohibiting private transfer of property.

- The Registrar when acting under Clause (a) of Section 71 shall, at the time of signing a certificate effecting any property, issue a proclamation in Form XVIII and in the case of immovable property shall also forward a copy of the proclamation to the Tahasildar or any other Revenue Officer within whose jurisdiction the property is situated, who shall cause an entry about such certificate to be made in the record-of-rights.

55. Procedure for execution of awards.

(1) Every order or award passed by the Registrar, or his nominee under Section 68 or 69 shall be forwarded by the Registrar to the foreman or to the party concerned with instruction that the foreman, or as the case may be, the party concerned should initiate execution proceedings forthwith according to the provisions of Section 71. (2) If the amount due under the award is not forthwith recovered, or the order thereunder is not carried out, it shall be forwarded to the Registrar with an application for execution along with all information required by the Registrar, for the issue of certificate under Section 71. The applicant shall state whether he desires to execute the award through a Civil Court or through the revenue authorities as provided under Section 71. (3) On receipt of such application for execution, the Registrar shall forward the same to the proper authority for execution along with a certificate issued by him under Section 71 and a proclamation issued under Rule 54 in the manner prescribed therein. (4) Every order passed in appeal under Section 70 shall also be executed in the manner laid down in Sub-rules (2) and (3).

56. Transfer of property which cannot be sold.

(1) When, in execution of an order sought to be executed under Section 71, any property cannot be sold for want of buyers, if such property is in the possession of the defaulter or of some person on his behalf, or of some person claiming it under a title created by the defaulter subsequent to the issue of the certificate by the Registrar under Clause (a) or (b) of the said section, the officer conducting the execution shall, as soon as practicable, report the fact to the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, and the judgement creditor applying for the execution of the said order. (2) On receipt of a report under Sub-rule (1) the judgement creditor may, within six months from the date of the receipt of the report or within such further period as may, for sufficient reasons, be allowed in any particular case by the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, submit an application in writing to the Court, the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, stating whether or not he agrees to take over such property. (3) On receipt of an application under Sub-rule

(2), notices shall be issued to the defaulter and to all persons known to be interested in the property, including those whose names appear in the record-of-rights as persons holding any interest in the property, about the intended transfer.(4)On receipt of such a notice, the defaulter, or any person owning such property, or holding an interest therein by virtue of a title acquired before the date of the issue of a certificate under Section 71, may, within one month from the date of the receipt of such notice, deposit with the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, for payment to the foreman a sum equal to the amount due under the order sought to be executed together with interest thereon and such additional sum for payment of costs and other incidental expenses as may be determined in this behalf by the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be.(5)On failure of the defaulter, or any person interested, or any person holding any interest in the property, to deposit the amount under Sub-rule (4), the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall direct the property to be transferred to the judgement creditor on the conditions stated in the certificate in Form XIX.(6)The certificate granted under Sub-rule (5) shall state whether the property is transferred to the judgement creditor in full or partial satisfaction of the amount due to him from the defaulter.(7)If the property is transferred to the judgement creditor in partial satisfaction of the amount due to him from the defaulter, the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall, on the production by the judgement creditor of a certificate signed by the Registrar, recover the balance due in the manner laid down in Section 71.(8)The transfer of the property under Sub-rule (5) shall be effected as follows : (i)In the case of movable property-(a)Where the property is in the possession of the defaulter himself or has been taken possession of on behalf of the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, it shall be delivered to the judgement creditor.(b)Where the property is in the possession of some person on behalf of a defaulter the delivery thereof shall be made by giving notice to the person in possession directing him to give actual peaceful possession to the judgement creditor and prohibiting him from delivering possession of the property to any other person.(c)The property shall be delivered to a person authorised by the party to take possession on behalf of the judgement creditor.(ii)In the case of immovable property-(a)Where the property is growing or standing crop, it may be delivered to the judgement creditor before it is cut and gathered and the judgement creditor shall be entitled to enter on the land, and to do all that is necessary for the purposes of tending and cutting and gathering it.(b)Where the property is in the possession of the defaulter or of some person on his behalf or some person claiming under a title created by the defaulter subsequent to the issue of certificate under Section 71, the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall order delivery to be made by putting the judgement creditor or any person whom he may appoint, receive delivery on his behalf in actual possession of the property and if need be by removing any person who illegally refuses to vacate the same.(c)Where the property is in the possession of a tenant or other person entitled to hold the same by a title acquired before the date of issue of a certificate under Section 71, the Court or the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall order delivery to be made by affixing a copy of the certificate of transfer of the property to the judgement creditor in some conspicuous place on the property and proclaiming to such person by beat of drum or other customary mode at some convenient place that the interest of the defaulter has been transferred to the judgement creditor.(9)The judgement creditor shall be required to pay expenses incidental to sale including the cost of maintenance of livestock, if any, according to such scale as may be fixed by the Registrar from time to time.(10)Where land is transferred to the judgement creditor under Sub-clause (a) of Clause (ii) of Sub-rule (3) before the growing of standing crop is cut and gathered, the judgement creditor shall be liable to pay the current year's land revenue on the land.(11)The judgement creditor shall forthwith report any transfer of property under Sub-clause (b) or (c) of Clause (ii) of Sub-rule (8) to the village accountant for information and entry in the record-of-rights.(12)The judgement creditor to whom property is transferred under Sub-rule (5) shall maintain for each such defaulter a separate account showing all the expenses incurred including payment to outside encumbrances, land revenue and other dues on the property and all the income derived from it.(13)The judgement creditor to whom property is transferred under Sub-rule (5) shall use his best endeavour to sell the property as soon as practicable to the best advantage of the foreman as well as that of the defaulter, the first option being always given to the defaulter who originally owned the property. The sale shall be subject to confirmation by the Registrar. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied to defraying the expenses of the sale and other expenses incurred by the judgement creditor and referred to in Sub-rules (9) and (12) and to the payment of the arrears due by the defaulter under the order in execution, and the surplus (if any), shall then be paid to the defaulter.(14)Until the property is sold, the judgement creditor to whom the property is transferred under Sub-rule (5) shall use his best endeavours to lease it or to make any other use that can be made of it so as to derive the largest possible income from the property.(15)When the judgement creditor to whom property is transferred under Sub-rule (5) has realised all his dues under the order in execution of which the property was transferred, from the proceeds of management of the property, the property, if unsold, shall be restored to the defaulter.
