(5B) Every registered dealer shall be issued an electronic identity card subject to such conditions as may be notified by Government in this behalf.(6) A dealer registered under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 13 shall be entitled to have his registration cancelled if he is able to prove to the satisfaction of the prescribed authority that his turnover in each of the two consecutive years immediately preceding the application was less than the limits mentioned in the respective sub-sections.(7) The prescribed authority shall have power, for good and sufficient reasons, to cancel, modify or amend any registration certificate issued it.(8) No application for registration and no renewal under this section shall be refused and no order under sub-section (4) or sub-section (7) shall be made, unless the dealer concerned has been given an opportunity of being heard.(9) When a dealer has ceased to do business in any year, and gives notice of that fact to the prescribed authority, he shall not be liable to pay any registration fee from the commencement of the following year unless he resumes business.(10) The dealer shall exhibit the certificate of registration granted under sub-section (2) at the place of business mentioned in the certificate. Where the dealer has more than one place of business, he shall exhibit the certificate of registration at the principal place of business mentioned in the certificate and a copy of such certificate granted under sub-section (3) at every other place of business within the State mentioned in the certificate.(11) The prescribed authority shall dispose of the application for registration received under sub-section (1), within six weeks from the date of receipt of the application.

14A. Suspension of registration in certain cases.

- Notwithstanding condition of a registration certificate issued to such dealer or that he has violated any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made there under or has prevented or obstructed or abetted the prevention or obstruction of any inspection, entry, search or seizure by an officer empowered under this Act, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him under this Act, by order, suspend the registration of such dealer for such period as may be specified in the order.

15. Issue of permits.

(1) Every registered dealer who transacts business at places other than his registered place or places of business or employs a traveling salesman or representative to transact business as aforesaid, shall obtain a permit issued under this Act authorizing himself or permitting him to authorize, the traveling salesman or representative so to do.(2) The entire turnover of business carried on under the permit shall be included and accounted for by the registered dealer in his accounts and returns and shall be dealt with as if it were the turnover of business done by the registered dealer himself at the registered place of business.(3)Every permit holder shall carry the permit with him and shall produce it on demand by any officer of the Sales Tax Department empowered by the Government in this behalf. He shall maintain and produce on demand to any such officer a true and correct account of all the transactions carried on under the permit and also a stock book showing the quantities of goods held by him, the quantities disposed of from day to day by sale or otherwise and the balance on hand at the end of each day.(4)An application for the permit referred to in sub-section (1) shall be made to such authority, in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed and shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred and fifty rupees.Explanation. - A dealer may make a single application for all the permits required by him together with the fee for each permit applied for.(5)If the prescribed authority is satisfied that the application is in order, and that the particulars furnished therein are correct, it shall issue the permit in the prescribed form.(6)A permit issued under sub-section (5) shall be valid for a year and shall be renewed from year to year on receipt of an application from the registered dealer accompanied by a fee of one hundred and fifty rupees.(7)The prescribed authority shall cancel a permit, -(a)on requisition made in writing by the registered dealer, or(b)on the cancellation of the certificate of registration.(8)The prescribed authority may cancel a permit if the permit holder has contravened any of the terms or conditions of the permit any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made there under.(9)No permit shall be cancelled under sub-section (8) unless the person affected has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

Chapter V

Assessment, Collection and Penalty

16. Assessment of tax.

(1)The tax under this Act shall be assessed, levied and collected in such manner as may be prescribed.(2)In case of a dealer with more than one place of business, the aggregate turnover of all such places of business shall be taken as the turnover of the business for the purposes of this Act.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) or any of the other provisions of this Act, the Board of Revenue may, with the consent of the dealer, treat each of such places of business as a separate unit for the purposes of levy, assessment and collection of tax, and thereupon all the provisions of this Act regarding registration, filling of returns, assessment and collection of tax shall apply as if each of such places of business is a separate unit.(4)Where any order is passed by the Board of Revenue under sub-Section (3), the turnover of each of such places of business shall be liable to tax irrespective of such turnover being below the minimum turnover mentioned in section 5.Provided that the total turnover in respect of all such places of business together is not less than the minimum turnover mentioned in section 5.

17. Procedure to be followed by the assessing authority.

(1)Every registered dealer and every dealer liable to take out registration under this Act shall submit such return or returns relating to his turnover in such manner and within such period as may be prescribed.(2)If the assessing authority is satisfied that any return submitted under sub-section (1) is correct and complete, it shall assess the dealer on the basis thereof.(3)If no return is submitted by the dealer under sub-section (1) within the prescribed period, or if the return submitted by him appears to the assessing authority to be incorrect or incomplete, the assessing authority shall, after making such enquiry as it may consider necessary and after taking into account all relevant materials gathered by it, assess the dealer to the best of its judgement: Provided that before taking action under this sub-section the dealer shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard and, where a return has been submitted to prove the correctness or completeness of such return. (4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sub-sections (3) and (4A) the assessing authority may accept the return for any year, the assessment relating to which has not been completed along with the statements prescribed, which are in accordance with the provisions of the Act and rules made there under, submitted by a dealer, having dealings in goods coming under the Third Schedule to the Act, irrespective of any limit in turnover, or by a dealer whose total turnover specified in the return submitted by him for the year for which the assessment relates does not exceed rupees fifteen lakhs or by a dealer having dealings only at non-taxable points of goods coming in the First, Second or Fifth Schedules and whose total turnover specified in the return does not exceed rupees forty lakhs or by a dealer the tax payable by whom for the said year does not exceed rupees five thousand and assess the dealer on the basis of such return: Provided that every year out of the assessments relating to the preceding year to be completed under this sub-section, the Deputy Commissioner may select twenty per cent by following such procedure as may be specified by the Commissioner, for detailed scrutiny of the accounts and other records and if the dealer is found to have not accounted any purchases or sales or otherwise attempted to evade payment of tax, the assessment of the dealer for the previous five years may be reopened and escaped turnover shall be assessed or levy of tax be made after following the procedure prescribed in sub-section (3) and the limitation prescribed under any of the provisions of the Act shall not apply to such cases. Provided further that where the return filed by any dealer falling under any of the categories referred to in this sub-section is not accompanied by any statement required by this Act or the rules made there under in support of any claim or exemption from, or reduction in, the rate of tax, the assessing authority shall, after due notice to the dealer, complete the assessment on the basis of the turnover conceded in the return, disallowing the claim for such exemption or reduction to the extent to which it is not proved. Provided also that where any evasion of tax is detected against any dealer whose assessments have been completed under this sub-section, the dealer shall cease to be eligible for assessment under this sub-section for any subsequent period. (4A) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in sub-section (3) in the case of a co-operative society registered or deemed to be registered under the Kerala Co-operative Societies Act 1969 (21 of 1969), the assessing authority shall make the final assessment for the year 1980-81 and for every subsequent year on the basis of the return furnished by that society, if such return is duly supported by the audit report of such society issued by the Registrar of Co-operative Societies; Provided that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply if the audit report of the co-operative society issued by the Registrar of Co-operative Societies is not furnished within a period of three years from the expiry of the year to which it relates: Provided further that the provisions of this sub-section shall not apply in the case of a co-operative society, which has been punished, or on which a penalty has been imposed or from which a sum of money has been accepted under section 47 for evasion of tax for the year for which the return has been furnished. (4B) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in section 5 or in the foregoing provisions of this section, in respect of works contracts, the assessing authority may, on the application of the works contractor, complete the assessment in relation to such works contract for the period prior to 1st day of April, 1999, in one block, and the provisions of this Act and the rules made there under other than those relating to rate of tax, shall apply to such assessment as if it were an assessment for the year 1998-99. The rate of tax applicable to each works contract shall be the lowest rate applicable to such type of works contract during any year of the block period in respect of such works contract: Provided that no refund of any tax already paid shall be allowed. (5) For the removal of doubt it is hereby clarified that nothing contained in sub-section (4) shall be deemed to exclude the operation of section 19, section 19B, section 19C or section 27 in the case of a dealer assessed under that sub-section. (5A) Where on reopening of an assessment completed under sub-section (4), in respect of any dealer, it is found that the amount of tax, if any, paid by such dealer is less than the amount of tax which he is liable to pay on such fresh assessment, the assessing authority shall direct such dealer to pay the difference between the amount of tax already paid by him and that arrived at on such fresh assessment, together with thrice the amount of such difference as penalty. (6) Any assessment under this Section shall be completed within a period of four years from the expiry of the year to which the assessment relates: Provided that this time limit shall not apply in the case of dealers who, being liable to get themselves registered as provided for under the Act and the Rules made there under have failed to do so or have done business as benamidars or through benamies. Provided further that the assessment relating to the year 1994-1995 shall be completed on or before 31st March 2000. Provided also that any assessment, other than an assessment falling under sub-section (4) or sub-section (4A), shall be completed within four months from the last date of checking of the books of accounts for the purpose of assessment for the year or within six months from such date with the permission of the next higher authority: Provided also that all assessments pending as on 31st March, 2013 shall be completed on or before the 31st March, 2014. Provided further that in case where any assessment completed under this Act has been reopened with the permission of the Commissioner, the time limit mentioned in section 19 shall not apply. Explanation. - For the purpose of the above proviso, it is clarified that the extension of time granted for completion of assessments is applicable in all cases where regular assessments have not been completed before the date fixed for completion of assessment in the respective years. (7) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (6), in cases where any investigation or inquiry is pending under this Act or any other law or where any assessment cannot be completed within the period specified under the said subsection, the Deputy Commissioner may, for good and sufficient reasons, extend the period of completion of the assessment beyond the period specified in that sub-section. (8) Any assessment or reassessment in pursuance of an order of an appellate or revisional authority shall, be completed within a period of four years from the expiry of the year in which the order was received. Provided that all such assessments or re-assessments pending as on the 31st March, 2013 shall be completed on or before the 31st March, 2014. Provided further that any modified assessment or modified re-assessment in pursuance of an order of the appellate or revisional authority shall be completed within a period of one year from the expiry of the year in which the order was received. Provided also that all such modified assessments or modified re-assessments or remanded assessments pending as on the 31st March, 2013 shall be completed on or before 31st March, 2014. (8A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (8) in case of any investigation or enquiry is pending under this Act or any other law, where any assessment can not be completed within the period specified under the said sub-section, the Commissioner may, for good and sufficient reasons, extend the period of completion of the assessment not exceeding a period of six months from the period specified in that subsection. (9) In computing the period for the completion of an assessment under this section the time during which the proceedings for assessment remained stayed under the orders of a court or other competent authority shall be excluded.

17A. Self Assessment.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in section 17, where the return submitted under the said section by any dealer, other than a dealer licenced under the Foreign Liquor rules to serve liquor falling under the schedule to this Act, is in the prescribed manner and accompanied by the prescribed documents, the return shall, subject to the provisions of section 18 and 19 be deemed to have been accepted as and when the assessing authority acknowledges the receipt of the return in such manner as may be prescribed.

17B. Special provision for completion of assessment.

- Notwithstanding Kerala Finance Bill, 2005 during the period from the first day of April, 2004 to the 27th day of July 2004, from any registered dealer after paying tax at the rates showing column (4) against the said serial numbers, such dealer shall pay tax on the re-sale or such goods at the rates mentioned in column (6) against such goods and the assessing authority shall complete the assessment under section 17 of the Act.

17C. Assessment in certain cases treated as completed.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in section 17, the assessment for the period upto the 31st day of March, 2005 in respect of any registered dealer, who falls under any of the categories mentioned in sub-section (4) of the said section as it stood on the 31st day of March, 2005 and who has filed returns and paid tax in accordance with the provisions thereof, pending on the 1st day of April, 2006 shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), be treated as completed.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) where the Commissioner or the Deputy Commissioner, as the case may be, is satisfied on information or otherwise, that a registered dealer,-(a)has concealed any sale or purchase; or(b)has furnished incorrect statement of his turnover or incorrect particulars of his sales, in the return submitted under section 17 or otherwise, relating to an assessment made under sub-section (1), which has resulted in reduction of the amount of tax payable by him under this Act in respect of any of the periods, the Commissioner or the Deputy Commissioner, as the case may be, shall, within five years from the 1st day of April, 2006, direct the assessing authority to reopen the assessment for such period after giving such dealer a reasonable opportunity of being heard and to make fresh assessments following the procedure under sub-section (3) of section 17, for that period to the best of his judgement and the time limit specified under section 19 shall not apply to such fresh assessment.(3)Where on reopening of an assessment under subsection (2), it is found that the amount of tax, if any, paid by a dealer is less than the amount of tax, which he is liable to pay on such fresh assessment, the assessing authority shall direct such dealer to pay the difference between the amount of tax already paid and that arrived at on such fresh assessment, together with thrice the amount of such difference as penalty:Provided that no penalty shall be imposed under this sub-section on a registered dealer, in respect of such period, where such dealer voluntarily discovers omissions or errors or other facts resulting in short payment of tax due from him according to books of accounts and furnishes revised return, together with proof of payment of the balance amount of tax and interest under sub-section (3) of section 23, which is found to be payable, on or before the 31st day of December, 2006.

18. Visit to dealer's premises and audit of accounts and other records to designated officers and audit assessment.

(1)The Commissioner may designate any officer not below the rank of a Deputy Commissioner to conduct audit visit at the business place of any dealer and audit the books of accounts, any other records or stock statements and goods relating to the business, either by himself or through audit officers, following such procedures as may be prescribed.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of this Act, if any dealer,-(a)is found on audit of his books of accounts, other records or otherwise to have submitted incorrect or incomplete return for any period or(b)fails to make available any accounts or other accounts or other records required by the designated officer or audit officer for audit in the business place of the dealer.(c)fails to prove the claim of any exemption or reduction in rate of tax claimed by him in the return, the audit officer or other Officer authorized by the designated officer, may, after conducting such enquiry as he may deem necessary reject the return and complete the assessments to the best of his judgement.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), the designated officer may, on his own motion or on a reference being made to him by the assessing authority or on application by the assessee, call for and examine the records of any proceeding in which an assessment is pending and, if he considers that, having regard to the nature of the case or the amount involved or for any other reason, it is necessary so to do, he may issue such directions as he thinks fit for the guidance of the assessing authority to enable him to complete the assessment, and such directions shall be binding on the assessing authority. Provided that no direction, which is prejudicial to the assessee, shall be issued before an opportunity is given to the assessee of being heard.

19. Assessment of escaped turnover.

(1)Where for any reason the whole or any part of the turnover of business of a dealer has escaped assessment to tax in any year or has been under assessed or has been assessed at a rate lower than the rate at which it is assessable or any deduction has been wrongly made there from, the assessing authority may, at any time within five years from the expiry of the year to which the tax relates, proceed to determine to the best of its judgement the turnover which has escaped assessment to tax or has been under assessed or has been assessed at a rate lower than the rate at which it is assessable or the deduction that has been wrongly made and assess the tax payable on such turnover after issuing a notice on the dealer and after making such enquiry as it may consider necessary:Provided that before making an assessment under this sub-section the dealer shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.Provided further that the time limit mentioned in this sub-section shall not apply where the turnover which escaped assessment relates to business done by such dealer as benamidar or through a benami or where it relates to dealer, who being liable to get himself registered under this Act and the rules made there under has failed to do so.(2)In making an assessment under sub-section (1), the assessing authority may, if it is satisfied that the escape from assessment is due to willful non-disclosure of assessable turnover by the dealer, direct the dealer to pay, in addition to the tax assessed under sub-section (1) a penalty as provided in section 45A. Provided that no such penalty shall be imposed unless the dealer affected has had a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such imposition. Explanation. - Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, the burden of proving that the escape from assessment was not due to willful non-disclosure of assessable turnover by the dealer shall be on the dealer. (3) The powers under sub-section (1) may be exercised by the assessing authority even though the original order of assessment, if any, passed in the matter, has been the subject matter of an appeal or revision. (4) In computing the period of limitation for the purposes of this section, the time during which the proceedings for assessment remained stayed under the orders of a Civil court or other competent authority shall be excluded.

19A. Assessment in cases of price variation.

(a) if a dealer receives in any year any amount due to price variations, which would have been included in his turnover for any previous year if it had been received by him in that year, he shall within thirty days from the end of the year in which such amount is received, submit a return in the prescribed form to the assessing authority and thereupon the assessing authority shall proceed to assess the tax payable on such amount; (b) if the assessing authority is satisfied that any return submitted under clause (a) is correct and complete, it shall assess the dealer on the basis thereof; (c) if the return submitted by a dealer under clause (a) appears to the assessing authority to be incorrect or incomplete, the assessing authority shall, after making such inquiry as it may consider necessary and after taking into account all relevant materials gathered by it, assess the dealer to the best of its judgement. Provided that before taking action under this clause the dealer shall be given a reasonable opportunity to prove the correctness and completeness of the return. (d) if no return is submitted by the dealer under clause (a), the assessing authority may within four years from the expiry of the period within which such return ought to have been submitted proceed to assess the tax payable on the amount referred to in the said clause: Provided that before making any assessment under this clause, the assessing authority shall give the dealer an opportunity of being heard and make such other inquiry, as it considers necessary.

19B. Assessment in case of under valuation.

(1) If the assessing authority is satisfied that a dealer has, with a view to evade the payment of tax, shown in his accounts, sale or purchase of any goods at prices lower than the prevailing market price of such goods, it may estimate the value of each goods, on the basis of the prevailing market price and assess or reassess the dealer to the best of its judgement, after making such enquiry as it may consider necessary and after affording the dealer a reasonable opportunity of being heard. (2) The provisions of sub-sections (2) to (4) of section 19 shall apply to the assessment or reassessment under subsection (1).

19C. Protective assessment.

- Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any judgement, decree, order, direction or decision of any Court, Tribunal or other Authority, where the assessing authority has reason to believe that any person is, or was carrying on business in the name of, or in association with any other person, either directly, or indirectly, whether as agent, employee, manager, power of attorney holder, guarantor or in any other capacity, such person and the person in whose name the registration certificate, if any, is taken, shall jointly and severally, be liable for the payment of the taxes, penalty or other amount due under this Act which shall be assessed, levied and recovered from all or any of such person or persons as if such person or persons are dealers: Provided that before taking action under this section, the persons concerned shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

20. Assessment of legal representatives.

- Where a dealer dies, his executor, administrator, or other legal representative shall be deemed to be the dealer for the purposes of this Act, and the provisions of this Act shall apply to him in respect of the business of the said deceased dealer, provided that, in respect of any tax, fee or other amount assessed as payable by any such dealer or levied on him or any tax, fee or other amount which would have been payable by him under this Act if he had not died, the executor, administrator or other legal representative shall be liable only to the extent of the assets of the deceased in his hands.

21. Liability of firms.

(1) Where any firm is liable to pay any tax, fee or other amount under this Act, the firm and each of the partners of the firm shall be jointly and severally liable for such payment. (2) Where a partner of a firm liable to pay any tax, fee or other amount under this Act retires, he shall, notwithstanding any contract to the contrary, be liable to pay the tax, fee or other amount remaining unpaid at the time of his retirement and any tax, fee or other amount due up to the date of retirement, though unassessed.

21A. Firm dissolved or business discontinued.

(1) Where any business carried on by a firm is discontinued or where a firm is dissolved, the assessing authority shall make an assessment of the taxable turnover of, and determine the tax payable by, the firm as if no such discontinuance or dissolution had taken place, and all the provisions of this Act, including the provisions relating to levy of penalty or any other amount payable under any provisions of this Act, shall apply, so far as may be, to such assessment and determination. (2) Without prejudice to the generality of sub-section (1), if the assessing authority in the course of any proceedings under Section 49 in respect of any such firm as is referred to in that sub-section is satisfied that the firm was guilty of willful nondisclosure of assessable turnover, it may direct payment of a penalty in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2) of that section. (3) Every person who was, at the time of such discontinuance or dissolution a partner of the firm and the legal representative of any such person who is deceased, shall be jointly and severally liable, for the amount of tax, penalty or other amount payable, and all the provisions of this Act shall apply, so far as may be, to any such assessment or direction for payment of penalty or other amount.(4)Where such discontinuance or dissolution takes place after any proceedings in respect of any year have commenced, the proceedings may be continued against the persons referred to in sub-section (3) from the stage at which the proceedings stood at the time of such discontinuance or dissolution, and all the provisions of this Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly.(5)Nothing in this section shall effect the provisions of section 20.

22. Collection of tax by dealers.

(1)A registered dealer may, subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), collect the tax payable by him on the sale of any goods from the person to whom he sells the goods and pay over the same after giving set off to the entry tax, if any already paid to the Government in the manner prescribed.(2)No registered dealer shall collect any sum purporting to be by way of tax: -(a)on the sale of any goods:(i)in respect of which he is not liable to pay tax; or(ii)at a rate exceeding the rate at which he is liable to pay tax; or(b)in respect of the purchase of any goods, whether or not he is liable to pay tax on such purchase.Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply to the collection of an amount by a registered dealer towards the amount of tax already paid under this Act in respect of goods, the sale or purchase price of which is controlled by any law in force and the retail price fixed for such goods under such law is not inclusive of such tax.(3)No person other than a registered dealer shall collect any sum by way of, or purporting to be by way of tax under this Act.(4)Where any dealer fails to pay any tax collected by him under sub-section (1) to the Government, any person or persons responsible for such collection on behalf of the dealer including a Director, Manager, Secretary or other officers of a company shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of such amounts to the Government forthwith as if it were a tax due from him.Explanation. - For the purposes of this section:(a)"company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals, or a Co-operative society; and(b)"Director" in relation to a firm, means partner in the firm.(5)The Central Government, Government of Kerala, the Government of any other States or any Union Territory (including departments of Central and State Governments) and local authorities shall collect tax at the rate or rates specified in the Schedule to the Act in respect of any sale of goods effected by them and the tax so collected shall be remitted to Government in the Commercial Taxes Department on or before the 10th day of the succeeding month.(6)If any officer responsible for collection of tax fails to do so or fails to remit the tax so collected under sub-section (5) such officer shall be personally liable to Government for such amount together with interest and such amounts shall be liable to be recovered from him as if it were arrears of revenue due on land recoverable from him.

23. Payment and recovery of tax.

(1)The tax assessed or any other amount demanded under this Act shall be paid in such manner and in such installments, if any, and within such time, as may be specified in the notice of demand, not being less than twenty-one days from the date of service of the notice.
