(5) The amount of fee shall be deposited in the following head of account: "0070-Other Administrative Services - 60-Other Services - 800- Other receipts - 11-Receipts under Right to Information Act, 2005."

6. Registration and disposal of complaints.

(1) Any person may file a complaint with the Commission in accordance with The provisions of section 18 of the Act. (2) A complaint should be typed, printed or written neatly and legibly and should be filed in three copies. (3) A complaint should be submitted in Form 10. A complainant may file a complaint drafted on plain paper containing all details as required in Form 10. (4) All necessary documents in support of the complaint should be annexed to the complaint. (5) Every complaint shall be examined by the Registrar. If the Registrar is of the view that the complaint is not in accordance with the provisions of the Rules, he shall return the complaint to the complainant, pointing out the defect(s) therein for the removal of defect(s), and enter the details thereof in a register maintained for the purpose in Form 11. If the Registrar is of the view that the complaint is in accordance with the provisions of the Rules, he shall cause the complaint to be numbered and entered in a register maintained for the purpose in Form 12. (6) After a complaint has been registered, the Registrar shall forward it to the Chief Information Commissioner or the Information Commissioner having jurisdiction over the matter. (7) The Commission shall allot a case number to the complaint and fix the date for the first hearing of the complaint. (8) The Commission shall issue notices to the complainant and the State Public Information Officer concerned at least 15 days before the date fixed for the hearing. A copy of the complaint shall also be sent to the State Public Information Officer directing him to submit his written statement in two copies by the date fixed. (9) On the date of hearing of the complaint, a copy of the written statement of the State Public Information Officer shall be furnished to the complainant for his submission, if any. After consideration of the contents of the complaint, the written statement of the State Public Information Officer and the submission made by the parties at the hearing, if the Commission is of the view that no reasonable grounds exist to inquire into the matter, it shall dismiss the complaint. The Commission, if it is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to inquire into the matter, may initiate an inquiry in respect thereof, such inquiry to be conducted in accordance with the provisions of sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 18 of the Act and these Rules.

7. Registration and disposal of appeals.

(1) Any person who does not receive a decision from a State Public Information Officer within the prescribed time, or is aggrieved by a decision of a State Public Information Officer, as the case may be, may within the prescribed time, prefer an appeal to such officer who is designated as the First Appellate Authority. The appeal shall be submitted in the format given in Form 13. An appellant may file an appeal drafted on plain paper containing all details as required in Form 13. The First Appellate Authority shall dispose off the appeal in accordance with sub-sections (1) and (2) of section 19 of the Act and Rules. (2) Any person aggrieved by an order passed by the First Appellate Authority or by non-disposal of his appeal within the prescribed period by the First Appellate Authority, may file a second appeal within the prescribed time to the Commission in Form 14. An appellant may file a second appeal drafted on plain paper containing all details as required in Form 14. Such appeal shall be accompanied by the following documents duly verified as true copies by the appellant: (i) a copy of the request for information submitted to the State Public Information Officer under sub-section (1) of section 6 of the Act; (ii) a copy of the reply received, if any, from the State Public Information Officer; (iii) a copy of the appeal made to the First Appellate Authority under sub-section (1) of section 19 of the Act; (iv) a copy of the order, if any, received from the First Appellate Authority; (v) copies of other documents relied upon by the appellant and referred to in his appeal; and (vi) a certificate of the appellant that no appeal on the same ground(s) against the same First Appellate Authority was filed by him earlier. An appeal to the Commission should be typed, printed or written neatly and legibly, and should be filed in three copies. (3) Service of notice by the Commission. - Every appeal filed with the Commission shall be examined by the Registrar. If the Registrar is of the view that the appeal is not in accordance with the provisions of these rules, he shall return the appeal to the appellant, pointing out the defect(s) therein for the removal of the defect(s), and enter the details thereof in a register maintained for the purpose in Form 11. If the Registrar is of the view that the appeal is in accordance with the provisions of these rules, he shall direct that the appeal be numbered and entered in a register maintained for the purpose in Form 15. (4) After an appeal has been registered, the Registrar shall forward it to the Chief Information Commissioner or the Information Commissioner having jurisdiction over the matter. (5) Presence of parties during hearing on complaint or appeal. - The Commission shall allot a case number to the appeal and fix the date for the first hearing of the appeal. (6) Adjournment of hearing. - The Commission shall issue notices to the appellant, the State Public Information Officer and the First Appellate Authority concerned at least 15 days before the date fixed for the hearing. A copy of the appeal shall also be sent to the State Public Information Officer and the First Appellate Authority directing them to submit their written statements in two copies by the date fixed. (7) Transfer of a proceeding from one bench to another. - On the date of hearing of the appeal, a copy each of the written statements of the State Public Information Officer and the First Appellate Authority shall be furnished to the appellant for his submission, if any. After considering the contents of the appeal, the written statements of the State Public Information Officer and the First Appellate Authority, and the submission made by the parties at the hearing, the Commission, if it is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for consideration of the appeal, may fix a date for further hearing in respect thereof, such hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 19 of the Act and these rules. If the Commission is of the view that no reasonable grounds exist to further consider the appeal, it shall dismiss the appeal.(8) Recall of its order by the Commission on the ground of procedural defect. - The Commission, while hearing an appeal may-(i) receive oral evidence on oath or on affidavit from the appellant;(ii) receive oral evidence on oath or on affidavit from the State Public Information Officer and / or the First Appellate Authority;(iii) receive oral evidence on oath or on affidavit from third party or from any other person whose evidence is considered necessary;(iv) peruse or inspect documents, public records or copies thereof.

8. Withdrawal, amendment or abatement of complaint or appeal.

- In any hearing on a complaint or appeal the Commission may issue notice to any party by name in Form 16. The notice shall be served on the person concerned in any of the following modes:(i) service by the complainant, the appellant or the respondent as the case may be;(ii) by hand delivery (dasti) through process server;(iii) by registered-post or speed-post;(iv) by E-mail in case E-mail address is available.

9. Order of the Commission.

(1) During the course of hearing on a complaint or an appeal, the complainant or appellant may be present in the Commission either in person or through duly authorised representative. However, the Commission, if it deems necessary, may summon the complainant or appellant, as the case may be, to be present in person in the Commission on any specific date of hearing.(2) The State Public Information Officer against whom the complaint or appeal has been filed may be present voluntarily during the hearings. However, the Commission may at its discretion direct the State Public Information Officer to be present in person or appear through an authorized representative, provided he is an officer of sufficient seniority.

10. Procedure for realization of penalties imposed by the Commission.

- Any party to a hearing may make an application for adjournment of the hearing. The Commission, if it is of the view that the reason for seeking adjournment is just and sufficient, may grant adjournment.

Any party to a proceeding before the Commission may move an application before the Chief Information Commissioner praying for the transfer of the proceeding from the bench hearing it. The Chief Information Commissioner, after considering the comments, if any, of the Information Commissioner concerned on such application, may transfer the proceeding to another bench if he is of the view that there is sufficient ground for such transfer. Further, an Information Commissioner may request the Chief Information Commissioner to transfer any proceeding pending before him to another bench, and the Chief Information Commissioner may transfer such proceeding to another bench if he is of the view that there is sufficient ground for such transfer.

12. Secretary of the Commission.

(1) The Commission, on an application submitted by any party aggrieved by an order of the Commission, may recall its order on the ground of any of the following procedural defects: (i) The order was passed by the Commission without hearing the applicant for no fault of his; or (ii) The Commission heard and decided the matter on a date other than the one fixed for hearing of the same and the applicant could not attend the hearing for no fault of his. (2) The applicant may submit recall application within thirty days from the date of knowledge of the order of the Commission. (3) If the Commission is of the view that prima facie there is no merit in the application, it may reject the recall application. (4) If the Commission is of the view that the matter requires hearing then before passing any order on such recall application, the Commission shall issue notice to all parties to the proceeding to give them an opportunity of being heard.

13. Registrar of the Commission.

(1) During the hearing on any complaint or appeal, the Commission may, on a request made by the complainant or appellant, as the case may be, allow the complaint or appeal to be withdrawn. (2) The Commission may, if it finds it just and proper, allow a prayer for any amendment of a complaint, appeal or written statement during the course of hearing, on any such prayer made in writing by the related party. (3) The proceedings pending before the Commission on any complaint or appeal shall abate on the death of the complainant or appellant, as the case may be.

14. Seal and emblem.

- On conclusion of the hearing on any complaint or appeal, the Commission shall pass orders thereon either on the same date or on any future date fixed for the purpose and communicated to the parties. Every such order of the Commission shall be signed and dated by the Commissioner who had heard the complaint or appeal.

15. Language of the Commission.

(1) The Commission may, at the time of deciding any complaint or appeal, impose penalty on a State Public Information Officer in accordance with the provisions of section 20 of the Act. (2) A copy of the order of the Commission imposing penalty on a State Public Information Officer shall be forwarded to the Registrar. After receipt of such order, the Registrar shall enter the details thereof in a register maintained for the purpose in Form-17.(3)The penalty order shall be conveyed by the Registrar vide a letter in Form-18, to the controlling authority concerned for recovery of the penalty amount from the salary of the State Public Information Officer and for the deposit of this amount in the following head of account, by the date fixed:"0070-Other Administrative Services- 60-Other Services- 800- Other receipts- 15-Penalties imposed under Right to Information Act, 2005."(4)The Government shall make necessary arrangements to ensure recovery of the penalty amount from the State Public Information Officer concerned in compliance of the order of the Commission.(5)The Registrar shall be responsible for following up each such matter in which the Commission has imposed penalty on any State Public Information Officer, till compliance report is received.
