Constitution of a Board of Managers and its functions

5. Constitution of a Board and its functions.

(1) There shall be a Board of Managers in respect of each Association to carry on and manage the affairs and business of the Association and to exercise all such powers of the Association as are not required to be exercised by the Association in a general meeting. (2) The number of Managers of a Board shall be equal to one-third of the number of the apartment owners of the property concerned but in no case it shall be less than three or more than twenty-four. Explanation (a) Where, in a property, a person owns more apartments than one, he shall, for the purpose of this clause, be deemed to be one apartment owner. (b) While computing, for the purpose of this clause, one-third of the number of apartment owners of a property, a fraction exceeding one-half shall be deemed to be one whole. (3) Within fifteen days of formation of an Association under clause (2) of bye-law 3, the apartment owner presiding over the general meeting referred to in the said clause shall serve notice upon each member of such Association fixing therein the date (not before fifteen days from the date of issue of such notice) on which and the time and place at which a special general meeting shall be held for election of the Managers of the Board of such Association by secret ballot in such manner as may be decided at the said meeting. (4) The service of the notice referred to in clause (3) shall be effected by personal service or through letter sent by registered post. (5) After the Managers of the Board are elected as aforesaid, the Board shall, within ten days of the date of election of its Managers, hold its first meeting and elect its President who shall forthwith forward the names of the President and of the Managers of the Board in Form No. 3 to the Competent Authority, which shall cause those names to be entered in the relevant register to be maintained in its office for the purpose.

6. Meeting of a Board.

(1) A Board shall meet at least once a month and shall be presided over by its President and in his absence, by a Manager to be elected by the Managers present in the meeting. (2) (a) A Board shall meet on such date, at such time and place and after giving such notice and shall observe such rules or procedure in regard to the transaction of its business at its meeting as may be determined by such Board. (b) On the written requisition of at least one-third of Managers of the Board at the initiative of the President, special meeting of the Board may be held after serving clear three days' written notice to each Manager, stating therein the date, place, time and purpose of the meeting. (3) No business shall be transacted at a meeting of a Board unless there is present at such meeting at least one-third of its Managers, subject to a minimum of two. (4) (a) All questions which come up before any meeting of a Board shall be decided by a majority of votes of the Managers present and voting, and in the event of equality of votes, the President and in his absence the Manager presiding shall have and exercise a second or casting vote. (b) The minutes of all the meetings of the Board shall be recorded by the Secretary and duly signed by the President or the Manager presiding over the meeting, as the case may be.

7. Retirement of Managers.

The number of Managers of the Board who shall retire annually shall be the same as the number of members constituting the Board.

8. Removal of Managers.

(a) A Manager may be removed from office at any special general meeting of the Association, convened on the requisition of the Board, by a vote of the majority of the apartment owners present and thereupon a successor shall be elected from among the apartment owners at that meeting. The Manager so elected shall remain in office for the residue of the term of the Manager on whose removal he has been elected. (b) Any other casual vacancy in the office of any elected Manager by resignation or death shall be filled up by the remaining Managers by cooption of a Manager within six weeks from the date of the vacancy. The Manager so co-opted shall retire at the next annual general meeting and the vacancy shall be filled up by election of a Manager for the remaining period of the term, if any, of the Manager in whose place the vacancy originally occurred.

9. Disqualifications for being Managers.

(1) Any apartment owner, who fails to pay by the 31st January in any financial year any instalment of his contribution towards the common expenses which may have been assessed by the concerned Association in that financial year, shall not be entitled (a) to vote at any election of the Managers of the Board concerned, and (b) to seek election for the office of the Managers of the Board concerned, till all his arrears are cleared. (2) An apartment owner who has not attained the age of 21 years shall not be qualified for election as a Manager. 10. Powers and duties of the Boards.

(1) Subject to the final authority of the Association in general meeting it shall be the duty of a Board to do all such acts and things and take all such steps as may be necessary and expedient for carrying out the purpose of the Act and the bye-laws, and, in particular, it shall be directly responsible for (i) the care, up-keep, maintenance, repairs and replacement of the common areas and facilities including the limited common areas and facilities of the property concerned, as referred to in sub-section (2) of section 13; (ii) the collection of money, including arrears, due from each apartment owner on account of monthly assessment made by the Association concerned for payment towards common expenses; (iii) the collection of monthly rents out of the common areas and facilities let out for shopping, commercial or other purposes, as specified in the Declaration submitted under section 2 read with section 10; (iv) the proper maintenance of the funds and accounts of the Association concerned, and, if necessary, for the building up of a reserve fund out of the common profits left over after meeting the common expenses; (v) securing and furthering the interests of the Association concerned in every possible way; (vi) hearing and dealing with all complaints. (2) A Board, subject to any direction of the Association in general meeting, shall (i) receive and disburse money, sanction working expenses, ensure regular and day-to-day maintenance of the cash book under the supervision of the Treasurer and make arrangements for daily verification of the cash balance; (ii) enter the accounts of the Association concerned in proper book timely and regularly, and make provisions for inspection thereof from time to time; (iii) maintain the accounts of the money received and expended for and on behalf of the Association concerned and the accounts of the assets and the liabilities thereof; (iv) prepare and place before the annual general meeting of the Association an annual report, an audited annual financial statement and annual budget estimate;(v)prepare all statements, accounts and returns and comply with all other requisitions, as may be made by the auditor for the purpose of auditing the accounts of the Association;(vi)remove and rectify all defects and irregularities pointed out at the audit;(vii)convene a special general meeting of the Association on requisition referred to in clause (5) of bye-law 4;(viii)convene annual general meeting of the Association in due time;(ix)realise and enforce realisation of all dues of the Association and meet all its liabilities;(x)let out common areas and facilities for earning common profits, settle terms and conditions for such letting out, and revoke and alter such terms and conditions from time to time, as may be necessary;(xi)enter into all such agreements and make all such arrangements as may be necessary for the proper and effective maintenance, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities and make payments therefor;(xii)institute,,defend, or compound any legal proceedings for and against the Association or the property and for any offence of contravention or breach of any provision of the Act or the bye-laws;(xiii)improve the conditions of general welfare of the apartment owners, within the scope of the Act and the bye-laws;(xiv)maintain an up-to-date Register of apartment owners in Form No. 4;(xv)perform any other duty or discharge any other function as the Association in general meeting may direct under the Act and the bye-laws.

11. Election of Officers, appointment of Staff and removal of Officers.

(1)Election of officers. (a) In addition to the President, the principal officers of an Association shall, in addition to the Secretary, elect a Treasurer and such other officers as may be necessary all of whom including the Secretary shall be elected by and from the Board, and hold office during the pleasure of the Board. The election of these officers shall be held annually at the first meeting of each Board after the annual retirement [* * * *] [Omitted by Notification No. 111-HIV/R 25/89, dated 23.02.2010 w.e.f. 25.02.2010.] of the Managers and the election of new Managers in their places. A Manager shall, however, be eligible for being re-elected as President, Secretary or any other officer.(b)The President shall after each election forward the names of the elected officers of the Association with their respective designation in Form No. 5 to the Competent Authority who shall cause the said names to be recorded in the relevant register to-be maintained for the purpose.(c)The Managers of a Board including its President, Secretary and Treasurer may be paid honorarium for attending the meetings of the Board or any other business in connection with the affairs of the Association at such rates and under conditions as it may determine from time to time subject to the approval of the Association.(2)Appointment of staff (a) A Board may appoint other officers and employees to assist it in efficient discharge of its business under the Act and these bye-laws. Such officers and employees may be paid such remuneration or allowances as may be determined by the Board.(b)A Board shall, subject to the approval of the Association determine the terms and conditions of service of its officers and employees referred to in sub-clause (a).(3)Removal of officers. (a) The President, Secretary, Treasurer or any other elected officer of a Board may be removed from such office by vote of not less than two-thirds of the Managers of the said Board in the meeting that shall be specially convened for the purpose by the President of the said Board on the requisition of at least one-third of the Managers of such Board:Provided that the President or any other officer whose removal has been proposed shall be given an opportunity of being heard at the meeting specially convened for the purpose.(b)When an officer has been removed at meeting, the Board shall thereupon at the said meeting elect a new officer in place of the officer removed, from amongst the existing Managers of the Board, and shall forward the name of the officer so elected, to the Competent Authority for its record.

12. Resignation of Officers.

The President, Secretary or any other elected officer may resign his office any time by a notice to the Board. On receipt of the notice the Board shall as early as possible at a meeting consider the matter and on the resignation being accepted shall forthwith elect another officer from amongst the Managers of the Board in place of one who has resigned.

13. Delegation of powers by a Board.

(1) The President, Secretary, Treasurer and other officers appointed by a Board shall exercise such powers, perform such duties and discharge such functions as may be assigned to them by such Board from time to time. (2) Subject to the provisions of the Act and of these bye-laws, a Board may delegate such of its powers, duties and functions to its President, Secretary or other officers, as it may think fit, in the interest of efficient discharge of its business for the administration of the property, provided that the President shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Association and shall exercise general control and supervision of the affairs and officers of the Association and the Board,

14. Constitution of Sub-Committee.

(1) A Board may, from time to time, constitute, if necessary, sub-committees from amongst its Managers and other apartment owners for general or specific purposes to assist it in the efficient discharge of its functions under the Act and the bye-laws. (2) The reports or views of the sub-committee shall be received by the Board and considered at its meeting as early as possible for such action as may be thought fit.

15. Office of Board.

A Board may, subject to the approval of the Competent Authority, set up its office at such place or places, as it may think suitable.

16. Budget and supplementary estimate.

The Board shall, before the 1st day of February each year, cause to be prepared and submitted before the annual general meeting of the Association a budget estimate showing in details anticipated income and expenditure of the Association under different heads for the next financial year, and the annual general meeting of the Association shall consider and approve the budget with such additions, alterations or modifications, if any, as it may deem fit: Provided that in the financial year in which an Association is formed and its Board is constituted, a budget estimate for the year or part of the year, showing in details the anticipated income and expenditure of the Association under different heads including the assessment that may be levied by the Association on its members for payment towards common expenses and other receipts, if any, shall be prepared and submitted by the Board, within thirty days from the date of election of the President, Secretary and Treasurer, before a special meeting of the Association, and the said meeting shall expeditiously consider and approve the budget with such addition, alteration and modification, if any, as it may deem fit: Provided further that the Board may at any time during the year and part of the year for which any budget estimate has been approved, cause a supplementary budget estimate, if necessary, to be prepared and submitted to a general meeting of the Association specially convened for the purpose for approval in the same manner as in the case of an original budget estimate.

Chapter IV

Accounts and Audit

17. Finance, Audit and Accounts.

(1) Each Association shall have a fund to be called the Apartment Owners' Association Fund to which shall be credited-(a)all the dues of the Association, on account of any assessment or otherwise, collected from its members, or on account of any rent collected from its tenants;(b)any amount by way of advance, grant, donation, loan or otherwise, received or raised by the Association; and(c)any other amount due, payable, or made over, to the Association.(2)Loans may be raised by an Association subject to the approval of the Competent Authority on such terms and conditions as the Competent Authority may impose.(3)An account shall be opened in the State Bank of India or in any Nationalised Bank, in the name of the aforesaid fund and all the money of the said fund shall be deposited in the said bank to the credit of the aforesaid fund and such account be operated by the President and the Treasurer jointly, and payments above rupees twenty shall be made by cheques:Provided that the Treasurer may, for defraying petty expenses, retain such amount of cash in his hands as the Association from time to time decides.(4)The funds of the Association may be invested to any of the securities specified in section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882 (2 of 1882) or in any other manner approved by the Competent Authority.(5)(a)The accounts of the aforesaid fund shall be maintained in such manner, as may be directed by the Association from time to time, and be audited within three months from the end of each financial year, by an auditor to be appointed by the Association.(b)A copy of the audited accounts of each Association along with auditor's report thereon shall be expeditiously forwarded to the Competent Authority, and the said Authority shall have the power to issue directions to the Association or the Board from time to time with reference to such report and such directions shall be binding upon the Association and the Board,(6)(a)An Association shall, as soon as may be, establish reserve fund out of the common profits, if any;(b)the reserve fund shall belong to the Association and be indivisible and no member shall have any claim to a share in it;(c)the reserve fund may be used for any purpose that may be sanctioned by the two-thirds majority of the members of the Association, if the Competent Authority so permits;(d)the reserve fund may be invested in any of the ways referred to in clause (4).

18. Pass Book of Apartment Owners.

Each apartment owner shall have a separate Pass Book for each year in which the Secretary shall enter (a)the amounts received by him during the year from the apartment owner;(b)amounts of the apartment owner's contribution payable by him for the year towards the common expenses;(c)amounts payable by the apartment owner for the year on account of assessment made by the Association and on any other account; and(d)the apartment owner's share for the year in the common profits, if any.

19. Publication of audited Annual Financial Statement.

Chapter V

Assessment of common expenses by Association and realisation thereof

20. Assessment of the share of common expenses.

(1) Every apartment owner of the property shall be assessed with such sum, being his share of the common expenses for the year as may be determined by the Association concerned to defray the common expenses which may include an insurance premium and any repair and reconstruction work in case of hurricane, fire, earthquake or any other kind of hazard or calamity.(2)The assessment in clause (1) shall be made pro rata according to the value of the apartment unit as specified in the Declaration in pursuance of the provision of clause (g) of sub-section (1) of section 10.

21. Payment of common expenses.

The assessed sum on account of common expenses shall be payable by each apartment owner in equal monthly or quarterly instalments, as determined by the Association concerned, within fifteen days from the expiry of the month or the quarter, as the case may be.

2. Manner of payment of common expenses.

Every apartment owner shall pay to the Treasurer the sum payable by him on account of the assessment made upon him by the Association concerned within such period and in such manner as the Association may direct and the Treasurer shall, on receiving such payment, issue receipts in respect thereof.

23. Preparation and publication of list of defaulters.

At a meeting of the Board at the end of a month or a quarter, as the case may be, the position of realisation of the sums assessed on account of common expenses shall be reviewed and a list of the defaulters shall be prepared and published in a conspicuous place of the office of the Board with a notice for payment of the arrears within fifteen days from the date of the notice.

24. Steps to be taken for realisation of arrears.

If the arrears be not paid within the period referred to in bye-law 23, the next meeting of the Board will consider the case of the defaulters individually and will take such steps for realisation, as may be considered necessary, including the prosecution of the defaulting apartment owner for noncompliance with, and breach of, the provisions of Act and the bye-laws.

Chapter VI

Other duties and obligations of the Apartment Owners

25. Duties and liabilities of the Apartment Owners.

(1) Every apartment owner shall, on being directed by the Board, immediately undertake and complete all maintenance and repair work within his own unit, which, if delayed, is likely to affect the property concerned, wholly or in part, and he shall be solely responsible for the damage that his failure to undertake such work may cause to the said property or part thereof and shall also be liable on the said account for payment of damages as may be determined by the Board. (2) All the repairs, required to be effected in respect of the doors, windows, internal installations (including sanitary installations) in connection with, or in relation to water, light, gas, power sewage, televisions, air conditions, and all other kinds of accessories within the area of such apartment, shall be undertaken at the expenses of the owner of the apartment concerned. (3) The owner of an apartment shall reimburse the Association for any expenditure that may have been incurred by it for repairing or replacing anything pertaining to common areas and facilities, such repairing or replacing being required to be effected due to any damage caused by such apartment owner in respect of the common areas and facilities.
