Tamil Nadu Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion Into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Tamil Nadu Act 30 of 1963) Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Tamil Nadu Act 30 of 1963). - For Statement of Objects and Reasons, please see Part IV - Section 3 of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 27th April 1962, pages 80-81, for the Report of the Joint Select Committee, please see Part IV - Section 3 of the Fort St. George Extraordinary, dated the 14th August 1963, pages 189 to 223. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Amendment Act, 1964 (Tamil Nadu Act 33 of 1964). - The Madras Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Madras Act 30 of 1963) extends to the whole of the State of Madras, except the Kanyakumari district and the Shencottah taluk of the Tirunelveli district. The Government have decided that the Act should be extended to these excepted areas also, with suitable modifications. This Bill seeks to amend the Act so as to give effect to the above decision. Published in Part IV - Section 3 of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 26th March 1964. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) (Amendment) Act, 1966 (Tamil Nadu Act 26 of 1966). - According to section 8(2)(i)(b) of the Madras Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Madras Act 30 of 1963), in the case of lands in an iruvaram minor inam granted for the support or maintenance of a religious institution or for the performance of a charity or service connected therewith or of any other religious charity and alienated by such institution by way of sale, if the alienee is in exclusive possession of such land for a continuous period of twelve years immediately before the 1st April 1960, such person shall, with effect from the appointed day, be entitled to a ryotwari patta subject to the payment to the Government of a consideration equivalent to twenty times the difference between the fair rent in respect of such land determined in the manner laid down in the Schedule to the Act and the land revenue due on such land. Section 8(4) of the Act lays down that the amount specified in clause (i)(b) of sub-section (2) of section 8 is payable by the Government to the institution concerned within one year from the appointed day. The appointed day in relation to the whole of the State except the transferred territory of Kanyakumari district and the Shencottah taluk of the Tirunelveli district is the 15th February 1965 and in relation to the transferred territory is the 1st March 1965. It has been brought to the notice of the Government that it will not be possible to make the payment within the prescribed time limit of one year from the appointed day as the Assistant Settlement Officers will not be able to determine within that period the quantum of the amount after following the prescribed formalities and verification. The Government have, therefore, decided to Amend section 8 (4) of the Act so as to take power for the Government to prescribe the time limit by rules made by the Government. If the time limit as prescribed in the rules is found insufficient, the time limit can be extended by a mere amendment of the rules and no amendment of the Act will be necessary.² The Bill seeks to give effect to the above decision. Published in Part IV - Section 3 of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 28th October 1966. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Amendment Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 29 of 1971). - Under clause (d) of section 3 of the Tamil Nadu Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Tamil Nadu Act 30 of 1963), the Government may, after removing any obstruction that may be offered, forthwith take possession of the minor inam and all accounts, etc. But, under the proviso to the said clause (d), the Government shall not dispossess any person of any land in the minor inam in respect of which they consider that he is prima facie entitled to a ryotwari patta pending the decision of the appropriate authority under this Act as to whether such person is entitled to such patta. Rule 5 of the Tamil Nadu Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Rules, 1965, framed under the said Act prescribes the procedure for taking possession of land in an inam estate. The intention is that whoever is in actual possession of the land in a minor inam on the notified date should not be disturbed until it is decided by the appropriate authority under this Act as to whether such person is entitled to such patta. The Government consider that the existing provision regarding determination about prima facie entitlement to patta as now contained in clause (d) of section 3 of the said Act has led to complications. They also consider that when there is a special machinery provided for under the Act for deciding the question of grant of patta under section 11 of the said Act, it is unnecessary for the Tahsildar to conduct a parallel enquiry for deciding the very same question just to find out whether the person is prima facie entitled to ryotwari patta. It is also considered that if a person is dispossessed on the basis of a decision arrived at after following the procedure prescribed under rule 5 of the said rules, it is quite possible that his chances for getting a patta before the regular machinery provided by the Act will become remote in many cases. It is, therefore, proposed to recast the proviso to clause (d) of section 3 of the said Act so as to provide that the Government shall not dispossess any person who is personally cultivating any land in the minor inam, until the Assistant Settlement Officer and the Tribunal and the Special Appellate Tribunal, on appeal, if any, decide that such person is not actually entitled to a ryotwari patta in respect of that land under the provisions of this Act. A person is said to personally cultivate a land when he contributes his own physical labour or that of the members of his family in the cultivation of that land. The amendment is given retrospective effect from the date of the commencement of the principal Act.² The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects. Published in Part IV - Section 3 of the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 28th July 1971. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Inam Estates, Lease-holds and Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Amendment Act, 1975 (Tamil Nadu Act 22 of 1975). - Under clause (b) of section 3 of the Tamil Nadu Inam

Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Tamil Nadu Act 26 of 1963) and of the Tamil Nadu Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Tamil Nadu Act 30 of 1963), and under clause (b) of section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Leaseholds (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Tamil Nadu Act 27 of 1963), the entire inam estate, every minor inam and every lease-hold including tanks and irrigation works, among other things shall stand transferred to the Government and vest in them free of all encumbrances.² In a case relating to abolition of estates, the High Court has held that a tank which is the private property of the landholder will not vest in the Government under section 3(b) of the Tamil Nadu Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1948 (Tamil Nadu Act XXVI of 1948). It was, therefore, considered necessary that all tanks and ooranies (including private tanks and ooranies) should vest in the Government so that they could be maintained by the Government for public use. Provision has accordingly been made in the Tamil Nadu Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1948 (Tamil Nadu Act XXVI of 1948), for the above purpose by Tamil Nadu Act 49 of 1974. It has now been decided that all tanks and ooranies (including private tanks and ooranies) in inam estates, minor inams and lease-holds should also be deemed to have been vested in the Government from the notified date or the appointed, day, as the case may be, that no ryotwari patta shall be granted in respect of any such private tank or oorani and that any ryotwari patta already granted in respect of any such private tank or oorani shall stand cancelled, and compensation re-determined in respect of any such inam estate, minor inam or lease-hold.³ The Bill seeks to give effect to the above decision. Published in part IV-Section 1 of the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 24th October 1975. Received the assent of the President on the 28th January 1964 and first published in the Fort St. George Gazette, dated 5th February 1964. An Act to provide for the acquisition of the rights of inamdars in minor inams in the [State of Tamil Nadu] [Substituted for the expression 'State of Madras' by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1969, as amended by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws (Second Amendment) Order, 1969.] and the introduction of ryotwari settlement in such inams

Chapter V

Determination and Payment of Compensation

17. Compensation how determined.

- The compensation payable in respect of an inam shall be determined in accordance with the following provisions.

18. Compensation to be determined for the inam as a whole.

- The compensation shall be determined for each inam as a whole and not specify for each of the interests in the inam.

19. Scale of compensation.

- Except in the case governed by section 20, compensation shall be paid to the inamdar in accordance with the following provisions for the loss of income from all sources in the inam excluding the lands in respect of which any person is entitled to ryotwari patta under section 8 :- (i) The average annual miscellaneous revenue from the said sources shall be the average of the net annual income derived by the Government from the said sources during the fasli year commencing on the appointed day, if that day was the first day of July, or on the first day of July immediately succeeding the appointed day if that day was not the first day of July and the next fasli year in case ryotwari settlement is effected in that year or the next two fasli years in other cases. (ii) The compensation payable to any inamdar under this section shall be twenty times the average net annual miscellaneous revenue.

20. Payment of tasdik allowance to religious, educational or charitable institution.

(1) Where the inamdar of an iruvaram minor inam is a religious, educational or charitable institution, or an individual holding the inam on condition of rendering service to a religious, educational or charitable institution, the Government shall pay to the institution every fasli year commencing with the fasli year in which the appointed day falls, as a tasdik allowance an amount equal to the average net annual miscellaneous revenue as calculated under section 19. (2) Where the inamdar of a melvaram minor inam is a religious educational or charitable institution or an individual holding the inam on condition of rendering service to a religious, educational or charitable institution, the Government shall pay to the institution every fasli year commencing with the fasli year in which the appointed day falls, an amount equal to the net tasdik allowance as calculated under sub-section (3). (3) The net tasdik allowance shall be the difference between - (i) the aggregate of the tasdik allowance determined under sub-section (1) and of the appropriate fair rent in respect of the land covered by the minor inam, determined in accordance with the provisions contained in the Schedule; and (ii) the quit rent, jodi, kattubadi or other amount of a like nature, together with the cess and additional surcharge payable for the fasli year immediately before the appointed day in respect of the whole of the minor inam. (4) The payment shall be made to the institution under this section so long as it exists.

21. Service inams.

(1) The provisions of this section shall apply in respect of any minor inam which was held immediately before the appointed day by an individual (hereinafter referred to in this section as the service-holder) on condition of rendering service to a religious, educational or charitable institution.(2)The service-holder shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), be bound to continue to render the service after the appointed day.(3)(i)Where a service-holder is entitled to a ryotwari patta under section 8 in respect of any land, he shall have the option -(a)either to pay to the religious institution the amount specified in subsection (4) and on such payment the land shall, notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (7), be discharged from the condition of the service; or(b)to hold the land and continue to render service subject to the provisions contained in sub-sections (1), (2), (6) and (7).(ii)The option referred to in clause (i) shall be twenty times the difference between the fair rent in respect of such land determined in accordance with the provisions contained in the Schedule and the land revenue due on such land.(5)Where the service-holder has exercised his option to pay the amount specified in sub-section (4), the tasdik allowance referred to in sub-section (6) in respect of the period subsequent to the date of the exercise of such option shall be the absolute property of the institution and the institution shall be at liberty to make such arrangements as it thinks fit for the performance of the service.(6)(a)For so long as the service-holder renders the service, the institution shall pay to the service-holder the tasdik allowance paid by the Government under section 20.(b)If the service-holder fails to render the service, the prescribed officer shall, after such inquiry and after such notice to the service-holder as may be prescribed in this behalf, notify such failure in such manner as may be prescribed. He shall then declare that the tasdik allowance payable to the institution in respect of the period subsequent to the failure shall be the absolute property of the institution and the institution shall be at liberty to make such arrangement as it thinks fit for the performance of the service.(7)(a)For so long as the service-holder renders the service, he shall be entitled to occupy permanently the lands in respect of which he is entitled to a patta under section 8, subject however, to the payment of the assessment fixed [under section 16 or under section 16-A, as the case may be] [Substituted for the expression 'under section 16' by section 13 of the Tamil Nadu Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Amendment Act, 1964 (Tamil Nadu Act 33 of 1964).], in respect of such lands.(b)If the service-holder fails to render the service, the prescribed officer shall, after such inquiry and after such notice to the service-holder as may be prescribed in this behalf, notify such failure in such manner as may be prescribed. He shall then declare that the service-holder's right to occupy permanently the land under clause (a) shall cease and determine, and the institution shall be at liberty to make such arrangement as it thinks fit for the performance of the service and shall be entitled to hold the land as its absolute property subject, however, to the payment of the assessment fixed therefor [under section 16 or under section 16-A, as the case may be] [Substituted for the expression 'under section 16' by section 13 of the Tamil Nadu Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Amendment Act, 1964 (Tamil Nadu Act 33 of 1964).].Explanation I. - For the purposes of this section, -(i)service-holder includes his heirs;(ii)non-performance of the service due to illness or other temporary disability shall not be deemed to be failure to render service, provided that the service-holder makes alternative arrangements for rendering the service during the period of such illness or of other temporary disability.Explanation II. - For the purposes of sub-section (4), "land revenue" means the ryotwari assessment including the additional assessment, water-cess and additional water-cess.

22. Determination of compensation and tasdik allowance payable.

(1)The Settlement Officer shall, by order in writing, determine in respect of each inam, the compensation payable under section 19 or, as the case may be, the tasdik allowance payable under section 20.(2)Any inamdar or other person interested may, within such time as may be prescribed or such further time as the Settlement Officer may, in his discretion allow, apply in writing to that officer for a copy of the data on the basis of which he proposes to determine the tasdik allowance or compensation payable.(3)On receipt of such application, the Settlement Officer shall furnish the data aforesaid to the applicant; and he shall also, before passing any order under sub-section (1), give the applicant a reasonable opportunity of making his representations in regard thereto, in writing or orally.(4)A copy of every order passed under sub-section (1) shall be communicated to the inamdar and also to every applicant under sub-section (2).(5)(i)The Settlement Officer may, at anytime, either suo motu or on the application of any person, review an order passed by him under sub-section (1) on any one or more of the following grounds, namely :-(1)that the said order is vitiated by any clerical or arithmetical mistake or error apparent on the face of the record; or(2)that subsequent to the passing of the said order, data for the better calculation of the tasdik allowance or compensation have become available; or(3)that the said order requires to be modified in pursuance of the final order of any competent authority or Court:Provided that the Settlement Officer shall not exercise the powers under this sub-section in respect of any inam without giving the inamdar concerned and every applicant under this sub-section and sub-section (2), a reasonable opportunity of being heard.(ii)A copy of every order passed under this sub-section shall be communicated to the [Board of Revenue] [The Board of Revenue was abolished by the Tamil Nadu Board of Revenue Abolition Act, 1980 (Tamil Nadu Act 36 of 1980). Deposit and Apportionment of Compensation

24. Compensation to be deposited in office of the Tribunal.

(1) The Government shall deposit in the office of the Tribunal, the compensation payable under section 19 as finally determined under section 22 in such form and manner and at such time or times and in one or more instalments, as may be prescribed by rules made under section 23: Provided that the Government shall be entitled to deduct from the amount so deposited all moneys, if any, still remaining due to them -(i) in respect of quit-rent, jodi or other dues of a like nature, or (ii) in respect of any claim which was secured immediately before the appointed day by a mortgage of or a charge on, the inam or any portion thereof: Provided further that, where the amount of the compensation payable in respect of any inam stands altered after the deposit referred to above has already been made, the Government may deposit the difference or withdraw the same from the deposit already made or otherwise adjust the same, in such manner and at such time or times as may be prescribed and the provisions of sections 25, 26, 27, 28, 30 and 31 shall apply to the amount finally under deposit and to this extent the Tribunal or the Special Appellate Tribunal, as the case may be, shall be competent to revise its orders, if any, already passed. (2) On the making of such deposit, the Government shall be deemed to have been completely discharged in respect of all claims to, or enforceable against, the compensation aforesaid.

25. Claims to be made within three months.

(1) Every person making a claim to, or enforceable against, the compensation deposited under any of the provisions of this Act or any portion thereof, shall apply to the Tribunal within three months from the date on which the amount was deposited or within such further time not exceeding three months as the Tribunal may, in its discretion, allow. (2) Every claim to, or enforceable against, the compensation or any portion thereof which is not made to the Tribunal within the time aforesaid shall, - (i) in so far as it relates to the amount paid by the Tribunal under section 32; or (ii) subject to the provisions of section 35, in so far as it relates to the amount in respect of which an order for payment has been made by the Tribunal or the Special Appellate Tribunal in favour of any person, cease to be enforceable.

26. Duty of Tribunal.

- The Tribunal shall, after giving notice to all persons who have applied under section 25 and to any others whom it considers to be interested, make inquiry into the validity of the claims received by it, and determine the persons who, in its opinion, are entitled to the compensation deposited and the amount to which each of them is entitled.

27. Compensation to be apportioned by the Tribunal.

(1) As a preliminary to such determination, the Tribunal shall apportion the compensation among the inamdar and any other persons whose rights or interests in the inam stand transferred to the Government under clause (b) of section 3, or cease and determine under clause (c) of section 3, as far as possible, in accordance with the value of their respective interests in the inam. (2) The value of those interests shall be ascertained in accordance with such rules as may be made by the Government in this behalf. (3) After the compensation has been apportioned among the persons referred to in sub-section (1), or where it is more convenient so to do pending such apportionment, the Tribunal shall take into consideration the applications of creditors and decide the amount to which each of such creditors is entitled and the person or persons out of whose share or shares of the compensation such amount should be paid.

28. Devolution of interest in compensation.

- Where it is alleged that the interest of any person entitled to receive payment of any portion of the compensation has devolved on any other person or persons, whether by act of parties or by operation of law, the Tribunal shall determine whether there has been any devolution of the interest, and if so, on whom it has devolved.

29. Interim payments to inamdar and others.

(1) In cases falling under section 19, if the compensation payable is not finally determined and deposited in pursuance of this Act before the close of the fasli year in which the appointed day falls, interim payments in respect of the inam shall be deposited by the Government in the office of the Tribunal every fasli year prior to the falsi year in which the deposit is made.(2)In respect of the falsi year in which the appointed day falls, the interim payment to be deposited shall be one-twentieth of the compensation payable, as roughly estimated by the Government, after deducting therefrom the income from the inam actually derived by the inamdar before the appointed day in respect of that fasli year.(3)In respect of each of the subsequent falsi years, the interim payment to be deposited shall be one-twentieth of the compensation payable, roughly estimated as aforesaid.(4)The Government shall deposit all such amounts in the office of the Tribunal and the Tribunal shall, after such inquiry, if any, as it thinks fit apportion the amounts among the persons, entitled to any portion thereof, as far as possible in accordance with the value of their respective interests.(5)On the making of such a deposit, the Government shall be deemed to have been completely discharged in respect of all claims, to, or enforceable against, the amount so deposited.(6)after the compensation has been finally determined, the Government shall ascertain the aggregate interim payment which would have been due in respect of the inam under sub-sections (2) and (3) for the fasli years concerned, if the compensation as finally determined had been adopted instead of the compensation as roughly estimated.(7)If the aggregate interim payment thus determined exceeds the aggregate interim payment already deposited, the balance with interest thereon at three per cent per annum shall be deposited by the Government with the Tribunal along with the compensations finally determined.(8)If the aggregate interim payment determined under sub-section (6) is less than the aggregate amount already deposited, the excess amount deposited shall be deducted by the Government from the amount of compensation finally determined and the balance shall be deposited in the office of the Tribunal.(9)No interim payment made under this section shall be deemed to constitute any part of the compensation which the Government are liable to deposit under section 24, or to any extent to be in lieu of such compensation.(10)The Tribunal shall revise its apportionment of the interim payments with reference to the aggregate interim payment as finally determined by the Government and make the necessary adjustments when apportioning the compensation as fully determined.

30. Appeals.

(1)Against any decision of the Tribunal under sub-section (3) of section 11, the Government may, within six months from the date of the decision, and any person aggrieved by any decision of the Tribunal under sub-section (3) of section 11, section 26, section 27, section 28, or section 29 may, within three months from the date of the decision, appeal to the Special Appellate Tribunal consisting of two Judges of the High Court nominated, from time to time, by the Chief Justice in this behalf:Provided that the Special Appellate Tribunal may, in its discretion, allow further time not exceeding three months for the filing of such appeal.(2)The members of the Special Appellate Tribunal shall hear the appeal on all points, whether of law or of fact. Where on any such point or points the members are divided in their opinion, they shall state the point or points on which they are so divided and such point or points together with their opinion thereon shall then be laid before one or more Judges nominated for the purpose by the Chief Justice and such Judge or Judges shall hear the appeal in so far as it relates to such point or points and on each such point, the decision of the majority of the Judges who have heard the appeal including those who first heard it shall be deemed to be the decision of the Special Appellate Tribunal.(3)[The Special Appellate Tribunal shall, subject to the provisions of section 47-A] [Inserted by section 3(3) of the Tamil Nadu Inam Estates and Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Amendment Act, 1975 (Tamil Nadu Act 22 of 1975).], have the same powers as are vested in a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), when hearing an appeal.(4)Every decision of the Special Appellate Tribunal, and subject to such decision, every decision of the Tribunal, shall be binding on all persons claiming an interest in any inam land notwithstanding that any such person has not preferred any application or filed any statement or adduced any evidence or appeared or participated in any proceeding before the Tribunal or the Special Appellate Tribunal, as the case may be.

31. Restriction on the jurisdiction of Tribunal and Special Appellate Tribunal.

- In respect of compensation finally determined under section 22 and the interim payments made under section 29, the jurisdiction of the Tribunal and the Special Appellate Tribunal shall be limited to the apportionment thereof among the persons referred to in section 26 or sub-section (4) of section 29, as the case may be, and neither the Tribunal nor the Special Appellate Tribunal shall have jurisdiction to go into the question of the correctness of the determination or the adequacy of the compensation.

32. Disbursement of compensation.

- All payments made out of the compensation deposited in the office of the Tribunal under section 24 shall be made by it in accordance with its orders and decisions subject to the modifications, if any, made on appeal under section 30.

33. Interim payment to institutions.

(1)In cases falling under section 20, if the tasdik allowance payable under the section is not finally determined and paid in pursuance of this Act before the close of the fasli year in which the appointed day falls, interim payments in respect of each inam shall be made by the Government every falsi year prior to the falsi year in which the tasdik allowance as finally determined is paid.(2)In respect of the fasli year in which the appointed day falls, the interim payment to be made shall be the tasdik allowance payable under section 20 as roughly estimated by the Government after deducting therefrom the income from the inam actually derived by the inamdar before the appointed day in respect of that fasli year.(3)In respect of each of the subsequent falsi years, the interim payment to be made shall be the tasdik allowance payable under section 20 roughly estimated as aforesaid.(4)After the tasdik allowance has been finally determined, the Government shall ascertain the aggregate interim payment which would have been made in respect of the inam under sub-sections (2) and (3) for the fasli years concerned if the tasdik allowance as finally determined had been adopted instead of the tasdik allowance as roughly estimated.(5)If the aggregate interim payment determined under sub-section (4) exceeds the aggregate interim payment already made, the balance [] [The words 'with interest thereon at three per cent per annum' were omitted by section 14 of the Tamil Nadu Minor Inams (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Amendment Act, 1964 (Tamil Nadu Act 33 of 1964).] shall be paid by the Government to the inamdar.(6)If the aggregate interim payment determined under sub-section (4) is less than the aggregate interim payment already made, the excess amount paid shall be deducted from the tasdik allowance payable in any subsequent fasli year or years as the Government may direct.

34. Limitation for claims by persons entitled to payment.

- Every person in whose favour an order for payment has been made by the Tribunal shall make an application for payment within three months from the date of such order: Provided that the Tribunal may, within such further time not exceeding three months, as it may, in its discretion allow, admit a claim preferred after the period of three months aforesaid, if it is satisfied that the claimant had sufficient cause for not preferring the claim within that period: Provided further that, where an appeal has been filed before the Special Appellate Tribunal against the said order for payment, the aforesaid period of three months shall be reckoned from the date of the decision of the Special Appellate Tribunal on the appeal.

35. Unclaimed and undisbursed amounts how dealt with.

(1)(a) All amounts deposited in the office of the Tribunal under sub-section (1) of section 24, subsections (4) and (7) of section 29, and remaining unpaid and with reference to which no claim has been made within the time specified in sub-section (1) of section 25, or no application for payment has been made within the time specified in section 34; and (b) all amounts deposited as aforesaid and remaining unpaid after the expiry of a period of six months from the date of disposal of the application under section 34, shall be withdrawn by the Tribunal and deposited in the District Court having jurisdiction over the minor inam concerned in the name of the minor inam or, as the case may be, in the name of the person or persons in whose favour an order for payment has been made by the Tribunal or the Special Appellate Tribunal. (2) All amounts deposited by the Tribunal in the District Court under subsection (1) shall be dealt with by the District Court in accordance with such rules as may be made by the Government in this behalf. (3) Every person making a claim to, or enforceable against, any amount held in deposit under sub-section (1) shall apply to the District Court in the prescribed form setting forth his claim. (4) The District Court shall, after giving notice to all person who have applied under sub-section (3) and to any others whom it considers to be interested, make inquiry into the validity of the claims received by it and subject to the provisions of sub-section (5) determine the persons who are entitled to the amount held in deposit and the amount to which each of them is entitled. (5) Every order for payment made by the Tribunal or the Special Appellate Tribunal in favour of any person shall be binding on the District Court.

36. Wrong and excess payments to be recoverable as land revenue.

- Where any payment made to any person is subsequently found to be not due to him or to be in excess of the amounts due to him, the amount which is found to be not due or which is in excess, as the case may be, with interest thereon at three per cent per annum or any portion thereof which cannot be otherwise adjusted by deduction from any amount due to such person shall be recoverable as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

Chapter VII

Miscellaneous

37. Quite-rent, jodi and kattubadi.
