5. Promoter to maintain separate account of sums taken as advance or deposit and to be trustee therefor and disburse them for purposes for which given.

- The promoter shall maintain a separate account in any bank of sums taken, by him, from persons intending to take or who have taken flats, as advance or deposit including any sums so taken towards the share capital for the formation of co-operative society or a company, or towards the outgoings (including ground rent, if any, municipal or other local taxes, taxes on income, water charges, electricity charges, revenue assessment, interest on any mortgage or other encumbrances, if any); and he shall hold the said moneys for the purposes for which they were given and shall disburse the moneys for those purposes and shall on demand in writing by [a Competent Authority] [These words were substituted for the words 'an officer appointed by general or special order by the State Government for the purpose' by Maharashtra 4 of 2008, (w.e.f. 25-2-2008), Section 3.], make full and true disclosure of all transactions in respect of that account.

5A. [Competent Authority. [Section 5A was inserted by Maharashtra 4 of 2008, (w.e.f. 25-2-2008), Section 4.]

- The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint an officer, not below the rank of the District Deputy Registrar of Co-operative Societies, to be the Competent Authority, for an area or areas to be specified in such notification and different officers may be appointed as Competent Authority for different local areas, for the purposes of exercising the powers and performing the duties under Sections 5, 10 and 11 of this Act.]

6. Responsibility for payment of outgoings till property is transferred.

- A promoter shall, while he is in possession, and where he collects from persons who have taken over flats or are to take over flats' sums for the payment of outgoings even thereafter, pay all outgoings (including ground rent, municipal or other local taxes, taxes on income, water charges, electricity charges, revenue assessment, interest on any mortgage or other encumbrances, if any), until he transfers the property to the persons taking over the flats, or to the organisation of any such persons [Where any promoter fails to pay all or any of the outgoings collected by him from the persons who have taken over flats or are to take over flats, before transferring the property to the persons taking over the flats or to the organisation of any such persons, the promoter shall continue to be liable, even after the transfer of the property, to pay such outgoings and penal charges (if any) to the authority or person to whom they are payable and to be responsible for any legal proceedings which may be taken therefor by such authority or person.] [This portion was added and was deemed always to have been added by Maharashtra 36 of 1986, Section 5.]

7. After plans and specifications are disclosed no alterations or additions without consent of persons who have agreed to take the flats; and defects noticed within [three years] [These words were substituted for the words 'A year' by Maharashtra 36 of 1986, Section 6(c).] to be rectified.

(1)After the plans and specifications of the building, as approved by the local authority as aforesaid, are disclosed or furnished to the person who agrees to take one or more flats, the promoter shall not make-(i)any alteration in the structures described therein in respect of the flat or flats which are agreed to be taken, without the previous consent of that person;(ii)[any other alterations or additions in the structure of the building without the previous consent of all the persons who have agreed to take the flats in such building.] Clause (ii) was substituted and was deemed always to have been substituted by Maharashtra 36 of 1986, Section 6(a).Subject to sub-section (1), the building shall be constructed and completed in accordance with the plans and specifications aforesaid; and if any defect in the building or material used, or if any unauthorised change in the construction is brought to the notice of the promoter within a period of [three years] [These words were substituted and were deemed always to have been substituted for the words 'one year' by Maharashtra 36 of 1986, Section 6(b)(i).] from the date of handing over possession, it shall wherever possible be rectified by the promoter without further charge to the persons who have agreed to take the flats, and in other cases such persons shall be entitled to receive reasonable compensation for such defect or change. Where there is a dispute as regards any defect in the building or material used, or any unauthorised change in the construction, [or as to whether it is reasonably possible for the promoter to rectify any such defect or change, or as regards the amount of reasonable compensation payable in respect of any such defect or change which cannot be, or is not, rectified by the promoter,] [These words were deemed always to have been inserted by Maharashtra 11 of 1970, Section 3.] the matter shall, on payment of such fee as may be prescribed, [and within a period of three years from the date of handing over possession, be referred for decision-(i)in an urban agglomeration as defined in clause (n) of section 2 of the Urban Land (Ceiling and Regulation) Act, 1976, to such competent authority authorised by the State Government under clause (d) of section 2 of that Act, and(ii)in any other area, to such Deputy Chief Engineer, or to such other officer of the rank equivalent to that of Superintending Engineer in the Maharashtra Service of Engineers, of a Board established under section 18 of the Maharashtra Housing and Area Development Act, 1976,as the State Government may, by general or special order, specify in this behalf. Such competent authority, Deputy Chief Engineer or, as the case may be, the other officer of a Board shall, after inquiry, record his decision, which shall be final.] [This portion was substituted for the portion beginning with the words 'be referred' and ending with the words 'shall be final' by Maharashtra 36 of 1986, Section 6(b)(ii).]

7A. [Removal of doubt. [Section 7A was inserted, by Maharashtra 36 of 1986, Section 7.]

- For the removal of doubt, it is hereby declared that clause (ii) of Sub-Section (1) of section 7 have been retrospectively substituted by clause (a) of Section 6 of the Maharashtra Ownership Flats (Regulation of the Promotion of Construction, Sale, management and Transfer) (Amendment) Act, 1986 (hereinafter in this Section referred to as "the Amendment Act"), it shall be deemed to be .effective as if the said clause (ii) as so substituted had been in force at all material times; and the expression "or construct any additional structures" in clause (ii) of sub-section (1) of section 7 as it existed before the commencement of the Amendment Act and the expressions "constructed and completed in accordance with the plans and specifications aforesaid" and "any unauthorised change in the construction" in sub-section (2) of section 7 shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any agreement, or in any judgement, decree or order of any Court, be deemed never to apply or to have applied in respect of the construction of any other additional buildings or structures constructed or to be constructed under a scheme or project of development in the layout after obtaining the approval of a local authority in accordance with the building rules or building bye-laws or Development Control Rules made under any law for the time being in force.]

8. Refund of amount paid with interest for failure to give possession within specified time or further time allowed.

- If -(a)the promoter fails to give possession in accordance with the terms of his agreement of a flat duly completed by the date specified, or any further date or dates agreed to by the parties, or(b)the promoter, for reasons beyond his control and of his agents, is unable to give possession of the flat by the date specified, or the further agreed date and a period of three months thereafter, or a further period of three months if those reasons still exist, then, in any such case, the promoter shall be liable on demand (but without prejudice to any other remedies to which he may be liable) to refund the amounts already received by him in respect of the flat (with simple interest at nine per cent per annum from the date he received the sums till the date the amounts and interest thereon is refunded), and the amounts and the interest shall be a charge on the land and the construction if any thereon in which the flat is or was to be constructed, to the extent of the amount due, but subject to any prior encumbrances.

9. No mortgage etc. to be created without consent of parties after execution of agreement for sale.

- No promoter shall, after he executes an agreement to sell any flat, mortgage or create a charge on the flat or the land, without the previous consent of the persons who take or agree to take the flats, and if any such mortgage or charge is made or created without such previous consent after the agreement referred to in section 4 is registered, it shall not affect the right and interest of such persons.

10. Promoter to take steps for formation of co-operative society or company.

- [(1)] [Section 10 was renumbered as sub-section (1) of that section and sub-section (2) was added by Maharashtra 15 of 1971, Schedule] As soon as a minimum number of persons required to form a Co-operative society or a company have taken flats, the promoter shall within the prescribed period submit an application to the Registrar for registration of the organisation of persons who take the flats as a co-operative society or, as the case may be, as a company; and the promoter shall join, in respect of the flats which have not been taken, in such application for membership of a co-operative society or as the case may be, of a company. Nothing in this section shall affect the right of the promoter to dispose of the remaining flats in accordance with the provisions of this Act.[Provided that, if the promoter fail within the prescribed period to submit an application to the Registrar for registration of society in the manner provided in the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act, 1960, the Competent Authority may, upon receiving an application from the persons who have taken flats from the said promoter, direct the District Deputy Registrar, Deputy Registrar or, as the case may be, Assistant Registrar concerned, to register the society:Provided further that, no such direction to register any society under the preceding proviso shall be given to the District Deputy Registrar, Deputy Registrar or, as the case may be, Assistant Registrar, by the Competent Authority without first verifying authenticity of the applicants request and giving the concerned promoter a reasonable opportunity of being heard.] [These provisos added by Maharashtra 4 of 2008, (w.e.f. 25-2-2008),

Section 5.](2)[If any property consisting of building or buildings is constructed or to be constructed [and the promoter submits such property to the provisions of the Maharashtra Apartment Ownership Act, 1970, by executing and registering a Declaration as provided by that Act] [Section 10 was renumbered as sub-section (1) of that section and sub-section (2) was added by Maharashtra 15 of 1971, Schedule] then the promoter shall inform the Registrar as defined in the Maharashtra Co-operative Societies Act, 1960, accordingly; and in such cases, it shall not be lawful to form any co-operative society or company].[* * * * *] [The words 'and each apartment owner shall be entitled to the exclusive ownership and possession of his apartment as provided in the first mentioned Act' were deleted, by Maharashtra 53 of 1974, Section 6(d) M.G.G. Part IV page. 666.]

11. Promoter to convey title, etc., and execute documents, according to agreement.

- [(1) A promoter shall take all necessary steps to complete his title and convey to the organisation of persons, who take flats, which is registered either as a co-operative society or as a company as aforesaid, or to an association of flat takers [or apartment owners] [Section 11 renumbered as sub-section (1) and sub-sections (2) to (5) were inserted by Maharashtra 4 of 2008, (w.e.f. 25-2-2008), Section 6.] his right, title and interest in the land and building, and execute all relevant documents therefor in accordance with the agreement executed under section 4 and if no period for the execution of the conveyance is agreed upon, he shall execute the conveyance within the prescribed period and also deliver all documents of title relating to the property which may be in his possession or power.](2)[It shall be the duty of the promoter to file with the Competent Authority, within the prescribed "period, a copy of the conveyance executed by him under sub-section (1).(3)If the promoter fails to execute the conveyance in favour of the co-operative society formed under Section 10 or, as the case may be, the company or the association of apartment owners, as provided by sub-section (1), within the prescribed period, the members of such co-operative society or, as the case may be, the company or the association of apartment owners may, make an application, in writing, to the concerned Competent Authority accompanied by the true copies of the registered agreements for sale, executed with the promoter by each individual member of the society or the company or the association, who have purchased the flats and all other relevant documents (including the occupation certificate, if any), for issuing a certificate that such society, or as the case may be, company or association, is entitled to have an unilateral deemed conveyance, executed in their favour and to have it registered.(4)The Competent Authority, on receiving such application, within reasonable time and in any case not later than six months, after making such enquiry as deemed necessary and after verifying the authenticity of the documents submitted and after giving the promoter a reasonable opportunity of being heard, on being satisfied that it is a fit case for issuing such certificate, shall issue a certificate to the Sub-Registrar or any other appropriate Registration Officer under the Registration Act, 1908, certifying that it is a fit case for enforcing unilateral execution of conveyance deed conveying the right, title and interest of the promoter in the land and building in favour of the applicant, as deemed conveyance.(5)On submission by such society or as the case may be, the company or the association of apartment owners, to the Sub-Registrar or the concerned appropriate Registration Officer appointed under the Registration Act, 1908, the certificate issued by the Competent Authority along with the unilateral instrument of conveyance, the Sub-Registrar or the concerned appropriate Registration Officer shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Registration Act, 1908, issue summons to the promoter to show cause why such unilateral instrument should not be registered as 'deemed conveyance' and after giving the promoter and the applicants a reasonable opportunity of being heard, may, on being satisfied that it was a fit case for unilateral conveyance, register that instrument as 'deemed conveyance'.] [Section 11 renumbered as sub-section (1) and sub-sections (2) to (5) were inserted by Maharashtra 4 of 2008, (w.e.f. 25-2-2008), Section 6.]

12. General liabilities of flat-taker.

(1) Every person who has executed an agreement to take a flat shall pay at the proper time and place the price, his proportionate share of the municipal taxes, water and electricity charges, ground rent (if any) and other public charges in accordance with his agreement with the promoter; and where a co-operative society or company of persons taking the flats is to be constituted, co-operate in the formation of such society or company, as the case may be. (2) Any person who has executed an agreement to take a flat and who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with or contravenes sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punished with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees.

12A. [Manager not to cut off, withheld, curtail or reduce essential supply or service. [[Section 12A was inserted by Maharashtra 29 of 1964, Section 2.

Section 4 of Maharashtra 29 of 1964, reads as under :- '4. Retrospective effect and saving. The amendments made by sections 2 and 3 shall be deemed to have been inserted in the principal Act and shall be deemed to have come into force in Greater Bombay, on the 10th day of February 1964; but nothing therein shall render any person liable to be convicted of any offence in respect of any act or omission committed by him before the commencement of this Act, if such act was not an offence under the principal Act, at that date, but for the provisions herein inserted. But if any person has cut off, withheld or in any manner curtailed or reduced, any essential supply or service in respect of any flat at any time before the commencement of the Maharashtra Ownership Flats (Regulation of the promotion of construction, sale, management and transfer) (Amendment) Act, 1964, and continues or allows the continuance thereof after such commencement he shall be liable to the penalties provided in the aforementioned section 2.'](1) No person, who is a promoter, or who is in-charge of management or connected with the management of a block or building of flats, whether as member of a managing committee, director, secretary or otherwise, or is responsible for the maintenance thereof (hereinafter in this section referred to as "the manager"), shall, without just and sufficient cause, either by himself or through any person, cut off, withhold, or in any manner curtail or reduce, any essential supply or service enjoyed by the person who has taken a flat (or by any person in occupation thereof through or under him) in respect of the flat taken or agreed to be taken by him. (2) The person who has taken or agreed to take the flat or the occupier may, if the manager has contravened the provisions of sub-section (1), make an application to the Court for a direction to restore such supply or service. (3) If the Court on enquiry finds that the applicant or the person through or under whom he is in occupation has been in enjoyment of the essential supply or service, and that it was cut off or withheld or curtailed or reduced by the manager without just and sufficient cause, the Court shall make an order directing the manager to restore such supply or service before a date to be specified in the order.(4)The manager who fails to restore the supply or service before the date so specified, shall for each day during which the default continues thereafter, be liable upon a further direction by the Court to that effect, to fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.(5)Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force,-(a)in Greater Bombay, the Court of Small Causes, Bombay,(b)in any area for which a Court of Small Causes is established under the Provincial Small Cause Courts Act, 1887, such Court, and(c)elsewhere, the Court of the Civil Judge (Senior Division),shall have jurisdiction to decide any application made under sub-section (2), and no other Court shall have jurisdiction to entertain such application. No appeal shall lie from any order made on such application; but in Greater Bombay a bench of two judges of the Court of Small Causes, Bombay, which shall not include the Judge who made such order, and elsewhere the District Court, may for the purpose of satisfying itself that the order made was according to law, call for the case in which such order was made and the Bench or Court aforesaid or the District Judge or any Judge to which the case may be referred by the District Judge, shall pass such order with respect thereto as it or he thinks fit.(6)Any manager who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1) shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine, or with both.(7)The offence under sub-section (6) shall be cognizable, and shall not be triable by any Court inferior to that of a [Metropolitan Magistrate, or a Judicial Magistrate of the First Class.]Explanation I. - In this section, essential supply or service includes the supply of water, electricity, lights in passages and on stair-cases, and lifts and conservancy or sanitary service.Explanation II. - For the purposes of this section, withholding any essential supply or service shall include acts or omissions attributable to the manager on account of which the essential supply or service is cut off by the local authority or any other competent authority].

13. [Offences by promoters [and consequences on conviction] [Sections 13 was substituted for the original Section 13 by Maharashtra 36 of 1986, Section 8].

(1)Any promoter who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with or contravenes, the provisions of section 3, 4, 5 [save as provided in sub-section (2) of this section], 10 or 11 shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine, or with both.(2)Any promoter who commits criminal breach of trust of any amount advanced or deposited with him for the purposes mentioned in section 5 shall, on conviction, be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years, or with fine, or with both.(3)Any promoter who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with or, contravenes, any other provision of this Act or of any rule made thereunder, shall, if no other penalty is expressly provided for the offence, be punished, on conviction, [with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to one year or with fine which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees but which may extend to fifty thousand rupees or with both.] These words were substituted for the words 'with an imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees or with both[When any promoter is convicted of any offence under this Act, except offence under Section 12A, such promoter shall be disqualified from undertaking construction of flats for a period of five years from the date of such conviction. However, such disqualification shall not affect the permission for construction of flats already granted before incurring such disqualification and shall also not debar the promoter from seeking or being granted any additional requisite permissions which may be required from the concerned local authorities for completion of constructions already undertaken by him.(5)The Competent Authority shall, on such conviction of a promoter under this Act, subject to the orders of the appellate court, if any, or after the 'expiry of the appeal period, forward the name of the convicted promoter to the local authorities under his jurisdiction, with a direction that such promoter shall not be granted permission under the' relevant law for undertaking any construction of flats during the period of such disqualification, specifically mentioning such period.(6)On receiving such intimation from the Competent Authority, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, the concerned local authority shall not grant such promoter any permission or licence under the relevant law for construction of flats for a period for which the promoter is so disqualified.] [Sub-sections (4), (5) & (6) added by Maharashtra 4 of 2008, (w.e.f. 25-2-2008), Section 7(b).]

13A. [Power of Magistrate to pass sentences under this Act. [Section 13A was inserted for the original Section 13 by Maharashtra 36 of 1986, Section 8.]

- Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, it shall be lawful for a Metropolitan Magistrate or a Judicial Magistrate of the First Class to pass on any person convicted of any offence under this Act a sentence of imprisonment or of fine or both as provided in the relevant section of this Act, in excess of his powers under section 27 of the said Code.]
