3. Commencement of qualifying service.

- Subject to the provisions of these rules, qualifying service of an employee shall commence from the date he takes charge of the post to which he is first appointed either substantively or in an officiating or temporary capacity in the service :Provided that officiating or temporary service is followed without interruption by substantive appointment in the same or another post in the service;Provided further that-(a)in the case of an employee in a Group D service or post, service rendered before attaining the age of sixteen years shall not count for any purpose; and(b)in the case of an employee not covered by Clause (a), service rendered before attaining the age of eighteen years shall not count for any purpose.

4. Emoluments and average emoluments.

(1)Where an employee immediately before his/her retirement or death while in service had been absent from duty on leave for which leave salary is payable or having been suspended had been reinstated without forfeiting of service, the emoluments which he/she would have drawn had he/she not been absent from duty or suspended shall be the emoluments for the purpose.(2)Where an employee immediately before his/her retirement or death while in service had proceeded on leave for which leave salary is payable after having held a higher appointment whether in an officiating or temporary capacity, the benefit of emoluments drawn in such higher appointment shall be given only if it is certified that the employee concerned could have continued to hold the higher appointment but for his/her proceeding on leave.(3)If an employee immediately before his/her retirement or death while in service had been absent from duty on extraordinary leave or had been under suspension, and the period thereof does not count as service, if the emoluments which he/she has drawn immediately before proceeding on such leave or being placed under suspension shall be the emoluments for the purpose of these Rules.(4)Average emoluments shall be determined with reference to the emoluments drawn by an employee during the last complete ten months of his/her service.

5. Amount of gratuity.

(1)An employee, who has completed a total of continuous/qualifying service not less than five years, may be granted gratuity not exceeding the amount specified in Rule 6 when he/she dies or retires from service on superannuation, invalidation or retrenchment and is otherwise eligible for the same :Provided that no gratuity shall be admissible for the period of service under re-employment.(2)The length of service required in sub-rule (1) shall not apply in case of an employee invalidated on medical grounds.(3)The Government may in deserving cases, condone for the purpose of sub-rule (1) of deficiency not exceeding three months in the entire length of service of an employee.

(1)(a)An employee, who has completed five years of qualifying service and has become eligible for service gratuity, shall on his/her retirement be granted, death-cum-retirement gratuity equal to one-fourth of his/her emoluments for each completed six monthly period of qualifying service subject to a maximum of 6 ½ times the emoluments or Rs. 50,000 whichever is less.(b)If an employee dies while in service after completing five years' qualifying service, the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity shall be equal to 12 times of his/her emoluments of the amount determined under Clause (a) whichever is higher and it shall be paid to his/her family in the manner hereinafter indicated :Provided that the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity payable under this rule in no case exceeds Rs. 50,000.(2)If an employee who has become eligible for a service gratuity, dies within five years from the date of his/her retirement from service and the sums actually received by him at the time of his/her death-cum-retirement gratuity admissible under sub-rule (1) are less than the amount equal to 12 times of his/her emoluments, a residuary gratuity equal to deficiency may be granted to his/her family.(3)(a)If an employee dies in the first year of qualifying service, a death-cum-retirement gratuity equal to two times of his/her emoluments at the time of his/her death shall be paid to his family in the manner hereinafter indicated ;(b)If an employee dies after completion of one year of qualifying service but before completing five years of qualifying service of the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity shall be equal to six times of his/her emoluments at the time of his/her death.(4)The emoluments for the purpose of gratuity admissible under these Rules shall be subject to a maximum of two thousand five hundred rupees per month and shall be released in accordance with sub-rule (1) of Rule 4 :Provided that if the emoluments of an employee have been reduced during the last ten months of his/her service otherwise than as penalty, average emoluments as referred to in sub-rule (2) of Rule 4 of these rules may, at the discretion of the competent authority, be treated as emoluments.

7. Limitation of eligibility.

- No gratuity shall be admissible to employee who-(a)is a temporary employee ;(b)is dismissed from service ;(c)is removed or called upon to resign on account of misconduct of inefficiency ;(d)resigns his/her service of his/her own volition.

8. Recovery of institution dues permissible.

- It is permissible to make recovery of Government aided institution's dues from the death-cum-retirement gratuity due in respect of an employee even without obtaining the consent of the members of his/her family in the case of the deceased employee as the case may be.

9. Application of the gratuity.

(1)An employee who is eligible for gratuity under these rules shall submit an application in quadruplicate to the Director of School Education, Mizoram in Form I.(2)Where an employee dies while Ln service or before submitting the application under sub-rule (1) above, his/her family or such other authorised person(s) who is entitled to receive the gratuity, shall Submit the required application in Form 2.

10. Persons to whom gratuity is payable.

(1)(a)The gratuity payable under Rule 5 shall be paid to the persons on whom the right to receive the gratuity is conferred by means of a nomination under Rule 14.(b)If there is no such nomination or if the nomination made does not subsist the gratuity shall be paid in the manner indicated herein below : (i)If there are one or more surviving members of the family as in sub-Clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of Clause (g) of Rule 2, to all such members in equal shares;(ii)If there are no such surviving member of the family as in sub-Clause (i) above, but there are one or more members as in sub-clauses (v), (vi), (vii), (viii), (ix) and (x) of Clause (g) of Rule 2, to all such members in equal shares.(2)If an employee dies after retirement without receiving the gratuity admissible under Rule 5, the gratuity shall be disbursed to the family in the manner indicated in sub-rule (2) of Rule 9 above.(3)The right of a female member, of the family or that of a brother of an employee who dies while in service or after retirement to receive the share of the gratuity shall not be affected if the female member marries or re-marries or the brother attains the age of eighteen years, after the death of the employee and before receiving his/her share of the gratuity.(4)Where gratuity is granted under Rule 5 to a minor member of the family of the deceased employee, it shall be payable to the guardian on behalf of the minor as indicated below : (a)Payment of the minor(s) share of death-cum-retirement gratuity is to be made to the natural guardian of the minor(s) and in the absence of the natural guardian to a person who furnished a guardianship certificate;(b)Payment of the death-cum-retirement gratuity to the extent of Rs. 5,000 (or the first Rs. 5,000 where the amount payable exceeds Rs. 5,000) in favour of a minor may be made to his/her guardian in the absence of a natural guardian, without the production of a formal guardianship certificate but subject to the production of an Indemnity Board in Form 3 and an Indemnity Bond in Form 4 with suitable sureties to the satisfaction of the competent authority. The balance in excess in Rs. 5,000, if any, would become payable on the production of a certificate of guardianship.(c)It is essential, however, that there should be adequate prima facie ground for making payment as in (b) above, to the persons claiming it. Such ground can exist only if he has shown by a sworn declaration to be de facto guardian and his bona fide have been ascertained. Even if a guardian has not yet been ascertained by the Court if the minor and his property are in the custody of some persons, such persons, may be treated as a de facto guardian. The authority making the payment should therefore, require the person who comes forward to claim payment on behalf of the minor to satisfy them by an affidavit that he/she is in-charge of the property of the minor and is looking after it, or that, if the minor has no property other than the gratuity, the minor is in his/her custody and care. The affidavit so to be produced is in addition to the Indemnity Board with suitable sureties.(d)The indemnity Bond which is to be required to be produced by de facto guardian of a minor or minors for payment of death-cum-retirement gratuity to the extent of Rs. 5,000 should be properly executed, The stamp duty required for the purposes shall be borne by the claimant concerned.

11. Loss of death-cum-retirement.

(1)Where an employee dies while in service or after retirement without receiving the amount of gratuity or without leaving behind family and without nomination or making the nomination but the nomination made so does not subsist, the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity payable in respect of such employee under Rule 5 shall stand lapsed.(2)Where a member of the family dies or becomes disqualified before receiving the gratuity, the share of the gratuity otherwise payable to a member of the family who has died or become disqualified before receiving actual payment shall be disbursed equally among the remaining members of the family.

12. Report of the Examiner of Local Accounts.

- The gratuity under Rule 5 shall be paid after report has been obtained from the Examiner of Local Accounts that the amount of the gratuity to be paid to such employee is admissible to him.

13. Sanctioning authority.

- The death-cum-retirement gratuity or such order claims under this scheme, shall be sanctioned by the Director of School Education, Mizoram. For the purpose it shall be incumbent upon the sanctioning authority that the relevant orders and procedure in this regard have been duly adhered to.

14. Nomination.

(1)An employee shall on his/her initial confirmation or on completion of five years' service under the Aided School, shall make a nomination in Form 5 conferring on one or more persons the right to receive the death-cum-retirement gratuity payable under Rule 5 :Provided that if at the time of making the nomination-(i)the employee has a family the nomination shall not be in favour of any person or persons other than members of his/her family, or families;(ii)the employee has no family the nomination may be made in favour of a person or persons or a body of individuals whether incorporated or not.(2)If any employee nominates more than one persons under sub-rule (1) above, he/she shall specify in the nomination the amount of share payable to each of the nominee in such manner as to cover the entire amount of gratuity.(3)An employee may provide in the nomination-(i)that in respect of any specified nominee who predeceased the employee, or who dies after the death of the employee but before receiving the payment of the gratuity, the right conferred on that nominee shall pass to such other person or persons as may be specified in the nomination ; provided further that where an employee has only one member in his/her family and a nomination has been made in his/her favour it is open to the employee to nominate alternate nominees in favour of any person or a body of individuals whether incorporated or not;(ii)that the nomination shall become invalid in the event of the happening of the contingency provided there in the nomination.(4)The nomination made by an employee who has no family at the time of making it, or the nomination made by an employee under the second proviso to Clause (i) of sub-rule (3) above, where he has only one member in his/her family shall become invalid in the event of the employee subsequently acquiring a family, or an additional member in his/her family, as the case may be.(5)An employee may, at any time cancel the nomination by sending a notice in writing to the competent authority :Provided that he/she shall along with such notice, send nomination made in accordance with this paragraph.(6)Immediately on the death of nominee in respect where no special provision has been made in the nomination under Clause (i) of sub-rule (3) or on the occurrence of any event by a person, of which the nomination becomes invalid in pursuance of Clause (ii) of sub-rule (3), the employee shall send to the authority concerned a notice in writing cancelling the nomination together with fresh nomination made in accordance with these provisions.(7)Every nomination made and every notice of cancellation given, by an employee shall, to the extent that it is invalid, take effect from the date on which it is received by the competent authority.(8)An employee should furnish details of his [family] [Family for this purpose means family as defined in Clause (g) of Rule 2.] from time to time of the head of office as in Form 6.

15. Preparation of list of employees due for gratuity retirement.

(1)Every Headmaster/Head of Office shall have a list prepared every six months, that is, on the 1st January and the 1st July each year of all employees who are due to retire within the next 24 to 30 months of that date.(2)A copy of such list shall be supplied to the Director not later than the 31st January or the 31st July, as the case may be, of that year.(3)In the case of an employee retiring for reasons other than by way of superannuation, the Headmaster/Head of Office shall promptly inform the Director, as soon as the fact of such retirement becomes known to him.

16. Preparation of gratuity papers.

- Every Headmaster/Head of Office shall undertake the work of preparation of gratuity papers in Form 7, two years before the date on which an employee is due to retire on superannuation or on the date on which he proceeds on leave preparatory to retirement, whichever is earlier.

17. Stages for the completion of gratuity papers.

- The Headmaster/Head of Office shall divide the period of preparatory work of two years referred to in Rule 15 in the following two stages : (a) First stage - Verification of service. - (i) The Headmaster/Head of Office shall go through the Service Book of the employee and satisfy himself as to whether the certificate of verification for the entire service are recorded therein. (ii) In respect of the unverified portion or portions of service, he shall arrange, to verify the portions, of such service, as the case may be, with reference to pay bills, acquittance rolls or other relevant records and record necessary certificates in the Service Books. (iii) If any portion of service rendered by an employee is not capable of being verified in the manner specified in sub-Clause (i) or sub-Clause (ii), the employee shall be asked to file a written statement on plain paper stating that he had in fact rendered that period of service and shall at the foot of the statement make and subscribe to a declaration as to the truth of that statement and shall in support of such declaration produce all documentary evidence and furnish all informations which is in his power to produce or furnish. (iv) The Headmaster/Head of Office shall, after taking into consideration the facts in the written statement and the evidence produced and the information furnished by that employee in support of the said period of service, admit that portion of service as having been rendered for the purpose of calculating the gratuity of that employee. (b) Second stage - Making good omission in the Service Book. - (i) The Headmaster/Head of Office while scrutinising the certificates of verification of service, shall also identify if there are any other omissions, imperfections or deficiencies which have a direct bearing on the determination of emoluments and the service qualifying for gratuity. (ii) Every effort shall be made to complete the verification of services as in Clause (a) and to make good omission, imperfections or deficiencies including the portion of service shown as unverified in the service book which it has not been possible to verify in accordance with the procedure laid down in Clause (a) shall be ignored and service qualifying for gratuity shall be determined on the basis of the entries in the Service Book. (iii) Calculating of average emoluments. - For the purpose of calculation of average emoluments the Headmaster/Head Office shall verify from the Service Book the correctness of emoluments drawn or to be drawn during the last ten months of service. In order to ensure that the emoluments during the last ten months of service have been correctly shown in the Service Book the Headmaster/Head of Office may verify the correctness of emoluments for the period of twenty four months only proceeding the date of retirement of an employee and not for any period to that date.

18. Obtaining of claims for death-cum-retirement gratuity.

(1) Where the Headmaster/Head of Office has received an intimation about the death of an employee while in service, he shall ascertain whether any death-cum-retirement gratuity is payable in respect of the deceased employee. (2) (a) Where the family of the deceased servant is eligible for the death-cum-retirement gratuity under Rule 10 the Headmaster/Head of Office shall ascertain - (i) if the deceased employee had nominated any person or persons to receive the gratuity ; and (ii) if the deceased employee had not made any nomination or the nomination made does not subsist, the person to whom the gratuity may be payable. (b) The Headmaster/Head of Office shall, then, address the person concerned in Form 8 or Form 9 as may be appropriate for making a claim in Form 10.

19. Determination of the amount of gratuity where service records are incomplete.

- According to the existing instructions, there should not be any case where Service Book has not been maintained properly. If, in any particular case, the service book has not been maintained properly despite the Government orders on the subject, and it was not possible for the Headmaster/'Head of Office to accept the verified portion of service as verified on the basis of entries in the Service Book, the Headmaster/Head of Office shall not proceed with the verification of the entire spell of service. The verification of service in such a case shall be confined to the following spells of service : (a) If the deceased employee had, on the date of his death, rendered more than five years of qualifying service, but less than twenty four years of qualifying service, and the spell of last five years of service has been verified and accepted by the Headmaster/Head of Office, the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity shall be equal to 12 times of his emoluments as indicated in Clause (b) of sub-rule (1) of Rule 6. Where the verified and accepted service is less than five years of qualifying service, the amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity shall be the amount as indicated in Clause (b) of sub-rule (3) of Rule 6. (b) If the deceased employee had rendered more than twenty four years of service and the entire service is not capable of being verified and accepted, but the service for the last five years has been verified and accepted under sub-Clause (a), the family of the deceased employee shall be allowed, on provisional basis, the death-cum-retirement gratuity equal to 12 times of the emoluments. Final amount of the gratuity shall be determined by the Headmaster/Head of Office on the acceptance and verification of the entire spell of service which shall be done by the Headmaster/Head of Office within a period of six months from the date on which the authority for the payment of provisional gratuity was issued. The balance, if any, becoming payable as a result of determination of the final amount of death-cum-retirement gratuity shall then be authorised to the beneficiaries.

20. Constitution and custody of the fund.

(1) There shall be formed a fund to be called the "Mizoram Aided School Employees' Death-cum-Retirement Gratuity Fund" to which shall consist of- (a) Contribution by the State Government; (b) Any contribution by the Government of India ; (c) Such other sums as the State Government may transfer from the unspent balance of the budget provisions of any year ; (d) Donation, if any, by the public, any institution, autonomous body, association or authority. Note. - The contributions to the fund shall be credited by the State Government by deduction from the grant-in-aid and the maintenance grants, as the case may be. (2) The Mizoram Aided School Employees' Death-cum-Retirement Gratuity Fund shall be vested in the Director and may be kept with the State Bank of India or with one of the Nationalised Bank or the Mizoram Co-operative Apex Bank Limited or any other Bank with the approval of the Government as shown in the Appendix. (3) The Director may, with the approval of the Government, set apart and apply out of the fund such sums as may be required to meet the charges on account of the maintenance of the said fund. (4) The money lying in excess of the actual requirements may be invested in Government approved sureties or such other investment fund. (5) The Director shall maintain for the purpose appropriate books of accounts and record including cash book and bank pass books and cheques. (6) The accounts of the fund shall be audited periodically by the Examiner of Local Accounts of the State Government.

21. Power to relax.

- Where the Director is satisfied that the operation of any of these paragraphs causes undue hardship in any particular case, he shall refer the matter to the Government in the Education Department and the Government may by order for reasons to be recorded in writing dispense with or relax the requirements of that paragraph to such extent and subject to such exceptions and conditions as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner.
