29.

The Commission may co-opt one or more experts as members of the Officers' Selection Committee to assist it.

30.

The Selection Committee for the posts of Staff shall be chaired by the Secretary and shall consist of such Officers as may be designated by the Commission.

31.

The Committee may co-opt one or more experts as members of the Staff Selection Committee to assist it.

32.

The Selection Committees shall, in consultation with the Commission, from time to time devise the mode and procedure of selection of candidates to various posts. Superannuation 33.

The employees shall retire from the service of the Commission on attaining the age of superannuation as may be laid down by the State Government from time to time. Resignation 34.

An employee of the Commission appointed on a regular basis may resign from his post by giving ninety day's clear notice to the Commission or by depositing three month's salary in lieu of such notice: Provided that the Commission, at its discretion, may relax this condition in exceptional cases after recording the reasons therefor. Appointment on Deputation 35.

The vacancies of Officers and Staff may also be filled in by deputation of employees from a Government department or public sector undertakings or public utility.

36.

The Commission shall determine the vacancies to be filled in by deputation and the period of such deputation from time to time: Provided that the period of deputation may be extended by mutual consent between the Commission, the individual concerned and the concerned Government department/undertaking/utility.

37.

If the Commission decides that the services of the person on deputation are no longer required, the incumbent shall be repatriated to his parent organization even before the completion of the normal 38.

The pay, allowances and other benefits and conditions of service of a person on deputation from a Government department shall be governed by the relevant provisions of the Maharashtra Civil Services (Joining time, foreign service and payments during suspension, dismissal and removal) Rules, 1981 or such other rules or regulations governing the same as may be in force from time to time.

39.

The pay, allowances, other benefits and conditions of service of a person on deputation from a public sector undertaking or public utility shall be governed by the relevant rules of his parent organization: Provided that in the absence of any such rules, the provisions of Maharashtra Civil Services (Joining time, foreign service and payment during suspension, dismissal and removal) Rules, 1981 or such other rules or regulations governing the same as may be in force from time to time, shall be applied.

40.

The Commission may absorb a deputationist in the Commission's services permanently. Provided that such deputationist's terminal benefits shall be protected in such a way that the individual concerned is not adversely affected upon absorption. Appointment on contract 41.

The vacancies of Officers and Staff may also be filled in by appointing persons on a contract basis, so as to obtain experienced and/or qualified or otherwise suitable candidates.

42.

The duration of the first appointment on contract basis shall not exceed five years: Provided that the duration of the contract may be further renewed by the Commission from time to time for a period not exceeding two years at a time, for each subsequent extension.

43.

Persons appointed on contract shall be entitled to a consolidated remuneration, which would remain fixed during the contract period: Provided that, where the period of such contract exceeds one year, the Commission may consider increasing such remuneration, but not more often than once a year; Provided further that, while determining such remuneration, the pay and the other monetary benefits and allowances available to a regular employee in that category or post shall be taken into consideration: Provided further that, the Commission may, at its discretion, compensate for the fixed nature of the remuneration in such cases by suitable placement of the selected candidate in the scale of pay of that category or post.

The remuneration may be revised at the discretion of the Commission when it decides to extend or renew the contract of an employee who was initially appointed on contract: Provided that the increase in remuneration at the time of every renewal shall be limited to a maximum of 25% of the original amount.

45.

An employee appointed on a contract basis shall be eligible for earned leave on average pay for thirty days, and casual leave for eight days during a calendar year or part thereof.

46.

Where an employee has been appointed on a contract basis, then such employee or the Commission shall be entitled to terminate the contract and discontinue the employment by giving thirty day's clear notice in writing to the other party or by depositing one month's pay in lieu of such notice.

47.

An employee appointed on contract basis may, upon termination of his contract and upon recommendation made by the Selection Committee, be appointed on nomination on a regular basis: Provided that the period for which such employee was employed on a contract basis prior to his appointment on a regular basis shall not be less than one year: Provided further that the provisions of Regulation 13 and Regulation 20 shall not apply in respect of such appointment made by the Commission: Provided however that such appointment shall be subject to the employee meeting the upper age limit for the applicable post in accordance with Regulation 18 at the time of his original appointment on a contract basis. Chapter - IV Pay and Allowances Pay Scale 48.

The scales of pay of the employees shall be such as prescribed in Appendix 'A' or as may be revised by the Commission from time to time to be at par with employees of corresponding grade/pay-scale of the State Government. Increment 49.

The employees shall be eligible to draw annual increments as a matter of course unless it is withheld under the orders of the competent authority.

50.

Except in case of confirmation after probation, an increment shall become payable on the first day of the month in which it becomes due. Pay Fixation 51.

The pay of an employee on his first appointment on a regular basis shall be fixed at the minimum stage of pay-scale of the respective cadre: Provided that the Commission shall have the discretion to fix the salary of any employee, in the pay-scale applicable to him, on initial appointment in such way as to protect reasonably the emoluments of such employee in the earlier employment or as deemed appropriate by the Commission.

52.

When an employee is appointed to a higher post on promotion, his initial pay in the time scale of the higher post shall be fixed at the stage next above the pay notionally arrived at by increasing his pay in the lower post by one increment at the stage at which such pay has accrued: Provided that in case of an employee drawing pay at the maximum of the pay-scale, the amount of last increment shall be taken into account for pay fixation in the aforesaid manner.

53.

When an employee is appointed from a higher post to a lower post due to reversion or due to reduction of establishment, his pay in the lower post shall be fixed at the stage in the time scale of the lower post at which he would have drawn his pay had he been not appointed to the higher post.

54.

The pay of an employee, reappointed on regular basis after a physical break of more than 24 hours, due to any reason shall be fixed at the minimum of the time-scale.

55.

When a competent authority orders reversion of an employee from a higher post to a lower post as a penalty, the pay of such employee shall be fixed at a stage, not exceeding the maximum of the lower post. Allowances

56.

The employees of the Commission shall be entitled to draw Dearness Allowances, City Compensatory Allowance, Conveyance Allowance and House Rent Allowance on such scales and subject to such conditions as may be made applicable to Government employees by the State Government from time to time.

57.

Where any Staff undertakes any special functions, having regard to the multifunctional requirements of the Commission, or any additional functions pertaining to another post, owing either to a vacancy in such other post or to special circumstances resulting in an increase in workload of such other post, then such employee may be granted a special allowance for the additional functions so undertaken: Provided that such special allowance shall be paid on a monthly basis on the recommendation of the Secretary and with the prior approval of the Commission: Provided further that the amount of such special allowance shall be as determined by the Commission and shall in no event exceed the 25% of basic salary applicable to such other post, payable for such period for which such additional functions were undertaken.

58.

The employees of the Commission shall be entitled to draw overtime allowance on such terms and conditions as may be made applicable to the corresponding grade of the employees of the State Government, from time to time. Ex-gratia Payment 59.

The employees of the Commission shall be eligible for ex-gratia payment as per the scale and conditions laid down from time to time by the State Government for its employees.

60.

The employees of the Commission shall be entitled to such other allowances as may be made applicable to its employees by the State Government from time to time. Other
