1. [Amended by The Capital of Punjab (Development and Regulation) (Chandigarh Amendment) Act, 1973 (Act 17 of 1973) on 9 April 1973]

The Capital of Punjab (Development and Regulation) Act, 1952Published in the Punjab Government Gazette (Extraordinary), of the 19th December, 1952. (Punjab Act 27 of 1952)Statement of Objects and Reasons - The construction of the New Capital of Punjab at Chandigarh is in progress. It is considered necessary to vest the State Government with legal authority to regulate the sale of building sites and to promulgate building rules on the lines of Municipal Bye-laws so long as a properly constituted local body does not take over the administration of the city. The Capital of Punjab (Development and Regulation) Bill, 1952, seeks to carry out the above objects and to repeal the Capital of Punjab (Development and Regulation) Act, 1952, which is a President's Act and is due to expire in April, 1953.Vide Punjab Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 23rd July, 1952, pp. 677- 78.An act to re-enact and modify the law in relation to the development and regulation of the new Capital of Punjab.It is hereby enacted as follows

. - [Omitted by the Capital of Punjab (Development and Regulation) (Chandigarh Amendment) Act, 1973, Central Act No. 17 of 1973 (Section 4)].

10. Appeal and revision.

(1) Any person aggrieved by an order of the Estate Officer made under [section 8 or 8-A] [Central Act 17 of 1923.] may, within thirty days of the date of the communication to him of such order, prefer an appeal to the Chief Administrator in such form and manner as may be prescribed : Provided that the Chief Administrator may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time. (2) The Chief Administrator may, after hearing the appeal, confirm, vary, or reverse the order appealed from and may pass such orders as he deems fit. (3) The Chief Administrator may, either of his own motion or on an application received in this behalf, at any time call for the record of any proceeding in which the Estate Officer has passed an order for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of such order and may pass such order in relation thereto as he thinks fit : Provided that Chief Administrator shall not pass an order under this section prejudicial to any person without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard. (4) Where a person is aggrieved by any order of the Chief Administrator, deciding a case under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), he may, within thirty days of the date of communication to him of such decision, make an application in writing to the [Central Government] [Substituted for the words 'State Government' by Punjab Reorganisation (Chandigarh) (Adaptation of Laws on State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.] for revision against the said decision; and the [Central Government] [Substituted for the words 'State Government' by Punjab Reorganisation (Chandigarh) (Adaptation of Laws on State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.] may confirm, alter or rescind the decision of the Chief Administrator.

11. Preservation and planting of trees.

- If it appears to the Chief Administrator that it is necessary or expedient to preserve or plant trees generally or of specified kind in Chandigarh, he may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make an Order (hereinafter referred to as the Trees Preservation Order) with respect to trees generally or such kind of trees, as may be specified in that order, and such order may regulate, restrict or prohibit-(a) the cutting down, topping, lopping or wilful destruction of trees, except with the previous permission of the Chief Administrator; and (b) the planting and replanting of any trees or kinds of trees in any site or location therein as may be specified in the order.

12. Control of advertisements.

- If it appears to the Chief Administrator that it is necessary or expedient to restrict or regulate the display of advertisements in Chandigarh he may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make an order (hereinafter referred to as the Advertisements Control Order) restricting or regulating the display of advertisements and such order may provide -(a) for regulating the dimensions, appearance and position of advertisements which may be displayed, the sites on which such advertisements may be displayed, and the manner in which they are to be affixed to land or building; (b) for requiring the permission of the Chief Administrator to be obtained for the display of advertisements; (c) for enabling the Chief Administrator to require the removal of any advertisement which is being displayed in contravention of the order of the discontinuance of the use for the display of advertisements of any site which is being used for that purpose in contravention of the order;(d)for fees to be charged for advertisements at places specified in the order.

13. Penalty for Contravention of directions, etc.

- Any person who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 4 or section 6 shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees and to a further fine which may extend to twenty rupees for each day during which the offence is proved to have continued after the first day.

14. Penalty for Contravention of Trees Preservation Order and Advertisements Control Order.

(1)If any person contravenes any provision of the Trees Preservation Order or of the Advertisements Control Order, he shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine, which may extend to five hundred rupees, and whoever after having been convicted of the contravention of any provision of either of the said Order continues to contravene the said provisions, shall, on a subsequent conviction, be punishable with fine, as aforesaid and to a further fine which may extend to twenty rupees for each day of continued contravention, after the previous date of conviction.(2)The Court while passing an order under sub-section (1) may direct that any trees or part thereof or any material used for advertisement, which is the subject of the contravention shall be forfeited to the [Central Government] [Substituted for the words 'State Government' by Punjab Re-organisation (Chandigarh) (Adaptation of Laws on State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.] or impose a fine of an amount which shall be equivalent to the value thereof.

15. Penalty for breach of rules.

- Except as otherwise provided for in this Act, any contravention of any of the rules framed thereunder shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, and in case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine, which may extend to twenty rupees, for each day during which such contravention continues after the first conviction; and the Court while passing any sentence on conviction of any person for the contravention of any rule, may direct that any property or part thereof in respect of which the rule has been contravened, shall be forfeited to the [Central Government] [Substituted for the words 'State Government' by Punjab Reorganisation Chandigarh (Adaptation of Laws on the State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.].Illustration. - Where an authorised structure has been constructed or any obnoxious material or substance is collected or heaped on a site in any authorised manner, or where an advertisement board has been set up in contravention of the Advertisements Control Order, such structure, material, substance or board shall be liable to forfeiture, and not the site or building on which the same may be located or fixed :Provided that if a building is begun, erected or re-erected in contravention of any of the building rules, the Chief Administrator shall be competent to require the building to be altered or demolished by a written notice delivered to the owner thereof within six months of its having begun or having been completed, as the case may be. Such notice shall also specify the period during which such alteration or demolition has to be completed and if the notice is not complied with, the Chief Administrator shall be competent to demolish the said building at the expense of the owner :Provided further that the Chief Administrator may, instead of requiring the alteration or demolition of any such building, accept by way of compensation such sum as he may deem reasonable.

16. Registration and licensing of architects, engineers and plumbers, etc.

- No architect or engineer who does not possess the qualifications, as detailed in [The First Schedule] [Substituted for the words 'the Schedule' by Punjab Act No. 37 of 1957, Section 3.] appended to this Act, shall be considered as duly qualified; and no person other than a duly qualified architect or engineer or any plumber shall be competent to certify any plan or completion of a building, or engage in any plumbing works, as the case may be, unless registered and licensed by the Chief Administrator.

17. Power of entry on buildings or land.

- The Chief Administrator, may authorise any person after giving twenty-four hours' notice to the occupier, or if there be no occupier, to the owner of any building or land, at any time between sunrise and sunset -(a)to enter on and to survey, and to take levels or measurements of any building or land;(b)to enter into any building or on any land for the purpose of examining works under construction, or of ascertaining the course of sewers or drains;(c)to enter into any building or on any land for the purpose of ascertaining whether any building is being or has been erected or re-erected without sanction or in contravention of any sanction given under this Act or the rules made thereunder and to take such measurements and do any other such acts as may be necessary for such purpose.

18. Procedure for prosecution.

- No court shall take cognizance of any offence punishable under this Act or any rule made thereunder except on the complaint of, or upon information given by, the Chief Administrator or any other person authorised by him in this behalf.[19. Bar of jurisdiction. - No court shall have jurisdiction to entertain any suit or proceeding in respect of the recovery of any arrears or penalty under section 8 or in respect of the resumption of any site or building, or both, as the case may be, under section 8-A or the forfeiture of any money under that section, or in respect of any order made, by the Central Government or any other authority in the exercise of any power conferred by or under this Act.] [Section 19 substituted by the Capital of Punjab (Development and Regulation) (Chandigarh Amendment) Act, 1973, Central Act, No. 17 of 1973 (section 6).]

20. Protection of action taken in good faith.

(1)No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Chief Administrator, Estate Officer, or any other person acting under their direction in respect of any thing which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or of any rules or orders made thereunder.(2)No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the [Central Government] [Substituted for the words 'State Government' by the Punjab Re-organisation Chandigarh (Adaptation of Laws on State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.], the Chief Administrator or the Estate Officer or any other person in respect of any damage caused or likely to be caused by anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this Act or rules or orders made thereunder.

21. Delegation.

(1)The [Central Government] [Substituted for the words 'State Government' by Punjab Reorganisation (Chandigarh) (Adaptation of Laws on State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.] may by order direct that any power exercisable by it under this Act shall be exercisable, subject to such conditions, if any, also by such officers subordinate to the [Central Government] [Substituted for the words 'State Government' by Punjab Reorganisation (Chandigarh) (Adaptation of Laws on State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.] as may be specified in the order.(2)The Chief Administrator may delegate all or any of his powers under this Act to any officer of the [Central Government] [Substituted for the words 'State Government' by Punjab Reorganisation (Chandigarh) (Adaptation of Laws on State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.] subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified by the Chief Administrator.

22. Power to make rules.

(1)The [Central Government] [Substituted for the words 'State Government' by Punjab Reorganisation (Chandigarh) (Adaptation of Laws on State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.] may, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.(2)In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :-(a)the terms and conditions on which any land or building may be transferred by the [Central Government] [Substituted for the words 'State Government' by Punjab Reorganisation (Chandigarh) (Adaptation of Laws on State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.] under this Act;(b)the manner in which consideration money for any transfer may be paid;(c)the rate of interest payable, and the procedure for payment of instalments, interest, fees, rents or other dues payable under this Act;(d)the terms and conditions under which the transfer of any right in any site or building may be permitted;(e)erection of any building or the use of any site;(f)levy of fees or taxes under section 7;(g)the terms and conditions for the breach of which any site or building may be resumed;(h)the conditions with regard to the buildings to be erected on sites transferred under this Act;(i)the form of notice and the manner in which notices may be served;(j)the form and manner in which appeals and applications under this Act may be filed and the court fees leviable on such appeals and applications;(k)the matters referred to in sub-section (2) of section 5;(l)any other matter which has to be or may be prescribed.(3)[(Omitted)] [Omitted by Punjab Reorganisation (Chandigarh) (Adaptation of Laws on State and Concurrent Subjects) Order, 1968.].

23. Repeal.

- The Capital of Punjab (Development and Regulation) Act, 1952 (President's Act V of 1952), is hereby repealed; Provided that any appointment, notification, order, scheme, rule, form or by-law, made or issued under the repealed Act shall, so far as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, continue in force and shall be deemed to have been made or issued under the provisions of this Act, as if this Act was in force at the time.
