It will give due publicity to its programme of admissions.(5)from out of the persons who have applied for admission to a course of study, an institution shall select, strictly on the basis of merit, such number of persons as it has been permitted by the Board to admit to that course of study plus such number of persons to be on the waiting list as the institution may deem proper:Provided that 12% seats will be reserved for persons belonging to the scheduled castes and scheduled tribes and 10% for women candidates. If suitable persons belonging to these categories are not available, these seats may be filled in by admitting persons who do not belong to these categories.(6)No person shall be admitted to a course of study by an institution unless he possesses such minimum qualifications and fulfils such conditions for admission to that course of study as may be laid down by the Board in the regulations relating to that course of study or otherwise.(7)Admissions to a particular course of study shall close on or before such date or dates as may be laid down by the Board in the regulations relating to that course of study or otherwise.(8)The institution will inform in writing all persons whom it has decided to admit to a particular course of study and ask them to deposit the prescribed fees etc. at least a fortnight before the last date fixed for the close of admissions.(9)Seats left vacant by some of the selected persons not depositing the prescribed fee, within the prescribed time, may be filled in by the institution before the date fixed for the close of admissions from out of the persons on the waiting list.

4. Studentship.

(1)A person shall be recognised as a student of an institution only after he has been duly admitted to it and after he has paid to the institution and to the Board such tuition and other fees and charges etc. as might have been prescribed by the Board.Provided that nothing in this Regulation will be deemed to authorize an institution to admit to any course of study more persons than the number of persons authorised by the Board: Provided further that payment by a person to an institution of an amount which is refundable in case of admission or re-admission shall not by itself entitle him to claim studentship of that institution or admission or re-admission to that institution. (2) A student, who absents himself from his institution for a period beyond one month or fails at an examination, shall cease to be a student of that institution and the question of his re-admission to the same class of a course of study shall rest with the head of the institution. (3) Whenever in the interest of the institution, the head of an institution is so satisfied, a student shall not be allowed to continue in the institution at the commencement of the next session but such continuation will not be denied solely on the grounds of religion, race, caste, language or any of them. (4) A student shall be bound to obey the rules of discipline and conduct of his institution and shall faithfully obey the regulations framed by the Board and applicable to him. (5) A student shall be bound to pay to the institution and to the Board within the prescribed period such tuition examination etc. fees and other such charges as may be prescribed by the Board or by the institution with the prior approval of the Board.

5. Transfer from one to another institution.

(1) No student shall be allowed a transfer from one institution to another without a transfer certificate issued by the head of the former institution, on such form as may be prescribed by the Board: Provided that no student shall be allowed a transfer from one institution to another institution after his application for admission to the ensuing examination of the Board has been forwarded to the Board except when allowed by the Chairman under very special circumstances. (2) If during an academic year a student desires to leave an institution in which he has been studying and to join another institution, he shall—(a) give notice to the former institution of his intention to leave; (b) make payment of all dues to the former institution upto the end of the month in which his name remains on the rolls of that institution and unless exempted as next hereinafter provided, pay a further sum of fifteen rupees. (c) refund to the former institution, whatever Scholarship, bursary etc. that might have been paid to him from the funds of the institution if so required by the former institution: Provided that if it is proved to the satisfaction of the head of the former institution that a change of the institution has been necessitated as a result of (i) a transfer to another district of the student's parent or guardian with whom he had been residing or (ii) a change of residence on the recommendation of a qualified medical practitioner, he shall remit the additional sum of fifteen rupees prescribed in the last preceding regulation. (3) When a student has made all the payments as required by these regulations, the head of the former institution shall grant a transfer certificate to him on such form as may be prescribed by the Board. (4) Except with the permission of the head of the former institution, a student shall not be given admission to another institution situated within the same city or District. (5) A student, who owing to failure at the institutional terminal examination has not been allowed promotion, shall not be admitted to a higher class in any other institution.

6. Migration Certificate.

- A student desirous of joining an institution affiliated to some other Board or an institution not affiliated to the Board may, on his submitting an application on such form as may be prescribed by the Board and on payment of a fee of ten rupees be granted a migration certificate by the Board on such form as may be prescribed by the Board.

7. Admissions after the commencement of the Session.

(1) Every academic year or session will commence on the 1st of July and will end on the 30th of June every year. It shall be divided into two terms, viz. summer term from January to June and winter term from July to December. (2) A person seeking admission to an institution after the commencement of a session shall be required to pay tuition fee from the month of July of the year unless he has migrated from another recognised institution where he has already paid his tuition fee upto preceding month.

8. Information about admissions, cessation of studentship, transfers etc..

(1) Heads of all affiliated institutions shall forward to the Registrar the name of every student admitted or re-admitted to a course of study in the institution together with such enrolment fee as may be prescribed by the Board. (2) A list of such students as have been admitted or re-admitted upto the 15th of September of an academic year shall be forwarded to the Registrar not later than the last working day of September of that year. Names of persons admitted or re-admitted after the 15th September shall be forwarded to the Registrar within a fortnight of such admissions or re-admissions. A list for each course of study shall be submitted separately. (3) All cases in which the name of a student is struck off the rolls of an institution or in which a student is transferred to another institution or migrates to another Board or an institution not affiliated to the Board, shall be reported to the Registrar by the Head of the institution before the end of the term in which such an event takes place.

9. Enforcement of discipline.

(1) When a student has been guilty of grave misconduct or persistent illness or of breach of discipline within or outside the precincts of the Board or of an affiliated institution the Head of the institution in which the student is studying or the Registrar of the Board may according to the gravity of the offence (i) suspend him from attending classes or (ii) inflict a fine or (iii) expel him or (iv) rusticate him for a period not exceeding one academic year or (v) disqualify him from appearing at the next ensuing examination: Provided that the Registrar or the Head of the institution may suspend a student temporarily from the institution pending enquiry into his conduct in connection with an alleged offence: Provided further that before inflicting any of the punishments as aforesaid the student concerned shall be given an opportunity to explain his conduct and an opportunity of being heard in person. (2) No student who has been so expelled shall be re-admitted to the same institution or shall be admitted to another affiliated institution without the permission of the Head of the institution from which he has been expelled and no student who has been rusticated, shall be admitted to any institution within the period for which he has been rusticated. (3) All cases of expulsion shall be reported to the Board for confirmation. If the order of expulsion is not confirmed by the Board, the expelled student may be admitted to another affiliated institution. (4) If a student commits a breach of discipline, within or outside the precincts of the Board or of an institution, after he has been sent up for the Board's examination, the Registrar or the Head of the institution in which he is studying may rusticate the student for the remaining period of the academic session and if this punishment is awarded to a student during the period of or after the examination but before the expiry of the academic year in which the examination is held, his examination shall be cancelled.(5)All orders of rustication under these regulations shall be reported to the Board for confirmation within the fortnight of the making thereof. If such orders are not confirmed by the Board, the examination of the student shall stand.
