- There shall be permanent as well as temporary posts under the Corporation.

Chapter II

Appointments, Probation & Termination of Service Appointments

9. Classification of Staff.

(1) For the purpose of these Regulations, the posts under the Corporation shall be classified into the following two categories, namely :-(a) Officers; and (b) Other employees. In addition, there will be further classification of the staff of the Corporation, as follows :-(i) Administrative staff; (ii) Audit & Accounts Staff; and (iii) Technical Staff; (2) The Board shall fix, from time to time, the number of posts in all categories of its employees and the pay scale to be attached to the posts. Normally the pay scales of all categories of employees of the Corporation shall be similar to those, as are obtaining the Government of Punjab for such categories of employees. The Board shall, however, have the power to prescribe different scales of pay in special circumstances.

10. Eligibility for appointments.

- No person shall be appointed to any post under the Corporation, unless he is :-(a) a citizen of India, or (b) a subject of Sikkim, or (c) a subject of Nepal, or (d) a subject of Bhutan, or (e) a Tibetan refugee who came over to India before the 1st January, 1962, with the intention of permanently setting in India, or (f) a person of Indian origin, who has migrated from Pakistan with the intention of permanently settling in India; Provided that candidate belonging to categories (b), (c), (d), (e) & (f) shall be a person in whose favour a certificate of eligibility has been given by the competent authority and if he belongs to category (f), the certificate of eligibility will be issued for a period of one year, after which such a candidate will be retained in service subject to his having acquired Indian Citizenship.

11. Manner of appointment.

- Appointment to various posts shall be made by one or more of the following methods (Details in Annexure 'A') (i) by direct appointment; or (ii) by promotion of existing personnel or by transfer from one post to another; (iii) by borrowing personnel from the State Government or Government Co-operative Institutions and any other Corporation.

12. Power to Appoint.

- All the appointments to the service of the Corporation shall be made by the Executive Director, subject, in the case of Officers, to the prior approval of the Board. But in cases of urgency and emergency, the executive Director may make appointment of Officers with the approval of the Chairman and report such of his actions to the Board at its next meeting for ex-pot facto sanction.

13. Age.

The age of a person at the time of his first appointment to the service of the Corporation shall not exceed :- (a) in the case of Officers, such as the Board may approve having regard to the qualifications required from the candidates; and (b) in other cases 27 years. Provided that the Board/Appointing Authority may in specific cases relax this condition having regard to the qualifications and experience of the candidates.

14. Qualifications.

- The Board/Appointing Authority may prescribe for various posts the qualifications, whether academic, technical or otherwise, or tests or physical standards or any experience that it may consider necessary and expedient for confirmation, promotion or continuing in service. However, except in case of Class IV employees, all categories of employees to be recruited must have passed Punjabi upto Matric Standard.

15. Certificate of Health and Good Character.

- The direct appointment of every person to any post under the Corporation shall be subject to production by such person, of a medical certificate of fitness from a Chief Medical Officer or the Medical Officer of the Corporation and also a certificate acceptable to the Executive Director that he bears a good moral character.

16. Re-appointment in the Corporation's service.

-(i) No person who has been dismissed from any public or private employment, or has otherwise ceased to be in the service of the Corporation shall be re-employed except with the specific approval of the Board; (ii) Except as otherwise provided by the Board at the time of his re-employment, these regulations shall apply to a person who is re-employed in the Corporation's service as if he had entered the service for the first time on the date of his re-employment.

17. Grant of initial increments on first appointment.

- The Executive Director may for special reasons to be recorded in writing grant initial increments to an employee on his first appointment, provided that all cases in which the pay of an employee is fixed at a stage higher than the minimum of the scale on which the appointment is made shall be subsequently reported to the Board, provided further that where the appointment in question is to be made for Officers, no initial increments shall be granted, except with the previous approval of the Board.

18. Commencement of Service.

- Except as otherwise provided by or under these Regulations, "Service" of an employee shall be deemed to commence from the working day on which an employee reports for duty in an appointment covered by these Regulations at the place and time intimated to him by the Executive Director, provided that he reports before noon, otherwise shall commence from the next following working day. Explanation. - "Service" includes the period during which an employee is on duty as well as on leave duly authorised by the Executive Director but does not include any period during which an employee is absent from duty without permission or over stays his leave, unless specially permitted by the Executive Director. Probation

19. Period of probation.

(1) All direct appointments shall, in the first instance, be on probation in respect of permanent posts and on temporary basis in respect of temporary posts. (2) Officials recruited directly will remain on probation for two years and they would be considered for confirmation after three years subject to availability of permanent posts. The probation period in case of promotees will however be one year. This rule, will not be applicable in case of Class IV employees. (3) If, at the expiration of the period of probation including extension, the work of a probationer is found to be satisfactory, the appointing authority shall confirm him; Provided that the appointing authority may in its discretion confirm him either from the date next after the date of expiration of the period of probation or from the date of his first appointment on probation. (4) The period of temporary continuous service against a permanent post shall be treated as part of the period of probation if it is followed by confirmation. (5) Temporary service against a temporary post, subsequently made permanent, will be counted towards probationary period for purposes of confirmation.

20. Discharge during probation.

(1) During the first month of his probationary period, an employee shall be liable to discharge at one day's notice or by payment of one day's pay and thereafter at one month's notice or by payment of pay for one month in lieu thereof. (2) The power to discharge shall be exercised by the appointing authority and only in the event of unsatisfactory performance of the duties by the concerned person during probationary period. Such power shall, however, be exercised only in the cases where it has been established, beyond doubt that the employee, if given extension, shall not be in a position to give satisfactory account of service. Termination of Service

21. Termination of service by notice.

(1) An officer or an employee shall not leave or discontinue his service on the Corporation without first giving notice in writing of his intention to do so to the Executive Director. The period of notice required shall be :- (a) three months in the case of an officer; and (b) one month in the case of an employee; Provided that in case of breach by an officer or an employee of the provision of this sub-regulation, he shall be liable to pay to the Corporation as compensation a sum equal to his pay for the period of notice required of him; Provided further that the payment of such compensation may be waived by the Executive Director with the approval of the Board in special circumstances to be recorded in writing. (2) The Corporation may terminate at any time the service of any officer or employee after giving him :- (a) three months notice or pay in lieu thereof in the case of an officer; and (b) one month's notice or pay in lieu thereof if he is an employee. This power shall be exercised by the Executive Director subject, in the case of officers, to the prior approval of the Board and other cases however to be brought to the notice of the Board for information only. (3) Nothing in sub-regulation (2) shall affect the right of the Corporation :- (a) to retire or dismiss an employee without notice or pay in lieu thereof in accordance with the provisions of Regulations; (b) to terminate the service of an employee without notice or pay in lieu thereof on his being certified by the Registered Medical Practitioner or the Corporation's Medical Officer to be permanently incapacitated for further continuous service in the Corporation. Explanation I. - The expression 'month' used in this Regulation shall be reckoned according to the English calendar and shall commence from the day following that on which notice is given by the employee or the Corporation as the case may be. Explanation II. - A notice given by an employee under sub-regulation (1) shall be deemed to be proper only if he remains on duty during the period of the notice, and an employee shall not be entitled to set off any leave earned and not availed of by him against the period of such notice. Explanation III. - If an employee to whom notice is given by the Corporation in pursuance of sub-regulation (2) or regulation 28 shall absent himself from duty without permission during the period of notice, he shall not be entitled to receive any pay or allowances during the period of absence and shall further be liable to such further penalties as the Executive Director may deem fit to impose.

(1) Deleted. (2) The service of an officer or other employee drawn on deputation from the Central Government or Government Co-operative Institutions or any other Corporation shall be terminated by reverting him to his parent service by the Executive Director, subject, in the case of an officer, to the prior approval of the Board.

23. Superannuation and Retirement.

(1) An officer or an employee of the Corporation shall retire on attaining the age of 58 years, provided that the appointing authority may, in the interest of the Corporation, sanction from time to time the extension of his employment for a period not exceeding one year at a time, but in no case beyond the age of sixty, provided further that nothing in this sub regulation shall be deemed to effect the powers of the Appointing Authority to employ any person above the age of 58 years on contract. (2) The appointing authority may, at his discretion, retire an officer or an employee of the Corporation on completion of 20 years of service or 50 years of age. Explanation. - Notwithstanding anything contained in this Regulation, where an employee has ordinary leave earned but not availed of as on the date of retirement as prescribed by this Regulation, he may be permitted to avail of the leave and in that case the employee will be deemed to retire from service on the expiry of the leave.

Chapter III

Record of Service, Seniority and Promotion

24. Record of service.

- The following record of service of every officer and other employees shall be maintained :- (i) Personal File; (ii) Service Book and (iii) Case File. Note. - Files at Nos. (i) and (ii) shall be maintained by the office and the file at No. (iii) shall remain in the personal custody of the Executive Director or any officer authorised by him.

25. Seniority.

- The inter-seniority of persons appointed to posts carrying the same scale of pay shall be determined by the dates of their substantive appointments to such posts : Provided that if two or more persons are substantively appointed to such posts on the same date, their seniority shall be determined as under :- (i) a person recruited by promotion from the service of the Corporation shall be senior to a person recruited otherwise; Provided that in the case of promotion of two or more persons their inter-seniority shall be determined according to their seniority in the posts from which they have been promoted. (ii) a person on deputation shall be senior to a person recruited by direct appointment; Provided that in the case to two or more persons on deputation their inter-seniority shall be determined according to their seniority in the parent service. (iii) in the case of persons recruited by direct appointment, the older in age shall rank senior to the younger; and (iv) in any other case, the person in the higher scale of pay shall be considered to be senior to a person in the lower scale of pay and, where the scales of pay are indetical, the person drawing higher salary shall rank senior. Note. - A person who, in view of his qualifications and previous experience, is granted initial increments in a grade at the time of his appointment, may be granted seniority for a period upto one year for every two increments granted to him in the grade to which he is appointed by the Executive Director, subject, in the case of an officer, to the prior approval of the Board.

26. Promotion.

- All promotions to posts under the Corporation shall be made on the basis of seniority-cum-merit and no person shall have a right to be promoted to any post on the basis of seniority alone.

27. Reversion.

(1) An employee transferred from one appointment to another or confirmed in a grade or appointment higher than his substantive grade or appointment, shall be liable to be reverted without notice at any time within one year of such transfer or confirmation. (2) An employee who has been appointed to officiate in a higher grade or appointment or whose confirmation in a higher grade of appointment is subject to his undergoing probation for any specified period or otherwise, shall be liable to be reverted without notice at any time, when he is so officiating or undergoing probation.(3)Nothing in sub-regulations (1) and (2) shall affect the provisions of Regulations.

Chapter IX

Pay, Allowances and other concessions Pay and Allowances

79. When accrue and payable.

- Subject to the provisions of these regulations, pay and allowances shall accrue from the commencement of the service of an employee, and shall become payable on the afternoon of the last working day of each month, in respect of the service performed during the said month.

80. When not payable for part of a month.

- Pay and allowances shall not be payable for a part of a month to an employee who leaves or discontinues his service without due notice during a month, unless such notice has been waived by the Executive Director.

81. When cease.

- Pay and allowance shall cease to accrue as soon as an employee ceases to be in service. In the case of an employee dismissed from the Corporation's service, they shall cease from the date of his dismissal. In the case of an employee who dies while in service, they shall cease from the day following that on which the death occurs.

82.

An employee of the Corporation shall, on appointment, be eligible to the minimum of the scale (as referred to in Appendix 'I' to these Regulations), to which he is appointed and which will be considered as his substantive scale and to which he shall revert when he is not :-(a)under suspension;(b)on leave or deputation; or(c)holding a temporary post or is officiating in another grade.Provided the appointing authority may, in consideration of special knowledge, training of experience, allow a higher initial start to any employee.

83. Adjustment of pay and allowances on change of charge, when taken effect.

- An employee shall commence to draw the pay and allowances of a post to which he is appointed as from the date on which he resumes the duties of the post if the charge is transferred before noon that date and from the following working day if the charge is transferred in the afternoon of that date.

84. Two persons not to be appointed to a post at the same time.

- Except as otherwise provided in these Regulations no two persons may be appointed to or draw the pay and allowances of, a post at the same time.

85. Employees on Transfer.

- Where an employee is transferred from one post to another, he shall, during any interval of duty between the date of his handing over charge of the old post and the date of his taking over charge of the new post, draw the pay and allowances of the old or the new post, whichever are less.

86. Admissibility of allowances.

- Allowances shall only be payable to employees who are actually at the time, fulfilling the conditions subject to which they are admissible.

87. Overtime allowance.

(1) Notwithstanding the fact that the whole time of an employee is at the disposal of the Corporation, the Corporation may grant overtime allowance, not counting as pay, to an employee who is required to work on Sundays or holidays or to put in extra hours on weak days in connection with the Corporation's work. (2) The rate and the circumstances in which such allowance may be drawn shall be determined by the Board.

88. Increments.

(1) In an incremental scale, the increment shall accrue on the completion of each specified period of service on each stage of that scale, whether such service be probationary, officiating or substantive. Acting service in a higher grade will count for increments in an employee's substantive grade as well as in the higher grade in which he is acting and if there is an intermediate grade between the two in which he would have officiated had he not been appointed to officiate in the higher grade, also in the intermediate grade, but the period during which an employee is on leave, without pay will not count for increment unless so authorised by the Executive Director for reasons to be recorded in writing. Sanction to draw increments will be given by the Executive Director in the case of Officers and by the Secretary in the case of other employees. (2) No increment may be withheld except as a disciplinary measure under regulation 46 and each order withholding an increments shall state the period for which it is withheld and whether the postponement shall have the effect of postponing further increments; Provided that if an incremental scale, there is an efficiency bar, an employee shall not draw increments above that bar until he has been certified fit to do so by the Executive Director. On each occasion on which employee is allowed to pass an efficiency bar which has previously been enforced against him, he shall be placed in the incremental scale at such stage as the Executive Director may fix provided that such stage shall not be higher than that at which he would draw his pay if the bar had not been enforced, against him and provided further that no increments granted on the removal of a bar shall have a retrospective effect.

89. Premature increments.

- The Executive Director may for special reasons to be recorded in writing, in exceptional circumstances, and subject to such general or special instructions as may be issued by the Board grant premature increments to an employee provided that the grant of such premature increments to an officer shall require the approval of the Board in each case.

90. Refixation of pay on promotion

. - On promotion from one grade to another, the substantive pay of an employee shall be initially fixed at the stage in the new scale which is next above his substantive pay in the old scale.

91. Officiating Pay.

- An employee who is appointed to officiate in a higher grade shall, so long as he shall officiate on such a grade, draw an officiating pay equal to the difference between the substance pay in the old scale and the stage in the scale of pay of the post in which he is appointed, which is next above his substantive pay in the old scale, provided that when the promotion is of a temporary nature and the circumstances of the promotion so justify, the Executive Director may fix the pay of an employee at an amount less than that admissible under this regulation.

92. Refixation of pay on transfer from one scale of pay to another.

- When an employee is transferred from one scale of pay to another on the revision of the scale or otherwise, and such transfer does not involve the assumption of duties or responsibilities of greater importance, his initial pay on the new scale shall be fixed :- (a) in case his substantive pay on the old scale is lower than the minimum of the scale to which he is transferred at the minimum of the new scale; (b) in other cases, at a stage which is equal to his substantive pay in the old scale, or if there is no such stage in the new scale, the stage next below that pay plus personal pay equal to the difference such personal pay to be drawn until such time as it is absorbed by subsequent increments in the new scale.

The appointing authority may, in recognition of exceptionally, good service of an employee of the Corporation grant to him :-(i)an award not exceeding one half of the pay of such an employee;(ii)one or two increments in the time scale of his post;Provided that the Board may award any amount of money or grant any number of increments.

94.

Specific sanction of the appointing authority shall be required to cross an efficiency bar in any time scale.

95.

Special pay at a rate determined by the appointing authority may be allowed to an employee holding charge of an independent post.

96.

The employees of the Corporation shall receive such allowances at the same rates and subject to the same conditions on which such allowances are paid to the employees of the Punjab Government.Note. - Nothing in this regulation shall prevent the Board from determining the rates and conditions other than those admissible to such categories of employees in the Punjab Government.

97.

Employees draw on deputation to the Corporation from the State/Central Government, Government Co-operative Institutions and other Corporations may either :-(i)accept the pay scale of the post under the Corporation subject to the fixation of their pay in such pay scale by the appointing authority; or(ii)continue to enjoy their pay scale in their parent service plus deputation pay as fixed/approved by the Government of Punjab/Central Government/Government Co-operative Institutions other Corporations and other allowances admissible to them in their parent service.Note. - A Government servant on deputation to the Corporation will be entitled to claim benefits of higher pay scale or of fixation of pay at a higher level with or without retrospective effect in the Corporations if such benefits have accrued to him in his parent service consequent upon decision in his favour of his appeal or representation or otherwise, as a matter of course.

98.

Ex gratia grants for families of Corporation employee who die while in service may be sanctioned by the Executive Director as per instructions of the Punjab Government in force at the time of occurrence. All other administrative formalities be completed by the Executive Director as are applicable in Punjab Government Department.

99.

The Corporation shall pay to the State Government/Central Government/Government Co-operative Institutions/other Corporations leave salary and pension contributions or any liability in respect of all their employees taken on deputation.

100. Grant of Honoraria, special increments or other concessions.

(1)The terms and conditions under which an honorarium or special increments may be granted to an employee of the Corporation for any special service rendered by him to, or work done by him for the Corporation, shall be determined by the Board.(2)A concession, the grant of which is not covered by these Regulations, may not be given to any employee, except with the sanction of the Board.

101. Any sum of money or pay or allowance due to any office or other employee of the Corporation that may have remained unclaimed may be transferred to, and held in the suspense account for a period of three years from the date on which the payment is normally due and will thereafter be treated as lapsed to the Corporation.
