- The text of the Standing Orders or any subsequent modification thereof in addition thereto as finally certified in addition to being pasted by the employer in English be also pasted in Hindi in the manner laid down in Section 9. Before pasting the Hindi version of the Standing Orders, the employer shall submit them to the Certifying Officer for his approval, who shall ensure the correctness of the same. The meaning conveyed by the language in which a Standing Order is certified shall prevail in case of any difference over the interpretation of any Standing Order.]

16. Authoritative copy of Standing Orders.

- In the case of difference between the [English and Hindi] [Substituted by S.O. 330 dated 12.3.1975.] copies of the Standing Orders, the English version as certified by the Certifying Officer, or the Appellate Authority, as the case may be, shall be taken to be the authoritative copy of the Standing Orders.

17. [Power to correct vernacular versions of Standing Orders. [Substituted by S.O. 330 dated 12.3.1975.]

- The Certifying Officer is hereby empowered to have the Hindi version corrected in case he is satisfied that it is not correct.]

18. Modification of Standing Orders.

- An application under sub-section (2) of Section 10 shall be made in Form VI.

19. Manner of service.

- All notices, notifications and orders under the Act and the Rules shall be served on the parties concerned by registered letter post, with acknowledgement due, or by special messenger. In the latter case, an acknowledgement in writing by or on behalf of the other party concerned shall be obtained in respect of such delivery. Appendix A (See Rule 5) Model Standing Orders

1. These orders shall come into force on.....

2. Classification of workmen. - (a) Workmen shall be classified as -

(1)Permanent,(2)Probationers,(3)Badlis,(4)Temporary,(5)Casual,(6)Apprentices.(b)A "permanent" workman is a workman who has been engaged on a permanent basis and includes any person who has satisfactorily completed a probationary period of three months in the same or another occupation in the industrial establishment, including breaks due to sickness, accident, leave, lockout, strike (not being an illegal) or involuntary closure of the establishment.(c)A "probationer" is a workman who is provisionally employed to fill a permanent vacancy in a post and has not completed three months' service therein. If a permanent employee is employed as a probationer in a new post he may, at any time during the probationary period of three months, be reverted to his old permanent post.(d)A "badli" is a workman who is appointed in the post of a permanent workman or probationer who is temporarily absent.(e)A "temporary" workman is a workman who has been engaged for work which is of an essentially temporary nature likely to be finished within a limited period.(f)A "Casual" workman is a workman whose employment is of a casual nature.(g)An "apprentice" is a learner who is paid an allowance during the period of his training.

2A. [Recruitment of workmen. [Inserted by G.S.R. 29 dated 18.3.1967.] - All vacancies will be notified to the local Employment Exchange and all recruitments be normally made from amongst the candidates sponsored by the Employment Exchange. Other sources of recruitment may be tried only when the local Employment Exchange gives a non-availability certificate.

While making recruitments, preference shall be given as under -(i)Ex-employees with good record;(ii)Near relatives of employees;(iii)People of the locality; and(iv)People of the State.The preference in respect of relations will, however, be limited to only one near relation of an employee and that too in respect of such employees as have put in a sufficiently long term of service in the establishment. Similarly, in respect of ex-employees the preference will be restricted to persons with a certain minimum period of total service in the establishment say about one year.]

3. Tickets. - Every workman shall be given a permanent ticket unless he is a probationer, badli, temporary worker or apprentice.

(2)Every workman shall be provided with a departmental ticket showing his number, and shall, on being required to do so, show it to any person authorised by the manager to inspect it.(3)Every badli shall be provided with a badli card on which shall be entered the days on which he has worked in the establishment and which shall be surrendered if he obtains permanent employment.(4)Every temporary workman shall be provided with a 'temporary' ticket which he shall surrender on his discharge.(5)Every casual worker shall be provided with a 'casual' card, on which shall be entered the days on which he has worked in the establishment.(6)Every apprentice shall be provided with an 'apprentice' card, which shall be surrendered if he obtains permanent employment.

4. Publication of working time. - The periods and hours of work for all classes of workers in each shift shall be exhibited in English and the principal languages of workmen employed in the establishment on notice boards maintained at or near the main entrance of the establishment and at the timekeeper's office if any. .

[Where such a notice pertains to a particular department or departments of the establishment, it shall also be displayed in the department concerned.] [Inserted by S.O. 330 dated 12.3.1975.]

5. Publication of holidays and pays. - Notices specifying (a) the days observed by the establishment as holidays and (b) pay days shall be posted on the said notice boards.

6. Publication of wage rates. - Notices specifying the rates of wages payable to all classes of workman and for all classes of work shall be displayed on the said notice boards.

7. [Shift working. [Substituted by Notification No. II/S2-1646/60-L-4635 dated 21.5.1960.] - More than one shift may be worked in a department or departments or any section of department of the establishment at the discretion of the employer. If more than one shift is worked, the workmen shall be liable to be transferred from one shift to another. No shift working shall be discontinued without two month's notice being given in writing to the workmen prior to such discontinuance provided that no such notice shall be necessary if the closing of the shift is under an agreement with the workmen affected. If as a result of the discontinuance of the shift working, any workmen are to be retrenched, such retrenchment shall be effected in accordance with the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), and the Rules made thereunder. If shift working is restarted, the workmen shall be given notice and reemployed in accordance with the provisions of the said Act and the said Rules.]

Employment Standing Orders Rules

7A. [Notice of change in shift working. [Inserted by Notification No.II/S2-1050/61-L & E-4140 dated 16.6.1961.] - Any notice of discontinuance or restarting of a shift working required by model Standing Order No. 7 shall be in Form VII appended to these Rules and shall be served in the manner hereinafter specified.

The notice shall be displayed conspicuously by employer on a notice board at the main entrance to the establishment and in manager's office: Provided that where any registered trade union of workmen exists, a copy of the notice shall also be served by registered post on the Secretary of such Union.]

8. Attendance and late coming. - All workmen shall be at work at the establishment at the times fixed and notified under paragraph 4. Workmen attending late will be liable to the deductions provided for in the Payment of Wages Act, 1936.

9. Leave. - (1) Holidays with pay will be allowed as provided for in Chapter IVA of the Factories Act, 1948, and other holidays in accordance with law, contract, custom and usage.

(2)[In case of sickness a permanent workman shall be granted sick leave with full pay up to 15 days or 30 days with half pay in one calender year. Application for leave should be duly supported with medical certificate from the management's Medical Officer and where there is no such officer at the place where the worker falls sick, from a Registered Medical Practitioner. In case of doubt the management may require the worker to be examined by the Company's Medical Officer whose certificate above will be treated as final: Provided that this provision shall not apply where sickness benefits are available under the Employees State Insurance Act, 1948 (Act 34 of 1948). Extraordinary leave with or without pay may, at the discretion of the management in special circumstances, be granted to a workman when no other leave of any kind is due. A record shall be maintained of all leave of absence which are sanctioned, refused or postponed and reasons for refusal or postponement shall in every case, be entered therein. The record shall be open for inspection by the workman concerned.] Inserted by S.O. 330 dated 12.3.1975 and existing sub-paras (2) & (3) made (3) & (4) thereof. A workman who desires to obtain leave of absence shall apply to the manager who shall issue orders on the application within a week of its submission or two days prior to the commencement of the leave applied for, whichever is earlier, provided that if the leave applied for is to commence on the date of the application or within three days thereof, the order shall be given on the same day. If the leave asked for is granted, a leave pass shall be issued to the worker. If the leave is refused or postponed, the fact of such refusal or postponement and the reasons therefor, shall be recorded in writing in a register to be maintained for the purpose, and if the worker so desires, a copy of the entry in the register shall be supplied to him. If the workman after proceeding on leave desires an extension thereof he shall apply to the manager who shall send a written reply either granting or refusing extension of leave of the workman if his address is available and if such reply is likely to reach him before the expiry of the leave originally granted to him.(4) If the workman remains absent beyond the period of leave originally granted or subsequently extended, he shall lose his lien on his appointment unless he (a) returns within 8 days of the expiry of the leave and (b) explains to the satisfaction of the manager his inability to return before the expiry of his leave. In case the workman loses his lien on his appointment, he shall be entitled to be kept on the 'badli' list.

10. Casual leave. - [A workman may be granted casual leave of absence for a period not exceeding 10 days in the aggregate in a calendar year out of which at least 5 days must be with full pay.] [Substituted by S.O. 330 dated 12.3.1975.] Such leave shall not be for more than three days at a time except in case of sickness. Ordinarily, the previous permission of the head of the department in the establishment shall be obtained before such leave is taken, when this is not possible, the head of the department shall, as soon as may be practicable, be informed in writing of the absence from and of the probable duration of such absence. [Holidays declared by the establishment and weekly holidays may be prefixed or suffixed, as the case may be, to casual leave.] [Added by S.O. 330 dated 12.3.1975.]

11. Payment of wages. - (1) Any wages, due to the workman but not paid on the usual pay day on account of their being unclaimed shall be paid by the employer on an unclaimed wage pay day in each week, which shall be notified on the notice boards as aforesaid.

(2) All workmen will be paid wages on a working day before the expiry of the seventh or the tenth day after the last day of the wages period in respect of which the wages are payable, according as the total number of workman employed in the establishment does not or does exceed one thousand.

12. Stoppage of work. - (1) The employer may, at any time, in the event of fire, catastrophe, breakdown of machinery or stoppage of power supply, epidemics, commotion or other cause beyond his control, stop any sections of the establishment, wholly or partially for any period or periods without notice.

(2) In the event of such stoppage during working hours, the workmen affected shall be notified by notices put upon the notice boards in the department concerned, or at the office of the manager, as soon as practicable, when work will be resumed and whether they are to remain or leave their place of work. The workman shall not ordinarily be required to remain for more than two hours after the commencement of the stoppage. If the period of detention does not exceed one hour the workmen so detained shall not be paid for the period of detention. If the period of detention exceed one hour, the workmen so detained shall be entitled to receive wages for the whole of the time during which they are detained as a result of the stoppage. In case of piece-rate workers the average daily earning for the previous month shall be taken to be the daily wage. No other compensation will be admissible in case of such stoppages. Wherever practicable, reasonable notice shall be given of resumption of normal work. (3) In cases where workmen are laid off for short periods on account of failure of plant or a temporary curtailment of production, the period of unemployment shall be treated as compulsory leave either with or without pay, as the case may be, when, however, workmen have to be laid off for an indefinitely long period, their services may be terminated after giving them due notice or pay in lieu thereof. (4) The employer may in the event of a strike affecting either wholly or partially any section or department of the establishment close down either wholly or partially such section or department and any other section or department affected by such closing down. The fact of such closure shall be notified by notices put on the notice boards in the section or department concerned and in the time-keeper's office, if any as soon as practicable. The workmen concerned shall also be notified by a general notice prior to resumption of work as to when work will be resumed.

13. Termination of employment. - (1) For terminating employment of a permanent workman notice in writing shall be given either by the employer or the workman-one month's notice in the case of monthly-rated workmen and two weeks notice in the case of other workmen: one month's or two weeks pay, as the case may be paid in lieu of notice.

(2) No temporary workman whether monthly rated, weekly rated or piece-rated and no probationer or badli shall be entitled to any notice or pay in lieu thereof, if his services are terminated, but the services of a temporary workman shall not be terminated as a punishment unless he has been given an opportunity of explaining the charges of misconduct alleged against him in the manner prescribed in paragraph 14. (3) Where the employment of any workman is terminated, the wages earned by him and other dues, if any, shall be paid before the expiry of the second working day from the day on which his employment is terminated.

14. Disciplinary action for misconduct. - [(1) A workman guilty of misconduct may be (a) warned or censured or (b) fined subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936, or (c) suspended by the manager for a period not exceeding 10 days or (d) stopped from earning his increment for a specified period or discharged or dismissed.] [Substituted by S.O. 330 dated 12.3.1975, sub-paras (3) to (6) re-numbered as 3 to 5 thereof.]

(2) The following acts and omission shall be treated as misconduct. -(a) Wilful insubordination or disobedience, whether alone or in combination with others, to any lawful and reasonable order of a superior; (b) theft, fraud, or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property; (c) wilful damage to or loss of employer's goods or property; (d) taking or giving bribes or any illegal gratification; (e) habitual absence without leave or absence without leave for more than 10 days; (f) habitual late attendance; (g) habitual breach of any law applicable to the establishment; (h) riotous or any act subversive of discipline; (i) habitual negligence or neglect of work; (j) frequent repetition of any act or omission for which a fine may be imposed to a maximum of 2 per cent of the wages in a month; (k) striking work or inciting others to strike work in contravention of the provisions of any law, or Rule having the force of law; (l) [smoking in prohibited places; [Inserted by S.O. 330 dated 12.3.1975.]] (m) sleeping while on duty; (n) deliberate slowing down of work; (o) conviction in any court of law for an offence involving moral turpitude; (p) giving false information in writing regarding one's age, father's name, qualification or previous service at the time of employment; and (q) threatening, abusing or assaulting any superior or co-worker inside the establishment premises.](3) [No order of punishment shall be made unless the workman concerned is informed in writing of the alleged misconduct, gross negligence or inefficiency and has been given an opportunity to explain the circumstances alleged against him. On receipt of the explanation or if no explanation is received, the employer shall proceed to make enquiries and take such evidence as may be necessary to prove the allegations against the charged work man. The workman concerned, if he so desires, will have the right to cross-examine, whether himself or through another employee of the establishment, the witness produced against him and to produce the evidence in his defence. If on consideration of all the evidence produced during the enquiry the employer finds the workman guilty and decides to punish the workman he shall pass final order accordingly and a copy of the order shall contain the particulars of the charge, the workmen's plea, the Enquiring Officer's report and the grounds on which the proposed punishment is being given.] Substituted by S.O. 330 dated 12.3.1975. [(a) Where allegations of misconduct are made against a workman and the employer considers that he should be suspended from duty pending enquiry into such allegations, he may do so by serving on the workman an order in writing to that effect. Such an order shall take effect immediately on its delivery to the workman. It shall be accompanied by a chargesheet setting out the details of the alleged misconduct and the workman shall be given an opportunity of explaining the circumstances alleged against him. The procedure laid down in sub-paragraph (3) above shall then be followed. Refusal to take copies of the suspension order and charge-sheet in the presence of two independent witnesses will amount to proper service of the suspension order along with the charge sheet. (b) A workman who is placed under suspension shall during the period of suspension be paid subsistence allowance at the following rates, namely: -The subsistence allowance for the first 90 days from the date of suspension shall be equal to one-half of the basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances to which a workman would have entitled if he was on leave with wages. If the departmental enquiry gets prolonged and the workman continues to be under suspension for a period exceeding 90 days the subsistence allowance shall for such period be equal to three-fourth of such basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances: Provided that where such enquiry is prolonged beyond the period of 90 days for reasons directly attributable to the workman, the subsistence allowance shall for the period exceeding 90 days, be reduced to one-fourth of such basic wages, dearness allowance and other compensatory allowances. (c) If on enquiry, the workman is found guilty of the charge, the employer shall pass such final orders as he may consider necessary to meet the ends of justice. Keeping in view the gravity of the offence such final order will also specify the extent to which the workman shall be entitled to receive any remuneration for such period, but the subsistence allowance already paid or payable to him for such period shall not be recovered or withheld. The final order so passed must specify the period of suspension for which no pay will be admissible, otherwise the workman shall be entitled to the full wages which he would have received if he had not been suspended: Provided that in the case of a workman to whom the provisions of clause (2) of Article 311 of the Constitution of India applies, provisions of the Article shall be complied with. No order of dismissal or discharge shall be passed without the approval of the Manager of the establishment, or where there is no Manager, of the employer. The workman may appeal against the order of dismissal or discharge to the next higher authority in the management or to the Works Committee. [Explanation. - In case the order of dismissal or discharge is passed by the manager of the establishment, the appeal against the order shall be before the next higher authority in the management, but in case, the order of dismissal or discharge is passed by the employer himself; the appeal in this behalf shall be before the Works Committee of the establishment.] [Substituted by S.O. 330 dated 12.3.1975.] (d) If on enquiry the workman is found not guilty of the charge he shall be deemed to have been on duty during the period of suspension and shall be entitled to the same wages as he would have received if he had not been suspended, after deducting the subsistence allowance paid to him for such period. (5) In awarding punishment under this standing order, the manager shall take into account the gravity of the misconduct, the previous record, if any, of the workman and any other extenuating or aggravating circumstances that may exist. A copy of the order passed by the manager shall be supplied to the workman concerned.

15. Complaints. - All complaints arising out of employment including those relating to unfair treatment or wrongful exaction on the part of the employer or his agent, shall be submitted to the manager or other person specified in this behalf with the right of appeal to employer.

16. Certificate on termination of service. - Every permanent workman shall be entitled to a service certificate at the time of his dismissal, discharge or retirement from service.

17. Liability of manager. - The manager of the establishment shall personally be held responsible for the proper and faithful observance of the Standing Orders.

18. Exhibition of Standing Order. - A copy of these orders in English and in Hindi or Urdu shall be pasted at the manager's office and on a notice board maintained at or near the main entrance to the establishment and be kept in a legible condition.
