The Mumbai Metropolitan Region Specified Commodities Markets (Regulation of Location) Act, 1983 Maharashtra Act No. 42 of 1983 For Statement of Objects and Reasons see Maharashtra Government Gazette, extraordinary, Part V, dated the 4th July, 1983, at pages 254-256. [This Act received the assent of the President on 22nd November, 1983; assent first published in the Maharashtra Government Gazette on the 2nd December, 1983.] An Act to regulate location of market areas and wholesale markets in respect of specified commodities in [the Mumbai Metropolitan Region] [These words were substituted for the words 'Bombay Metropolitan Region' by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, Schedule, entry (4), clause 1 in column (2).] and to establish market committees to manage and control different markets established in different market areas for different commodities and to provide for matters connected therewith or supplemental or incidental thereto. Whereas [the Mumbai Metropolitan Region Development Authority] [These words were substituted for the words 'Bombay Metropolitan Region Development Authority' by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, clause 2(a), by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, clause 2(a)(i).] has been established under [Mumbai Metropolitan Region Development Authority Act, 1974] [These words were substituted for the words and figures 'the Bombay Metropolitan Region Development Authority Act, 1974' by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, Schedule, clause 2(a)(ii)] for the purpose of planning, co-ordinating and supervising the proper, orderly and rapid development of the areas in the Bombay Metropolitan Region; And Whereas, with the fast growth of population and commercial activities, the congestion and consequent traffic, accommodation and other problems in [Brihan Mumbai] [These words were substituted for the words 'Greater Bombay' by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, Schedule, clause 2(b)(i).] and particularly in [South Mumbai] [These words were substituted for the words 'South Bombay' by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, Schedule, clause 2(b)(ii).] have been increasing enormously and therefore the State Government has accepted the policy to decongest the old island City and to shift as many commercial activities as possible to place outside [South Mumbai] [These words were substituted for the words 'South Bombay' by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, Schedule, clause 2(b)(ii).] for achieving the objectives for which the Metropolitan Authority is established; And Whereas, with a view to relieving some of the congestion, steps are being taken under the Maharashtra Agricultural Produce Marketing (Regulation) Act, 1963, to shift wholesale markets for some of the agricultural produce like onions and potatoes to [Navi Mumbai] [These words were substituted for the words 'New Bombay' by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, Schedule, clause 2(c).]; And Whereas, necessity is increasingly felt to locate or relocate wholesale markets for some of the non-agricultural products also like textiles and iron and steel immediately and for other commodities as soon as possible; And Whereas, at present there is no provision of law available to enable the State Government, the Metropolitan Authority or any local authority to take any appropriate steps for establishing or shifting such markets to other localities; And Whereas, it is, therefore, necessary to enact a law immediately to regulate the location of market areas and wholesale markets in respect of commodities specified, from time to time, under such law and to establish market committees to manage and control different markets established for different commodities in different market areas and to provide for matters connected therewith or supplemental or incidental thereto: It is hereby enacted in the Thirty-fourth Year of the Republic of India as follows :-

Chapter I

Preliminary

1. Short title, extent, commencement and application.

(1) This Act may be called [the Mumbai Metropolitan Region Specified Commodities Markets (Regulation of Location) Act, 1983.] [These words, brackets and figures were substituted for the words, brackets and figures, 'the Bombay Metropolitan Region specified Commodities Markets (Regulation of Location) Act, 1983' by Maharashtra 25 of 1996 Schedule entry (4), clause 3(a).] (2) It shall extend to all the areas for the time being comprised in [the Mumbai Metropolitan Region] [These words were substituted for the words the Bombay Metropolitan Region' by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, Schedule, clause 3(b)(i).] as defined in [the Mumbai Metropolitan Region Development Authority Act, 1974] [These words and figures were substituted for the words and figures 'the Bombay Metropolitan Region Development Authority Act, 1974' by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, Schedule, clause 3(b)(ii).] (3) It shall come into force in [Brihan Mumbai] [These words were substituted for the words 'Greater Bombay' by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, Schedule, clause 3(c).] at once. It shall come into force in any other area in the Bombay Metropolitan Region on such date as the State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint: and different dates may be appointed for different areas. (4) (a) It applies in the first instance in [Brihan Mumbai] [These words were substituted for the words 'Greater Bombay' by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, Schedule, clause 3(b).] to the two commodities that is to say, (1) textiles, and (2) iron and steel, which are specified in the Schedule. (b) The State Government may, either suo motu or on a request being made by the Metropolitan Authority, by Notification in the Official Gazette, amend the Schedule under section 70 by inserting thereon any other commodity and may by the same notification or by like notification declare that this Act shall apply in any area to any commodity (whether already included or newly included in the Schedule) from such date as may be specified in such notification and different dates may be specified for different areas and for different commodities.

Chapter II

Declaration of Market area and Market Yards and Prohibition of Carrying Trade at Unauthorised Places

3. Declaration of market area and market yards.

(1) On the recommendation of the Metropolitan Commissioner; the Metropolitan Authority may, by notification in the Official Gazette, declare any area in the Metropolitan Region described in the notification to be the market area in respect of any specified commodity and shall by the same or by a separate notification specify one or more market yards and sub-market yards for the market area, which may, if necessary, be located outside the market area. (2) Before making any recommendation for issue of any notification under sub-section (1), the Metropolitan Commissioner shall cause to be published in the Official Gazette, and in at least two newspapers having circulation in the proposed market area, a public notice of his intention to recommend to the Authority to issue such notification in respect of the area and the commodities described in such notice and inviting objections or suggestions in writing in respect of the said intention, within forty days from the date of publication of the public notice in the Official Gazette. Any objections or suggestions which may be received by the Metropolitan Commissioner in time shall be taken into consideration by him, before making his recommendation to the Authority. (3) A plan showing the boundaries of the market area as declared under sub-section (1) and the boundaries of the market yards shall be made available for inspection at the office of the Metropolitan Commissioner and of the market committee and at such other places as may be notified by him in this behalf.

4. Constitution of first market committee.

(1) As soon as possible after any area is declared to be a market area for any commodity under sub-section (1) of section 3, the State Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, constitute the first market committee therefor which shall consist of a Chairman, a Vice-Chairman and such number of other members nominated by the State Government as the State Government may consider necessary. (2) Every member (including the Chairman and Vice-Chairman) shall hold office for such period as the State Government may fix in each case. (3) All members (including the Chairman and Vice-Chairman) of the first market committee shall be deemed to vacate office, when the first meeting of the successor market committees duly constituted under sub-section (1) of section 9 is held, at which a quorum is present.

5. Registration of persons lawfully engaged in specified trade.

(1) As soon as possible, after any area is declared to be a market area for any commodity, the Chief Executive Officer shall issue a notice and publish it in at least four newspapers having circulation in the market area inviting all persons lawfully engaged in the specified trade to apply in writing to him for registering themselves with the market committee. Such applications shall be invited within a reasonable period as may be specified in the notice which shall not be less than fifteen days and shall not be more than forty-five days, calling upon the applicants to adduce evidence that the applicants have been actively and lawfully engaged in the specified trade in the area immediately before the date of notification issued under sub-section (1) of section 3. (2) Any person other than the person referred to in sub-section (1) intending to carry on a specified trade in any market yard shall also apply to the Chief Executive Officer for registering his name with the market committee. (3) The application for such registration shall be made in such form and shall be accompanied by such documents as the Chief Executive Officer may, with the approval of the Metropolitan Commissioner, notify. It shall also be accompanied by such fee as may be laid down by the by-laws.(4)The Chief Executive Officer shall consider all applications received by him. If he is satisfied, on making such further inquiry (if any) as he may deem fit, that any applicants were actively and lawfully engaged in or intending to carry on the specified trade, he shall include their names in the register to be maintained by him and inform the applicants accordingly. Every such registered person shall be eligible to get licence as provided in section 33.(5)If the Chief Executive Officer refuses to register the name of any person who has applied for the same he shall communicate his decision in writing with reasons therefor to such person:Provided that, no order under this sub-section shall be passed, unless the person concerned is given a reasonable opportunity to state his case.(6)If the Chief Executive Officer, on application made to him or on his own motion, is satisfied, after such inquiry as he thinks fit, that any entry in the register is erroneous or defective in any particular or should be deleted on the ground that the person concerned has ceased to carry on the specified trade, he may, after giving a reasonable opportunity of being heard to the person concerned, amend or delete the entry.(7)Any person aggrieved by any decision of the Chief Executive Officer in regard to the refusal or registration or amendment or deletion of an entry of his name in the register may make an appeal in writing to the Metropolitan Commissioner within one month of the receipt of the communication from the Chief Executive Officer in that regard.(8)The decision of the Chief Executive Officer in regard to such registration, and where an appeal is made against it, the decision of the Metropolitan Commissioner shall be final.

6. Market committee to provide alternative trading facilities to registered persons in market yards.

(1)It shall be incumbent on the market committee to provide registered trader with suitable alternative facilities at such places in the market yard of such nature and size and on such terms and conditions as the committee may determine, to enable him to carry on his specified trade in the market yard:Provided that, if any such person fails to utilise the alternative facilities so provided, within sixty days from the date of the allotment order made by the committee in that behalf, the liability of the committee to provide such facilities shall cease.(2)Any registered trader, being aggrieved by any allotment order of the committee, may appeal to the Metropolitan Commissioner within one month from the date of receipt of such order, and the order of the Metropolitan Commissioner on such appeal, shall be final:Provided that, no order shall be passed by the Metropolitan Commissioner on such appeal against any registered trader, without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

7. Prohibition on carrying on specified trade in any market area or market yard without a licence.

(1)On and after the date specified by the Metropolitan Commissioner, by notification in the Official Gazette (hereinafter referred to as "the appointed date"), no person shall carry on the specified trade in any place in the market area, other than in the market yard or sub-market yard, and except under and in accordance with the conditions of a licence granted in that behalf under this Act.(2)Save as otherwise permitted by the Metropolitan Authority, no local authority having jurisdiction in the market area, shall, on and after the appointed date, notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, establish, authorise or continue or allow to be established, authorised or continued any place in the market area as a market or a place to carry on the specified trade and any permission or licence already granted by it shall stand cancelled on the appointed date. Upon such cancellation of any permission or licence, the holder of such permission or licence shall not be entitled to claim and receive any compensation, but shall be entitled to claim and receive such amount towards refund of the fees paid by him as is proportional to the unexpired period of such permission or licence.

Chapter III

Constitution of Market Committees

8. Establishment of market committees.

(1) For every market area, there shall be a market committee. 11. Publication of names of members.

- The Metropolitan Commissioner shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, publish the names of all the members of the committee, elected or nominated or, as the case may be, appointed under sub-section (1) of section 9 and the committee shall be deemed to have been constituted from the date of such publication of names of members:Provided that, if for any reason there is failure to elect or nominate a member on the part of any of the elections or other authority competent to elect or nominate, the committee shall be deemed to have been duly constituted if the names of two-thirds of the total number of members of the committee are published in the Official Gazette, and as regards the names if the remaining members elected, or nominated or appointed under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 9 thereafter, the Metropolitan Commissioner shall subsequently publish the names of the members in the Official Gazette, as and when a member is elected or nominated or, as the case may be, appointed.

12. Disputes in respect of election or nomination or members including Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

- No election of a member (including Chairman and Vice-Chairman) may be called in question, except by a petition presented to the City Civil Court or the Civil Judge (Senior Division) within whose jurisdiction the market yard is situated, by a candidate at the election or by any person entitled to vote at the election, within ten days after the publication of the names of members in the Official Gazette.

13. Term of office of members of committee.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this Act, the members of a committee (not being a committee constituted for the first time) shall hold office for a period of four years from the date referred to in sub-section (2): Provided that, the State Government may, by an order in the Official Gazette, extend the term of office of members of any committee for a period not exceeding one year. (2) The term of office of members of a committee shall be deemed to commence on the date of the first meeting of the committee held in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3). (3) The first meeting of the committee shall be held on such date as may be fixed by the Metropolitan Commissioner, or by the Chief Executive Officer if authorized by him by a general or special order, in that behalf, which date shall be within thirty days from the date on which the names of members are published in the Official Gazette and the Committee is constituted in accordance with the provisions of section 11. Such meeting shall be presided over by the Chief Executive Officer. (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3), such meeting shall not be held before the expiry of the term of office of members of an existing committee.

14. Resignation of members.

- Any member of the committee may resign his office by tendering his resignation in writing to the Chief Executive Officer and such resignation shall be effective on its receipt by the Chief Executive Officer.

15. Removal of members.

(1) The Metropolitan Commissioner may by himself or on the advice of the Chief Executive Officer, remove any member from office if he—(i) is or becomes subject to any of the disqualifications for becoming a member specified in the regulations made under section 10; or (ii) is professionally interested or engaged in any case for or against the committee; or (iii) absents himself from four successive meetings of the committee, except with the leave of absence granted by the committee; or (iv) has, in the opinion of the Metropolitan Commissioner, been guilty of neglect or misconduct in the discharge of his duties of any disgraceful conduct; (v) has, in the opinion of the Metropolitan Commissioner, become incapable of performing his duties as a member: Provided that, no member shall be removed from office unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity by the Metropolitan Commissioner to show cause why such action should not be taken against him. (2) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Metropolitan Commissioner may within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of the decision of the Metropolitan Commissioner by him, appeal to the State Government and the order passed by the State Government on such appeal shall be final: Provided that, no order shall be passed by the State Government in appeal against any member without giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

16. Casual vacancies.

(1) A casual vacancy of a member occurring in the committee due to any reason whatsoever shall be filled by election or nomination or appointment, as the case may be, as provided in sub-section (1) of section 9, within forty-five days of the occurrence of the vacancy: Provided that, if the vacancy occurs within four months preceding the date on which the term of office of the member expires, the vacancy shall not, unless the State Government otherwise directs, be filled. (2) Where a person becomes or is elected or nominated or appointed as a member of the committee by virtue of holding any office or being a member of the Parliament, State Legislature, any local authority, committee, association or body, whether incorporated or not, he shall cease to be a member of the committee, as soon as he ceases to be holder of that office or ceases to be such member, as the case may be.

17. Members to vacate office on expiry of term and appointment of administrator.

(1) On the expiry of the term or extended term of office of the members of a committee as mentioned in sub-section (1) of section 13, all members of the committee shall vacate their office: Provided that, if for any reasons whatsoever, a committee is not constituted in accordance with the provisions of section 11 before the date of expiry of the term or extended term of office of the members, then the powers and functions of the committee shall, until a committee is so constituted, vest in an administrator appointed by the Metropolitan Commissioner: Provided further; that, if the appointment of the administrator is likely to continue for a period of more than three months, the Metropolitan Commissioner shall obtain the approval of the State Government before continuing such appointment beyond three months. (2) The administrator shall receive such monthly salary and allowances from the Market Fund and shall be subject to such conditions of service as the State Government may from time to time determine. When a salaried servant of the State Government is appointed as the administrator; such contribution to his pension, leave and other allowances as may be required by the conditions of his service under the Government to be made by him or on his behalf, shall be paid to the State Government from the Market Fund.

18. Election of Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

- Every committee shall have a Chairman and a Vice-Chairman who shall be elected by the members of the committee in accordance with the regulations made under section 10.

19. Term of office of Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

- The term of office of the Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall be two years from the date of the election or the remainder of their term of office as members, whichever is less, but a retiring Chairman or Vice-Chairman shall be eligible for re-election.

20. Honorarium to Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

- The committee may, subject to the provisions of by-laws made in that behalf, pay to the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman an honorarium of such amount as may be specified in the by-laws: Provided that, no honorarium shall be payable to any Chairman or Vice-Chairman, if he is a member of the Parliament or of the State Legislature.

21. Election of Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

- Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 4, the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman shall be elected in the first meeting of the committee held in accordance with the provision of sub-section (3) of section 13 and on the expiry of the term of the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman under section 19 or, as the case may be, where there is a vacancy of the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman, they shall be elected by the members in the meeting of the committee to be called by the Chief Executive Officer, within fifteen days from the date on which the term has so expired or, as the case may be, the vacancy has occurred. Such meeting shall be presided over by the Metropolitan Commissioner.

22. Resignation of Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

- A Chairman or a Vice-Chairman may resign his office by tendering his resignation in writing to the Chief Executive Officer and the resignation shall be effective on its receipt by the Chief Executive Officer.

23. Removal of Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

- A Chairman or a Vice-Chairman shall cease to hold office, if the committee by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the total number of members of the committee, so decided at a meeting.

24. Casual vacancies in office of Chairman and Vice-Chairman.

- If the office of the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman becomes vacant due to any reason, the vacancy shall be filled by election in accordance with the provisions of section 21: Provided that, the person so elected shall hold office so long only as the member in whose place he is elected would have held office, if the vacancy had not occurred.

25. Chairman and Vice-Chairman to hand over charge of their respective offices and consequences of refusal to hand over charge.

(1) On the election of a new Chairman or Vice-Chairman, the outgoing Chairman or Vice-Chairman, as the case may be, shall immediately hand over charge of their respective office and all papers and property of the committee to the new Chairman, or as the case may be, to the Vice-Chairman. (2) If the outgoing Chairman or Vice-Chairman fails or refuses to hand over charge of his office and all papers and property of the committee as required under sub-section (1), the Metropolitan Commissioner or any officer empowered by him in writing in this behalf may, by order in writing, direct the Chairman or the Vice-Chairman, as the case may be, to forthwith hand over charge of his office and all papers and property of the committee, if any, in his possession as such Chairman or Vice-Chairman, to the new Chairman or Vice-Chairman. (3) If the outgoing Chairman or Vice-Chairman, to whom a direction has been issued under sub-section (2), does not comply with such direction, the Metropolitan Commissioner or any officer authorised by him under sub-section (2), may apply to the Executive Magistrate within whose jurisdiction the committee is functioning for seizing and taking possession of papers, funds and property of the committee in the possession of such Chairman or Vice-Chairman.(4)On receipt of an application under sub-section (3), the Magistrate may authorise any police officer, not below the rank of a Sub-Inspector of Police, to enter and search any place where the papers, funds and property are kept or likely to be kept and to seize them and hand over possession thereof to the new Chairman or Vice-Chairman, as the case may be.

26. Constitution of standing committee.

- For every market committee, there shall be a standing committee, which shall consist of -(i)The Chairman of the committee, who shall also be the Chairman of the standing committee;(ii)the Chief Executive Officer; and(iii)three other members to be elected by the committee, from amongst its members.

27. Appointment of sub-committees.

- A committee may by a resolution supported by not less than half the total number of members of the committee, appoint one or more sub-committees, each consisting of such number of members of the committee as the committee may determine, so however that the number of members of a sub-committee shall not exceed five.

28. Powers, functions, etc., of the standing committee and sub-committee.

- A committee may, by by-laws made for that purpose, delegate any of its powers to and entrust functions and determine the sphere of duties of the standing committee and the sub-committees:Provided that, the committee shall not delegate to the standing committee or any sub-committee the powers exercisable by it-(a)under sub-section (2) of section 43; or(b)under section 44; or(c)under section 69.

29. Delegation of powers of committee to standing committee or sub-committee.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in section 28, but except the proviso thereto, the committee may, by a resolution supported by not less than half the total number of members of the committee, delegate to the standing committee or a sub-committee such of its powers or duties as it may deem necessary for a period not exceeding six months.

30. Meetings and conduct of business at meetings.

- The meetings, quorum and procedure of the committee, Standing committee, and sub-committee shall be regulated in accordance with the by-laws made for the purpose.

31. Members to act during vacancy, acts of committee etc., not to be invalidated by informalities.

(1) During any vacancy in a committee, standing committee or any sub-committee, the continuing members thereof may act as if no vacancy had occurred. (2) No disqualification of, or defect in the election, nomination or appointment of any person acting as the Chairman or Vice-Chairman or a member of the committee, standing committee or sub-committee shall vitiate any act or proceeding of the committee, standing committee or sub-committee, if such act or proceeding is otherwise in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and such proceedings of the committee, standing committee or sub-committee shall be valid notwithstanding that it is discovered subsequently that some person who was not entitled to do so sat or voted or otherwise took part in the proceedings, provided the majority of such persons were entitled to act. (3) No act or proceeding of a committee, standing committee or any of its sub-committees shall be deemed to be invalid on account of any irregularity in the service of notice upon any member provided that the proceedings thereof were not prejudicially affected by such irregularity. (4) Until the contrary is proved, every meeting of a committee, standing committee or any sub-committee shall be deemed to have been duly convened and held.

Chapter IV

(2) The accounts of the committee shall be audited by Chief Auditor Local, Funds Accounts or by any other auditor appointed by the committee, with the previous approval of the State Government. (3) The State Government may, if it thinks necessary, appoint a special auditor to audit the accounts of a committee. (4) The auditor or the special auditor, as the case may be, shall submit his report to the committee and shall forward a copy thereof to the Metropolitan Commissioner and the State Government. (5) The cost of the audit under sub-section (2) or (3), if any, shall be borne by the committee.

43. Budget.

(1) The Chief Executive Officer shall prepare, every year, in such form as the committee may by by-laws made for the purpose determine, an annual budget estimate in respect of the financial year next ensuing showing the estimated receipts and disbursement or income and expenditure of the committee, the estimated opening and closing balance of the Market Fund and special fund, if any and shall submit it to the committee before the 31st day of January for approval. (2) The committee shall adopt the budget estimate with such modifications as it may consider necessary by the 1st day of March. (3) The Chief Executive Officer shall before the 5th day of March forward to the Metropolitan Commissioner for his approval copies of the budget prepared by him and the budget approved by the committee. (4) If the committee for any reason fails to adopt the budget by the first day of March, the Chief Executive Officer shall before the fifth day of March, submit the budget, prepared by him to the Metropolitan Commissioner for approval. (5) The Metropolitan Commissioner shall approve the budget with such modifications as he may consider necessary before the 31st day of March. (6) The Chief Executive Officer shall forward a copy of an approved budget to the State Government.

44. Re-appropriation of budget provisions.

- The committee may subject to by-laws, if any, sanction re-appropriations within the budget approved under section 43. A copy of statement of such Re-appropriation shall be submitted to the Metropolitan Commissioner and the State Government: Provided that, no such re-appropriation shall be done from the amounts earmarked for the repayment of any loan or the payment of the interest on any loan and towards contribution to any fund or funds constituted under section 40.

45. Application of property, Funds, etc.

- All property and Market Fund and all other assets belonging to, or vesting in, the committee shall be held and applied by it, subject to the provisions, and for the purposes of this Act.

46. Annual report.

(1) The committee shall cause to be prepared each year an annual report consisting of -(i) a statement of receipts and disbursement for the previous year; (ii) a statement of operation of the Market Fund including the special funds, if any, constituted under section 40 during the previous year; and (iii) a report of its activities during the previous year; and submit the report to the State Government through the Metropolitan Commissioner before the 30th June. (2) The annual report shall be laid before each House of the State Legislature, as far as possible before the expiry of the year next succeeding the year to which it relates.

Chapter VI

Acquisition of Land

47. Application of the provisions of Chapter VIII of Maharashtra IV of 1975

(1) The acquisition of any land by the State Government for the purposes of this act shall be deemed to be a public purpose. (2) The provisions of Chapter VIII of [the Mumbai Metropolitan Region Development Authority Act, 1974] [These words were substituted for the words 'the Bombay Metropolitan Region Development Authority Act, 1974', by Maharashtra 25 of 1996, Schedule.] shall mutatis mutandis, apply in relation to the acquisition of any land for the purposes of this Act, as they apply in relation to the acquisition of land by the State Government for the purposes of that Act.

Chapter VII

Officers and Servants of a Market Committee

48. Appointment of Chief Executive Officer.

(1) There shall be a Chief Executive Officer for every committee, who shall be appointed by the State Government. (2) Every Chief Executive Officer shall be, - (i) an officer of the State Government on deputation to service under a committee; (ii) paid such salary and allowances and other perquisites by the committee as the State Government may, from time to time, determine; (iii) subject to such other terms and conditions of service as the State Government may determine; and (iv) liable to be transferred by the State Government. (3) On the appointment of an officer of the State Government as the Chief Executive Officer, such contribution to his pension, leave and other allowances, as may be required by the conditions of his service under the Government to be made by him or on his behalf, shall be paid to the State Government from the Market Fund. (4) If at a special meeting of the committee not less than two-thirds of the total number of members (other than the Chief Executive Officer) who are for the time being entitled to sit and vote at any meeting of the committee, vote in favour of a resolution requiring the State Government to withdraw the Chief Executive Officer from office, the State Government shall withdraw such officer from service under the committee.

49. Powers and duties of the Chief Executive Officer.

(1) Subject to the superintendence, direction and control of the committee, all the executive functions of the committee shall be exercised by the Chief Executive Officer. (2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Chief Executive Officer shall, - (i) supervise the financial and executive administration of the committee and exercise such powers and perform such duties and functions as may be conferred or imposed upon him by this Act, or the rules, regulations or by-laws delegated to him by the committee under this Act; (ii) supervise and control all officers and servants of the committee; (iii) be responsible for collection of all sums due to the committee and payment of all sums payable by the committee; (iv) ensure adequate security of all assets and property of the committee; (v) be responsible for the proper application of the Market Fund and property according to the provisions of this Act and rules, regulations or by-laws made thereunder.
