The Tamil Nadu (Added Territories) Extension of Laws (No. 2) Act, 1961 Tamil Nadu Act 39 of 1961 Statement of Objects and Reasons. - Consequent on the alteration of boundaries of the States of Madras and Andhra Pradesh under the Andhra Pradesh and Madras (Alteration of Boundaries) Act, 1959 (Central Act 56 of 1959), the territories specified in the Second Schedule to the said Act, have been added on to this State from the State of Andhra Pradesh. By virtue of section 45 of the said Act, the laws in force in the said territories immediately before the 1st day of April 1960 will continue in force therein until otherwise provided by a competent legislature or other competent authority. By the Madras (Added Territory) Extension of Laws Act, 1961 (Madras Act 9 of 1961), certain taxation measures relating to commercial taxes were extended to the said territories. Again, the Madras Agricultural Income-tax Act, 1955 (Madras Act V of 1955) has been extended to the said territories by the Madras Agricultural Income-tax (Extension to Added Territory) Act, 1961 (Madras Act 11 of 1961). For the sake of securing uniformity in the laws in force in the added territories and the rest of the State of Madras, it is now proposed to extend to those territories certain other enactments in force in the State of Madras and to repeal the corresponding laws in force in the said territories. 2. The enactments specified in the First Schedule are proposed to be extended without any modification. It will be seen from that Schedule that it is proposed to extend to the said territories the Madras State Aid to Industries Act, 1922 (Madras Act V of 1923), although that Act was in force in those territories on the 1st October 1953, the date on which the State of Andhra was formed and continues to be in force there. The extension of that Act is intended to apply to those territories the amendments made by Madras Act X of 1956 and to repeal the amendments made by Andhra Act XXXIII of 1956. Similarly, the extension of the Madras Children Act, 1935 (Madras Act XX of 1935), and the Madras Public Health Act, 1939 (Madras Act III of 1939), is intended to apply to the added territories, the amendments made to those Acts after the 1st October 1953. The enactments specified in the Second Schedule are proposed to be amended in their application to those territories so as to bring the provisions of those Acts into conformity with the provision of the respective Acts as in force in the rest of the State. The enactments specified in the Third Schedule are proposed to be repealed as they are considered no longer necessary. The enactments specified in the Fourth Schedule are proposed to be declared to be no part of the laws in force in the said territories. The repeal and the declaration aforesaid are based on similar provisions contained in the Madras Repealing and Amending Act, 1957 (Madras Act XXV of 1957), according to which almost all the enactments referred to in the Third and the Fourth Schedules have already been repealed or declared to be no longer in force in the rest of the State. Published in Part-IV-Section 3 of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 26th August 1961. Received the assent of the President on the 24th November 1962 and first published in the Fort St. George Gazette, dated on the 6th December 1969. Whereas it is expedient to provide that certain laws should be extended to, and by virtue of such extension should be in force in the added territories in the [State of Tamil Nadu] [Substituted for the expression 'State of Madras' by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1969, as amended by the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws (Second Amendment) Order, 1969.]; Be it enacted in the Twelfth Year of the Republic of India as follows:-
