Delhi Laws Act, 1915 Act No. 7 of 1915

1498.

Object and Reason.- Owing to the issue of the proclamation cited in the preamble, adding certain territory, previously included in the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh. to the Province of Delhi, it has become necessary to take steps to declare the law in force in the territory now added to that province. Save in respect of a few enactments which are referred to below, the law in force in the Province of Delhi is declared to be in force in the territory now added to that provinces. The enactments in force in the province of Delhi which are declared not to be in force in this territory are set forth in Schedule II. In place of them the enactments specified in schedule III which are already in force in this area, are continued in force there. It is clearly undesirable to make any change in these laws, which mainly related to land, if such a course can be avoided. [22nd March, 1915.] An Act to declare the law in force in certain territory added to the Province of Delhi. WHEREAS by Proclamation published in Notification No. 984-C, dated the 22nd day of February, 1915, the Governor-General in Council, with the sanction and approbation of the Secretary of State for India has been pleased to take under his immediate authority and management the territory mentioned in Schedule I, which was formerly included within the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, and to include the said territory in the Province of Delhi with effect from the 1st April, 1915; AND WHEREAS it is expedient to declare the law in force in the said territory; It is hereby enacted as follows:-

1. Short title and Commencement.-

2. Application to added area of law in force in existing state of Delhi.-

All enactments (except the enactments specified in Schedule II) for the time being in force in the territory specified in Schedule A to the Delhi Laws Act, 1912, and all notifications, orders, schemes, rules, forms and by-laws issued, made or prescribed under such enactments shall be deemed to be in force in the territory specified in Schedule I in the same manner and subject to the same modifications as they are for the time being in the territory specified in the said Schedule to the said Act.

3. Continuance in added area of certain laws now in force in the Uttar Pradesh.-

The enactments specified in Schedule III, and all notifications, orders, schemes, rules, forms and by-laws issued, made or prescribed under those enactments shall continue to be in force in the territory: specified in Schedule I: Provided that in the enactments so continued and in all notifications, orders, schemes, rules, forms and by-laws issued, made or prescribed thereunder, reference to a State Government, the [State Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1950 for "Provisional Government"] of the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, or the Board of Revenue for the [Uttar Pradesh] [Sub. for the word "United Province" by A.L.O., 1950] shall be read as referring to the [State Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1950 for "Provisional Government"] of Delhi; references to a High Court or the High Court of Judicature of the North-Western Provinces as referring to the [High Court of Judicature at Lahore] [Substituted by Act 18 of 1919, s.2 and Sch. I, for "Chief Court of the Punjab"], and references to the Official Gazette for the Uttar Pradesh as referring to the [Official Gazette] [Sub. for the word "Gazette of India" by A.O., 1950].

4. Provision for facilitating application of certain enactments.-

For the purpose of facilitating the application to the territory mentioned in Schedule I of the enactments referred to in section 3, the powers conferred by sections 4 and 5 of the Delhi Laws Act, 1912 (13 of 1912), shall be exercisable in respect thereof.

5. Exclusion of certain enactments from the added area.-

Save as provided in sections 2 and 3 no enactment which is in force in the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh or any part thereof shall continue to be in force in the territory specified in Schedule I.

6. Pending proceedings.-

Nothing in this Act shall affect any proceeding which at the commencement thereof is pending in respect of any of the territory mentioned in Schedule I or of anything arising in such territory and every such proceeding shall be confined as if this Act had not been passed: Provided that the [State Government] [Substituted by the A.O. 1950 for "Provisional Government"] may, by notification in the [Official Gazette,] [Sub. for the word "Gazette of India" by A.O., 1950] direct that any proceeding, criminal, civil or revenue, other than a proceeding pending before the High Court of Judicature for the North-Western Provinces, shall be transferred to, and disposed of by, the corresponding authority of the Delhi State.
