(1)The strength of the Service shall, until orders varying the same have been passed under sub- rule (2), be as specified in Schedule I.(2)The strength of the service may be varied by the Governor, from time to time, in consultation with the Court.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1) and (2), the Governor may, in consultation with the Court, hold any appointment to the service in abeyance for such time as he deems fit, without thereby entitling any person to compensation.

Part III – Principles and Procedure of Recruitment and Promotion

7. Principles and procedure to be followed.

- For the purpose of recruitment to the service, the following principles and procedure of recruitment and promotion laid down by the Court shall be followed.

8. Sources of recruitment.

- Recruitment to the service shall be made-(i)by promotion from amongst the members of the Rajasthan Judicial Service; or(ii)by direct recruitment from the advocates who have practiced in the Court or Courts subordinate thereto for a period of not less than seven years.

9. Appointment to the service.

(1) Subject to the provisions of these rules, appointment of persons to the service shall be made by the Governor on the recommendation of the Court made from time to time; Provided that the number of persons appointed to the service by direct recruitment shall at no time exceed one third of the total strength of the service. (2) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (1), after every three persons appointed by promotion, the fourth person shall, as far as possible, be appointed by direct recruitment. If a suitable person is not available for appointment by direct recruitment, the post may be filled by promotion from amongst the members of the Rajasthan Judicial Service.

10. Reservation of posts for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.

- Reservation of posts for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes shall be in accordance with the orders of the Government in force at the time to recruitment. Recruitment by Promotion

11. Eligibility.

- No member of the Rajasthan Judicial Service shall be eligible for promotion to the service unless he has served for seven years in that service.

12. Criterion for selection.

- For the purpose of recruitment to the service by promotion under clause (i) of rule 8, the selection shall be made on the basis of seniority-cum-merit from amongst the members of the Rajasthan Judicial Service who are eligible for such promotion under rule 11.

13. Procedure for selection.

(1) After a decision is taken by the Court as to the number of persons to be recruited by promotion, the selection shall be made by the Court from amongst the members of the Rajasthan Judicial Service who satisfy the criterion laid down in rule 12. (2) A list of the selected officers shall be made in the order the Court may determine, and the names of the officers shall be recommended for appointment to the service in the order given in that list having regard to the provisions of rule 9. (3) At the time when a fresh list has to be drawn up the cases of all the eligible officers shall again be considered by the Court on merits. Direct Recruitment

14. Age.

- a candidate for direct recruitment to the service must have attained the age of 35 years and must not have attained the age of 45 years on the first day of January preceding the last date fixed for submission of the application; Provided that for direct recruitment in the years, 1968, 1969, 1970, 1971 and 1972 the upper age limit shall not apply to any candidate who is a Released Commissioned Officer as defined clause (e) of sub-rule (i) of rule 3 of the Rajasthan Civil Services (Recruitment of

He must produce a certificate of good character from the District Judge of the District in which he has been practicing as a lawyer and two such certificates, written not more than six months prior to the date of submission of application to the Court, from two responsible persons not related to him. (2) A person dismissed by the Central Government or by a State Government or convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude shall not be eligible for appointment. (3) No person shall be appointed as a member of the service by direct recruitment unless he is in good mental and bodily health and free from any physical defect likely to interfere with the efficient performance of his duties as a member of the service. Before a candidate is appointed by direct recruitment, he shall be required to appear before a medical board which will examine him and certify if he is fit for appointment to the service.

17. Notice of recruitment.

- applications for direct recruitment to the service shall be invited by the Court by publishing a notice to that effect in the Rajasthan Rajpatra and in such other manner as it may deem fit.

18. Form of application.

- Applications shall be made in the form prescribed by the Court and obtainable from the Registrar of the Court on payment of a fee of Rs. 5/-.

19. Channel of submission of application.

- An application shall be submitted through the District Judge of the district in which the candidate is practising as an advocate, who shall send to the Court in respect of each applicant, his own estimate of the applicant's character and fitness for appointment to the service. Each application must be accompanied by the Matriculation or equivalent certificate, certificate stating the period for which he has practised as an advocate, certificate of character and such other documents as may be prescribed by the Court.

20. Scrutiny of application and interview.

(1)The Court shall scrutinise the applications received in accordance with the provisions of rule 19 and thereafter call for interview only those who, in its opinion, are fit to be called for that purpose.(2)Such candidates shall be interviewed by a Committee constituted by the Court consisting of the Chief Justice, the Administrative Judge and two other Judges.(3)The recommendation of the Committee shall be placed before the Full Court with the relevant record and the Court shall make the final selection of the candidate or candidates suitable for appointment to the service in order of merit.(4)[Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained; if the number of persons selected in accordance with the above mentioned provisions is less than the number of posts required to be filled, by direct recruitment, the Court may select persons to fill the remaining vacancies even from amongst those advocates who have not applied under rule 19 but fulfill the qualifications laid down in clause (ii) of rule 8 and are considered to be fit for appointment to the service.] [Added by F.19(36) Jud./67 G.S.R.15, dated 18-6-1969, Part IV(C), w.e.f. 18-6-1969, pages 55-56]

21. List of candidates selected by direct recruitment.

- [The Court shall prepare list of all the Candidates whom it considers suitable for appointment to the service arranging their names in the order in which they are to be appointed and shall recommend their names to the Governor for appointment to the service having regard to the provisions of rule 9.] [Substituted by F.19(36) Jud./67 G.S.R.15, dated 18-6-1969, Part IV(C), w.e.f. 18-6-1969, pages 55-56]Temporary [or Officiating] [Added by F.19(36)Jud./67IIG.S.R.24, dated 7.7.1972, w.e.f. 12.7.72, pages 215-220] Appointment

1. In this Schedule:-

(i)"actual pay" means the pay to which a member of the service is entitled by virtue of his substantive position in the grade of Civil and Additional Sessions Judges; and(ii)"assumed pay" means the pay which an officer would be drawing in the ordinary time scale of civil Judges, had he not been appointed as Civil and Additional Sessions Judge in an officiating or substantive capacity.Explanation.- 'actual pay' and 'assumed pay' shall be construed as pay admissible to an officer according to the sanctioned pay scales prevailing at the time of promotion or other pay scales namely. Unit pay Scales, Unified Pay Scales, Rationalized Pay Scales, Ajmer Pay Scales, Bombay Pay Scales, Madhya Bharat Pay Scales or any other scale for which option had been retained by the officer, under the respective rules or under rule 28 of the Rajasthan Service Rules till the date of promotion.

2. The initial pay of an officer who was initially appointed as a substantive Civil and Additional Sessions Judge under order No. F. 1 (357) apptts./51, dated the 23rd April, 1951 shall be fixed at the stage in the scale of District and Sessions Judges next above the amount equal to the officer's actual pay plus increase at the rate of one increment in the time scale of District and Sessions Judges for every three years of service in the Rajasthan Judicial

Service and the Rajasthan Higher Judicial Service (Civil and Additional Sessions Judges) subject to a maximum increase of Rs. 200/- and a maximum increase of Rs. 300/-;

Provided that :-(i)Where, on the prescribed increase being calculated as aforesaid, the figure arrived at corresponds to a stage in the time scale of District and Sessions Judge, the pay shall be fixed at that stage and not at the next higher stage;(ii)Where the actual increase calculated as above is less than Rs. 200/- and addition of the minimum increase of Rs. 200/- to the assumed pay results in an amount equal to or less than the minimum of the grade, the initial pay shall be fixed at the minimum of the grade.

3. The initial pay of an officer, other than the officers referred to in para 2, appointed substantively or in an officiating capacity to the post of Civil and Additional Sessions Judge, shall be fixed at the stage in the scale for District and Sessions Judges next above the amount equal to the officer's assumed pay in the ordinary time-scale of Civil Judges plus increase at the rate of one increment in the time scale for District and Sessions Judges for every three years of service in the Rajasthan Judicial Service and the Rajasthan Higher Judicial Service. (Civil and Additional Sessions Judges) subject to a minimum increase of Rs. 200/- and a maximum increase of Rs. 300/-

Provided that:-(i)Where the amount arrived at after the addition of such minimum or maximum corresponds to a stage in the time scale for District and Sessions Judges, the initial pay shall be fixed at that state;(ii)Where the actual increase calculated as above is less than Rs. 200/- and addition of the minimum increase of Rs. 200/- to the assumed pay results in an amount equal to or less than the minimum of the grade, the initial pay shall be fixed at the minimum of the grade.

4. For purposes of paragraphs 2 and 3, service in the Rajasthan Judicial Service and Service as Civil and Additional Sessions Judge shall, in the case of Judicial Officers of the former State, the former Bombay State and the pre-reorganisation State of Rajasthan as also of the re-organised State of Rajasthan include the total gazetted service rendered by an officer before 1st November, 1956.

Note:- (1) "Gazetted Service" in this paragraph shall mean service on gazetted posts certified by the High Court as equivalent in responsibility to those encadared in the Rajasthan Judicial Service or the Rajasthan Higher Judicial Service subject to the condition that any service on a post carrying a pay of less than Rs. 100/- per mensem shall not be treated as gazetted service.(2)In the case of Judicial Officers of the pre-reorganisation State of Rajasthan, any gazetted service rendered by them in the convenanting states shall also count.
