28. Ministerial officers of Courts.

(1)The ministerial officers of the District Court shall be appointed by the District Judge.(2)The ministerial officers of Civil Courts under the control of the District Judge shall be appointed by the District Judge.(3)Every appointment under this section shall be subject to such rules as the [Subs., ibid., for "Judicial Commissioner"] High Court], with the approval of the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956 for "Chief Commissioner"] State Government], may make in this behalf.

29. Delegation of powers of District Judge and District Court.

The District Judge may, with the previous sanction of the [Subs., ibid., for "Judicial Commissioner"] High Court], delegate to the Judge of any Court under his control all or any of the powers conferred on the District Judge by section 27 of this Act and on a District Court by section 24 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 , (5 of 1908) to be exercised by such Judge in any specified portion of the district, subject to the control of the District Judge.

Chapter IV

APPELLATE AND REVISIONAL JURISDICTION IN CIVIL CASES

30. Appeals from original decrees.

Save as otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force, appeals from decrees of Courts exercising original jurisdiction shall lie as follows:-(a)from a decree of a Munsiff in any suit and of a Subordinate Judge in a suit the value of which does not exceed five thousand rupees, to the Court of the District Judge, and(b)in all other cases, to the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956 for "Court of the Judicial. Commissioner"] High Court]:Provided that the [Subs., ibid., for "Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] with the previous sanction of the [Subs., ibid., for "Chief Commissioner"] State Government] may, by notification in the Official Gazette direct that appeals lying to the Court of the District Judge from all or any of the decrees passed by a Munsiff in any unclassified suit the value of which does not exceed one hundred rupees shall be preferred to such Subordinate Judge as may be mentioned in the notification, and the appeals shall thereupon be preferred accordingly, and the Court of such Subordinate Judge shall be deemed to be the Court of the District Judge for the purposes of all appeals so preferred.

31. Appeals from appellate decrees.

(1) Save as otherwise provided by any law for the time being in force a second appeal shall lie to the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956 for "Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] in any of the following cases from an appellate decree of a District Court on any ground which would be a good ground of appeal if the decree had been passed in an original suit, namely:- (a) in a small cause suit or unclassified suit- (i) if the value of the suit is one thousand rupees or upwards, or the decree involves directly some claim to, or question respecting property of like value and the decree of the District Court varies or reverses, otherwise than as to costs, the decree of the Court below, or (ii) if the value of the suit is two thousand five hundred rupees or upwards, or the decree of the District Court involves directly some claim to, or question respecting, property of like value (b) in a land suit- (i) if the value of the suit is two hundred and fifty rupees or upwards or the decree involves directly some claim to, or question respecting, property of like value, and the decree of the District Court varies or reverses, otherwise than as to costs, the decree of the Court below, or (ii) if the value of the suit is one thousand rupees or upwards, or the decree of the District Court involves directly some claim to, or question respecting, property of like value. (2) The provisions of Order XLI of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908) other than rule 34 of the said Order, shall apply, so far as may be, to a second appeal under this section and to the execution of a decree passed on any such appeal.

32. Finality of appellate decree of District Court.

Subject to the provisions of sections 31 and 34 an appellate decree of a District Court shall be final,

33. Period of limitation.

(1) The period of limitation for a second appeal under section. 31 shall be ninety days from the date of the decree appealed against. (2) In computing such period and in all other respects not herein specified the period of limitation of the appeal shall be governed by the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 . (9 of 1908)

34. Revisional powers of the High Court.

(1) The [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956, for "Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] may call for the record of any case which has been decided by a Civil Court subordinate to it and in which no appeal lies to it, and (a) if any Civil Court by which the case was decided appears to have exercised a jurisdiction not vested in it by law, or to have failed to exercise a jurisdiction so vested, or to have acted in the exercise of its jurisdiction with material irregularity, or (b) if on an application made to it the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956, for "Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] is of opinion that there is an important question of law or custom involved and that such question requires further consideration, the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956, for "Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] may make such order in the case as it thinks fit: Provided that- (i) no application under clause

(b) shall be entertained after in respect of which the application is made unless the applicant satisfies the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956, for" Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within that period,(ii)no such application shall be admitted in a small, cause suit under the value of one thousand rupees or in an unclassified suit under the value of two hundred rupees,(iii)on any such application the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956, for" Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] shall not revise the decision of the Court below except in so far as such decision involves a question of law or custom in respect of which the application has been admitted, and(iv)when any such application has been admitted, the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956, for" Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] shall, subject to proviso (iii), treat the matter of the application, as if it were an appeal. Explanation.- A question of procedure is not a question of law or custom within the meaning of clause (b).(2)In computing the period of limitation mentioned in proviso (i) to sub- section (1) and in all other respects not herein specified, the period of limitation of the application shall be governed by the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 . (9 of 1908)(3)Section 115 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 , (5 of 1908) shall not apply to the [Subs., ibid., for" States"] Divisions] of Bhopal or Vindhya Pradesh.

35. Court- fees payable on revision.

(2)[Sub- section (1) omitted, ibid] If the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956, for" Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court], on an application in respect of which the fee payable [Subs., ibid., for" under sub- section (1)"] for the exercise of its jurisdiction under section 34] has been paid, sets aside or modifies a decree or order of the Court below or remands the case for a fresh decision, the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956, for" Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] may grant to the applicant a certificate authorizing him to receive back from the Collector of the district in which such Court is situated the full amount of such fee or such part thereof as the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956, for" Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court], having regard to the circumstances of the case, may think fit.

Chapter V

MISCELLANEOUS

36. Temporary vacancies in office of District Judge.

In the event of the death of a District Judge or of his being prevented from performing his duties by illness or other cause or of his absence from the civil district on leave, the Additional District Judge, if any, in the district or if there are more than one the first in rank among them or where there is no Additional District Judge the first in rank of the Subordinate Judges, if any,- shall assume charge of the District Court, without interruption to his ordinary duties, and while so in charge, shall perform the duties of a District Judge with respect to the filing of suits and appeals, receiving pleadings, execution of processes, return of writs and the like, and shall be designated as the Additional District Judge, or the Subordinate Judge, as the case may be, in charge of the District and shall continue in such charge until the office of the District Judge has been resumed, or assumed by an officer duly appointed thereto.

37. Delegation of powers of District Judge.

Any District Judge leaving the headquarters and proceeding on duty to any place within his district may delegate to an Additional District Judge, or where there is no such Additional District Judge, to a Subordinate Judge at the headquarters, the power of performing such duties, specified in section 36 as may be emergent, and such officer shall be designated as the Additional District Judge or the Subordinate Judge, as the case may be, in charge of the headquarters.

38. Temporary vacancy in office of Subordinate Judge.

In the event of the death, suspension or temporary absence of any Subordinate Judge or a Munsiff, the District Judge may empower the Judge of any subordinate Court or the Court of a Munsiff of the same civil district to perform the duties of the Judge of the vacated subordinate Court or the Court of the Munsiff, as the case may be, either at the place of such Court or of his own Court; but in every such case the registers and records of the two Courts shall be kept distinct.

39. Continuance of powers of officers.

Where any person holding an office in the service of the State Government who has been invested with any powers under this Act throughout any local area is transferred or posted to an equal or higher office of the same nature within a like local area, he shall, unless the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956, for" Chief Commissioner"] State Government] otherwise directs, or has otherwise directed, exercise the same powers in the local area to which he is so transferred or posted.

40. Vacations.

(1)Subject to the approval of the [Subs. by the Adaptation of Laws (No. 2) Order, 1956, for" Chief Commissioner"] State Government], the [Subs., ibid., for" Judicial commissioner"] High Court] shall prepare a list of days to be observed in each year as closed holidays in the [Subs., ibid., for" Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] and the Civil Courts subordinate to that Court.(2)The list shall be published in the Official Gazette.(3)Any judicial act done by a Civil Court on a day specified in the list shall not be, invalid by reason only of its having been done on that day.

41. Power to make rules.

The [Subs., ibid., for" Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] may, from time to time, make rules consistent with this Act and any other law for the time being in force-(a)for the supervision of all Courts subordinate to the [Subs., ibid., for" Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] and their inspection;(b)for the translation of any papers filed in the [Subs., ibid., for"

Court of the Judicial Commissioner"] High Court] and the preparation of paper books for the hearing of appeals and the copying, typing or printing of any such papers or translations and the recovery from the persons at whose instance or on whose behalf papers are filed, of the expenses thereby incurred;(c)the fees to be charged for processes issued by Civil courts, or by any officer of any such Court and the fee payable in any suit or proceeding in any such Court by any party to such suit or proceeding in respect of the fees of the pleader of any other party to such suit or proceedings;(d)the manner in which proceedings of Civil Courts shall be kept and recorded, the manner in which paper books for the hearing of appeals shall be prepared and the granting of copies;(e)all matters relating to officers of Court;(f)declaring what persons shall be permitted to act as petition writers in the Courts subordinate thereto;(g)regulating the issue of licences to such persons, the conduct of business by them and the scale of fees to be charged by them; and(h)determining the authority by which breaches of such rules shall be investigated and the penalties which may be imposed.

43. Existing rights not affected.

(1)The abolition of any existing Civil Court under section 42 shall not prejudicially affect. the continued operation of any notice served, injunction issued, direction made or proceeding taken before the commencement of this Act by such Civil Court under the powers then conferred upon it.(2)Every appeal, suit or other proceeding pending before any of the existing Civil Courts immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, on such commencement, stand transferred to the Court exercising the jurisdiction under this Act which corresponds, so far as may be, to the jurisdiction of the Court in which the proceeding was pending, and the Court to which the proceeding so stands transferred shall proceed to try, hear and determine the matter as if it had been pending in that Court.(3)Every decree or order made or sentence passed by any of the existing Civil Courts shall be deemed for the purposes of execution to have been made or passed by the corresponding Court established under this Act.Explanation.- In this sub- section, the expression "corresponding Court" means the Court in which the case or proceeding in which the decree or order was made or sentence was passed would have lain, if the case or proceeding had been instituted after the commencement of this Act.(4)Where any existing Civil Court has by reason of its abolition under section 42 ceased to have jurisdiction with respect to any suit or proceeding, any proceeding in relation to that suit or proceeding which if that Court had not ceased to have jurisdiction might have been had therein may be had in the Court to which the business of the former Court has been transferred under this section.

44. Repeals and savings.

The Vindhya Pradesh (Judicial Commissioner' s Court) Ordinance, 1950 (10 of 1950) and the Bhopal (Courts) Ordinance, 1950 (11 of 1950) are hereby repealed: Provided that the repeal by this Act of any of the Ordinances aforesaid shall not affect-(a)the previous operation thereof; or(b)any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any Ordinance so repealed; or(c)any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such punishment, and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed: Provided further that, subject to the provisions of the preceding proviso, anything done or any action taken, including any appointment or delegation made, notification, instruction or direction issued, or any rule, regulation or form issued or framed under any Ordinance hereby repealed shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act.
