The Indian Registration (Punjab Amendment) Act, 1961 Punjab Act 19 of 1961 Statement of Objects and Reasons. - According to Section 52(1)(c) of the Indian Registration Act, 1908, all documents registrable under the Act are copies in the relevant Bahis before they are returned to the executant. It takes a considerable time to copy out these documents in the relevant Bahis and the delay causes considerable loss to the litigant public. Similarly, there is no check on the writing of deeds and applications falling under this Act, and also on the fees charged by deeds writers. Often, people with little experience and knowledge of the laws on stamp and Registration, are writing out these documents at very high rates. This Bill seeks to give relief to the public on these two accounts. (Punjab Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 24th March, 1961) Received the assent of the President of India on the 24th April, 1961, and was first published in the Punjab Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 4th May, 1961.
