Letters Patent High Court, Madras 28 & 29 VIC., C. 15 For the High Court of Judicature for the Presidency of Madras (28th December, 1865) AP03 Recital of Acts 24 and 25 Vic., c. 104: - Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith. To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting: Whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the twenty fourth and twenty-fifth years of Our Reign entitled "An Act for establishing High Courts of Judicature in India", it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, to erect and establish a High Court of Judicature at Madras, for the Presidency of Madras aforesaid, and that such High Court should consist of a Chief Justice and as many Judges, not exceeding 15, as Her Majesty might, from time to time, think fit to appoint, who should be selected from among persons qualified as in the said Act is declared. Provided always that the persons who at the time of the establishment of such High Court were Judges of the Supreme Court of Judicature and permanent Judges of the Court of Sudder Dewany Adawlut or Sudder Adawlut of the same Presidency, should be and become Judges of such High Court, without further appointment for that purpose, and the Chief Justice of such Supreme Court should become the Chief Justice of such High Court, and that upon the establishment of such High Court as aforesaid, the Supreme Court and the Court of Sudder Dewany Adawlut and Faujildarry Adawlut at Madras in the said Presidency should be abolished. And that the High Court of Judicature so as to be established should have and exercise all such Civil, Criminal Admiralty, and Vice-Admiralty, Testamentary Intestate and Matrimonial Jurisdiction, original and appellate, and all such powers and authority for and in relation to the administration of Justice in the said Presidency as Her Majesty might, by such Letters Patent as aforesaid, grant and direct, subject, however, to such directions and limitations as to the exercise of original, civil and criminal jurisdiction beyond the limits of the Presidency Town, as might be prescribed thereby; and save as by such Letters patent, might be otherwise directed and subject and without prejudice to the legislative powers in relation to the matters aforesaid of the Governor-General of India in Council, the High Court so to be established should have and exercise all jurisdiction, and every power and authority whatsoever, in any manner, vested in any of the Courts in the same Presidency abolished under the said Act at the time of the abolition of such last mentioned Courts. And whereas we did, upon full consideration of the premises, think fit to erect and establish, and by our Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland bearing date at Westminister the Twenty-sixth day of June, in the Twenty-fifth year of Our Regin, in the Year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two and accordingly for Us, Our Heirs, and Successors, erect an establish at Madras, for the Presidency of Madras, aforesaid, a High Court of Judicature, which should be called the High Court of Judicature at Madras, and did thereby constitute the said Court to be a Court of Record; and whereas we did thereby appoint and ordain that the said High Court of Judicature at Madras should, until further or other provision should be made by Us, or Our heirs, and Successors in that behalf, in accordance with the recited Act, consist of a Chief Justice and five Judges and did thereby constitute and appoint certain persons, being respectively qualified as in the said Act is declared, to be Judges of the said High Court: And whereas by the said recited Act it is declared lawful of Her Majesty, at any time within three years after the establishment of the said High Court, by Her Letters Patent, to revoke all or such parts or provisions as Her Majesty might think fit of the Letters Patent by which such Court was established, and to grant and make such other powers and provisions as Her Majesty might think fit, and as might have been granted or made by such first letters patent: And whereas by the Act of the Twenty-eighth year of Our Reign chapter fifteen, entitled "an Act to extend the term for granting fresh Letters Patent for the High Courts in India, and to make further provisions respecting the territorial jurisdiction of the said Courts." The time for issuing fresh Letters Patent has been extended to the first of January, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six: And whereas, in order to make further provisions respecting the constitution of the said High Court, and the administration of justice thereby it is expedient that the said Letters Patent, dated the Twenty-sixth of June, One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two should be revoked, and that some of the powers and provisions thereby granted and made with amendments and additional powers and provisions by fresh Letters Patent.

1. Revocation of Letters Patent of 1862:

- Now know be that We, upon full consideration of the premises and of our especial grace, certain knowledge and mere motion, have thought fit to revoke, and do by these-presents (from and after the date of publication thereof, as hereinafter provided, the subject to the provisions thereof) revoke Our said Letters Patent of the twenty sixth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, except so far as the Letters Patent of the forty-first year of His Majesty King George the Third, dated the twenty sixth of December, One thousand eight hundred, establishing a Supreme Court of Judicature at Madras, were revoked or determined thereby.

2. High Court at Madras to be continued:

- And, we do by these presents, grant, direct and ordain that, notwithstanding the revocation of the said Letters Patent of the twenty-sixth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, the High Court of Judicature called the High Court of Judicature at Madras, shall be and continue as from time of the original erection and establishment thereof, the High Court of Judicature at Madras for the Presidency of Madras, aforesaid; and that the said court shall be and continue a Court of Record, and that all proceedings commenced in the said High Court prior to the date of the publication of these Letters Patent shall be continued and depend in the said High Court as if they had commenced in the said High Court after date of such publication, and that all rules and orders in force in the said High Court immediately before the date of the publication of these Letters Patents shall continue in force except so far as the same are altered hereby, until the same are altered by competent authority.

3. Judges of the said High Court to be continued:

- And we do hereby appoint and ordain that the person and persons who shall immediately before the date of the publication of these Letters Patent be the Chief Justice and Judges, or Acting Chief Justice or Judges, if any of the said High Court of Judicature at Madras, shall continue to be the Chief Justice and Judges or acting Chief Justice or Judges of the said High Court, until further or other provision shall be made by Us, or our Heirs, and Successors in that behalf, in accordance with the said recited Act for establishing High Courts of Judicature in India.

4. Clerks, etc., of the said High Court to be continued:

- And we do hereby appoint and ordain that every clerk and ministerial officer of the said High Court of Judicature at Madras, appointed by virtue of the said letters patent of the twenty-sixth June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, shall continue to hold and enjoy his office and employment with the salary thereunto annexed until he be removed from such office and employment: and he shall be subject to the like power of removal, regulations, and provisions as if he were appointed by virtue of these Letters Patent.
