Tamil Nadu Inam Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963(Tamil Nadu Act 26 of 1963)Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Inam Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Tamil Nadu Act 26 of 1963). - For Statement of Objects and Reasons, see Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 27th April 1962, Part IV-Section 3, pages 46-47; for Select Committee Report, see Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 14th August 1963, Part IV - Section 3 pages 121 to 188.Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Inam Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Amendment Act, 1966. - The Madras Inam Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Madras Act 26 of 1963), provides for the acquisition of rights of landholders in inam estates in the State of Madras and for the introduction of the ryotwari settlement in such estates. It has been represented to the Government that in respect of existing inam estates, in respect of which the rent has not been determined before the notified date, under the Madras Estates Land (Reduction of Rent) Act, 1947 (Madras Act XXX of 1947), it will cause undue hardship to the ryots if they are asked to pay rent from fasli year 1357 onwards even though on reduced basis. The Government have examined this representation and they consider that in respect of existing inam estates, where the rent has not been reduced before the notified date under the Rent Reduction Act, it is unnecessary to effect the reduction of rents under the above Act after the said date.2. The Government have also decided to give relief to the ryots in such estates by providing that arrears for any fasli year prior to fasli year 1371 will stand completely wiped out, if the ryot has already paid to the landholder before the notified date or pays to the landholder within two years of that date the rent due for fasli years 1372 and 1371. A new sub-section (2-A) in section 56 is accordingly sought to be inserted. Under this sub-section, the Government do not assume any responsibility for the collection of arrears of rent in non-notified existing inam estates. Sub-section (1) of section 56 is also sought to be amended so as to make it clear that the said sub-section will be applicable only to cases of existing inam estates, where the rent has already been reduced before the notified date under the Rent Reduction Act.3. It has also been suggested that there will be no cases falling within the scope of the first and second provisos to sub-section (1) of section 56 at this distance of time. Accordingly, it is proposed to omit the said provisos.⁴ In the case of existing inam estates, where the rent has been reduced before the notified date, the intention has always been that claims for arrears of rent for fasli year 1356 and earlier faslis should not be revived, if such claims have become time-barred. A suitable explanation has been added to sub-section (1) of section 56 to make this intention quite clear. Appropriate provisions have also been made in new sub-section (2-A) of section 56 and also in existing subsection (3) of section 56 making it clear that time-barred claims will not be revived.⁵ It is also proposed to make necessary consequential alterations in the other sections in the Act.⁶ According to the proviso to clause (a) of sub-section (1) and the proviso to clause (a) of sub-section (2) of section 9 of the Act, in the case of private lands, in order that the landholder shall be entitled to ryotwari patta, the land must be proved to have been cultivated by the landholder by himself or by his own servants or by hired labour with his own or hired stock in the ordinary course of husbandry for a continuous period of three years within a period of twelve years immediately before the 1st April 1960. This applies to religious institutions also. So far as religious institutions governed by the Madras Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, 1959 (Madras Act 22 of 1959) are concerned, under the rules made under that Act, such religious institutions are prohibited from carrying on pannai cultivation without obtaining the previous approval of the Deputy Commissioner of the division concerned. In view of this, the religious institutions have not been carrying on pannai cultivation and consequently they will not be satisfying the requirement of the provisos referred to above. This causes undue hardship to such institutions and it is proposed not to insist on personal cultivation for three years for the purpose of grant of ryotwari patta in the case of private lands of religious institutions governed by the Madras Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments Act, 1959.⁷ The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects. Published in Part IV-Section 3, page 656 of the Fort St. George Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 28th October 1966. Statement of Objects and Reasons. - Schedule I to the Madras Inam Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Madras Act 26 of 1963), contains a list of 83 Pudukkottai inam estates. The list was prepared with reference to the standard list of inam villages maintained by the Ex-Durbar of Pudukkottai State. However, it is now found that in the case of some of the villages included in the Schedule, the names given in the Schedule are different from the names given in the relevant inam title deeds. It has also been reported that item No. 74 of Schedule I, namely, Vengalaveli village, is not an inam estate. The Government have, therefore, decided to substitute for the existing Schedule I a new Schedule incorporating the correct names of the villages as given in the relevant inam title deeds and also omitting the entry relating to Vengalaveli village.² At present, under section 2(14) of the Act, Government have the power to notify a whole inam village in Pudukkottai as a Pudukkottai inam estate. The Government consider that they should have also power to amend suitably any entries in columns (3) and (4) of Schedule I, where the said entries are found to be either incomplete or incorrect. Accordingly, a new section 73-A is proposed to be inserted for this purpose with the necessary consequential amendment to section 2 (14) of the Act.³ The Bill seeks to give effect to the above proposals. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Inam Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Amendment Act, 1970. - Under clause (d) of section 3 of the Tamil Nadu Inam Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Tamil Nadu Act 26 of 1963), the Government may, after removing any obstruction that may be offered, forthwith take possession of the inam estate and all accounts, etc. But under the proviso to the said clause (d), the Government shall not dispossess any person of any land in the inam estate in respect of which they consider that he is prima facie entitled to a ryotwari patta pending the decision of the Settlement Officer and the Tribunal and the Special Appellate Tribunal, on appeal, if any, as to whether such person is actually entitled to such patta. Rule 5 of the Madras Inam Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Rules, 1965, framed under the said Act prescribes the procedure for taking possession of land in an inam estate. The intention is that whoever is in actual possession of the land in an inam estate on the notified date should not be disturbed until it is decided by the Settlement Officer and the Tribunal and the Special Appellate Tribunal, on appeal, if any, that such person is not actually entitled to ryotwari patta under the Act. The Government consider that the existing provision regarding determination about prima facie entitlement to patta as now contained in clause (d) of section 3 of the said Act has led to complications. They also consider that when there is a special machinery provided for under the Act for deciding the question of grant of patta under section 12 of the said Act, it is unnecessary for the Manager to conduct a parallel enquiry for deciding the very same question just to find out whether the person is prima facie entitled to ryotwari patta. It is also considered that if a person is dispossessed on the basis of a decision arrived at after following the procedure prescribed under rule 5 of the said rules, it is quite possible that his chances for getting a patta before the regular machinery provided by the Act will become weak in many cases. It is, therefore, proposed to recast the proviso to clause (d) of section 3 of the said Act so as to provide that the Government shall not dispossess any person who, on the notified date, is in actual possession of any land in the inam estate until the Settlement Officer and the Tribunal and the Special Appellate Tribunal, on appeal, if any, decide that such person is not actually entitled to a ryotwari patta in respect of that land under the said Act, or until a competent court finally decides that such possession was not lawful, whichever decision is earlier. The amendment is given retrospective effect from the date of the commencement of the principal Act.

2. The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects. Published in Part IV-Section 3, page 190 of the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette Extraordinary dated the 1st September 1970. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Tamil Nadu Inam Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Amendment Act, 1971 (Tamil Nadu Act 28 of 1971). - Under clause (d) of section 3 of the Tamil Nadu Inam Estates (Abolition and Conversion into Ryotwari) Act, 1963 (Tamil Nadu Act 26 of 1963), the Government may, after removing any obstruction that may be offered, forthwith take possession of the inam estate and all accounts, etc. But, under the proviso to the said clause (d), the Government shall not dispossess any person of any land in the inam estate in respect of which they consider that he is prima facie entitled to a ryotwari patta pending the decision of the Settlement Officer, and the Tribunal and the Special Appellate Tribunal, on appeal, if any, as to whether such person is actually entitled to such patta. considered that if a person is dispossessed on the basis of a decision arrived at after following the procedure prescribed under rule 5 of the said rules, it is quite possible that his chances for getting a patta before the regular machinery provided by the Act will become weak in many cases. It is, therefore, proposed to recast the proviso to clause (d) of section 3 of the said Act so as to provide that the Government shall not dispossess any person who is personally cultivating any land in the inam estate, until the Settlement Officer and the Tribunal and the Special Appellate Tribunal, on appeal, if any, decide that such person is not actually entitled to a ryotwari patta in respect of that land under the provisions of this Act. A person is said to personally cultivate a land when he contributes his own physical labour or that of the members of his family in the cultivation of that land. The amendment is given retrospective effect from the date of the commencement of the principal Act.² The Bill seeks to achieve the above objects.
