(1)During such period as the State Government may, by general or special order, notifying in the Official Gazette, it shall be competent for the Collector, on application being made to him in this behalf by a Land Development Bank, to recover all sums due to the Bank, including the cost of such recovery.(2)The Collector or any person specially authorised by him in this behalf, shall recover all sums due to a Land Development Bank in the following order and manner, namely:-(a)from the borrower as if they were in arrears of land revenue due by him.(b)out of the land for the benefit of which the loan has been granted as if they were arrears of land revenue in respect of that land.(c)from a surety, if any, as if they were arrears of land revenue due by him;(d)out of the property comprised in the collateral security, if any according to the procedure for the realisation of land revenue by the sale of immovable property other than the land on which the revenue is due.(3)the provisions of this section shall be subject to any tenancy law for the time being in force.

44T. Distraint and sale.

(1)If any instalment payable under mortgage executed in favour of a Land Development Bank or any part of such instalment has remained unpaid for more than one month from the date on which it fell due, the managing committee of such a bank or the Board may, in addition to any other remedy available to the bank, apply to the Registrar for the recovery of such instalment or part thereof by distraint and sale the produce of the mortgaged land, including the standing crops thereon, and any other movable property of the default in the manner prescribed. On receipt of such application the Registrar may, after giving registered notice to the mortgagor notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882), direct distraint and sale of such produce and, if necessary, also of such other movable property of the defaulter:Provided that such implements of husbandry other than the implements mortgaged to the Land Development Bank, and such cattle of the defaulter as may, in the opinion of the Registrar, be necessary to enable the defaulter to earn his livelihood as an agriculturist shall not be liable for such distraint and sale: Provided further that no such distraint shall be made after the expiry of twelve months from the date on which the instalment fell due. (2) The value of the property distrained shall be, as far as may be, equal to the amount due, and the expenses of the distraint and the cost of the sale.

44U. Powers of sale when to be exercised.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882), where a power of sale without the intervention of the court is expressly conferred on a Land Development Bank by the mortgage deed, the managing committee of such bank or the Board or any person authorised by such managing committee or the Board in this behalf shall, in case of default of payment of mortgage money or any part thereof, have power, in addition to any other remedy available to the bank, to bring the mortgaged property to sale without the intervention of court. (2) No such power shall be exercised unless and until—(a) the Board has previously authorised the exercise of the power conferred by sub-section (1) after considering the representation, if any, of the mortgagor; (b) the registered notice requiring payment of such mortgage money or part thereof has been served upon—(i) the mortgagor; (ii) any person who has any interest in, or charge upon the property mortgaged or in or upon the right to redeem the same; (iii) any surety for the payment of the mortgage debt or any part thereof; and (iv) any creditor of the mortgagor who has in a suit for the administration of his estate obtained a decree for sale of the mortgaged property; and (c) default has been made in payment of such mortgage money or part thereof, for three months after service of notice in this behalf,

44V. Powers of Land Development Bank where mortgaged property is destroyed or security becomes insufficient.

- Where any property mortgaged to a Land Development Bank is wholly or partially destroyed or for any reason the security is rendered insufficient and the mortgagor, having been given a reasonable opportunity, by the managing committee of the said bank or the Board, of providing further security enough to make the whole security sufficient or of re-paying such portion of the loan as may be determined by the managing committee or the Board, has failed to provide such security or to repay such portion of the loan the whole of the loan shall, notwithstanding its terms and conditions, be deemed to fall due at once and the managing committee or the Board shall be entitled to take action against the mortgagor, under section 44-S or section 44-T or section 44-U, for the recovery thereof. Explanation. - For the purpose of this section, security shall be deemed to be insufficient unless the value of the mortgaged property, including improvement thereon, exceeds the amount for the time being, due on the mortgage by such proportion as may be specified in the rules or the bye-laws of the Land Development Bank.

44W. Power of the Board or Trustee to take action against defaulters.

(1)The Board or the Trustee may direct the managing committee of a Primary Cooperative Land Development Bank to take action against a defaulter under sections 44-S, 44-T, 44U or 44-V and if the managing committee neglects or fails to do so, the Board or the Trustee may take such action. The Trustee may direct the Board to take similar action against a defaulter and on the Board's neglect or failure to do so, may take such action himself.(2)Where an action is taken under the provisions of sub-section (1) by the Board, the provisions of this Chapter or any rules made in pursuance thereof shall apply as if all references therein to a Primary Co-operative Land Development Bank and its managing committee were references to the State Co-operative Land Development Bank and the Board.(3)When an action is taken under the provisions of sub-section (1) by the Trustee, the provisions of this Chapter or any rules made in pursuance thereof shall apply as if all references therein to Primary Co-operative Land Development Bank and its managing committee or the State Co-operative Land Development Bank or the Board were references to the Trustee.

44X. Confirmation of sale.

- Where any mortgaged property is sold under the provisions of section 44-U by a Primary Land Development Bank, the Bank shall, in the manner prescribed, submit to the State Co-operative Land Development Bank and the Registrar a report setting forth the manner in which the sale has been effected and the result of the sale. Where the sale is made by the State Cooperative and Development Bank or the Trustee is a person other than the Registrar. Similar Report shall be submitted by the Board or the Trustee as the case may be, to the Registrar.(2)After the report aforesaid has been submitted to the Registrar the managing committee of a Primary Co-operative Land Development Bank or the Board of the Trustee, as the case may be, may with the approval of Registrar, confirm or cancel the sale within one hundred and twenty days of the date of sale.(3)Where the Registrar is the Trustee and has taken action pursuant to subsection (1) of section 44-W, he may confirm or cancel the sale of the mortgaged property of his own motion or on the application of a Land Development Bank within one hundred and twenty days from the date.(4)Upon the mortgagor or any person having a right, title or interest in the mortgaged property applying to the managing committee of a Land Development Bank or the Board or the Trustee or the Registrar as the case may be, for setting aside the sale after having deposited at the Office of the Land Development Bank concerned such sums of money as may be sufficient for payment of the amount specified in the notice served under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 44-U together with subsequent interest and costs, if any, incurred during the process of sale and a commission, for payment to the purchaser, or a sum equal to five percent of the purchase money deposited by him, the sale of the mortgaged property shall be cancelled under the provisions of sub-section (2) or (3) of this section.(5)When sale is confirmed under the provisions of this section it shall become absolute and shall be deemed to be absolute for the purpose of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908).

44Y. Disposal of sale proceeds.

(1)The proceeds of the sale, effected under this Chapter shall be applied first to the payment of all costs, charges and expenses incurred in connection with the sale or attempted sales, secondly to the payment of any or all interest due on account of the mortgage in consequence whereof the mortgaged property was sold and thirdly to the payment of the principal due on account of the mortgage including cost and charges incidental to the recovery.(2)If there remains any residue from the proceeds of sale referred to under sub-section (1), the same shall be paid to the person proving himself interested in the property sold, or if there are more such persons than one, to such persons upon their joint receipt or according to their respective interest therein:Provided that, before such payments are made, the unsecured dues owing from the mortgagor to the Land Development Bank may be adjusted.

44Z. Certificates of purchase, delivery of property and title to purchaser.

- Where a sale of mortgaged property has become absolute the Bank shall grant a certificate to the purchaser, in the prescribed form, specifying the property sold, the sale-proceeds, the date of its sale, the name of the person who at the time of the sale is declared to be the purchaser, and the date on which the sale become absolute and upon the production of such certificate, the Sub-Registrar appointed under the Indian Registration Act, 1908 (16 of 1908) within the limits of whose jurisdiction the whole or any part of the property specified in the certificate is situated shall enter a copy of such certificate in the relevant book maintained for such purpose.(2)Where a mortgaged property is sold under the provisions of this Chapter and a certificate is granted to the purchaser under the provisions of sub-section (1), Collector shall, on the application of the purchaser, his heir or successor-in-interest, order delivery of possession to be made to such a person and shall put in possession such a person or his nominee.

44AA. Title of purchaser not to be questioned on ground of irregularities, etc.

- Where any property is sold in exercise of power of sale under this Chapter, the title of the purchaser shall not be questioned on the ground that-(a)the circumstances required for authorising the sale had not arisen,(b)due notice of the sale was not given, or(c)the power of sale was otherwise improperly or irregularly exercised; but any person who has suffered any damage by an unauthorised, improper or irregular exercise of such power is entitled to have a remedy in damage against the Land Development Bank.

44AB. Mortgage not to be questioned on insolvency of mortgagor.

- Notwithstanding anything in any law relating to insolvency, a mortgage executed in favour of a Land Development Bank shall not be called in question on the ground that it was not executed in good faith or for valuable consideration or on the ground that it was executed in order to give the Land Development Bank a preference over the other creditors of the mortgagor.

44AC. Appointment of receiver and his powers.

(1)The Board may, of its own motion or on the application of a Primary Land Development Bank and under circumstances in which the power of sale conferred by section 44U may be exercised, appoint in writing a person other than member of the managing committee of the Land Development Bank concerned to be the receiver of the produce of and income of the mortgaged property or any part thereof and such receiver shall be entitled either to take possession of the property or collect its produce and income, or both, as the case may be, to retain out of any money realised by him in expenses or management including his remuneration, if any, as fixed by the Board and to apply to balance in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (8) of section 69A of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882). (2)The Board may, for sufficient cause; remove such receiver on an application made by the mortgagor and fill the vacancy in the office of the receiver. (3)Nothing in this section shall empower the Board to appoint a receiver where the mortgaged property is already in the possession of a receiver appointed by a competent court.

44AD. Restrictions on leases.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in the transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882), or any other law for the time being in force, no mortgagor of property mortgaged to a Land Development Bank shall, except with the prior consent in writing of the bank and subject to such terms and conditions as the bank may impose lease or create to any tenancy rights or any other right, title, or interest in any such property; Provided that the rights of the Land Development Bank shall be enforceable against the lessee or the tenant, or any other person, as the case may be, as if he himself were a mortgagor. (2)Where the land, mortgaged with possession to a Land Development Bank, is in actual possession of a tenant, the mortgagor or the Land Development Bank shall give notice to the tenant to pay rent to the Land Development Bank during the currency of the lease and the mortgage and on such notice being given, the tenant shall be deemed to have attorned to the Land Development Bank.

44AE. Registration of documents executed on behalf of a Land Development Bank.

- (1)Notwithstanding anything in the Indian Registration Act, 1908 (16 of 1908), it shall not be necessary for any officer of a Land Development Bank to appear in person or by any agent at any registration office in any proceedings connected with the registration of any instrument executed by him in his official capacity or to sign as provided in Section 58 of that Act. (2)Where any instrument is so executed, the Registering Officer to whom such instrument is presented for registration may, if he thinks fit, refer to the aforesaid officer of the Land Development Bank for any information in respect thereof and on being satisfied of the execution thereof, shall register the instrument.

44AF. Delegation of certain powers by Board.

- The Board if it thinks fit, may delegate all or any of its powers under sections 44U, 44W, 44X or 44AC to an Executive Committee consisting of three or more of its members constituted by it.

44AG. Provisions of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 to apply to notice under this Chapter.

- The provisions of Sections 102 and 103 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882) and of any rule made by the High Court under section 104 of that Act for carrying out the purposes of the said sections shall apply so far as may be, in respect of all notices to be served under this Chapter.

44AH. Board's power of supervision over Primary Co-operative Land Development Banks.

- Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Board shall have such powers of supervision over the Primary Co-operative Land Development Banks, including powers of inspection of account books and proceedings of such bank, as may be prescribed by Rules.

44AI. Power to make rules.

- The State Government may, after previous publication, make rules for carrying into effect the purposes of this Chapter.(2)Such rule may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:- (a) the manner of effecting distraint under this Chapter, the custody, preservation and sale of distrained property, immediate sale of perishable articles where such articles are distrained; (b) conduct of the sale of the property mortgaged to Land Development Banks, appointment of sales officers, recovery of expenses of such sale, deposit of the purchase money in connection therewith and resale of the mortgaged property where purchase money is not deposited in sale proceedings; (c) submission of returns and reports by Primary Co-operative Land Development Bank to the State Co-operative Land Development Bank in respect of their transactions periodical statement of accounts between the Primary Co-operative Land Development Banks and the State Co-operative Land Development Bank, payment of amount recovered by the Primary Co-operative Land Development Bank on mortgages transferred to the State Co-operative Land Development Banks the form in which application to Land Development Banks for loans may be made, the properties offered as security for such loans the investment of money realised by Land Development Banks from the mortgagors and' matters generally relating to the conduct of business of Land Development Banks: and (d) all matters expressly required or allowed in this Chapter to be prescribed by Rules.[Chapter VI-B] [Chapter VI-B and Sections, 44AJ to 44AO Inserted by Act 39 of 1982.] Co-operative Banks,

- [(1) Save in so far as expressly provided in this Act, no Civil or Revenue Court shall have any jurisdiction in respect of any matter concerned with the winding up or dissolution of the registered society or suspension of the Managing Committee of a registered society under its act, or of any dispute required by section 48 to be referred to the Registrar or of any proceedings, under Chapter VII A.] Substituted by (Amendment) Act 5 of 1989. While a society is in liquidation, no suit or other legal proceeding shall be proceeded with or instituted against the liquidator as such or against the society or any member thereof on any matter touching the affairs of the society, except by leave of the Registrar and subject to such terms as he may impose.(3) No order of the State Government, District Judge, Registrar, a person appointed to assist the Registrar, liquidator, or an arbitrator or arbitrators purporting to be one, which under any provision of this Act is declared to be final shall be liable to be challenged, set aside, modified, revised, or declared void in any Court upon merits or upon any ground whatsoever except want of jurisdiction.[Chapter VII-A] [Inserted by Act 16 of 1948.] Distraint

57A. Cases in which application for distraint may be made.

- Where any debt or outstanding demand is due to a registered society from any member, past member or estate of deceased member or is due to a registered society which is duly authorised by the Registrar under any of the provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 16 of this Act to grant loans to non-members, from any person who is not a member of a registered society or from the estate of such person if he is dead the society may, in addition to any other remedy to which it is entitled by law, present an application to the Registrar requesting him to recover the debt or outstanding demand by distraining, while in the possession of the defaulter:-(1) any crops or other products of the earth standing or ungathered on the holding of the defaulter;(2) any crops or other products of the earth which have been grown on the holding of the defaulter and have been reaped or gathered and are deposited on the holding or on a threshing floor or place for treading out grain whether in the fields or within a homestead.

57B. Form of application.

(1) Every application under the last foregoing section shall specify-(a) the holding of the defaulter and the boundaries thereof or such other particulars as may suffice for its identification; (b) the name of the defaulter; (c) the detailed account of the dues; (d) the nature and approximate value of the produce to be distrained; (e) the place where it is to be found, or such other particulars as may suffice for its identification; and (f) if it is standing or ungathered at the time at which it is likely to be cut or gathered. (2) The application shall be signed and verified in the manner prescribed by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), for the signing and verification of plaints.

57C. Procedure on receipt of application.

(1) The applicant shall at the time of filing an application under the foregoing sections, file before the Registrar such documentary evidence (if any) as he may consider necessary for the purposes of the application. (2) The Registrar may, after taking such evidence as he thinks fit, admit the application or reject it. (3) Where the Registrar cannot forthwith admit or reject an application he may, if he thinks fit make an order prohibiting the removal of the produce specified in the application, pending the execution of an order for distraining the same or the rejection of the application. (4) When an order for distraining any produce is made under the section at a considerable time before the produce is likely to be cut or gathered, the Registrar may suspend the execution of the order for such time as he thinks fit, and may, if he thinks fit, make a further order prohibiting the removal of the produce pending the execution of the order for distraint. (5) An order under sub-section (3) or under sub-section (4) shall be served and published in such manner as the State Government may by rules prescribe.

57D. Execution of order for distraint.

(1) If an application is admitted under the last foregoing section and an order for distraining any produce is made the Registrar shall send a copy of the order containing the prescribed particulars to the Collector for execution. (2) The Collector shall, upon receipt of the order referred to in sub-section (1), depute an officer to distrain the produce specified therein or such portion of that produce as he thinks fit, and the officer shall proceed to the place where the produce is, and distrain the produce by taking charge of it in this behalf and publishing a notification of the distraint in accordance with rules to that effect made by the State Government. Provided that produce, which from its nature does not admit of being stored, shall not be distrained under this section at any time less than twenty days before the time when it would be fit for reaping or gathering.

57E. Service of demand and account.

(1) The distraining officer, shall at the time of making the distraint, serve on the defaulter a written demand for the amount due and the costs incurred in making the distraint, with an account exhibiting the grounds on which the distraint is made. (2) Where the distraining officer has reason to believe that a person other than the defaulter is the owner of the property distrained, he shall serve copies of the demand and account on that person likewise.(3)The demand and account shall, if practicable be served personally but, if a person on whom they are to be served absconds or conceals himself or cannot otherwise be found, the officer shall affix copies of the demand and account on a conspicuous part of the outside of the house in which he usually resides.

57F. Rights to reap etc., produce.

(1)A distraint under this Chapter shall not prevent any person from reaping, gathering or storing any produce or doing any other act necessary for its due preservation.(2)If the person entitled to do so fails to do so at the proper time, the distraining officer shall cause any standing crops or ungathered products distrained to be reaped or gathered when ripe, and stored in such granaries or other places as are commonly used for the purpose or in some other convenient place in the neighbourhood or shall do whatever else may be necessary for the due preservation of the same.(3)In either case the distrained property shall remain in the charge of the distraining officer or of some other person appointed by him in this behalf.

57G. Sale proclamation to be issued unless demand is satisfied.

(1)Unless the demand with all costs of distraint, be immediately satisfied that distraining officer shall issue a proclamation specifying the particulars of the property distrained and the demand for which distrained, and notifying that he will, at a place and on a day specified not being less than three or more than seven days after the time making the distraint, sell the distraint property by public auction:Provided that when the crops or products distrained from their nature admit of being stored but have not yet been stored, the day of the sale shall be so fixed as to admit of their being made ready for storing before its arrival.(2)The proclamation shall be struck up on a conspicuous place in the village in which the land of the defaulter is situate.

57H. Place of sale.

- The sale shall be held at the place where the distrained property is, or at the nearest place of public resort if the distraining officer is of opinion that it is likely to sell there to better advantage.

57I. When produce may be sold standing.

(1)Crops or products which from their nature admit of being stored shall not be sold before they are reaped or gathered and are ready for storing.(2)Crops or products which from their nature do not admit of being stored may be sold before they are reaped or gathered, and the purchaser shall be entitled to enter on the land by himself, or by any person appointed by him in this behalf and do all that is necessary for the purposes of tending and reaping or gathering them.

57J. Manner of sale.

- The property shall be sold by public auction, in one or more lots as the officer holding the sale may think advisable, and if the demand with the costs of distraint and sale, is satisfied by the sale of a portion of the property, the order of distraint shall not be executed with respect to the remainder.

57K. Postponement of sale.

- If, on the property being put for sale, a fair price (in the estimation of the officer holding the sale) is not offered for it, and if the owner of the property, or a person authorised to act in his behalf, applies to have the sale postponed till the next day or (if a market is held at the place of sale) the next market day, the sale shall be postponed until that day and shall be then completed, whatever price may be offered for the property.

57L. Payment of purchase money.

- The price of every lot shall be paid at the time of sale, or as soon thereafter as the officer holding the sale direct, and in default of such payment the property shall be put up again and sold.

57M. Certificate to be given to purchaser.

- When the purchase money has been paid in full, the officer holding the sale shall give the purchaser a certificate describing the property purchased by him and the price paid.

57N. Proceeds of sale how to be applied.

(1) From the proceeds of every sale of distrained property under this Chapter, the officer holding the sale shall pay the costs of the distraint and sale, calculated on a scale of charges prescribed by rules to be made, from time to time, by the State Government in this behalf. (2) The remainder shall be applied to the discharge of the amount due for which the distraint was made, with interest thereon up to the day of sale; and the surplus (if any) shall be paid to the person whose property has been sold.

57O. Certain persons may not purchase.

- Officers holding sales of property under this Chapter and all persons employed by, or subordinate to such officers and all officers and members of the staff of registered societies are prohibited from purchasing either directly or indirectly, any property sold by such officers.

57P. Procedure where demand is paid before the sale.

(1) If at any time after a distraint has been made under this Chapter, and before the sale of the distrained property, the defaulter, or any person making a bonafide claim as the owner of the distrained property, where he is not the defaulter deposits with the Collector executing the order of distraint or in the hands of the distraining officer, the amount specified in the demand served under section 57-E, with all costs which may have been incurred after the service of the demand, the Collector, or officer, as the case may be, shall grant a receipt for the same, and the order of distraint shall not be executed.(2)When the distraining officer receives the deposit, he shall forthwith pay it to the Collector.(3)After the expiration of one month from the date of a deposit being made under this section, the Collector shall pay therefrom to the applicant for distraint the amount due to him, unless in the meanwhile the person making a bona fide claim as the owner of the property distrained has instituted a suit against the applicant contesting the legality of the distraint and claiming compensation in respect of the same.

57Q. Distraint of property which is under attachment.

- When any conflict arises between an order for distraint issued under this Chapter and an order issued by a Civil Court for the attachment or sale of the property, which is the subject of the distraint, the order for distraint shall prevail; but if the property is sold under that order, the surplus proceeds of the sale shall not be paid under section 57-N, to the owner of the property without the sanction of the Court to which the order of attachment of sale was issued.

57R. Suit for compensation for wrongful distraint and appeals.

- No appeal shall lie from any order passed by the Registrar or a Collector under the Chapter, but any person whose property is distrained on an application made under section 57-A , in any case in which such an application is not permitted by that section, may institute a suit against the application for the recovery of compensation:Provided that, if such an order is passed by an Assistant Registrar or Deputy Registrar exercising the power of a Registrar, an appeal shall lie to the Registrar and his decision on such appeal shall be final.

57S. Power to make rules.

- The State Government may from time to time, make rules for regulating the procedure in all cases under the foregoing provisions of this Chapter.

57T. Interpretation.

- In this Chapter, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context-(a)"Collector" includes an officer appointed by the State Government to discharge any of the functions of a Collector under this Chapter;(b)"defaulter" means a person (including his legal representative if he is dead) from whom any such debt or outstanding demand as is referred to in Section 57-A, is recoverable; and(c)"holding" means any land used for agricultural or horticultural purposes.]
