6. Method of calculation of tax.

(1)Where the charges for luxury, provided in a hotel or a banquet hall, as the case may be, are inclusive of the charges for food and drink, the assessing authority may, after giving the proprietor an opportunity of being heard, segregate the charges separately i.e. charges for luxury and charges for food and drink.(2)Where any service charges, other than, the charges for luxury, provided in a hotel or a banquet hall, as the case may be, are collected and appropriated either wholly or partly by the proprietor, and are not paid to the staff, such charges shall be deemed to be the part of the charges for luxury.(3)Where luxury in a hotel or banquet hall, as the case may be, is provided to any person free or cost or at a concessional rate, the tax shall be levied at the normal rate for such luxury.(4)Where luxury was to be provided in a hotel at a normal rate to certain specified number of persons, but actually the same was availed of by more than the specified persons, then the tax shall also be levied on the extra persons at the same rate.

7. Declaration of charges.

- Every, proprietor liable to pay tax, shall declare the normal rates for luxuries, provided by him in such manner and within such period, as may be proscribed.Chapter-III Registration

8. Registration.

(1)No proprietor, who is liable to pay tax under this Act, shall provide luxury in a hotel or banquet hall, unless he is registered under this Act.(2)Every proprietor, required to be registered under sub-section (1), shall make an application for registration to the Commissioner, within a period of thirty days from the date, when such proprietor becomes liable to pay tax under this Act alongwith such fee and in such manner, as may be prescribed.(3)If the Commissioner is satisfied that the application made under sub-section (2), is in order, he shall, in accordance with such manner, as may be prescribed, register the proprietor and grant him a registration certificate in such form, as may be prescribed:Provided that if the Commissioner is satisfied that the particulars, contained in the application, are not correct or are incomplete or that any evidence or information, required for registering the proprietor, is not furnished, he may, after making an inquiry and giving the proprietor an opportunity of being heard, reject the application for reasons, to be recorded in writing. However, after furnishing the required information or correcting the application, as desired by the Commissioner, the proprietor may submit a fresh application or registration in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder: Provided further that during the pendency of an application for registration, the proprietor shall file return and pay the due amount of tax in such manner, as may be prescribed.

9. Information to be furnished regarding change of business.

- If any proprietor, -(a)sells or otherwise disposes of his business or any place of business; or(b)discontinues or transfers his business or changes his place of business or opens a new place of business; or(c)changes the name, constitution or nature of his business; or(d)appoints an agent, he shall inform the Commissioner in this regard in such manner, as may be prescribed. In case of death of a proprietor, his legal representative shall inform the Commissioner in such manner, as may be prescribed : Provided that if a proprietor or his legal representative, as the case may be, fails to inform the Commissioner in respect of the changes, then, notwithstanding any such change, the tax due from such proprietor, shall be recovered as if no change has taken place: Provided further that in the case of transfer of business, the transferee or his successor, as the case may be, shall also be liable to pay the tax, due under this Act.

10. Changes in registration.

- Consequent upon the receipt of information under section 9, the Commissioner shall, by an order in writing, make necessary changes in the relevant record.

11. Cancellation of registration.

(1)The Commissioner may, on an application, made to him by the proprietor for cancellation or otherwise on information that the proprietor has, -(a)discontinued his business; or(b)violated any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder; or(c)not made the payment of the tax, due under this Act; or(d)not filed the return, as required under this Act; or(e)misused his registration, cancel the registration. (2)No registration, otherwise than on an application of the proprietor, shall be cancelled without giving him an opportunity of being heard.

12. Security from proprietors.

(1)Every proprietor applying for registration under this Act, shall furnish a security of rupees fifty thousand in such manner, as may be prescribed, for securing proper and timely payment of tax or any other sum, payable by him under this Act. (2)The Commissioner may, on an application, made to him by the proprietor for release, discharge or refund of security, furnished by him under sub-section (1), order the release, discharge or refund of the whole or any part thereof, if the same is not required.(3)Where it appears expedient to the Commissioner so to do, for proper realisation of tax, payable under this Act, he may, at any time while such registration is in force, by an order in writing and for the reasons, to be recorded therein, require the proprietor to furnish within such time, as may be specified in the order and in the prescribed manner, such additional security, not exceeding rupees two lac in addition to the security, already furnished under sub-section (1), as may be specified in the order for the aforesaid purpose:Provided that no proprietor shall be required to furnish any additional security under this sub-section, unless he has been given an opportunity of being heard.(4)The Commissioner shall not retain the security, furnished by a proprietor, if the registration of such proprietor has been cancelled and nothing remains due against him.(5)The Commissioner may, by an order in writing, for good and sufficient cause, forfeit the whole or any part of the security or additional security, furnished by a proprietor for recovery of any amount of tax or penalty, due or payable by him under this Act:Provided that no order shall be made under this sub-section without giving the proprietor an opportunity of being heard.(6)In case, the security is rendered insufficient because of the order made under sub-section (5), the proprietor shall furnish further security to make up for the amount, which has fallen short in such manner, as may be prescribed and within such time, as may be specified.

Chapter-IV Returns, Assessment, Payment, Recovery and Collection of tax

13. Self assessment returns and payment of tax.

(1)Every proprietor shall make self assessment of the tax, payable by him under this Act, and shall file a return in such form, as may be prescribed, in this regard to the Commissioner or to any other officer, authorised by him within a period of sixty days from the date of expiry of the year.(2)Every proprietor shall pay the full amount of tax, payable by him before filing the return, and shall furnish alongwith the return, a satisfactory proof of the payment of such tax in such manner, as may be prescribed. Any return without such proof, shall not be entertained.(3)Every return shall be verified in such manner, as may be prescribed.(4)Every proprietor shall make monthly payment of tax within a period of fifteen days from the date of expiry of the month, and shall furnish to the Commissioner or any other officer, authorised by him, a statement in this regard in the prescribed form. Such statement shall be accompanied by a satisfactory proof of payment of the full amount of due tax. A statement without such proof of payment, shall not be entertained.(5)If there is a default in the payment of due tax for any month, beyond a period of ten days, whether a statement, as required under sub-section (4), is furnished or not, the defaulting proprietor shall, in addition to making payment of due tax, pay interest also at the rate of two per cent per month or part thereof, from the date of such default.(6)If a proprietor discovers any bona-fide error or omission in any return, furnished by him, he may rectify such error or omission by filing a revised return immediately after the detection of such error or omission. If such rectification results in a higher amount of tax, to lie due than the one, shown in the original return, the same shall be accompanied by the receipt of payment of the higher or the additional amount of tax payable, alongwith the interest at the rate of two per cent per month for the period of delay in such manner, as may be prescribed. No such rectification shall, however, be allowed after the end of the year immediately following the year to which the rectification relates or after the issuance of a notice for assessment, whichever is earlier. Where such rectification results in excess amount of tax having been paid than the due tax, such excess amount shall be refunded on application made by the proprietor in such manner, as may be prescribed.

14. Assessment of tax.

(1) Where on scrutiny of a return filed either under sub-section (1) or sub-section (6) of section 13, any tax or interest is found to be due after adjustment of any tax or interest paid on self-assessment or otherwise, then, without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (2), an intimation sent to the proprietor in this regard by the assessing authority, shall be deemed to be a notice of demand, served under sub-section (11), and all the provisions of this Act shall apply accordingly: Provided that the acknowledgement of return shall be deemed to be an Intimation, in case, no sum is payable by the proprietor or no refund is due to him: Provided further that no intimation under this sub-section, shall be sent after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of expiry of the year in which the return is filed. (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Commissioner may, on his own motion or on the basis of the information received by him, make an assessment of the tax, payable by a proprietor to the best of his judgement and determine the tax payable by him, where, - (a) the proprietor has not filed the return under section 13; or (b) there are definite reasons to believe that the return filed by a proprietor, is not correct and complete; or (c) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the proprietor has not paid the due amount of tax; or (d) provisional assessment has been made. (3) The Commissioner on his own motion or on the basis of the information received by him, may, by an order in writing, direct the assessing authority to make an assessment of the amount of tax, payable by any proprietor for such period, as he may specify. (4) An assessment under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), as the case may be, may be made within a period of three years from the date, when the return was filed or due to be filed, whichever is later: Provided that where circumstances so warrant, the Commissioner may, by an order in writing, allow assessment of a proprietor after three years, but not later than six years from the date, when return was filed or due to be filed, whichever is later. (5) Where an assessment is to be made under this section, the assessing authority shall serve a notice to the concerned proprietor and such notice shall state - (a) the grounds for the proposed assessment; and (b) the time, place and manner for filing objections, if any. (6) The assessing authority after taking into account all the relevant material, available with it, shall, on the date, specified in the notice, served under sub-section (5) or soon thereafter, as the case may be, and after taking into consideration such evidence, as may be produced by the proprietor, by an order in writing, make an assessment, determining the sum, payable by or refundable to the proprietor on the basis of such assessment. (7) The assessing authority may, with the prior permission of the Commissioner, amend an assessment, made under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), as the case may be, within a period of three years from the date of the order of assessment, if it discovers under-assessment of tax, payable by a proprietor for the reason that - (a) such a proprietor has committed fraud or wilful neglect; or (b) such a proprietor has misrepresented; or (c) a part of the amount, received on account of luxury provided in a hotel or a banquet hall, has escaped assessment. (8) The assessing authority may, within a period of one year from the date of assessment order, rectify an assessment, made under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3), as the case may be, if it discovers that there is a mistake apparent on the face of the record. (9) An assessment, referred to in sub-section (7) or sub-section (8), shall be an assessment, made under this Act for all intents and purposes. (10) No assessment or other proceeding purported to be made or taken under this Act or the rules made thereunder, shall be - (a) quashed or deemed to be void for the reason that the same was not in the prescribed form; or(b)affected by reason of a mistake, defect or omission therein:Provided that such an assessment is substantially in conformity with the provisions of this Act and the rules framed thereunder.(11)When any tax, interest, penalty or any other sum is payable in consequence of any order made under this Act, the assessing authority shall serve upon the proprietor, a notice of demand in the prescribed form specifying therein the sum, so payable.(12)No order under this section shall be made without affording an opportunity of being heard to the proprietor concerned.

15. Provisional assessment.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in section 14, where a fraud or wilful neglect has been committed with a view to evade or avoid the payment of tax or due tax has not been paid or a return has not been filed by or on behalf of a proprietor, the assessing authority may, for the reasons, to be recorded in writing, make provisional assessment for any period to determine the tax liability so evaded, avoid or the tax so unpaid:Provided that the tax liability of such a proprietor shall be assessed finally after he files his return in the prescribed manner:Provided further that in addition to the tax so assessed in such provisional assessment, the proprietor shall be liable to pay a penalty of double the amount of tax so assessed.(2)The provisional assessment under sub-section (1), shall be made within a period of six months from the date of detection of fraud or wilful neglect. The Commissioner may, however, for the reasons, to be recorded in writing, on a reference made by the assessing authority, extend the said period by another six months.

16. Interest on non-payment or delayed payment of tax.

(1)If a proprietor, fails to pay the amount of tax due from him under this Act, he shall, in addition to the amount of tax, be liable to pay interest on the said amount of tax at the rate of two per cent per month from the due date of payment till the date, he actually pays such tax alongwith the interest.(2)When a revised return filed under sub-section (6) of section 13, shows higher amount of tax due, the proprietor shall be liable to pay interest at the rate of two per cent per month on such higher amount of tax from the due date till the date, he actually pays the due amount of tax alongwith the interest.(3)If a proprietor fails to declare the amount of tax in the return, which should otherwise have been declared, such proprietor shall be liable to pay interest at the rate of two per cent on such amount of tax from the due date till the date, he actually pays such amount of tax.(4)If the amount of tax or penalty due from a person, is not paid by him within the period, specified in the notice of demand or if no such period is specified, within a period of thirty days from the date of service of such notice, the proprietor shall, in addition to the payment of amount of tax or penalty, be liable to pay interest on such amount at the rate of two per cent per month from the date, the tax is due till the date, he actually pays the due amount of tax or penalty, as the case may be, alongwith the interest:Provided that where the recovery of tax or penalty, as the case may be, is stayed by an order of the competent authority, the amount of tax or penalty shall, after the order of stay is vacated, be recoverable alongwith the interest at the aforesaid rate on the amount, ultimately found to be due and such interest shall be payable from the date, the tax or penalty had first become due.(5)The amount of interest payable under this section shall, -(a)be calculated by considering part of a month as a full month;(b)for the purposes of collection and recovery, be deemed to be tax under this Act; and(c)be in addition to the penalty, if any, imposed under this Act.Explanation. - For the purpose of this section, if payment of tax is made by the proprietor through cheque; and the cheque is dishonoured by the bank, then it will amount to failure on the part of the proprietor to pay tax.

17. Tax as a debt due to the State Government.

- The tax or any other amount due or payable by a proprietor under this Act, shall be a debt due to the State Government, and shall be paid or recovered as per the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

18. Liability under this Act to be the first charge.

- Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, enacted by the Punjab State Legislature, for the time being in force, the amount of tax, penalty, interest or any other sum, payable by a proprietor or any other person under this Act, shall be the first charge on the property of such proprietor or person from the date, on which the amount becomes due and payable.

19. Unpaid amount recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

- Any amount of tax, penalty, interest or any other such sum due and payable under this Act, which remains unpaid after the due date, shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

20. Adjustment of any payment.

- Any payment made by a proprietor towards the amount, due as a result of any order passed under this Act, shall first be adjusted, except in so far as the recovery of such amount or part thereof, is stayed under the provisions of this Act, against the interest payable by him on the date of payment and thereafter, against the amount due as a penalty. Any amount remaining unadjusted thereafter, shall be adjusted against the tax payable.

21. Restrictions on transfer of property.

(1)No proprietor against whom any recovery proceedings under this Act are pending shall create a charge on or part with the possession by way of sale, mortgage, gift, exchange or any other mode of transfer whatsoever of any of his assets with the intention to avoid or evade payment of tax, penalty, interest or any other sum due or likely to become due against him.(2)Any charge or transfer made in violation of the provisions of sub-section (1), shall be void as against any claim in respect of tax or any other sum, payable by the proprietor till the completion of such proceedings:Provided that such charge or transfer shall not be void, if it is made with the previous permission of the Commissioner or the payment of tax or any other amount due from such proprietor, has been fully secured by furnishing a bank guarantee. In the case of outstanding arrears, the Commissioner shall take into account any other liability under this Act.Explanation. - For the purpose of this section, 'assets' means land, building, machinery, plant, shares, securities and fixed deposits in the banks to the extent, to which any of the aforesaid assets, do not form part of the stock in trade of the business of the proprietor.

Chapter V

Refund

22. Refund of tax.

- Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, Interest on delayed refund, the Commissioner shall, in such manner and within such period, as may be prescribed, refund to the proprietor the amount of tax, penalty or interest, if any, paid by such proprietor in excess of the amount due from him. The refund may either be made by refund voucher or at the option of the proprietor, by refund adjustment order: Provided that the Commissioner shall first apply such excess amount towards the recovery of any amount due, in respect of which, a notice of demand under sub-section (11) of section 14 has been served or towards any other amount, which is due, but not paid, and shall refund the balance amount, if any.

23. Interest on delayed refund.

(1) Where an amount, required to be refunded under section 22 by the Commissioner to a proprietor, is not so refunded to him within a period of sixty days from the date of application, a simple interest at the rate of half per cent per month on the said amount shall be paid to such proprietor from the date, immediately following the expiry of the said period of sixty days to the date of making refund. Explanation. - If delay in making refund within the aforesaid period of sixty days, is attributable to the proprietor whether wholly or in part, then such period of delay shall be excluded from the period, for which interest is payable. (2) Where any question arises as to be period, to be excluded in terms of the Explanation to sub-section (1), then such a question shall be determined by the Commissioner, whose decision shall be final. (3) Interest under this section, shall be calculated by considering part of a month as full one month.

24. Power to withhold refund in certain cases.

(1) Where an order giving rise to a refund is the subject matter of an appeal or further proceeding or where any other proceeding under this Act is pending, and the officer competent to make such refund is of the opinion that making of refund is likely to affect the revenue adversely, such officer may, with the prior approval of the Commissioner, withhold the refund till such time, as may be determined by such officer. (2) Where a refund is withheld under the sub-section (1), the Commissioner shall pay interest in accordance with the provisions of section 21, on the amount of refund ultimately determined to be due to the proprietor as a result of such appeal or further proceeding or any other proceeding for the period, starting from the date, immediately following the expiry of the period of sixty days from the date of order, referred to in sub-section (1), to the date or making refund. Chapter-VI Maintenance of Accounts and Inspection

25. Maintenance of accounts and registers etc.

(1) Every proprietor, shall maintain and keep true and complete accounts relating to his business and shall also maintain such other registers or records as may be prescribed. All such accounts, registers or records shall be kept by the proprietor in safe custody till his assessment for the relevant year is completed or in case where an appeal, revision or any other proceeding in respect of such year has been filed or instituted and is pending, the same is disposed of. (2) Every proprietor liable to pay tax, shall issue a bill or cash memo in respect of the charges, received for providing accommodation in a hotel or charges, received for providing banquet hall, and shall mention therein, the true amount of such charges, the name and address of the person from whom the same are received. Where such charges are received in any foreign currency, the name of such currency shall be mentioned clearly in such bill or cash memo. The cash memo to be issued by such proprietor, shall bear the full name, address and registration number of the hotel or banquet hall, as the case may be.

26. Power of inspection and search.

(1) The Commissioner or the assessing authority, may, subject to such conditions, as may be prescribed, require any proprietor to produce before it, the records of accounts, registers or other documents or to furnish any other information relating to his business, as may be necessary for the purpose of this Act. (2) All records of accounts, registers or other documents relating to the business of any hotel or banquet hall, shall at all reasonable times, be open for inspection by the Commissioner or the assessing authority, and the Commissioner or the assessing authority, as the case may be, may take or cause to be taken such copies or extract of the said records, as may be necessary for the purpose of ascertaining the accuracy of the charges received for providing luxury. (3) If the Commissioner or the assessing authority has reason to believe that a proprietor has evaded or is trying to evade the payment of tax due from him, it may, for the reasons to be recorded in writing, seize such records of accounts, registers or other documents of the proprietor, as may be necessary and shall issue a receipt for the same, and shall retain them so long as may be necessary in connection with any proceedings under this Act: Provided that the records of accounts, registers or other documents so seized, shall not be retained for a period, exceeding one hundred eighty day from the date of seizure, unless reasons for retaining the same beyond the said period, are recorded in writing and the approval of the Commissioner is obtained in case, the seizure is made by the assessing authority, and such approval in any case, shall not be for more than sixty days at a time. (4) For the purposes of this Act, the Commissioner or the assessing authority, may enter and search any hotel or banquet hall or any place of business of the proprietor or any other place where they have reason to believe that the proprietor keeps, or is for the time being keeping any records of accounts, registers or other documents relating to his business. (5) No other person shall enter and search any premises, without the prior permission of the Commissioner or of such other officer, not below the rank of the Assistant Excise and Taxation Commissioner, as the Commissioner may authorize in writing. (6) The assessing authority shall have the power to record the statement of any person connected with the business of the proprietor including a bailee or a transporter, and such statement may, after giving the affected person a reasonable opportunity of being heard, be used for the purpose of determining the liability of the proprietor to tax.

Chapter-VII Penalties

27. Penalty for failure to register.

- Whoever fails to make an application for registration as required, under sub-section (2) of section 8, shall be liable to pay penalty of double the amount of tax, as assessed to be due, in addition to the amount of tax, due and the interest payable from the date, the proprietor becomes liable for registration till the application for registration is made.

28. Penalty for failure to pay tax.

- If a proprietor, fails to pay the amount of tax in accordance with the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to pay in addition to the tax and the interest payable by him, a penalty thereon also at the rate of two per cent per month.
