The International Finance Corporation (Status, Immunities and Privileges) Act, 1958 ACT NO. 42 OF 1958

1354.

The International Finance Corporation has been established by an International Agreement to which India is a signatory. Article V of that Agreement provides for the granting to the Corporation and its officials and employees certain status, immunities and privileges in the territories of each member country. Section 10 of this Article requires each member country to take such action as is necessary in its own territories for the purpose of making effective in terms of its own law, the principal set forth in the Article. In pursuance thereto several member countries have already enacted necessary legislation in this behalf. By this Bill, it is proposed to enact similar legislation to give effect to the provisions, of the said Article VI of the International Agreement. - Gazette of India, 1958, Ext., Pt. II, Section 2, page 986. [17th October, 1958.] An Act to implement the international agreement for the establishment and operation of the International Finance Corporation in so far as it relates to the status, immunities and privileges of that Corporation, and for matters connected therewith. BE it enacted by Parliament in the Ninth Year of the Republic of India as follows:--

1. Short title and extent.

(1) This Act may be called the International Finance Corporation (Status, Immunities and Privileges) Act, 1958. (2) It [extends] [Extended to the Union territory of Pondicherry by Act 26 of 1968, Section 3 and Schedule.] to the whole of India.

2. Definitions.

- In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires,--(a)"Agreement" means the Agreement for the establishment and operation of the international body known as the International Finance Corporation;(b)"Corporation" means the International Finance Corporation established under the Agreement.

3. Conferment of status and certain immunities and privileges on the Corporation and conferment of certain immunities and privileges on its officers and employees.

(1)Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, the provisions of the Agreement set out in the Schedule shall have the force of law in India:Provided that nothing in Section 9 of Article VI of the Agreement shall be construed as--(a)entitling the Corporation to import into India goods free of any duty of customs without any restriction on their subsequent sale therein; or(b)conferring on the Corporation any exemption from duties or taxes which form part of the price of goods sold; or(c)conferring on the Corporation any exemption from duties or taxes which are in fact no more than charges for services rendered.(2)The Central Government may, from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette, amend the Schedule in conformity with any amendments duly made and adopted, of the provisions of the Agreement set out therein:Provided that any notification issued under this sub-section shall be laid for not less than thirty days before each House of Parliament as soon as may be after it is issued and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make during the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following.

4. Power to make rules.

(1)The Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.(2)All rules made under this Act shall be laid for not less than thirty days before each House of Parliament as soon as may be after they are made and shall be subject to such modifications as Parliament may make during the session in which they are so laid or the session immediately following.

Schedule 1

PROVISIONS OF THE AGREEMENT WHICH SHALL HAVE FORCE OF LAW:ARTICLE IIISection 1.
