2. [---] [Omitted by Notification No. F 15(1) Home/A//GR-II/61 dated 5-1-1962 (Published in Rajasthan Gazette Extraordinary Part 4 C dated 1-3-1962)]

Chapter II

Registration

3. Form of Register.

- The Register shall be kept and maintained in form No. 1 with a separate sheet for each offender. An offender shall be assigned a serial number with the abbreviation of the name of the District as per appendix I.

4. Preparation of list for purposes of Register.

- Every District Magistrate shall forthwith require the Superintendent of Police of his district to prepare and submit within six months of the commencement of these rules, the list of habitual offenders (within such district) [---] [Omitted by Notification No. F 15(1) Home/A//GR-II/61 dated 5-1-1962 (Published in Rajasthan Gazette Extraordinary Part 4 C dated 1-3-1962)] and to state in respect of each habitual offenders entered in such list whether any further information in relation to him is necessary for the purposes of preparing the register. The list shall be in form No. 2.

5. Form of notice to habitual offender.

- The notice referred to in sub-section (3) of section 3 shall be in form No. 3.

6. [Service] [Substituted by ibid.] of Notice.

(1)At least 10 days before the date fixed for appearance, the notice in from No. 3 shall be affixed on the notice board of the office of the District Magistrate [or any officer appointed by him in this behalf] issuing the same, and in a conspicuous place at every police station or out post in whose area the habitual offender resides. The contents thereof shall be proclaimed by beat of drum in the town or village in which the habitual offender resides.(2)In the notice to be affixed on the notice board of the District Magistrate [or any officer appointed by him this behalf] under sub-rule (1) it will not be necessary to mention the name of the habitual offender in the body of the notice. A common notice may be published for several habitual offenders, and their names and dates of conviction etc. may be noted below the notice, a note to that effect being made in the body of the notice.(3)In addition to the publication of the notice in the manner prescribed by sub-rule (1) a copy thereof shall be served on the habitual offender concerned in the manner provided in the Code for the service of summons. Where such service cannot be effected in spite of the best efforts of the serving officer the serving officer shall affix the copy on a conspicuous part of the last known residence of the person to be served and shall make a report accordingly to the District Magistrate [or any officer appointed by him in this behalf] who may then declare the service to be sufficient or order service in such other manner as he may think fit in the circumstances of the case. Service under this sub-rule shall in all cases be effected at least 10 days before the date fixed for appearance.

7. [Representations against registration.] [Substituted by ibid] - Every person in respect of whom the notice under sub-section (3) of section 3 is issued may either orally or in writing apply that his name be not entered in the register of habitual offenders.

(2)The District Magistrate or any officer appointed by him in this behalf shall after giving the person making the application a reasonable opportunity of being heard and after such summary enquiry as he thinks necessary pass such orders on the application as he deems fit, recording his reasons.(3)It the application is allowed, the name of such person shall be entered in the register of habitual offenders.(4)If the application is rejected, such persons shall, if present, be informed accordingly, and a certified copy of the order shall, on application be supplied to him free of charge, within 10 days of the application.(5)If any person in respect of whom the notice under sub-section (3) of section 3 is served fails to attend on the date and the time and place fixed for hearing it shall be resumed that he has no application to show cause against his registration as habitual offender.(6)If such person, when required to furnish any information, fails to do so, the District Magistrate or any officer authorised by him, in this behalf may, without prejudice to the provisions of Rule 9, draw such presumption from the failure as the circumstances of each case warrant.

[Representations]. Substituted by ibidThe [representation] [Added by ibid] referred to in section SC shall be made in the form of written memorandum addressed to the Government. It shall be presented before the Home Secretary to the Government, or, if the [petitioner] [Substituted by ibid] so desires, before the District Magistrate whose order is sought to be challenged in [representation]. Substituted by ibidWhere the [representation] [Substituted by ibid] is presented before the District Magistrate, he shall forward the papers to the Government along with the memorandum of [representation] [Substituted by ibid] as soon as practicable.(3)The memorandum of [representation] [Substituted by ibid] shall be presented either by the [petitioner] [Substituted by ibid] in person or by his authorised representative. An [representation] [Substituted by ibid] received by the post or in any other manner shall be filed without any action.(4)If on any date fixed for the hearing of [representation] [Substituted by ibid], the [petitioner] [Substituted by ibid] does not appear in person or through an authorised representative, the [representation] [Substituted by ibid] may be dismissed for default. Such dismissal shall be set aside if the [petitioner] [Substituted by ibid] makes an application for that purpose within 30 days of the order of dismissal, and shows that he was prevented by sufficient cause from appearing. Such application may be presented to the Home Secretary to the Government or to the District Magistrate, who shall forward it to the Government.This rule makes mention of the form of appeal to be preferred by a person who feels aggrieved by an order passed by the District Magistrate Under Section 3 of the Act and mode of its presentation Section 4 of the Act which provided for such appeal has been amended by the Legislature in 1958. The aforesaid right has been substituted by right of representation to the State Government under section 5C of the Act. The language of the present rule does not in terms apply to the representation provided for in section 5D and it requires suitable amendment in the light of that section.

9. Supply of information and finger print.

(1)A person to whom a notice under sub-section (3) of section (3) has been issued, shall, if the notice so requires, attend on the date and at the time and place mentioned in the notice and allow his [finger and palm impressions, foot prints and photographs to be taken as referred to in section 4] [Substituted by ibid.] and also supply such information as may have been mentioned in the notice.(2)Where such persons fails to attend and aforesaid, and the District Magistrate [or any officer appointed by him in this behalf] [Substituted by ibid.] considers it necessary that the [finger impressions and palm impressions, foot prints and photographs] [Substituted by ibid.] should be taken and the information obtained, he may issue a warrant in form No. 4 for the arrest of such person. The warrant shall be signed by him, shall bear the seal of his court and may be executed and shall be in all respects governed by the provisions of sections 75 to 86 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 [Act V of 1898] [Now the provision of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974)], and a bond issued under such warrant shall also be governed by the same provisions as are contained in the Code for bonds for appearance before a court.(3)Where an [representation] [Substituted by ibid.] under section 4 has been filed to the knowledge of the District Magistrate [or any officer appointed by him in this behalf] [Substituted by ibid.] he shall not issue a warrant under sub-rule (2) until the [representation] [Substituted by ibid.] is disposed of.

10. Additions to the register.

(1)After the preparation of register under sub-section (5) of section 3, the Superintendent may from time to time make a report to the District Magistrate for the [re-registration and] [Substituted by ibid.] addition in the register of the name of a person residing within his jurisdiction, stating the grounds for such addition [or re-registration]. Substituted by ibid.Upon receipt of such report the District Magistrate shall follow as nearly as may be the same procedure as is laid down in rules 5, 6, 7 & 9 and an [representation] [Substituted by ibid.] against the order of the addition of a name shall also be governed by rule 8. [or re-registration] [Added by ibid.]

11. Erasures from the register

(1)The Superintendent of Police shall before the end of December every year, review the cases of persons entered in the register placed in his keeping under sub-section (5) of section 3 and shall report to the District Magistrate the names of any persons that may be recommended for being cancelled from the register. The grounds of such recommendation shall be stated in writing.(2)If the District Magistrate considers such grounds to be sufficient, he shall order the cancellation recommended and the name of such person shall be cancelled accordingly and an intimation of the fact shall be given to the person whose name is so cancelled.(3)Any person whose name is entered in the register may apply to the District Magistrate for cancellation of his name therefrom, specifying in writing the grounds for such application. If the District Magistrate is satisfied as to the sufficiency of such grounds he shall order the cancellation prayed for, subject to the provisions of sub-rules (4) & (5). (4) No application under sub-rule (3) shall be granted unless a notice has been given to the Superintendent of police who may contest the application, either personally or through the prosecuting Inspector of Prosecuting Sub-Inspector. (5) No application under sub-rule (3) shall be entertained unless a period of 12 months has elapsed.
