4AA. [Special mode of recovery.] [Section 4AA inserted by W.B. Act 4 of 1992.] - (1) Notwithstanding the issue of a requisition under the proviso to clause (f) of sub-section (3) of section 4 or under the proviso to clause (f) of section 4A for realisation of cess, penalty or interest as arrears of land revenue, the prescribed authority or the notified authority, as the case may be, may, at any time or from time to time by notice in the prescribed form, require any person from whom money is due or may become due to the owner referred to in sub-section (3) of section or section 4A, as the case may be, or any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of such owner, to deposit into a Government Treasury or the Reserve Bank of India under the appropriate head of account either forthwith upon the money becoming due or being held or at or within the time specified in the notice (not being before the money becomes due or is held), so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due by such owner in respect of the arrears or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than the amount due.

(2) A notice under this section may be issued to any person who holds or may subsequently hold any money for or on account of the owner jointly with any other person and, for the purposes of owner jointly with any other person and, for the purposes of this section, the shares of the joint-holders in such account shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, to be equal. (3) A copy of the notice shall be forwarded to the owner at his last address known to the prescribed authority or the notified authority, as the case may be, and, in the case of the joint account, to all the joint-holders at their last addresses known to the said authority. (4) Save as otherwise provided in this section every person to whom a notice is issued under this section shall be bound to comply with such notice, and, in particular, where any such notice is issued to a post-office, banking company or insurer, it shall not be necessary for any pass book deposit receipt, policy or any other document to be produced for the purpose of any entry, endorsement or the like being made before payment is made, notwithstanding any rule, practice or requirement to the contrary. (5) Any claim with respect to any property in relation to which a notice under this section has been issued, arising after the date of the notice, shall be void as against any demand contained in the notice. (6) Where a person to whom a notice under this section is sent proves to the satisfaction of the prescribed authority or the notified authority, as the case may be, that the sum demanded or part thereof is not due to the owner or that he does not hold any money for or on account of the owner or that the money demanded or any part thereof is not likely to be due to the owner or be held for or an account of the owner, then, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to require such person to deposit any such sum or part thereof, as the case may be. (7) The prescribed authority or the notified authority, as the case may be, may, at any time or from time to time, amend or revoke any notice issued under this section or extend the time for making any payment in pursuance of such notice. (8) The Treasury or the Bank shall grant a receipt for any amount paid in compliance with a notice issued under this section, and the person so saving shall be fully discharged from his liability to the owner to the extent of the amount so paid.(9)Any person discharging any liability to the owner after receipt of a notice under this section shall be personally liable to the prescribed authority or the notified authority, as the case may be, to the extent of his own liability to the owner so discharged or to the extent of the owner's liability for any sum due under this Act, whichever is less.(10)If the person to whom a notice under this section is sent fails to make payment in pursuance thereof, he shall be deemed to be an owner in default in respect of the amount specified in the notice and further proceedings may be taken against him for the realisation of the amount as if it were an arrear due from him and the notice shall have the same effect as attachment of a debt.(11)The prescribed authority or the notified authority, as the case may be, may apply to the Court in whose custody there is money belonging to the owner for payment to him of the entire amount of such money, or, if it is more than the tax due, an amount sufficient to discharge the tax:Provided that any dues or property exempt from attachment in execution of a decree of a Civil Court under section 60 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 shall be exempt from any requisition made under this section.

4B. [Validation and exemption.] [Section 4B inserted by W.B. Act 20 of 1989.]

- Where any sum has been paid by, or collected from any owner of a tea estate during the period commencing on the 1st day of April, 1981 and ending on the day immediately preceding the date of coming into force of the West Bengal Taxation Laws (Second Amendment) Act, 1989 as rural employment cess in respect of any period prior to the coming into force of the said Act, such portion of the said sum as may become payable in accordance with the provisions of this Act after the coming into force of the said Act shall, notwithstanding any judgement, decree or order of any court, be deemed to have been validity levied, paid or collected under this Act, and where after assessment or fresh assessment any portion of such sum is found to have been levied, paid or collected in excess of the rural employment cess payable for the said period shall be refunded to such owner in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder.

(2)Where any assessment is purported to have been made, or any order is purported to have been passed on appeal, revision or review, by any authority, or any appeal or application for revision or review has been made before such authority under this Act, or any order has been passed by a court or where any sum has been paid or collected as rural employment cess, before the coming into force of the West Bengal Taxation Laws (Second Amendment) Act, 1989, in respect of any period prior to the coming into force of the said Act, assessment or fresh assessment shall, notwithstanding such order on appeal, revision or review, or the pendency of such appeal or application for revision or review, or any order passed by a Court, be made in accordance with the provisions of this Act within four years from the date of coming into force of the said Act.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, any default by an owner of a tea estate to make payment of the rural employment cess or to apply for registration or to file return in accordance with the provisions of this Act after the coming into force of the West Bengal Taxation Laws (Second Amendment) Act, 1989 in respect of any period prior to the coming into force of the said Act shall not be deemed to be a contravention of such provisions if such owner makes payment of such rural employment cess within one month or files return within six months, as the case may be, from date of coming into force of the said Act.(4)The amount of the rural employment cess payable by any owner of a tea estate under sub-section (2A) of section 4 of this Act in respect of any period prior to the coming into force of the West Bengal Taxation Laws (Second Amendment) Act, 1989, shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, be reduced by such amount of rural employment cess payable in respect of such tea estate on such quantity of green tea leaves produced therein during the said period as may be equivalent to the quantity of any tea despatched for which such owner purported to have enjoyed or would have enjoyed exemption from payment of the rural employment cess during such period, and it is hereby declared that for determining the amount of the rural employment cess to be reduced, each kilogram of tea despatched during such period shall be equivalent to four and a half kilogram of green tea leaves produced in such tea estate.

5. West Bengal Rural Employment and Production Fund.

(1)There shall be established a fund to be called the West Bengal Rural Employment and Production Fund which shall be administered in such manner as may be prescribed.(2)The fund shall consist of - (a)all proceeds of tax, (b)any sum granted by the State Government, and (c)any other sum received from any source whatsoever.

5A. [Crediting of proceeds of cess, penalty and interest to West Bengal Rural Employment and Production Fund. - Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, the proceeds of the cess, penalty and interest, levied and recovered under section 4 other than clause (a) of sub-section (2) of that section, section 4A and section 4AA shall first be credited to the Consolidated Fund of West Bengal and the State Government may, if the State Legislature by appropriation made by law in this behalf so provides, credit such proceeds of the cess, penalty and interest to the West Bengal Rural Employment and Production Fund, after deducting therefrom the expenses of collection for being utilised exclusively for the purposes of the Act.] [Section 5A inserted by W.B. Act 13 of 2005.]

6. Application of the West Bengal Rural Employment and Production Fund.

- The West Bengal Rural Employment and Production Fund shall be utilised by the State Government for the implementation of such rural production programme and for promotion of such employment in the rural areas as may be prescribed.

6A. [Offences and penalties.] [Sections 6A and 6B inserted by W.B. Act 4 of 1993.] - (1) Whoever -

(a) fails to pay the full amount of rural employment cess payable under sub-section (1) of section 4 in respect of a tea estate referred to in sub-section (2A) of that section for any period in accordance with clause (a) of sub-section (3) of that section, or (b) submits a false return, or fails without reasonable cause to furnish a return, under clause (c) of sub-section (3) of section 4, or (c) fails to make payment of interest payable under clause (g1), clause (g2) or clause (g3) of sub-section (3) of section 4, or (d) fails to pay the full amount of rural employment cess payable under sub-section (1) of section 4 in respect of a coal-bearing land referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (2) of that section for any period in accordance with clause (a) of section 4A, or (e) submits a false declaration, or fails without reasonable cause to furnish a declaration, under clause (b) of section 4A, or (f) fails to make payment of interest payable under clause (ga), clause (gb) or clause (gc) of section 4A, shall be punishable with simple imprisonment which may extend to six months or with fine or with both and when the offence is a continuing one, with a daily fine not exceeding one hundred rupees during the period of continuance of the offence: Provided that no prosecution for an offence enumerated in this sub-section shall be instituted in respect of the same facts in respect of which a penalty has been imposed under clause (cc) or clause (g) of sub-section (3), as the case may be, of section 4. (2) No Court shall take cognizance of any offence - (a) under clause (a), clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (1), except with the previous sanction of the prescribed authority referred to in subsection (3) of section 4, or (b) under clause (d), clause (e) or clause (f) of, sub-section (1), except with the previous sanction of the notified authority referred to in clause (b) of section 4A, and no Court inferior to the Court of a Metropolitan Magistrate or a Judicial Magistrate of the first class shall try such offence. (3) The offences punishable under sub-section (1) shall be cognizable and bailable.

6B. [Liability to prosecution.] [Sections 6A and 6B inserted by W.B. Act 4 of 1993.] - (1) When an offence under clause (a), clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 6A has been committed by an owner of a tea estate or an offence under clause (d), clause (e) or clause (f) of sub-section (1) of that section has been committed by an owner of a coal-bearing land, as the case may be, every person who, at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of such tea estate or coal-bearing land, as the case may be, and was responsible to such owner for the conduct of the business of such tea estate or coal-bearing land, as the case may be, as well as the owner, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment provided under section 6A, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence. (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under section 6A has been committed by an owner of a tea estate or coal-bearing land, as the case may be, and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of any director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

7. Power to make rules.

(1)The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.(2)Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power such rules may provide for all or any of the matters which may be or are required to be prescribed.(3)[Notwithstanding the provisions contained in sub-section (2), in particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may also provide for the manner of payment, determination and recovery of interest [under sub-section (3) of section 4 or under section 4A, as the case may be,] [Sub-Section (3) inserted by W.B. Act 1 of 1986.] and all other matters which may be or are required to be prescribed [under those sections] [Words Substituted for the words 'under that section' by W.B. Act 8 of 1990.].]
