3. Electoral College.

(1)The electoral college for the purpose of election of members of the District Planning Committees shall consist of two separate constituencies i.e., (i) the urban constituency, and (ii) the rural constituency.(2)The urban constituency shall consist of the elected members of the Municipal Corporation(s), Municipal Councils and Nagar panchayats in the District.(3)The rural constituency shall consist of the members elected to the Zilla Parishad from the Zilla Panshad Territorial Constituencies in the District.

4. Number of members to be elected.

- The total number of members to be elected to each District Planning Committee by the voters, from among themselves, shall be twenty four, out of which.(a)the Commissioner shall allocate to the urban constituency such number of members of the District Planning Committee as may be determined by him, subject to the condition that the number of members so allocated shall bear, as nearly as may be, the same proportion of the population of the urban constituency (i.e., Municipal Corporation(s), Municipalities and Nagar Panchayats) to the total population of the district, and(b)the remaining number of members of the District Planning Committee to the rural constituency.Note. - For purposes of allocation of seats between the urban and rural constituencies, any fraction of less than one-half shall be ignored and any fraction equal to, or more than, one half shall be counted as one.

5. Reservation of seats of members.

(1)Out of the total number of members to be elected to each District Planning Committee, the Commissioner shall reserve separately for the urban and rural constituencies, such number of seats for Scheduled Tribes and Scheduled Castes basing on the proportion of their population to the total population of each constituency, and 34 percent of seats in each constituency to the members of backward classes.(2)The Commissioner shall also reserve for women in each constituency not less than one third of the seats for the members of Scheduled Tribes, Scheduled Castes, and Backward Classes.(3)Persons who are not the members of Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Backward Classes shall not be eligible to contest from the seats reserved for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Backward Classes respectively.(4)Such of the seats which are not reserved for the members of Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Backward Classes and Women shall be known as unreserved seats and every voter whose name finds place in the voters' list published under sub-rule (2) of Rule 6 shall be entitled, irrespective of his or her caste or gender, to contest for any of the unreserved seats.(5)Whenever any changes taken place in the pattern of reservation of seats for the members of Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Backward Classes and Women under the Andhra Pradesh Panchayat Raj Act, 1994 such changes shall automatically be followed in the matter of reservation of seats of members of the District Planning Committees,Note. - For purposes of reserving seats under these rules any fraction less than one-half shall be ignored and any fraction equal to, or more than, one-half shall be counted as one.

6. Preparation and publication of voters list.

(1)The Election Officer shall prepare, in the format appended, separately for urban and rural constituency, the draft voters list, which shall consist of the names of all elected members of the Municipal Corporation(s), Municipal Councils and Nagar Panchayats in the district and all the elected members of the Zilla Parishad of the District and publish it according to the programme of election to be issued by the Government, on the notice boards of the Municipal Corporation(s),..... Municipalities, Nagar Panchayats in the District and of the Zilla Parishad concerned, calling for objections, if any, to be filed within ten days, to any of the entries made or omitted to be made in the draft voters list.(2)The Election Officers shall, after making appropriate changes in the said list, either with reference to the objections received within the stipulated time to suo motu and publish the final voters, list, according to the programme of election to be issued by the Government, op the notice boards of the Municipal Corporation(s), Municipalities, Nagar Panchayats in the District and of the Zilla Parishad concerned.(3)The final voters list published under sub-rule (2) shall be in force till a new Voters lists prepared and published.(4)The process of preparation and publication of draft and final voters lists shall be under taken by the Election Officer whenever ordinary/ general/casual elections are held to the Municipal Corporations or Municipal Councils or Nagar Panchayats or the Zilla Parishad and the results are declared, on or before filling any casual vacancy in any of the seats of members of the District Planning Committee.(5)The executive authorities of the Municipal Corporation(s), Municipal Councils and Nagar Panchayats in the District shall inform in writing in the format prescribed under Rule 6 the names and other particulars to the Election Officer of the elected members of their institutions immediately after the declaration of results of each ordinary/general/ casual election or whenever required by the Election Officer.

7. Entitlement to multiple votes.

- Every person, whose name is included in the voters list finally published under subrule (2) of Rule 6, shall be entitled to vote at the election of the members of the District Planning Committee either from the urban constituency or from the rural constituency and he/she shall have as many votes as there are members to be elected from each of the reserved and unreserved categories in the constituency to which he/ she belongs, but in the case of an election held to fill the one or more casual vacancy(ies) in the seat(s) of member(s) of the District planning Committee every voter shall have as many votes as there are vacancies to be filled either from the urban constituency or from the rural constituency, as the case may be.

8. Programme of Election.

- The Government shall issue the programme of election for ordinary and casual elections to the District Planning Committees, including the preparation and publication of draft and final voters list, fixing dates for different stages.

9. Publication of election notice.

- According to the programme of election issued by the Government, the Election Officer shall publish or cause to be published a notice on the notice boards of the Municipal Corporation(s), Municipalities, Nagar Panchayats in the District and of the Zilla Parishad concerned, calling upon the voters, whose names find place in the voters list finally published under sub-rule (2) of Rule 6, to elect the members of the District Planning Committee.

10. Contents of election notice (1) the election notice shall state.

(a)the number of members to be elected (including the details of reservation made category wise) from the urban constituency and the rural constituency;(b)the place, time and the last date, which shall not be less than ten days from the date of publication of the notice, for filing nominations;(c)the date of scrutiny of nominations and publication of the list of valid nominations, which shall be the third day from the last date fixed for filing of nominations, whether it is a working day or public holiday;(d)last day for withdrawal of nominations and the date for publication of the list of contesting candidates, which shall be the third day after the date of scrutiny of nominations, whether it is a working day or public holiday.(e)The date, which shall not be less than three clear days from the date of publication of the list of contesting candidates, on which and the hours during which, poll shall, if necessary, be taken and the time for counting of votes and declaration of result of the poll.

11. Filling of nominations.

(1)On or before the date and time fixed under clause (b) or Rule 10, each candidate shall, either in person or by his proposer, deliver to the Election Officer, a nomination paper completed in Form-1 and signed by the candidate and by the proposer, who shall be a voter of the constituency concerned.(2)The same voter may propose as many candidates as there are seats to be filled from each of the reserved and unreserved categories in the constituency, but each candidate shall be nominated by a separate nomination paper.(3)If any voter has proposed larger number of candidates than the seats to be filled, in any of the reserved and unreserved categories, only such of the nominations, which have been first received upto the number of seats to be filled in that particular category' shall be deemed to have been accepted.(4)The Election Officer shall, on receiving a nomination paper, enter its serial number, the date on which and the hour at which it has been received by him and shall verify the name and number of the candidate and his proposer in the voters list.(5)No nominations shall be received after the date and time fixed for the purpose under clause (b) of Rule 10.

12. Publication of list of nominations.

- As soon as may be, after the time fixed for filing of nominations, the Election Officer shall publish in Form II a list of nominations received with a notice that the nomination papers will be scrutinized on the date fixed at the place and hour specified in the notice under clause (c) of Rule 1.

13. Scrutiny of nominations.

(1)On the date fixed for the scrutiny of nominations, the candidates may attend at such time and place as the Election Officer may appoint and the Election Officer give them all reasonable facilities for examining the nomination papers of all candidates.(2)The Election Officer shall then examine the nomination papers and shall decide all the objections which may be made at the time of scrutiny of any nominations and may, either on such objection or on his own motion, after such summary enquiry, if any, as he deems necessary, reject any nomination, duly recording the reasons for such rejection, which shall be supplied for free of cost to the nominee whose nomination is rejected.(3)On the same day immediately after the scrutiny of the nomination papers, the Election Officer shall prepare a list of valid nominations in Form-111, constituency wise, and publish it on the notice board of the Municipal Corporation(s) Municipalities(s) and Nagar Panchayats and Zilla Parishad concerned.

14. Withdrawal of nomination.

- Any candidate may withdraw his nomination by notice in writing signed by him and delivered by him in person or by his proposer to the Election Officer before the date fixed under clause (d) of Rule 10 and on receipt of such notice the Election Officer shall note thereon the date and the time at which, it was delivered to him and by whom it was delivered.

15. Publication of list of contesting candidates.

- Immediately after the expiry of the period within which candidates may be withdrawn under Rule 14, the Election Officer shall prepare a list of contesting candidates in Telugu alphabetical order order i.e., candidates whose nominations are in order and who have not withdrawn their candidature and publish it in Form IV on the notice Board of the Zilla Parishad, Municipal Corporation(s) Municipalities and Nagar Panchayats concerned.

16. Election.

(1) If the number of contesting candidates is equal to or less than the number of seats to be filled, the Election Officer shall declare all such candidates to be duly elected. (2) If the number of contesting candidates exceeds the number of seats to be filled, poll shall be taken by secret ballot.

17. [Form of the Ballot Paper. [Substituted by Notification No. G.O.Ms. No. 128, dated 3.4.2007 (w.e.f. 17.1.2007).]

- Every ballot paper shall be in Form V-A-V-D with distinct colour coding, that is for Scheduled Castes - Light Blue, Scheduled Tribes - Light Green, Backward Classes - Light Pink and Unreserved - White. Each part of the ballot paper will contain two parts (i.e.) one for General category and the other for women category. The ballot paper shall contain the names of contesting candidates in Telugu in the same order as it appears in the Form-IV.]

18. Voting.

(1) Every person whose name is included in the voters list shall have as many votes as there are members to be elected from each of the reserved and unreserved categories on behalf of the constituency, but he shall not give more than one vote to any candidate. (2) The Election Officer shall provide a ballot box and it shall be sealed and locked in the presence of candidates. (3) Every voter shall be supplied with a ballot paper. At the time of issuing a ballot paper to a voter, the Election Officer shall sign in full on the back of the ballot paper, record the serial number thereof in the counter foil of the ballot paper, put the official seal and also mark the name of the voter in the voter's list. (4) The voter shall, on receipt of the ballot paper, proceed to the place where the ballot box is kept and then make a mark on the ballot paper with the instrument supplied for the purpose against the names of the candidates to whom he wishes to vote. Then he shall fold and insert it into the ballot box. (5) If owing to blindness or other physical infirmity a voter is unable to read the name of the candidates on the ballot paper or to make a mark thereon the Election Officer shall record the vote on the ballot paper in accordance with the wishes of the voter and fold it so as to conceal the vote and insert it into the ballot box. While acting under this sub-rule the Election Officer shall observe such secrecy as is feasible and shall keep a brief record of each such instance, but shall not indicate therein the manner in which any vote has been given. (6) The voter who had inadvertently dealt with a ballot paper in such manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper, may on returning it to the Election Officer and on satisfying the inadvertence be given another ballot paper and the ballot paper so returned shall be marked "spoilt/cancelled" by the Election Officer. If a voter after obtaining a ballot paper decides not to use it, he shall return the same to the Election Officer and the same shall be marked as "Returned/cancelled" by the Election Officer.

19. Counting of votes.

(1) On the day and at the place and time fixed under clause (e) of Rule 10 and in the presence of candidates present the Election Officer shall open the ballot box and count the number of ballot papers taken out there from. (2) The Election Officer shall reject a ballot paper:- (a) if it bears any mark or writing by which the voter can be identified; or (b) if no vote is recorded thereon; or (c) if votes are given in favour of candidates more than the seats to be filled in any of the reserved and unreserved categories of the constituency concerned. (d) if the mark indicated thereon is placed in such a manner as to make it doubtful to which candidate the vote has been given; or (e) if it is spurious ballot paper; or (f) if it does not bear both the official seal and the signature of the Election Officer: Provided that a ballot paper shall not be rejected merely on the ground that the mark indicating the vote is indistinct or made more than once, if the intention that the vote shall be for a particular candidate clearly appears from the way the paper is marked. Explanation. - For the purpose of subrule (2), the Election Officer shall consider separately the seats reserved for each of the categories of SCs/STs/BCs/Women and unreserved seats and reject all the votes given by a voter in a particular category, if they are more than the number of seats to be filled from that category, that is, the Election Officer shall not reject the votes given by the same voter in other categories, which are equal to or less than the number of seats to be filled from the other categories. (3) Before rejecting any ballot paper under sub-rule (2) the Election Officer shall allow candidate a reasonable opportunity to inspect the ballot paper but should not allow him to handle it or any other ballot paper. (4) After completion of counting, the Election Officer shall record, in the format appended, category wise i.e. for seats reserved for Scheduled Castes/ Scheduled Tribes/ Backward Classes/Women and for unreserved seats, the total number of votes polled by each candidate and announce the same. (5) After such announcement has been made, the Election Officer may, either on his own initiative or at the instance of any candidate, recount the votes. (6) When a recount of votes is made under sub-rule (5), the Election Officer shall amend the statement referred to in sub-rule (4) to which extent it is necessary after such recount and announce the same so made by him.

20. Declaration of results.

(1) After completion of the counting or recounting of votes, as the case may be, under Rule 19 the Election Officer shall declare it in Form VI, which shall be signed by him and affixed with his seal, such number of candidates equal to the number of seats in each category i.e. for the seats reserved for SCs/STs/BCs/ Women and for the unreserved seats in the concerned constituency as have secured the highest number of votes in the descending order, to be duly elected. (2) The Election Officer shall send copies of Form VI to the District Collector Commissioner for Panchayat Raj and Rural Employment, Principal Secretary to Government, Panchayat Raj and Rural Development Department, executive authorities of the Municipal Corporation(s), Municipalities and Nagar Panchayats concerned in the District apart from handing over a signed copy thereof to each of the member declared elected, the receipt of which shall be acknowledged by such member.

21. Procedure at election when equality of votes exists.

- In the election when an equality of votes is found between any two or more candidates and the addition of one vote will entitle any of the candidates to be declared elected, the Election Officer shall, after intimation to the candidates, forthwith decide between those candidates, by lot, in such manner as he may determine and proceed as if the candidate on whom the lot falls had received an additional vote.

22. Casual Vacancies.

- The provisions for the election of members of District Planning Committee shall mutatis mutandis be applicable for the purpose of filling up of casual vacancies in the office of members of the Committee.

23. Custody and Destruction of Voting Papers.

(1)The Election Officer shall keep in safe custody all papers relating to the elections.(2)On the expiry of three months from the date of publication of the names of the elected members of the District Planning Committee or one month after the disposal of election petition, or appeal if any, whichever is later, all the papers relating to the election shall be destroyed.

24. Term of Office of the Members.

(1)The members of the District Planning committee elected under these rules shall hold office till they cease to be members of Zilla Parishad or Municipal Corporation(s), Municipal Councils, or Nagar Panchayats as the case may be.

25. Constitution of District Planning Committee.

- The District Planning Committee shall be deemed to be constituted with the declaration of results of election of members under Rule 20.

26. Election Petition.

(1)No election of the member of the District Planning Committee shall be called in question except by an election petition before the District Judge having jurisdiction over the local limits of the Committee presented by any candidate in such election or by any other member within fifteen days from the date of the election on one or more grounds specified in Rule 28. The election petition under this rule shall be accompanied by a deposit of two hundred rupees as security for costs.(2)Every petition under sub-rule (1) shall be accompanied by as many copies as there are respondents mentioned in the petition and every such copy shall be attested by the petitioner under his own signature to be a true copy of the petition.(3)The petitioner shall join as respondents to his petition, where the petitioner in addition to claiming a declaration that the election of the returned candidate is void, claims a further declaration that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected, all the contesting candidates other than the petitioner and where no such further declaration is claimed, the returned candidate. (4)(i) A petition under sub-rule (1):- (a) shall contain a concise statement of materials on which the petitioner relies; (b) shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure 1908 (Central Act V of 1908) for the verification of pleadings; (ii) Any schedule or annexure to the petition shall also be signed by the petitioner and verified in the same manner as the petition. (5) The petitioner may claim any of the following declarations:- (a) That the election of the returned candidate is void; or (b) That the election of the returned candidate is void and that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected.

27. Procedure.

- The District Judge may, after such enquiry' as he deems fit and after giving an opportunity to be heard to the parties to the proceedings make an order:- (a) dismissing the petition; or (b) declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void; or (c) declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void and the petitioner or any other candidate to have been duly elected.

28. Grounds for declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void.

- If the District Judge is of opinion: (a) that the result of the election has been materially affected; (i) by the improper reception or rejection of a vote; or (ii) by any non compliance with the provisions of the Act or of any of these rules; (b) that the nomination of any candidate has been wrongly rejected or that the nomination of the successful candidate or of any other candidate who has not withdrawn his candidature has been wrongly accepted. The District Judge shall declare the election of the returned candidate to be void.

29. Grounds on which the candidate other than the returned candidate may be declared to have been elected.

- If any candidate who has presented the election petition has, in addition to calling in question the election of the returned candidate, claimed a declaration that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected and the District Judge is of the opinion that in fact the petitioner or such other candidate received a majority of the valid votes, the District Judge shall, after declaring the election of the returned candidate, to be void, declare the petitioner or such other candidate, as the case may be, to have been duly elected. Provided that the petitioner or such other candidate shall not be declared to be duly elected if it is proved that the election of such candidate would have been void, if he had been the returned candidate and a petition had been presented calling in question his election.
