U.P. Prisoners' Release On Probation Rules, 1938Published vide Notification No. 3436 (1)/6-1651 (7)-37, dated 17th December, 1938

1. Name.

- These rules may be called the Uttar Pradesh Prisoners' Release on Probation Rules, 1938.

2. Definitions.

- In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,-(1)"The Act" means the U.P. Prisoners' Release on Probation Act, 1938;(2)"Guardian" means a Government officer or a person professing the same religion as the prisoner, or a secular institution, or a society belonging to the same religion as the prisoner under whose supervision or authority the prisoner released under Section 2 of the Act is placed by the State Government. A Probation Officer appointed by the Uttar Pradesh Apradh Nirodhak Samiti is entitled, on behalf of that institution, to act as the guardian of a prisoner; and(3)"Superintendent" means the Superintendent of a prison in which a convict to be released under the Act is confined.

3. [ Ineligibility for release. [Substituted by Notification No. 1155-P/22-1583-46, dated 31st July, 1974.]

- The following classes of prisoners shall not be released under the Act:(a)Those convicted of offences under the following provisions of the Indian Penal Code,1860:Chapters V-A, VI and VII and Sections 216-A, 224 and 225 (if it is a case of escape from a jail), 231, 232, 303, 311, 328, 364, 376, 382, 386 to 389, 392 to 402, 413, 459, 460, 489-A and Section 511 of I.P.C. read with any of the aforesaid Sections;(b)Those convicted under Sections 7 and 8 of the Act or whose licence has been previously revoked on account of the breach of the conditions of the licence;(c)Those whose application for release other than an application under Section 8 of the Act, were on a previous occasion rejected by the State Government.](d)Those sentenced to a period of one year or less under any sections of the Indian Penal Code or under any other Act.[Explanation. [Inserted by Notification No. 1596/22-1583-1946, dated 11th July, 1991.] - The rule in clause (c) precludes a convict from himself applying, a second time for release under Section 2 of the Act, but the State Government may direct the Inspector General of Prisons to place any case, which has already been once rejected for re-consideration before the Board referred to in sub-rule (5) of Rule 6].

3A. [ [Inserted by Notification No. 1155-P/22-1583-46, dated 31st July, 1974 and substituted by Notification No. 10842-P/22-1052-59, dated 18th February, 1979.]

Prisoners sentenced to imprisonment for a period of one year or less under any Section of the Indian Penal Code or any other Act may be released on probation under Section 8 of the Act.]

4. [ Eligibility for release. [Substituted by Notification No. 584/22-2-92-1212 (130)-82, dated 29th June, 1992.]

- Any prisoner other than a prisoner specified in Rule 3, may be eligible for consideration by the State Government for release on licence,-(i)if he is a prisoner to whom Section 433-A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 applies and has served imprisonment for a total period of fourteen years;(ii)if he is a prisoner sentenced to imprisonment for life to whom Section 433-A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 does not apply and has served imprisonment for a total period of fourteen years with remissions; and(iii)in any other case if he has served one-third without remissions of the period of imprisonment to which he was sentenced.].

5. Computation of sentence.

- For the purposes of these rules, the following principles shall be observed in computing the period of sentence of imprisonment, namely :(a)When a prisoner has been sentenced to several terms of imprisonment for several offences and the sentences of imprisonment have been ordered to run concurrently, then the longest single sentence which the prisoner is undergoing shall be deemed to be the term of his imprisonment;(b)When a prisoner has been sentenced to several terms of imprisonment for several offences and the sentences of imprisonment have been ordered to run consecutively, the total period which the prisoner has to undergo shall be deemed to be the terms of his imprisonment;(c)Remissions already earned by the prisoner shall be counted as imprisonment served by him; and(d)Life sentence shall be reckoned as sentence of imprisonment for twenty years.Explanation. - The expression "sentence of imprisonment" in these rules shall include imprisonment in default of the payment of fine and imprisonment for failure to furnish security under Chapter VII of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

6. [ Procedure. [Substituted by Notification No. 1055-P/22-1583-46, dated 31st July, 1974.]

(1) Any prisoner eligible for release under Section 2 of the Act may make an application in Form-A to the Superintendent. Such Forms shall be printed at the cost of the Government and supplied free of charge to prisoners, to their relatives and to persons offering themselves as their guardians.](2) On the receipt of the application, the Superintendent shall examine the application to see if the prisoner and his proposed guardian have duly filled in the columns of the application meant to be filled in by them. If the application is in order, the Superintendent shall entertain it and cause it to be entered in a register maintained in Form-B. If the prisoner is ineligible under Rule 3, he shall reject the application and inform the prisoner of his order. If the prisoner is eligible for release under Rule 4, he shall fill in the columns in the application meant to be filled in by him and forward the same as soon as may be, to the District Magistrate of the district in which the prisoner was convicted through the Superintendent of Police. If the application is not in order, the Superintendent shall return it to the prisoner for necessary correction or supplying the omissions.(3) In cases where there is Probation Officer, the Superintendent of the Jail shall forward the application to the Probation Officer, sending a copy thereof to that Superintendent of Police who shall send his report to the Probation Officer. The Probation Officer shall make his independent inquiry and then submit his report direct to the District Magistrate in the following form after incorporating therein the report of the Superintendent of Police: (1) Name of convict.....(2) Convicted under section.....(3) Sentence.....(4) Relationship of guardian.....(5) [The applications received from the districts by the Inspector-General of prisons shall be considered by a Board consisting of the following, namely:- [Substituted by Notification No. 2175-Pro/22-90-2121-83, dated 21st May, 1990.]

[Three members shall form the Quorum of a meeting of a Board.] Inserted by Notification No. 5866/22-2-92/2121-83, dated 8th October, 1992. Recommendation regarding release (state reasons when release opposed):- (a) Jail.....(b) Police.....(c) Probation Officer(7) District Magistrate's order.....Immediately on receipt of an application under sub-rule (2) and this rule, the District Magistrate shall move the courts concerned for supplying him with the certified copies of the relevant judgements in the case, free of cost, and shall, if necessary, simultaneously consult, through the Superintendent of Police concerned, the District Magistrate of the district in which the prisoner ordinarily resides. On receipt of the copies of the judgements, and the report of the District Magistrate of the district of residence of the prisoner, he shall attach the copies of the judgements to the application, fill in the entries therein meant to be filled in by him, and shall without delay forward the same to the Inspector-General of Prisons.(3-A) On receipt of an intimation about the death of his guardian along with the proposal for appointment of another guardian from a licensee, the District Magistrate of the district in which the licensee resides, shall refer the case to State Government for appointment of a fresh guardian in place of the deceased one along with his opinion about the suitability of the proposed guardian. In case the licensee does not send his proposal for appointment of another guardian, the District Magistrate shall require the licensee to do so before making a reference to Government. If no guardian in place of the deceased one is proposed within fifteen days of the receipt of the District Magistrate's Order by the licensee, the case would be reported by the District Magistrate to Government for orders.(4)The District Magistrate shall maintain a register in Form C in which all applications received from the Superintendent, under sub-rule (2) shall be duly entered.(5)The application received from the district by the Inspector-General of Prisons shall be considered by a Board consisting of the Home Secretary to the Uttar Pradesh Government or any other officer empowered in this behalf by the State Government, the Inspector-General of Prisons or the Deputy Inspector-General of Prisons, as the case may be, and a Deputy Minister or Parliamentary Secretary nominated by the State Government. The Deputy Minister or the Parliamentary Secretary or, in his absence, the Home Secretary or the officer empowered by the State Government, as above, shall be the Chairman of the Board. Meetings of the Board shall be held at least once every month to make necessary recommendations.(6)The State Government shall on the receipt of recommendations of the Board pass such orders as it may deem proper.(7)The State Government shall, on receipt of the report of the District Magistrate regarding appointment of a fresh guardian of a licensee in place of the deceased one, pass such orders as it may deem proper.

7. Licence.

- A prisoner whose release on licence is sanctioned by the State Government shall be granted a licence in Form D. Three copies of such a licence shall be prepared for each prisoner. One shall be retained by the Government, another shall be sent to the Superintendent for delivery to the guardian of the prisoner and the third shall be forwarded to the District Magistrate for information.

8. Information to the prisoner and guardian.

- As soon as the Superintendent receives the orders of the Government, he shall communicate the same to the prisoner and the District Magistrate concerned and in the case of an order of release shall, through the District Magistrate, inform the guardian also of the order and call upon him to present himself to take charge of the prisoner. On the guardian presenting himself, the Superintendent shall deliver to him the copy of the licence received from the State Government, hand over to him the prisoner and take his signature in the register (Form B) in token of his having taken charge of the prisoner.

9. Guardians' duty.

(a)It shall be the duty of the guardian to see that the conditions of the licence are fulfilled. He shall look after the conduct and welfare of the licensee and generally act in loco parentis. If the licensee's conduct is found to be bad, it shall be the duty of the guardian to report the fact to the District Magistrate.(b)In dealing with the licensee the guardian, when he is a Probation Officer appointed by the Uttar Pradesh Apradh Nirodhak Samiti, will be governed by any rules framed by the Society for guidance of Probation Officers, with the approval of the State Government.

10.

(1)The District Magistrate, on receiving information from the guardian or any other source, of the breach by the licensee of the conditions of the licence, shall cause a notice to be served on the licensee to show cause why his licence should not be revoked. If the licensee presents himself in response to the notice, then, after hearing him personally and, if he does not present himself, then without hearing him, the District Magistrate shall consider whether or not to recommend to the State Government for the revocation of the prisoner's licence and shall act accordingly. While making his recommendation to Government for revocation of the licence, the District Magistrate shall state the condition or conditions which, in his opinion, have been breached by the licensee and how they have been breached.(2)In case the District Magistrate decides to recommend the revocation of the licence, he may, at the same time, if he considers that the licensee is unfit to be allowed to remain at large under the licence, order his arrest and detention in the prison pending the receipt of the orders of the State Government.(3)The State Government shall on receipt of the District Magistrate's recommendation pass such orders as it may deem proper.(4)An order of revocation of licence shall be in Form E and shall be served upon the licensee if detained in prison by the Superintendent of the Prison, and, if not detained in prison by the officer-in-charge of police station.(5)The order of revocation shall be noted on the licence and in the registers maintained by the District Magistrate and the Superintendent.(6)If a prisoner released on licence under the Act escapes from the supervision or authority of a guardian or fails to return to prison on revocation of his licence, the guardian shall immediately inform the District Magistrate and the Superintendent and report to the nearest police station, and action shall be taken against the prisoner as in a cognizable case.

11. Warrant of commitment.

- On the release of a prisoner under the Act, the Superintendent shall retain the warrant under which the prisoner was committed to prison by the court which sentenced him until the period of his sentence with remissions, if any, earned by him during the period of his confinement in jail, has expired. The period during which a prisoner is absent from prison under the provisions of this Act on a licence which is in force shall be reckoned as part of the period of imprisonment to which he was sentenced for the purpose of computing the period of his sentence. When the convict released on licence has finished the sentence, the Superintendent shall return the warrant or warrants to the court which issued it by them.

12. Final release.

- On the expiry of the period of licence otherwise than by revocation, the guardian shall forthwith inform the licensee that he is absolved from the observation of conditions of the licence, shall make a note to that effect on the licence and shall return it to the Superintendent.

13. Police registered convicts.

- When a prisoner released on licence under the Act happens to be a police registered convict, the Superintendent of the prison shall inform the Superintendent of Police of the district of which such convict is a resident of his release on licence together with the name and address of the guardian and shall, at the same time, inform him of the date on which the final release of the licence is likely to take place. On the final release of the prisoner the police register slip shall be forwarded to the Superintendent of Police.

14. Guardian.

(1) In each case the District Magistrate shall determine whether or not the proposed guardian is fit to act as such having regard to his status, antecedents and the degree of control that he may exercise on the prisoner and inform the State Government of his opinion. (2) Parents or relatives of a prisoner may be appointed guardians if the District Magistrate is satisfied that they are fit to act as such guardians. (3) An officer of a prison shall in no case be eligible to act as guardian, unless the Inspector-General of Prisons sanctions it.

15. Remission of sentence.

(1) An application for remission of sentence under Section 8 of the Act shall be made by the prisoner or by the person offering himself as his surety to the District Magistrate of the district in which he was convicted or where he was convicted in more than one district then to the District Magistrate of any such district. (2) The District Magistrate shall, on a consideration of the antecedents of the prisoner, his conduct in jail and his environments and after consulting Probation Officer where one is appointed and such other authorities as he may think proper, within one month of the receipt of the application forward it to the State Government stating his opinion whether the prisoner is likely to abstain from crime and lead a peaceable life if released from prison. (3) The State Government may, on receipt of such application release the prisoner on his entering into a bond with one or more sureties for such amount and for such period as the State Government may direct, to be of good behaviour and to observe such conditions as the State Government may impose. (4) If any prisoner released under sub-section (1) of Section 8 of the Act fails to observe the conditions of the bond, the District Magistrate or the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, if authorised by the District Magistrate may take proceedings under Section [514] [Corresponding new Section 446 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.] of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, and report to the State Government for the cancellation of the order remitting the sentence passed under sub-section (1) of Section 8 of the Act, and the State Government may pass such orders in accordance with sub-rule (3) of Section 8 as it may deem fit.
