His existing licence shall be deemed to be a licence issued to him as a dealer under this Order up to the said day. (2) For the purpose of this clause, any person, firm, association of persons or a co-operative society who stores any trade article at any one time in quantities exceeding the limits prescribed in sub-clause (1), shall, unless the contrary is proved by him, be deemed to be carrying on business as a dealer and to store the same for the purpose of sale.

4. Issue of Licence.

(1)(a) Every application for the grant of a licence (whole-sale or retail) shall be made to the Licensing Authority in Form 'A' along with the fee prescribed in Schedule IV; (b) Every licence issued under this Order shall be in Form 'C' and subject to the terms and conditions mentioned therein; (c) The licence shall be valid up to 31st December, next; and(d)If a licence granted under this Order is defaced, lost or destroyed, the licensee shall forthwith inform the Licensing Authority who may, on application and on the payment of fee prescribed in Schedule IV by the licensee, issue a duplicate licence.(2)A dealer may obtain a licence for any one or more trade articles mentioned in Schedule I.(3)A separate licence shall be necessary for each place of business.(4)Wholesale and retail licences of the same trade article shall not be obtained for the same place of business.(5)More than one licence for the same trade article at one place of business in the same or different names shall not be obtained.

5. Renewal of Licence.

- An application for renewal of a licence shall be made along with the fees determined under clause 6 to the Licensing Authority in Form 'B'. The licence may be renewed for one year/three years on the payment of renewal fee prescribed in Schedule IV. In case the licensee fails to furnish the application along with fee within the stipulated time i.e. 31st December, the Licensing Authority may entertain an application up to 31st January, on the payment of late fee as specified below:-(i)for the first fortnight Rs. 2.(ii)for the second fortnight Rs. 5.

6. Fee chargeable.

- The fees for issue of licence, renewal of licence and issue of a duplicate licence shall be chargeable as prescribed in Schedule IV or as determined by the State Government from time to time.

7. Deposit of Security.

- Every dealer [except the dealer of Public Distribution System] [Inserted by G.S.R. 47 dated 17.10.1985.] applying for a licence shall, before such licence is issued to him, deposit with the Licensing Authority the sum specified below in cash by way of security for the due performance of the terms and conditions of the licence issued to him :-(i)for wholesale licence-Rs. 750;(ii)for retail licence-Rs. 300;Provided that if the applicant for the grant of a licence as a dealer is a Cooperative Society registered under the Bihar Co-operative Societies Act, the amount of security to be deposited by it shall be equal to one-fourth of the amounts mentioned above:[Provided that the specified cash amount shall be deposited in the treasury under the budget head [088-Social Security and Welfare-Civil Supplies-Amount of Security Deposit.] [Inserted by G.S.R. 47 dated 17.10.1985.] This amount shall be treated as permanent security money during the entire period of the trading activity of the licensees. It shall be pledged in favour of the Licensing Authority and the Licensing Authority may in his discretion refund the money to the dealer on account of the closure of the trade or any other reasons.]

8. Power to refuse Licence.

(1)The Licensing Authority may, after giving the person affected an opportunity of being heard, and for reasons to be recorded by him in writing, refuse to grant or renew a licence.(2)The Licensing Authority shall refuse to grant or renew a licence if-(a)the applicant is a minor or a lunatic or is of unsound mind; or(b)the applicant is an undischarged insolvent; or(c)three years period has not expired from the date of conviction of the applicant under the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (Central Act 10 of 1955).(3)The Licensing Authority shall also refuse to grant a licence for a particular trade article, if-(a)a licence has already been issued to another dealer at the same place of business for the trade articles for which the applicant has applied for; or(b)the applicant has applied for both wholesale and retail licence for the same trade article.

9. Addition and alteration to licence.

- The Licensing Authority [after giving due opportunity] [Inserted by G.S.R. 47 dated 17.10.1985.] may make necessary additions, deletions and alterations in the entries made in the licence relating to godown, place of business, names of partners, trade articles etc., on the application of the licensee. [x x x] [Omitted by G.S.R. 47 dated 17.10.1985.]

10. Contravention of conditions of licence.

- No holder of licence issued under this Order or his agent or servant or another person acting on his behalf shall contravene any of the terms and conditions of the licence.

11. Suspension and cancellation of licence.

(1)If any licensee or his agent or servant or any other person acting on his behalf contravenes any of the terms and conditions of the licence, then without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him under the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (Central Act, 10 of 1955) his licence may be cancelled or suspended with regard to one or more trade articles by an order in writing of the Licensing Authority and an entry will be made in his licence relating to such suspension or cancellation.(2)No Order of cancellation shall be made under this clause unless the licensee has been given a reasonable opportunity stating his case against the proposed cancellation but during the pendency or in contemplation of proceedings of cancellation of licence, the licence can be suspended for a period not exceeding 90 days without giving any opportunity to the licensee of stating his case. Such suspension shall be limited only to those trade articles regarding which contravention has been made by the licensee.

12. Disposal of trade articles when licence is suspended or cancelled.

- When a licence issued under this Order is cancelled or suspended, the stocks of trade articles available with the dealer at the time of such cancellation or suspension shall be disposed of by him within [45 days] [Substituted by G.S.R. 47 dated 17.10.1985.] from the date of receipt of the order of cancellation or suspension;[Provided that a dealer due to obvious reasons could not dispose of the stocks of trade articles within the stipulated period, in that case the dealer shall intimate the Licensing Authority about it and will seek extension of time for disposal of the stock on which the Licensing Authority shall take necessary action for disposal of the stock after due consideration of the reasons.] [Inserted by G.S.R. 47 dated 17.10.1985.]

13. Consequences of conviction.

- Where a licensee has been convicted by a Court of Law for the contravention of any order made under Section 3 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 (Central Act 10 of 1955), the Licensing Authority shall, by order in writing, cancel his licence: Provided that where such conviction is set aside in any appeal or revision, the Licensing Authority may, on an application by the dealer whose licence has been cancelled, restore the licence to such dealer.

14. Forfeiture of Security Deposit.

(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of clause II, if the Licensing Authority is satisfied that the licensee has contravened any of the terms and conditions of the licence and that a forfeiture of the security deposit is called for, it may, after giving the licensee a reasonable opportunity of stating his case, by order, forfeit the whole or any part of the security deposited by him and communicate a copy of the order to the licensee. (2) The licensee shall, if the amount of security at any time falls short of the amount specified in clause 7, forthwith deposit, on being required by the Licensing Authority to do so, further security to make up the deficiency. (3) Upon due compliance by the licensee of all obligations under the licence, the amount of security or such part thereof which is not forfeited as aforesaid, shall be refunded to the licensee after the termination of the licence.

Part III – Restrictions relating to Prices and Stocks etc.

15. [Restrictions relating to prices and stocks, etc. [Substituted by G.S.R. 47 dated 17.10.1985.]

- The retail price of any trade article displayed in compliance of the provisions of the Bihar Essential Articles (Display of Prices and Stocks) Order, 1977 shall not exceed the retail price fixed or recommended by the Central Government or State Government or manufacturer or distributor from time to time for that trade article.]

16. Sale of trade articles according to list of prices and stocks.

(1) No dealer shall sell or offer to sell to any person any trade article at a price higher than that specified in respect of such article in the list of prices and stocks, and (2) Refuse to sell such article to any person at the price so specified.

17. Obligation to give receipt.

- No dealer shall sell any trade article to any person without issuing a cash memo or a bill (stating his own name, quantity, quality, rate and total price charged for the article sold) and without keeping a duplicate copy of such memo or bill: [Provided that it shall not be necessary for a retail dealer to issue any such cash memo or bill or to keep any trade article costing not more than Rs. 25 or the trade articles costing not more than Rs. 50 together unless, demanded by the purchaser.]

[Substituted by G.S.R. 47 dated 17.10.1985.]

18. Restriction on possession of trade articles.

- No person shall, either by himself or by any person on his behalf, store or have in his possession at any time any trade article mentioned in Schedule I and Schedule II in quantity exceeding the limits fixed-(i)under an order issued by the Central Government, or(ii)by the State Government with prior concurrence of the Central Government by issuing a notification in Official Gazette from time to time.

19. [[Substituted by G.S.R. 47 dated 17.10.1985.]

Requisitioning the stocks of trade articles. - During emergency, war, famine, natural calamities, etc. every person holding stocks of trade articles mentioned in Schedule I and Schedule II shall sell to the State Government or to any person or class of persons the whole or specified part of his stock at such prices and in such manner as may be specified by the Collector.]Explanation. - For the purpose of this clause the prices payable to a person who is required to sell the whole or a specified part of his stock of trade articles shall be determined by the authority concerned in accordance with the provisions of subsection (3-B) of Section 3 of the Essential Commodities Act, 1955.

20. Returns.

- Every dealer referred to in clause 3 shall furnish a return in form 'D' to such authority, and in such manner or for such period as may be specified from time to time by the State Government by Notification in the Official Gazette.

21. Sale on permits.

- The Licensing Authority may, by general or special order in writing, require any dealer holding stock of a trade article to sell article on permits issued by the Licensing Authority or such other Officer authorised in this behalf by the State Government.

22. Permit to be non-transferable.

- No holder of permit shall transfer the permit or the trade article received on such permit to any other person without prior permission of the Officer by whom the permit has been issued.

23. Revocation of permit.

- The officer issuing the permit may, after giving the permit holder an opportunity of being heard, at any time revoke the permit issued under clause 21 for any of the following reasons:-(a)that the permit has been obtained by the permit holder by misrepresentation of material particulars; or(b)that the provisions of this Order have been contravened by the permit holder; or(c)that issue of permit was, in the opinion of the Officer issuing the permit, and for reasons to be recorded in writing by him, not otherwise justified.

Part IV – Miscellaneous
