The Indian Forest (Punjab Amendment) Act, 1962 Act No. 13 of 1962 Statement of Objects and Reasons. - This Bill seeks to achieve unification of laws relating to forests in force in the territories which, immediately before the 1st November, 1956, were comprised in the State of the Patiala and East Punjab States Union. Accordingly it is proposed to amend the Indian Forest Act, 1927, for the purpose of extending it and for certain other purposes. While repealing the Patiala Forest Act, 1999 Bik, it is proposed in clause 7(1) of the Bill to keep section 39 of the Patiala Act alive. In order to save the duties being levied and charged under section 39 of the Patiala Act, 1999 Bik., that section is now proposed to be repealed as the necessary protection is afforded by Article 277 of the Constitution. Published Punjab Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated the 27th April, 1952, Page 637. Received the assent of the President of India on the 21st June, 1962 and was first published in the Punjab Government Gazette Extraordinary, dated 10th July, 1962. An Act to amend the Indian Forest Act, 1927, in its application to the State of Punjab for the purposes of extending it to the territories which, immediately before the 1st November, 1956, were comprised in the State of Patiala and East Punjab States Union and for certain other purposes. Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Punjab in the Thirteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows :-

1. Short title.
