Chapter-II Reserved Forests

3. Power to reserve forests.

- The Government may constitute any land as a reserved Forest in the manner hereinafter provided.

4. Notification by Government.

(1)Whenever it is proposed to constitute any land as a reserved Forest, the Government shall publish a notification in the [Telangana] [Substituted by G.O.Ms.No.22, E.F.S&T (For.I) Department, dated 13.05.2015.] Gazette and in the District Gazette concerned, if any, -(a)specifying, as nearly as possible, the situation and limits of such land;(b)declaring that it is proposed to constitute such land as reserved forest;(c)appointing a Forest Settlement Officer to consider the objections, if any, against the declaration under clause (b) and to inquire into and determine the existence, nature and extent of any rights claimed by, or alleged to exist in favour of, any person in or over any land comprised within such limits, or to any forest produce of such land, and to deal with the same as provided in this Chapter.

Explanation. - (1) For the purpose of clause (a), it shall be sufficient to describe the limits of the land by any well-known or readily intelligible boundaries, such as roads, rivers, bridges and the like.(2)A person appointed to be a Forest Settlement Officer under clause (c) of sub-section (1) shall be an officer of the Revenue Department not below the rank of a Revenue Divisional Officer.(3)Any forest officer may represent the Forest Department at the inquiry conducted under this Chapter.

5. Suits barred.

- Save as otherwise provided in this Act, no court shall between the dates of the publication of the notification under section 4 and the notification to be issued under section 15, entertain any suit or other action against the Government to establish any right in, or over, any land, or to forest produce of any land included in the notification published under section 4.

6. Proclamation by Forest Settlement Officer.

(1)Where a notification has been issued under section 4, the Forest Settlement Officer shall publish in the main language of the district, in the District Gazette concerned or where there is no such Gazette, in the [Telangana] [Substituted by G.O.Ms.No.22, E.F.S&T (For.I) Department, dated 13.05.2015.] Gazette, and in the regional language in every town and village and at the headquarters of each taluk and at the office of the Gram Panchayat, in which any portion of land included in the said notification is situate, a proclamation,-(a)specifying, as nearly as possible, the situation and limits of the land proposed to be included within the reserved forest;(b)setting forth the substance of the provisions of section 7;(c)explaining the consequences which, as hereinafter provided, will ensue on the reservation of such forest; and(d)fixing a period of not less than six months and not more than one year from the date of publishing such proclamation at the headquarters of the taluk, and calling for objections, if any, within the period so fixed from any person interested against the declaration under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 4, and requiring every person claiming any right in such land either to present to the said officer, within the period so fixed, a written statement specifying, or to appear before him within the said period and state, the nature of such rights, and in either case to produce all documents in support thereof.(2)The Forest Settlement Officer shall also serve in the manner prescribed, a copy of the proclamation on every known or reputed owner or occupier of any land included in or adjoining the land proposed to be constituted as a reserved forest, or on his recognised agent or manager.

7. Bar of accrual of forest rights and prohibition of clearings.

(1)During the interval between the publication of a notification in the [Telangana] [Substituted by G.O.Ms.No.22, E.F.S&T (For.I) Department, dated 13.05.2015.] Gazette under section 4 and the date fixed by the notification under section 15-(a)no right shall be acquired by any person in or over the land included in the notification under section 4 except by succession or under a grant or contract in writing made or entered into by or on behalf of the Government or any person in whom such right was vested before the publication of the notification under section 4;(b)no new house shall be built or plantation formed, no fresh clearing for cultivation or for any other purpose shall be made, on such land and no trees shall be cut from such land for the purpose of trade or manufacture:Provided that nothing shall prohibit the doing of any act specified in this clause with the permission in writing of the Forest Settlement Officer; and(c)no person shall set fire or kindle or leave burning any fire in such manner as to endanger or damage such land or forest produce.(2)No patta in such land shall be granted by or on behalf of the Government.

8. Inquiry by Forest Settlement Officer.

(1)The Forest Settlement Officer shall consider every objection and inquire into every claim made under section 6, after recording in writing the statements made or evidence given in pursuance of the proclamation published or notice served under that section. He shall record any representation which the forest officer, if any, representing the Forest Department under sub-section (3) of section 4, may make in respect of any such objection or claim.(2)The evidence under sub-section (1) shall be recorded in the manner provided by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 in appealable cases.

9. Powers of Forest Settlement Officer.

- For the purpose of an inquiry under section 8, the Forest Settlement Officer may exercise the following powers, namely:(a)power to enter by himself or to authorise any officer to enter upon any land and to survey, demarcate and make a map of the land; and(b)the powers conferred on a civil court by the Code of Civil Procedure 1908, for summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath and requiring the production of any document or other article.

10. Claims to certain rights.

(1)where the claim relates to a right in or over any land other than the following rights:-(a)a right of way;(b)a right to water course, or to use of water;(c)a right of pasture; or(d)a right to forest produce;the Forest Settlement Officer shall, after considering the particulars of such claim, and the objections of the forest officer, if any, pass, an order, admitting or rejecting the same wholly or in part after recording the reasons therefor.(2)(a)If any claim is admitted wholly or in part under sub-section (1), the Forest Settlement Officer may:-(i)accept the voluntary surrender of the right by the claimant or determine the amount of compensation payable for the surrender of the right of the claimant, as the case may be; or(ii)direct the exclusion of the land from the limits of the proposed forest; or(iii)acquire such land in the manner provided by [the Land Acquisition Act, 1894] [See now the Central Act No.30 of 2013.] (hereinafter in this subsection referred to as the said Act.)(b)For the purpose of acquiring such land-(i)the acquisition shall be deemed to be for a public purpose; and the notification under section 4 shall be deemed to be a notification under sub-section (1) of section 4 of the said Act;(ii)the Forest Settlement Officer shall be deemed to be a Collector under the said Act, and the claimant shall be deemed to be a person interested and appearing before him in pursuance of a notice given under section 9 of the said Act;(iii)the provisions of sections 5-A, 6, 7 and 8 of the said Act shall not be applicable; and(iv)the Forest Settlement Officer with the consent of the claimant, or the court as defined in the said Act with the consent of the claimant and of the Government may, instead of money compensation, award compensation by the grant of any other land in exchange, by the grant of any right in or over land or partly by the grant of any land or any right therein and partly by the payment of money.

11. Claims to rights of way, etc.

(1)Where the claim relates to any of the rights specified in clauses (a) to (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10, the Forest Settlement Officer shall, after considering the particulars of such claim so far as may be necessary to define the nature, incidents and extent of the right claimed, and the objections of the forest officer, if any, pass an order, admitting or rejecting such claim wholly or in part, after recording the reasons therefor.(2)Where the claim admitted relates to a right for the beneficial enjoyment of any land or building, the Forest Settlement Officer shall record the designation, position and area of such land and the designation and position of such building.(3)Where the claim admitted relates to a right of way or to a water course or to the use of water, the Forest Settlement Officer shall, either accept the voluntary surrender of the right by the claimant, with or without conditions, or pass an order for the continuance of the exercise of such right, subject to such conditions as may be agreed upon between the Forest Department and the claimant or in default of such agreement, as the Forest Settlement Officer, may impose.(4)Where the claim admitted relates to a right of pasture or to forest produce, the Forest Settlement Officer shall, either accept the voluntary surrender of such right or pass an order, providing for the exercise of such right, if any, subject to such conditions or restrictions as he may impose, or directing the exclusion of the land of sufficient extent, of a suitable kind, and in a locality reasonably convenient to the claimant, by altering the limits of the proposed reserved forest.(5)In the order passed under sub-section (4) the Forest Settlement Officer shall record, as far as practicable, the number and description of the cattle which the claimant is from time to time, entitled to graze, the local limits within which, and the seasons during which, such pasture is permitted, or the quantity of timber or other forest produce which the claimant is authorised to take or receive, the local limits within which, the seasons during which, and the mode in which, the taking or receiving such produce is permitted, and such other particulars as may be required in order to define the extent of the right which is continued and the mode in which it may be exercised.(6)A copy of every order passed under this section shall be furnished to the claimant by the Forest Settlement Officer and another copy shall be forwarded to the forest officer, if any, representing the Forest Department under sub-section (3) of section 4 or where no such officer is appointed, to the Divisional Forest Officer.

12. Compensation for rights.

- Where the Forest Settlement Officer finds it impossible, having due regard to the maintenance of the reserved forest, to make such settlement under section 11 as shall ensure the continued exercise of the said rights to the extent so admitted, he shall direct the Forest Department to pay compensation as determined on the basis of the value of such right on the date of notification under section 4, in accordance with the provisions of the [Land Acquisition Act, 1894] [See now the Central Act No.30 of 2013.], in so far as such provisions are applicable.

13. Appeals from the orders of Forest Settlement Officer.

(1)Where a claim is rejected wholly or in part, the claimant may, within ninety days from the date of the order under sub-section (1) of section 10 and within sixty days from the date of the order under sub-section (1) of section 11, prefer an appeal to the district court having jurisdiction in respect of such rejection only.(2)Where a claim is admitted under section 10 or section 11 in the first instance wholly or in part and where such claim does not relate to the acquisition of any land under the [Land Acquisition Act, 1894] [See now the Central Act No.30 of 2013.], a like appeal, subject to the same period of limitation and subject to the same conditions, may be preferred to the district court having jurisdiction on behalf of the Government by the forest officer or other person, generally or specially empowered by the Government in this behalf.(3)Every order passed on appeal under this section shall be final.(4)Where the district court, on appeal, decides that the claim or such part thereof as has been rejected should be admitted, the Forest Settlement Officer shall proceed to deal with it in like manner as if it has been in the first instance admitted by himself.

14. Appointment of Pleaders.

- The Government or any person who has made a claim under this Act may appoint any person to appear, plead and act on their or his behalf in the course of any enquiry or other proceeding under this Act.

15. Notification declaring forest reserved.

(1)Upon the occurrence of the following events namely:-(a)the period fixed under section 6 for preferring of an objection or a claim had elapsed, and every objection or claim made under that section was disposed of by the Forest Settlement Officer; and(b)if any such claim was made, the period limited by section 13 for preferring an appeal from the order passed on such claim had elapsed, and every appeal presented within such period was disposed of by the appellate authority; and(c)all proceedings mentioned in section 10 were taken and all lands, if any, to be included in the proposed forest, which the Forest Settlement Officer had, under section 10, elected to acquire under the [Land Acquisition Act, 1894] [See now the Central Act No.30 of 2013.], had become vested in the Government under section 16 of that Act;the Government may publish a notification specifying definitely according to the boundary marks erected or otherwise, the limits of the forest which it is intended to reserve and declaring the same to be reserved from a date to be fixed by such notification and from the date so fixed, such forest shall be deemed to be a reserved forest.(2)Copies of the notification shall also be published in the District Gazette, if any, and in the manner provided for the proclamation under section 6.

16. Extinction of rights not claimed.

- Rights in respect of which no claim was preferred under section 6 within the period fixed under that section shall stand extinguished on the publication of the notification under section 15 unless, before the publication of such notification the person claiming them has convinced the Forest Settlement Officer that he had sufficient cause for not preferring such claim within that period in which case the Forest Settlement Officer shall proceed to dispose of the claim in the manner herein before provided.

17. No right acquired over reserved forest except as herein provided.

- No right of any description shall be acquired by any person in or over a reserved forest, except by succession or under a grant or contract in writing made or entered into by or on behalf of the Government or any person in whom such right was vested before the publication of the notification under section 15.

18. Right continued under section 11 not to be alienated without sanction.

(1)Notwithstanding anything in this Act, no right continued under section 11 shall be alienated by way of grant, sale, exchange, lease or otherwise, without the sanction of the Government:Provided that where any such right is continued for the beneficial enjoyment of any land or building it may be sold or otherwise alienated with such land or building, without such sanction.(2)Any alienation of such right in contravention of this section shall be null and void.(3)Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1), no forest produce obtained in exercise of any right continued under section 11 shall be sold or exchanged except to the extent provided by the order passed under sub-section (4) of section 11 in respect thereof.(4)Any person selling or exchanging any forest produce in contravention of sub-section (3) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

19. Power to stop ways and water courses in reserved forests.

- The Divisional Forest Officer may, from time to time with the previous sanction of the Government, stop any public or private way or water course in a reserved forest where reasonably convenient substitute for the way or water course so stopped already exists or has been provided or constructed.

20. Penalties for trespass or damage in reserved forest and acts prohibited in such forest.

(1)Any person who-(a)contravenes the provisions of clause (b) or sub-section (1) of section 7;(b)sets fire to a forest notified to be reserved under section 4 or kindles in such forest any fire or leaves any fire burning in such manner as to endanger such forest;(c)in a reserved forest -(i)kindles, keeps or carried any fire, except at such season and subject to such conditions as the Divisional Forest Officer may, from time to time, specify in this behalf;(ii)trespasses, pastures cattle or allows cattle to trespass;(iii)causes any damage, either willfully or negligently in felling or cutting any tree or dragging any timber;(iv)fells, girdles, lops, taps or burns any tree or strips off the bark or leaves from, or otherwise damages the same;(v)quarries, stones, burns lime or charcoal;(vi)collects or subjects to any manufacturing process, any forest produce;(vii)clears or breaks up or ploughs any land for cultivation or for any other purpose;(viii)hunts, shoots, fishes, poisons water or sets traps or snares;(ix)damages, alters or removes any wall, ditch embankment, fence, hedge or railing; or(x)removes any forest produce;(d)abets any of the acts specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c), shall in addition to such compensation for damages caused to the forests as the court may direct to be paid, be punishable -(i)in every case where any of the acts aforesaid relates to sandalwood or red sanders wood with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which shall not exceed one year and with fine which shall not exceed ten thousand rupees;(ii)in any other case, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees or with both.(2)Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed to prohibit-(a)any act done in accordance with any rule made under this Act or with the permission in writing of the Divisional Forest Officer or of an officer authorized by him to grant such permission; or(b)the exercise of any right continued under subsection (3) or sub-section (4) of section 11 or created by a grant or contract in the manner described in section 17.(3)Where a person contravenes the provisions of sub-clause (ii) or sub-clause (vii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1)-(i)a forest officer not below the rank of a Ranger;(ii)a police officer not below the rank of a Sub- Inspector; or(iii)a revenue officer not below the rank of a Deputy Tahsildar;may evict the person from the forest or the land, pertaining to which the contravention has taken place and remove any building or other construction or anything grown or deposited on it:Provided that before taking any action under this subsection, the officer concerned shall given an opportunity to the person affected to make any representation against the action proposed.(4)Where any agricultural or other crop is grown on the land in contravention of sub clause (vii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) or any building or other construction is put up on such land, any such crop, building or other construction shall be liable to confiscation by an order of the Divisional Forest Officer:Provided that before making any order under this sub-section, the Divisional Forest Officer shall give an opportunity to the person affected to make a representation against the order proposed to be made.

21. Suspension of rights in reserved forest.

- Where fire is caused willfully or negligently by any person or persons in a reserved forest or any portion thereof, the Government may direct that in such forest or portion thereof, the exercise of all rights of pasture or to forest produce shall be suspended for such period as they think fit.

22. Persons bound to assist forest officer and police officer.

(1)Every person who exercises any right in a reserved forest, or who is permitted to take any forest produce from or to cut and remove timber or to pasture cattle in, such forest; and every person who is employed by any such person in such forest; and every village officer or person in any village contiguous to such forest who is employed by the Government; shall be bound to furnish without delay to the nearest forest officer or police officer in-charge of the nearest police station any information he may possess respecting the occurrences of a fire in, or near, such forest, or the commission for or intention to commit any forest offence; and shall forthwith take steps, whether so required by the forest officer or police officer or not-(a)to extinguish any such fire of which he has knowledge or information;(b)to prevent any such fire from spreading and shall assist any forest officer or police officer demanding his aid -(i)in preventing the commission in such forest of any forest offence; and(ii)when there is reason to believe that any such offence has been committed in such forest, in discovering and arresting the offender.(2)Whoever, without lawful excuse, fails to comply with the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees or with both.

23. Power to declare reserved forest as no longer reserved.

(1)The Government may, by notification, direct that from a date to be fixed by such notification any reserved forest or any portion thereof shall cease to be reserved.(2)From the date so fixed, such forest or portion shall cease to be reserved, but the rights, if any, which have been extinguished therein shall not revive in consequence of such cessation.

Chapter III

Protected Forests

24. Protected Forests.

(1)The Government may, by notification, declare any forest or waste land which is the property of the Government or which is placed under their control for management and which is not included in a reserved forest, to be a protected forest and, on such declaration, the provisions of this Chapter shall apply to such protected forest.(2)No such notification shall be made in respect of any land unless the nature and extent of the rights of the Government and of private persons in or over such land have been inquired into and recorded at a survey of settlement, or in such other manner as may be prescribed and every such record shall be presumed to be correct until the contrary is proved:Provided that, where in the case of any land, the Government consider that such inquiry and record are necessary, but that the completion thereof will occupy such length of time, as in the meantime, to endanger the rights of the Government, the Government may, pending such inquiry and record, declare such land to be protected forest but such declaration shall not affect or abridge any existing rights of individuals or communities.

25. Power to close forest against pasture.

(1)Where fire is caused willfully or negligently by any person in any protected forest or a portion thereof, the Government may direct that such forest or portion thereof be closed against pasture for such period as they think fit.(2)Whoever pastures cattle or allows cattle to trespass in protected forest closed against pasture under this section shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both.

26. Power to issue notification reserving trees, etc.

(1)The Government may, by notification:-(a)declare any trees or class of trees in a protected forest to be reserved from a date fixed by the notification;(b)prohibit from a date fixed as aforesaid the quarrying of stone, or the burring of lime or charcoal or the collection or subjection to any manufacturing process or removal of, any forest produce in any such forest and the breaking up or clearing for cultivation, for building, for herding cattle or for any other purpose, of any such forest.(2)A translation into the main language of the locality of every notification issued under this section shall be caused to be affixed in a conspicuous place in every town and village in the neighbourhood of the protected forest comprised in the notification.

27. Power to make rules.

(1) Subject to all rights now vested in individuals and communities by law or custom or usage having the force of law, the Government may make rules to regulate the use of the pasturage or of the natural produce of any protected forest; and such rules may with respect to such forests-(a) regulate the occupation, clearing, ploughing or breaking up of land for cultivation or other purposes; (b) regulate or prohibit the kindling of fire and provide for the precautions to be taken to prevent and spreading of fire. (c) regulate the cutting, sawing, conversion and removal of trees and timber and the collection and removal of natural produce; (d) regulate the quarrying of stone, the boiling of catechu or the burning of lime or charcoal; (e) regulate or prohibit the cutting of grass or the pasturing of cattle and regulate the payments, if any, to be made for such cutting or pasturing; (f) regulate or prohibit hunting, shooting, fishing, poisoning of water and setting traps or snares; (g) regulate the sale or free grant of timber or other natural produce; (h) specify the fees, royalties, or other payments for such timber or other natural produce and the manner in which such fees, royalties or other payments shall be levied. (2) Whoever contravenes any rule made sub-section (1) shall be punishable-(i) in every case where such contravention relates to sandalwood or red sanders wood, with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which shall not exceed one year and with fine which shall not exceed ten thousand rupees; (ii) in any other case, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees or with both. (3) The Government may, by notification and for reasons to be recorded in writing, exempt any person or class of persons belonging to the Scheduled Tribes from the operation of all or any of the rules made under this section.

28. Power to declare protected forest to cease to be protected.

- The Government may, by notification, direct that from a date to be fixed by such notification, any protected forest or any portion thereof shall cease to be a protected forest.

Chapter IV

Control of timber and other forest produce in transit or possession.

29. Power to make rules to regulate the transit and possession of timber and other forest produce.

- The Government may make rules to regulate-(i) the floating of timber in the rivers in the State and the transit of timber and other forest produce by land or water; (ii) the possession of teak wood of such value as may be specified in this behalf, or red sanders wood by any person residing in any village within a radius of fifteen kilometers of such reserved forest as may be specified in this behalf.(2)In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may-(a)specify the routes by which alone timber or other forest produce may be imported, exported or moved into, from or within the State;(b)prohibit the import or export or moving of such timber or other forest produce without a permit from a forest officer duly authorised to issue the same, or otherwise than in accordance with the conditions of such permit, or in the case of timber, without a transit mark affixed by such officer;(c)provide for the issue, production and return of such permit or in the case of timber, for affixing of transit mark and for the payment of the fees therefor;(d)provide for the stoppage, reporting, examination and marking of timber or other forest produce in transit in respect of which there is reason to believe that any money is payable to the Government on account of the price thereof, or on account of any duty, fee, royalty, or charge due thereon or to which it is desirable for the purpose of this Act to affix a mark;(e)provide for-(i)the establishment and regulation of depots and stations to which such timber or other forest produce shall be taken by those in-charge of it for examination, or for the payment of such money or in order that such marks may be affixed to it, the conditions under which such timber or other forest produce shall be brought to, stored at and removed from such depots or stations;(ii)the setting up of a check-post or the erection of a barrier or both at such places as the Government may specify with a view to prevent or check the carrying of smuggled forest produce; and(iii)the management and control of such depots, stations, check-posts or barriers and for regulating the appointment and duties of persons employed thereat;(f)prohibit the closing up or obstructing of the channel or banks of any river used for the transit of timber or other forest produce and throwing of grass, brushwood, branches or leaves into any such channel or river or any act which may cause such channel or river to be closed or obstructed;(g)Provide for the prevention or removal of any obstruction of the channel or banks of any such river and for recovering the cost of such prevention or removal from the person whose act or negligence caused such obstruction;(h)[prohibit absolutely or regulate, subject to such conditions in the entire State of [Telangana] [Substituted by Act No.35 of 1997.] or within such local limits as may be specified, the establishment of pits or machinery for sawing, converting, cutting, burning, concealing or marking of timber, the altering or effacing of any marks on the same, of the possession or carrying of hammers or other implements used for marking timber;](i)regulate the use of property marks for timber and the registration of such marks, declare the circumstances in which the registration of any property marks may be refused or cancelled; prescribe the time for which such registration shall hold good, limit the number of such marks that may be registered by any one person and provide for the levy of fees for such registration;(j)provide for the maintenance of accounts in respect of all classes of sandalwood and red-sanders wood stored in private lands, depots, markets or factories, for industrial or commercial purposes;(k)provide for the protection of bridges, locks or other public works by regulating the floating of timber and the storing of such timber or other forest produce on river banks and authorising the seizure of such timber or other forest produce floated or stored in contravention of such rules or by which any damage to such work may have been caused and the detention and disposal of such timber or other forest produce until compensation has been made for the damage done.(3)The Government may, by notification, direct that any rule made under this section shall not apply to such classes of timber or other forest produce or to such local area, as may be specified by them.(4)(a)Whoever contravenes any rule made under this section shall be punishable-(i)in every case, where such contravention relates to sandal-wood or red-sanders wood, with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which shall not exceed one year and with fine which shall not exceed ten thousand rupees;(ii)in any other case, with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or with fine which may extend to two thousand rupees or with both;(b)If an offence under this section is committed, after sunset and before sunrise or after preparation for resistance to lawful authority or where the offender has been previously convicted of a like offence, the magistrate having jurisdiction may inflict double the penalty prescribed for such offence.

30. Government and forest officers not liable for damage to forest produce at depots and stations.

- The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of any timber or other forest produce while at a depot or station established under a rule made under section 29 or while detained elsewhere for the purpose of this Act; and no forest officer shall be responsible for any such loss or damage unless he causes such loss or damage negligently, willfully, maliciously or fraudulently.

31. Persons employed at depots and stations bound to aid in case of accident.

- Where any accident or emergency involving danger to any property at any depot or station referred to in section 30 occurs, every person employed at such depot or station shall render assistance to any forest officer or police officer demanding his aid in preventing or mitigating the damage or loss to such property.

Chapter V

Possession of Sandalwood

32. Possession of sandal-wood under licence or mark.

- No person shall have in his possession any quantity of sandalwood in excess of ten kilograms, except under a licence granted by the Divisional Forest Officer in that behalf, and except such sandalwood as is marked by a forest officer in such manner as may be prescribed:Provided that the Divisional Forest Officer may, by order, refuse to grant or renew licence to any applicant or licensee in respect of whom he is satisfied that by reason of his conviction of an offence under this Act or the rules made thereunder, or the previous cancellation or suspension of any licence granted thereunder or the contravention of any of the requirements as to the possession of sandalwood, or for any other ground that may be prescribed, he is not a fit person to whom a licence may be granted or renewed under this section, and every such order shall be communicated as soon as may be, to the applicant or the licensee, as the case may be.

33. Forms and conditions of licence.

- The Government may make rules to provide for-(a)the form and manner in which application for licence may be made;(b)the terms and conditions which may be included in any licence and the fees for the grant of such licence;(c)the grant of duplicate licence and the renewal of licence and fees for the same.

34. Power to cancel or suspend licence.

- The Divisional Forest Officer may, after recording the reasons therefor, cancel or suspend any licence granted under this Chapter, if he is satisfied that the licensee has contravened, or failed to comply with, any of the provisions of this Act or the rules made thereunder or any of the terms or conditions of the licence, after giving the licensee an opportunity of making a representation against the action proposed to be taken.

35. Appeal.

(1)Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Divisional Forest Officer, refusing to grant or renew or cancelling or suspending a licence under this Chapter may, within such time as may be prescribed, appeal to the Conservator of Forests who may make such order as he deems fit, after recording the reasons therefor.(2)Any person aggrieved by an order of the Conservator of Forests in appeal preferred under subsection (1) may, within such time as may be prescribed, prefer a second appeal to the Chief Conservator of Forests who may make such order as he deems fit, after recording the reasons therefor.

36. Penalties.

- Whoever, in contravention of the provisions of this Chapter or of any rule made or licence granted thereunder possesses sandalwood, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than three months but which shall not exceed one year and with fine which shall not exceed ten thousand rupees.

Chapter VI

Of the collection of drift and stranded timber.

37. Certain kinds of timber to be deemed property of Government until title thereto is proved and may be collected accordingly.

(1)(a)All timber found adrift, beached, stranded or sunk,(b)All timber bearing marks which have not been registered in accordance with the rules made under section 29 or on which the marks have been obliterated, altered or defaced by fire or otherwise, and(c)All unmarked timber found in such areas as the Government may specify,shall be deemed to be the property of the Government unless and until, any person establishes his right and title thereto as provided in this Chapter.(2)Such timber may be collected by any forest officer or by any other person empowered by a rule made under section 43 and may be brought to any depot which the forest officer may notify as a depot for the reception of drift timber.(3)The Government may, by notification, and for reasons to be recorded in writing exempt any class of timber from the provisions of this section.

38. Notice to claimants to drift timber.

- Where any timber is collected by the forest officer or other person under section 37, he shall immediately report the same to the Divisional Forest Officer who shall publish a notice in the District Gazette concerned or where there is no such Gazette, in the [Telangana] [Substituted by G.O.Ms.No.22, E.F.S&T (For.I) Department, dated 13.05.2015.] Gazette, requiring any person claiming the same to present to him within a period, not exceeding two months, from the date of such notice, a written statement of such claim. Such notice shall contain a description of the timber and the place from which it was collected and the depot or station at which it is stored.

39. Procedure on the presentation of claim to such timber.

(1)When any statement of claim is presented as required under section 38, the Divisional Forest Officer, may, after making such enquiry as he thinks fit, either reject the claim, or deliver the timber to the claimant, after recording the reasons therefor.(2)Where such timber is claimed by more than one person, the Divisional Forest Officer may either deliver the same to any such person whom he finds to be entitled thereto after recording the reasons therefor, or may refer the claimants to the court and retain the timber pending the receipt of an order from such court for its disposal.(3)Any person whose claim has been rejected under this section may, within three months from the date of such rejection, institute a suit to recover possession of the timber claimed by him; but no person shall be entitled to any compensation or cost against the Government or against any forest officer on account to such rejection, or the detention or removal of any timber, or the delivery thereof to any other person.(4)Save as otherwise provided in this section no such timber shall be subject to the process of any Civil, Criminal or Revenue court until it is delivered.(5)Where the matter is pending before a court under this section, the Divisional Forest Officer may, with the permission of the court, instead of retaining the timber under sub-section (2) sell the timber in public auction and remit the sale proceeds into the nearest Government treasury. The court may deal with the proceeds of the sale of any such timber in the same manner as it might have dealt with the timber if it had not been sold.

40. Disposal of unclaimed timber.

- Where no statement of claim is presented as required under section 38 or where the claimant fails to prefer his claim in the manner and within the period fixed by the notice issued under that section or on such claim having been so preferred by him and having been rejected, fails to institute a suit to recover possession of such timber within the further period fixed by section 39, the ownership of such timber shall vest in the Government free from all encumbrances or when such timber has been delivered to another person under that section, in such other person free from all encumbrances other than those created by him.

41. Government and their officers not liable for damage to timber collected under section 37.

- The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of any timber collected under section 37 and no forest officer shall be responsible for any such loss or damage unless he causes such loss or damage negligently, willfully, maliciously or fraudulently.

42. Payment to be made by claimant before timber is delivered to him.

- No person shall be entitled to recover possession of any timber collected under section 37 or delivered under section 39 until he has paid to the forest officer or other person entitled to receive it such sum of account thereof as may be due under any rule made under section 43.

43. Power to make rules and prescribe penalty for contravention thereof.

(1)The Government may make rules to regulate the following matters, namely:-(a)the salving, collection and disposal of all timber referred to in this chapter;(b)the use and registration of boats used in salving and collecting timber;(c)the costs to be paid for salving, collecting, moving, storing or disposing of such timber;(d)the use and registration of hammers and other implements used for marking such timber.(2)Whoever contravenes any rule made under this section shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

Chapter VII

Penalties and Procedure.

44. Seizure of property liable to confiscation and procedure thereupon.

(1)Where there is reason to believe that a forest offence has been committed in respect of any timber or forest produce, such timber, or forest produce, together with all tools, ropes, chains, boats, vehicles and cattle used in committing any such offence may be seized by any forest officer or police officer.(2)Every officer seizing any property under this section shall place on such property or the receptacle, if any, in which it is contained, a mark indicating that the same has been so seized and shall, except where the offender agrees in writing forthwith to get the offence compounded, [without any unreasonable delay, either produce the property seized before an officer not below the rank of an Assistant Conservator of Forests authorised by the Government in this behalf by notification (hereinafter referred to as the authorised officer) or make a report of such seizure to the Magistrate:] [Substituted by Act No.17 of 1976.]Provided that where the timber or forest produce with respect to which such offence is believed to have been committed is the property of the Central or State Government and the offender is not known, it shall be sufficient if the officer makes, as soon as may be, a report of the circumstances to the Divisional Forest Officer.(2A)[Where an authorised officer seizes under sub-section (1) any timber or forest produce or where any such timber or forest produce is produced before him under sub-section (2) and he is satisfied that a forest offence has been committed, in respect thereof, he may order confiscation of the timber or forest produce so seized or produced together with all tools, ropes, chains, boats or vehicles used in committing such offence.(2B)No order of confiscating any property shall be made under sub-section (2-A) unless the person from whom the property is seized is given,-(a)a notice in writing informing him of the grounds on which it is proposed to confiscate such property;(b)an opportunity of making a representation in writing within such reasonable time as may be specified in the notice against the grounds for confiscation; and(c)a reasonable opportunity of being heard in the matter.(2C)Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (2-B), no order of confiscation under sub-section (2-A) of any tool, rope, chain, boat or vehicle shall be made if the owner thereof proves to the satisfaction of the authorised officer that it was used in carrying the property without his knowledge or connivance or the knowledge or connivance of his agent, if any, or the person in charge of the tool, rope, chain, boat or vehicle in committing the offence and that each of them had taken all reasonable and necessary precautions against such use.(2D)Any forest officer not below the rank of a Conservator of Forests empowered by the Government in this behalf by notification, may within thirty days from the date of the order of confiscation by the authorised officer under sub-section (2-A) either suo motu or on application call for and examine the record of that order and may make such inquiry or cause such inquiry to be made and pass such orders as he may think fit:Provided that no order, prejudicial to any person, shall be passed without giving him an opportunity of being heard.(2E)Any person aggrieved by an order passed under sub-section (2-A) or sub-section (2-D) may, within thirty days from the date of communication to him of such order, appeal to the District Court having jurisdiction over the area in which the property has been seized; and the District Court shall after giving an opportunity to the parties to be heard, pass such order as it may think fit and the order of the District Court so passed shall be final.] Inserted by Act No.17 of 1976.Any forest officer not below the rank of a Forester, who or whose subordinate has seized any tools, ropes, chains, boats, vehicles or cattle under sub-section (1) [and where he makes a report of such seizure to the Magistrate under sub-section (2)] [Inserted by Act No.17 of 1976.] may release the same on the execution by the owner thereof a bond for the production of the property so released, if and when so required before the magistrate.(4)Upon the receipt of any report under sub-section (2), the magistrate shall, except where the offence is compounded, take such measures as may be necessary for the trial of the accused and the disposal of the property according to law.(5)The property seized under this section, shall be kept in the custody of the forest officer not below the rank of a Forest Guard or the Village Headman until the compensation for compounding the offence is paid or until an order of the magistrate directing its disposal is received.

45. [Timber, forest produce, tools etc. when liable to confiscation. [Section 45 along with marginal heading substituted by Act No.17 of 1976.]

- Where a person is convicted of a forest offence, the Court sentencing him shall order confiscation to the Government of timber or forest produce in respect of which such offence was committed and of any tool, boat, vehicle, vessel or other conveyance or any other article used in committing such offence except where an order of confiscation, has already been passed in respect thereof under section 44.]

46. Disposal on conclusion of trial for forest offence of timber or forest produce in respect of which it was committed.

- When the trial of any forest offence is concluded, any timber or forest produce in respect of which such offence was committed shall, if it is the property of the Central or State Government or if it is confiscated, be taken possession of by or under the authority of the Divisional Forest Officer, or and in any other case, may be disposed of in such manner as the Court having jurisdiction may, by order, direct.

47. Procedure when offender is not known or cannot be found.

- Where the magistrate is of opinion that a forest offence was committed but the offender is not known or cannot be found, he may on an application made in this behalf order the property, in respect of which the offence was committed and which was seized, to be confiscated and taken possession of by or under the authority of the Divisional Forest Officer or to be made over to any person whom the magistrate considers to be entitled to the same: Provided that before making any such order the magistrate shall cause a notice of any application made under this section to be served upon any person who, he has reason to believe, is interested in the property seized, or shall publish such notice in such manner as he thinks fit: Provided further that no such order shall be made until the expiration of thirty days from the date of seizing such property, or without hearing the person if any, claiming any right thereto, and the evidence, if any, which he may produce in support of his claim.

48. Procedure in regard to perishable property seized under section 44.

(1) Except where a forest offence has been compounded, the magistrate may direct the sale of any property seized under section 44, which is subject to speedy and natural decay, and if in the opinion of the officer seizing such property, it is not possible to obtain the orders of the magistrate in time, such officer may sell the property himself, remit the sale proceeds into the nearest Government treasury and make a report of such seizure, sale and remittance to the magistrate, and thereupon the Magistrate shall take such measures as may be necessary for the trial of the accused. (2) The magistrate may deal with the proceeds of the sale of any property held under sub-section (1) in the same manner as he might have dealt with the property if it had not been sold.

49. Appeal from orders under section 45, section 46, or section 47.

- Any person claiming to be interested in the property seized under section 44 may, within one month from the date of any order passed under section 45, section 46 or section 47, present an appeal there from to the court to which an appeal from the order of the magistrate ordinarily lies, the appeals shall be disposed of in the manner provided by the [Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898] [See now the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974)].

50. Property when to vest in Government.

- [(1) Where an order of confiscation of any property passed under sub-section (2-A) or sub-section (2-D) of section 44 has become final in respect of the whole or any portion of such property, such property or the portion thereof, as the case may be, shall vest in the Government free from all encumbrances.] Sub-section (1) inserted by Act No.17 of 1976.[] [Existing section 50 renumbered as sub-section (2) by Act No.17 of 1976.] Where an order for the confiscation any property was passed under section 45 or section 47 and the period limited by section 49 for presenting an appeal from such order has elapsed, and no such appeal was presented, or where, on such an appeal being presented, the appellate court confirms such order in respect of the whole or a portion of such property, such property or portion, as the case may be shall vest in the Government free from all encumbrances.

51. Saving of power to release property seized.

- Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to prevent the Divisional Forest Officer from directing at any time the immediate release of any property seized under section 44, and the withdrawal of any charge made in respect of such property in accordance with the provision of [section 494 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898] [See now section 321 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974).]:Provided that where a report is made to the Magistrate of the property seized under section 44 the Divisional Forest Officer shall not release the property without the consent in writing of such magistrate, or without previous intimation to such magistrate.

52. Penalty for counterfeiting marks on trees and timber and for altering boundary marks.

- Whoever, with intent to cause damage or injury to the public or to any person, or to cause wrongful gain as defined in the Indian Penal Code-(a)knowingly counterfeits upon any timber or standing tree, a mark used by any forest officer to indicate that such timber or tree is the property of the Central or State Government or of some person, or that it may lawfully be cut or removed by some person, or(b)unlawfully affixes to any timber or standing tree, a mark used by any forest officer, or(c)alters, defaces or obliterates any such mark placed on any timber or standing tree by or under the authority of any forest officer, or(d)alters, moves, destroys or defaces any boundary mark of any forest or any land to which any provisions of this Act apply,shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years or with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees or with both.

53. Power to arrest without warrant.

(1)Any forest officer not below the rank of a Forest Guard or police officer may, without orders from a magistrate and without a warrant arrest and detain in custody any person if the officer knows or has reason to believe that such person is committing or has committed any forest offence and, if such person refuses to give his name and residence, or gives a name residence which there is reason to believe to be false or if there is reason to believe that he will abscond.(2)Every person arrested and detained in custody under this section shall be informed, as soon as may be, of the grounds for such arrest and detention and shall be produced before the nearest magistrate within a period of twenty-four hours of such arrest excluding the time necessary for the journey from the place of arrest to the court of the magistrate; and no such person shall be detained in custody beyond the said period without the authority of a magistrate.

54. Power to release on bond a person arrested.

- Any forest officer not below the rank of Forester, who or whose subordinate has arrested any person under the provisions of section 53, may release such person on his executing a bond to appear, if any when so required, before the magistrate or before the officer-in-charge of the nearest police station.

55. Punishment of wrongful seizure or arrest.

- Any forest officer or police officer who vexatiously or frivolously seizes any property on pretence of seizing property liable to confiscation under this Act, or who vexatiously or frivolously arrests any person, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both.

56. Power to prevent commission of offence.

- Every forest officer and police officer shall prevent, and may take necessary steps for the purpose of preventing the commission of any forest offence.

57. Power to try offences summarily.

- Any magistrate of the first class specially empowered in this behalf by the Government may try summarily under the [Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898] [See now the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974).] any forest offence punishable with imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or with fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, or with both.

58. Operation of other laws not barred.

- Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to bar the prosecution of any person under any other law for any act or omission which constitutes a forest offence, or from being liable under such other law to any higher punishment or penalty than that provided by this Act, or the rules made thereunder: Provided that no person shall be prosecuted and punished for the same offence more than once.

58A. [Order of confiscation not to bar imposition of other penalty. [Section 58A along with marginal heading inserted by Act No.17 of 1976.]

- An order of confiscation under sub-section (2-A) or sub-section (2-D) of section 44 shall not be deemed to bar the imposition of any other penalty to which the person from whom the property is seized is liable under this Act.]

59. Power to compound offences.

(1)Any forest officer, specially empowered in this behalf by the Government may accept as compensation from any person who committed or in respect of whom it can be reasonably inferred that he has committed, any forest offence, other than an offence under section 52 or section 55-(i)a sum of money not exceeding fifty rupees where such offence is of a trivial nature;(ii)a sum of money which shall not in any case be less than the value of the forest produce, or more than four times such value as estimated by such forest officer, in addition to the value of the forest produce, where such offence involves any forest produce which in the opinion of the forest officer, may be released;(iii)a sum of money which shall not in any case be less than the value of the forest produce or more than four times such value as estimated by such forest officer, where such offence involves forest produce which in the opinion of the forest officer should be retained by the Government.(2)On receipt of the sum of money referred to in sub-section (1) by such officer,-(i)the accused person, if in custody, shall be discharged;(ii)the property seized shall, if it is not to be so retained, be released; and(iii)no further proceedings shall be taken against such person or property.

60. Presumption that timber or forest produce belongs to the Central or State Government.

- Where, in any proceedings taken under this Act, or in consequence of anything done under this Act a question arises as to whether any forest produce is the property of the Central or State Government, such produce shall be presumed to be the property of the Central or State Government as the case may be, until the contrary is proved.

Chapter VIII

Cattle Trespass

61. Cattle Trespass Act, 1871 to apply.

(1)Cattle trespassing in a reserved forest or in a protected forest shall be deemed to be cattle doing damage to a public plantation within the meaning of section 11 of the Cattle Trespass Act, 1871, and may be seized and impounded as such by any forest officer or police officer.(2)The Government may, by notification, direct that in lieu of the fines fixed by section 12 of the Act referred to in sub-section (1), there shall be levied, in all or any of the areas to which this Act applies, for each goat or kid impounded under sub-section (1), such fine not exceeding rupees five as they think fit.

Chapter IX

Powers of Forest Officers

62. Government may invest forest officers with certain powers.

(1)(a)The Government may, by notification and subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified therein, invest any forest officer not below the rank of a Ranger with all or any of the following powers, namely:-(i)to enter upon any land and to survey, demarcate and make a map of the same:Provided that no such demarcation shall take away or abridge the right of any person in or over the land;(ii)to hold inquiries into forest offences, and in the course of such inquiries to receive and record evidence;(iii)to accept compensation for forest offences under section 59;(b)The Government may by notification invest any forest officer not below the rank of [a Forest Range Officer] [Substituted by Act No.35 of 1997.] with all or any of the following powers, namely:-(i)power of a civil court to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents and material objects;(ii)to search or to issue a search warrant which may be executed in the manner provided in the [Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898] [See now the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974)].(2)The Government may, in like manner, withdraw any powers invested under sub-section (1).(3)Any evidence recorded under item (ii) of clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall be admissible in any subsequent trial of the alleged offender before a Magistrate, if it has been taken in the presence of the accused person and recorded in the manner provided by [section 355, section 356 or section 357 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898] [See now section 274, section 275 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974)].

63. Forest officers deemed public servants.

- All forest officers shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

64. Power of entry and inspection.

- Any forest officer not below the rank of a Forester may, at any time enter and inspect any private forest or land within his jurisdiction for the purpose of ascertaining whether there has been contravention of any of the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder or for the purpose of securing compliance with any such provision.

65. Indemnity for acts done in good faith.

- No suit or criminal prosecution shall lie against any public servant for anything done or omitted to be done in good faith in pursuance of this Act.

Chapter X

Miscellaneous

66. Revision.

(1)The Government may suo motu or on application made to them, call for and examine the record of any forest officer in respect of any proceeding, not being a proceeding in respect of which a suit, an appeal or application or a reference to a court is provided under this Act, to satisfy themselves as to the regularity of such proceeding, or the correctness, legality or propriety of any decision passed or order made therein; and if in any case, it appears to the Government that any such decision or order should be modified, annulled, reversed or remitted for reconsideration, they may pass orders accordingly:Provided that every application to the Government for the exercise of the powers under this section shall be preferred within ninety days from the date on which the proceeding, decision or order to which the application relates was communicated to the applicant.(2)No order prejudicial to any person shall be passed under sub-section (1) unless such person has been given an opportunity of making his representation.(3)The Government may suspend the execution of any proceeding, decision or order pending the exercise of their power under sub-section (1) in respect thereof.

67. Power of Government to exempt any area from the provisions of the Act.

- The Government may, by notification exempt for reasons to be recorded in writing, any area from all or any of the provisions of this Act, but not so as to effect anything done, or any offence committed, or any fine imposed or penalty levied, or any proceedings commenced in such place before such exemption, and may in like manner vary or cancel such notification.

68. Power of Government to make rules.

(1)The Government may by notification make rules to carry out all or any of the purposes of this Act.(2)In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for-(a)declaring by which forest officer or class of forest officers, the powers conferred or duties imposed by or under this Act on a forest officer shall be exercised or performed;(b)regulating the procedure to be followed by the Forest Settlement Officer;(c)regulating the rewards to be paid to officers or informers from the proceeds of fines and confiscations under this Act, or from the Government treasury;(d)regulating or prohibiting, hunting, shooting, carrying firearms, fishing, poisoning of water or setting traps or snares on or from any public road passing through or situated within a distance of thirty meters from any forest;(e)the preservation, reproduction and disposal of trees and timber belonging to the Government;(f)any other matter which is to be or may be prescribed.(3)Every rule made under this Act shall, immediately after it is made, be laid before each House of the State Legislature, if it is in session and if it is not in session, in the session immediately following for a total period of fourteen days which may be comprised in one session, or in two successive sessions, and if, before the expiration of the session in which it is so laid or the session immediately following, both Houses agree in making any modification in the rule or in the annulment of the rule, the rule shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form, or shall stand annulled, as the case may be; so however that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule.(4)Any person contravening any rule under this Act, for the contravention of which no special penalty is provided shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees or with both:Provided that no prosecution under this sub-section shall be instituted without the previous sanction of the Divisional Forest Officer.

69. Government may delegate powers.

- The Government may, by notification delegate any of the powers conferred on them by Sections 18, 19, 21, 24, 25 and sub-section (2) of section 61, to the Chief Conservator of Forests, or to such other officer or authority as they deem fit.

70. Recovery of money due to Government.

(1)All monies, other than fines imposed by the magistrate, duly ascertained and payable to the Government under this Act, or any rule made thereunder, or on account of timber or forest produce or of expenses incurred in the execution of this Act in respect of timber or forest produce or under any contract relating to timber or forest produce including any sum recoverable thereunder for the breach thereof or in consequences of the cancellation or under the terms of a notice relating to the sale of timber or forest produce by auction or by invitation of tenders issued by or under the authority of a Divisional Forest Officer and all compensations awarded to Government under this Act including the compensation under section 59 may, if not paid when due, be recovered as if it were an arrear of land revenue.(2)Where the money referred to in sub-section (1) is payable for, or in respect of any forest produce, the amount thereof shall be deemed to be a first charge on that produce; and, if the amount be not paid when due, the produce may be taken possession of by or under the authority of the Divisional Forest Officer, and may be retained until such amount is paid, or the forest officer may sell the produce by public auction, and proceeds of the sale shall be applied first in discharging such amount.(3)The surplus, if any shall be paid to the person entitled thereto.
