(1)Where the State Government is of the opinion that it is necessary to protect against destruction, injury, alteration, mutilation, defacement, removal, dispersion or falling into decay any-(a)ancient monument,(b)archaeological site and remains, it may, by notification in the Official Gazette give two month's notice of its intention to declare such ancient monument to be a State-protected monument or such archaeological site and remains to be a State-protected area, as the case may be, and a copy of every such notification shall be affixed in a conspicuous place on or near the monument or site and remains, as the case may be.(2)Any person interested in any such ancient monument or archaeological site and remains may, within one month after the issue of notification, object to the declaration of the monument to be a State-protected monument or of the archaeological site and remains to be a State-protected area, as the case may be.(3)On the expiry of the said period of two months the State Government may, after considering the objections, if any, received by it, declare by notification in the Gazette, the ancient monument to be a State-protected monument or the archaeological site and remains to be a State-protected area, as the case may be.(4)A notification published under this section shall, unless and until withdrawn, be conclusive evidence of the fact that the monument or the archaeological site and remains to which it relates, is a State-protected monument or State-protected area, as the case may be.

4. Acquisition of rights in or guardianship of State-protected monument.

(1)The State Government may purchase or take a lease of or accept a gift or bequest of any State-protected monument.(2)Where State-protected monument is without an owner, the Director may, by notification, assume the guardianship of the monument.(3)The owner of any State-protected monument may, by written instrument, constitute the Director, the guardian of the monument, and the Director may, with the sanction of the State Government, accept such guardianship.(4)When the Director has accepted the guardianship of a State-protected monument under sub-section (3), the owner shall, except as expressly provided in this Act, have the same estate, right, title and interest in and to the monument as if the Director had not been constituted a guardian thereof.(5)When the Director has accepted the guardianship of a State-protected monument under sub-section (3) the provisions of this Act relating to agreements entered into under Section 5 shall apply to the written agreement referred to in the said sub-section.(6)Nothing in this section shall affect the use of any State-protected monument for customary religious observances.

5. Maintenance of protected monument by agreement.

(1)The Director may, with the previous sanction of the State Government, propose to the owner of a State-protected monument to enter into an agreement with the State Government within a specified period for the maintenance of the monument.(2)An agreement under this section may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely : (a)the maintenance of the monument; (b)the custody of the monument, and the duties of any person who may be employed to watch it; (c)the restriction of the owner's right- (i)to use the monument for any purpose, (ii)to charge any fee for entry into, or inspection of the monument, (iii)to destroy, remove, alter or deface the monument, or (iv)to build on or near the site of the monument; (d)the facilities of access to be permitted to the public or any section thereof and to the Director and to the person deputed by the owner or the Director to inspect or maintain the monument; (e)the notice to be given to the State Government in case the land on which the monument is situated or any adjoining lands is offered for sale by the owner, and the right to be reserved to the State Government to purchase such land, or any specified portion of such land, as its market value; (f)the payment of any expenses incurred by the owner or by the State Government in connection with the maintenance of the monument; (g)the proprietary or other rights which are to vest in the State Government in respect of the monument when any expenses are incurred by the State Government in connection with the maintenance of the monument; (h)the appointment of an authority to decide any dispute arising out of the agreement; and (i)any matter connected with the maintenance of the monument which is a proper subject of agreement between the owner and the State Government.(3)The terms of an agreement under this section may be altered from time to time with the sanction of the State Government and with the consent, in writing, of the owner.(4)The State Government or the owner may, at any time after the expiration of three years from the date of execution of an agreement under this section, terminate it on giving six months' notice, in writing, to the other party :Provided that where the agreement is terminated by the owner, he shall pay to the State Government the expenses, if any, incurred by it on the maintenance of the monument during the five years immediately preceding the termination of the agreement or, if the agreement has been in force for a shorter period during the period the agreement was in force.(5)An agreement under this section shall be binding on any person claiming to be the owner of the monument to which it relates, from, through or under a party by whom or on whose behalf the agreement was executed.

6. Owners under disability or not in possession.

(1)If the owner of a State-protected monument is unable, by reason of infancy or other disability to act for himself, the person legally competent to act on his behalf may exercise the powers conferred upon an owner by Section 5.(2)Nothing in this section shall be deemed to empower any person not being of the same religion the person on whose behalf he is acting to make or executed an agreement relating to a State-protected monument which or any part of which is periodically used for the religious worship or observances of that religion.

7. Application of endowment to repair protected monument.

(1)If any owner or other person, competent to enter into an agreement under Section 5 of the maintenance of a State-protected monument, refuses or fails to enter into such an agreement when proposed to him by the Director and in any endowment has been created for that purpose among others, the State Government may institute a suit in the Court of the District Judge, or if the estimated cost of repairing the monument does not exceed one thousand rupees, may make an application to the District Judge for the proper application of such endowment or part thereof.(2)On the hearing for an application under sub-section (1), the District Judge may summon and examine the owner and any person whose evidence appears to him necessary, and may pass an order for the proper application of the endowment or of any part thereof, and any such order may be executed as if it were a decree of a civil Court.

8. Failure or refusal to enter into agreement.

(1)If any owner or other person competent to enter into an agreement under Section 5 for the maintenance of a State-protected monument refuses or fails to enter into such an agreement, the State Government may make an order providing for all or any of the matters specified in sub-section (2) of Section 5 and such order shall be binding on the owner or such other person and on every person claiming title to the monument from, through or under, the owner or such other person.(2)Where an order made under sub-section (1) provides that the monument shall be maintained by the owner or other person competent to enter into an agreement, all reasonable expenses for the maintenance of the monument shall be payable by the State Government.(3)No order under sub-section (1) shall be made unless the owner or other person has been given an opportunity of making a representation, in writing, against the proposed order.

9. Power to make order prohibiting contravention of agreement.

(1) If the Director apprehends that the owner or occupier of a State-protected monument intends to destroy, remove, alter, mutilate, deface, imperil or misuse the monument or to build on or near the site thereof in contravention of the terms of an agreement under Section 5, the Director may, after giving the owner or occupier an opportunity of making a representation in writing, make an order prohibiting any such contravention of the agreement: Provided that no such opportunity may be given in any case where the Director, for reasons to be recorded, is satisfied that it is not expedient or practicable to do so. (2) Any person aggrieved by an order under this section may appeal to the State Government within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed in this behalf and the decision of the State Government shall be final.

10. Enforcement of agreement.

(1) If an owner or other person who is bound by an agreement for the maintenance of a monument under Section 5 refuses or fails, within such reasonable time as the Director may fix, to do any act which in the opinion of the Director is necessary for the maintenance of the monument, the Director may authorise any person to do any such act, and the owner or other person shall be liable to pay the expenses of doing any such act or such portion of the expenses as the owner may be liable to pay under the agreement. (2) If any dispute arises regarding the amount of expenses payable by the owner or other person under sub-section (1), it shall be referred to the State Government whose decision shall be final.

11. Purchasers at certain sales and persons claiming through owner bound by instrument executed by owner.

- Every person who purchases at a sale for arrears of land revenue or any other public demand any land on which is situated a monument in respect of which any instrument has been executed by the owner for the time being, under Section 4 or Section 5 and every person claiming any right, title or interest to or in a monument from, through or under an owner who executed any such instrument, shall be bound by such instrument.

12. Compulsory acquisition of protected monuments.

- If the State Government apprehends that a State-protected monument is in danger of being destroyed, injured, misused or allowed to fall into decay, it may acquire the State-protected monument under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1894), as if the maintenance of the State-protected monument were a public purpose within the meaning of this Act.

13. Maintenance of certain protected monuments.

(1) The State Government shall maintain every monument which has been acquired under Section 12 or in respect of which any of the rights mentioned in Section 4 have been acquired. (2) When the Director has accepted the guardianship of a State-protected monument under Section 4, he shall, for the purpose of maintaining such monument, have access to the monument at all reasonable time, by himself and by his agents, subordinates and workmen, for the purpose of inspecting the monument, and for the purpose of bringing such materials and doing such acts as he may consider necessary or desirable for the maintenance thereof.

14. Voluntary contributions.

- The Director may receive voluntary contributions towards the cost of maintaining a State-protected monument and may give orders as to the management and application of any funds so received by him :Provided that no contribution received under this section or any part thereof shall be applied to any purpose other than the purpose for which it was contributed without the consent, in writing, of the donor.

15. Protection of place of worship from misuse, pollution or desecration.

(1)A State-protected monument maintained by the State Government under this Act which is a place of worship or shrine shall not be used for any purpose inconsistent with its character.(2)Where the State Government has acquired a monument under Section 12, or has purchased, or taken a lease or accepted a gift or bequest or assumed guardianship of a State-protected monument under Section 4, and such monument or any part thereof is used for religious worship or observances by any community, the Director shall make due provision for the protection of such monument or part thereof, from pollution or desecration by taking such action as he may think necessary in this behalf.

16. Preservation of amenities of protected monuments.

(1)If the State Government is of opinion that for the purpose of preserving the reasonable amenities of any protected monument, it is necessary so to do, the State Government may, subject to the provisions of this section, by notification in respect of any area compressing or adjacent to the site of such monument specified in such notification (hereinafter referred to as "the controlled area")-(a)prohibit or restrict the construction, erection or execution of building, structures and other works within the controlled area, or the alteration or extension of any such buildings, structures, or works in such manner as materially to affect their external appearance;(b)prescribe the position, height, site, materials, colour and screening and otherwise regulate the external appearance of buildings, structures and other works within the controlled area;(c)require any local authority-(i)to construct any approach road to any protected monument, or(ii)to demolish any public convenience vesting in it, that is to say, a latrine, urinal, dustbin, rubbishdump and the like, located close to or in the vicinity of any protected monument;(d)prohibit or restrict the felling of trees within the controlled area;(e)otherwise restrict the user of land within the controlled area to such extent as is necessary for the purpose of preserving the reasonable amenities of the protected monument;(f)provide for such matters as appear to the State Government to be incidental to or consequential on the foregoing provisions of this section or to be necessary for giving effect to those provisions.(2)Not less than forty-five days before issuing a notification under sub-section (1), State Government shall cause to be published in the Gazette, in the controlled area, and in the village and at the headquarters of the tahsil in which the controlled area is situated, a notification stating that it proposes to issue a notification in terms of sub-section (1), together with a notice requiring all persons affected by such a notification, who wish to make any objection to the issuing of such notification, to submit their objections in writing to the State Government or appear before any officer duly authorised in that behalf to hear objections on behalf of the State Government, within one month of the publication of the notification in the Gazette, or within fifteen days from the date of the publication of the notification in the controlled area, whichever period expires later.(3)If on the expiration of the time allowed by sub-section (2) for the filing of objections no objection has been made, the State Government shall proceed at once to issue the notification under sub-section (1). If any objection has been made, the State Government may, after such objection has been considered or heard, as the case may be, either-(a)abandon the proposals to issue the notification under sub-section (1); or(b)issue the notification under sub-section (1), with such modification, if any, as it thinks fit.(4)In considering the objections, the decision of the State Government on the question of issuing the notification under sub-section (1) shall be final and conclusive.(5)Nothing contained in any notification under sub-section (1) shall affect any building, structure or other work or any alteration or extension thereof, if it was constructed, erected, or executed before the date when notice of intention to issue such a notification was given under sub-section (2), and for the purpose of this provision a building, structure, or other work and any alteration or extension thereof shall be deemed to have been constructed, erected or executed before that date :(a)if its construction, erection or execution was begun before that date; or(b)if, and so far as, its construction, erection or execution was necessary for the purpose of performing a contract made before that date.(6)Any person whose property is injuriously affected by the coming into force of a notification under sub-section (1) shall, subject to the provisions of Section 27, be entitled to obtain compensation in respect thereof from the State Government.

17. Relinquishment of Government right in monument.

(1)Where rights have been acquired by the State Government in respect of any monument under this Act by virtue of any sale, lease, gift or will, the State Government may, by notification, relinquish rights so acquired to the person who would for the time being, be the owner of the monument if such rights had not been acquired.(2)The Director may with the sanction of the State Government relinquish the guardianship of a monument which he has assumed under this Act.

18. Right of access to certain State-protected monuments.

- Subject to any rules made under this Act, the public shall have a right of access to any State-protected monument.Protected Areas

19. Restrictions on enjoyment of proprietary rights in State-protected areas.

(1)No person, including the owner or occupier of a State-protected area shall construct any building within the State-protected area or carry on any mining, quarrying, excavating, blasting or any operation of a like nature in such area, or utilize such area or any part thereof in any other manner without the permission of the State Government:Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to prohibit the use of any such area or part thereof for purposes of cultivation if such cultivation does not involve the digging of not more than one foot of soil from the surface.(2)The State Government may, by order, direct that any building constructed by any person within a State-protected monument in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be removed within a specified period, and, if the person refuses or fails to comply with the order, the Collector may cause the building to be removed and the person shall be liable to pay the cost of such removal.

20. Power to acquire protected area.

- If the State Government is of opinion that any State-protected area contains an ancient monument or antiquities of historical interest and value, it may acquire such area under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I of 1894), as if the acquisition were for a public purpose within the meaning of that Act.Archaeological Excavations

21. Excavations in State-protected areas.

- Subject to the provisions of Section 24 of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act, 1958 (No. 24 of 1958) the Director or an officer authorised by him in this behalf under this Act (hereinafter referred to as the licensee) may, after giving notice, in writing, to the Collector and the owner, after giving notice, in writing, to the Collector and the owner, enter upon and make excavations in any State-protected area.

22. Compulsory purchase of antiquities, etc., discovered during excavation operations.

(1)Where, as a result of any excavations made in any area under Section 21 any antiquities are discovered, the Director or the licensee, as the case may be shall-(a)as soon as practicable, examine such antiquities and submit a report to the State Government in such manner and containing such particulars as may be prescribed;(b)at the conclusion of the excavation operations, give notice, in writing, to the owner of the land from which such antiquities have been discovered of the nature of such antiquities.(2)Until an order for the compulsory purchase of any such antiquities is made under sub-section (3), the Director or the licensee, as the case may be, shall keep them in such safe custody as he may deem fit.(3)On receipt of a report under sub-section (1), the State Government may make an order for the compulsory purchase of any antiquities at their market value.(4)When an order for the compulsory purchase of any antiquities is made under sub-section (3), such antiquities shall vest in the State Government with effect from the date of the order.Protection of Antiquities

23. Power of State Government to control moving of antiquities.

(1)If the State Government considers it necessary in the public interest that any antiquity or class of antiquities should not be moved from the place where it is without the sanction of the State Government the State Government may, by notification, direct that any antiquity or class of antiquities shall not be moved except with the written permission of the Director.(2)Every application for permission under sub-section (1), shall be in such form and contain such particulars as may be prescribed.(3)Any person aggrieved by an order refusing permission may appeal to the State Government, whose decision shall be final.(4)If the Owner of any property proves to the satisfaction of the State Government that he has suffered any loss or, damage by reason of the inclusion of such property in the notification published under sub-section (1), the State Government shall either-(a)exempt such property from the said notification; or(b)acquire such property, if it be movable, at its market value; or(c)pay compensation for any loss or damage sustained by the owner of such property, if it be immovable.

23A. [Declaration as to any antiquity and intimation regarding transfer or acquisition. - (1) Every person who owns or is in possession, custody or control of any antiquity prior to the 6th day of June, 1970 shall, within a period of six months thereof, make a declaration to that effect to such authority and in such form as may be prescribed.] [Inserted by M.P. Act No. 29 of 1970.]

(2)As from the 6th day of June, 1970, every person who-(a)intends to sell or transfer any antiquity which is in his possession, custody, or control; or(b)intends to acquire by purchase or otherwise any antiquity; or(c)comes in possession, custody or control of any antiquity by purchase, gift, inheritance or otherwise;shall give intimation in writing,-(i)where such person falls under category (a) or (b) above, of his intention to sell or transfer or acquire, as the case may be, any such antiquity; and(ii)where such person falls under category (c) above of the fact of his coming in possession, custody or control of any such antiquity to such authority, within such time and in such form as may be prescribed.

23B. [Report regarding loss of antiquity. [Inserted by M.P. Act No. 28 of 1970.]

- Every person who owns or is in possession, custody or control of any antiquity shall, in the event of its loss or destruction, give intimation within seven days of the loss or destruction thereof to such authority and in such form as may be prescribed and on his failure to do so it shall, unless the contrary is proved, be presumed that he has disposed of the antiquity in contravention of the provisions of Section 23A].

23C. [Nothing contained in Sections 23-A and 23-B shall apply to the Archaeological Survey of India, its offices and Museums and all personnel employed therein while performing the functions and discharging the duties in their official capacity.] [Inserted by M.P. Act No. 38 of 1973.]

24. Purchase of antiquity by State Government.

(1) If the State Government apprehends that any antiquity is in danger of being destroyed, injured, misused or allowed to fall into decay, or is of opinion that, by reason of its historical or archaeological importance it is desirable to preserve such antiquity in a public place, the State Government may make an order for the compulsory purchase of such antiquity as its market-value, and the Director shall thereupon give notice to the owner of the antiquity to be purchased. (2) Where a notice of compulsory purchase is issued under sub-section (1) in respect of any antiquity, it shall vest in the State Government with effect from the date of the notice. (3) The power of compulsory purchase given by this section shall not extend to any image or symbol actually used for bona fide religious observance. Principles of Compensation

25. Compensation for loss or damage.

- Any owner or occupier of land who has sustained any loss or damage or any diminution of profits from the land by reason of any entry on, or excavations in, such land or the exercise of any other power conferred by this Act shall be paid compensation by the State Government for such loss, damage or diminution of profits.

26. Assessment of market value or compensation.

(1) The market value of any property which the State Government is empowered to purchase at such value under this Act or the compensation to be paid by the State Government in respect of anything done under this Act shall, where any dispute arises in respect of such market value or compensation, be ascertained in the manner provided in Sections 3, 5, 8 to 34, 45 to 47, 51 and 52 of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I of 1894), so far as they can be made applicable. (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) or in the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1894), in determining the market value of any antiquity in respect of which an order for compulsory purchase is made under sub-section (3) of Section 22 or under sub-section (1) of Section 24, any increase in the value of the antiquity by reason of its being of historical or archaeological importance shall not be taken into consideration.

27. Special provisions as to compensation under Section 16.

(1) No person shall be entitled to compensation in respect of any notification issued under sub-Section (1) of Section 16 unless, within three months from the date on which such notification comes into force, or within such further time as the State Government may in special circumstances allow, he makes a claim for the purpose in the prescribed manner. (2) A person shall not be entitled to compensation by reason of the fact that any act or thing done or caused to be done by him has been rendered abortive by such notification if, or so far as, the act or thing was done after the date on which the notification was issued, or by reason of the fact that the performance of any contract made by him after that date is prohibited as a result of the notification. (3) Where any provision of such notification was immediately before the notification came into force already in force by virtue of any other Act, no compensation shall be payable by reason of any property being injuriously affected by that provision of the notification, if compensation has been paid or could have been claimed, or was not payable, by reason of that property having been injuriously affected by the provisions already in force.(4)Where any provision of such notification could immediately before it comes into force, have been validly included in a scheme, order, regulation or by-law by virtue of any other Act, then,-(a)if no compensation would have been payable by reason of the inclusion of that provision in that scheme, order, regulation or bye-law, no compensation shall be payable in respect of that provision of that notification; and(b)if compensation would have been so payable, the compensation payable in respect of that provision of the notification shall not be greater than the compensation which would have been so payable.(5)Any dispute as the amount of the sum which is to be paid as compensation in respect of such a notification shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 26.

28. Delegation of powers.

- The State Government may, by notification, direct that any powers conferred on it by or under this Act shall, subject to such conditions as may be specified in the direction be also exercisable by such office or authority subordinate to the State Government as may be specified in the direction.

29. Penalties.

- [(1) Whoever-(i)destroys, removes, injures, alters, defaces, imperils or misuses a State-protected monument; or(ii)being the owner or occupier of a State-protected monument, contravenes an order made under sub-Section (1) of Section 8 or under sub-Section (1) of Section 9; or(iii)removes from a State-protected monument any sculpture, carving, image, base-relief, inscription, or other like objects; or(iv)does any act in contravention of sub-section (1) of Section 19; or(v)removes any antiquity in contravention of sub-section (1) of Section 23; or(vi) (a)fails to make a declaration under sub-section (1) of Section 23-A; or(b)fails to give intimation under sub-section (2) of Section 23-A or(vii)fails to give intimation under Section 23-B; shall,-(a)in the case of an offence falling under clause (i), (ii) or (iii) be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three years and in the absence of special and adequate reasons to be mentioned in the judgment of the Court, such imprisonment shall not be less than six months and in addition may be punishable with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees;(b)In the case of an offence falling under clause (iv), (v), (vi) or (vii) be punishable with imprisonment which may extend to three years or with fine which may extend to ten thousand rupees, or with both;and in the case of an offence falling under clause (vi) or (vii) that Court may, in addition, order the forfeiture of the antiquity in respect of which offence has been committed.] Substituted by M.P. Act No. 29 of 1970.Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of a notification issued under sub-section (1) of Section 16 shall, on conviction, be punished with fine, which may extend to two thousand rupees, and if the contravention is continued after conviction, with a further fine which may extend to five rupees for each day on which the contravention is so continued, and if such contravention is continued after the expiry of such period as the Court may determine, the State Government shall in addition have power to do all such acts as in its opinion are necessary for removing so much of the building, structure or work as is not in conformity with the provisions of the notification for making it in conformity with such provisions, and any expense incurred by the State Government shall be recoverable from the person convicted as an arrear of land revenue.(3)Any person who moves any antiquity in contravention of a notification issued under sub-section (1) of Section 23 shall be punishable with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees; and the Court convicting a person of any such contravention may, by order, direct such person to restore the antiquity to the place from which it was moved.

30. Jurisdiction to try offences.

- No Court inferior to that of a Magistrate of the first class shall try any offence under this Act.

31. Certain offences to be cognizable.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in the [Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898)] [Now see Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (2 of 1974).], an offence under clause (i) or clause (iii) of sub-section (1) of Section 29, shall be deemed to be a cognizable offence within the meaning of that Code.

32. Special provision regarding fine.
