9. Prescribed authority.

- The Chief Inspector of Factories shall be the authority competent to approve, under sub-section (1) of Section 8, acts and omissions in respect of which fines may be imposed and, under sub-section (1) of Section 8, the purposes on which the proceeds of fines shall be expended.

10. Application in respect of fines.

- Every employer requiring the power to impose fines in respect of any acts and omissions on the part of employed persons shall send to the Chief Inspector of Factories -(a)a list, in English in duplicate, clearly defining such acts and omissions;(b)in cases where the employer himself does not intend to be the sole person empowered to impose fines, a list in duplicate, showing those appointments in his factory of which the incumbents may pass orders imposing fines and the class of establishment on which the incumbent of each such appointment may impose fines.

11. Approval of list of acts and omission.

- The authority appointed under Rule 9 on receipt of the list prescribed in clause (a) of the preceeding Rule may, after such enquiry as he considers necessary, pass orders either -(a)disapproving the list;(b)approving the list either in its original form or as amended by him in which case such list shall be considered to be an approved list:Provided that no order disapproving or amending any such list shall be passed unless the employer shall have been given an opportunity of showing cause orally or in writing why the list as submitted by him should be approved.

12. Posting of list.

- The employer shall display at or near the main entrance of the factory or industrial establishment a copy in English, together with a literal translation thereof, in the language of the majority of the persons employed therein, of the list approved under Rule 11.

13. Persons authorised to impose fines.

- No fine may be imposed by any person other than an employer, or a person holding an appointment named in a list submitted under Rule 10.

14. Procedure in imposing fines and deductions.

- Any person desiring to impose a fine on an employed person or to make deduction for damage or loss shall explain personally to the said person the act or omission, or damage or loss, in respect of which the fine or deduction is proposed to be imposed and the amount of fine or deduction, which it is proposed to impose, and shall hear his explanation in the presence of at least one other person.

15. Information to paymaster.

- The person imposing a fine or directing the making of a deduction for damage or loss shall at once inform the paymaster of all particulars, so that the register prescribed in Rule 3 or Rule 4 may be duly completed. Section 26(3) (g)

16. Deductions for breach of contract.

(1) No deduction for breach of contract shall be made from the wages of an employed person who is under the age of fifteen years or is a woman. (2) No deduction for breach of contract shall be made from the wages of any employed person unless - (a) there is provision in writing forming part of the terms of the contract of employment requiring him to give notice of the termination of his employment and; (i) the period of this notice does not exceed fifteen days or the wage period, whichever is less; and (ii) the period of this notice does not exceed the period of notice which the employer is required to give of the termination of that employment; (b) this Rule has been displayed in English and in the language of the majority of the employed persons at or near the main entrance of the factory or industrial establishment and has been so displayed for not less than one month before the commencement of the absence in respect of which the deduction is made; (c) a notice has been displayed at or near the main entrance of the factory or industrial establishment giving the names of the persons from whom the deduction is proposed to be made, the number of days' wages to be deducted and the conditions (if any) on which the deduction will be remitted: Provided that where the deduction is proposed to be made from all the persons employed in any departments or Sections of the factory, or industrial establishment it shall be sufficient, in lieu of giving the names of the persons in such departments or Section to specify the departments or Sections affected. (3) No deduction for breach of contract shall exceed the wages of the person employed for the period by which the notice of termination of service given falls short of the period of such notice required by the contract of employment. (4) If any conditions have been specified in the notice displayed under clause (c) of sub-rule (2), no deduction for breach of contract shall be made from any person who has complied with these conditions. Section 26 (3) (i)

17. Advances.

(1) An advance of wages not already earned shall not, without the previous permission of an Inspector, exceed an amount equivalent to the wages earned by the employed person during the preceding two calendar months, or if he has not been employed for that period, twice the wages he is like to earn during the two subsequent calendar months. (2) The advance may be recovered in instalments by deductions from wages spread over not more than twelve months. No instalments shall exceed one-third, or where the wages for any wage-period are not more than twenty rupees, one-fourth of the wages for the wage-period in respect of which the deduction is made. 1. [The Act applies to the wages payable to persons employed in any factory or industrial establishment in respect of a wage period which over such wage period, average four hundred rupees per month or less.] [Substituted by Notification No. 11/W5-1011/60 L & E - dated 12.05.1962.]

2. No employed person can give up by contract, or agreement, his rights under the Act.

Definition of wages

3. ["Wages" means all remuneration (whether by way of salary, allowances or otherwise) expressed in terms of money or capable of being so expressed which would, if the terms of employment, express or implied, were fulfilled, be payable to a person employed in respect of his employment or of work done in such employment, and includes -

(a)any remuneration payable under any award or settlement between the parties or order of a court;(b)any remuneration to which the person employed is entitled in respect of overtime work or holidays or any leave period;(c)any additional remuneration payable under the terms of employment (whether called a bonus or by any other name);(d)any sum which by reason of the termination of employment of the person employed is payable under any law, contract or instrument which provides for the payment of such sum whether or without deductions, but does not provide for the time within which the payment is to be made;(e)any sum to which the person employed is entitled under any scheme framed under any law for the time being in force; but does not include -(1)any bonus (whether under a scheme of profit-sharing or otherwise) which does not form part of the remuneration payable under the terms of employment or which is not payable under any award or settlement between the parties or order of court;(2)the value of any house-accommodation or of the supply of light, water, medical attendance, or, other amenity or of any service excluded from the computation of wages by a general or special order of the State Government;(3)any contribution paid by the employer to any pension or provident fund, and the interest which may have accrued thereon;(4)any travelling allowance or the value of any travelling concession;(5)any sum paid to the employed person to defray special expenses entitled by him on the nature of his employment; or(6)any gratuity payable on the termination of employment in cases other than those specified in sub-clause (d);]Responsibility for and method of payment

4. [Every employer shall be responsible for the payment to persons employed by him of all wages required to be paid under the Act:

Provided that, in the case of persons employed (otherwise than by a contractor) -(a)in factories, if person has been named as the manager of the factory under Clause (f) of sub-section (1) of Section 7 of the Factories Act, 1948;(b)in industrial establishments, if there is a person responsible to the employer for the supervision and control of the industrial establishment;(c)upon railways (otherwise than in factories), if the employer is the railway administration and the railway administration has nominated a person in this behalf for the local area concerned; the person so named, the person so responsible to the employer, or the person so nominated, as the case may be shall be responsible for such payment.]Responsibility for and method of payment

5. Wage-periods shall be fixed for the payment of wages at intervals not exceeding one month.

6. Wages shall be paid on a working day within 7 days of the end of the wage-period (or within 10 days if 1,000 or more persons are employed).

The wages of a person discharged shall be paid not later than the second working day after his discharge.

7. Payments in kind are prohibited.

Fines and deductions

8. No deduction shall be made from wages except those authorised under the Act (see paragraph 9-15 below).

(1)Fines can be imposed only for such acts and omissions as the employer may, with the previous approval of the Chief Inspector of Factories, specify by a notice displayed at or near the main entrance of the factory and after giving the employed person an opportunity for explanation.(2)Fines -(a)shall not exceed half- an-ana (Now 3 Paise) in the rupee;(b)shall not be recovered by instalments, or later than sixty days of the date of imposition.(c)shall be recorded in a register and applied to such purposes beneficial to the employed persons as are approved by the Chief Inspector of Factories;(d)shall not be imposed on a child.

10. (a) Deductions for absence from duty can be made only on account of the absence of the employed person at times when he should be working, and such deductions must not exceed an amount which is the same proportion to his wages for the wage-period, as the time he was absent in that period is the total time he should have been at work.

(b)If ten or more employed persons acting in concert absent themselves without reasonable cause and without due notice, the deduction for absence can include wages for eight days in lieu of notice but -(1)no deduction for breaking a contract can be made from a person under 15 or a woman;(2)there must be a provision in writing which forms part of the contract of employment, requiring that a specific period of notice of intention to cease work not exceeding 15 days of the period of notice which the employer has to give to discharge a worker, must be given to the employer and that wages may be deducted in lieu of such notice;(3)the above provisions must be displayed at or near the main entrance of the factory;(4)no deduction of this nature can be made until a notice that this deduction is to be made has been posted at or near the main entrance of the factory;(5)no deduction must exceed the wages of the employed person for the period by which the notice he gives of leaving employment, is less than the notice he should give under his contract.

11. Deductions can be made for damage to or loss of goods expressly entrusted to an employed person or for loss of money for which he is required to account, where such damage or loss is due to his neglect or default.

Such deduction cannot exceed the amount of the damage or loss caused and can be made only after giving the employed person an opportunity for explanation.

12. [Deductions can be made, equivalent to the value thereof, for house accommodation supplied by the employer or by Government or by any housing board set up under any law for the time being in force (whether the Government or the Board is the employer or not) or by any other authority engaged in the business of subsidising house-accommodation which may be specified in this behalf by the State Government by notification in the Official Gazette, and for amenities or services (other than tools and raw materials required for the purposes of employment) supplied by the employer provided these are accepted by the employed person as a part of terms of his employment and have, in the case of amenities and services, been authorised by order of Government.] [Substituted by Notification No. 11/W5-1011/60 L & E - dated 12.05.1962.]

13. (a) Deductions can be made for the recovery of advances, for adjustment of overpayment of wages.

(b)Advances made before the employment began can only be recovered from the first payment of wages for a complete wages-period but no recovery can be made of advances given for travelling expenses before employment began.(c)Advances of unearned wages can be made at the paymaster's discretion during employment but must not exceed the amount of two months wages without the permission of an Inspector.These advances can be recovered by instalments, spread over not more than 12 months and the instalments must not exceed 1 /3rd, or if the wages are not more than 20,1 /4th of the wages for any wage period.

14. Deductions can be made for subscription to, and for repayment of, advances from any recognised provident fund.
