Part A

Establishment of Fair Price Shop

3. Power to authorise fair price shop holder.

- The Deputy Commissioner or any officer authorised by him in this behalf, may, by order, authorise any person or body of persons to be a fair price shop holder in respect of any foodgrains for the purpose of this Order.

4. Power to direct sale.

(1)Every person holding in stock any foodgrains shall sell his stock to the Administrator as and when called upon to do so by an order in writing issued on behalf of the Administrator by the Deputy Commissioner having jurisdiction.(2)Every order issued under sub-Clause (1) shall specify the following particulars, namely :(a)the quantity, class and grade of foodgrains held in stock by such person;(b)the period within which the foodgrains directed to be sold by such person are to be delivered.

Part B

Regulation of Sale, Purchase and Storage for Sale

5. Dealings to be licensed.

- No person shall engage in any business which involves the purchase, sale or storage for sale of any foodgrains in wholesale quantities except under and in accordance with the terms and conditions of licence issued under this Order :Provided that nothing in this clause in so far as sale or storage of foodgrains is concerned shall apply to a producer.Explanation. - The expression "purchase or sale in wholesale quantities" means purchase or sale in quantities exceeding 5 (five) quintals in any one transaction and the expression "storage for sale in wholesale quantities" means the storage in quantities exceeding 20 (twenty) quintals.

6. Application for licence.

- Any application for a licence under this Order shall be made in Form I to the licensing authority.

7. Matters to be taken into consideration for granting a licence.

(1) In granting or refusing a licence under this Order, the licensing authority shall, among other matters, have regard to the following, namely : (a) the stock of foodgrains available in the locality for which the licence is required ; (b) the number of persons who have applied for and those who have been granted licences in respect of the foodgrains under this Order in the locality ; (c) the business ordinarily carried on by the applicant ; (d) the past activities of the applicant as a licensee or businessman/firm ; and (e) whether the applicant is a co-operative society. (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-clause (1), the Chief Commissioner may, if he is of opinion that it is necessary to channelise distribution of foodgrains through any special or specialised agencies or channels (including Co-operative Societies) direct the licensing authority to grant a licence under this Order only to such agencies or channels.

8. Issue of licences.

- Every licence issued under this Order shall be in Form II.

9. Deposit of security.

- Every person applying for licence under this Order shall, before the licence issued to him, deposit with the licensing authority a security as specified in the table below for the due performance of the conditions subject to which the licence is granted to him : TABLE

Amount of turnover	Amount of security
1. Rs. 25,000 or less	Rs. 300
2. More than Rs. 25,000 and up to Rs. 50,000	Rs. 500
3. More than Rs. 50,000 and up to Rs. 75,000	Rs. 800

5. More than Rs. 1,00,000	Rs. 1,500

10. Forfeiture of security deposit.

(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of Clause 16 if the licensing authority is satisfied that the licensee has contravened any of the conditions of the licence and that a forfeiture of the security deposit is called for, he may, after giving the licensee a reasonable opportunity of stating his case against the forfeiture, by order forfeit the whole or any part of the security deposited by him and communicate a copy of the order to the licensee. (2) The licensee shall, if the amount of security at any times falls short of the amount specified in Clause 9 forthwith deposit further security to make up that amount on being required by the licensing authority to do so. (3) Upon due compliance by the licensee with all the conditions of the licence, the amount of security or such part thereof, which is not forfeited as aforesaid shall be returned to the licensee after the termination of the licence.

11. Period of validity of licence.

- Every licence issued under this Order shall be valid till one year next following the date of issue.

12. Fee for licence.

- The fee payable for a licence under this Order shall be Rs. 5.

13. Duplicate licence.

- If the licensing authority is satisfied that a licence issued under this Order is defaced, lost or destroyed or otherwise rendered useless, he may, on application made in that behalf by the licensee and on payment of a fee of Rs. 10, issue a duplicate licence.

14. Maintenance of accounts.

- Every licensee shall maintain correct and true accounts in respect of his business in such form and manner as the Director may specify.

15. Compliance with order and direction.

- Every licensee to whom any order or direction is issued under any powers conferred by or under this Order shall comply with such order or direction.

16. Cancellation of licence.

- If any licensee, either by himself or through his agent or servant acting on his behalf contravenes any of the provisions of this Order or any of the conditions of the licence then, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him the authority issuing the licence may, after giving him an opportunity for filing his objections, cancel the licence. A copy of the order cancelling the licence shall also be sent to the licensee.

17. Suspension of licence.

- During pendency or in contemplation of proceedings for cancellation of a licence under Clause 16, the authority issuing the licence may suspend the licence without giving any opportunity to the licensee of stating his case. A copy of the orders suspending the licence shall be sent to the licensee.

18. Disposal of stocks in certain cases.

- Where a licence is suspended or cancelled under Clauses 16 and 17, the Director or the Deputy Commissioner may, by order, direct the person whose licence is suspended or cancelled to dispose of the stock of foodgrains with him in such manner and within such time as may be specified in the order.

19. Appeals.

- Appeals against the orders of the Deputy Commissioner shall lie to the Director, and appeals against the original order of the Director shall lie to the Chief Commissioner within thirty days of the date of communication of the order appeal against.

Part C
