The Punjab Passengers and Goods Taxation Act, 1952 Punjab Act No. 16 of 1952 Statement of Objects and Reasons - Haryana Act 10 of 2004. - Transport Department has set up 'Tax Collection Points' at borders of the State or at other places in the State for providing facility of payment of tax under the Punjab Passengers and Goods Taxation Act, 1952, particularly for vehicles coming from outside the State. A definition is being inserted in Section 2 of the Act as clause (ia) for this purpose and correspondingly a clause (aa) is being inserted in Section 22 relating to rule making power for prescribing places where Tax Collection Points will be set up in the State or at the borders of the State. The upper limit of amount of penalty provided in Section 14A of the Punjab Passengers and Goods Taxation Act, 1952, for violation of the provisions of the Act or the rules made thereunder is two thousand rupees. It is not sufficient to cover all cases of overload in a vehicle in excess of the load certified and registered by the registering authority under the Motor Vehicles Act, 1988, as permissible for that vehicle. The upper limit is being increased to five thousand rupees. An officer appointed to assist the Commissioner under the Act will be empowered to impose this penalty. Haryana Government Gazette (Extra.), dated February 5, 2004, Page 261. Statement of Objects and Reasons - Haryana Act 6 of 2002. - If there are some arrears of goods tax and passenger tax against the owners of goods carriers and passenger vehicles, sometimes it is difficult to recover this tax in lump-sum and it has to be recovered in instalments. At present there is no provision for allowing the payment in instalments. For this purpose, the provision in the P.G.T. Act for making payment in instalments is to be made in the Act. Similarly there is no provision for charging of interest in the P.G.T. Act on delayed payments made by the owners. A provision for this is also to be made in the Act. This requires amendment in Section 4 and insertion of 14B in the Punjab Passengers and Goods Taxation Act, 1952. Hence, this Bill. Haryana Government Gazette (Extra.), dated 5 March, 2002, Page 383. Statement of Objects and Reasons. - Some definitions were changed in the new Motor Vehicle Act, 1988 which were required to be defined in the Punjab Passengers and Goods Taxation Act, 1952. Moreover, there was no power with the Government to amend the Act retrospectively which was required to amend the rates of overloading. Hence this Bill. Haryana Government Gazette (Extra.), dated 28th October, 2002, Page 2086. [1st September, 1952] Received
