(a)the rights and liabilities of a tenure-holder, as recorded in the annual register prepared under Section 10, are, subject to the deductions, if any, made on account of contributions to public purposes under this Act, secured in the lands allotted to him;(b)the valuation of plots allotted to a tenure-holder, subject to deductions, if any, made on account of contributions to public purposes under this Act is equal to the valuation of plots originally held by him :Provided that, except with the permission of the Director of Consolidation, the area of the holding or holdings allotted to a tenure-holder shall not differ from the area of his original holding or holdings by more than twenty five per cent of the latter;(c)the compensation determined under the provisions of this Act, or the rules framed thereunder, is awarded -(1)to the tenure-holder -(i)for trees, wells and other improvements, originally held by him and allotted to another tenure-holder, and(ii)for land contributed by him for public purposes;(2)to the Gaon Sabha, or any other local authority, as the case may be, for development, if any, effected by it in or over land belonging to it and allotted to a tenure-holder;(d)the principles laid down in the Statement of Principles are followed;(e)every tenure-holder is, as far as possible, allotted a compact area at the place where he holds the largest part of his holding :Provided that no tenure-holder may be allotted more chaks than three, except with the approval in writing of the Deputy Director of Consolidation :Provided further that no consolidation made shall be invalid for the reason merely that the number of chaks allotted to a tenure-holder exceeds three;(f)every tenure-holder is, as far as possible, allotted the plot on which exists his private source of irrigation or any other improvement, together with an area in the vicinity equal to the valuation of the plots originally held by him there; and(g)every tenure-holder is, as far as possible, allotted chaks in conformity with the process of rectangulation in rectangulation units.(2)A Consolidation Scheme before it is made final under Section 23, shall be provisionally drawn up in accordance with the provisions of Section 19-A.] [Substituted by U.P. Act No. 8 of 1963.]

19A. [Preparation of provisional Consolidation Scheme by the Assistant Consolidation Officer. - (1) The Assistant Consolidation Office shall in consultation with the Consolidation Committee, prepare in the form prescribed a provisional Consolidation Scheme for the unit.

(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Uttar Pradesh Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950, or any other law for the time being in force, it shall be lawful for the Assistant Consolidation Officer, where in his opinion it is necessary or expedient so to do, to allot to a tenure-holder, after determining its valuation,] [Added by U.P. Act No. 8 of 1963.] [any land belonging to the State Government, or] [Inserted by U.P. Act No. 30 of 1991 (w.e.f. 19.02.1991).] any land vested in the Gaon Sabha, or any other local authority, as a result of notification issued under Section 117 or 117-A of the Uttar Pradesh Zamindari Abolition and Land Reforms Act, 1950 :Provided that where any such land is used for a public purpose, it shall be allotted only after the Assistant Consolidation Officer has declared in writing that it is proposed to transfer the rights of the public as well as of all individuals in or over that land to any other land specified in the declaration and earmarked for that purpose in the provisional Consolidation Scheme.

20. [Publication of the provisional Consolidation Scheme and receipt of objections thereon. - (1) Upon the preparation of the provisional Consolidation Scheme, the Assistant Consolidation Officer shall send, or cause to be sent, to the tenure-holders concerned and persons interested, notices containing relevant extracts therefrom. The provisional Consolidation Scheme shall thereafter be published in the unit.

(2) Subject to the provisions contained in Section 11-A, any person to whom notice has been sent under sub-section (1) and any other person affected by the provisional Consolidation Scheme, disputing the propriety or correctness of the entries in the provisional Consolidation Scheme, or in the extracts furnished therefrom may, within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice, or of the date of the publication of the provisional Consolidation Scheme, as the case may be, file an objection before the Assistant Consolidation Officer or the Consolidation Officer. (3) Any person affected, or any person having any interest or right, in addition to the right of public highway, in or over any public land, or having other interest or right which is substantially prejudiced by the declaration made under sub-section (2) of Section 19-A, may within fifteen days after the publication of the provisional Consolidation Scheme, file an objection before the Assistant Consolidation Officer or the Consolidation Officer stating the nature of such interest or right.] [Substituted by U.P. On receipt of the application within the specified time, the Consolidation Officer or the Tahsildar, as the case may be, shall pass such orders as may be necessary because of the decision under sub-section (2) of Section 22 for finalising what had remained provisional.(3)Any person aggrieved by the order of the Consolidation Officer or the Tahsildar may, within 15 days of the order, file an appeal before the Settlement Officer, Consolidation, or the Assistant Collector Incharge of the Sub-Division, as the case may be. The order made under this sub-section shall be final.(4)The Consolidation Officer or the Tahsildar, as the case may be, shall cause delivery of actual possession of reallocated chaks to be made to such party as the final order under sub-section (2) or (3) may require and for so doing shall have all the powers including powers as regards contempt, resistance and the like as are exercisable by a Civil Court in execution of a decree for delivering possession of immovable property.']]

27. [New revenue records. - (1) As soon as may be, after the final Consolidation Scheme has come into force, the District Deputy Director of Consolidation shall cause to be prepared for each village, a new map, field-book and record of rights in respect of the consolidation area, on the basis of the entries in the map, as corrected under Section 7, the Khasra chakbandi, the annual register prepared under Section 10 and the allotment orders as finally made and issued in accordance with the provisions of this Act. The provisions of the Uttar Pradesh Land Revenue Act, 1901, shall, subject to such modifications and alterations as may be prescribed, be followed in the preparation of the said map and records.] [Substituted by U.P. Act No. 8 of 1963.]

(2)[All entries in the record of rights prepared in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be presumed to be true until the contrary is proved.(3)After the issue of notification under Section 52, the Collector shall, instead of the map, field-book and record-of-rights previously maintained by him, maintain the map, field-book and record of rights prepared in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1)] [Substituted by U.P. Act No. 12 of 1965 and shall be deemed always to have been substituted.] [and the provisions of the U.P. Land Revenue Act, 1901, relating to the maintenance and correction of such map, field-book and record-of-rights shall mutatis mutandis apply] [Substituted, by U.P. Act No. 34 of 1974 (w.e.f. 7.12.1974).].

28. [Delivery of possession. - (1) The Assistant Consolidation Officer, on the application of the tenure-holder or the Land Management Committee, to whom chak or lands have been allotted under the final Consolidation Scheme,] [Substituted by U.P. Act No. 8 of 1963.] [may, and where any land has been allotted to the State Government shall, without any application of the State Government, within six months of the date on which the said Scheme has come into force, put the tenure-holder or the Land Management Committee or the State Government, as the case may be, in actual physical possession of the allotted chak or lands,] [Substituted by U.P Act No. 30 of 1991 (w.e.f. 19.02.1991).]; and for so doing shall have all the powers, including powers as regards contempt, resistance and the like as are exercisable by a Civil Court in execution of a decree for delivery of possession of immovable property :

Provided that the delivery of possession as aforesaid shall not affect the right of the person from whom possession is transferred to tend and gather the crops standing on such chaks or land or part thereof, on the date of the delivery, unless the Assistant Consolidation Officer decides, for reasons to be recorded, that the possession over the crop also shall be delivered :Provided further that the person tending and gathering the standing crop, in accordance with the first proviso, shall be liable to pay to the persons who have been allotted the chak, or lands, compensation for the use of the land at such rate and in such manner as may be prescribed.(2)On the expiry of six months from the date on which a tenure-holder or Land Management Committee [or the State Government] [Inserted by U.P. Act No. 30 of 1991 (w.e.f. 19.02.1991).] became entitled to enter into possession of the chak or lands allotted, whether before or after the coming into force of the Uttar Pradesh Consolidation of Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1962, or on the expiry of six months from the date of the coming into force of that Act, whichever is later, the tenure-holder or the Land Management Committee [or the State Government] [Inserted by U.P. Act No. 30 of 1991 (w.e.f. 19.02.1991).], as the case may be, shall, unless possession has been obtained earlier, be deemed to have entered into actual physical possession of the allotted chak or lands ;Provided that the fact that a tenure-holder or Land Management Committee [or the State Government] [Inserted by U.P. Act No. 30 of 1991 (w.e.f. 19.02.1991).] has thus entered into possession shall not affect the right of the person from whom possession is deemed to have been transferred to tend and gather the crop standing on the chak or lands, or part thereof, on the date of the expiry of the period of six months aforesaid.

29. Compensation.

(1)Where possession over standing crops also is delivered under Section 28, the Assistant

Consolidation Officer shall determine in the manner prescribed the compensation payable in respect of such crops by the tenure-holder put in possession [* * *] Deleted by U.P. Act No. 24 of 1956.[Any person aggrieved by an order under sub-section (1) may, within fifteen days of the date of the order, prefer an appeal before the Consolidation Officer, whose decision thereon shall be final.] [Added by U.P. Substituted by U.P. Act No. 24 of 1956. Prior to substitution, it stood as under :-52. Close of consolidation operation.- As soon as may be after the tenure-holders have entered into possession of their new holding in pursuance of Section 26, the State Government shall issue a notification in the Official Gazette that the consolidation operations have been closed in the village and the village shall then cease to be under consolidation operation.

52A. [Special Provisions for Chak Roads and Chak Guls. - (1) In the case of a unit in relation to which a notification under sub-section (1) of Section 52 has been issued before the commencement of the Uttar Pradesh Consolidation of Holdings (Amendment) Act, 1970, the Collector may, if he is of opinion that there exists no provision or inadequate provision of Chak Roads or Chak Guls in the unit and shall, if a representation in that behalf by not less than ten per cent of the total number of tenure-holders is made to him within six months of the said commencement, proceed to take action under sub-section (2), anything to the contrary contained in Section 52 notwithstanding.

(2)The Collector shall cause a notice of the proposal to take action under this section and also of the representation, if any, received under sub-section (1) to be given in the unit by beat of drum and in such other manner, if any, as he thinks fit, and direct any Consolidation Officer to inspect the locality and take reasonable steps to ascertain the wishes of the tenure-holders, or, as the case may be, of such of them as have not joined in the representation, and to make such other inquiry into the matter as he thinks fit.(3)Such Consolidation Officer shall make a report to the Collector on the advisability or otherwise of drawing up a plan making provision or, as the case may be, more adequate provision for Chak Roads or Chak Guls in the unit, and the Collector on being satisfied after considering such report that it is necessary or expedient so to do, shall cause a draft plan to be prepared.(4)The Assistant Consolidation Officer shall thereupon, after ascertaining informally the wishes of as many tenure-holders of the unit as he considers practicable, prepare a draft plan in the prescribed form proposing such provision or additional provision of Chak Roads or Chak Guls, as may be necessary. In preparing the draft plan, the Assistant Consolidation Officer shall have regard to the following principles, namely :-(a)That as far as practicable, provision of Chak Roads and Chak Guls should be made primarily by utilising land vested in the Gaon Sabha and secondarily out of land held by those tenure-holders whose Chaks are connected with the proposed Chak Roads or Chak Guls, and in the last resort, out of any other land.(b)The re-arrangement of Chaks should be made only to the extent it is really necessary for making provision of Chak Roads and Chak Guls with the minimum possible dislocation in the Consolidation Scheme already confirmed.(5)The draft plan prepared under sub-section (4) shall be published in the prescribed manner.(6)Any person affected by the draft plan may, within 15 days from the date of such publication, file an objection in writing before the Consolidation Officer.(7)(a)The Consolidation Officer shall dispose of all objections after notice to the parties concerned.(b)Any person aggrieved by the order of the Consolidation Officer under clause (a) may, within 15 days from the date of the order, file an appeal before the Settlement Officer, Consolidation, whose decision thereon shall be final.(c)Before deciding the objections under clause (a), the Consolidation Officer, and before deciding the appeal under clause (b), the Settlement Officer, Consolidation, may make a local inspection of the site in dispute after notice to the parties concerned.(d)It shall be lawful, for reasons to be recorded in writing for the Consolidation Officer under clause (a) and the Settlement Officer, Consolidation, under clause (b) to modify the draft plan in accordance with the principles specified in sub-section (4) and for the Settlement Officer, Consolidation, to remand the same either to the Consolidation Officer or to the Assistant Consolidation Officer with such directions as he thinks fit.(8)The Settlement Officer, Consolidation, shall confirm the plan -(a)if no objections are filed within the time specified in sub-section (6); or(b)where such objections are filed, after such modifications or alterations, as may be necessary, in view of the orders passed on objections and appeals under sub-section (7).(9)The plan confirmed under sub-section (8) shall be published in the unit in the prescribed manner and shall come into force on the date of such publication, and thereupon the Consolidation Scheme and the allotment orders made final under Section 23 shall stand amended to the extent indicated in the plan, and fresh allotment orders shall be issued by the Settlement Officer, Consolidation, accordingly.(10)The provisions of Chapter IV shall mutatis mutandis apply in relation to the said plan as they apply in relation to the final Consolidation Scheme, and for the purposes of application of Chapter IV, land contributed for Chak Roads and Chak Guls provided under this section shall be deemed to be land contributed for public purposes under Section 8-A.] [Inserted by U.P. Act No. 31 of 1970 (w.e.f. 16.9.1970).]

53. [Mutual exchange of chaks between tenure-holders. - It shall be lawful for the Settlement Officer, Consolidation, at any stage of the consolidation proceedings but before the preparation of the final records under Section 27, to allow mutual exchange of chaks or part thereof] [Added by U.P. Act No. 38 of 1958.] [by agreement] [Added by U.P. Act No. 8 of 1963.] between the tenure-holders where he is satisfied that the exchange will improve the shape of chaks, or reduce their number and generally lead to greater satisfaction amongst them.

53A. [Recognition of consolidation scheme prepared by tenure-holders. - (1) The Deputy Director, Consolidation may recognize a] [Added by U.P. Act No. 38 of 1958.] [Consolidation Scheme] [Substituted, by U.P. Act No. 8 of 1963.] in respect of a village, whether within or without a consolidation area, prepared voluntarily by the tenure-holders of the village, where he is satisfied that it conforms to the broad principles of consolidation under this Act, and has the support of all the tenure-holders concerned and is otherwise fair to all concerned.

(2)The [Consolidation Scheme] [Substituted by U.P. Act No. 8 of 1963.] recognized under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to have been prepared and confirmed under the provisions of this Act; and shall be enforced thereunder.

53B. [Limitation. - The provisions of Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1963, shall apply to the applications, appeals revisions and other proceedings under this Act or the rules made thereunder.] [Added by U.P. Act No. 38 of 1958.]
