"CHAPTER IX-AAutonomous Colleges

48A. Conferment of autonomy on colleges in certain matters.- (1) Any affiliated college or University college may by a letter addressed to the Registrar, apply to the Syndicate to allow the college to enjoy autonomy in the matters of admission of students to the College, prescribing the courses of studies in the college, imparting education, holding of examinations and the conduct of examinations (hereinafter referred to as "the specified matters").

(2) Either on receipt of a letter of application under sub-section (1) or where it appears to the Syndicate that the standards of education in any affiliated college or University college are so developed that it would be in the interest of education to allow the college to enjoy autonomy in the specified matters, on its own motion, the Syndicate shall-(a)for the purpose of satisfying itself whether the standards of education in such college are so developed that it would be in the interest of education to allow the college to enjoy autonomy in the specified matters-(i)direct a local inquiry to be made by a competent person or persons authorised by the Syndicate in this behalf, and(ii)make such further inquiry as may appear to it to be necessary,(b)after consulting the Academic Council on the question whether the college should be allowed to enjoy autonomy in the specified matters, stating the result of the inquiry under clause (a) record its opinion on that question and(c)make a report to the Senate on that question embodying in such report the result of the inquiries, the opinion of the Academic Council and the opinion recorded by it.(3)On receipt of the report under sub-section (2), the Senate shall, after such further inquiry, if any, as may appear to it to be necessary record its opinion thereon on the question whether the college should be allowed autonomy in the specified matters.(4)The Registrar shall thereupon submit the proposals for conferring such autonomy on such college and all proceedings, if any, of the Academic Council, the Syndicate and the Senate relating thereto, to the State Government.(5)On receipt of the proposals and proceedings under sub-section (4), the State Government, after such inquiry as may appear to it to be necessary, may sanction the proposals or reject the proposals.(6)Where the State Government sanctions the proposals, it shall by an order published in the Official Gazette confer on the college specified in the proposals, power to regulate the admission of students to the college, the courses of studies in the college, the instructions, teaching and training in the course of studies, the holding of examination and the conduct of such examinations and power to make the necessary rules for the purpose after consulting the Syndicate and such other powers as may have been specified in the proposals.(7)A college exercising the powers conferred under sub-section (6) shall be called an autonomous college.(8)In the case of an autonomous college, the University shall continue to exercise general supervision over such college and to confer degrees on the students of the college passing any examination qualifying for any degree of the University.

48B. Standing Committees.- (i) For the purpose of enabling it to exercise the powers conferred on it under section 48A, an autonomous college shall appoint a Standing Committee consisting of-

(i) the Principal of the College as its ex-officio chairman, (ii) heads of the Departments in the special subjects taught at degree level in the College as its ex-officio members, and (iii) such other members not exceeding five as the college may think fit to appoint. (2) The Standing Committee shall exercise such of the powers of the college under section 48A as the college may delegate to it. (3) The Standing Committee may appoint a special committee or committees for the purpose of exercising such powers and performing such functions of an authority of the University other than the Senate, the Syndicate and the Academic Council, in relation to the College as the Standing Committee may, subject to such conditions as it thinks fit to impose, assign to it or them.

48C. Autonomous college to furnish reports etc. and inspection of such college.- (1) Every autonomous college shall furnish such reports, returns and other information as the Syndicate may require to enable it to judge the efficiency of the college.

(2) The Syndicate shall cause every autonomous college to be inspected from time to time by one or more competent persons authorised by it in this behalf.

48D. Withdrawal of power of autonomous College.- (1) Where in respect of an autonomous college the Syndicate is of opinion that the efficiency of the college has so deteriorated that in the interest of education it is necessary to withdraw the powers conferred on the college, under section 48A, the Syndicate shall send an intimation to that effect to the Principal of the college stating that any explanation in writing submitted within a period specified in the intimation on behalf of the college will be considered by the Syndicate:

Provided that the period so specified may be extended by the Syndicate. (2) On receipt of the explanation or on the expiry of the period referred to in sub-section (1), the Syndicate, after considering the explanation, if any, and after such inspection by a competent person or persons authorised by the Syndicate in this behalf and such further inquiry as may appear to it to be necessary and after consulting the Academic Council shall make a report to the Senate. (3) On receipt of the report under sub-section (2) the Senate shall, after such further inquiry, if any, as may appear to it to be necessary, record its opinion in the matter: Provided that no resolution of the Senate recommending the withdrawal of the powers conferred under section 48A shall be deemed to have been passed by it unless the resolution has obtained the support of two-thirds of the members present at the meeting of the Senate, such majority comprising not less than one-half of the members of the Senate. (4) The Registrar shall submit the proposal and all proceedings, if any, of the Academic Council, the Syndicate and the Senate relating thereto, to the State Government which after such further inquiry, if any, as may appear to it to be necessary shall make such order as it deems fit and communicate it to the Senate.(5)Where in the case of an autonomous college, the rights conferred under section 48A are withdrawn by an order made under sub-section (4) the college shall cease to be autonomous college from the date specified in the order."

14. Insertion of section 60A in Guj. 39 of 1965.- After section 60 of the principal Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:-

"60A.
