at the termination of successive period of one year.(2)The Commissioner may, instead of making a new assessment every year, adopt the existing assessment, with such alteration as he thinks fit, as the assessments for each new year, giving to persons affected by such alterations the same notice of the altered valuation and assessment as would have been required if a new assessment had been prepared.(3)The Commissioner shall arrange for a survey for the purposes of assessment of each part of the City at least once in five years save for the omission, with the previous consent of the Mayor-in-Council, of any small areas which might be more conveniently re-assessed in a subsequent year.

144. Returns for purposes of valuation.

(1)To enable him to prepare the assessment list, the Commissioner may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of any land or building or any portion thereof to furnish him within such reasonable period as the Commissioner may fix, with information or with a written return signed by such owner or occupier-(a)as to the name and place of abode of the owner or occupier, or of both the owner and occupier of such land or building; and(b)as to the measurement or the gross annual rent or revenue or the description or other specified details or the actual cost or estimated market value of such land or building.(2)Every owner or occupier from whom any such requisition is made shall be bound to comply with the same and to give true information or to make a true return to the best of his knowledge or belief.(3)Whoever omits without reasonable cause to comply with such requisition, or furnishes a return which is untrue, shall in addition to any other punishment to which he may be liable, be precluded from objecting to any assessment made by the Commissioner in respect of such land or building of which he is the owner or occupier.

145. Public notice and inspection of valuation.

(1)When the valuation under Section 143 of the lands and buildings in any ward has been completed, the Commissioner shall cause the respective valuations to be entered in a list and give public notice of the place where such list may be inspected.(2)Time for filing complaints against valuation. - The Commissioner shall at the same time and in the same manner, give public notice of a date, not being less than thirty days from the publication of such notice by which objections to the amount of any annual value or other particulars entered in the assessment list may be delivered at his office.

146. Notice when valuation made for the first time is increased.

- The Commissioner shall, in all cases in which any land or building is for the first time valued, or in which the valuation of any land or building previously valued is increased under Section 143 give special notice thereof, to the occupier of the same, and when the valuation is so increased, the said notice shall contain a statement of grounds of the increase.

147. Notice of objection of valuation.

(1) Any person dissatisfied with a valuation made under this chapter may deliver at the municipal office a written notice stating the grounds of his objection to such valuation. (2) Such notice shall be delivered on or before the date fixed in this behalf in the public notice referred to in Section 145 or 146.

148. Investigation of objections by Commissioner.

(1) All such objections shall be entered in a register to be maintained for the purpose and, on receipt of any objection, the Commissioner shall give a notice in writing to the objector of the time and place at which his objection will be investigated. (2) At the time and place so fixed the Commissioner shall hear the objection, in the presence of the objector or his authorised agent if he appears, or may, for reasonable cause, adjourn the investigation. (3) When the objection has been determined, the order passed on such objection shall be recorded in the said register and, if necessary, an amendment made in the assessment list in accordance with the result of the objection.

149. Appeals to District Courts.

(1) If any dispute arises as to the liability of any land or building to assessment or as to the basis or principle of assessment or as to the amount of tax assessed, an appeal shall lie from the decision of the Municipal Commissioner to the District Court, whose decision shall be final. (2) Such appeal shall be presented to the District Court within thirty days from the date of the order passed under Section 148 and shall be accompanied by an extract from the register of objections containing the order objected to. (3) The provisions of Parts II and III of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, relating to appeals shall apply to every appeal preferred under this section. (4) No appeal shall be admitted under this section unless an objection has been preferred under Section 148. (5) Effect shall be given by the Municipal Commissioner to the decision of the District Court. (6) Pendency of an appeal under this section shall not operate to delay or prevent the levy of any tax or instalment thereof payable in respect of any building or land according to the order of assessment under appeal but, if by the final decision in the appeal it is determined that such tax or instalment ought not to have been levied in whole or in part, the Commissioner shall refund to the person from whom the same has been levied, the amount of such tax or instalment, or the excess thereof over the amount properly leviable in accordance with such final decision as the case may be.

150. Valuation when to be final.

(1) Every valuation made by the Commissioner under Section 143 shall be subject to the provisions of Sections 148 and 149, be final. (2) Every order passed by the Commissioner under Section 148 shall, subject to the provisions of Section 149, be final.

151. Keeping of municipal Assessment list.

(1)The annual value fixed under this chapter shall be entered in one or more registers to be kept wardwise or in any other manner for the purpose wherein shall be recorded :-(a)the serial number of each set of premises;(b)the description of each set of premises;(c)the name and place of abode of the owner and the name of the occupier;(d)the amount of the valuation;(e)the amount payable on account of the property tax;(f)any exemption granted from payment of the said tax: and(g)such other particulars as the Commissioner may direct.(2)The particulars mentioned in sub-section (1) may be contained in as many registers as the Commissioner may determine, which shall together constitute the assessment list.(3)When the name of the owner or occupier of any premises is not known it shall be sufficient to designate him in the said assessment list as "the owner" or "the occupier", as the case may be.

152. Authentication of assessment list when all objections have been disposed of.

(1)When objections have been determined and appeals disposed of and the entries required by Section 151 have been made, the assessment list shall be authenticated by the Commissioner, who shall certify under his signature that except in the cases in which amendments have been made as shown therein, no valid objection has been made to the annual values entered in the said list.(2)Thereupon the said assessment list shall, subject to such alterations as may thereafter be made therein under the provisions of sub-section (5), of Section 149 or of Section 153 be conclusive evidence of the amount of property tax leviable on each land or building within the City in the financial year to which the list relates.

153. Power of Commissioner to amend assessment list.

(1)The Commissioner may at any time amend the assessment list by the inclusion, omission or substitution of any matter :Provided that whenever he proposes to make any amendment in respect of any matter other than the correction of an arithmetical total, he shall before making the amendment, send notice thereof to persons interested and shall allow thirty days to elapse for the making of any objection to the proposed amendment :Provided further that nothing in this sub-section shall empower the Commissioner to vary the valuation of any premises determined on appeal to the District Court.(2)If any amendment be made in respect of any matter other than the correction of arithmetical total, any person on whom a notice is served may object by a written application addressed to the Commissioner and delivered at the Corporation Office before the date fixed in the said notice; and the provisions of Sections 148 and 149 shall with all necessary modifications apply to such objection.(3)When the erection of a new building is completed after the completion of the assessment list, the Commissioner may add the particulars of the building to the list, and in such case the provisions of Sections 145, 147, 148, 149 and 152 shall apply, except that no public notice shall be required. In such a case the assessment shall take effect from the beginning of the quarter following the date on which the building is added to the assessment list or from the date when it is occupied or let, if that is earlier.

154. Notice of increase of rent.

(1)When an owner has furnished information or a written return as provided by Section 144 he shall give notice in writing to the Commissioner of any subsequent increase in the rent.(2)If an owner of any land or building or any portion thereof has, after it has been assessed for the same, made any increase in the rent thereof, he shall give notice in writing to the Commissioner of such increase.(3)The Commissioner may on receipt of such notice as to increase of rents amend the assessment list by altering the assessment of such land or building or any portion thereof as provided for by Section 153.

155. Notice to be given to Commissioner of demolition or removal of a building.

(1)When any building or any portion of a building liable to the payment of property tax is demolished or removed otherwise than by order of the Commissioner, the person liable for the payment of the said tax shall give notice thereof, in writing, to the Commissioner.(2)Until such notice is given, the person aforesaid shall be liable to pay every such property tax as he would have been liable to pay in respect of such building if the same, or any portion thereof, has not been demolished or removed.

156. Failure to give notice of increase of rent.

- Whoever fails to give notice of an increase of rent required by sub-sections (1) and (2) of Section 154 or gives notice of an increase of rent which in substance is untrue, shall in addition to any punishment to which he may be liable, be precluded from objecting to any assessment made by the Commissioner in consequence of such increase in respect of such building or land or any portion thereof of which he is the owner.

157. Period for which revised valuation to continue in force.

- When the valuation of any land or building is revised in consequence of an objection made under Section 147 or an appeal is preferred under Section 149, the revised valuation shall take effect from the quarter in which the first valuation would have taken effect in the same manner and for the same period and subject to the same conditions as the original valuation.

158. Payment of property tax how affected by objection to valuations.

- When an objection to a valuation has been made under Section 147 the property tax shall, pending the final determination of the objection, be paid on the previous valuation.

159. Refund of excess payment.

- If upon the hearing of any objection or appeal from any valuation it is made to appear to the Commissioner or the Appellate Authority, as the case may be, that appellant has paid any sum or sums of money in consequence of assessment which he ought not to have paid, the Commissioner or the Appellate Authority, as the case may be, shall direct the excess payment to be refunded to the appellant. Supplemental Provisions

160. Commissioner to supply copies on payment.

- The Commissioner shall furnish to any person who applies for it, a copy of the valuation or assessment list for the time being in force or any extract from any such list on payment of such sum as may be prescribed by bye-laws by the Corporation, and the Commissioner or a person authorised by him in this behalf shall, if required, certify the copy or extract in such manner as may be prescribed.

161. Tax not invalid for defect of form.

(1) No assessment and no charge or demand of any tax under this Act shall be called in question or in any way affected by reason of-(a) any mistake-(i) in the name, residence, place of business or occupation of any person liable to pay the tax; or (ii) in the description of any property or thing liable to the tax; or (iv) in the amount of tax assessed; or (b) any clerical error; or (c) any other defect of form. (2) For the purpose of assessing any tax on property under this Act it shall suffice if the property is so described as to be readily identifiable and the owner or occupier need not be named.

162. Power of the Corporation in regard to taxes.

(1) The Corporation may exempt from the payment of any tax in whole or in part for any period not exceeding one year, any person who by reason of poverty is in its opinion unable to pay the same, and may renew such exemption as often as it may consider necessary. (2) Subject to the provisions of Section 135 the Corporation may, with the sanction of the Government-(a) abolish, suspend or reduce the rate of any tax; or (b) exempt from the payment of any such tax in whole or in part any person or any class of persons or any property or class of property.

163. Power of the Government in regard to taxes.

(1) The Government may, after giving the Corporation an opportunity of expressing its views, by order exempt from the payment of any such tax in whole or in part any person or class of persons or any property or description of property. (2) If at any time it appears to the Government, on a representation made or otherwise, that any tax imposed by or under this Act is unfair in its incidence or that the levy thereof or of any part thereof is injurious to the interests of the general public, it may, after giving the Corporation the opportunity of expressing its views, require the Corporation to take within a specified period measures to remove the objections; and, if within that period the requirement is not complied with to the satisfaction of Government, the Government may by notification suspend the levy of the tax or of such part thereof until the objection has been removed.

163A. Creation of Infrastructure Development Fund.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other Act for the time being in force, the State Government may create an Infrastructure Development Fund with a view to assist the Municipal Corporation in developing the infrastructure.(2)The sources of the infrastructure fund and the procedure and manner in which the amount from the fund shall be provided to Municipal Corporation shall be such as may be prescribed.

165. Duty of furnishing true information regarding liability to municipal taxation.

(1)Every person shall on the demand of an officer duly authorised by the Commissioner in this behalf, furnish such information as may be necessary in order to ascertain whether such person is liable to pay any tax under this Act and if so how much; and every hotel or lodging house keeper or secretary of a residential club shall also, on demand as aforesaid, furnish a list of all persons residing in such hotel, lodging-house or club.(2)If any person so called upon to furnish information omits to do so or furnishes information which is untrue to his knowledge, he shall be punishable with fine which shall be according to Schedule II.

166. Duty of occupier to furnish true information regarding owner's name and address.

- If the occupier of any land or building neglects or refuses, without reasonable cause, to comply with a notice served under Section 139 furnishes information which is untrue to his knowledge he shall be punishable with fine which shall be according to Schedule II.

167. Notice of transfer of title, when to be given.

- Whenever the title in any land or building or in any part or share of any land or building is transferred, the transferor and the transferee shall, within three months of the registration of the deed of transfer, or if it be not registered, within three months of the execution of the instrument of transfer, or, if no such instrument be executed, after the transfer is effected, give notice in writing of such transfer to the Commissioner.(2)Every person liable for the payment of a tax on any property, who transfers his title to or over such property without giving notice of such transfers to the Corporation as aforesaid, shall in addition to any other liability which he incurs through such neglect, continue to be liable for the payment of all such taxes payable in respect of the said property until he gives such notice or until the transfer is recorded in the books of the Corporation.(3)In the event of the death of the person in whom title to any land or building or in any part or share of any land or building vests, the person who as an heir or otherwise takes the title of the deceased by descent or devise, shall, within three months from the death of the deceased, give notice of his title to the Commissioner in writing.(4)Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the liability of the heir or devise for the said taxes or to affect the prior claim of the Corporation for the recovery of the taxes due thereupon.(5)(i)When any new building is erected, or when any building is rebuilt or enlarged, or when any building which has been vacant is re-occupied, the person primarily liable for the property taxes assessed on the building shall within fifteen days give notice thereof in writing to the Commissioner.(ii)The said period of fifteen days shall be counted from the date of the completion or of the occupation, whichever first occurs, of the building which has been newly erected or re-built, or of the enlargement, as the case may be, and in the case of a building which has been vacant, from the date of the re-occupation thereof.

168. Power of entry for the purpose of valuation of taxation.

- The Commissioner may authorise any person to do the following acts at any time between sunrise and sunset after giving twenty-four hours notice to the occupier, or if there be no occupier, to the owner, of a building or land-(1)to enter, inspect and measure any building for the purpose of valuation;(2)to enter and inspect any stable, coach house or other place where there is reason to believe that there is any vehicle or animal liable to taxation under this Act or for which a licence has not been duly taken out.

169. Power to examine article liable to toll or cess on imports.

- Every person bringing or receiving within the limits of the city any articles in respect of which a toll or cess on imports payable shall, when required by an officer or servant duly authorised by the Commissioner in this behalf and so far as may be necessary for ascertaining the amount of tax chargeable-(a)permit the officer or servant to inspect, examine, weigh and otherwise deal with the article; and(b)communicate to the officer any information and exhibit to him any bill, invoice or document of a like nature which such person may possess relating to the article.

170. Power to search where toll or cess on imports is leviable.

(1)If any person, bringing or receiving within the prescribed limits of the city a conveyance or package on which a toll or cess on import is believed to be leviable, refuses on the demand of an officer or servant authorised by the Commissioner in this behalf to permit the officer or servant to inspect, weigh or otherwise examine the contents of the conveyance or package for the purpose of ascertaining whether it contains any article in respect of which a toll or cess on imports is payable, or refuses to communicate to the officer any information or to exhibit to him any bill, invoice or document of a like nature which he may possess relating to the article, or with the intention of defrauding the Corporation, communicates false information or exhibits any false, forged, or fraudulent bill, invoice or document of a like nature, he shall be punished with a fine which may extend either to ten times the duty leviable on the articles or to one thousand rupees whichever may be greater.(2)Any such person may demand that the conveyance or package or both as the case may be, shall be taken without unnecessary delay before the Commissioner or a person appointed by him for this purpose, who shall cause the inspection to be made in his presence.

171. Punishment for evading payment of toll or cess.

- If animals or articles passing the limits of the Corporation are liable to the payment of a toll or cess on imports, then every person who, with intention to defraud the Corporation, causes or abets the introduction of, or himself introduces or attempts to introduce within the said limits, any such animals or article upon which payment of the toll or cess on imports due on such introduction has neither been made nor rendered, shall be punishable with fine which may extend either to ten times the value of such toll or cess or imports or to one thousand rupees whichever may be greater.

172. Extension of taxation limits by agreement.

(1)When the Corporation, with the sanction of the Government has agreed with a Government Authority or the committee of an adjoining Municipality a Notified Area Committee constituted under the Municipal Law that in consideration of the payment of the lump-sum or otherwise, the same limits for cess on imports or any toll or tax shall be established for the contracting parties, the Corporation may fix limits by bye-laws so as to include so much of the area controlled by the said contracting parties as it may deem necessary, and shall have the powers of collecting such toll or cess on imports on animals or articles brought within such limits, and the provisions of this Act for the assessment and collection of such tax or toll or cess on imports shall apply in the same way as if the said limits were wholly comprised in the jurisdiction of the Corporation.(2)The total of the proceeds of such taxes or tolls made in the joint area of the Corporation and Committee or Municipality or Notified Area and the cost thereby incurred shall be apportioned between the Municipal Fund and the fund subject to the control of the cantonment authority or the Municipal authority in such proportion as shall have been determined by the agreement.

Chapter XII

Recovery of Corporation's Claims

173. Presentation of bill for taxes and other demands.

(1)When any amount declared by or under the provisions of this Act to be recoverable in the manner provided in this chapter, or payable on account of any tax imposed within the limits of the city shall have become due, the Commissioner shall with the least practicable delay cause to be presented to any person liable for the payment thereof a bill for the sum claimed as due.(2)Contents of bill.-Every such bill shall specify-(a)the period for which; and(b)the property, occupation or thing in respect of which the sum is claimed,and shall also give notice of-(i)the liability incurred in default of payment; and(ii)the time within which an objection may be preferred as against such claim.

174. If bill not paid within 15 days notice of demand to issue.

(1) If the sum, for which a bill is presented as aforesaid, is not paid and no objection has been preferred within 15 days from the presentation of the bill, the Commissioner may serve upon the person to whom such bill has been presented a notice of demand in the form prescribed by bye-laws. (2) For every notice of demand a fee shall be charged at the rate specified in the bye-laws and shall be payable by the said person, and the fee shall be included in the costs of recovery.

175. In what case warrant may issue.

(1) If the person on whom a notice of demand is served under sub-section (1) of Section 174 does not, within thirty days of the service of such notice—(a) pay the sum demanded in the notice; or (b) show-cause to the satisfaction of the Commissioner why he should not pay the same; or (c) prefer an appeal in accordance with the provisions of Section 184 against the demand, such sum with all costs of recovery may be recovered under a warrant in the form prescribed by bye-laws signed by the Commissioner—(i) by distress and sale of the movable property belonging to such person; (ii) by attachment and sale of the immovable property belonging to him : Provided that, where any precautionary or other measures in respect of any such property have been taken by the Government for the recovery of any sum claimed by it, no proceedings shall be taken or continued under this chapter in respect of such property until the Government's claim has been paid off. (2) Where the property is within the limits of the city, the warrant shall be addressed to an officer of the Corporation and where the property is outside the limits, to the Collector of the district concerned : Provided that the officer to whom the warrant is addressed may endorse such warrant to a subordinate officer. (3) For every warrant issued under this section, fee shall be charged at the rates specified in the bye-laws and the said fee shall be included in the costs of recovery.

176. Power of Corporation to remit certain fees.

- The Corporation may in its discretion remit the whole or any part of any fee chargeable under sub-section (2) of Section 174 or sub-section (3) of Section 175.

177. Power of officer to break open door or window.

- The officer charged with the execution of a warrant of distress issued under Section 175 may if authorised by a general or special order in writing by the Commissioner, between sunrise and sunset break open any outer or inner door or window of a building in order to levy distress—(a) if he has a reasonable ground for believing that such building contains property which is liable to such distress; and (b) if after notifying his authority and purpose and duly demanding admittance, he cannot otherwise obtain admittance : Provided that such officer shall not enter or break open the door, window of any apartment appropriated to the use of women until he has given the women a reasonable opportunity to withdraw.

178. Warrant how to be executed.

- Any officer charged with the execution of a warrant of distress issued under Section 175 shall, if authorised by the warrant, distrain whenever it may be found, any movable property or attach any immovable property of the person named in the warrant subject to the following conditions, namely :- (a) the following property shall not be distrained- (i) the necessary wearing apparel, cooking utensils and bedding of the defaulter and members of his family; (ii) the tools of artisans; (iii) when the defaulter is an agriculturist, his implements of husbandry, seed, grain, and such cattle as may be necessary to enable him to earn his livelihood; (b) the distress shall not be excessive, that is to say, the property distrained shall be as nearly as possible equal in value to the amount recoverable under the warrant, and if any property has been distrained which, in the opinion of the Commissioner or of the person to whom the warrant was addressed, should not have been so distrained, it shall forthwith be returned to the person from whom it was distrained; (c) the officer shall on distraining the property forthwith make in the presence of two witnesses an inventory of the property which he distrains under such warrant, and shall at the same time give a written notice in the prescribed form or in a form to the like effect along with a copy of such inventory to the person in possession thereof at the time of distraint that such property will be sold as therein mentioned; (d) when the property is immovable- (i) the attachment shall be made by an order prohibiting the defaulter from transferring or charging the property in any way and all persons from taking any benefit from such transfer or charge; (ii) the order shall be proclaimed at some place on or adjacent to the property by beat of drum or other customary mode, and a copy of the order shall be affixed on a conspicuous part of the property and upon a conspicuous part of the Corporation office, and also when the property is land paying revenue to the Government, in the office of the Collector; (e) any transfer of or charge on the property attached or any interest therein made subsequent to such attachment, and without the written permission of the Commissioner shall be void as against all claims of the Corporation enforceable under the attachment.

179. Sale of goods distrained in special cases.

(1) When the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expense of keeping it in custody together with the amount to be levied is likely to exceed its value, the Commissioner shall at once give notice to the person in whose possession the property was, when distrained, to the effect that it will be sold at once; and shall sell it accordingly unless the amount named in the warrant is forthwith paid. (2) On the expiry of the time specified in the notice served by the officer executing the warrant, the property distrained or attached, or in the case of immovable property, a sufficient portion thereof, if not sold at once under sub-section (1), may be sold by public auction under the orders of the Commissioner, unless the warrant is suspended by him or the sum due is paid by the defaulter together with all costs incidental to the notice, warrant, distress, attachment or detention of the property, as the case may be. (3) Where the sum due together with costs is paid by the defaulter as aforesaid, any attachment levied on his property shall be deemed to be removed and the property if movable shall be returned. (4) All sales of immovable property under this section shall, so far as may be practicable, be regulated by the procedure laid down in the rules made by the Government in that behalf. (5) After the sale of immovable property by auction as aforesaid, the Commissioner shall put the person declared to be the purchaser in possession of the same and shall grant him a certificate to the effect that he has purchased the property to which the certificate refers.(6)No officer or servant in the service of the Corporation or any councillor, during the term of his office, shall directly or indirectly purchase any property at any such sale.(7)The sale proceeds or such part thereof as may be sufficient shall be applied, first in discharge of any sum due to the Government in respect of such property and secondly, in discharge of the sum due to the Corporation and all such incidental costs as aforesaid.(8)The surplus proceeds shall be forthwith credited to the Corporation and notice of such credit shall be given to the person in whose possession the property was at the time of distraint or attachment. If such person claims the surplus by written application to the Commissioner within three years from the date of the notice given under this sub-section, the Commissioner shall refund the surplus to him.(9)Any such surplus not so claimed shall be the property of the Corporation.

180. Attachment of rent due.

(1)Where a bill for any sum due on account of any property tax is served upon an occupier of premises pursuant to Section 391, the Commissioner may at the time of service or at any subsequent time cause to be served upon the occupier a notice requiring him to pay to the Corporation any rent due or falling due from him to the person primarily liable for the payment of the said tax to the extent necessary to satisfy the said sum due.(2)Such notice shall operate as an attachment of the said rent until the said sum due on account of property tax shall have been paid and satisfied, and the occupier shall be entitled to credit in account with the person to whom the said rent is due for any sum paid by him to the Corporation in pursuance of such notice.(3)If the occupier shall fail to pay to the Corporation any rent due or falling due which he has been required to pay in pursuance of a notice served upon him as aforesaid, the amount of such rent may be recovered from him by the Corporation as if it were an arrear of property tax under Section 391 [x x x].

181. Sale outside the city.

- Where the warrant is to be executed outside the limits of the City, the Commissioner may by endorsement direct the person to whom the warrant is addressed to sell the property distrained or attached; and in such case it shall be lawful for such person to sell the property and to do all things incidental to the sale in accordance with the provisions of Section 179 and to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Commissioner under sub-sections (1) and (2) of Section 179 in respect of such sale except the power of suspending the warrant. Such person shall after deducting all costs of recovery in current by him, remit the amount recovered under the warrant to the Commissioner who shall dispose of the same in accordance with the provisions of Section 179.

182. Fees and costs chargeable.

- The fees for every notice or warrant issued and for the maintenance of any livestock seized under this chapter shall be chargeable at the rates specified in this behalf in the bye-laws of the Corporation and shall be included in the cost of recovery to be levied under Section 175.

183. Summary proceedings may be taken against persons about to leave the city.

(1) If any sum recoverable under the provisions of this chapter is due or is about to become due from any person, and if the Commissioner shall have reason to believe that such person is about to leave the limits of the City, the Commissioner may after recording such reasons, direct the immediate payment by such person of such sum and cause a bill for the same to be presented to him. (2) If, on presentation of such bill, the said person does not forthwith pay the said sum or does not furnish security to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, the amount shall be levied by distress and sale of his movable property or by attachment and sale of his immovable property in the manner specified in this chapter except that it shall not be necessary to serve upon him any notice of demand and the Commissioner's warrant for distress and sale may be issued and executed without any delay.

184. Appeals.

(1) Appeals against any notice of demand issued under sub-section (1) of Section 174 may be made to the Appeal Committee constituted under Section 403 and in the manner prescribed therein : Provided that the appeal shall not be entertained unless the sum due under Section 174 is deposited in the Corporation and a copy of the receipt is enclosed with the appeal memo. (2) No such appeal shall be heard and determined unless—(a) a written objection has been made and determined in accordance with the provisions of this Act; and (b) the amount claimed from the appellant has been deposited by him in the Corporation office, and a receipt thereof has been filed with a memo of appeal.

185. Liability of buildings, lands, etc. for taxes.

- All sums due from any person in respect of taxes on any land or building shall, subject to prior payment of any land revenue in respect of it due to the Government be a first charge upon the said land or building and upon any movable property found within or upon such land or building and belonging to the said person : Provided that no arrears of any such tax shall be recoverable from any occupier who is not the owner. If such arrears are for a period during which the occupier was not in occupation.

186. Receipt to be taken for all payments.

- For every sum paid on account of any tax under this Act, a receipt shall be tendered by the person receiving these payments, stating the sum and the tax on account of which it has been paid.

187. Writing off irrecoverable taxes.

- The Commissioner may, with the previous approval of the Corporation order to be struck off the books any sum due on account of any tax or of the costs of recovering any tax, which may appear to him to be irrecoverable.

188. Recovery of toll and cess on imports.

(1) If any toll or cess import is not paid on demand, the officer empowered to collect the same may seize any article on which the cess on imports is chargeable, or any animal on which the toll is chargeable for any part of the burden borne by such animal, sufficient value to satisfy the demand. (2) The Commissioner after the lapse of five days from the seizure and after the issue of a proclamation fixing the time and place of sale, may cause any property so seized, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold by auction to satisfy the demand with the expenses occasioned by the seizure, custody and sale thereof, unless the demand and expenses are in the meantime paid : Provided that, by order of the Commissioner, articles of a perishable nature which cannot be kept for five days without serious risk of damage may be sold after the lapse of such shorter time as he may think proper having regard to the nature of the articles.

189. Taxation not to be questioned except under this Act.

(1) No objection shall be taken to any valuation or assessment, nor shall the liability of any person to be assessed or taxed be questioned in any other manner or by any other authority than as provided in this Act. (2) The Government may make rules under this Act regulating the refund of taxes and such rules may impose limitations of such refunds. (3) No refund or any tax shall be claimed by any person otherwise, than in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules and the bye-laws made thereunder.

189A. Recovery of taxes by public auction or private contract.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Corporation may, by public auction or private contract lease the recovery of any of the taxes and fees which may be imposed under this Act, subject to the condition and limitation, if any, prescribed by the State Government in this behalf. - It shall not be lawful to erect or re-erect any building, or premises any part of which is within one hundred feet of a municipal drain or of some place set apart by the Commissioner for the discharge of drainage or to occupy any such building newly erected or re-erected unless and until-(a)a drain has been constructed which, in the opinion of the Commissioner, shall be sufficient for the effectual drainage of such building to such municipal drain or place; and(b)there have been provided for and set up in such building and in the premises appurtenant thereto, all such appliances and fittings as may appear to the Commissioner to be necessary for the purpose of gathering and receiving the drainage from, and conveying the same off, the said building and effectually Hushing the drain of the said building and every fixture connected therewith.

204. Sewage and rain water drains to be distinct.

- Wherever it is provided in this Act that steps shall or may be taken for the effectual drainage of any premises, the Commissioner may require that there shall be one drain for offensive matter and sewage and another drain for rain-water and unpolluted sub-soil water, each emptying into separate municipal drains or other places set apart by the Commissioner for the discharge of drainage, or into other suitable places.

205. Rights of owners and occupiers of premises to carry drains through lands belonging to other persons.

(1)If it appears to the Commissioner that the only means by which the owner or occupier of any building or land can conveniently cause his drain to empty into a municipal drain or other place set apart by the Commissioner for the discharge of drainage, is by carrying the same into, through or under any land belonging to or occupied by some person other than the said owner or occupier, the Commissioner shall give such other person a reasonable opportunity of stating any objection and if no objection is raised, or if any objection which is raised, appears to him invalid or insufficient, may, by an order in writing, authorise the said owner or occupier to carry his drain into, through or under the said land in such manner as he may think fit to allow.(2)Subject to the provisions of this Act, on receipt of any such order bearing the signature of the Commissioner, the person in whose favour it is made or any agent or person employed by him for the purpose may, after giving to the owner or occupier of the land reasonable written notice of his intention to do so, enter upon the said land with assistants and workmen at any time between sunrise and sunset, and execute the necessary work.(3)In exercising any work under his section as little damage as possible shall be done, and the owner or the occupier of the premises for the benefit of which the work is done shall-(a)cause the work to be executed with the least practicable delay;(b)fill in, reinstate and make good at his own cost and with the least practicable delay, the ground or portion of any building or other construction opened, broken up or removed for the purpose of executing the said work; and(c)pay compensation to any person who sustains damage by the execution of the said work.(4)If the owner or occupier of the premises applies to the Commissioner to get the work executed by the Corporation, the Commissioner shall cause such work to be executed by municipal or other agency under his own supervision and may recover the expenses incurred thereby from such owner or occupier.(5)If any land in which work, has been executed under sub-section (2) was unbuilt upon at the time of such execution and if at any time thereafter the owner or occupier thereof desires to erect a building thereon and applies to the Commissioner in this behalf, the Commissioner shall, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of premises for the benefit of which such drain was constructed, to close, remove or divert the same in such manner as may be approved by the Commissioner and to fill in, reinstate, and make good the land as if the drain had not been carried into, through or under the same.

206. Obligation of owner of drain to allow use of or joint ownership therein to others.

- Every owner of a drain connected with a municipal drain or other place set apart by the Commissioner for drainage shall be bound to allow the use of it to other persons, or to admit other persons as joint owners thereof, on such terms as may be prescribed under Section 208.

207. How right of use or joint ownership of a drain may be obtained by a person other than the owner.

- Any person desiring to drain his premises into a municipal drain through a drain of which he is not an owner may make a private arrangement with the owner for permission to use his drain, or may apply to the Commissioner for authority to use such drain or to be declared a joint owner thereof.

208. Commissioner may authorise person other than the owner of a drain to use the same or declare him to be a joint owner thereof.

(1)Where the Commissioner is of opinion whether on receipt of an application or otherwise, that the most convenient means by which the owner or occupier of any premises can drain such premises is through a drain belonging to some person other than the said owner or occupier, the Commissioner shall give the owner of the drain a reasonable opportunity of stating his objection thereto, and, if no objection is raised or if any objection which is raised appears to him invalid or insufficient, may, by an order in writing, authorise the said owner or occupier to use the drain or declare the said owner to be a joint owner thereof, on such conditions as may appear to him equitable with regard to the payment of rent or compensation and to connecting the drain of the said premises with the communicating drain and to the respective responsibilities of the parties for maintaining, repairing, Hushing and cleaning the joint drain.(2)Every such order, bearing the signature of the Commissioner, shall be a complete authority to the person in whose favour it is made, or to any agent or person employed by him for this purpose, after giving or tendering to the owner of the drain the compensation or rent specified in the said order and otherwise fulfilling, as far as possible, the conditions of the said order, and after giving to the owner of the drain reasonable written notice of his intention so to do, to enter upon the land in which the said drain is situated with assistants and workmen, at any time between sunrise and sunset and, subject to the provisions of this Act, to do all such things as may be necessary for-(a)connecting the two drains; or(b)renewing, repairing or altering the connection; or(c)discharging any responsibility attaching to the person in whose favour the Commissioner's order is made for maintaining, repairing, Hushing or cleaning the joint drains or any part thereof.(3)In respect of the execution of any work under sub-section (2), the person in whose favour the Commissioner's order is made shall be subject to the same restriction and liabilities as are specified in sub-sections (3) and (5) of Section 205.

209. Power of Commissioner to drain premises in combination.

(1)If, in the opinion of the Commissioner any part of a group or block of premises is situated conveniently near a municipal drain already existing or about to be constructed or a place set apart by the Commissioner for the discharge of drainage, and if the Commissioner is of opinion that such group or block can be drained more economically or advantageously in common than separately, he may give the owners of till the premises a reasonable opportunity of stating any objection, and, if no objection is raised or if any objection which is raised appears to him invalid or insufficient, may cause such group or block to be drained by such method as appears to him to be most suitable therefor, and the expenses incurred by him in so doing shall be paid by the owners of such premises in such proportions as the Commissioner may think fit.(2)No less than fifteen days before any work under this section is commenced, the Commissioner shall, by written notice, intimate to the owners of all the premises to be drained-(a)the nature of the intended work;(b)the estimated expenses thereof; and(c)the proportion of such expenses payable by each owner.

210. Connecting drains to be constructed at the expenses of owners of premises.

(1)In the case of premises abutting on a public street in which there is a municipal drain and in the case of premises drained in pursuance of the provisions of this Chapter, the Commissioner shall construct at the expenses of the owner of the said premises such portion of the drain of the said premises as may be necessary to lay under any part of a public street.(2)The portion of any connecting drain so laid under a public street shall vest in the Corporation and be maintained and kept in repair by the Commissioner as a municipal drain.(3)The remainder of every drain constructed, erected, set up or continued for the sole use and the benefit of any premises shall-(a)vest in the owner of such premises;(b)be maintained and kept in repair by the owner or occupier of such premises; and(c)be from time to time Hushed, cleansed and emptied under the orders of the Commissioner at the cost of the municipal fund :Provided that, where several premises are drained in common under the last preceding section, such remainder shall vest in the owners jointly and the cost of maintenance and repair thereof shall be distributed in the same proportions as are fixed by the Commissioner under the said section.

211. Affixing of pipes for ventilation of drains.

(1) For the purpose of ventilating any drain, whether belonging to the Corporation or to any other person, the Commissioner may, after giving not less than four days' written notice to the occupiers of the premises erect upon any premises or affix to the outside of any building, or to any trees, any such shaft or pipe as may appear to him necessary and may cut through any projection from any building including the eaves of any roof thereof in order to carry up such shaft or pipe through any such projection and may lay in, through or under any land such appliances as may in the opinion of the Commissioner be necessary for connecting such ventilating shaft or pipe with the drain intended to be ventilated. (2) Any shaft or pipe so erected or affixed shall—(a) be carried at least fifteen feet higher than any skylight or window situated within a distance of forty feet therefrom; (b) if the same be fixed to a wall supporting the eaves of a roof, be carried at least five feet higher than such eaves; and (c) be removed by the Commissioner to some other place, if at any time the owner of the aforesaid premises, building or tree is desirous of effecting any change in his property which cannot without unreasonable inconvenience be carried out unless the shaft or pipe is removed. (3) If the Commissioner declines to remove a shaft or pipe under clause (c) of sub-section (2), the owner of the aforesaid premises, building or tree may apply to the District Court, and the District Court may, after such enquiry as it thinks fit to make, direct the Commissioner to remove the shaft or pipes, and it shall be incumbent on the Commissioner to obey such order. (4) Where the owner of any building or land cut through, opened or otherwise dealt with under sub-section (1) is not the owner of the drain intended to be ventilated, the Commissioner shall, so far as is practicable, reinstate and make good such buildings and fill and make good such land at the cost of the municipal fund.

212. Right of Corporation to drains constructed at charge of municipal fund.

- All drains and fittings thereof (including ventilation shafts and pipes) constructed or set up at the cost of the municipal fund all drains constructed at the cost of a private person on or under any municipal land shall vest in the Corporation.

Chapter XIV

Conservancy

213. Deposit of rubbish, offensive matter, sewage and carcasses.

(1) The Commissioner shall provide or appoint in proper and convenient situations, public receptacles, depots and places for the temporary deposit or final disposal of rubbish, offensive matter, sewage and the carcasses of dead animals, accumulating in the city. (2) All things deposited in receptacles, depots or places provided or appointed under this section shall be the property of the Corporation.

214. Collection and removal of sewage.

- The Commissioner may give public notice that the collection and removal of sewage, offensive matter and rubbish from the lands and buildings in any part of the city will be undertaken by municipal agency, and he shall then forthwith take measures for the due collection and removal of such matter from any lands and buildings situated in the said part of the city.

215. Collection and temporary deposit of rubbish and offensive matter by occupiers of premises.

(1)The Commissioner may, by public notice, direct that all rubbish and offensive matter accumulating in any premises in any street or quarter of the city, specified in the notice shall be collected by the occupier of such premises and deposited in a box, basket or other receptacle, of a kind prescribed by bye-laws by the Corporation, to be provided by such occupier and kept near the entrance to, or, where open space is available, within the premises.(2)The Commissioner may cause public dust-bins or other convenient receptacles to be provided at suitable intervals and in proper and convenient situations in streets or quarters in respect of which no notice issued under sub-section (1) is for the time being in force; and may, by public notice, direct that all rubbish and offensive matter except trade refuse accumulating in any premises, the entrance to which is situated within fifty yards of any such receptacle, shall be collected by the occupier of such premises and deposited in such receptacles. The trade refuse shall be removed to and deposited at such places as the Commissioner may direct.(3)The Commissioner may, by public notice, direct that all rubbish and offensive matter accumulating in any premises in any street or quarter in respect of which no notice issued under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) is for the time being in force shall be collected by the occupier of such premises and deposited in lump in the street on which such premises abut or in some portion of such premises.(4)In any notice issued under any of the foregoing sub-sections the Commissioner shall prescribe the hours within which rubbish and offensive matter shall be deposited under this section.(5)The Commissioner may, by public notice, direct that sweepers privately employed on the removal of sewage, rubbish or offensive matter shall remove the same in proper receptacles of a type to be approved by the Commissioner in such manner as not to cause any unnecessary nuisance to passers-by in the street.

216. Prohibition of accumulations of offensive matter.

- No person-(a)shall throw or place or cause to be thrown or placed any rubbish, offensive matter or sewage, on any street, or in any place not provided or appointed for the purpose under the provisions of this Act;(b)who is the owner or occupier of any land or building shall allow any sewage or offensive matter to flow, soak or be thrown therefrom, or keep or suffer to be kept therein or thereupon, anything so as to be nuisance to any person, or negligently suffer any receptacle or place for deposit of offensive matter or rubbish on his premises to be in such a state as to be offensive or injurious to health.

Chapter XV

Sanitary Provisions Regulations of Public Bathing, Washing, etc.

217. Construction of places for public bathing, etc.

- The Commissioner may from time to time-(a)set apart suitable places for use by the public for bathing or for washing animals, or for washing or drying clothes or other material;(b)specify the times at which and the sex of persons by whom such places may be used;(c)prohibit, by public notice, the use by the public, for any of the said purposes, of any place not so set apart; and(d)charge fees for the use of such place by any specified class or classes of persons or by the public generally.

218. Prohibition of corruption of water by steeping therein animal or other matter.

- No person shall-(a)steep in any bank, reservoir, stream, well, trough or ditch any animal, vegetable or mineral matter likely to render the water thereof, offensive or dangerous to health;(b)while suffering from any contagious, infectious or loathsome disease, bath in or near any lake, tank, reservoir, fountain, cistern, duct, standpipe, stream, well or trough, or any part of a river within the limits of the Corporation or within five miles upstream from the Corporation boundary.

219. Regulation of washing of clothes by washermen.

(1)The Commissioner may, by public notice, prohibit the washing of clothes by washermen in exercise of their calling except at such places as he may appoint for this purpose; and after such prohibition no washerman shall wash clothes at any place not appointed for this purpose except for himself or for the owner or occupier of such place.(2)Washing places to be provided by Commissioner for washermen. - The Commissioner shall provide suitable places for the exercise of their calling by washermen, and may require with the approval of the Mayor-in-Council the payment of such fees for any such place as he may from time to time determine.

Chapter XVI

Water Supply

220. General powers for supplying the city with water.

- For the purpose of providing a supply of water proper and sufficient for public and private purposes, the Commissioner may, either within or without the City-(a)construct and maintain waterworks and do all acts which may be necessary or expedient in connection with such construction or maintenance;(b)purchase or take on lease any water work or any water or right to store water or to take and convey water; or(c)enter into any arrangement with any person for the supply of water :Provided that if in the city any Government Department is administering and controlling water-supply, the Commissioner shall not make any such arrangement without prior approval of the Government and the arrangement shall subject to the terms and conditions laid down by Government in this respect.

221. Supply of water.

(1)The Commissioner may supply water for any purpose on receiving a written application specifying the purpose for which such supply is required and the quantity likely to be consumed.(2)The supply of water shall be made upon such terms and conditions as to payment and quantity and for such period, as the Corporation may prescribe by bye-laws in this behalf.(3)The corporation may, on such terms as it may think fit, undertake to supply water to any area outside the city from the waterworks maintained by the Corporation and do other acts ancillary thereto.

222. Making connections with municipal water works.

- Where an application under Section 221 has been received all necessary communication pipes and fittings shall be supplied by the Commissioner and the work of laying and applying such communication and fitting shall be executed by municipal agency under the Commissioner's orders; but the cost of making any such connection and of all communication pipes and fittings so supplied and of all work so executed, shall be paid by the owner or the person making such application. The Commissioner shall provide a meter and charge rent for the same.

223. Obligation of owner or occupier to give notice of waste of water.

- Any owner or occupier of any land or building in or on which water supplied under this Act is misused from negligence or other circumstances under his control or in which the pipes, mains or other work are out of repair to such an extent as to cause waste of water, shall, if he has knowledge thereof, be bound to give notice of the same to such officer as the Commissioner may appoint in this behalf.

224. Responsibility for damage caused by leakage of water.

- Neither the owner nor occupier of any land or building in which pipes mains, or other works are situated, nor the Corporation shall be liable to pay compensation to any person for any damage caused by any leakage of water or any failure to keep in repair such pipes, mains or other works, unless the owner or occupier or the Corporation has knowledge thereof and has failed to take reasonably prompt action to report the same to the prescribed officer or to stop the leakage or to execute the required repairs, as the case may be.

225. Cutting off water supply to premises.

- If any person whose premises are supplied with water neglects to pay any sum payable under Section 221 when due, or to give notice as provided in Section 223 or wilfully or negligently misuses or causes waste of water the Commissioner may cut off the supply of water to the premises.

226. Presumption as to correctness of meter.

- Whenever water is supplied under this chapter through a meter, it shall be presumed, that the quantity indicated by the meter has been consumed, until the contrary is proved.

227. Injuring water works misappropriating water and tampering with meters.

- No person shall-(a)wilfully or negligently injure or suffer to be injured wells, reservoirs, mains, pipes or other appliances for the supply of water under the management or control of the Corporation;(b)draw off, divert or take any water from any municipal well, reservoir, main, or pipe, except in accordance with direction made in this behalf; or(c)tamper with any meter under the management or control of the Corporation.

228. Misuse of and leaving open valves and tampering with valves and hydrants.

- No person shall-(a)open or keep open the valves of any water-works used for the supply of water to the public by any means other than the use of pressure by the hand; or(b)having opened such valve, fail to close the same or leave the same open or tamper with any valve or hydrant not intended for the supply of water to the public.

229. Prohibition of erection of any building which would injure sources of water supply.

- Except with the permission of the Corporation, no person shall-(a)erect any building of any purpose whatever on any part of the area enclosed by the boundary-fence of any lake or reservoir from which supply of water is derived for a municipal water-work; or(b)remove, alter-injure, damage or in any way interfere with the aforesaid boundary-fence.

230. Prohibition of bathing in or polluting water.

- Except as provided hereinafter, no person shall-(a)bathe in or near any water-works belonging to the corporation; or(b)wash, throw, or cause any animal to enter into the water of such works; or(c)throw any rubbish, dirt, filth or any other thing whatsoever into the water of such works;(d)wash or cleanse therein any cloth, wool, leather or skin of any animal or any clothes or other things;(e)cause the water of any sink, drain, steam engine, boiler or other filthy water belonging to him or under his control, to run, percolate or be brought, into any such waterworks or do any other act whereby the water in such works may be fouled or polluted or its quality altered.

Chapter XVII

General Provisions with Reference to Drainage, Water Supply and Water and other Mains

231. Occupier of premises to be primarily liable for certain offences against the Act.

- If an offence against any provision of Chapters XIII, XIV, XV or XVI or against any rules or bye-laws made under the provisions of this Act made in this behalf, has been committed on any premises to which a private supply of water is furnished by the Corporation, it may be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that such offence has been committed by the occupier of the said premises.

232. Least practicable nuisance to be caused.

(1) In carrying out the duties imposed on the Corporation by clauses (b), (c), (j) and (l) of Section 66 or exercising the powers conferred upon it by Sections 190, 191, 192, 193, 211, 213 and 214, the Corporation shall not cause any nuisance which in the circumstances of the case can reasonably be avoided. (2) The Commissioner shall make reasonable compensation to any person who has sustained damage occasioned by the carrying out of any such operations : Provided that no compensation shall be claimed or paid for inconvenience unavoidably caused.

233. Power of carrying wires, pipes, drains, etc.

- Subject to the provisions of any law for the time being in force, the Commissioner may carry any cable, wire, pipe, drain or channel of any kind required for the establishment or maintenance of any system of drainage, water-supply or lighting through, across, under or over any street or any place laid out as or intended for a street, and also after giving reasonable notice in writing to the owner or occupier, through, across, under, over or along side any land or building whatsoever within or without the city, and may place and maintain in any immovable property in the city or without the city, any posts, poles, standards, brackets or other contrivances for supporting cables, wires, pipes, channels and lights and may do all acts necessary or expedient for repairing and maintaining any such cable, wire pipe, drain, channel, post, pole, standard, brackets or other similar contrivance in an effective state for the purpose for which it is intended to be used or for removing the same.

234. Provision as to wires, pipes or drains laid or carried about surface or ground.

- In the event of any cable, wire, pipe, drain, sewer, or channel being laid or carried above the surface of any land or through, over or up the side of any building, such cable, wire, pipe, drain, sewer or channel, as the case may be, shall be so laid or carried as to interfere as little as possible with the rights of the owner or occupier to the due enjoyment of such land or building and reasonable compensation shall be paid in respect of any substantial interference with any such right to such enjoyment.

235. Previous notice to be given.

- Except in cases to which Sections 372, 373 and 374 relate, the Commissioner shall cause not less than fourteen days' notice in writing to be given to the owner or occupier before commencing any operations under Section 233.

236. Connection with main not to be made without permission of Commissioner.

(1) No person shall, without the permission of the Commissioner, at any time, make or cause to be made, any connection or communication with any cable wire, pipe, ferrule, drain, or channel constructed or maintained by or vested in the Corporation for any purpose whatsoever. (2) Any person acting in contravention of the terms of sub-section (1) shall be punishable with a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

237. Power of Commissioner to require the owner to make provision for drainage.

- Where any premises have no drain communicating with a public sewer, or a drain insufficient for the effectual drainage of the premises, or a drain not adapted to the general sewerage system of the City, or a drain which is in the opinion of the Commissioner otherwise objectionable, the Commissioner may by notice, require the owner of the premises to make satisfactory provisions for the drainage of the premises or to do such other work within such time as may, in the opinion of Commissioner, be necessary for remedying the cause complaint or to construct a closed cesspool of such material, size and description in such position, at such level, and with allowance for such fall as the Commissioner thinks necessary and drain or drains emptying into such cesspool.

238. Power to establish meters and the like.

- The Commissioner may establish meters or other appliances for the purpose of testing the quantity or quality of electricity supplied to the premises of any person or for the use of any person or business.

239. Communications and connections, etc., to be executed subject to inspection by and to the satisfaction of the Commissioner.

- The ferrules, communication pipes, connections, meters, standpipes and all fittings thereon or connected therewith, leadings from mains or service cables, wires, pipes, drains, or channels into any house or land and the wires, pipes, fittings and works inside any such house or within the limits of any such land, shall in all cases, be executed to the satisfaction of the Commissioner.

240. Power of Commissioner to fix scale of charges.

- Subject to the provisions of any law for the time being in force, the Commissioner may with the approval of the Mayor-in-Council, from time to time, fix the scales of charges which the Corporation may make for establishing communications from and connections with main or service cables or for installing wires and pipes for the supply of electricity or water or for use of meters or other appliances for testing the quality or quantity thereof and may levy such charges from the owner or occupier as the circumstances may require.

241. Troughs and pipes for water and soilage.

(1)The Commissioner may, by notice, require the owner of any building or land in any street to put up and keep in good condition proper troughs and pipes for receiving and carrying water and sullage from the land or building and for discharging the same so as not to cause inconvenience to person passing along with street.(2)For the purpose of efficiently draining any building or land the Commissioner may by notice in writing-(a)require any Court-yard, alley or passage between two or more buildings to be paved by the owner or part-owner or owners or part-owners of such buildings with such materials and in such manner as may be approved by the Commissioner; and(b)require such paving to be kept in proper repair.

242. Control by Corporation and the Mayor-in-Council.

- In dealing with municipal drainage, sewage and water-works schemes, the Commissioner shall follow the general principles laid down by the Corporation, for any scheme of sewage or drainage or water-works and may refer to the Mayor-in-Council any question connected with the carrying out of such a scheme in which the intention of the Corporation does not appear to him to have been clearly expressed, or in which the provisions of the scheme appear to him to require modification. The Mayor-in-Council shall in its discretion either decide the question or refer the matter for the orders of the Corporation :Provided that any question involving the expenditure of a sum, exceeding one lakh of rupees shall be referred to the Corporation for orders.

243. Buildings not to be erected without permission over drains or water or airmains.

(1)Without the written permission of the Commissioner no building, wall or other structure shall be erected or re-erected, and no street, railway, electric or telephone line or similar other structure shall be constructed over any municipal drain or water or airmain.(2)If any building, wall or other structure is erected, or re-erected or constructed in contravention of the provisions of sub-section (1), the Commissioner may, subject, to the provisions of any law for the time being in force, remove the same or otherwise deal with it as he may think fit. The expenses incurred by him under this sub-section shall be paid by the person offending.

243A. Control by Government.

- No drainage, sewage or waterworks scheme involving an expenditure of a sum of five lakhs of rupees or more shall be sanctioned by the Corporation without the previous approval of the Government.

244. Power of access to municipal water-works.

- Any municipal sewage or drainage scheme or any municipal water-works may be inspected by a person appointed by the Government in this behalf, and the Commissioner or any such person may at all reasonable times-(a)enter upon and pass through any land whether within or without the city adjacent to or in the vicinity of such a drainage or sewage scheme or such water-works in whomsoever such land may vest;(b)after giving not less than two days' written notice to the occupiers, cause to be conveyed into and through any such land, all necessary men, materials, tools and implements.

245. Compensation of damage.

- If in the exercise of any of the powers conferred by Section 233 or 244 any damage or inconvenience is caused, which in the circumstances could reasonably have been avoided, the Corporation or the Government shall pay compensation according as the damage or inconvenience is caused by the Corporation or by a person appointed by the Government.

Chapter XVIII

Public Health and Safety Regulation of Factories and Trades

246. Factories not to be established, etc. without permission of Commissioner.

- No person shall-(a)newly established; or(b)remove from one place to another; or(c)re-open or renew after discontinuance for a period not less than three years; or(d)enlarge or extend the area, or dimensions of any factory, workshop or bakery in any area, other than an area set apart for the accommodation of industries by an Ad, for the time being in force or by any local authority,except with the permission of the Commissioner and in accordance with the terms and conditions stated in such permission ;Provided that no such permission shall be required in the case under clause (c) if during the period of discontinuance the machinery has not been removed from the place where the factory, workshop or bakery was originally established.

247. Sanitary regulation of factories, etc.

- Whenever it appears to the Commissioner that any factory, workshop or workplace or any building or place in which mechanical power is employed is not kept in a cleanly state, or is not ventilated in such a manner as to render as far as practicable harmless any gas, vapour, soot or other impurity generated in the course of work carried therein, or is so overcrowded during working hours as to be dangerous or injurious to the health of the persons employed therein, or that any machinery therein is so fixed or so insecurely fenced as to be dangerous to life or limb, the Commissioner may by written notice require the owner thereof to take such order in respect thereof as the Commissioner shall think fit to order. (2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect any provisions of the Indian Boilers Act, 1923, and nothing in this section regulating the fixing or fencing of any machinery shall apply to any factory subject to the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948.

248. Regulations of dangerous and offensive trades.

- Except in accordance with the provisions of this Act, no person shall—(a) store or keep in premises any articles mentioned in any bye-laws made under this Act as dangerous or offensive, or as being, or likely to be a nuisance to the public, or dangerous to life, health or property; (b) store or keep in any premises the hide or any part of the carcass of any animal afflicted at the time of its death with infectious or contagious disease; or (c) carry on or allow to be carried on any premises any trade, manufacture, industry or operation mentioned in any bye-laws under this Act as dangerous to life, health or property or as likely to create a nuisance, either from its nature or by reason of the manner in which the conditions under which the same may be carried on : Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the provisions of the India Explosives Act, 1884, or the Petroleum Act, 1934.

249. Premises not to be used for certain purposes without a licence.

(1) No person shall use or permit to be used any premises for any of the following purposes without or otherwise than in conformity with the terms of a licence granted by the Commissioner in this behalf, namely :—(a) carrying on within the city the trade or operations of a farrier; (b) keeping articles in excess of the maximum laid down for such articles by the bye-laws; (c) keeping any article which, except for domestic purposes, is prohibited by any bye-laws; (d) keeping on or upon any building used or intended to be used as a dwelling house or within fifteen feet of such building any quantity of cotton in excess of such quantity as may be prescribed by bye-laws in this behalf; (e) keeping horses, cattle or other four-footed animals for sale or hire or for the sake of the produce thereof, or for any purpose for which any charge or remuneration is made or received; (f) carrying on any of the prescribed trades or operations connected therewith, or any trade or operation which in the opinion of the Commissioner is dangerous to life, health or property, or likely to create a nuisance either from its nature or by reason of the manner in which, or the conditions under which, it is carried on. Explanation I. - A person shall be deemed to know that a trade or operation is in the opinion of the Commissioner, dangerous or create a nuisance within the meaning of this clause after a written notice to that effect signed by the Commissioner has been served on him or affixed to the premises to which it relates. Explanation II. - A person shall be deemed to carry on a trade or operation or to allow to be carried on within the meaning of this clause, if he does any act in furtherance of such trade or is in any way engaged or concerned therein as principal, agent, master or servant or in any other similar capacity, or who does not prevent carrying on of such unauthorised trade or operation on such premises as are his or under his control.(2)It shall be in the discretion of the Commissioner to grant a licence for any of the purposes referred to in sub-section (1) subject to such restrictions or conditions as he may think fit to specify or to refuse to grant such licence.(3)Every person to whom a licence is granted by the Commissioner under sub-section (2) shall exhibit such licence in or upon the premises, to which it relates.(4)Nothing in this section shall be deemed to apply to mills for spinning or weaving cotton, wool, silk or jute or to any other mill or factory which the Commissioner may with the previous approval of the Mayor-in-Council from time to time, specially exempt from the operation thereof.

250. Prohibition of corruption of water by chemicals, etc.

Chapter XXIV

Building Control

293. Prohibition of erection or re-erection of buildings without permission.

(1)No person shall-(i)erect or re-erect any building; or(ii)commence to erect or re-erect any building; or(iii)make any material external alteration to any building; or(iv)construct or re-construct any projecting portion of a building which the Commissioner is empowered by Section 305 to require to be set back or is empowered to give permission to construct or re-construct;-(a)unless the Commissioner has either by an order in writing granted permission or has failed to intimate within the prescribed period his refusal of permission for the erection or re-erection of the building or for the construction or re-construction of the projecting part of the building; or(b)after the expiry of one year from the date of the said permission or such longer period as the Commissioner may allow or from the end of the prescribed period, as the case may be :Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to any work, addition or alteration which the Corporation may by bye-law declare to be exempt.(2)If a question arises whether a particular alteration in or addition to an existing building is or is not a material alteration the matter will be determined by the Commissioner.(3)Any person aggrieved by the order of the Commissioner in this behalf may appeal to the district Court within thirty days of such order in the manner prescribed therefor and the decision of the district Court shall be final.

294. Notice of buildings.

(1)Every person who intends to erect or re-erect a building shall submit to the Commissioner-(a)an application in writing for approval of the site together with a site plan of the land; and in the case of land which is the property of the Government or of the Corporation, a certified copy of the documents authorising him to occupy the land, and if so required by the Commissioner the original document or documents; and(b)an application in writing for permission to build together with a ground plan, elevation and section of the building and a specification of the work to be done.(2)Every plan of any building to be constructed wholly or partly of masonry, submitted under sub-section (1) shall, in token of its having been prepared by him or under his supervision, bear the signature of a licensed surveyor.(3)Every document submitted under sub-section (1) shall be prepared in such manner and shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed by bye-laws.(4)Nothing herein contained shall require a person to comply with the provisions of clause (h) of sub-section (1) until such time as the site has been approved by the Commissioner or such person as he may appoint.(5)[Within the limits prescribed for them, the powers of the Commissioner under this Section may be exercised by Registered Architect/Structural Engineer/Engineer registered with the Corporation for this purpose.] [Substituted by C.G. Act No. 18 of 2012, dated 1.8.2012.]

295. Commissioner to refuse erection or re-erection of buildings.

(1)The Commissioner shall refuse to sanction the erection or re-erection of any building in contravention of any scheme sanctioned under Section 291 or in contravention of any rule or bye-law made under the provisions of this Act.(2)The Commissioner may refuse to sanction the erection or re-erection of any building if in respect of the building there are sufficient reasons which shall be communicated in writing to the applicant, why sanction should not be given, or if the land on which it is proposed to erect or re-erect such buildings is vested in the Government or in the Corporation and the consent of the Government or the Corporation, as the case may be, has not been obtained, or if the title to the land is in dispute between the applicant and the Corporation or the Government.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2) but subject to the provisions of sub-section (10) of Section 291 if the Commissioner within thirty days of the receipt from any person of a valid notice of such person's intention to erect or re-erect a building, or within sixty days of such receipt if the notice relates to a building on the same or part of the same site on which sanction for the erection of a building has been refused within the previous twelve months, neglects or omits to pass orders sanctioning or refusing to sanction such erection or re-erection, such erection or re-erection, shall, unless the land on which it is proposed to erect or re-erect such building belongs to or vests in the Corporation, be deemed to have been sanctioned, except in so far as it may contravene any rule or bye-law or any town-planning scheme sanctioned under this Act or any other enactment for the time being in force :Provided that if an order granting or refusing such sanction is suspended under Section 421 the period specified by this sub-section shall commence to run afresh from the date of communication of final orders under the said sanction by the Government.

296. Grounds on which site of proposed building may be disapproved.

- The Commissioner may on all or any of the following grounds refuse to approve the site on which an applicant proposes to erect or re-erect any building-(a)that the erection or re-erection of the proposed building on such site would be in contravention of a town-planning scheme under Section 291 or of any other provisions of this Act or of any other enactment for the time being in force; or(b)that the site is in a portion within the limits of the City in which the position and direction of the streets have not been determined, and that the building which it is proposed to erect on such site will, in the opinion of the Commissioner, obstruct or interfere with the construction in future of suitable streets in such portion or with the drainage, water-supply or ventilation thereof:Provided that any person to whom permission to erect or re-erect a building on such a site has been refused may, by written notice to the Commissioner require that the position and direction of streets to be laid down in future in the vicinity of the proposed building should be forthwith determined, and if such requisition is not complied with within one year from the date thereof, may, subject to all other provisions of this Act applicable thereto, proceed with the erection of his building; or(c)that the site has been re-claimed or used as a place for depositing sewage, offensive matter or rubbish or the carcasses of dead animals or is otherwise insanitary or dangerous to health; or(d)that the site is in a portion within the limits of the city for which a town-planning scheme has not been sanctioned by the Government and that the building which it is proposed to erect or re-erect on such site will, in the opinion of the Commissioner, be likely to conflict in a manner, to be communicated in writing to the applicant, with the provisions of a town-planning scheme :Provided that any person to whom permission to erect or re-erect a building on such a site has been refused may by written notice to the Commissioner, require that the preparation of a town-planning scheme for the portion in which the site is situated shall be proceeded with as early as possible and if the applicant is not informed in writing within twelve months of the date of the requisition that the Government have sanctioned the said town-planning scheme, he may, subject to all the other provisions of this Act applicable thereto proceed with the erection or re-erection of the building in respect of which the application was made.

297. Grounds on which permission to erect or re-erect building may be refused.

(1)The Commissioner [or, as the case may be, a Registered Architect/Structural Engineer/Engineer to the extent he has been authorized,] [Inserted by C.G. Act No. 18 of 2012, dated 1.8.2012.] shall not grant permission to erect or re-erect any building unless and until he has approved of the site thereof on an application under Section 294.(2)The Commissioner [or, as the case may be, a Registered Architect/Structural Engineer/Engineer to the extent he has been authorized,] [Inserted by C.G. Act No. 18 of 2012, dated 1.8.2012.] shall not grant permission to erect or re-erect any building :-(a)if the plans and specifications submitted with the application show that such building is not in accordance with the town-planning scheme sanctioned under Section 291, or with any provision of this Act, or any rule or bye-law made thereunder, or any provision of any law for the time being in force; or(a-1) if in his opinion the erection or re-erection of such building would be a nuisance or injurious to the inhabitants of the neighbourhood to the public; or(b)unless and until any plans, specifications or particulars called for by him are supplied.

298. Supervision of building and works.

- Every person who intends to erect a new building or executes any such work as is described in Section 294, shall erect the building or execute the work in such manner, under such supervision, through such qualified agency, and subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed by the bye-laws.

299. Power of Commissioner [or, as the case may be, a Registered Architect/Structural Engineer/Engineer to the extent he has been authorized,] [Inserted by C.G. Act No. 18 of 2012, dated 1.8.2012.] to direct modification of a sanctioned plan of a building before its completion.

- The Commissioner [or, as the case may be, a Registered Architect/Structural Engineer/Engineer to the extent he has been authorized,] [Inserted by C.G. Act No. 18 of 2012, dated 1.8.2012.] may before any work has been commenced in pursuance of any permission granted by it under Section 293 revoke such permission and may give fresh permission in lieu thereof on such conditions, in accordance with this Act and the rules, and bye-laws made thereunder, with reference to the matters mentioned in the said section as it thinks proper, and may direct that the work shall not be proceeded with unless and until all questions connected with the respective location of the building and any street have been decided to its satisfaction.

299A. Power of State Government to cancel or revise permission for construction of a building.

- If it is found that any permission for construction of a building has been given in violation of any provision of this Act or Rules or bye-laws made thereunder or in the opinion of the State Government it is necessary in the Public interest that the permission granted by the Municipal Corporation deserves to be cancelled or revised the State Government shall have power to cancel or revise such permission and on such cancellation or revision, as the case may be, any construction contrary to the order regarding cancellation or revision shall be deemed to be without permission and shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder :Provided that no such order shall be passed unless the aggrieved party has been given an opportunity of being heard.[Provided further that in such cases where the permission was granted by a Registered Architect/Structural Engineer/Engineer, the power to cancel or to revise the permission under this Section shall lie with the Commissioner.] [Inserted by C.G. Act No. 18 of 2012, dated 1.8.2012.]

300. Lapse of sanction after one year from the date of such sanction.

- Every sanction for the erection or re-erection of any building shall remain in force for one year only from the date of such sanction, or for such longer period as the Commissioner may have allowed when conveying sanction under Section 293. If the erection or re-erection of the building is not commenced within one year and completed within two years or such longer period as may have been allowed by the Commissioner the sanction shall be deemed to have lapsed; but such lapse shall not bar any subsequent application for fresh sanction under the foregoing provision of this Act.

301. Completion certificate and permission to occupy or use.

(1)Every person who-(i)erects or re-erects any buildings; or(ii)makes any material external alteration in or addition to any existing building; or(iii)constructs or re-constructs any projecting portion of a building which the Commissioner is empowered under Section 305 require to be set back or is empowered to give permission to construct or re-construct; shall within one month of the completion of the work deliver to the Commissioner at his office a notice in writing of such completion and shall give to the Commissioner all necessary facilities for the inspection of such work. (2) Within seven days after the receipt of the said notice the Commissioner shall depute an officer to commence the inspection of such work. (3) Within seven days from the date of commencement of such inspection the Commissioner shall—(a) give permission for the occupation of the building erected or for the use of the part of the building re-erected: or (b) refuse such permission in case such erection, construction or re-construction is in contravention of any provision of this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder or any other enactment for the time being in force. (4) No person shall occupy or permit to be occupied any such building or use or permit to be used any part affected by the re-erection of such building—(a) until the permission referred to in clause (a) of sub-section (3) has been granted in the manner prescribed by bye-laws; (b) unless the Commissioner has failed for fifteen days after the receipt of notice of completion to intimate his refusal to grant the said permission.

302. Power of Commissioner to stop progress of building work unlawfully commenced or carried on.

(1) In any case in which the erection commenced is being carried on unlawfully as mentioned in Section 307, the Commissioner may by written notice require the building operations to be discontinued from the date of service of such notice. (2) Any person failing to comply with the terms of such notice shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to five thousand rupees and if he fails to comply with the terms of such notice after the first day of his failure so to do, with further fine which may extend to two hundred rupees for every such day after the first.

303. Power of Commissioner to direct removal of person from building in which works are unlawfully carried on or which are unlawfully occupied.

(1) If any person contravenes any provision of sub-section (4) of Section 301 or Section 302 or disobeys any direction of the Commissioner made thereunder, the Commissioner after giving twenty-four hours notice shall direct all persons engaged in any capacity in the work of erecting or re-erecting the building in question or part thereof or constructing or re-constructing any projecting portion thereof or occupying or using such building or part thereof to remove themselves and shall take such measures as will prevent any one such persons from again entering into or remaining upon such building or part thereof except with his permission: Provided that any person occupying or using such building or part thereof either as tenant or as owner in contravention of sub-section (4) of Section 301 shall not be directed to remove himself unless he has been served by the Commissioner with one week's notice in writing requiring him to vacate; Provided further that if in the opinion of the Commissioner there is imminent danger to human life, the Commissioner may require such building or part thereof to be vacated immediately. (2) The Commissioner shall, on the application of any person who has vacated any premises in pursuance of a notice under sub-section (1), reinstate such person in the premises on the withdrawal of such notice, unless it is in his opinion impracticable to restore substantially on the same terms of occupation by reason of any structural alteration or demolition.(3)All expenditure incurred in the enforcement of the provisions of this section may be recovered from the person offending.

304. Erection and use of temporary building to be approved by Commissioner.

(1)No building shall be erected for a temporary purpose without the sanction of the Commissioner, or otherwise than in accordance with any bye-laws made in this behalf under this Act.(2)If any building erected for a temporary purpose is not used strictly for such purpose and in accordance with any bye-laws made under this Act or is erected without the sanction of the Commissioner, the building may be demolished by the Commissioner at the expenses of the owner thereof, whether he is prosecuted under this Act or not.

305. Power to regulate line of buildings.

(1)If any part of a building projects beyond the regular line of a public street, either as existing or as determined for the future or beyond the front of immediately adjoining buildings the Corporation may-(a)if the projecting part is a verandah, step or some other structure external to the main building, then at any time; or(b)if the projecting part is not such external structure as aforesaid, then whenever the greater portion of such building or whenever any material portion of such projecting part has been taken down or burned down or has fallen down, require by notice either that the part or some portion of the part projecting beyond the regular line or beyond the front of the immediate adjoining building, shall be removed, or that such building when being rebuilt shall be set back to or towards the said line or front; and the portion of land added to the street by such setting back or removal shall henceforth be deemed to be part of the public street and shall vest in the Corporation :Provided that the Corporation shall make reasonable compensation to the owner for any damage or loss he may sustain in consequence of his building or any part thereof being setback.(2)The Corporation may, on such term as it thinks fit, allow any building to be set forward for the improvement of the line of the street.

306. Compensation.

(1)No compensation shall be claimable by an owner for any damage which he may sustain in consequence of the prohibition of the erection of any building.(2)The Corporation shall make reasonable compensation to the owner for damage or loss which he may sustain in consequence of the prohibition of the re-erection of any building or part of a building except in so far as the prohibition is necessary under any rule or bye-law :Provided that the Corporation shall make full compensation to the owner for any damage he may sustain in consequence of his building or any part thereof being set back unless for a period of three years or more-immediately preceding such notice the building has by reason of its being in a ruinous or dangerous condition become unfit for human habitation or unless an order of prohibition issued under Section 286 has been and still is in force in respect of such building.(3)The Corporation shall make reasonable compensation to the owner for any damage or loss which he may sustain in consequence of the inclusion of his land in a public street but in assessing such compensation, regard shall be had to the benefits accruing to that owner from the development of the land belonging to him and affected by such street.

307. Power to require, removal or alteration of work not in conformity with bye-laws or any scheme or any other requirement.

(1) If any building is erected or re-erected in contravention of any town planning scheme mentioned under Section 291 or of any building bye-laws made under Section 427, the Commissioner without prejudice to his right to take proceedings for a fine in respect of the contravention, may by notice require the owner either to pull down or remove the work or, if he so elects, to effect such alteration therein as may be necessary to make it comply with the said scheme or bye-laws. (2) If a building is erected or re-erected—(a) without any sanction as required by Section 293 (1); or (b) when sanction has been refused; or (c) in contravention of the terms of any sanction granted; or (d) when sanction has lapsed under Section 300, the Commissioner, unless he deems it necessary to take proceedings in respect of such building or work under Section 294, shall—(a) by written notice, require the person who is erecting such building or executing such work or has erected such building or executed such work on or before such day as shall be specified in such notice, by a statement in writing subscribed by him or by an agent duly authorised by him in that behalf and addressed to the Commissioner, to show sufficient cause why such building or work shall not be removed, altered or pulled down; or (b) shall require the said person on such day and at such time and place as shall be specified in such notice to attend personally or by an agent duly authorised by him in that behalf, and show sufficient cause why such building or work shall not be removed, altered or pulled down. (3) If such person shall fail to show sufficient cause, to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, why such building or work shall not be removed, altered or pulled down, the Commissioner may remove, alter or pull down the building or work and the expenses thereof shall be paid by the person. (4) If the plans are approved by the Commissioner and the approval is communicated to the person intending to build the house or if the plans are rejected by the Commissioner but no notice of their rejection is given to person intending to build the house within the prescribed period it shall not be open to the Commissioner to give a notice under sub-sections (1) and (2) on the ground that the building is erected or re-erected in contravention of any scheme or bye-laws or any other requirements under this chapter. (5) Nothing in this section shall affect the right of the Corporation or any other person to apply to the District Court for an injunction or the removal or alteration of any building on the ground that it contravenes any provisions of this Act or the bye-laws made thereunder, but if the building is one in respect of which plans have been deposited and the plans have been passed by the Commissioner, or notice that they have been rejected has not been given within the prescribed period after the deposit thereof, and if the work has been executed in accordance with the plans, the District Court on granting an injunction shall have power to order the Corporation to pay to the owner of the work such compensation as the District Court thinks just, but before making any such order the District Court cause the Commissioner if not a party to be joined as a party to the proceeding.

308. Buildings or works commenced contrary to Act may be cut into and laid open for purpose of inspection.

(1) If there shall be reasonable ground for suspecting that in the erection of any such building or in the execution of any such work as is referred to in Section 307 anything has been done, contrary to any provision of this Act or of any rule or bye-law, or that anything required by any such provision, rule or bye-law to be done has been omitted to be done; and if, on inspecting such building or work, it is found that the same has been completed or is too far advanced to permit of any such fact being ascertained, the Commissioner may with the approval of the Mayor-in-Council, by a written notice require the person who has erected such building or executed such work or is erecting such building or executing such work to cause so much of the building as prevents any such fact being ascertained to be cut into, laid open or pulled down to a sufficient extent to permit of the same being ascertained. (2) If it shall thereupon be found that in the erection of such building or the execution of such work nothing has been done contrary to any provision of this Act or of any rule or bye-law, and that nothing required by any such provision, rule or bye-law to be done has been omitted to be done, compensation shall be paid by the Commissioner to the person aforesaid for the damage and loss incurred by cutting into, laying open or pulling down the building or work.

308A. [Compounding of offences of construction of buildings without permission. [Substituted by C.G. Act No. 18 of 2012, dated 1.8.2012.]

Chapter XXV

Dangerous and Insanitary Buildings

309. Provisions regarding buildings unfit for human habitation.

(1)If it appears to the Commissioner that any building intended or used for human habitation or human occupation for any purpose whatsoever is unfit for such habitation or occupation, he shall give notice in writing to the occupier or to the owner, if the building is not occupied, stating that the building is unfit and signifying his intention to prohibit the further use of such building for such purposes, and calling upon the occupier or owner to state in writing his objections to such prohibition within thirty days from the receipt of the notice. If no objection is stated by such occupier or owner within the said period, or if the objection stated appears to the Commissioner to be insufficient or not well founded, he may, with the previous approval of the Mayor-in-Council prohibit by an order in writing the further use of such building for human habitation or occupation and shall affix a notice to that effect on a conspicuous part of such building :Provided that, before such order is given, the occupier or owner of the building shall be given an opportunity of appearing before the Mayor-in-Council in person or by an agent in support of his objection.(2)Notice of such prohibition shall be served upon the owner of any building affected thereby and also upon every occupier or user thereof, specifying a period, not being less than fourteen days from the date of service of such notice, within which every such person shall remove himself and his removable property from the said building; and if within the period so specified any such person fails to remove himself and his property as aforesaid, the Commissioner may cause him and his property to be removed and may recover from him the cost of such removal.(3)When a building has been vacated by removal under sub-section (2), the Commissioner shall affix a notice to the building in the manner prescribed by bye-laws and no person except with the permission in writing of the Commissioner and in accordance with the terms and conditions of such permission, shall without sufficient cause enter into or remain in such building.(4)Whenever the Commissioner is of opinion that any building intended or used for human habitation is unfit for such habitation or occupation and the Commissioner considers that it can be rendered fit for human habitation or occupation by structural alterations or repairs, he may by a notice in writing call upon the owner to execute within a period of six months from the date of receipt of such notice, such structural alterations or repairs as he deems necessary, and if at the expiry of the aforesaid period such alterations or repairs have not been executed to his satisfaction, he shall issue to the owner a notice in writing ordering the demolition of such building within a period of thirty days from the receipt of the notice or such longer period as the Commissioner may specify.(5)Whenever the Commissioner is of the opinion that the building cannot be rendered fit for human habitation or occupation he may, with the previous approval of the Mayor-in-Council, by a notice in writing call upon the owner to demolish it within a period of thirty days from the receipt of such notice or such longer period as the Commissioner may specify.(6)If at the expiry of the said period an order to demolish a building given under sub-section (4) or sub-section (5) has not been complied with, the Commissioner may with the previous approval of the Mayor-in-Council, direct, by an order in writing, the demolition thereof by any municipal officer, servant or contractor. The materials of the building so demolished shall thereupon be sold by public auction and the proceeds of the sale shall be made over to the owner after deducting the cost of demolition and sale. If the amount realised is not sufficient to cover the cost of the demolition and sale, the balances if any shall be recovered from the owner :Provided that, before such an order is given, the owner of the building shall be given an opportunity of appearing before the Mayor-in-Council in person or by agent, and of showing cause why such order should not be given.(7)Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Commissioner under sub-section (4), (5) or (6) may within a period of one month, appeal to the District Court.(8)If any building in respect of which an order under this section has been given is held under a lease, the lease shall be avoidable at the option of the lessee with effect from the date on which the lessee has to remove himself and his property.

310. Removal of buildings in dangerous state.

(1) If, in the opinion of the Commissioner, any building, wall, structure including under this expression any building, wall, parapet, pavement, floor, steps, railings, door or window-frames or shutters or roof or other structure and anything affixed to or projecting from or resting on any building, wall, parapet or other structure, or any tree standing thereon, is in dangerous state, the Commissioner may by a notice in writing, require the occupier or owner thereof forthwith either to demolish or remove the building, wall, structure or any such tree or cause such repairs to be made thereto as he considers necessary for the public safety; and if the danger appears to him to be imminent, he may forthwith take such steps as may be required to avert such danger, including the forcible removal without notice from such building of all the occupiers thereof and their property. (2) Any expenses incurred by the Commissioner under sub-section (1) shall be paid by the owner of the building, wall, structure, or anything affixed thereto. (3) Except with the permission in writing of the Commissioner no person shall without sufficient cause enter into or remain in any building from which the occupier and his property has been removed under sub-section (1).

311. Abandoned or unoccupied premises.

- If it appears to the Commissioner that any building or structure has been abandoned or is unoccupied and has become a resort of disorderly persons or is by reason of its condition seriously detrimental to the amenities of the neighbourhood, the Commissioner may give a written notice to the owner of such building or structure if he is known and found to be a resident within the limits of the Corporation, or to any person who is known or believed to claim to be owner, if such person is resident within the limits of the Corporation and shall affix a copy of the notice on some conspicuous part of the building or structure requiring all persons having any right or interest therein to take such order with the said building or structure as may, in the opinion of the Commissioner, be necessary to prevent the same from being resorted to as aforesaid or from being seriously detrimental to the amenities of the neighbourhood.

312. Reclamation of low lying sites.

(1) If for any reason it appears to the Commissioner that the level of the site on which it is proposed to erect or re-erect a building is likely to become insanitary or likely to be a source of nuisance, he shall give to the owner of the site proposed to be built upon, a notice in writing, calling upon him to show-cause in writing within thirty days after the receipt of such notice why the site should not be reclaimed with such materials and raised to such height and within such period not being less than six months from the date of the notice, as the Commissioner thinks fit and in the notice the Commissioner shall specify the cost at which the site can be reclaimed and raised by municipal agency if the owner desires to employ that agency. (2) If no objection is stated within such period, as aforesaid, or if any objection which is stated appears to the Commissioner to be insufficient or not well founded, he may by a notice in writing, direct such owner or occupier-(a) to reclaim and raise the site within the specified period; or (b) within thirty days after the receipt of the said notice to pay to the Commissioner the estimated cost of reclaiming and raising the site by municipal agency. (3) In any case in which the estimated cost of the reclamation has not been paid to the Commissioner, and the owner still proposes to erect the building and fails to commence the reclamation within three months of the receipt of the notice under sub-section (2), or if fails to raise the site to the specified height with the specified materials within the specified period, the Commissioner may recover from him the estimated cost as stated in the notice issued under sub-section (1), or so much thereof as the Commissioner considers necessary to complete the work and shall carry out and complete the work.

312A. Power to prohibit re-erection of building on inaccessible sites.

- If any building so situate as to be inaccessible to a fire-engine or as to cause obstruction to a fire-engine from reaching other buildings is demolished or destroyed by fire or otherwise, the Commissioner may by a notice in writing addressed to the owner of the building demolished or destroyed as aforesaid, direct that no building shall be erected which would be inaccessible to a fire-engine or which would cause obstruction to a fire-engine from reaching other buildings.(2)No person shall erect or re-erect any building in contravention of a notice under sub-section (1).

313. Removal of building materials from any premises in certain cases.

- If it appears to the Commissioner that any stones, rafters, building materials or debris of building materials stored or collected in or upon any premises in such quantity or bulk or in such a way as to constitute a harbourage or breeding place for rats or other vermin or is otherwise a source of danger or nuisance to the occupiers of the said premises or to persons residing in the neighbourhood thereof, the Commissioner may by a written notice require the owner of such premises, or the owner of the materials or debris so stored or collected therein, to remove or dispose of the same or to take such order with the same as may, in the opinion of the Commissioner, be necessary or expedient to abate the nuisance or prevent a recurrence thereof.

314. Power of Commissioner to call for statement of accommodation.

(1)The owner of a building shall, within a period of seven days of the receipt of a written notice from the Commissioner, supply such information with respect to such building or its occupants as the Corporation may prescribe by bye-laws.(2)The occupier of a building occupied as a separate tenement shall on like notice and within the like period supply such information as may be prescribed with respect to such building as aforesaid which is in his occupation.

315. Cleaning and disinfecting of buildings.

(1)Should the owner part-owner, or occupier of any building suffer the same to be in a filthy or unwholesome state, the Commissioner may by a notice require him within twenty-four hours to cleanse the same or otherwise put it in a proper state and thereafter to keep it in a clean and proper state and if it appears to be necessary for sanitary purposes so to do, may, at any time by a notice, direct the occupier of any building to lime-wash or otherwise cleanse the said building inside and outside in the manner and within a period to be specified in the notice.(2)If the Commissioner is of the opinion that the cleansing or disinfecting of a building or any part, thereof, or of any article therein, which is likely to retain infection, will tend to prevent or check the spread of any disease, he may, by a notice require the owner or occupier to cleanse or disinfect the same in the manner and within the period to be specified in the notice.

316. Buildings to include part of a building for purposes of this Chapter.

- For the purpose of this chapter the expression 'building' includes a part of a building.

Chapter XXVI

StreetsPublic Streets

317. Closing of public streets.

(1)The Corporation may with the previous sanction of the Government permanently close the whole or any part of a public street :Provided that no such street or part thereof shall be closed unless for a period of not less than one month before the date of the meeting of the Corporation at which the matter is to be decided, a notice has been posted in the street or part thereof which it is proposed to close informing the residents of the proposal and until any objections to the proposal made in writing at any time before the day of the said meeting have been received and considered by the Corporation.(2)When any public street or part thereof is permanently closed under sub-section (1), the site of such street, or of the part thereof which has been closed, may be disposed of, subject to the provisions of Section SO as land belonging to the Corporation.

317A. Laying railways, tramways or electrical, telephone poles.

(1)Without the previous permission in writing of the Commissioner no person shall lay on, under or above any public street any railway or tramway or erect or lay any poles or cables or the like, or operate the same.(2)The Commissioner shall give such permission in accordance with any general or special rules which may be made by the Government after considering any representation made by the Corporation.(3)Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect any provision of the Indian Telegraph Act, 1985 (13 of 1885), the Indian Tramways Act, 1886 (II of 1886), the Indian Railways Act, 1890 (9 of 1890), or the Indian Electricity Act, 1910(9 of 1910).

318. Prohibition of projection upon streets.

(1)Except with the previous permission of the Commissioner and in accordance with such terms and conditions, including the payment of rent, as he may impose, no person shall erect, add to, set up or place against or in front of any premises any structure or fixture or obstruction which will-(a)overhang or, project into or encroach upon or in any way obstruct the passage of the public along any street; or(b)project into or encroach upon or cover any drain or open channel in any street so as to interfere in any way with the use or proper working of such drain or channel or to impede the inspection or cleansing thereof.(2)The Commissioner may, by a written notice, require the owner or occupier of any premises to take such order as he may direct with any structure, fixture, or covering which has been erected, set up or placed against or in front of the said premises in contravention of this section.(3)Any rent payable under this section shall be recoverable under Chapter XII of this Act.

319. Procedure to be followed by Commissioner on conviction of a person under Section 434.

- When any person has been convicted under Section 434, the Commissioner may-(a)by a notice, require such person to remove the overhanging structure, encroachment or obstruction and where necessary, to restore the street, drain or channel to the condition it was in before the encroachment; and(b)if the requirement is not complied with within the time fixed in the notice, have the required act done by his subordinate officers at the expenses of such person and recover the cost of required act from such person as an arrear of tax under Chapter XII of this Act.

320. Restriction on powers of municipal authorities in relation to streets.

(1)The Corporation or the Commissioner shall not in respect of any street vested in the Government grant permission to do any act the doing of which without the permission of the Corporation or the Commissioner is punishable under this Act or the rules or bye-laws made thereunder except with the previous sanction of the Government which may accord its sanction either generally or in particular case.(2)The Corporation or the Commissioner shall, if so required by the Government exercise in respect of such streets, all or any of the powers conferred by this Act upon the Corporation or the Commissioner as the case may be.

321. Footings of buildings not to establish title to land belonging to Government or vesting in Corporation.

- No title to any land belonging to or vested in the Government or the Corporation shall be deemed to have been acquired by reason only that the footing of the foundations of any building, wall or other structure project or have projected below the surface of such land.

322. Prohibition of obstruction in streets.

(1)No person shall, except with the written permission of the Commissioner granted in this behalf and in accordance with such conditions including the payment of rent or lee, as he may impose either generally or specially in this behalf :-(a)erect or set up any wall, fence, rail, post, step, booth or other structure whether fixed or movable or whether of a permanent or temporary nature, or any fixture in or upon any street so as to form an obstruction to, or an encroachment upon, or a projection over, or to occupy any portion of such street, channel, drain, well or tank.(b)deposit upon any street or upon any open channel, drain or well in any street or upon any public place, any stall, chair, bench box, ladder, bale or other thing whatsoever, so as to form an obstruction thereto or encroachment thereon.(2)Whoever contravenes any provision of sub-section (1) shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both and with further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day on which such contravention continues after the elate of first conviction for such offence.(3)Without prejudice to the action under sub-section (2), the Commissioner notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, may after giving such notice as may be prescribed, cause to be removed any obstruction or encroachment as described in clause (a) and (b) of sub-section (1).(4)Any of the things caused to be removed by the Commissioner under sub-section (3), shall, unless the owner thereof turns up to lake back such things and pays to the Commissioner the charges for the removal and storage of such things, be disposed of by the Commissioner by public auction or in such other manner and within such time as the Commissioner thinks fit.(5)The Police Officer shall not investigate into the offence under this section except on a report made in writing in this behalf by the Commissioner.

322A. Maintenance of record and submission of report of encroachment.

(1)Every officer in charge of a Ward Committee or such other officer or servant to whom the duties have been assigned to maintain record of open land or public places belonging to the Corporation shall be responsible to submit reports of occurrence of any encroachment.(2)The Commissioner on receipt of report under sub-section (1) shall take action to remove such encroachment as soon as possible.(3)If the officer or servant in charge responsible to keep watch over the encroachments, fails to inform the Commissioner within one month from the date of occurrence of encroachment, such officer or servant shall be deemed to be guilty of dereliction of his duties and disciplinary action shall be taken against such officer or servant.(4)The Commissioner shall inform the Mayor-in-Council every month about the states of encroachment on open land or public places belonging to the Corporation, the action taken or proposed to be taken in respect of them and the name of officers and servants found guilty of dereliction of duties as envisaged under sub-section (3).

323. Streets not to be opened or broken up and building materials not to be deposited therein without permission.

(1)Except in such cases as the Government may by general or special order exempt from the operation of this section, no person shall, except with the permission of the Commissioner and in accordance with such terms and conditions, including payment of rent or otherwise, as the Commissioner may impose either generally or in each special case-(a)open, break up, displace, take up or make any alteration in or cause any injury to, the soil or pavement, or any wall, fence, post, chain or other material or thing forming part of any street or in any open space vested in the Corporation; or(b)deposit any building material in any street or in any open space vested in the Corporation; or(c)set up in any street or in any open space vested in the Corporation any scaffold or any temporary erection for the purpose of any work whatever, or any posts, bars, rails, boards or other things by way of enclosure, for the purpose of making mortar or depositing bricks, lime, rubbish or other materials.(2)Any permission granted under clause (b) or (c) of sub-section (I) shall be terminable at the discretion of the Commissioner on his giving not less than twenty-four hours' written notice of the termination thereof to the person to whom such permission was granted.(3)The Commissioner may without notice-(a)cause the soil or pavement or any wall, fence, post, channel or other material forming part of the street to be restored to the condition it was in before any opening or breaking up or displacement, or alteration or damage made or done without the permission of the authority specified in sub-section (1);(b)cause to be removed any building materials, any scaffold or any temporary erection, or any posts, bars, rails, boards or other things by way of enclosure, which have been deposited or set up in any street or in any open space vested in the Corporation without any permission of the authority specified in sub-section (I) or which, having been deposited or set up with such permission, have not been removed within the period specified in the notice issued under sub-section (2) and recover the costs of such restoration or removal from the offender.

324. Ground floor doors, etc. not to open outwards on streets.

- If any door, gate, bar or window on the ground floor of any premises opens outwards upon a street or upon any land required for the improvement of a street in such a manner as, in the opinion of the Commissioner, to obstruct the safe or convenient passage of the public along such street, the Commissioner may at any time by a written notice require the owner of the said door, gate, bar or window altered so as not to open outwards.

325. Power to require removal of old projections.

(1)If any such structure, fixture or covering as is described in Section 318 has already been erected, set up or placed against or in front of any premises, the Commissioner may give notice under sub-section (2) of the said section to the owner of the said premises.(2)If the owner or occupier of the building proves that any such structure, fixture or covering was authorised by any law previously in force or that it was erected with the consent of any Corporation authority duly empowered in that behalf, the Corporation shall, after such structures have been removed, make reasonable compensation to every person who suffers damage by the removal or alteration thereof.Private Streets

326. Notice to be given to Commissioner of intention to lay out lands for, building and for private streets.

(1)Every person who intends-(a)to sell or let on lease any land subject to a covenant or agreement on the part of a purchaser or lessee to erect buildings thereon;(b)to divide land whether unbuilt or partly built into building plots;(c)to use any land or a portion thereof or permit the same to be used for building purposes; or(d)to make or lay out a private street, whether it is intended to allow the public a right of passage or access over such street or not :shall give written notice of his intention to the Commissioner and shall, along with such notice, submit plan and sanction showing the situation and boundaries of such building land and the site of the private street, if any, and also the situation and boundaries of all other lands of such person of which such building, land or site forms a part and the intended development laying out and plotting of such building, land including the dimensions and area of each building plot and also the intended level, direction, width, means of drainage, paving, metalling and lighting of such private streets, the provisions, for planting and rearing of trees beside such private street, and the height and means of drainage and ventilation of the building or buildings proposed to be erected on the land, if any building when erected will not abut on a street than already existing or than intended to be made as aforesaid the means of access from and to such building and the manner of paving, metalling, draining and lighting of such means of access.(2)Commissioner may call for further particulars.-If any notice under sub-section (1) does not supply all the information which the Commissioner deems necessary to enable him to deal satisfactorily with the case or if any such notice given for any of, or all the purposes mentioned in clauses (a), (b), (c) of sub-section (1) does not contain any proposal or intention to make or lay out a private street, he may, at any time within thirty days after receipt of the said notice, by written notice require the person who gave the said notice-(a)to furnish the required information together with all or any of the documents specified in the bye-laws; or(b)to revise any or all the schemes submitted under the said clause (a), (b) or (c) so as to provide for the making or laying out of a private street or streets of such width or widths as he may specify in addition to or in substitution of any means of excess proposed to be provided in such scheme or schemes and to furnish such further information and documents relating to the revised scheme or schemes as he may specify.

327. Level of the street to be determined by Commissioner.

- The level, direction, width, and means of drainage of every new street and the height and means of drainage of the buildings to be erected on each side thereof shall be fixed and determined by the Commissioner.

328. New streets not to be made and buildings on either side thereof not to be erected except in accordance with the direction of Commissioner.

(1)No person shall make or lay out any new street or erect any building on either side thereof otherwise than in accordance with the direction of the Commissioner under Section 327.(2)If any such new street be made or laid out, or if any building on either side of any such street be erected by any person in contravention of this section, the Commissioner may, by a written notice require the said person to make a statement in writing subscribed by him in that behalf and addressed to the Commissioner to show-cause on or before such date as may be specified in such notice why such street or building should not be altered to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, or if that is impracticable, why the same should not be demolished or removed; or may require the said person on such day and at such time and place as may be specified in such notice to appear before the Commissioner, as the case may be, either personally or by an agent and to show cause as aforesaid.(3)If such person fails to show sufficient cause as aforesaid, the Commissioner may cause the street or building to be so altered or to be demolished or removed and may recover the expenses thereof from the said person.

329. Levelling, metalling, etc. of streets.

(1)If any street be not levelled, paved, lighted, severed, drained, channelled or (lagged to the satisfaction of the Commissioner, he may, with the approval of the Mayor-in-Council by a written notice, require the owner or owners of the street and the owners of the several premises fronting or adjoining the said street, or abutting thereon, or to which access is obtained through such street, or which will benefit by works executed under this section, to contribute within thirty days from the date of receipt of notice in such proportions as he may direct to the cost of levelling, metalling, tarring or asphaltting, paving, lighting, sewerage, draining, or flagging the same. (2) The notice shall show-(a) the nature of the intended works; (b) the estimated expenses thereof including 5 percent for contingencies; (c) the proportion of the expenses payable by each owner. - When any notice, bill, schedule, summons or other document is required by this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder to be served upon or issued or presented to any person as owner or occupier of any land or building, in so far as it concerns that land or building, lite service, or issue or presentation thereof shall be effected either-(a)by giving or tendering to any person whose name has been entered in the assessment list of the owners, or one of the owners of the property concerned, or to the occupier thereof; or(b)if the owner or occupier or no one of the owners or occupier is found, by giving or tendering the said notice, bill, schedule, summons or other document to some adult member or servant of the family of the owners or occupier, or of any of the owners or occupiers; or(c)by causing the said notice, bill, schedule, summons or other document to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the hind building to which the document relates; or(d)by delivering at some post office, the said notice, bill, schedule, summons or other document under cover addressed by the description of the owner or occupier of.....(here describing the properly concerned) without further name or description of the person concerned, and obtaining a certificate of posting the same from the post office; or(e)by any one or more of these methods.

370. Service of notices, etc., how to be effected on any person otherwise than as owner or occupier of premises.

- When any notice, bill, schedule, summons or other document is required by this Act or by any rule or bye-law made thereunder, to be served upon or issued or presented to any person, otherwise than as owner or occupier of any land or building, such service, issue or presentation shall be effected-(a)by delivering at some post office the said notice, bill, schedule, summons, or other such documents under cover bearing the address of the person concerned and obtaining therefor a certificate of posting, or(b)by giving or tendering to such person the said notice, bill schedule, summons or other such documents, or(c)by both methods.

370A. The two preceding sections inapplicable to Court's summons.

- Nothing in the two preceding sections shall apply to any summons issued under this Act by a Court.

371. Public notices how to be made known.

- Whenever it is provided by or under this Act that public notice shall or may be given of anything, such public notice shall, in the absence of special provision to the contrary, be in writing under the signature of the Commissioner or of a municipal officer empowered under sub-section (4) of Section 69 to give the same, and shall be widely made known in the locality to be effected thereby, by affixing copy thereof in conspicuous public places within the said locality, or by publishing the same by beat of drum, or by advertisement in the local newspapers, or by any two or more of these means and by any other means that the Commissioner shall think fit.

372. Power of entry on premises for purposes of inspection, survey or execution of necessary work.

(1)Any municipal officer duly authorised in this behalf by the Commissioner or any Councillor authorised by the Mayor may enter into or upon any premises, with or without assistants or workmen, in order to make any inspection, survey, measurement, valuation or inquiry, or execute any work which is authorised by this Act or by any rule or bye-law made thereunder or which, in his opinion it is necessary or expedient for any of the purposes or in pursuance of any of the provisions of this Act or of any such rule or bye-law, to make or execute :Provided as follows :-(a)except when it is in this Act or in any rule or bye-law made thereunder otherwise expressly provided, no such entry shall be made between sunset and sunrise;(b)except when it is in this Act or in any rule or bye-law made thereunder otherwise expressly provided, no building used as a dwelling house shall be so entered, unless with the consent of the occupier thereof, without giving the said occupier at least six hours' previous notice in writing of the intention to make such entry, and, except where it is inexpedient, to mention the purpose thereof;(c)notwithstanding any power to enter any premises conferred upon municipal officers or councillors by this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder sufficient notice of such entry shall in every instance be given to enable the inmates of any apartment appropriate to women to withdraw to some part of the premises where their privacy may not be disturbed;(d)due regard shall always be had, so far as may be compatible with the exigencies of the purpose for which the entry is made, to the social and religious usages of occupants of the premises entered.(2)Except when it is in this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder otherwise expressly provided, no claim shall lie against any person for compensation for any damage unavoidably caused by any entry made or by the use of any force necessary for effecting such entry:Provided that force shall not be used for effecting an entry, unless there is reason to believe that an offence has been or is being committed against some provisions of this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder.

373. Power of entry on lands adjacent to works.

(1)Any Municipal Officer duly authorised to carry out works may enter upon any land adjoining or within one hundred yards of any works authorised by this Act or by any rule or bye-law made thereunder and deposit any earth, gravel, sand, lime, bricks, stone or other materials necessary for such works, or for any other purpose connected with the carrying on of such works.(2)Such officer shall, before depositing materials under sub-section (1), give the owner or occupier of the land reasonable notice of his intention to make such entry and of the purpose thereof, and shall, if so required by the owner or occupier, set apart by sufficient fences so much of the land as may be required for the purposes mentioned in this said sub-section.(3)The municipal officer shall not be bound to make any payment, lender or deposit before entering upon any land under sub-section (1), but, shall do as little damage as may be, and the Commissioner shall pay compensation to the owner or occupier of the land for any temporary damage that may be done in consequence of such entry, and shall also pay compensation to the said owner for any permanent damage resulting therefrom.

374. Right of entry into and inspection of premises licensed for any purpose.

- Any Councillor or any Committee authorised by the Mayor in that behalf or the Commissioner, or any Municipal officer authorised by him in that behalf may at any time by day or night and without notice enter into or upon any place or premises used or intended to be used for any purpose for which any licence or permission is required by or under this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder in order to satisfy himself whether any provision of this Act or any rule or bye-law or any condition of any licence or permission granted or required under this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder is being contravened, and whether any nuisance is being created in or upon such place or premises.

375. Prohibition of obstructing entry.

- No person shall, in any way, obstruct any Committee or Councillor or any municipal officer duly authorised in that behalf in making any entry under Sections 365, 372, 373 or 374 any other municipal officer or any other person accompanying him at his request or acting under his orders for the purpose of such entry.Enforcement of orders to execute, works, etc.

376. Execution of works which any person is required to execute by Commissioner at such person's cost.

(1)When any requisition order is made under this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder, by written notice issued by the Commissioner or by municipal officer duly empowered in this behalf, a reasonable period to be determined by the Commissioner shall be prescribed in such notice for carrying such requisition or order into effect.(2)If within the period so prescribed, such requisition or order or any portion thereof is not complied with, the Commissioner may take such measures or cause such work to be executed or things to be done, as may in his opinion, be necessary for giving due effect to the requisition or order so made and unless it is in this Act or in any rule or bye-law made thereunder otherwise expressly provided, the expenses thereof shall be paid by the person or any one or more of the persons to whom such requisition or order was addressed.(3)When a person is required under any provision of this Act or under any rule or bye-law made thereunder to supply any materials or fittings or to do any work, the Commissioner may, upon the requisition of such person in writing, supply the necessary materials or fittings or cause the necessary work to be done in this behalf :Provided that the said person shall first deposit a sum sufficient in the opinion of the Commissioner to cover the cost of the said materials, fittings or work.(4)When a person is required to execute any work under the provisions of this Act or under any rule or bye-law made thereunder, the Commissioner may, for reasons to be recorded in writing instead of giving him the option of executing it, cause such work to be executed by municipal or other agency under his own supervision, and may recover the expenses incurred thereby from the person liable to execute the work :Provided that the Corporation may, on the advice of the Commissioner, execute the work at the cost of the municipal fund.Recovery of expenses

377. Power of Commissioner to accept agreement for payment of expenses in instalments.

(1)Whenever under this Act or under any rule or bye-law made thereunder, the cost of any work executed or of any measure taken or thing done, by or, under the order of a municipal authority, any magistrate or any municipal officer empowered in this behalf, is payable by any person, the Commissioner may, with the approval of the Mayor-in-Council, instead of recovering any such cost in any other manner provided in this Act or in any rule or bye-law made thereunder, take an agreement from the said person to pay the same in instalments of such amount and at such intervals as will secure the payment of the whole amount due, with interest thereon at the rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, within a period of not more than five years.(2)If any instalment is not paid on or before the date on which it falls due, the Commissioner may thenceforward recover interest on the sum then due at such rate not exceeding nine per centum per annum as he may deem fit.

378. Power to declare certain expenses to be improvement expenses.

- If any cost or expenses recoverable under this Act have been incurred by the Commissioner under any provision of this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder in respect of, or for the benefit of, any land or building, the Commissioner may with the approval of the Corporation declare such costs or expenses to be improvement expenses.

379. Improvement expenses how recoverable and by whom payable.

(1)Improvement expenses declared as such under Section 378 shall be a charge on the premises in respect of which or for the benefit of which, they have been incurred, and shall be recoverable in instalments of such amount, not being less than twelve rupees per annum for each separate property, and at such intervals as will suffice to discharge such expenses, together with interest thereon at a rate not exceeding six per centum per annum, within such period, not exceeding thirty years, as the Corporation may in each case determine.(2)The said instalments shall be payable by the owner of the premises on which the expenses are still payable or by the occupier to the extent of the rent which has or may become due from him.(3)If any instalment is not paid on or before the date on which it falls due, the Commissioner may recover interest on the sum due at such rate not exceeding nine per centum per annum as he may deem fit.

380. Right of owner or occupier to redeem charge for improvement expenses.

- At any time before the expiry of the period for the payment of any improvement expenses, the owner or occupier of the premises on which they are charged may redeem such charge by paying to the Commissioner such part of the said expenses as are still payable.

381. Execution of work by occupier in default of owner and deduction of expenses from rent.

- Whenever the owner of any land or building fails to execute any work which he is required to execute under this Act or under any rule or bye-law made thereunder the occupier, if any, of such land or building may with the previous approval of the Commissioner, execute the said work and shall be entitled to recover from the owner the reasonable expenses incurred by him in so doing and may, without prejudice to any other right of recovery, deduct the amount thereof from the rent payable by him to the owner.

382. Limitation of liability of agent or trustee.

- No person who receives the rent of any land or building as an agent or trustee only shall be liable to do anything which by this Act or any rule or bye-law made thereunder is required to be done by an owner, if he proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that he has not in his hands funds belonging or payable to the owner sufficient for the purpose ;Provided that nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent the Commissioner from carrying out the necessary works and recovering the expenses so incurred from the actual owner.Payment of compensation

383. General power of Commissioner to pay compensation.

- In any case not otherwise expressly provided for in this Act, or in any rule or bye-law made thereunder the Commissioner may, with the previous approval of the Mayor-in-Council, pay compensation to any person who sustains damage by reason of the exercise of any of the powers vested by this Act or by any such rule or bye-law in the Commissioner, or in any municipal officer or servant.

384. Compensation to owner for value of immovable property deteriorated.

(1) In any case in which immovable property has deteriorated in value owing to the exercise of any powers conferred by Sections 190, 191, 192, 193, 211, 213, 214 and 285, Corporation may offer to the owner of the property reasonable compensation. (2) If the owner of the property which has deteriorated in value accepts the compensation, he shall be deemed to have granted to the Corporation a perpetual right to continue the exercise of its powers under any of the said sections in such a manner as not to create greater nuisance or to cause greater damage than was being created, or caused at the time when compensation was received. Complaint of injury

385. Procedure on complaint of injury.

(1) Any person who is injuriously affected by the exercise of any power conferred by Sections 190, 191, 192, 193, 211, 213, 214 and 285 may complaint to the First Class Magistrate having jurisdiction that more than the least practicable nuisance or damage has been created or caused. (2) Upon receipt of the complaint the Magistrate may, after making such enquiry as he deems fit, direct the Corporation-(a) to take such measures as it may deem practicable and reasonable for preventing, abating, removing or diminishing the nuisance or damage; (b) to pay to the complainant all reasonable costs of and relating to his complaint, which costs may include compensation for the complaint's loss of time in prosecuting the complaint. (3) It shall be incumbent on the Corporation, the Mayor-in-Council or the Commissioner, as the case may be, to obey every such order. (4) Any appeal shall lie to the district Court from an order passed by the Magistrate under this section within one month from the date of such order.

386. Compensation to be paid by offenders against this Act for any damage caused by them.

(1) Any person who has been convicted of an offence punishable under this Act or under any rule or bye-law made thereunder shall, notwithstanding any punishment for which he may have been sentenced for the said offence, be liable to pay such compensation for any damage to any property of the Corporation resulting from the said offence as the Commissioner may consider reasonable. (2) In the event of dispute regarding the amount of compensation payable under sub-section (1) such amount shall, on application made to him, be determined by the Magistrate, before whom the said person was convicted of the said offence and on his failure to pay the amount of compensation so determined, the same shall be recovered under a warrant issued by the said Magistrate as if it were a fine inflicted by him on the person liable to pay the compensation. The amount of compensation so recovered shall be credited to the Municipal Fund. Recovery of expenses or compensation in case of disputes

387. Arbitration in cases of compensation, etc.

(1) If an agreement is not arrived at with respect to any compensation or damages which are by this Act directed to be paid, the amount and if necessary the apportionment of the same shall be ascertained and determined by a Panchayat of three persons of whom one shall be appointed by the Corporation, one by the party, to or from whom such compensation or damages may be payable or recoverable and one, who shall be Sarpanch, shall be selected by the members already appointed as above. (2) If either party or both parties fail to appoint members within one month from the date of either party receiving written notice from the other of claim to such compensation or damages, or if the members fail to select a Sarpanch, such members as may be necessary to constitute the Panchayat shall be appointed, at the instance of either party, by the District Court. (3) In the event of the Panchayat not giving a decision within one month or such other longer period as may be agreed to by both the parties from the date of the selection of Sarpanch or of the appointment by the District Court of such members as may be necessary to constitute the Panchayat, the matter shall, on application by either party be determined by the District Court which shall, in cases in which the compensation is claimed in respect of land, follow as far as may be the procedure provided by the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, for proceedings in matters referred for the determination of the Court: Provided that—(a) no application to the Collector for a reference shall be necessary; and (b) the Court shall have full power to give and apportion the costs of all proceedings in manner it thinks fit. (4) In any case where the compensation is claimed in respect of land and the Panchayat has given a decision, either party, if dissatisfied with the decision, may within a month of the date thereof apply to the District Court and the matter shall be determined by the District Court in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3). (5) In any case where the compensation is claimed in respect of any land or building, the Corporation may after the award has been made by the Panchayat or the District Court, as the case may be, take possession of the land or building after paying the amount of the compensation determined by the Panchayat or the District Court to the party to whom such compensation, may be payable. If such party refuses to accept such compensation, or if there is no person competent to alienate the land or building, or if there is any dispute as to the title to the compensation or as to the apportionment of it, the Corporation shall deposit the amount of the compensation in the District Court, and take possession of such property.

388. Recovery of sums ascertained under Section 387 to be due.

- If the amount of any expenses, compensation or damages determined in accordance with Section 387 is not paid on demand by the person liable to pay the same, it shall be recoverable as if the same were due under the decree of the District Court.

389. Saving of right to claim damages for injury.

- Nothing in this Act shall affect the right of any person who may suffer injury or whose property may be injuriously affected by reason of any act done in exercise of any power conferred by Sections 190, 191, 192, 193, 211, 213, 214 and 285 to recover damages. Recovery of certain dues

390. Recovery of certain dues by distress and sale.

- In any case not expressly provided for in this Act or in any rule or bye-law made thereunder, any sum due to the Corporation on account of any charge, costs, expenses, fees, rates or rent or on any other account under this Act or under any such rule or bye-law, shall be recoverable by distress and sale of the movable property of the person from whom such sum is due, in the manner provided by Chapter XII.

390A. Recovery of dues under any lease, contract or agreement.

- Any sum falling due to the Corporation whether prior to or after the commencement of the Chhattisgarh Municipal Corporation Amendment) Act, 1986 under any lease, contract or agreement to which the Corporation is a party shall notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law, lease, contract or agreement for the time being in force, be recoverable by distress and sale of movable property of the person from whom such sum is due in the manner provided by Chapter XII.

391. If the defaulter is the owner of premises in respect of which expenses are payable the occupier may also be liable for payment thereof.

- If the default referred to in the last preceding section is in connection with a building or land and the defaulter is the owner thereof, the sum due may be demanded from any person who at the time when the said expenses were incurred occupied the said building or land under or from the said owner. In the event of the occupier failing to pay the sum due, it may be recovered by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the said person as if the amount thereof were a property tax due by him :Provided that-(a)if the occupier makes a true disclosure of the name and address of the person to whom the rent is due and proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the amount of rent payable by him to that person on the date of the demand for the payment of the said expenses was less than the amount of the said demand, then the occupier shall not be liable to pay on account of the said demand, any sum greater than the amount payable as rent on the date aforesaid;(b)the occupier shall be entitled to credit in account with the owner for any sum recovered from him on account of the said expenses;(c)nothing in this section shall affect any agreement made between the occupier and the owner respecting the payment of expenses as aforesaid.Proceedings before Court

392. Decision of the District Court.

- Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other law for the time being in force, the District Court shall exercise all the powers and jurisdiction expressly conferred on or vested in it by the provisions of this Act, and unless it is otherwise expressly provided by this Act, its decision shall be subject to revision by the High Court.

393. Procedure in inquiries before Civil Courts.

(1) For the purpose of any appeal, inquiry or proceeding under this Act, the High Court and the District Court may exercise all the powers conferred on them by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, and the Chhattisgarh Civil Courts Act, 1958 (19 of 1958) and shall observe the procedure prescribed in the said enactments, so as it is not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. (2) The costs of every appeal, inquiry, or proceeding under this Act shall be payable by such parties and in such proportions as the Court may direct and the amount thereof shall, if necessary, be recoverable as if it were due under a decree of the Court.

394. Fees in proceedings before Civil Courts.

(1) The Government may by notification in the Gazette prescribe what fee, if any, shall be paid-(a) on any application, appeal or reference made under this Act to the District Court; and (b) for the issue in connection with any enquiry or proceeding of the Court under this Act, of any summons or other process : Provided that the fee (if any) prescribed under clause (a) shall not, in cases in which the value of the claim or subject-matter is capable of being estimated in money exceed the fees leviable, for the time being, in cases in which the value of the claim or subject-matter is of like amount. (2) The Government may, from time to time, by a like notification, determine by what person any fee prescribed under clause (a) of sub-section (1) shall be payable. (3) No application, appeal or reference shall be received by the District Court until the fee, if any, prescribed under clause (a) of sub-section (1) has been paid.

395. Limitation.

- Where no time is prescribed by this Act for the presentation of an application or appeal, such application or appeal shall be presented subject to the provisions of Section 5 of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908, which is hereby made applicable to such application or appeals within thirty days after the date of the order in respect of or against which the application or appeal is made : Provided that if the application is an application for revision to the High Court the period of limitation shall be sixty days. 441D. Decision of election petition.

(1) At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, the Court shall make an order—(a) dismissing the election petition; or (b) declaring the election or nominations of all or any of the returned candidates to be void; or (c) declaring the election or nominations of all or any of the returned candidates to be void and the petitioner and any other candidate to have been duly elected or nominations. (2) If any person who filed an election petition has, in addition to calling in question the election or nominations of the returned candidate, claimed declaration, that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected or nominations and the Court is of opinion—(a) that in fact the petitioner or such other candidate received a majority of the valid votes; or (b) that but for the votes obtained by the returned candidate the petitioner or such other candidate would have obtained a majority of the valid votes, the Court shall, after declaring the election or nominations of the returned candidate to be void, declare the petitioner or such other candidate, as the case may be, to have been duly elected or nominations. (3) At the time of making an order under this section, the Court shall also make an order—(a) where any charge is made in the petition of any corrupt practice having been committed at the election or nominations, recording—(i) a finding whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed at the election or nominations, and the nature of that corrupt practice; and (ii) the name of all persons, if any, who have been proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt practice and the nature of that practice; and (b) fixing the total amount of costs payable, and specifying the person by and to whom costs shall be paid : Provided that a person who is not a party to the petition shall not be named in the order under sub-clause (ii) of clause (a) unless-(a)he has been given notice to appear before the Court and show-cause why he should not be so named; and(b)if he appears in pursuance of the notice, he has been given an opportunity of cross-examining any witness who has already been examined by the Court and has given evidence against him, of calling evidence in his defence and of being heard.

441E. Procedure in case of equality of votes.

- If during the trial of an election petition it appears that there is an equality of votes between any candidate at the election or nominations and that in addition of a vote would entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected or nominations, then, the Court shall decide between them by lot and proceed as if the one for whom the lot falls had received an additional vote.

441F. Finality of decisions.

(1)No appeal shall lie against the decision of the Court on petition.(2)Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Court on the petition may within thirty days from the date of such decision apply to the High Court for revision on any of the following grounds-(a)that the decision is contrary to law;(b)that the Court has exercised jurisdiction not vested in it by law or has failed to exercise jurisdiction vested in it by, law, but subject to such orders as the High Court may pass thereon, such decision shall be final.

441G. Disqualification arising out of corrupt practices.

- If any person, after the commencement of this Act, is, upon the trial of an election petition thereunder, found guilty of any corrupt practice, he shall, for a period of five years from the date on which such finding takes effect, be disqualified for voting at any election :Provided that the State Government may, by notification, remove the disqualification incurred under this section with effect from such date as may be specified therein.
