Act No. 14 of 1976.]

Chapter VII

Disputes and Arbitration

64. Disputes.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, [any dispute touching the constitution, management or business, terms and conditions of employment of a society or the liquidation of a society shall be referred to the Registrar] [Substituted by M.P. Act No. 12 of 1994 [w.e.f. 8-5-1994].] by any of the parties to the dispute if the parties thereto are among the following :(a)a society, its committee, any past committee, any past or present officer, any past or present agent, any past or present servant or a nominee, heirs or legal representatives of any deceased agent or deceased servant of the society, or the liquidator of the society;(b)a member, past member or a person claiming through a member, past member or deceased member of a society or of a society which is a member of the society;(c)a person other than a member of the society who has been granted a loan by the society or with whom the society has or had business transactions and any person claiming through such a person;(d)a surety of a member, past member or deceased member or a person other than a member who has been granted a loan by the society, whether such a surety is or is not a member of the society;(e)any other society or the liquidator of such a society; and(f)a creditor of a society.(2)For the purposes of sub-section (1), a dispute shall include-(i)a claim by a society for any debt or demand due to it from a member, past member or the nominee, heir or legal representative of a deceased member, whether such debt or demand be admitted or not;(ii)a claim by a surety against the principal debtor where the society has recovered from the surety any amount in respect of any debt or demand due to it from the principal debtor as a result of the default of the principal debtor, whether such debt or demand be admitted or not;(iii)a claim by a society for any loss caused to it by a member, past member or deceased member, any officer, past officer or deceased officer, any agent, past agent or deceased agent, or any servant, past servant or deceased servant, or its committee, past or present, whether such loss be admitted or not;(iv)a question regarding rights, etc., including tenancy rights between a housing society and its tenants or members; and(v)[any dispute arising in connection with the election of any officer of the society or representative of the society or of composite society : [Substituted by M.P. Act No. 14 of 1976.]Provided that the Registrar shall not entertain any dispute under this clause during the period commencing from the announcement of the election programme till the declaration of the results].(3)If any question arising whether a dispute referred to the Registrar is a dispute, the decision thereon of the Registrar shall be final and shall not be called in question in any Court.

65. Limitation.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 (IX of 1908), and subject to the specific provisions made in this Act, the period of limitation for referring the disputes mentioned below to the Registrar under Section 64 shall,-(a)when the dispute relates to the recovery of any sum including interest thereon due to a society by a member thereof, be six years from the date on which such member dies or ceases to be a member of the society;(b)when the dispute is between a society or its committee and any past committee, any past or present officer, or past or present agent, or past or present servant or the nominee, heir or the legal representative of a deceased officer, deceased agent or deceased servant of the society, or a member or past member or the nominee, heir or the legal representative of a deceased member and when the dispute relates to any act, or omission on the part of either party to the dispute, be six years from the date on which the act or omission with reference to which the dispute arose, took place;(c)when the dispute is in respect of any matter touching the constitution, management or business of a society which has been ordered to be wound up under Section 69 or in respect of which a nominated committee or a person or persons has or have been appointed under Section 53, be six years from the date of the order issued under Section 69 and Section 53, as the case may be;(d)[when the dispute is in connection with the election of any officer of a society, be forty-five days from the date of declaration of the result of such election] Inserted by M.P. Act No. 8 of 1970.The period of limitation in the case of any other dispute except those mentioned in sub-section (1) which are required to be referred to the Registrar under Section 64 shall be regulated by the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1908 (IX of 1908), as if the dispute were a suit and the Registrar a Civil Court.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2) the Registrar may admit a dispute after the expiry of the limitation period if the applicant satisfies the Registrar that he had sufficient cause for not referring the dispute within such period.

66. Settlement of dispute.

(1)The Registrar may, on receipt of the reference of dispute under Section 64 decide the dispute himself, or transfer it for disposal to a nominee or board of nominees to be appointed by the Registrar.(2)When a dispute is transferred under sub-section (1) for disposal by a nominee or a board of nominees, the Registrar may at any time, for reasons to be recorded in writing, withdraw such dispute from such nominee or board of nominees and may decide the dispute himself or transfer it again to any other nominee or board of nominees appointed by him for decision.

67. Procedure for settlement of disputes and power of Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees.

(1)The Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees shall have the power of making interlocutory orders including grant of a temporary injunction. In exercising this power, the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be, shall follow the procedure laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), for the purpose of making such orders and granting an injunction.(2)No party shall be represented at the hearing of the dispute by any legal practitioner, except with the permission of the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be :Provided that where the permission is so granted, the other party to the dispute shall be entitled to be represented by a legal practitioner.(3)[The Registrar or his nominee, as the case may be, shall record a note in Hindi of the evidence of the parties and witnesses who attend and upon the evidence so recorded and after consideration of any documentary evidence produced by either side, shall give a decision or award, as the case may be, which shall be reduced in writing. If the applicant duly summoned is absent, the case may be dismissed in default. If the non-applicant is absent, the case can be decided ex-parte. In cases, where three nominees are appointed, the majority shall prevail :Provided that where a dispute has been decided against any party in default and if such party satisfies the Registrar within thirty days from the date of such default, that there was sufficient cause for its non-appearance, the Registrar shall make an order setting aside the decision and shall appoint a date for proceeding with case.] [Substituted by M.P. Act No. 25 of 1988 [w.e.f. 28-6-1988].]

68. Attachment before award.

- Where the Registrar or a nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be, acting under Section 66 is satisfied on affidavit, enquiry or otherwise that a party to any reference with intent to delay or obstruct the execution of any award that may be made,-(a)is about to dispose of the whole or any part of his property; or (b) is about to remove the whole or any part of his property from the jurisdiction of the Registrar; the Registrar, a nominee or board of nominees may unless adequate security is furnished, direct the conditional attachment of the said property or such part thereof as he thinks necessary through such agency authorised by him as he may deem fit and such attachment shall have the same effect as if it had been made by a competent Civil Court.

Chapter VIII

Liquidation

69. Winding up of Societies.

(1) If the Registrar, after an inquiry has been held under Section 59, or an inspection has been made under Section 60 or on receipt of an application made by not less than three-fourths of the members of a society, is of opinion that the society ought to be wound up, he may issue an order directing it to be wound up. (2) The Registrar may of his own motion make an order directing the winding up of a society, - (a) where the society has not commenced working within a reasonable time of its registration or has ceased to work; or (b) where in the opinion of the Registrar the society has been working mainly for promoting the interest of any individual or group of individuals and not of the members generally; or (c) where the society has ceased to comply with any conditions as to registration or management under this Act, rules or bye-laws; or (d) [Where the primary credit society continues to be in default by not recovering its full overdue demand from members for continuous three co-operative years and even after supersession, it fails to recover full overdue demand.] [Inserted by M.P. Act No. 14 of 1976.] (3) No order under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be passed unless the society concerned has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed order and representation, if any made by it is considered. (4) The Registrar may cancel an order for the winding up of a society, at any time prior to the cancellation of its registration in any case where, in his opinion, the society should continue to exist. (5) [Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, no co-operative bank shall be wound up, except with the previous sanction in writing of the Reserve Bank of India.] [Inserted by M.P. Act No. 8 of 1970.]

69A. [Winding up of Co-operative Bank. [Substituted by M.P. Act No. 25 of 2016, dated 12.9.2016.]

- Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, the Registrar shall forthwith make an order for winding up of a Co-operative Bank, if so required by the Reserve Bank of India in the circumstances mentioned in Section 13-D of the Deposit Insurance and Credit Guarantee Corporation Act, 1961 (No. 47 of 1961) or otherwise.]

69B. [Reimbursement of Deposit Insurance Corporation in case of [insured bank or transferee bank.] [Inserted by M.P. Act No. 8 of 1970.]

- Where a co-operative Bank, being an [insured bank or transferee bank.] [Substituted 'Insured Bank' by Act No. 25 of 2016, dated 12.9.2016.] within the meaning of the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961 (No. 47 of 1961), is wound up, or taken into liquidation, and the Deposit Insurance Corporation has become liable to the depositors of the [insured bank or transferee bank.] [Substituted 'Insured Bank' by Act No. 25 of 2016, dated 12.9.2016.] under sub-section (1) of Section 16 of that Act, the Deposit Insurance Corporation shall be reimbursed in the circumstances, to the extent and in the manner provided in Section 21 of the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961 (No. 47 of 1961)].

70. Appointment of Liquidator.

(1)Where the Registrar has made an order under Section 69 for the winding up of a society, he may appoint a liquidator for the purpose and fix his remuneration and may also remove at any time any person appointed as liquidator and appoint another instead :[Provided that in respect of a co-operative bank ordered to be wound up on requisition from the Reserve Bank, the liquidator shall not be appointed or removed without the previous sanction of Reserve Bank] Inserted by M.P. Act No. 8 of 1970.A liquidator shall, on appointment, take into his custody or under his control all the property, effects and actionable claims to which the society is or appears to be entitled and shall take such steps as he may deem necessary or expedient, to prevent loss deterioration of, or damage to such property, effects and claims.(3)[Where an appeal is preferred under Section 78 an order or winding up of society made under Section 69 shall not be operated thereafter until the order is confirmed in appeal :Provided that the liquidator shall continue to have custody of or control over the property, effects and actionable claims mentioned in sub-section (2) and have authority to take the steps referred to in that sub-section] Substituted by M.P. Act No. 14 of 1976.Where an order of winding up of a society is set aside in appeal, the property, effects and actionable claims of the society shall revert in the society.

70A. [Control of liquidator. [Inserted by Section 13 of M.P. Act No. 20 of 1999 [w.e.f. 7-8-1999]]

77. Madhya Pradesh State Co-operative Tribunal.

- [(1) The State Government shall, by notification, constitute a Tribunal called the Madhya Pradesh State Co-operative Tribunal to exercise the powers and to discharge the functions conferred or imposed on the Tribunal by or under this Act and the Madhya Pradesh Swayatta Sahkarita Adhiniyam, 1999 (No. 2 of 2000)] [[Substituted by Section 2 of M.P. Ad No. 1 of 2002 [w.e.f. 24-12-2001]., Prior to substitution sub-section (1) reads as under: '(1) The State Government shall, by notification, constitute a Tribunal called the Madhya Pradesh State Co-operative Tribunal to exercise the powers and to discharge the functions conferred or imposed on the Tribunal by or under this Act.'](2) The Tribunal shall consist of the Chairman and two other members. (3) (a) No person shall be qualified to be the Chairman of the Tribunal unless he had been a Judge of a High Court or has held the office of a District Judge for not less than five years. (b) Of the other two members, one shall be an officer of Co-operative Department not below the rank of joint Registrar and the other shall be non-official closely associated with the co-operative movement or an Advocate or a Pleader having practical experience in the co-operative movement for a period of not less than fifteen years :Provided that if the State Government thinks fit, the Tribunal may consist of a single person. Explanation. - For the purpose of this sub-section "non official" shall mean a person who on the date of his appointment as a member, does not hold any office of profit under the Government of India or the Government of any State. (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), a person shall be disqualified for being appointed as, or for being a Chairman or a member of the Tribunal, if he is a member of the Committee of any society other than a general body of a society. (5) (a) The Chairman and other members of the Tribunal shall hold office ordinarily for a period of not less than two years and not more than five years as the State Government may, by notification, specify in this behalf. (b) A person who has held office as the Chairman or a member, for a period mentioned in clause (a) shall be eligible for reappointment. (c) The Chairman or a member of the Tribunal may, at any time, resign his office. (d) The Chairman or a member of the Tribunal may with the permission of the State Government, hold any other office, appointment or employment not inconsistent with his position on the Tribunal. (6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4) the State Government may terminate at any time, the appointment of the Chairman or a member if, in its opinion, such Chairman or member is unable or unfit to continue to perform the duties of his office :Provided that no appointment shall be terminated under this subsection unless the person whose appointment is proposed to be terminated is given reasonable opportunity of showing cause against such termination. (7) (a) If any vacancy occurs in the office of Chairman or member by leave, absence, deputation, death, resignation, expiry of the term of appointment, termination of the appointment or for any other cause, whatsoever, such a vacancy shall be filled by appointment of a person qualified for appointment under this section. (b) Till the vacancy in the office of the Chairman is filled under sub-section (1), the senior most member shall act as the Chairman of the Tribunal. (8) The head quarters of the Tribunal shall be at such place as may be notified by the State Government in the Gazette. (9) The powers and functions of the Tribunal may be exercised and discharged by Benches constituted by the Chairman from amongst the members of the Tribunal including himself :Provided that, any interlocutory application may be heard by one or more members who may be present. (10) Such Benches shall consist of two or more members. (11) Where a matter is heard by three members the opinion of the majority shall prevail, and the decision shall be in accordance with the opinion of the majority. Where a matter is heard by an even number of members, and the members are equally divided, if the Chairman be one of the members, the opinion of the Chairman shall prevail, and in other cases the matter shall be referred for hearing to the Chairman and shall be decided in accordance with his decision. (12) Subject to the previous sanction of the State Government, the Tribunal shall frame regulations consistent with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, for regulating its procedure and the disposal of its business. (13) The regulations made under sub-section (7), shall be published in the Gazette. (14) The Tribunal may suo motu or on the application of party, call for and examine the record of any proceedings in which no appeal lies to it, for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any decision or order passed. If in any case, it appears to the Tribunal that any such decision or order should be modified, annulled or reversed, the Tribunal may pass such order thereon as it may deem just. (15) Where an appeal or application is made to the Tribunal under this Act, it may, in order to prevent the ends of justice being defeated, make such interlocutory orders pending the decision of the appeal or application, as the case may be, as may appear to it to be just and convenient, or such orders as may be necessary for the ends of justice, or to prevent the abuse of the process of the Tribunal.(16)An order in appeal, revision or review passed under this Act by the Tribunal, shall be final and conclusive, and shall not be called in question in any Civil or Revenue Court.(17)The Tribunal hearing an appeal under this Act shall exercise all the powers conferred upon an Appellate Court by Section 97 and Order XLI in the First Schedule to the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (No. V of 1908).

77A. Review.

(1)The Tribunal may, either on the application of the Registrar, or on the application of any party interested, review its own order in any case and pass such order in reference thereto as it thinks just :Provided that, no such application made by the party interested shall be entertained, unless the Tribunal is satisfied that there has been the discovery of new and important matter of evidence, which after the exercise of due diligence was not within the knowledge of the applicant or could not be produced by him at the time when its order was made, or that there has been mistake or error apparent on the face of the record, or any other sufficient reason :Provided further that no such order shall be varied or revised, unless notice has been given to the parties interested to appear and be heard in support of such order.(2)An application for review under the sub-section (1) by any party shall be made within ninety days from the date of the communication of the order of the Tribunal.

77B. Tribunal to exercise powers of a Civil Court.

(1)In exercising the powers conferred on it by or under this Act, the Tribunal shall have all the powers as are vested in Civil Court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (No. V of 1908), in respect of the following matters, namely :-(a)proof of facts by affidavits;(b)summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;(c)compelling discovery or the production of any document; and(d)issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses.(2)In the case of any such affidavit, any officer appointed by the Tribunal in this behalf may administer the oath to the deponent.

78. Appeals before the Register and Tribunal.

(1)Save where it has been otherwise provided, an appeal shall lie from every original order under this Act or the rules made thereunder :-(a)if such order is passed by an officer subordinate to Registrar, other than Additional Registrar or Joint Registrar, whether or not the Officer passing the order is invested with the powers of the Registrar, to the Registrar;(b)if such order is passed by the Registrar, Additional Registrar or Joint Registrar, to the Tribunal.(2)A second appeal shall lie against any order passed in the first appeal by the Registrar, to the Tribunal on any of the following ground, and no other namely :-(i)that the order is contrary to law; or(ii)that the order has failed to determine some material issue of law; or(iii)that there has been a substantial error or defect in the procedure as prescribed by this Act which may have produced error or defect in the decision of the case upon merits.(3)Every appeal shall be presented in the prescribed manner to the appellate authority concerned within thirty days of the date on which the order appealed against was communicated to the party affected by the order: Provided that in computing the period of limitation under this sub-section the time requisite for obtaining a copy of the order appealed against shall be excluded.

78A. Extension of period of limitation by appellate authority in certain cases.

- In all cases in which it is provided under this Act that an appeal may be filed against any decision or order within a specified period, the appellate authority may admit an appeal after the expiry of such period if the appellant satisfies the appellate authority that he had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within such period.

79. No appeal or revision in certain cases.

- Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, where with previous sanction in writing or on the requisition of the Reserve Bank of India, (i) an order for the winding up of a co-operative bank is made; or (ii) a scheme of compromise or arrangement or of reconstruction or re-organisation or amalgamation is made or is given effect to; or (iii) an order for the supersession or suspension of the committee by whatever name called of a Co-operative Bank and the appointment of an Administrator therefor, has been made; no, appeal, revision or review there against shall lie or be permissible, and such order or the sanction or requisition of the Reserve Bank of India shall not be liable to be called in question.

80. Transfer or withdrawal of cases.

- Subject to the provisions of Section 78, the Registrar, Additional Registrar, Joint Registrar, or the Deputy Registrar may make over any case or cases arising under the provisions of this Act, for decision from his own file to any officer subordinate to him competent to decide such case or class of cases or may withdraw any case or class of cases from any such officer and may deal with such case or class of cases himself or refer the same to any other officer subordinate to him and competent to decide such case or class of cases.

80A. [Power of Registrar to call for proceedings of subordinate Officers and committee of a society and to pass orders thereon. [Inserted by Section 14 of M.P. Act No. 20 of 1999 [w.e.f. 7-8-1999].]

- The Registrar, may at any time on his own motion or on the application made by any party, call for and examine the record of any enquiry or the proceedings by any sub-ordinate officer or a decision of a Committee of a Society for which Government has contributed to its share capital or has given loans or financial assistance or has guaranteed the repayment of loans granted in any other form for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of any decision or order passed and as to the regularity of the proceedings of such officer or committee. If in any case, it appears to the Registrar that any decision or order or proceedings so called for should be modified, annulled or reversed, the Registrar, may pass such order thereon as he may deem fit :Provided that no order under this Section shall be made to the prejudice of any party unless such party has had an opportunity of being heard :Provided further that the powers conferred on the Registrar under this Section, shall not be delegated to any officer below the rank of Joint Registrar].

80B. [Transfer of pending cases. [Inserted by Section 14 of M.P. Act No. 20 of 1999 [w.e.f. 1-5-1999].]

- Every appeal or revision or any other proceeding pending before the Board of Revenue or the State Government, as the case may be, immediately before the date of constitution of Madhya Pradesh State Co-operative Tribunal under this Act, shall stand transferred to the Tribunal.]
