- When one of the persons intending marriage is a minor, every Minister receiving such notice shall, unless within twenty four hours after its receipt he returns the same under the provisions of section 12, send by the post or otherwise a copy of such notice to the Marriage Registrar of the district.

15. Procedure on receipt of notice.

- The Marriage Registrar, on receiving any such notice, shall affix it to some conspicuous place in his own office.

16. Issue of certificate of notice given and declaration made.

- Any Minister of Religion consenting or intending to solemnise any such marriage as aforesaid, shall, on being required so to do by or on behalf of the person by whom the notice was given, and upon one of the persons intending marriage making the declaration hereinafter required, issue under his hand a certificate of such notice having been given and of such declaration having been made :Provided-(1)that no such certificate shall be issued until the expiration of four days after the date of the receipt of the notice by such Minister ;(2)that no lawful impediment be shown to his satisfaction why such certificate should not issue ; and(3)that the issue of such certificate has not been forbidden, in manner hereinafter mentioned, by any person authorised in that behalf.

17. Declaration before issue of certificate.

- The certificate mentioned in section 16 shall not be issued until one of the persons intending marriage has appeared personally before the Minister and made a solemn declaration-(a)that he or she believes that there is not any impediment of kindred or affinity or other lawful hinderance to the said marriage, and when either or both of the parties is or are a minor or minors,(b)that the consent or consents required by law has or have been obtained thereto, or that there is no person resident in the State having authority to give such consent, as the case may be.

18. Consent of father, or guardian, or mother.

- The father, if living, of any minor, or if the father be dead, the guardian of the person, of such minor, and, in case there be no such guardian, then the mother of such minor, may give consent to the minor's marriage, and such consent is hereby required for the same marriage, unless no person authorised to give such consent be resident in the State.

19. Power to prohibit by notice issue of certificate.

- Every person whose consent to a marriage is required under section 18 is hereby authorised to prohibit the issue of the certificate by any Minister, at any time before the issue of the same, by notice in writing to such Minister, subscribed by the person so authorised with his or her name and place of abode and position with respect to either of the persons intending marriage, by reason of which he or she is so authorised as aforesaid.

20. Procedure on receipt of notice.

- If any such notice be received by such Minister, he shall not issue his certificate and shall not solemnise the said marriage, until he has examined into the matter of the said prohibition, and is satisfied that the person prohibiting the marriage has no lawful authority for such prohibition, or until the said notice is withdrawn by the person who gave it.

21. Issue of certificate in case of minority.

- When either of the persons intending marriage is a minor, and the minister is not satisfied that the consent of the person whose consent to such marriage is required by section 18 has been obtained, such Minister shall not issue such certificate until the expiration of fourteen days after the receipt by him of the notice of marriage.

22. Issue of certificates to Indian Christians.

- When any Indian Christian about to be married takes a notice of marriage to a Minister of Religion, or applies for a certificate from such Minister under section 16, such Minister shall, before issuing the certificate, ascertain whether such Indian Christian is cognisant of the purport and effect of the said notice or certificate, as the case may be, and if not, shall translate or cause to be translated the notice or certificate to such Indian Christian into some language which he understands.

23. Form of certificate.

- The certificate to be issued by such Minister shall be in the form contained in the second schedule hereto annexed, or to the like effect.

24. Solemnisation of marriage.

- After the issue of the certificate by the Minister, marriage may be solemnised between the persons therein 'described according to such form or ceremony as the Minister thinks fit to adopt :Provided that the marriage be solemnised in the presence of at least two witnesses besides the Minister.

25. Certificate void if marriage not solemnised within two months.

- Whenever a marriage is not solemnised within two months, after the date of the certificate issued by such Minister as aforesaid, such certificate and all proceedings (if any) thereon shall be void, and no person shall proceed to solemnise the said marriage until new notice has been given and certificate thereof issued in manner aforesaid.

Chapter V

The said Registrar upon receiving the said returns shall send one copy thereof to the Registrar General.

29. Registration and returns of marriages solemnised by the Clergymen of Church of Rome.

- Every marriage solemnised by a Clergyman of the Church of Rome shall be registered by the person and according to the form directed in that behalf by the Roman Catholic Bishop of the Diocese or Vicariate in which such marriage is solemnised, and such person shall forward quarterly to the Registrar General returns of the entries of all marriages registered by him during the three months next proceeding.

30. Registration and returns of marriages solemnised by Clergymen of Church of Scotland.

- Every Clergyman of the church of Scotland shall keep a register of marriages, and shall register therein, according to the tabular form set forth in the third schedule hereto annexed every marriage which he solemnise under this Act, and shall forward quarterly to the Registrar general through the Senior Chaplain of the Church of Scotland, returns, Similar to those prescribed in section 28, of all such marriages.

31. Certain marriages to be registered in duplicate.

- Every marriage solemnised by any person who has received episcopal ordination, but who is not a Clergyman of the Church of England, or of the Church of Rome, or by any Minister of religion licensed under this Act to solemnise marriages, shall immediately after the solemnisation thereof, be registered in duplicate by the person solemnising the same ; (that is to say) in a marriage-register-book to be kept by him for that purpose, according to the form contained in the fourth schedule hereto annexed, and also in a certificate attached to the marriage-register-book as a counterfoil.

32. Entries of such marriages to be signed and attested.

- The entry of such marriage in both the certificate and marriage-register-book shall be signed by the person solemnising the marriage and also by the persons married and shall be attested by two credible witnesses, other than the person solemnising the marriage, present at its solemnisation. Every such entry shall be made in order from the beginning to the end of the book, and the number of the certificate shall correspond with that of the entry in the marriage-register-book.

33. Certificate to be forwarded to Marriage Registrar, copied and sent to Registrar General.

- The person solemnising the marriage shall forthwith, separate the certificate from the marriage-register-book and send it, within one month from the time of solemnisation, to the Marriage Registrar of the district in which the marriage was solemnised, who shall cause such certificates to be copied into a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall send all the certificates which he has received during the month, with such number and signature or initials added thereto as are hereinafter required, to the Registrar General.

34. Copies of certificates to be entered and numbered.

- Such copies shall be entered in order from the beginning to the end of the said book, and shall bear both the number of the certificate as copied, and also a number to be entered by the marriage Registrar, indicating the number of the entry of the said copy in the said book, according to the order in which he receives each certificate.

35. Registrar to add number of entry to certificate, and send to Registrar General.

- The marriage Registrar shall also add such last mentioned number of the entry of the copy in the book to the certificate, with his signature or initials, and shall, at the end of every month, send the same to the Registrar General.

36. Registration of marriages between Indian Christians by persons referred to in clauses (1), (2) and (3) of section 4.

- When any marriage between Indian Christians is solemnised by any such person, Clergyman or Minister of Religion as is referred to in clause (1), clause (2) or clause (3) of section 4, the person solemnising the same shall, instead of proceeding in the manner provided by sections 27 to 35, both inclusive, register the marriage in a separate register-book, and shall keep it safely until it is filled, or if he leaves the district in which he solemnised the marriage before the said book is filled shall make over the same to the person succeeding to his duties in the said district. Custody and disposal of register-book. - Whoever has the control of the book at the time when it is filled, shall send it to the Marriage Registrar of the district, who shall send it to the Registrar General to be kept by him with the record of his office.

Chapter VI

Marriage Solemnised by, or in the Presence of a Marriage Registrar

37. Notice of intended marriage before Marriage Registrar.

- When a marriage is intended to be solemnised by, or in the presence of, a marriage Registrar, one of the parties to such marriage shall give notice in writing in the form contained in the first schedule hereto annexed, or to the like effect, to the marriage Registrar of the District within which the parties have-dwelt ;or, if the parties dwell in different districts, shall give the like notice to the marriage Registrar of each district, and shall state therein the name and surname, and the profession or condition of each of the parties intending marriage, the dwelling place of each of them, the time during which each has dwelt therein, and the place at which the marriage is to be solemnised :Provided that, if either party has dwelt in the place stated in the notice for more than one month, it may be stated therein that he or she has dwelt there one month and upwards.

38. Publication of Notice.

- Every Marriage Registrar shall, on receiving any such notice, cause a copy thereof to be affixed in some conspicuous place in his office.

39. Notice to be filed and copy entered in Marriage Notice Book.

- The Marriage Registrar shall file all such notices and keep them with the records of his office, and shall also forthwith enter a true copy of all such notices in a book to be furnished to him for that purpose by the Government and to be called the "Marriage Notice Book" and the Marriage Notice Book shall be open at all reasonable times, without fee, to all persons desirous of inspecting the same.

40. Certificate of notice given, and oath made.

- If the party whom the notice was given requests the marriage Registrar to issue the certificate next hereinafter mentioned, and if one of the parties intending marriage has made oath as hereinafter required, the Marriage Registrar shall issue under his hand a certificate of such notice having been given and of such oath having been made :Provided-that no lawful impediment be shown to his satisfaction why such certificate should not issue ;that the issue of such certificate has not been forbidden in manner hereinafter, mentioned, by any person authorised in that behalf by this Act ;that four days after the receipt of the notice have expired ; and further ;that where, by such oath, it appears that one of the parties intending marriage is a minor, fourteen days after the entry of such notice have expired.

41. Oath before issue of certificate.

- The certificate mentioned in section 40 shall not be issued by any Marriage Registrar, until one of the parties intending marriage appears personally before such Marriage Registrar, and makes oath-(a)that he or she believes that there is not any impediment of kindred or affinity, or other lawful hindrance, to the said marriage, and(b)that both the parties have, or (where they dwelt in the districts of different Marriage Registrars) that the party making such oath has, had their, his or her usual place of abode within the district of such Marriage Registrar.and, where either or each of the parties is a minor,-(c)that the consent or consents to such marriage required by law has or have been obtained thereto, or that there is no person resident in the State authorised to give such consent, as the case may be.

42. Consent of father or guardian.

- The provisions of section 18 apply to every marriage under this Chapter, either of the parties to which is a minor ;Protest against issue of certificate. - And any person whose consent to such marriage would be required thereunder may enter a protest against the issue of the Marriage Registrar's certificate, by writing , at any time before the issue of such certificate, the word "forbidden" opposite to the entry of the notice of such intended marriage in the Marriage Notice Book, and by subscribing thereto his or her name and place of abode, and his or her position with respect to either of the parties, by reason of which he or she is so authorised.Effect of protest. - When such protest has been entered, no certificate shall issue until Marriage Registrar's has examined into the matter of the protest, and is satisfied that it ought not to obstruct the issue of the certificate for the said marriage, or until the protest be withdrawn by the person who entered it.

43. Petition where person whose consent is necessary is insane, or unjustly withholds consent.

- If any person whose consent is necessary to any marriage under this Chapter is of unsound mind, or if any such person (other than the father) without just cause withholds his consent to the marriage, the parties intending marriage may apply by petition, to the District Court ;Procedure on petition. - And the District Court, may examine the allegations of the petition in a summary way ;and, if upon examination such marriage appears proper, the District Court, shall declare the marriage to be a proper marriage. Such declaration shall be as effectual as if the person whose consent was needed had consented to the marriage ;and, if he has forbidden the issue of the Marriage Registrar's certificate, such certificate shall be issued and the like proceedings may be had under this Chapter in relation to the marriage as if the issue of such certificate had not been forbidden.

44. Petition when Marriage Registrar refuses certificate.

- Whenever a Marriage Registrar refuses to issue a certificate under this Chapter, either of the parties intending marriage may apply by petition to the District Court. Procedure on petition. - The District Court may examine the allegations of the petition in a summary way, and shall decide thereon. The decision of the District Court shall be final, and the Marriage Registrar to whom the application for the issue of a certificate was originally made shall proceed in accordance therewith.

45. Petition when Registrar doubts authority of person forbidding.

- Whenever a Marriage Registrar, acting under the provisions of section 42, is not satisfied that the person forbidding the issue of the certificate is authorised by law so to do, the said Marriage Registrar shall apply by petition to the District Court. Procedure on petition. - The said petition shall state all the circumstances of the case, and pray for the order and direction of the Court concerning the same ;and the District Court shall examine it into the allegations of the petition and the circumstances of the case ;and if, upon such examination, it appears, that the person forbidding the issue of such certificate is not authorised by law so to do, the District Court shall declare that the person forbidding the issue of such certificate is not authorised as aforesaid, and thereupon such certificate shall be issued, and the like proceedings may be had in relation to such marriage as if the issue had not been forbidden.

46. Liability for frivolous protest against issue of certificate.

- Every person entering a protest with the marriage Registrar, under this Chapter, against the issue of any certificate, on grounds which such Marriage Registrar under section 42 or the District Court, under section 43 or section 44, declares to be frivolous and such as ought not to obstruct the issue of the certificate, shall be liable for the costs of all proceedings in relation thereto and for damages, to be recovered by suit by the person against whose marriage such protest was entered.

47. Form of certificate.

- The certificate to be issued by the Marriage Registrar under the provisions of section 40 shall be in the form contained in the second schedule to this Act annexed or to the like effect, and the Government shall furnish to every Marriage Registrar a sufficient number of forms of certificate.

48. Solemnisation of marriage after issue of certificate.

- After the issue of the certificate of the Marriage Registrar, or, where notice is required to be given under this Act to the marriage Registrars for different districts, after the issue of the certificates of the Marriage Registrars for such districts, marriage may, if there be no lawful impediment to the marriage of the parties described in such certificate or certificates, be solemnised between them, according to such form and ceremony as they think fit to adopt. But every such marriage shall be solemnised in the presence of some Marriage Registrar (to whom shall be delivered such certificate or certificates as aforesaid), and of two or more credible witnesses besides the Marriage Registrar. And in some part of the ceremony each of the parties shall declare as follows, or to the like effect :- "I do solemnly declare that I know not of any lawful impediment why I., A. B., may not be joined in matrimony to C. D." And each of the parties shall say to the other as follows or to the like effect : - "I call upon these persons here present to witness that I., A. B., do take the C. D., to be my lawful wedded wife or husband."

49. When marriage not had within two months after notice, new notice required.

- Whenever a marriage is not solemnised within two months after the copy of the notice has been entered by the Marriage Registrar, as required by section 39, the notice and the certificate, if any, issued thereupon, and all other proceedings thereupon, shall be void ;and no person shall proceed to solemnise the marriage nor shall any Marriage Registrar, enter the same, until new notice has been given, and entry made and certificate thereof given at the time and in the manner aforesaid.

50. Marriage Registrar may ask for particulars to be registered.

- A Marriage Registrar before whom any marriage is solemnised under this Chapter may ask of the persons to be married the several particulars required to be registered touching such marriage.

51. Registration of marriage solemnised under Chapter VI.

- After the solemnisation of any marriage under this Chapter, the Marriage Registrar present at such solemnisation shall forthwith register the marriage in duplicate ; that is to say, in a marriage-register-book, according to the form of the fourth schedule hereto annexed, and also in a certificate attached to the marriage-register-book as a counterfoil. The entry of such marriage in both the certificate and the marriage-register-book shall be signed by the person by or before whom the marriage has been solemnised, if there be any such person, and by the Marriage Registrar present at such marriage, whether or not it is solemnised by him, and also by the parties married, and attested by two credible witnesses other than the Marriage Registrar and person solemnising the marriage. Every such entry shall be made in order from the beginning to the end of the book and the number of the certificate shall correspond with that of the entry in the marriage-register-book.

52. Certificates to be sent monthly to Registrar General.

- The Marriage Registrar shall forth with separate the certificate from the marriage-register-book and send it, at the end of every month, to the Registrar General. Custody of register-book. - The Marriage Registrar shall keep safely the said register-book until it is filled, and shall then send it to the Registrar General, to be kept by him with the records of his office.

53. Registrars to ascertain that notice and certificate are understood by Indian Christians.

- When any Indian Christian about to be married gives a notice of marriage, or applies for a certificate from a Marriage Registrar; such Marriage Registrar shall ascertain whether the said Indian Christian understands the English language and, if he does not, the marriage Registrar shall translate, or cause to be translated, such notice or certificate, or both of them, as the case may be, to such Indian Christian into a language which he understands ;or the Marriage Registrar shall otherwise ascertain whether the Indian Christian is cognisant of the purport and effect of the said notice and certificate.

54. Indian Christian to be made to understand declarations.

- When any Indian Christian is married under the provisions of this Chapter, the person solemnising the marriage shall ascertain whether such Indian Christian understands the English language and, if he does not, the person solemnising the marriage shall, at the time of the solemnisation, translate, or cause to be translated, to such Indian Christian, into a language which he understand, the declarations made at such marriage in accordance with the provisions v of this Act.

55. Registration of marriages between Indian Christians.

- The registration of marriages between Indian Christians under this Chapter shall be made in conformity with the rules laid down in section 36 (so far as they are applicable), and not otherwise.

Chapter VII

Marriage of Indian Christians

56. On what conditions marriages of Indian Christians may be certified.

- Every marriage between Indian Christians applying for a certificate, shall, without the preliminary notice required under Chapter IV, be certified under this Chapter, if the following conditions be fulfilled and not otherwise :-(1)the age of the man intending to be married shall exceed sixteen years, and the age of the woman intending to be married shall exceed thirteen years ;(2)neither of the persons intending to be married shall have a wife or husband still living ;(3)in the presence of a person licensed under section 8, and of at least two credible witnesses other than such person, each of the parties shall say to the other-"I call upon these persons here present to witness that I., A. B., in the presence of Almighty God, and in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, do take the, C. D., to be my lawful wedded wife or husband" or words to the like effect :Provided that no marriage shall be certified under this Chapter when either of the parties intending to be married has not completed his or her eighteenth year, unless such consent as is mentioned in section 18 has been given to the intended marriage, or unless it appears that there is no person living authorised to give such consent.

57. Grant of certificate.

- When, in respect to any marriage solemnised under this Chapter the conditions prescribed in section 56 have been fulfilled, the person licensed as aforesaid, in whose presence the said declaration has been made, shall, on the application of either of the parties to such marriage and on the payment of a fee of twenty-five paise, grant a certificate of the marriage. The certificate shall be signed by such licensed person, and shall be received in any suit touching the validity of such marriage as conclusive proof of its having been performed.

58. Keeping of register-book and deposit of extracts therefrom with Registrar General.

(1)Every person licensed under section 8 shall keep in English, or in the Vernacular language in ordinary use in the State and in such forms as the Government may from time to time prescribe, a register-book of all marriages solemnised under this Chapter in his presence, and shall deposit in the office of the Registrar General in such form and at such intervals as the Government may prescribe, true and duly authenticated extracts from his register-book of all entries made therein since the last of those intervals.

59. Searches in register-book and copies of entries.

- Every person licensed under this Act to grant certificates of marriage, and keeping a marriage register-book under section 58 shall, at all reasonable times allow search to be made in such book and shall, on payment of the proper fee, give a copy, certified under his hand, of any entry therein.

60. Books in which marriages of Indian Christians under Chapter II or Chapter IV are registered.

- The provisions of section 58 and 59 as to the form of the register-book, depositing extracts therefrom, allowing searches thereof, and giving copies of the entries therein, shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the books kept under section 36.

61. Chapter VII not to apply to Roman Catholics.

- This chapter, except so much of sections 58 and 59 as are referred to in section 60, shall not apply to marriages between Roman Catholics.

Chapter VIII

- Whoever, for the purpose of procuring a marriage or licence of marriage, intentionally, -(a) where an oath or declaration is required by this Act, or by any rule or custom of a Church according to the rites and ceremonies of which a marriage is intended to be solemnised, such Church being the Church of England or of Scotland or of Rome, makes a false oath or declaration, or (b) where a notice or certificate is required by this Act, signs a false notice or certificate, shall be deemed to have committed the offence punishable under section 193 of the Ranbir Penal Code (XII of 1989) with imprisonment of either description for a term which may extend to three years and, at the discretion of the Court, with fine.

63. Forbidding, by false personation, issue of certificate by Marriage Registrar.

- Whoever forbids the issue, by a Marriage Registrar, of a certificate, by falsely representing himself to be a person whose consent to the marriage is required by law, knowing or believing such representation to be false, or not having reason to believe it to be true, shall be deemed guilty of the offence described in section 205 of the Ranbir Penal Code (XII of 1989).

64. Solemnising marriage without due authority.

- Whoever, not being authorised by section 4 of this Act to solemnise marriages, solemnises or professes to solemnise in the absence of a Marriage Registrar of the district in which the ceremony takes place, a marriage Registrar of the district in which the ceremony takes place, a marriage between persons one or both of whom is or are a Christian or Christians, shall be punished with imprisonment which may extend to ten years, and shall also be liable to fine.

65. Solemnising marriage out of proper time, or without witnesses.

- Whoever knowingly and wilfully solemnises a marriage between persons, one or both of whom is or are a Christian or Christians, at any time other than between the hours of six in the morning and seven in the evening, or in the absence of at least two credible witnesses other than the person solemnising the marriage, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, and shall also be liable to fine. Saving of marriages solemnised under special licence. - This section does not apply to marriages solemnised under special licences granted by the Anglican Bishop of the Diocese or by his Commissary, nor to marriages performed between the hours of seven in the evening and six in the morning by a Clergyman of the Church of Rome, when he has received the general or special licence in that behalf mentioned in section 9. Nor does this section apply to marriages solemnised by a Clergyman of the Church of Scotland according to the rules, rites, ceremonies and customs of the church of Scotland.

66. Solemnising, without notice or within fourteen days after notice marriage with minor.

- Any Minister of Religion licensed to solemnise marriages under this Act, who without a notice in writing, or when one of the parties to the marriage is a minor, and the required consent of the parents or guardians to such marriage has not been obtained, within fourteen days after the receipt by him of notice of such marriage, knowingly and wilfully solemnises a marriage under Chapter IV, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years, and shall also be liable to fine.

A marriage Registrar under this Act, who commits any of the following offences : -(1)issuing certificate, or marrying without publication of notice. - Knowingly and wilfully issues and certificate for marriage, or solemnises any marriage, without publishing the notice of such marriage as directed by this Act ;(2)marrying after expiry of notice. - After the expiration of two months after the copy of the notice has been entered as required by section 39 in respect of any marriage, solemnises such marriage ;(3)solemnising marriage with minor within fourteen days without authority of Court or without sending copy of notice. - Solemnises, without any order of a competent court authorising him to do so, any marriage, when one of the parties is a minor, before the expiration of fourteen days after the receipt of the notice of such marriage ;(4)issuing certificate against authorised prohibition. - Issues any certificate the issue of which has been prohibited, as in this Act provided, by any person authorised to prohibit the issue thereof ;shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years, and shall also be liable to fine.

68. Issuing certificate after expiry of notice, or in case of minor, within fourteen days after notice, or against authorised prohibition.

- Any Marriage Registrar knowingly and wilfully issuing any certificate for marriage after the expiration of two months after the notice has been entered by him as aforesaid, or knowingly and wilfully issuing without the order of a competent Court authorising him so to do, any certificate for marriage, where one or the parties intending marriage is a minor, before the expiration of fourteen days after the entry of such notice, or any certificate the issue of which has been forbidden as aforesaid by any person authorised in this behalf, shall be deemed to have committed an offence under section 166 of the Ranbir Penal Code (XII of 1989).

69. Persons authorised to solemnise marriage (other than clergy of Churches of England, Scotland or Rome.)

- Whoever, being authorised under this Act to solemnise a marriage, and not being a Clergyman of the Church of England solemnising a marriage after due publication of banns, or under a licence from the Anglican Bishop of the Diocese or a Surrogate duly authorised in that behalf, or not being a Clergyman of the Church of Scotland, solemnising a marriage according to the rules, rites, ceremonies and customs of that Church, or not being a Clergyman of the Church of Rome, solemnising a marriage according to the rites, rules, ceremonies and customs of that Church, issuing certificate, or marrying without publishing notice or after expiry of certificate. - Knowingly and wilfully issues any certificate for marriage under this Act, or solemnises any marriage between such persons as aforesaid, without publishing, or causing to be affixed the notice of such marriage as directed in Chapter IV of this Act, or after the expiration of two months after the certificate has been issued by him ; issuing certificate for, or solemnising, marriage with minor within fourteen days after notice. - Or knowing and wilfully issues any certificate for marriage or solemnises a marriage, between such persons when one of the persons intending marriage is a minor, before the expiration of fourteen days after the receipt of notice of such marriage, or without sending, by the post or otherwise, a copy of such notice to the Marriage Registrar ; issuing certificate authorisably forbidden. - knowingly and wilfully issues any certificate the issue of which has been forbidden, under this Act, by any person authorised to forbid the issue ; or solemnising marriage authorisably forbidden. - or knowingly and wilfully solemnises any marriage forbidden by any person authorised to forbid the same ; shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to four years, and shall also be liable to fine.

70. Unlicensed person granting certificate pretending to be licensed.

- Whoever, not being licensed to grant a certificate of marriage under Chapter VII of this Act, grants such certificate intending thereby to make it appear that he is so licensed, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years, and shall also be liable to fine.. Whoever, being licensed to grant certificate of marriage under Chapter VII of this Act, without just cause refuses, or wilfully neglects or omits to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by that Chapter shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

71. Destroying or falsifying register-books.

- Whoever, by himself or another, wilfully destroys or injures any register-book or the counterfoil certificate thereof, or any part thereof, or any authenticated extract therefrom, or falsely makes or counterfeits any part of such register-book or counterfoil certificate or wilfully inserts any false entry in any such register-book or counterfoil certificate or authenticated extract, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

72. Limitation of prosecutions under this Chapter.

- The prosecution for every offence punishable under this Chapter shall be commenced within two years after the offence is committed.

Chapter IX

Divorce

73. Jurisdiction.

(1) Nothing contained in this Chapter shall authorise the High Court or the District Court to grant any relief under this chapter except where the petitioner or respondent professes the Christian religion, or to make decrees of dissolution of marriage except where the parties to the marriage are domiciled in the Jammu and Kashmir State at the time when the petition is presented, or to make decrees of nullity of marriage except where the marriage has been solemnised in the Jammu and Kashmir State and the petitioner is resident in the Jammu and Kashmir State at the time of presenting the petition, or to grant any relief under this Chapter other than a decree of dissolution of marriage or of nullity of marriage, except where the petitioner resides in the Jammu and Kashmir State at the time of presenting the petition. (2) Court to act on principles of English Divorce Court. - Subject to the provisions contained in this Chapter, the High Court and District Courts shall, in all suits and proceedings hereunder, act and give relief on principles and rules which, in the opinion of the said Courts, are as nearly as may be conformable, to the principles and rules on which the Court for Divorce and Matrimonial Causes in England for the time being acts and gives relief: Provided that nothing in this section shall deprive the said Courts of jurisdiction in a case where the parties to a marriage professed the Christian religion at the time of the occurrence of the facts on which the claim to relief is founded.

74.

Every petition under this Chapter, save as otherwise provided, shall be presented to the District Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the husband and wife reside or last resided together. Dissolution of Marriage

75. When husband may petition for dissolution.

- Any wife may present a petition to the District Court, praying that his marriage may be dissolved on the ground that his wife has, since the solemnisation thereof, been guilty of adultery. When wife may petition for dissolution. - Any wife may present a petition to the District Court, praying that his marriage may be dissolved on the ground that, since the solemnisation thereof, her husband has exchanged his profession of Christianity for the profession of some other religion, and gone through a form of marriage with another woman, or has been guilty of incestuous adultery, or of bigamy with adultery, or of marriage with another woman with adultery, or of rape, sodomy or bestiality, or of adultery coupled with such cruelty as without adultery would have entitled her to a divorce a mensa et tora, or of adultery coupled with desertion, without reasonable excuse, for two years or upwards. Contents of petition. - Every such petition shall state, as distinctly as the nature of the case permits, the facts on which the claim to have such marriage dissolved is founded.

76. Adulterer to be co-respondent.

- Upon any such petition presented by a husband, the petitioner shall make the alleged adulterer a co-respondent to the said petition, unless he is excused from so doing on one of the following grounds, to be allowed by the Court :-(1)that the respondent is leading the life of a prostitute, and that the petitioner knows of no person with whom the adultery has been committed ;(2)that the name of the alleged adulterer is unknown to the petitioner although he has made due efforts to discover it ;(3)that the alleged adulterer is dead.

77. Court to be satisfied of absence of collusion.

- Upon any such petition for the dissolution of a marriage, the Court shall satisfy itself, so far as it reasonably can, not only as to the facts alleged, but also whether or not the petitioner has been in any manner accessory to, or conniving at, the going through of the said form of marriage, or the adultery, or has condoned the same, and shall also enquire into any counter charge which may be made against the petitioner.

78. Dismissal of petition.

- In case the Court, on the evidence in relation to any such petition, is satisfied that the petitioner's case has not been proved or is not satisfied that the alleged adultery has been committed, or finds that the petitioner has, during the marriage, been accessory to, or conniving at, the going through of the said form of marriage or the adultery of the other party to the marriage, or has condoned the adultery complained of or then and in any of the said cases the Court shall dismiss the petition. When a petition is dismissed by a District Court under this section, the petitioner may, nevertheless, present a similar petition to the High Court.

79. Power to Court to pronounce decree for dissolving marriage.

- In case the Court is satisfied on the evidence that the case of the petitioner has been proved, and does not find that the petitioner has been in any manner accessory to, or conniving at, the going through of the said form of marriage, or the adultery of the other party to the marriage or has condoned the adultery complained of, or that the petition is presented or prosecuted in collusion with either of the respondents, the Court shall pronounce a decree declaring such marriage to be dissolved in the manner and subject to all the provisions and limitations in sections 81 and 82 made and declared :Provided that the Court shall not be bound to pronounce such decree if it finds that the petitioner has, during the marriage, been guilty of adultery, or if the petitioner has, in the opinion of the Court, been guilty of unreasonable delay in prosecuting such petition, or of cruelty towards the other party to the marriage, or of having deserted or wilfully separated himself or herself from the other party before the adultery complained of, and without reasonable excuse ; or of such wilful neglect or misconduct of or towards the other party as has conduced to the adultery. Condonation. - No adultery shall be deemed to have been condoned within the meaning of this act unless where co-habitation has been resumed or continued.

80. Relief in case of opposition on certain grounds.

- In any suit instituted for dissolution of marriage, if the respondent opposes the relief sought on the ground, in case of such a suit instituted by a husband, of his adultery, cruelty or desertion without reasonable excuse or, in case of such a suit instituted by a wife, on the ground of her adultery and cruelty, the Court may in such suit give to the respondent, on his or her application, the same relief to which he or she would have been entitled in case he or she had presented a petition seeking such relief, and the respondent shall be competent to give evidence of or relating to such cruelty or desertion.

81. Decrees for dissolution to be nisi.

- Every decree for a dissolution of marriage made by a High Court, not being a confirmation of a decree of a District Court, shall, in the first instance, be a decree nisi, not to be made absolute till after the expiration of such time, not less than six months from the pronouncing thereof, as the High Court by general or special order from time to time directs. Collusion. - During that period any person shall be at liberty, in such manner as the High Court general or special order from time to time directs, to show, cause why the said decree should not be made absolute by reason of the same having been obtained by collusion or by reason of material facts not being brought before the Court. On cause being shown, the Court shall deal with the case by making the decree absolute, or by reversing the decree nisi, or by requiring further enquiry, or otherwise as justice may demand. The High Court may order the cost of counsel and witnesses, and otherwise arising from such cause being shown, to be paid by the parties or such one or more of them as it thinks fit, including a wife if she has separate property. Whenever a decree nisi has been made, and the petitioner fails, within a reasonable time, to move to have such decree made absolute, the High Court may dismiss the suit.

82. Confirmation of decree for dissolution by District Court.

- Every decree for a dissolution of marriage made by a District Court shall be subject to confirmation by the High Court. Cases for confirmation of a decree for dissolution of marriage shall be heard by a Court composed of three Judges, and in case of difference the opinion of the majority shall prevail. The High Court, if it think further enquiry or additional evidence to be necessary, may direct such enquiry to be made or such evidence to be taken. The result of such enquiry and the additional evidence shall be certified to the High Court by the District Court and the High Court shall thereupon make an order confirming the decree for dissolution of marriage, or such order as to the Court seems fit : Provided that no decree shall be confirmed under this section till after expiration of such time, not less than six months from the pronouncing thereof, as the High Court by general or special order from time to time directs. During the progress of the suit in the District Court, any person, suspecting that any parties to the suit are or have been acting in collusion for the purpose of obtaining a divorce, shall be at liberty, in such manner as the High Court by general or special order from time to time directs, to apply to the High Court for the issue of directions to the District Court to take such steps in respect of the alleged collusion as may be necessary to enable it to make a decree in accordance with the justice of the case.

83. Appointment of officer to exercise duties of King's Proctor.

- The Government may appoint an officer who shall have the like right of showing cause why a decree for the dissolution of a marriage should not be made absolute or should not be confirmed, as the case may be, as is exercisable in England by the King's Proctor ; and the Government may make rules regulating the manner in which the right shall be exercised and all matters incidental to or consequential on any exercise of the right. Nullity of Marriage

84. Petition for decree of nullity.

- Any husband or wife may present a petition to the District Court praying that his or her marriage may be declared null and void.

85. Grounds of decrees.

- Such decree may be made on any of the following grounds :-(1)that the respondent was impotent at the time of the marriage and at the time of the institution of the suit ;(2)that the parties are within the prohibited degrees of consanguinity (whether natural or legal) or affinity ;(3)that either party was a lunatic or idiot at the time of the marriage ;(4)that the former husband or wife of either party was living at the time of the marriage, and the marriage with such former husband or wife was then in force ;(5)that the consent of either party was obtained by force or fraud : Provided that in the case specified in clause (5) the Court shall not grant a decree if-(a) Proceedings have not been instituted within one year after the coercion had ceased, or, the case may be, the fraud had been discovered ; or(b)the petitioner has with his/her or free consent lived with the other party to the marriage as husband and wife after the coercion had ceased, or as the case may be, the fraud had been discovered.

86. Confirmation of District Court s decree.

- Every decree of nullity of marriage made by a District Court shall be subject to confirmation by the High Court, and the provisions of section 82, clauses 1, 2, 3 and 4 shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to such decrees.

87. Children of annulled marriage.

- Where a marriage is annulled on the ground that a former husband or wife was living and it is adjudged that the subsequent marriage was contracted in good faith and with the full belief of the parties that the former husband or wife was dead, or when a marriage is annulled on the ground of insanity, children begotten before the decree is made shall be specified in the decree, and shall be entitled to succeed, in the same manner as legitimate children, to the estate of the parent who at the time of marriage was competent to contract. Judicial Separation

88. Bar to decree for divorce a mensa et toro; but judicial separation obtainable by husband or wife.

- No decree shall hereafter be made for a divorce a mensa et toro but the husband or wife may obtain a decree of judicial separation, on the ground of adultery, or cruelty, or desertion without reasonable excuse for two years or upwards, and such decree shall have the effect of a divorce a mensa et toro under the existing law, and such other legal effect as herein after mentioned.

89. Application for separation made by petition.

- Application for judicial separation on any one of the grounds aforesaid may be made by either husband or wife, by petition to the District Court and the Court, on being satisfied of the truth of the statements made in such petition, and that there is no legal ground why the application should not be granted, may decree judicial separation accordingly.

90. Separated wife deemed spinster with respect to after acquired property.

- In every case of a judicial separation under this Act, the wife shall, from the date of the sentence, and whilst the separation continues, be considered as unmarried with respect to property of every description which she may acquire, or which may come to or devolve upon her. Such property may be disposed of by her in all respects as an unmarried woman ; and on her decease the same shall, in case she dies intestate, go as the same would have gone if her husband had been then dead : Provided that, if any such wife again cohabits with her husband, all such property as she may be entitled to when such cohabitation takes place shall be held to her separate use, subject, however, to any agreement in writing made between herself and her husband whilst separate.

91. Separated wife deemed spinster for purposes of contract and suing.

- In every case of a judicial separation under this Act, the wife shall, whilst so separated, be considered as an unmarried woman for the purposes of contract and wrongs and injuries, and suing and being sued in any civil proceeding ; and her husband shall not be liable in respect of any contract, act or costs entered into, done, omitted or incurred by her during the separation :Provided that where, upon any such judicial separation, alimony has been decreed or ordered to be paid to the wife, and the same is not duly paid by the husband, he shall be liable for necessities supplied for her use :Provided also that nothing shall prevent the wife from joining at any time during such separation, in the exercise of any joint power given to herself and her husband.

92. Decree of separation obtained during absence of husband or wife may be reversed.

- Any husband or wife, upon the application of whose wife or husband, as the case may be, a decree of judicial separation has been pronounced, may, at any time thereafter, present a petition to the Court by which the decree was pronounced, praying for a reversal of such decree, on the ground that it was obtained in his or her absence, and that there was reasonable excuse for the alleged discretion, where desertion was the ground of such decree. The Court may, on being satisfied of the truth of the allegations of such petition, reverse the decree accordingly ; but such reversal shall not prejudice or affect the rights or remedies which any other person would have had, in case it had not been decreed, in respect of any debts, contracts or acts of the wife incurred, entered into or done between the times of the sentence of separation and of the reversal thereof. Protection Orders

93. Deserted wife may apply to Court for protection.

- Any wife may, when deserted by her husband, present a petition to the District Court at any time after such desertion, for an order to protect any property which she may have acquired or may acquire, and any property of which she may have become possessed or may become possessed after such desertion, against her husband or his creditors or any person claiming under him.

94. Court may grant protection order.

- The Court, if satisfied of the fact of such desertion, and that the same was without reasonable excuse, and that the wife is maintaining herself by her own industry or property, may make and give to the wife an order protecting her earnings and other property from her husband and all creditors and persons claiming under him. Every such order shall state the time at which the desertion commenced and shall, as regards all persons dealing with the wife in reliance thereon, be conclusive as to such time.

95. Discharge or variation of orders.

- The husband or any creditor of, or person claiming under him, may apply to the Court by which such order was made for the discharge or variation thereof, and the Court, if the desertion has ceased, or if for any other reason it thinks fit so to do, may discharge or vary the order accordingly.

96. Liability of husband seizing wife's property after notice of order.

- If the husband, or any creditor of, or person claiming under, the husband, seizes or continues to hold any property of the wife after notice of any such order, he shall be liable, at the suit of the wife (which she is hereby empowered to bring), to return or deliver to her the specific property, and also to pay her a sum equal to double its value.

97. Wife's legal position during continuance of order.

- So long as any such order of protection remains in force, the wife shall be and be deemed to have been, during such desertion of her, in the like position in all respects, with regard to property and contract and suing and being sued, as she would be under this Act if she obtained a decree of judicial separation.

98. Petition for restitution of conjugal rights.

- When either the husband or the wife has, without reasonable excuse, withdrawn from the society, of the other, either wife or husband may apply, by petition to the District Court for restitution of conjugal rights, and the Court, on being satisfied of the truth of the statements made in such petition, and that there is no legal ground why the application should not be granted, may decree restitution of conjugal rights accordingly.

99. Answer to petition.

- Nothing shall be pleaded in answer to a petition for restitution of conjugal rights which would not be ground for a suit for judicial separation or for a decree of nullity of marriage.

100. Husband may claim damages from adulterer.

- Any husband may, either in a petition for dissolution of marriage or for judicial separation, or in a petition to the District Court limited to such object only, claim damages from any person on the ground of his having committed adultery with the wife of such petitioner. Such petition shall be served on the alleged adulterer and the wife unless the Court dispenses with such service, or directs some other service to be substituted. The damages to be recovered on any such petition shall be ascertained by the Court, although the respondents or either of them may not appear. After the decision has been given, the Court may direct in what manner such damages shall be paid or applied.

101. Power to order adulterer to pay costs.

- Whenever in any petition presented by a husband, the alleged adulterer has been made a co-respondent, and the adultery has been established, the Court may order the co-respondent to pay the whole or any part of the costs of the proceedings :Provided that the co-respondent shall not be ordered to pay the petitioner's costs-(1)if the respondent was, at the time of the adultery, living apart from her husband and leading the life of a prostitute, or(2)if the co-respondent had not, at the time of the adultery, reason to believe the respondent to be a married woman.Power to order litigious intervenor to pay cost. - Whenever any application is made under section 82, the Court, if it thinks that the applicant had no grounds or no sufficient grounds for intervening may order him to pay the whole or any part of the costs occasioned by the application.

102. Alimony pendent lite.

- In any suit under this Chapter, whether it be instituted by a husband or a wife, and whether or not she has obtained an order of protection, the wife may present a petition for alimony pending the suit.Such petition shall be served on the husband, and the Court, on being satisfied of the truth of the statements therein contained, may make such order on the husband for payment to the wife of alimony pending the suit as it may deem just :Provided that the alimony pending the suit shall in no case exceed one-fifth of the husband's average net income for the three years next preceding the date of the order, and shall continue, in case of a decree for dissolution of a marriage or of nullity of marriage, until the decree is made absolute or is confirmed, as the case may be.

103. Power to order permanent alimony.

- The High Court may, if it think fit, on any decree absolute declaring a marriage to be dissolved ;and the District Court may, if it thinks fit, on the confirmation of any decree of its declaring a marriage to be dissolved or on any decree of judicial separation obtained by the wife,order that the husband shall, to the satisfaction of the Court, secure to the wife such gross sum of money, or such annual sum of money for any terms not exceeding her own life, as having regard to her fortune (if any), to the ability of the husband, and to the conduct of the parties, it thinks reasonable, and for that purpose may cause a proper instrument to be executed by all necessary parties.Power to order monthly or weekly payments. - In every such case the Court may make an order on the husband for payment to the wife of such monthly or week by sums for her maintenance and support as the Court may think reasonable :Provided that if the husband afterwards from any cause becomes unable to make such payments, it shall be lawful for the Court to discharge or modify the order, or temporarily to suspend the same as to the whole or any part of the money so ordered to be paid, and again to revive the same order wholly or in part, as to the Court seems fit.

104. Court may direct payment of alimony to wife or to her trustee.

- In all cases in which the Court makes any decree or order for alimony, it may direct the same to be paid either to the wife herself or to any trustee on her behalf to be approved by the Court, and may impose any terms or restrictions which to the Court seem expedient, and may from time to time appoint a new trustee, if it appears to the Court expedient so to do. Settlements

105. Power to order settlement of wife's property for benefit of husband and children.

- Whenever the Court pronounces a decree of dissolution of marriage or judicial separation for adultery of the wife, if it is made to appear to the Court that the wife is entitled to any property, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order such settlement as it thinks reasonable to be made of such property or any part thereof, for the benefit of the husband, or of the children of the marriage, or of both. Any instrument executed pursuant to any order of the Court at the time of or after the pronouncing of a decree of dissolution of marriage or judicial separation shall be deemed valid notwithstanding the existence of the disability of coverture at the time of the execution thereof. Settlement of damages. - The Court may direct that the whole or any part of the damages recovered under section 100 shall be settled for the benefit of the children of the marriage, or as a provision for the maintenance of the Wife.

106. enquiry into existence of ante nuptial or post-nuptial settlements.

- The High Court, after a decree absolute for dissolution of marriage, and the District Court, after its decree for dissolution of marriage, or of nullity of marriage has been confirmed, may enquire into the existence of ante nuptial or post-nuptial settlements made on the parties whose marriage is the subject of the decree, and may make such orders, with reference to the application of the whole or a portion of the property settled, whether for the benefit of the husband or the wife, or the children (if any) of the marriage, or of both children and parents, as to the Court seems fit : Provided that the Court shall not make any order for the benefit of the parents or either of them at the expense of the children. Custody of Children

107. Power to make orders as to custody of children in suit for separation.

- In any suit for obtaining a judicial separation the Court may, from time to time, before making its decree, make such interim orders, and may make such provision in the decree, as it deems proper with respect to the custody, maintenance and education of the minor children, the marriage of whose parents is the subject of such suit, and may, if it thinks fit, direct proceedings to be taken for placing such children under the protection of the Court.

108. Power to make such orders after decree.

- The Court, after a decree of Judicial separation, may upon application (by petition) for this purpose make from time to time, all such orders, and provision, with respect to the custody, maintenance and education of the minor children, the marriage of whose parents is the subject of decree, or for placing such children under the protection of the Court, as might have been made by such decree or by interim orders in case the proceedings for obtaining such decree were still pending.

109. Power to make orders as to custody of children in suits for dissolution or nullity.

- In any suit for obtaining a dissolution of marriage instituted in a High Court, the Court may from time to time, before making its decree absolute or its decree (as the case may be), make such interim orders, and may make such provision in the decree absolute or decree ;and in any such suit or a suit for obtaining a decree of nullity of marriage instituted in a District Court, the Court may from time to time before its decree is confirmed, make such interim orders and may make such provisions on such confirmation.as the High Court or District Court (as the case may be) deems proper with respect to the custody, maintenance and education of the minor children, the marriage of whose parents is the subject of the suit ;and may, if it thinks fit, direct proceedings to be taken for placing such children under the protection of the Court.

110. Power to make such orders after decree or confirmation.

- The High Court, after a decree absolute for dissolution of marriage, and the District Court, after a decree for dissolution of marriage or of nullity of marriage has been confirmed,may, upon application by petition for the purpose, make from time to time all such orders and provision, with respect to the custody, maintenance and education, of the minor children, the marriage of whose parents was the subject of the decree, or for placing such children under the protection of the said Court, as might have been made by such decree absolute or decree (as the case may be), or by such interim orders as aforesaid .Procedure

111. Code of Civil Procedure to apply.

- Subject to the provisions herein contained, all proceedings under this Chapter between party and party shall be regulated by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1977.

112. Forms of petition and statements.

- The forms of petitions and statements set forth in the fifth schedule, with such variation as the circumstances of each case require, may be used for the respective purposes mentioned in such schedule.

113. Petition to state absence of collusion.

- Every petition under this Chapter for a decree of dissolution of marriage, or of nullity any collusion or connivance between the petitioner and the other party to the marriage, of marriage, or of judicial separation shall state that there is not.Statements to be verified. - The statements contained in every petition under this Chapter shall be verified by the petitioner or some other competent person in the manner required by law for the verification of complaints, and may at the hearing be referred to as evidence.

114. Suits on behalf of lunatics.

- When the husband or wife is a lunatic or idiot, any suit under this Chapter (other than a suit for restitution of conjugal rights) may be brought on his or her behalf by the Committee or other person entitled to his or her custody.

115. Suits by minors.

- Where the petitioner is a minor, he or she shall sue by his or her next friend to be approved by the Court, and no petition presented by a minor under this Chapter shall be filed until the next friend has undertaken in writing to be answerable for costs. Such undertaking shall be filed in Court, and the next friend shall thereupon be liable in the same manner and to the same extent as if he were a plaintiff in any ordinary suit.

116. Service of petition.

- Every petition under this chapter shall be served on the party to be affected thereby, either within or without the State in such manner as the High Court by general or special order from time to time directs : Provided that the Court may dispense with such service altogether in case it seems necessary or expedient so to do.

117. Mode of taking evidence.
