A notice of withdrawal of candidates once given shall be irrevocable.(13)If the number of candidates, whose nomination papers have been declared valid, does not exceed the number of members to be elected, the returning officer shall announce the names of all such candidates and declare them to have been duly elected to the Town Vending Committee after the closing hour of the day of withdrawal of candidatures fixed in sub rule (12). If the number of candidates whose nominations are valid exceeds the number of members to be elected, the returning officer shall arrange for conducting a poll on the date fixed for the purpose. The returning officer may appoint one or more polling officers as may be necessary for conducting the poll. The ballot paper to be used in the pole shall be in Form-E.(14)The local authority shall provide the returning officer with ballot boxes, ballot papers, copy of list of street vendors/voters and such other articles as may be necessary for the conduct of elections. The ballot box shall be so constructed that ballot papers can be inserted therein but cannot be taken out therefrom without the boxes being unlocked. A candidate contesting the election may, by a letter to the returning officer, appoint an agent to represent him, to identify the voters during polling and to watch the recording of votes. Such letter shall be in Form-F and shall contain the consent in writing of the agent concerned.(15)Canvassing for votes by any person at the place where elections are to be conducted shall be prohibited.(16)Immediately before the commencement of the poll, the returning officer shall show the empty ballot box to such persons as may be present at the time and shall then lock it up and fix his seal. The candidate or his agent may also affix his own seal, if he so desires.(17)Every street vendor/voter who desires to exercise his right to vote shall be supplied with a ballot paper in Form-E containing the names of contesting candidates arranged in the English Alphabetical order, which shall be either printed, type written or cyclostyled, according to convenience. The ballot paper shall also bear the seal of the Town Vending Committee and the initials of the returning officer. The ballot paper shall contain a column for the voter to inscribe a mark [x] against the names of persons to whom he wants to vote.(18)Each polling station and where there is more than one polling booth at a station, each such booth shall contain a separate compartment in which the street vendors/voters can record their votes in secrecy.(19)No ballot paper shall be issued to a street vendor/voter unless the polling officer is satisfied that the street vendor/voter concerned is the same person as noted in the list of street vendors. On receipt of such ballot paper the street vendor/voter shall proceed to the polling compartment set apart for the purpose and indicate the person or persons in whose favour he exercises his vote by inscribing a mark [x] against the names of the candidate or candidates, as the case may be, and put the ballot paper in the ballot box kept for the purpose with utmost secrecy. If owing to blindness or other physical infirmity or illiteracy, the street vendor/voter is unable to inscribe the mark on the ballot paper, the polling officer and where no such polling officer is appointed, the returning officer shall ascertain from him the candidate or candidates in whose favour he desired to vote and inscribe the mark [x] on his behalf on the ballot paper and put the ballot paper in the ballot box.(20)If at any stage of the polling, the proceedings are interrupted or obstructed by any riot or affray or if it is not possible to take or continue the poll for any sufficient cause, the returning officer shall have the power to stop the polling, recording his reasons for such action in the minute book of the Town Vending Committee.(21)No street vendor/ voter shall be admitted after the hours fixed for the poll. But, where a voter entered the premises of the polling station before the close of the polling hour, he shall be issued the ballot paper and allowed to vote.(22)The counting of votes shall take place immediately after closing of the poll. If this is not possible, the ballot box shall be sealed with the seal of the returning officer and the contesting candidates or their agents, if they so desire, and shall be deposited with the local authority for safe custody. The returning officer shall then announce the next day as the day of counting. The votes shall be counted by or under the supervision of the returning officer. Each candidate and his authorised agent shall have a right to be present at the time of counting. But absence of any candidate or his agent at the time of counting shall not vitiate counting and announcement of results by the returning officer. The number of votes secured by each candidate and the result of the elections shall be announced by the returning officer as soon as the counting is over.(23)The result of the elections shall also be recorded in the minute book of the Town Vending Committee and attested by the returning officer and shall also be notified immediately on the notice board of the Town Vending Committee.(24)In case of equality of votes, the returning officer shall declare the election result by tossing coin.(25)The ballot paper shall be rejected as invalid, during counting, by the returning officer, if(i)it bears any mark by which the street vendor's vote can be identified;(ii)it does not bear the seal of the Town Vending Committee or the initials of the returning officer;(iii)the mark indicating the vote thereon is placed in such a manner as to make it doubtful to which candidate the vote has been cast;(iv)is so damaged or mutilated that its identity as a genuine ballot paper cannot be established.(26)After the result of election has been announced, the result of the election and a report thereon shall be communicated to the local authority as well as to the Government by the returning officer within three days after the declaration of result.(27)After the declaration of the result of the election, the returning officer shall handover the ballot paper and records relating to the elections of the members of the Town Vending Committee to the local authority in a sealed cover. They shall be preserved safely by the local authority for a period of six months from the date of elections or till such time a dispute regarding elections, if any, filed is disposed of, whichever is later and shall thereafter be destroyed by the local authority.
