3. Power of State Government to appoint authorised officers.

- The State Government may, by notification, appoint for the area in which this Act comes into force or any part thereof, one or more officers to be called authorised officers to exercise the powers and perform the duties conferred and imposed on the authorised officer under this Act.

4. Doubt or dispute as to unclaimed body to be referred to officer appointed by State Government.

(1) If any doubt or dispute arises whether the body of any deceased person is an unclaimed body, the matter shall be referred to such officer as the State Government may, by notification, appoint for any area in this behalf and the decision of such officer shall be final and conclusive. (2) Pending such decision, the body of the deceased person shall be preserved from decay in such manner as may be prescribed.

5. Unclaimed bodies in hospitals, prisons and public places how to be dealt with.

(1) Where a person under treatment in a hospital whether established by or vesting in or maintained by the State Government or any local authority, dies in such hospital and his body is unclaimed, the authorities in charge of such hospital shall with the least practicable delay report the fact to the authorised officer and thereupon it shall be lawful for such officer to take possession of the unclaimed body and hand it over to the authority in charge of an approved institution for the purpose of conducting post-mortem examination or anatomical dissection for practising operative surgery. (2) Where a person dies at a hospital other than a hospital referred to in subsection (1) or in a prison and his body is unclaimed the authorities in charge of such hospital or prison shall with the least practicable delay report the fact to the authorised officer and thereupon it shall be lawful for such officer to take possession of the unclaimed body and hand it over to the authority in charge of an approved institution, for the purpose specified in sub-section (1). (3) Where a person, having no permanent place of residence in the area where his death has taken place, dies in any public place in such area and his body is unclaimed, it shall be lawful for the authorised officer to take possession of the unclaimed body and hand it over to the authority in charge of an approved institution for the purpose specified in sub-section (1). (4) When there is any doubt regarding the cause of death or when for any reason the authorised officer considers it expedient so to do he shall forward the unclaimed body to the police officer referred to in Section 174 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898). (5) Where any unclaimed body taken possession of by the authorised officer under this section is not required by the authority in charge of an approved institution for the purpose specified in sub-section (1), it shall be disposed of in such manner as may be prescribed. (6) When post-mortem examination or anatomical dissection of, or practice of operative surgery on, an unclaimed body is over, remains thereof, if any, shall be disposed of in the prescribed manner.

6. Penalty.

- Whoever disposes of, or abets the disposal of, an unclaimed body save as permitted by this Act, or obstructs any authority in charge of an approved institution or an authorised officer from handing over, taking possession of, removing or using, such body for the purpose specified in the Act, shall, on conviction, be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

7. Duty of police and other officers to assist in obtaining possession of unclaimed bodies.

- It shall be the duty of all police officers, all officers of the Health Department of the State Government and all officers in the employ of a local authority to render all reasonable assistance to any authority or officer authorised under this Act to obtain possession of an unclaimed body.

8. Indemnity.

- No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

9. Officers to be public servants.
