Chapter II

Registration

3. Registrar.

- The State Government may appoint a person to be the Registrar of Co-operative Societies for the State; and may appoint one or more persons to assist such Registrar, and may, by general or special order, confer on any such person or persons all or any of the powers of the Registrar under this Act. The person or person so appointed to assist the Registrar and on whom any powers of the Registrar are conferred shall work under the general guidance, superintendence and control of the Registrar.

4. Societies which may be registered under this Act.

- A society, which has as its objects the promotion of the economic interests or general welfare of its members, or of the public, in accordance with co-operative principles, or a society established with the object of facilitating the operations of any such society, may be registered under this Act: Provided that no society shall be registered if it is likely to be economically unsound, or the registration of which may have an adverse effect on the development of the co-operative movement;

5. Registration with limited or unlimited liability.

- A society may be registered with limited or unlimited liability.

6. Conditions of registration.

(1) No society, other than a federal society, shall be registered under this Act, unless it consists of at least ten persons (each of such persons being a member of a different family), who are qualified to be members under this Act and who reside in the area of operation of the society. (2) No society with unlimited liability shall be registered unless all persons forming the society reside in the same town or village or in the same group of villages.(3)No federal society shall be registered, unless it has at least five societies as its members.(4)Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect the registration of any society made before the commencement of this Act.(5)The word "limited" or "unlimited" shall be the last word in the name of every society with limited or unlimited liability, as the case may be which is registered or deemed to be registered under this Act.Explanation. - For the purposes of this section and Section 8, the expression "member of a family" means a wife, husband, father, mother, grand-father, grand-mother, step-father, step-mother, son-daughter, step-son, step-daughter, grand-son, grand-daughter, brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister and wife of brother or half-brother.

7. Power to exempt societies from conditions as to registration.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the State Government may, by special order in each case, except subject to such conditions (if any) exempt any society from any of the requirements of this Act as to registration.

8. Application for registration.

(1)For the purpose of registration, an application shall be made to the Registrar in the prescribed form, and shall be accompanied by four copies of the proposed bye-laws of the society. The persons by whom, or on whose behalf, such application is made, shall furnish such information in regard to the society, as the Registrar may require.(2)The application shall be signed-(a)in the case of a society, other than a federal society, by at least ten persons (each of such persons being a member of a different family), who are qualified under this Act; and(b)in the case of a federal society, by at least five societies.(3)No signature to an application on behalf of a society shall be valid, unless the person signing is a member of the committee of such a society, and is authorised by the committee by resolution to sign on its behalf the application for registration of the society and its bye-laws, and a copy of such resolution is appended to the application.

9. Registration.

(1)(a)If the Registrar is satisfied that a society has complied with the provisions of this Act and the rules, and that its proposed bye-laws are not contrary to this Act or to the rules, he may, if he thinks fit, register the society and its bye-law within six months from the date of receipt of the application.(b)If the Registrar is unable to dispose of an application for registration within the period mentioned in the foregoing sub-section, he shall make a report to the State Government stating therein the reasons therefor; and he shall thereafter act in accordance with such directions as may be issued to him by the State Government.(c)Where the Registrar refuses to register a proposed society, he shall forthwith communicate his decision, with the reasons therefor, to the person making the application and if there be more than one, to the person who has signed first thereon.(2)On the registration of a society, the Registrar shall issue to it a certificate of registration signed by him.(3)A certificate of registration issued under sub-section (2) shall be conclusive evidence that the society therein mentioned is duly registered, unless it is proved that the registration has been cancelled.(4)The Registrar shall maintain a register of all societies registered under this Act.

10. Evidence of registration.

- A certificate of registration, signed by the Registrar, shall be conclusive evidence that the society therein mentioned is duly registered unless it is proved that the registration of the society has been cancelled.

11. Power of Registrar to decide certain questions.

- When, for the purpose of the formation, or registration or continuance, of a society, any question arises whether a person is an agriculturist or not, or whether any person resides in the area of operation of the society or not, such question shall be decided by the Registrar.

12. Classification of societies.

(1)The Registrar shall classify all societies into one or other classes of societies defined in Section 2, and also into such sub-classes thereof, as may be prescribed by rules.(2)The Registrar may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, alter the classification of a society from one class of society to another, or from one sub-class thereof to another; and may, in the public interest and subject to such terms and conditions as he may think fit to impose, allow any society so classified, to undertake the activities of a society belonging to another class.(3)A list of all societies so classified shall be published by the Registrar every three-years in such manner as the Manipur Government may, from time to time, direct.

13. Amendment of bye-laws of society.

(1)No amendment of the bye-laws of a society shall be valid until registered under this Act. For the purpose of registration of an amendment of the bye-laws, a copy of the amendment passed, in the manner prescribed, at a general meeting of the society, shall be forwarded to the Registrar.(2)When the Registrar registers an amendment of the bye-laws of a society, he shall issue to the society' a copy of the amendment certified by him, which shall be conclusive evidence that the same is duly registered.(3)Where the Registrar refuses to register an amendment of the bye-laws of a society, he shall communicate the order of refusal, together with his reasons therefor, to the society.

14. Power to direct amendment of bye-laws.

(1)If it appears to the Registrar that an amendment of the bye-laws of a society is necessary or desirable in the interest of such society, he may call upon the society, in the manner prescribed, to make the amendment within such time as he may specify.(2)If the society fails to make the amendment within the time specified, the Registrar may, after giving the society an opportunity of being heard, register such amendment and issue to the society a copy of such amendment certified by him. With effect from the date of the registration of the amendment in the manner aforesaid, the bye-laws shall be deemed to have been duly amended accordingly; and the bye-laws as amended shall/subject to appeal (if any) be binding on the society and its members.

15. Change of name.

(1)A society may, by resolution passed at a general meeting and with the approval of the Registrar, change its name; but such change shall not affect any right or obligation of the society, or of any of its members; and any legal proceedings pending before any person, authority or court may be continued by or against the society, under its new name.(2)Where a society changes its name, the Registrar shall enter the new name in its place in the register of societies, and shall also amend the certificate of registration accordingly.

16. Change of liability.

(1)Subject to the provisions of this Act and the Rules, a society may, by amendment of its bye-laws, change the form or extent of its liability.(2)When a society has passed a resolution to change the form or extent of its liability, it shall give notice thereof in writing to all its members and creditors, and notwithstanding anything in any bye-law or contract to the contrary, any member or creditor shall during a period of one month from the date of service of such notice upon him, have the option of withdrawing his shares, deposits or loans.(3)(a)Any member or creditor who does not exercise his option within the period specified in sub-section (2), shall be deemed to have assented to the change.(b)An amendment of the bye-laws of a society, changing the form or extent of its liability, shall not be registered or take effect until, either-(i)all members and creditors have assented, or deemed to have assented thereto as aforesaid; or(ii)all claims of members and creditors who exercise the option given by sub-section (2), within the period specified therein, have been met in full or otherwise satisfied.

17. Amalgamation, transfer, division or conversion of societies.

(1)A society may, with the previous approval of the Registrar, by resolution passed by two-thirds, majority of the members present and voting at a special general meeting held for the purpose, decide-(a)to amalgamate with another society;(b)to transfer its assets and liabilities, in whole or in part to any society;(c)to divide itself into two or more societies; or(d)to convert itself into another class of society:Provided that when such amalgamation, transfer, division or conversion aforesaid involves a transfer of the liabilities of a society to any other society, no order on the resolution shall be passed by the Registrar, unless he is satisfied that-(i)the society, after passing such resolution, has given notice thereof in such manner as may be prescribed to all its members, creditors and other persons whose interests are likely to be affected (hereinafter in this section referred to as "other interested persons"), giving them the option, to be exercised within one month from the date of such notice of becoming members of any of the new societies, or continuing their membership in the amalgamated or converted society, or demanding payment of their share or interest or dues, as the case may be;(ii)all the members and creditors and other interested persons have assented to the decision, or deemed to have assented thereto, by virtue of any member or creditor or any other interested person failing to exercise his option within the period specified in Clause (i) aforesaid; and(iii)all claims of members and creditors and other interested persons, who exercise the option within the period specified have been met in full or otherwise satisfied.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (IV of 1882) of the Indian Registration Act, 1908 (XVI of 1908) in the vent of division or conversion, the registration of the new societies or, as the case may be, of the converted society, and in the event of amalgamation, the resolution of the societies concerned with amalgamation shall, in each case, be sufficient conveyance to vest the assets and liabilities of the original society or amalgamating societies in the new societies or converted or amalgamated society, as the case may be.(3)The amalgamation of societies, or division or conversion of a society shall not affect any rights or obligations of the societies so amalgamate, or society so divided or converted, or render defective any legal proceedings which might have been continued or commenced by or against the societies which have been amalgamated, or divided or converted ; and accordingly, such legal proceedings may be continued or commenced by or against the amalgamated society, or, as the case may be, the converted society, or the new societies.(4)Where two or more societies have been amalgamated or a society has been divided or converted, the registration of such societies or society shall be cancelled on the date of registration of the amalgamated society, or the converted society or the new societies between which the society may have been divided.

18. Power to direct amalgamation, division and reorganisation in public interest etc.

(1)Where the Registrar is satisfied that it is essential in the public interest or in the interest of the co-operative movement, or for the purpose of securing the proper management of any society, that two or more societies should amalgamate or any society should be divided to form two or more societies or should be reorganised, then notwithstanding anything contained in the last preceding section but subject to the provisions of this section, the Registrar may, after consulting such federal society at he thinks necessary provide for the amalgamation, division or reorganisation of those societies into a single society, or into societies with such constitutions, property, rights, interests and authorities, and with such liabilities, duties and obligations, as may be specified in the order.(2)No order shall be made under this section, unless-(a)a copy of the proposed order has been sent in draft to the society or each of the societies concerned;(b)the Registrar has considered and make such modifications in the draft order as may seem to him desirable in the light of any suggestions and obligations which may be received by him within such period (not being less than two months from the date on which the copy of the order as aforesaid was received by the society) as the Registrar may fix in that behalf, either from the society, or from any member or class of members thereof, or from any creditor or class of creditors.(3)The order referred to in sub-section (1) may contain such incidental, consequential and supplemental provisions as may, in the opinion of the Registrar, be necessary to give effect to the amalgamation, division or re-organisation.(4)Every member or creditor of each of the societies to be amalgamated, divided or reorganised, who has objected to the scheme of amalgamation, division or reorganisation, within the period specified, shall be entitled to receive, on the issue of the order of amalgamation, division or reorganisation, his share or interest if he be a member, and the amount in satisfaction of his dues, if he be a creditor.(3)On the issue of an order under sub-section (1), the provisions of sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) of Section 17 shall apply to the societies so amalgamated, divided or reorganised as if they were amalgamated, divided or reorganised under that section, and to the society amalgamated, divided or reorganised.

19. Reconstruction of societies.

- Where a proposal for a compromise or arrangement-(a)between a society and its creditors, or(b)between a society and its members, is approved at a special general meeting called for the purpose, the Registrar may, on the application of the society or of any member or of any creditor of the society, or in the case of a society which is being wound up, of the liquidator, order reconstruction, in the prescribed manner, of the society.

20. Partnership of societies.

(1)Any two or more societies may, with the prior approval of the Registrar, by resolution passed by three-fourth majority of the members present and voting at a general meeting of each such society, enter into a partnership for carrying out any specific business or business: provided that each member has had clear ten days' written notice of the resolution, and the date of the meeting.(2)Nothing in the Indian Partnership Act, 1932 (IX of 1932) shall apply to such partnership.

21. Cancellation of registration.

- The Registrar shall make an order cancelling the registration of a society if it transfers the whole of its assets and liabilities to another society, or amalgamated with another society, or divides itself into two or more societies or if its affairs are wound up, or it has not commenced business within one year of its registration, or has ceased to function, or it he is satisfied, after making such inquiry as he thinks fit, that the society no longer has genuinely as its objects one or more of the objects specified in Section 4, and its registration ought to, in the interests of the general public, be cancelled, the society shall, from the date of such order of cancellation, be deemed to be dissolved, and shall ceased to exist as a corporate body.

Chapter III

23. Open membership.

(1) No society shall, without sufficient cause, refuse admission to membership to any person duly qualified therefor, under the provisions of this Act and its bye-laws. (2) Any person aggrieved by the decision of a society, refusing him admission to its membership, may appeal to the Registrar. (3) The decision of the Registrar in appeal, shall be final and the Registrar shall communicate his decision to the parties within fifteen days from the date thereof.

24. Nominal and sympathiser member.

- (i) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 22, a society may admit any person as a nominal or sympathiser member. (ii) A nominal member or sympathiser member shall not be entitled to any share in any form whatsoever in the profits or assets of the society as such member. A nominal or sympathiser member shall ordinarily not have any of the privileges and rights of a member, but such a member or an associate member, may, subject to the provisions of sub-section (8) of Section 27, have such privileges and rights and be subject to such liabilities, of a member, as may be specified in the bye-laws of the society.

25. Cease to be member.

- A person shall cease to be a member of a society on his resignation from the membership thereof being accepted, or on the transfer of the whole of his share or interest in the society to another member, or on his death, or removal or expulsion from the society.

26. No rights of membership to be exercised till due payments are made.

- No person shall exercise the rights of a member of a society, until he has made such payment to the society, in respect of membership, or acquired such interest in the society, as may be prescribed by the rules or the bye-laws of such society.

27. Voting powers of members.

(1) No member of any society shall have more than one vote in its affairs: Provided that, in the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall have a casting vote. (2) Where a share of a society is held jointly by more than one person, only the person whose name stands first in the share certificate, shall have the right to vote. (3) A society, which has invested any part of its funds in the shares of another society, may appoint one of its members to vote on its behalf in the affairs of that other society; and accordingly such member shall have the right to vote on behalf of the first society. (4) A company or any other body corporate constituted under any law for the time being in force which has invested any part of its funds in the shares of a society, may appoint any one of its directors or officers to vote on its behalf in the affairs of such society; and accordingly such director or officer shall have the right to vote on behalf of the company or the body corporate. (5) Where a firm has invested any part of its funds in the shares of a society, any one of its partners shall be entitled to vote in the affairs of the society on behalf of the firm. (6) A local authority or public trust which has invested any part of its funds in the shares of a society, may appoint any of its members or trustees to vote on its behalf in the affairs of that society; and accordingly such person shall have the right to vote on behalf of that local authority or the public trust, as the case may be. (7) In the case of a federal society, the voting rights of individual members thereof shall be such as may be regulated by the rules made under this Act and by the bye-laws of the society. (8) No nominal, associate or sympathiser member shall have the right to vote.

28. Restrictions on holding of shares.

- In any society, no member other than the State Government or any other society and agencies that may be authorised by the State Government shall-(a) hold more than such portion of the total share capital of the society (in no case exceeding one-tenth thereof) as may be prescribed, or (b) have or claim any interest in the shares of the society exceeding five thousand rupees: Provided that the Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify in respect of any class of societies a higher or lower maximum than one-fifth of the share capital or, as the case may be, a higher or lower amount than five thousand rupees.

29. Restrictions on transfer or charge on share or interest.

(1) Subject to the provisions of the last proceeding section as to the maximum holding of shares and to any rules made in this behalf, a transfer of, or charge on, the share or interest of a member in the share capital of a society shall be subject to such conditions as may be prescribed. (2) A member shall not transfer any share held by him or his interest in the capital or property of any society, or any part thereof, unless-(a)he has held such share or interest for not less than one year;(b)the transfer or charge is made to a member of the society or to a person whose application for membership has been accepted by the society.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), where a member is allowed to resign, or is expelled, or ceases to be a member on account of his being disqualified by this Act or by the rules made thereunder or by the bye-laws of the society, the society may acquire the share or interest of such member in the share capital by paying for it at the value determined in the manner prescribed; provided that the total payment of share capital of a society in any financial year for such purposes does not exceed ten per cent of the paid-up share capital of the society on the last day of the financial year immediately preceding.Explanation. - The right to forfeit the share or interest of any expelled member in the share capital by virtue of any bye-law of the society, shall not be affected by the aforesaid provision.(4)Where the State Government is a member of a society, the restrictions contained in this section shall not apply to any transfer made by it of its share or interest in the capital of the society; and that the Government may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, withdraw from the society its share capital at any time, after giving to the society notice thereof not less than three months.

30. Transfer of interest on death of a member.

(1)On the death of a member of a society, the society shall transfer the share or interest of the deceased member to a person or persons nominated in accordance with the rules, or, if no person has been so nominated, to such person as may appear to the committee, to be the heir or legal representative of the deceased member:Provided that such nominee, heir or legal representatives, as the case may be, is duly admitted as a member of the society:Provided further that nothing in this sub-section or in Section 22 shall prevent a minor or a person of unsound mind from acquiring by inheritance or otherwise, any share or interest of a deceased member in a society.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) any such nominee, heir or legal representative, as the case may be, may require the society to pay to him the value of the share or interest of the deceased member, ascertained in accordance with the rules.(3)A society may pay all other moneys due to the deceased member from the society to such nominee, heir or legal representative, as the case may be.(4)All transfers and payments, duly made by a society in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall be valid and effectual against any demand made upon the society by any other person.

31. Share or interest not liable to attachment.

- The share or interest of a member in the capital of a society, or in the loan, stock issued by a housing society, or in the funds raised by way of savings deposit, shall not be liable to attachment or sale under any decree or order of a Court for or in respect of any debt or liability incurred by the member; and accordingly, no person or authority under any law for the time being in force, shall be entitled to, or have any claim on, such share or interest.

32. Rights of members to see books, etc.

(1) Every member of a society shall be entitled to inspect, free to cost, at the society's office during office hours, or any time fixed for the purpose by the society, a copy of this Act, the rules, and the bye-laws, the last audited annual balance sheet, the profit and loss account, the list of the members of the committee, the register of members, the minutes of general meetings, the minutes of committee meetings and those portions of the books and records in which his transactions with the society have been recorded. (2) A society shall furnish to a member, on request in writing and on payment of such fees as may be prescribed therefor, a copy of any of the documents mentioned in the foregoing sub-section within one month from the date of payment of such fees.

33. Liability of past member and estate to deceased member.

(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2), the liability of a past member or of the estate of a deceased member of a society for the debts of the society as they stood, - (a) in the case of a past member, on the date on which he ceased to be a member, and (b) in the case of a deceased member, on the date of his death, shall continue for a period of four years from such date. (2) Where a society is ordered to be wound up under any provision of this Act, the liability of a past member or of the estate of a deceased member, who ceased to be a member or died within two years immediately preceding the date of the order of winding up, shall continue until the entire liquidation proceedings are completed; but such liability shall extend only to the debts of the society as they stood on the date of his ceasing to be a member or death, as the case may be.

34. Insolvency of members.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, the dues of society from a member, in insolvency proceedings against him, shall rank in order of priority next to the dues payable by him to the Government or to a local authority.

35. Expulsion of members.

(1) A society may, by resolution passed by three-fourth majority of the members entitled to vote who are present at a general meeting held for the purpose, expel a member for acts which are detrimental to the interest or proper working of the society: Provided that no resolution shall be valid unless the member concerned is given an opportunity of representing his case to the general body, and no resolution shall be effective unless it is approved by the Registrar. (2) No member of a society who has been expelled under the foregoing sub-section shall be eligible for re-admission as a member of that society, or for admission as a member of any other society, for a period of one year from the date of such expulsion: Provided that the Registrar may, on an application by the society and in special circumstances, sanction the re-admission, or admission, within the said period, of any such member as a member of the said society or of any other society, as the case may be.

Chapter IV

Incorporation, Duties and Privileges of Societies

36. Societies to be bodies corporate.

- The registration of a society shall render it a body corporate by the name under which it is registered, with perpetual succession and a common seal, and with power to acquire, hold and dispose of property, to enter into contracts, to institute and defend suits and other legal proceedings, and to do all such things as are necessary for the purpose for which it is constituted.

(2) The register shall be prima facie evidence of the date on which any person was admitted to membership, and of the date on which he ceased to be a member.

39. Copy of Act, etc., to be open to inspection.

- Every society shall keep, at the registered address of the society, a copy of this Act and the rules and of its bye-laws and a list of members, open to inspection to the public free of charge during office hours or any hours fixed by the society therefor.

40. Admissibility of copy of entry as evidence.

(1) A copy of any entry in any book, register or list, regularly kept in the course of business and in the possession of a society, shall, if duly certified in such manner as may be prescribed, be admissible in evidence of the existence of the entry, and shall be admitted as evidence of the matters and transactions therein recorded in every case where and to the same extent to which, the original entry would, if produced, have been admissible to prove such matters. (2) In the case of such societies, as the Government may, by general or special order direct, no officer of a society shall, in any legal proceedings to which the society is not a party, be compelled to produce and of the society's books, the contents of which can be proved under the foregoing sub-section, or to appear as a witness to prove the matters, transactions and accounts therein recorded, unless required to do so by order of the Court or a Judge made for special cause.

41. Exemption from compulsory registration and instruments relating to shares and debentures of society.

- Nothing in Clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of Section 17 of the Indian Registration Act, 1908 (XVI of 1908), shall apply-(a)to any instrument relating to shares in a society, notwithstanding that the assets of the society consist in whole or in part of immovable property; or(b)to any debentures issued by any society and not creating, declaring, assign in, limiting or extinguishing any right, title or interest to or in immovable property, except in so far as it entitles the holder to the security afforded by a registered instrument whereby by the society has mortgaged, conveyed or otherwise transferred the whole or part of its immovable property, or any interest therein to trustees upon trust for the benefit of the holders of such debentures; or(c)to any endorsement upon, or transfer of, any debentures issued by any society.

42. Power to exempt from taxation.

- The State Government, by notification in the official Gazette may, in the case of any society or class of societies, remit,-(a)the stamp duty with which, under any law relating to stamp duty for the time being in force, instruments executed by or on behalf of a society or by an officer or member thereof and relating to the business of the society or any class of such instruments, or awards of the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees under this Act, are respectively chargeable;(b)any fee payable by or on behalf of a society under the law relating to the registration of documents and to court fees for the time being in force; and(c)any other tax or fee or duty (or any portion thereof) payable by or on behalf of a society under any law for the time being in force, which the Government is competent to levy.

43. Restrictions on borrowings.

- A society shall receive deposits and loans from members and other persons, only to such extent, and under such conditions as may be prescribed, or specified by the bye-laws of the society.

44. Restrictions on loan.

(1)A co-operative society shall not make a loan to any person other than a member ; provided that with a general or special sanction of the Registrar, a co-operative society may make a loan to another co-operative society.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), a co-operative society may make a loan to a depositor within his deposits on its security.

45. Restrictions on other transactions with non-members.

- Save as is provided in this Act, the transactions of a society with persons other than members, shall be subject to such restrictions, if any, as may be prescribed.

46. Charge upon share or interest of members.

- A society shall have a charge upon the share or interest in the capital, and on the deposits, of a member or past member or deceased member, and upon any dividend, bonus or profits payable to any such member, in respect of any debt due from such member or his estate to the society ; and the society may set-off any such credited or payable to such member in or towards payment of any such debt: Provided that no co-operative bank shall have a charge upon any sum invested with it by a society out of the provident fund established by it under Section 71, or its reserve fund; and no co-operative bank shall be entitled to set-off any such sum towards any debts due from the society.

47. Prior claim of society.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, but subject to any prior claim of Government in respect of any land revenue or any money recoverable as land revenue and to the provisions of Sections 60 and 61 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908)-(a) any debt or outstanding demand, owing to a society by any member or past member or deceased member, shall be a first charge,-(i) upon the crops or other agricultural produce raised in whole or in part whether with or without a loan taken from the society by such member or past member or deceased member; (ii) upon any cattle, fodder for cattle, agricultural or industrial implements or machinery or raw materials for manufacture, workshop, godown or place of business, supplied to or purchased by such member or past member or deceased member, in whole or in part, from any loan whether in money or goods made to him by the society; and (iii) upon any movable property which may have been hypothecated, pledged or otherwise mortgaged by a member with the society and remaining in his custody; (b) any outstanding demands or dues payable to a society by any member or past member or deceased member in respect of rent, shares, loans or purchase money or any other rights or amounts payable to such society, shall be a first charge upon his interest in the immovable property of the society. Explanation. - The prior claim of Government in respect of dues, other than land revenue, shall be restricted for the purpose of sub-section (1) to the assets created by a member out of the funds in respect of which the Government has a claim. (2) No property or interest in property, which is subject to a charge under the foregoing sub-section, shall be transferred in any manner without the previous permission of the society; and such transfer shall be subject to such conditions, if any, as the society may impose. (3) Any transfer made in contravention of sub-section (2) shall be void. (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (2) and (3), a society, which has as one of its objects the disposal of the produce of its members, may provide in its bye-laws, or may otherwise contract with its members,-(a) that every such member shall dispose of his produce through the society; and (b) that any member, who is found guilty of a breach of the bye-laws or of any such contract, shall reimburse the society for any loss, determined in such manner as may be specified in the bye-laws.

48. Charge on the immovable property of members borrowing from certain societies.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or in any other law for the time being in force, - (a) any person who makes an application to a society of which he is a member, for a loan, shall, if he owns any land or has interest in any land as a tenant, make a declaration in the form prescribed. Such declaration shall state that the applicant thereby creates a charge on such land or interest specified in the declaration for the payment of the amount of the loan which the society may make to the member in pursuance of the application, and for all future advances (if any) required by him which the society may make to him as such member, subject to such maximum as may be determined by the society, together with interest on such amount of the loan and advances; (b) any person who has taken a loan from society of which he is a member before the date of the coming into force of this Act, and who owns any land or has interest in land as a tenant, and who has not already made such a declaration before the aforesaid date shall, as soon as possible thereafter, make a declaration in the form and to the effect referred to in Clause (a); and no such person shall, unless and until he has made such declaration, be entitled to exercise any right as a member of the society; (c) a declaration made under Clause (a) or (b) may be varied at any time by a member, with the consent of the society in favour of which such charge is created; (d) no member shall alienate the whole or any part of the land or interest therein, specified in the declaration made under Clause (a) or Clause (b) until the whole amount borrowed by the member together with interest thereon is repaid in full: Provided that, if a part of the amount borrowed by a member is paid, the General Financing Agency may, on an application from the member, release from the charge created under the declaration made under Clause (a) or Clause (b), such part of the movable or immovable property specified in the said declaration, as it may deem proper, with due regard to the security of the balance of the amount remaining outstanding from the member; (e) any alienation made in contravention of the provisions of Clause (d) shall be void; (f) subject to the prior claims of the Government in respect of land revenue or any money recoverable as land revenue and to the charge (if any) created under an award made under any law for the time being in force in any part of the State, there shall be a first charge in favour of the society on the land or interest specified in the declaration made under Clause (a) or Clause (b), for and to the extent of the dues owing by him on account of the loan; and (g) in particular, notwithstanding anything contained in the Manipur Land Revenue and Land Reforms Act, 1960 or any corresponding law for the time being in force, the records-of-rights maintained thereunder shall also include the particulars of every charge on land or interest created under a declaration under Clause (a) or (b). Explanation. - For the purposes of this section, the expressions "society" means - (i) any resource society, the majority of the members of which are agriculturists and the primary object of which is to obtain credit for its members, or (ii) any society, or any society of the class of societies specified in this behalf by the State Government, by a general or special order.

49. Deduction from salary to meet society's claim to certain cases.

(1) A member of a society may execute an agreement in favour of the society : provided that his employer shall be competent to deduct, from the salary or wages payable to him by the employer, such amount as may be specified in the agreement, and to pay to the society the amount so deducted in satisfaction of any debt or other demand of the society against the member.(2)On the execution of such agreement, the employer shall, if so required by the society by a requisition in writing, and so long as the society does not intimate that the whole of such debt or demand has been paid, make the deduction in accordance with the agreement, and pay the amount so deducted to the society, as if it were a part of the wages payable by him as required under the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (IV of 1936) on the day on which he makes payment.(3)If after the receipt of a requisition made under the foregoing sub-section, the employer at any time fails to deduct the amount specified in the requisition from the salary or wages payable to the member concerned, or makes default in remitting the amount deducted to the society, the employer shall be personally liable for the payment thereof; and the amount shall be recoverable on behalf of the society from him as an arrear of land revenue, and the amount so due shall rank in priority in respect of such liability of the employer as wages in arrear.(4)Nothing contained in this section shall apply to persons employed in any railways (within the meaning of the Constitution of India) and in mines and oil fields.

Chapter VIII

Audit, Inquiry, Inspection and Supervision

81. Audit.

(1)The Registrar shall audit, or cause to be audited by a person authorised by him by general or special order in writing in this behalf, the accounts of every society at least once in each year.(2)The audit under the foregoing sub-section shall include an examination of overdue debts, if any, the verification of the cash balance and the securities, and a valuation of the assets and liabilities of the society.(3)The Registrar or the person authorised shall, for the purpose of audit, at all times have access to all the books, accounts, documents, papers, securities, cash and other properties belonging to, or in the custody of, the society and may summon any person in possession, or responsible for the custody, of any such books, accounts, documents, papers, securities, cash or other properties, to produce the same either at any place at the headquarters of the society or at the office of any branch thereof.(4)Every person who is or has, at any time, been an officer or employee of the society, and every member and past member of the society, shall furnish shall information in regard to the transactions and working of the society as the Registrar, or the person authorised by him, may require.(5)The auditor appointed under sub-section (1) shall have the right to receive all notices, and every communication relating to the annual general meeting of the society and to attend such meeting and to be heard thereat, in respect of any part of the business with which he is concerned as auditor.(6)If it appears to the Registrar, on an application by a society or otherwise, that it is necessary or expedient to re-audit any account of the society, the Registrar may order provide for such re-audit and the provisions of this Act application to audit of accounts of the society shall apply to such re-audit.

82. Rectification of defects in accounts.

- If the result of the audit held under the last preceding section discloses any defect in the working of the society, the society shall within three months from the date of the audit report, explain to the Registrar the defects or the irregularities pointed out by the auditor, and take steps to rectify the defects and remedy irregularities, and report to the Registrar the action taken by it thereon. The Registrar may also make an order directing the society or its officers to take such action, as may be specified in the order, to remedy the defects within the time specified therein.

83. Inquiry by Registrar.

(1)The Registrar may, of his own motion by himself or by a person duly authorised by him in writing in this behalf, hold an inquiry into the constitution, working and financial condition of a society.(2)The Registrar shall hold such an inquiry-(a)on the requisition of a member society in the case of an affiliating society; or(b)on the application by the majority of the members of the Board of the society; or(c)on the application of one-third of the members of a society; or(d)on the requisition of the creditors representing half of the borrowed capital of the society.(3)(a)All officers, members and past members of the society in respect of which an inquiry is held, and any other person who, in the opinion of the officer holding the inquiry is in possession of any information, books and papers relating to the society, shall furnish such information as is in their possession and produce all books and papers relating to the society which are in their custody or power and otherwise give to the officer holding the inquiry all assistance in connection with the inquiry which they can reasonably give.(b)If any such person refuses to produce to the Registrar or any person authorised by him under sub-section (1), any books or papers which it is his duty under Clause (a) to produce or to answer any question which is put to him by the Registrar or the person authorised by the Registrar in pursuance of sub-Clause (a), the Registrar or the person authorised by the Registrar may certify the refusal and the Registrar after hearing any statement which may be offered in defence, punish the defaulter with a penalty not exceeding five hundred rupees. Any sum imposed as penalty under this section shall, on the application by the Registrar or the person authorised by him, to a Magistrate having jurisdiction, be recoverable by the Magistrate as if it were a fine imposed by himself.(4)The result of any inquiry under this section shall be communicated to the society whose affairs have been investigated.(5)It shall be competent for the Registrar to withdraw any inquiry from the officer to whom it is entrusted, and to hold the enquiry himself or entrust it to any other person as he deems fit.

84. Inspection of books of indebted society.

(1)The Registrar may, of his own motion or on the application of a creditor of a society, inspect or direct any person, authorised by him by order in writing in this behalf, to inspect books, cash and other property of the society:Provided that no such inspection shall be made on the application of a creditor unless the applicant satisfies the Registrar that a debt is still due to him and that he has demanded payment thereof and has not received satisfaction within a reasonable time.(2)The Registrar shall communicate the results of any such inspection,-(a)where the inspection is made of his own motion, to the society; and(b)where the inspection is made on the application of a creditor to the society.(3)It shall be competent for the Registrar to withdraw any order of inspection from the officer to whom it is entrusted, and to inspect himself or entrust it to any other person as he deems fit.

85. Costs of inquiry and inspection.

(1)Where an inquiry is held under Section 83 or an inspection is made under the last preceding section, the Registrar may apportion the costs, or such part of the costs, as he may think just, between the society, the members or creditors demanding the inquiry or inspection, the officers or former officers and the members or past members or the estates of the deceased members of the society:Provided that-(a)no order of appointment of the costs shall be made under this section, unless the society or persons or the legal representative of the deceased person liable to pay the costs thereunder; has or have been heard, or has or have had a reasonable opportunity of being heard;(b)the Registrar shall state in writing the grounds on which the costs are apportioned.(2)No expenditure from the funds of a society shall be incurred for the purpose of defraying any costs in support or any special of any appeal preferred by any person other than the society against an order made under the foregoing sub-section.

86. Recovery of costs.

- Any sum awarded by way of any costs under the last preceding section may be recovered, on an application by the Registrar to a Magistrate having jurisdiction in the place where the person from whom the money is claimable resides or carries on business, and such Magistrate shall proceed to recover the same in the same manner as if it were a fine imposed by himself.

87. Registrar to bring defects disclosed in inquiry or inspection to the notice of society.

(1)If the result of any inquiry held under Section 83 or an inspection made under Section 84 discloses any defects in the constitution, working and financial condition or the books of a society, the Registrar may bring such defects to the notice of the society. The Registrar may also make an order directing the society or its officers to take such action as may be specified in the order to remedy the defects, within the time specified therein.(2)The society concerned may, within sixty days from the date of any order made by the Registrar under the foregoing sub-section, appeal against it to the State Government.(3)The State Government may, in deciding the appeal, annul, reverse, modify, or confirm, the order of the Registrar.(4)If a society fails to rectify the defects disclosed in the course of or as a result of an audit under section 81 or fails to rectify the defects as directed by the Registrar, and where no appeal has been made to the State Government within the time specified in sub-section (2), or where on the appeal so made, the State Government has not annulled, reversed or modified the order, the Registrar may himself take steps to have the defects rectified and may recover the costs from the officer or officers of the society who, in his opinion, has to have failed to rectify the defects.

88. Power to Registrar to assets damages against delinquent promoters, etc.

(1)Where, in the course or of as a result of an audit under Section 81, or an inquiry under Section 83 or an inspection under Section 84 or the winding up of a society, the Registrar is satisfied on the basis of the report made by the auditor or the person authorised to make inquiry under Section 83 or the person authorised to inspect the books under Section 84, or the liquidator under Section 105 or otherwise, that any person who has taken any part in the organisation or management of the society or any deceased person or any past or present officer of the society has within a period of five years, prior to the date of commencement of such audit, or date of order for inquiry, inspection or order, for winding up, misapplied or retained, or became liable or accountable for any money or property of the society, or has been guilty of misfeasance or breach of trust in relation to the society, the Registrar or a person authorised by him that behalf, may frame charge against such person or persons and after giving a reasonable opportunity to the person concerned, and in the case of a deceased person to his representative who inherits his estate, to answer the charges and make an order requiring him to repay or restore to money or property or any part thereof, with interest at such rate as the Registrar or the person authorised under this section may determine, or to contribute such sum to the assets of the society by way of compensation in regard to the misapplication, retention, misfeasance or breach of trust, as he may determine.(2)The Registrar or the person authorised under sub-section (1) in making any order under this section may provide therein for the payment of the cost or any part thereof, as he thinks just, and he may direct that such costs or any part thereof shall be recovered from the person against whom the order has been issued.(3)This section shall apply, notwithstanding that the act is one for which the person concerned may be criminally responsible.

89. Power to enforce attendance, etc.

- The Registrar or the person authorised by him, when acting under Section 84 or 88 shall have the power to summon and enforce the attendance of any person to give evidence and examine him on oath or affirmation or by affidavit or to compel the production of any document or other material object by the same means and in the same manner as is provided in the case of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908).

90. Constitution or recognition of federal authority to supervise the working of societies.

(1)The State Government may, by general or special order, require a society or a class of societies to make contribution of such sum every year as may be fixed by the Registrar towards the recoupment of expenditure which the State Government or any person authorised in that behalf has incurred or is likely to incur, in respect of supervision of societies.(2)A society to which sub-section (1) is applicable shall pay to such authority such fee as may be prescribed within a reasonable time, and if it fails to pay such fees within a reasonable time, the authority may recover it as if it were an arrear of land revenue.

Chapter IX

Disputes and Arbitration

91. Dispute.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, any dispute touching the constitution, election of the office bearers, conduct of general meetings, management of business of a society, other than a dispute regarding disciplinary action taken by a society or its committee against the paid servant of the society or of the liquidator of a society, shall be referred by any of the parties to the dispute, or by a federal society to which the society is affiliated, or by a creditor of the society, to the Registrar, if both the parties thereto are one or other of the following, namely: (a) a society, its committee, any past committee, any past or present officer, any past or present agent, any past or present servant or nominee, heir, or legal representative of any deceased officer, deceased agent or deceased servant of the society, or the liquidator of the society; (b) a member, past member or a person claiming through a member, past member or a deceased member of a society or a society which is a member of the society; (c) a person, other than a member of the society, who has been granted a loan by the society, or with whom the society has or had transactions under the provisions of Section 43, and any person claiming through such a person; (d) a surety of a member, past member or a deceased member, or a person other than a member who has been granted a loan by the society under Section 45, whether such a surety is or is not a member of the society; (e) any other society, or the liquidator of such a society. (2) When any question arises whether for the purposes of the foregoing sub-section, a matter referred to for decision is a dispute or not, the question shall be considered by the Registrar whose decision shall be final. (3) Save as otherwise provided under sub-section (3) of Section 93, no Court shall have jurisdiction to entertain any suit or other proceedings in respect of any dispute referred to in sub-section (1). Explanation 1. - A dispute between the liquidator of a society and the members (including past members or nominees, heirs or legal representatives of deceased members) of the same society shall not be referred to the Registrar under the provisions of sub-section (1). Explanation 2. - For the purposes of this sub-section, a dispute shall include- (i) a claim by or against a society for any debt or demand due to it from a member or due from it to a member, past member or the nominee, heir or legal representatives of a deceased member, or servant or employee whether such a debt or demand be admitted or not; (ii) a claim by a surety for any such or demand due to him from the principal borrower in respect of a loan by a society and recovered from the surety owing to the default of the principal borrower, whether such a sum or demand be admitted or not; (iii) a claim by a society for any loss caused to it by a member, past member or deceased member, by any officer, past officer or deceased officer, by any agent, past agent or deceased agent, or by any servant, past servant or deceased servant, or by its committee, past or present whether such loss be admitted or not; (iv) a refusal or failure by a member, past member or a nominee, heir or legal representative of a deceased member to deliver possession to a society of land or any other assets assumed by it for breach of conditions of the assignment.

92. Limitation.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in the Limitation Act, 1963 (XXXVI of 1963) but subject to the specific provisions made in this Act, the period of limitation in the case of a dispute referred to the Registrar under the last preceding section shall-(a)when the dispute relates to the recovery of any sum including interest thereon due to a society by a member thereof, be computed from the date on which such member dies or ceases to be a member of the society;(b)when the dispute is between a society or its committee and any past committee, or any past or present officer, or past or present agent, or past or present servant or the nominee, heir or legal representative of a deceased officer, deceased agent or deceased servant of the society, or a member, or past member, or the nominee, heir or legal representative of a deceased member, and when the dispute, relates to any act or omission on the part of either party to the dispute, be six years from the date on which the act or omission with reference to which the dispute arose, took place;(c)when the dispute is in respect of any matter touching the constitution, management or business of a society which has been ordered to be wound up under Section 102, or in respect of which a nominated committee or an administrator has been appointed under Section 78, be six years from the date of the order issued under Section 102, or Section 78, as the case may be;(d)when the dispute is in the respect of an election of an office bearer of the society, be one month from the date of the declaration of the result of the election.(2)The period of limitation in the case of any other dispute except those mentioned in the foregoing sub-section which are required to be referred to the Registrar under the last preceding section shall be regulated by the provisions of the Limitation Act, 1963 (XXXVI of 1963) as if the dispute were a suit, and the Registrar a Civil Court.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (1) and (2), the Registrar may admit a dispute after the expiry of the limitation period, if the applicant satisfies the Registrar that he had sufficient cause for not referring the dispute within such period and the dispute so admitted shall be a dispute which shall not be barred on the ground that the period of limitation has expired.

93. Settlement of dispute.

(1)If the Registrar is satisfied that any matter referred to him or brought to his notice is a dispute within the meaning of Section 91, the Registrar shall, subject to the rules, decide the dispute himself, or refer it for disposal to a nominee or a board of nominees, appointed by the Registrar.(2)Where any dispute is referred under the foregoing sub-section for decision to the Registrar's nominee or board of nominees, the Registrar may, at any time, for reasons to be recorded in writing, withdraw such dispute from his nominee or board of nominees, and may decide the dispute himself or refer it again for decision to any other nominee or board of nominees, appointed by him.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 91, the Registrar may, if he thinks fit, suspend proceedings in regard to any dispute, if the question at issue between a society and a claimant or between different claimants, is one involving complicated questions of law and fact, until the question has been tried by a regular suit instituted by one of the parties or by the society. If any such suit is not instituted within two months from the Registrar's order suspending proceedings, the Registrar shall take action as is provided in sub-section (1).

94. Procedure for settlement of disputes and power of Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees.

(1)The Registrar, or his nominee or board of nominees, hearing a dispute under the last preceding section shall hear the dispute in the manner prescribed, and shall have power to summon and enforce attendance of witnesses including the parties interested, or any of them and to compel them to give evidence on oath, affirmation or affidavit and to compel the production of documents by the same means and as far as possible, in the same manner is provided in the case of a Civil Court by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908).(2)Except with the permission of the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be, no party shall be representative at the hearing of a dispute by a legal practitioner.(3)(a)If the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees is satisfied that a person, whether he be a member of the society or not, has acquired any interest in the property of a person who is a part to a dispute, he may order that the person who has acquired the interest in the property may join as a party to the dispute; and any decision that may be passed on the reference by the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees, shall be binding on the party so joined, in the same manner as if he were an original party to the dispute.(b)Where a dispute has been instituted in the name of wrong person, or where all the defendants have not been included, the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees may, at any stage of the hearing of the dispute, if satisfied that the mistake was bona fide, order any other person to be substituted or added as a plaintiff or a defendant upon such terms as he thinks just.(c)The Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees may, at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of either party, and on such terms as may appear to the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be, to be just, order that the name of any party improperly joined whether as plaintiff or defendant, be struck out; and that the name of any person who ought to have been joined whether as plaintiff or defendant or whose presence before the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees, as the case may be, may be necessary in order to enable the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the dispute, be added.(d)Any person who is a party to the dispute and entitled to more than one relief in respect of the same cause of action, may claim all or any of such relief; but if he omits to claim for all such reliefs, he shall not forward a claim for any relief so omitted, except with the leave of the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees.

95. Attachment before award and interlocutory orders.

(1)Where a dispute has been referred to the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees under Section 93 or under Section 105 or where the Registrar or the person authorised under Section 88, hears a person against whom charges are framed under that section, the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees, or as the case may be, the person so authorised under Section 88, if satisfied on enquiry or otherwise that a party to such dispute or against whom proceedings are pending under Section 88 with intent to defeat, delay or obstruct the execution of any award or the carrying out of any order that may be made,-(a)is about to dispose of the whole or any part of his property, or(b)is about to remove the whole or any part of his property from the jurisdiction of the Registrar, the Registrar may, unless adequate security is furnished, direct conditional attachment of the said property and such attachment shall have the same effect as if made by a competent Civil Court.(2)Where the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees or the person authorised under Section 88 directs attachment of property under the foregoing sub-section, he shall issue a notice calling upon the person whose property is so attached to furnish security which he thinks adequate within a specified period; and if the person fails to provide the security so demanded, the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees, or as the case may be, the person authorised under Section 88, may confirm the order and after the decision in the dispute or the completion of the proceedings referred to in the foregoing sub-section, may direct the disposal of the property so attached towards the claim, if awarded.(3)Attachment made under this section shall not affect the rights, subsisting prior to the attachment of the property of persons and parties to the proceedings in connection with which the attachment is made, or bar any person building a decree against the person whose property is so attached from applying for the sale of the property under attachment in execution of such decree.(4)The Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees or the person authorised under Section 88, as the case may be, may, in order to prevent the ends of justice being defeated, make such interlocutory orders pending the decision in a dispute referred to in sub-section (1) as may appear to be just and convenient.

96. Decision of Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees.

- The Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees may, after giving the parties to the dispute reasonable opportunity of being heard, make an award on the dispute, on the expenses incurred by the parties to the dispute in connection with the proceedings, and the fees and expenses payable to the Registrar or his nominee or, as the case may be, board of nominees; and such an award shall not be invalid merely on the ground that it was made after the expiry of the period fixed for deciding the dispute by the Registrar, and shall, subject to any appeal or review or revision, be binding on the parties to the dispute.

97. Appeal against decision of Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees.

- Any party aggrieved by any decision of the Registrar or his nominee or board of nominees under the last preceding section or an order passed under Section 95 may, within two months from the date of the decision or order, appeal to the Tribunal.

98. Money how recovered.

- Every order passed by the Registrar or a person authorised by him under Section 88, or by the Registrar, his nominee or board of nominees under Section 95 or Section 96, every order passed in appeal, under the last preceding section, every order passed by a Liquidator under Section 105, every order passed by the State Government in appeal against orders passed under Section 105 and every order passed in revision under Section 154 shall, if not carried out-(a)on a certificate signed by the Registrar or a liquidator, be deemed to be a decree of a Civil Court, and shall be executed in the same manner as a decree of such Court, or(b)be executed according to the law and under the rules for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of laird revenue:Provided that any application for the Recovery in such manner of any such sum shall be made to the Collector and shall be accompanied by a certificate signed by the Registrar. Such application shall be made within twelve months from the date fixed in the order and if no such date as fixed, from the date of the order.

99. Private transfer of property made after issue of certificate void against society.

- Any private transfer or delivery of, or encumbrance or charge on property, made or created after the issue of the certificate of the Registrar or liquidator, as the case may be, under Section 98 shall be null and void as against the society on whose application the said certificate was issued.

100. Transfer of property which cannot be sold.

(1) When in any execution of an order sought to be executed under Section 98, any property cannot be sold for want of buyers, if such property is in occupancy of the defaulter, or of some person in his behalf, or of some person claiming under a title created by the defaulter subsequently to the issue of the certificate of the Registrar or liquidator under Clause (a) or (b) of Section 98, the court, the Collector or the Registrar, as the case may be, may notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, direct that the said property or any portion thereof, shall be transferred to the society which has applied for the execution of the said order, in the manner prescribed. (2) Where the property is transferred to the society under the foregoing sub-section, or where property is sold under Section 98, the Court, the Collector, or the Registrar, as the case may be, in accordance with the rules, place the society or the purchaser, as the case may be, in possession of the property transferred or sold. (3) Subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf and to any rights, encumbrances, charges or equities lawfully subsisting in favour of any person, such property or portion thereof shall be held under sub-section (1) by the said society on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Court, the Collector, or the Registrar, as the case may be, and the said society. Subject to the general or special orders of State Government, the Collector or the Registrar may delegate to an officer, not below the rank of the Sub-Deputy Collector or the Assistant Registrar, powers exercisable by the Collector or the Registrar under this section.

101. Recovery of crop loan.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sections 91, 93, and 98, on an application made by a resource society undertaking the financing of agriculturists towards providing of their seasonal requirements, for the recovery of arrears of any sum advanced and on its furnishing a statement of accounts in respect of the arrears, the Registrar may, after making such inquiries as he deems fit, grant a certificate for the recovery of the amount stated therein to be due as arrears of revenue. (2) Where the Registrar is satisfied that a resource society has failed to take action under the foregoing sub-section in respect of arrears of any sum advanced by it to any of its members the Registrar may, of his own motion, after making such inquiries as he deems fit, grant a certificate for the recovery of the amount stated therein to be due as arrears of revenue, and such certificate shall be deemed to have been issued as if on an application made by the society concerned. (3) A certificate granted by the Registrar under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be final and a conclusive proof of the arrears stated to be due therein, and the same shall be recoverable according to the law for the time being in force for the recovery of land revenue.(4)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the provisions of sub-Sections (1), (2) and (3) shall, mutatis mutandis apply to the recovery of medium term loans.

Chapter X

Liquidation

102. Winding up.

(1)If the Registrar,(a)after an inquiry has been held under Section 83 an inspection has been made under Section 84 or on the report of the auditor auditing the accounts of the society, or(b)on receipt of an application made upon a resolution carried by three-fourths of the members of the society present at a special general meeting called for the purpose, or(c)of his own motion, in the case of a society which-(i)has not commenced working, or(ii)has ceased working, or(iii)possesses shares or members' deposits not exceeding five hundred rupees, or(iv)has ceased to comply with any conditions as to registration and management in this Act or the rules or the bye- laws,is of the opinion that a society ought to be wound up, he may issue an interim order directing it to be wound up.(2)A copy of such order made under sub-section (1) shall be communicated in the prescribed manner, to the society calling upon it to submit its explanation to the Registrar within a month from the date of the issue of such order, and the Registrar, on giving an opportunity to the society of being heard, may issue a final order, vacating or confirming the interim order.

103. Appointment of Liquidator.

(1)When an interim order is passed under the last preceding section or a final order is passed under that section for the winding up of a society, the Registrar may, in accordance with the rules, appoint a person to be liquidator of the society, and fix his remuneration.(2)On the issue of interim order, the officers of the society shall hand over to the Liquidator the custody and control of all the properties, effects and actionable claims to which the society is or appears to be entitled, and of all books, records and other documents pertaining to the business of the society, and shall have no access to any of them.(3)When a final order is passed confirming the interim order, the officers of the society shall vacate their offices, and while the winding up order remain in force, the general body of the society shall not exercise any power.(4)The person appointed under this section as Liquidator shall, subject to the general control of the Registrar, exercise all or any of the powers mentioned in Section 108. 112. State and other Land Development Banks.

- There shall be a State Land Development Bank for the State of Manipur, and as many Primary Land Development Banks as may be deemed necessary.

113. Appointment, powers and functions of trustee.

(1)The Registrar, or any other person appointed by the State Government in this behalf, shall be Trustee for the purpose of securing the fulfilment of the obligation of the State Land Development Bank to the holders of debentures issued by it.(2)The Trustee shall be a corporation sole by the name of the Trustee for the debentures in respect of which he is appointed, and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and in his corporate name may sue and be used.(3)The powers and functions of the Trustee shall be governed by the provisions of this Act, and the instrument of trust executed between the State Land Development Bank and the Trustee, as modified from time to time by mutual agreement between the State Land Development Bank and the Trustee.

114. Issue of debentures.

(1)With the previous sanction of the State Government and the Trustee, and subject to such terms and conditions as the State Government may impose, the State Land Development Bank may issue debentures of such denominations, for such period and at such rates of interest as it may deem expedient on the security of mortgage or mortgages to be acquired or partly on mortgages held and partly to be acquired, and properties and other assets of the State Land Development Bank.(2)Every debenture may contain a term fixing a period not exceeding twenty years from the date of issue during which it shall be redeemable, or reserving to the Board the right to redeem at any time in advance of the date fixed for redemption, after giving to the holders of the debenture not less than three months notice in writing.(3)The total amount due on debentures issued by the State Land Development Bank, and outstanding at any time, shall not exceed-(a)where debentures are issued against mortgages held, the aggregate of-(i)the amounts due on the mortgages;(ii)the value of the properties and other assets transferred or deemed to have been transferred under Section 121 by the Primary Land Development Banks and to the State Land Development Bank and subsisting at such time; and(iii)the amounts paid under the mortgage aforesaid and the unsecured amounts remaining in the hands of the State Land Development Bank or the Trustee at the time;(b)where debentures are issued otherwise than on mortgages held, the total amount as calculated under Clause (a) increased by such portion of the amount obtained on the debentures as is not covered by a mortgage.

115. Guarantee by State Government.

- The principal of, and interest on the debentures issued under the preceding section or any specified portion thereof, may carry the guarantee of the State Government, subject to such maximum amount as may be fixed by the State Government and to such conditions as the State Government may think fit to impose.

116. Vesting of property in trustee and debentures holders' charge on assets.

- Upon the issue of the debentures under the provisions of Section 114, the properties and other assets referred to in sub-section (3) of that section held by the State Land Development Bank, shall vest in the Trustee, and the holders of debentures shall have a floating charge on all such mortgages and assets, and on the amount paid under such mortgages, and remaining in the hands of the State Land Development Bank or of the Trustee.

117. Powers of land development banks to advance loans and to hold lands.

- Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, it shall be competent for the land development banks to advance loans for the purposes referred to in Section 111 and to hold land the possession of which is transferred to them under the provisions of this Chapter.

118. Mode of dealing with application for loans.

(1)When an application for a loan is made for any of the purposes mentioned in Section 11, a public notice shall be given of the application in such manner as may be prescribed calling upon all persons interested to present their objections to the loan, if any, if person, at a time and place fixed therein. The State Government may, from time to time, prescribe the person by whom such public notice shall be given and the manner in which the objections shall be heard and disposed of.(2)The prescribed officer shall consider every objection submitted under sub-section (1) and make an order in writing either upholding or overruling it:Provided that when the question raised by an objection is, in the opinion of the officer, one of such a nature that it cannot be satisfactorily decided except by a civil court, he shall postpone the proceedings on the application until the question has been so decided.(3)A notice under sub-section (1), published in the manner prescribed, shall, for the purpose of this Act, be deemed to be proper notice to all persons having or claiming interest in the land to be improved or offered as security for the loan.(4)Subject to such rules as may be prescribed, the land development bank shall consider such application after due enquiry for the purpose of making loans under this Chapter.

119. Order granting loan conclusive of certain matter.

- A written order by the land development bank or person or board authorised under the bye-laws of the bank to make loans for all or any of the purposes specified in Section 111, granting a loan to or with the consent of a person mentioned therein, for the purpose of carrying out the work specified therein, for the benefit of the land or for the productive purpose specified therein shall, for the purpose of this Act, be conclusive of the following matters, that is to say-(a)that the work described or the purpose for which the loan is granted, is an improvement or productive purpose, as the case may be, within the meaning of Section 111;(b)that the person had, at the date of the order, a right to make such an improvement, or incur expenditure for productive purpose, as the case may be; and(c)that the improvement is one benefiting the land specified and productive purpose concerns the land offered in security, or any part thereof as may be relevant.

120. Priority of mortgage.

(1)A mortgage executed in favour of a land development bank, shall have priority over any claim of the Government arising from a loan granted after the execution of the mortgage under the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883, or the Agricultural Land Act, 1884 or under any other law for the time being in force.(2)Notwithstanding anything contained in the law for the time being in force, where a mortgage in favour of a land development bank is in respect of land in which a tenant purchaser or tenant has an interest, the mortgage may be against the security of such interest, and the rights of the mortgagee shall not be affected by the failure of the tenant purchaser or tenant to comply with the requirements of such law, and the sale of the land and his interest therein under such law shall be subject to the prior charge of the land development bank.

121. Mortgages executed in favour of land development bank to stand vested in State Land Development Bank.

- The mortgages executed in favour of, and all other transferred to a land development bank by the members thereof, with effect from the date of such execution or transfer, be deemed to have been transferred by such land development bank to the State Land Development Bank, and shall vest in the State Land Development Bank.

122. Registration of mortgage or lease in favour of land development banks.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in the Indian Registration Act, 1908 (16 of 1908) it shall not be necessary to register mortgages executed in favour of the land development banks; provided that the land development bank concerned sends within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed, a copy of the instrument whereby property is mortgaged or leased to the registration officer within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the whole or any part of the property mortgaged is situated and such registering officer shall file a copy or copies, as the case may be, in his books No. 1 prescribed under Section 51 of the Registration Act, 1908 (16 of 1908).

123. Mortgages not to be questioned on insolvency of mortgagors.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in any Insolvency Act or any corresponding law for the time being in force in Manipur, a mortgage, executed in favour of a land development bank, shall not be called in question in any insolvency proceedings on the ground that it was executed in order to give the bank a preference over the creditors of the mortgagor.

124. Right and land development bank to pay prior debts of mortgagor.

(1)Where a mortgage is executed in favour of a land development bank for payment of prior debts of the mortgagor, such bank shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882) by notice in writing, require any person to whom any such debt is due to receive payment of such debt or part thereof from the bank at its registered office, within such period as may be specified in the notice.(2)Where any such person fails to accept such notice or, to receive such payments, such debts or part thereof, as the case may be, shall cease to carry interest from the expiry of the period specified in the notice:Provided that where there is a dispute as regards the amount of any such debt, the person to whom such debt is due shall be bound to receive payment of the amount offered by the land development bank towards the debt, but such receipt shall not prejudice the right, if any, of such person to recover the balance claimed by him.

125. Mortgages executed by managers of joint Hindu families.

(1) Mortgages, in respect of loans by a land development bank, or the State Land Development Bank, by the manager of a Hindu joint family for the improvement of agricultural land or of the methods of cultivation, or for financing any other means to raise the productivity of the land, or for the purchase of land shall be binding on every member of such joint Hindu family, notwithstanding any law to the contrary. (2) In other cases, where a mortgage executed in favour of a land development bank or the State Land Development Bank, is called in question on the ground that it was executed by the manager of a Hindu joint family for a purpose not binding on the members (whether such members have attained majority or not) thereof, the burden of proving the same shall, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, lie on the party alleging it.

126. Section 8 of Act 32 of 1956 to apply to mortgages to land development banks subject to certain modifications.

- Section 8 of the Hindu Majority and Guardianship Act, 1956 (32 of 1956), shall apply to mortgages in favour of a land development bank subject to the modification that reference to the revenue officer or his nominee and the appeal against the order of the revenue officer or his nominee shall lie to the Deputy Commissioner.

127. Restriction on lease.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882), or any other law for the time being in force, no mortgagor of property mortgaged to a land development bank shall, except with the prior consent in writing of the bank and subject to such terms and conditions as the bank may impose, lease or create any tenancy rights on any such property: Provided that the rights of the land development bank shall be enforceable against the tenant purchaser, the lessee or the tenant, as the case may be, as if he himself were a mortgagor. (2) Where land, mortgaged with possession to a land development bank, is in actual possession of a tenant, the mortgagor or the land development bank shall give notice to the tenant to pay rent to the land development bank during the currency of the lease and the mortgage and on such notice being given, the tenant shall be deemed to have attorned to the co-operative land development bank.

128. Land Development Bank to receive money and give discharge.

- Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 121 all moneys due under the mortgage shall, unless otherwise directed by the State Land Development Bank or the trustee, and communicated to the mortgagor, be payable by the mortgagor to the land development bank, and such payments shall be valid as if the mortgage had not been so transferred and the land development bank shall in the absence of specific direction to the contrary issued by the State Land Development Bank or trustee and commencement to the Bank, be entitled to sue on the mortgage or take any other proceeding for the recovery of moneys due under the mortgage.

129. Powers of land development bank where mortgaged property is destroyed or security becomes insufficient.

- Where any property mortgaged to a land development bank is wholly or partially destroyed, or for any reason the security is rendered insufficient, and the mortgagor, having been given a reasonable opportunity by the bank to provide further security enough to render the whole security sufficient, or to repay such portion of the loan as may be determined by the bank, has failed to provide such security or to repay such portion of loan, the whole of the loan shall be deemed to fall due at once; and the bank shall be entitled to take action against the mortgagor under Section 132 or Section 133 for the recovery thereof. Explanation. - Security shall be deemed insufficient within the meaning of this section, unless the value of the mortgaged property (including improvement made thereon) exceeds the amount for the time being due on the mortgage by such proportion as may be specified in the rules, regulations or the bye-laws of the land development bank.

130. Right of land development bank to buy mortgaged property.

(1) Property purchased under Section 122 (3) by, and properly transferred under Section 100 to the land development banks may be disposed of by such banks by sale within such period as may be fixed by the Trustee, subject to the condition that such sale shall be in favour only of agriculturists eligible to hold land under the Manipur Land Revenue and Land Reforms Act, 1950 or any corresponding law for the time being in force, or may be leased out by them on such terms and conditions as may be laid down by the State Government from time to time. (2) Nothing contained in any law, for the time being in force fixing the maximum limit of agricultural holdings shall apply to the acquisition or holding of land by the land development banks under this section.

131. Recovery of loans by land development banks.

- All loans granted by the land development banks, all interests (if any) chargeable thereon, and costs (if any), incurred in making the same, shall, when they become due, be recoverable by the land development bank concerned.

132. Power of distraint.

(1) If any instalment payable under a mortgage executed in favour of a land development bank, or any part of such instalment, has remained unpaid for more than two months from the date on when it fell due, the Board of such bank, may, in addition to any other remedy available to the bank, apply to the Registrar or the Revenue Officer for the recovery of such instalments or "part thereof by distraint and sale of the produce of the mortgaged land, including the standing crops thereon. (2) On receipt of such application, the Registrar or the Revenue Officer, as the case may be, may, notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882), taken action in the manner prescribed for the purpose of distraining and selling such produce: Provided that no distraining shall be made after the expiry of three years from the date on which the instalment fell due. (3) The value of the property distrained shall, as nearly as possible be equal to the amount due to the expenses of the distraint and the cost of the sale.

133. Sale of mortgaged property.

(1)Notwithstanding anything contained in the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882); the land development bank or any person authorised by it in this behalf shall, in case of default of payment of the mortgage money or any part thereof, have power, in addition to any other remedy available to the bank, to bring the mortgaged property to sale by public auction in the village in which the mortgaged property is situate or at the nearest place of public resort, within the intervention of the court:Provided that no action shall be taken under this sub-section and no such power shall be exercised, unless and until-(a)the land development bank has been previously authorised to exercise the powers conferred under this sub-section after hearing the objections, if any, of the mortgagor or mortgagors;(b)notice in the writing requiring payment of such mortgage money or part thereof has been served upon-(i)the mortgagor or each of the mortgagors,(ii)any person who has any interest in, or charge upon, the property mortgaged, or in or upon the right to redeem the same so far as is known to the bank.(iii)any surety for the payment of the mortgaged debt or any part thereof, and(iv)any creditor of the mortgagor who has in a suit for administration of his estate obtained a decree for sale of the mortgaged property; and(c)default has been made in payment of such mortgage money or part thereof, for three months after service of the notice.(2)If the land development bank fails to take action against a defaulter under Section 129 or Section 132 or under this section, the State Land Development Bank may direct the land development bank to take appropriate action, and where no action is taken either by the State Land Development Bank or the land development bank the Trustee may take such action. If such action is taken by the Trustee, the provisions of this Chapter and of any rules prescribed shall apply in respect thereto, as if all references to the land development bank in the said provisions were references to the Trustee.(3)Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, it shall be lawful for the primary land development bank or the State Land Development Bank to purchase any mortgaged property sold under this Chapter.

134. Confirmation of sale.

(1)On effecting the sale by a land development bank under Section 133, the bank shall, in the prescribed manner, submit to the State Land Development Bank and the Registrar a report setting forth the manner in which the sale has been effected and the result of the sale, and the State Land Development Bank may, with the approval of the Registrar, confirm the sale or cancel it.(2)Where the sale is effected by the State Land Development Bank or the Trustee under Section 133, the State Land Development Bank or the Trustee, as the case may be, shall, in the prescribed manner, submit to the Registrar a report setting forth the manner in which the sale has been effected and the result of the sale, and the Registrar may confirm or cancel it.

135. Disposal of sale proceeds.

- The proceeds of every sale effected under Section 131 and confirmed under the preceding section shall be applied first in payment of all costs, charges and expenses incurred in connection with the sale or attempted sales; secondly in payment of any or all interest due on account of the mortgage in consequence whereof the mortgaged property was sold; and thirdly in payment of the principal due on account of the mortgage including costs and charges incidental to the recovery. If there remains any residue from the proceeds of sale, the same shall be paid to the person proving himself interested in the property sold, or if there are more such persons than one, then to such persons upon their joint receipt or according to their respective interest therein as may be determined by the land development bank: Provided that before any such payments are made, the unsecured dues owing-(a) from the mortgage to the land development bank may be adjusted, and (b) from any member or past member to whom the mortgagor is indebted may also be adjusted under the written authority given by such member and past member, and after holding such inquiry as may be deemed necessary.

136. Certificate to purchaser, delivery of property and title of purchaser.

(1) Where a sale of mortgaged property has become absolute under Section 134 and the sale proceeds have been received in full by the land development bank, the bank shall grant a certificate to the purchaser in the prescribed form certifying the property sold, the sale-price, the date of its sale, the name of the person who at the time of the sale is declared to be the purchaser, and the date on which the same became absolute; and upon the production of such certificate the Sub-Registrar appointed under the Registration Act, 1908 (16 of 1908), within the limits of whose jurisdiction the whole or any part of the property specified in the certificate is situated, shall enter the contents of such certificate in his register relating to immovable property. (2) (a) Where the mortgaged property sold is in the occupancy of the mortgagor or of some person on his behalf, or some person claiming under a title created by the mortgagor, subsequent to the mortgage in favour of the State Land Development Bank or a land development bank, and a certificate in respect thereof has been granted under the foregoing sub-section, the Revenue Officer shall, on the application of the purchaser, order delivery to be made by putting such purchaser or any person whom he may appoint to receive delivery on his behalf, in possession of the property. (b) Where the property sold is in the occupancy of a tenant or other person entitled to occupy the same, and a certificate in respect thereof has been granted under the foregoing sub-section, the Revenue Officer shall, on the application of the purchaser and after notice to such tenants or other persons, order the delivery to be made by affixing copy of the certificate of sale in a conspicuous place on the property and proclaiming to the occupant by beat of drum or other customary mode as some convenient place, that the right, title and interest of the mortgagor have been transferred to the purchaser. (3) Where any property is sold in the exercise or purported exercise of a power of sale under Section 133, the title of the purchaser shall not be questioned on the ground that the circumstances required for authorising the sale had not arisen, or due notice of the sale was not given or the power of sale was otherwise improperly or irregularly exercised: Provided that any person who suffers damage on account of unauthorised, improper or irregular exercise of such power shall have a remedy in damages against the land development bank.

137. Recovery of loans on certificate by Registrar.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 91 on an application made by a land development bank for the recovery of any arrears of any sum advanced by it to any of its members and on its furnishing a statement of accounts in respect of the arrears, the Registrar may, after making such inquiries as he deems fit, grant a certificate for the recovery of the amount stated therein to be due as arrears.(2)A certificate by the Registrar under sub-section (1) shall be final and conclusive as to arrears due. The arrears stated to be due therein shall be recoverable according to the law for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue.(3)It shall be competent for the Registrar or a person authorised by him to direct conditional attachment of the property of the mortgagor until the arrears due to the land development bank together with interest and any incidental charges incurred in recovery of such arrears, are paid or security for payment of such arrears is furnished to the satisfaction of the Registrar and the provisions of Section 95 shall apply mutatis mutandis to conditional attachment of any property made or to be made under this section.

138. Revenue Officer to make recoveries during a certain period.

- Any amount due to a land development bank (including cost of recovery thereof) shall, on an application by it in the behalf, be recoverable by the Revenue Officer or any officer specially authorised by the Revenue Officer in this behalf, in all or any of the following modes, namely:(a)from the borrower as if they were arrears of land revenue due by him;(b)out of the laird for the benefit of which the loan has been granted as if they were arrears of land revenue due in respect of that loan;(c)from a survey (if any) as if they were arrears of land revenue due by him;(d)out of the property comprised in the collateral security (if any) according to the procedure for the realisation of land revenue by the sale of immovable property other than the land on which the revenue is due.

139. Officers of bank and to bid at sales.

- At any sale of movable or immovable property held under the provisions of this Chapter no officer or employee of a land development bank or the State Land Development Bank, except on behalf of the bank of which he is an officer or an employee, and no person having any duty to perform in connection with such sale, shall either directly or indirectly bid for or acquire or attempt to acquire any interest in such property.

140. Any law not to apply to alienation in favour of Development Banks.

- Nothing contained in any law for the time being in force in any part of the State shall apply to any alienation in favour of the land development bank.

141. Provision for guarantee funds to meet certain losses.

(1)It shall be competent for the State Government to constitute one or more Guarantee Funds on such terms and conditions as it may deem fit, for the purpose of meeting losses that might arise as a result of loans being made by the land development banks on titles to immovable property subsequently found to be defective or for any other purpose under this Chapter, for which in the opinion of the State Government, it is necessary to provide for or create a separate Guarantee

Fund.(2)The State Land Development Bank and the land development banks shall contribute to such funds and at such rate as may be prescribed, and the contribution, maintenance and utilisation of such funds shall be governed by such rules as may be made by the State Government in this behalf.

142. Registrar's power to permit any co-operative bank to function as a land development bank.

- It shall be competent for the Registrar to permit any co-operative bank to function as a land development bank under such terms and conditions and for such period as he may deem fit.

143. Service of notice.

- The provisions of Sections 102 and 103 of the Transfer of Property Act, 1882 (4 of 1882), and of any rules made under Section 104 thereof, shall apply, so far as may be, in respect of all notices to be served under this Chapter.

144. Power of Board of State Land Development Bank to supervise land development banks and make regulations.

- The Board of the State Land Development Bank shall have a general power of supervision over land development banks and may, with the previous sanction of the State Government, make regulations not inconsistent with the Act or the rules made thereunder, for all or any of the following matters, namely,-(a)for the inspection of the account books and proceedings of the land development banks;(b)for the submission of returns and reports by such banks in respect of their transactions;(c)for the periodical settlement of accounts between such banks and the State Land Development Bank being accounts relating to the payment of the amounts recovered by such banks on mortgages transferred to the State Land Development Bank;(d)for the form in which application to such books for loans shall be made and for the valuation of properties offered as security for such loans;(e)for the investment of money realised from the mortgagors;(f)the conditions of service of employees of such banks;(g)the programme and policy to be followed by such banks for making loans;(h)the types and extent of security to be obtained by such banks for advancing loans;(i)generally, for the purpose of safeguarding the interest of the parties, in furtherance of activities of such banks, and carrying out the purposes of this Chapter.

Section 146 and of the Registrar in the case of other offences under this Act.

Chapter XIII

Appeal, Review and Revision

149. Manipur Co-operative Tribunal.

(1)The State Government shall constitute a Tribunal called the Manipur State Co-operative Tribunal, to exercise the functions conferred on the Tribunal by or under this Act.(2)The Presiding Officer, Revenue Tribunal appointed by the State Government as such shall be deemed to be the Manipur State Co-operative Tribunal for the purposes of this Act.(3)The Tribunal may call for and examine the record of any proceeding in which an appeal lies to it, for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any decision or order passed. If in any case, it appears to the Tribunal that any such decision or order should be modified, annulled or reversed, the Tribunal may pass such order thereon as it may deem just.(4)Where an appeal or application is made to the Tribunal under this Act, it may, in order to present the ends of justice from being defeated, make such interlocutory orders pending the decision of the appeal or application, as the case may be, as may appear to it to be just and convenient, or such orders as may be necessary for the ends of justice, or to prevent the abuse of the process of the Tribunal.(5)An order passed in appeal, or in revision under sub-section (3), or in review under Section 150 by the Tribunal, shall be final and conclusive and shall not be called in question in any civil or revenue court.Explanation. - The Tribunal hearing an appeal under this Act shall exercise all the powers conferred upon an appellate court by Section 97 and Order XLII in the First Schedule of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908).

150. Review of orders of Tribunal.

(1)The Tribunal may, either on the application of the Registrar, or on the application of any party interested, review its own order in any case, and pass in reference thereto such order as it thinks just:Provided that no such application made by the party interested shall be entertained, unless the Tribunal is satisfied that there has been the discovery of new and important matter of evidence, which after the exercise of due diligence was not within the knowledge of the applicant or could not be produced by him at the time when its order was made, or that there has been some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record, or for any other sufficient reason:Provided further that no such order shall be varied or revised, unless notice has been given to the parties interested to appear and be heard in support of such order.(2)An application for review under the foregoing sub-section by any party, shall be made within ninety days from the date of the communication of the order of the Tribunal.

151. Tribunal to have power of civil court.

(1)In exercising, the functions conferred on it by or under this Act, the Tribunal shall have the same powers as are vested in a civil court in respect of-(a)proof of facts by affidavit,(b)summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath.(c)compelling discovery or the production of documents, and (d) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses. (2) In the case of any such affidavit, any officer appointed by the Tribunal in this behalf may administer the oath to the deponent.

152. Appeals.

(1) An appeal against an order or decision under Sections 4, 9, 11, 12, 13, 14, 17, 18, 21, 29, 35, 78 and 105 shall lie, - (a) if made or sanctioned or approved by the Registrar or the Additional or Joint Registrar/Deputy Registrar on whom powers of the Registrar are conferred to the State Government; (b) if made or sanctioned by any person other than the Registrar, or the Additional or Joint Registrar/Deputy Registrar on whom the powers of the Registrar are conferred to the Registrar. (2) An appeal against an order or decision under Sections 79, 85 and 88 and any order passed by the Registrar for paying compensation to a society, and any other order for which an appeal to the Tribunal has been provided under this Act, shall lie to the Tribunal. (3) An appeal under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be filed within two months of the date of the communication of the order or decision. (4) Save as provided in this Act no appeal shall lie against any order, decision or award passed in accordance with this Act; and every such order, decision or award shall be final and where any appeal has been provided for, any order passed on appeal shall be final and no further appeal shall lie against it.

153. Extension of period of limitation by appellate authority in certain cases.

- In all cases in which it is provided under this Act that an appeal may be filed against any decision or order within a specified period, the appellate authority may admit an appeal after the expiry of such period, if the appellant satisfies the appellate authority that he had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within such period.

154. Power of State Government and Registrar and Registrar to call for proceedings of subordinate officers and to pass orders thereon.

(1) The Registrar may, of his own motion or on application, call for and examine the records of any officer subordinate to him not being Additional Registrar or Joint Registrar, and the State Government may, of its own motion or on application, call for and examine the records of the Registrar, Additional Registrar or Joint Registrar, in respect of any proceedings not being a proceeding in respect of which an appeal lies to the Tribunal, to satisfy himself or itself as to the regularity of such proceedings or legality or propriety of any decision or order made therein; and if, in any case, it appears to the Registrar or the State Government that any such decision or order should be modified, annulled or remitted for reconsideration, he or it may order accordingly. (2) No order prejudicial to any person shall be passed under sub-section (1) unless such person has been given an opportunity of making his representation. (3) The Registrar or the State Government, as the case may be, may suspend the execution of the decision or order pending the exercise of his or its power under sub-section (1). (4) The Registrar or the State Government, may award cost in proceedings under this section to be paid out of the funds of the society or by such other party as the Registrar or the State Government may deem fit.

Chapter XIV

Miscellaneous

155. Recovery of sums due to Government.

(1) Unless otherwise provided by this Act, all sums due from a society or from an other or member or past member or a deceased member of a society as such to the Government, may be recovered according to the law and order and under the rules for the time being in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue. (2) Sums due from a society to the Government and recoverable under the foregoing sub-section may be recovered; firstly from the property of the society; secondly in the case of a society of which the liability of the members is limited, from the members or past members or the estate of deceased members subject to the limit of their liability; and thirdly, in the case of societies with unlimited liability from the members or past members or estate of the deceased members. (3) The liability of past members or the estate of deceased members shall, in all cases, be subject to the provisions of Section 33.

156. Registrar's powers to recover certain sums by attachment and sale of property.

(1) The Registrar or any other officer subordinate to him and empowered by him in this behalf may, subject to such rules as may be made by the State Government, but without prejudice to any other mode of recovery provided by or under this Act, recover, - (a) any amount due under a decree or order of a Civil Court obtained by a society; (b) any amount due under a decision, award or order of the Registrar, arbitrator or Liquidator or Tribunal; (c) any sum awarded by way of costs under this Act; (d) any sum ordered to be paid under this Act as a contribution to the assets of the society; (e) any amount due under a certificate granted by the Registrar under sub-section (1) or (2) of Section 101 or under sub-section (1) of Section 137, together with interest, if any, due on such amount or sum and the costs of process by the attachment and sale or by sale without attachment of the property of the person or a society against whom such decree, decision, award or order has been obtained or passed. (2) The Registrar or the officer empowered by him shall be deemed, when exercising the power under the foregoing sub-section, or when passing any orders on any application made to him for such recovery, to be a Civil Court for the purposes of Art. 182 in the First Schedule to the Indian Limitation Act, 1908.

157. Power to exempt societies from provisions of the Act.

- The State Government may, by general or special order to be published in the official Gazette, exempt any society or class of societies from any of the provisions of this Act, or may direct that such provisions shall apply to such society or class of societies with such modifications not affecting the substance thereof as may be specified in the order: Provided that no order to the prejudice of any society shall be passed without an opportunity being given to such society to represent its case.

158. Branches etc. of societies outside the State.

(1) No society shall open a branch or a place of business outside the State of Manipur and no co-operative society registered under any law in any other State shall open a branch or a place of business in the State of Manipur without the permission of the Registrar. (2) Every co-operative society registered under any law in any other State and permitted to open a branch or place of business in the Manipur State under the foregoing sub-section, or which has a branch or a place of business in the Manipur State at the commencement of this Act, shall, within three months from the opening of such branch or place of business or from the commencement of this Act, as the case may be, file with the Registrar a certified copy of the bye-laws and amendments and if these are not written in English language, a certified translation thereof in English or Hindi, and shall submit to the Registrar such returns and information as are submitted by similar societies registered under this Act in addition to those which may be submitted to the Registrar of the State where such society is registered.

159. Handing over records and property to new Chairman on election.

(1) On the election of a new Board and its Chairman the retiring Chairman, in whose place the new Chairman is elected shall hand over charge of the office of the Board and all papers and property, if any, of the society in possession of the Board or any officers thereof, to the new Chairman of the Board. (2) If the retiring Chairman fails to or refuses to hand over charge, or to hand over the papers and property of the society as aforesaid, the Registrar, or any person empowered by him in this behalf may, by order in writing, direct him to forthwith hand over such charge and property. (3) If the retiring Chairman, to whom a direction has been issued as aforesaid, does not comply with such direction, he shall on conviction be punished with simple imprisonment which may extend to one month, or with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, or with both, and the Registrar may, on the retiring Chairman's failure to comply with such direction, take order for seizing the records and property and to hand over to the new Chairman, in the manner provided in Section 80.

160. Registrar and other officers to be public servants.

- The Registrar, a person exercising the powers of the Registrar, a person authorised to audit the accounts of a society under Section 81, or to hold an inquiry under Section 83, or to make an inspection under Section 84 and a person appointed as an administrator under Section 78, or as a nominee or board of nominees under Section 93, or as a Liquidator under Section 103 shall be deemed to be public servants within the meaning of Section 21 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (Act XLV of 1860).

161. Indemnity for acts done in good faith.

- No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Registrar or any person subordinate to him or acting on his authority, in respect of anything in good faith done or purported to have done by him by or under this Act.

162. Bar of jurisdiction of Courts.

(1) Save as expressly provided in this Act, no Civil or Revenue Court, shall have any jurisdiction in respect of—(a) the registered of a society or its bye-laws or the amendment of its bye-laws, or the dissolution of the Board of a society or the management of the society or dissolution thereof; or (b) any dispute required to be referred to the Registrar or his nominee, or board of nominee, for decision; or (c) any matter concerned with the winding up or dissolution of a society. (2) While a society is being wound up, no suit or other legal proceeding relating to the business of such society shall be proceeded with or instituted against the society or any member thereof, or any matter touching the affairs of the society, except by leave of the Registrar, and subject to such terms as he may impose. (3) All orders, decisions or awards passed in accordance with this Act or the rules shall, subject to the provisions for appeal or revision in this Act, be final; and no such order, decision or award shall be liable to be challenged, set aside, modified, revised or declared void in any Court upon the merits or upon any other ground whatsoever except for want of jurisdiction.

163. Notice necessary in suits.

- No suit shall be instituted against a society or any of its officers in respect of any act touching the business of the society, until the expiration of two months next after notice in writing has been delivered to the Registrar or left at his office, stating the cause of action, the name, description and place of residence of the plaintiff and the relief which he claims and the plaint shall contain a statement that such notice has been so delivered or left.
