26. Assessment of unregistered person liable to tax.

- The Assessing Authority, upon information which has come to his possession, is satisfied that any person who is liable to pay tax under this Act in respect of any period has failed to get himself registered, he shall, before expiry of three years following the end of the relevant financial year, proceed to assess the person to the best of his judgement as to the amount of tax due from such person in respect of such period and all subsequent periods and shall direct him further to pay, by way of penalty, a sum equal to the amount of tax found due as a result of such assessment :Provided that no such assessment shall be made without giving the dealer a reasonable opportunity of being heard.Explanation. - For the purposes of this Section, a dealer shall be deemed to have failed to apply for registration, if he makes an incomplete application for registration or having made an application for registration, fails to comply with any direction given to him by the Assessing

Authority within the time specified by it.

27. Special Provisions relating to Casual Dealer.

- Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Section 15 or Section 25: (1) A casual dealer shall, at least seven days before commencing business in the State, submit to the Assessing Authority an application for registration and such particulars of his business in such form and manner as may be prescribed. (2) Such casual dealer shall deposit within seven days but before commencement of business, the Assessing Authority, which shall not exceed the estimated liability to pay tax for one month or such lesser period for which the casual dealer is conducting business, may fix security in cash as. (3) The Assessing Authority shall, after such enquiry as he considers necessary and after the dealer has furnished the demanded security, allow the application and cause the dealer to be registered and issue a Certificate of Registration in the prescribed form. (4) The Assessing Authority shall, after the dealer is registered, issue him forms as he may deem fit, for bringing goods for sale in the State. The dealer shall render complete account of forms received and used and surrender the unused forms in such manner as may be prescribed. (5) Such casual dealer shall submit such returns of his turnover at such intervals, within such period and in such form and manner as may be prescribed. (6) Such casual dealer when ceases to carry on business shall file a final tax return within seven days of the conclusion of his business, but before leaving the place, in the form and manner as may be prescribed. (7) The Assessing Authority shall, after examining the returns, books, accounts and after such enquiries as he considers necessary, assess him to tax as soon as possible after the receipt of final tax return from the casual dealer; Provided that where the period of business of such casual dealer spreads over more than one financial year, the assessment order shall be made separately for the periods falling in separate financial years. (8) The Assessing Authority after adjusting any tax due from such casual dealer, refund the balance amount of security to him. (9) Such casual dealer shall be liable to tax if his turnover for this period exceeds the proportionate amount of taxable quantum as per clause (a) of sub-section (7) of Section 3 and provisions of clause (b) thereof shall also be applicable. (10) Where the period of business of such casual dealer during a financial year exceeds 60 days and he ceases to be a casual dealer, he shall apply for registration as a regular dealer under Section 15 and shall be assessed to tax as a regular dealer for the whole year as per the provisions of Section 25 or Section 26; Provided that the taxable quantum as per sub-section (9) above shall be calculated for total of the broken periods: Provided further that the turnover and the tax assessed under this Section for various periods in a financial year shall be merged in the final assessment and any tax paid as a casual dealer shall be adjusted against the tax payable on final assessment under Sections referred to above.

28. Assessment in case of special circumstances.

(1) Assessment in case of Price Variation-Where a dealer receives in any year any amount due to price variation which would have been in his turnover for any previous tax period if it had been received by him during that period, it shall be deemed to be turnover during the tax period in which such amount was received and he shall, during the tax period in which such amount was received, include such amount in the return separately for the tax period, to the Assessing Authority and the Assessing Authority shall assess the tax payable on such amount as his turnover for the tax period in which such amount is received: Provided that the tax shall be charged at the rate at which it would have been charged had such turnover been assessed for the assessment year to which such turnover belongs. (2) Protective Assessment-Where the Assessing Authority has reason to believe that any person, with a view to evade the payment of tax or in order to claim any input tax credit which he otherwise is not eligible for, or was carrying on business in the name of, or in association with any other person either directly or indirectly, whether as an agent, employee, manager, partner or power of attorney holder, guarantor, relative or sister concern or in any other capacity, such person and the person in whose name the registration certificate, if any, is taken, shall jointly and severally be liable for payment of the tax, interest or penalty or other amount due under this Act which shall be assessed, levied and recovered from all or any such person as if such person or persons are dealer under the Act. However before taking action under this Section the person concerned shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

29. Assessment of Escaped Turnover.

(1) Where after a dealer is assessed under Section 25 or Section 26 for any year or part thereof, the Assessing Authority has reason to believe that the whole or any part of turnover of the dealer in respect of any tax period has-(a) escaped assessment; or (b) been under assessed; or (c) been assessed at a rate lower than the rate at which it is assessable; or (d) been wrongly allowed any exemption or deduction therefrom; or (e) been wrongly allowed any tax credit therein, the Assessing Authority shall, after recording the reasons in writing, serve a notice on the dealer and after giving the dealer a reasonable opportunity of being heard and making such enquiries as he considers necessary, he shall assess or reassess the turnover of the dealer and tax according to law and the provisions of this Act shall as far as may be, apply accordingly: Provided that the tax shall be charged at the rate at which it would have been charged had the turnover not escaped assessment or full assessment as the case may be. Explanation (1). - Nothing in this sub-section shall be deemed to prevent the Assessing Authority from making an assessment to the best of its judgement. Explanation (2). - For the purposes of this Section and of Section 30, "Assessing Authority" means the officer who passed the earlier assessment order, if any, and includes the officer having jurisdiction for the time being to assess the dealer. Explanation (3). - Notwithstanding the issuance of notice under this sub-Section, where an order of assessment or reassessment is in existence from before the issuance of such notice it shall continue to be effective as such, until varied by an order of assessment or reassessment made under this Section in pursuance of such notice. (2) Except as otherwise provided in Section 28 or under this Section, no order of assessment or reassessment shall be made under sub-section (1) after the expiry of three years from the end of the year in respect of which or part of which the tax is assessable. (3) Assessment or reassessment in respect of turnover escaped from assessment may be passed at any time within three years and nine months ending on 31st December after the expiry of assessment year for which assessment is to be made, provided that notice under this Section has been served within a period of three years and six months ending on 30th September after the expiry of the assessment year for which assessment is to be made. (4) If the commissioner on his own or on the basis of reasons recorded by the Assessing Authority is satisfied that it is just and expedient so to do, he may authorise the Assessing Authority in that behalf, and then such assessment or reassessment may be made after the expiration of the period aforesaid but not after the expiration of six years from the end of such assessment year, notwithstanding that such assessment or reassessment may involve a change of opinion.

30. Rectification of Mistakes.

(1) Any officer or authority, or the Tribunal or the High Court may, on its own motion or on the application of the dealer or any other interested person, rectify any mistake in any order passed by him or it under this Act apparent on the face of the record, within three years from the date of the order sought to be rectified: Provided that where an application under this sub-section has been made within such period of three years, it may be disposed of even beyond such period; Provided further that no such rectification as has the effect of enhancing the assessment, penalty, fee or other dues shall be made unless a reasonable opportunity of being heard has been given to the dealer or other person likely to be affected by such enhancement. (2) Where such rectification has the effect of enhancing the assessment, the Assessing Authority concerned shall serve on the dealer a revised notice of demand in the prescribed form and therefrom all the provisions of the Act and the Rules framed thereunder shall apply as if such notice had been served in the first instance.

31. Power to set aside an Order of Assessment.

- [(1) In any case in which an order of assessment or reassessment or order of penalty is passed ex-parte, the dealer may apply to the Assessing Authority within thirty days of the service of the order to set aside such order and reopen the case; and if such officer is satisfied that the applicant did not receive notice or was prevented by sufficient cause from appearing on the date fixed, he may set aside the order and reopen the case for hearing: Provided that no such application for setting aside such ex-parte order shall be entertained unless the dealer has submitted all periodical returns and Annual Return completely and correctly and it is accompanied by satisfactory proof of the payment of the amount of tax admitted by the dealer to be due.] [Substituted vide Notification No. 22/XXXVI(3)/2010/76(1)/2009, dated 07-01-2010.] (2) Where an assessment order under Section 24 is passed ex-parte, the dealer may apply to the Assessing Authority within 30 days of the service of the order, to set aside such order and if such authority is satisfied that the dealer has filed the return and deposited the tax due according to the return within 30 days from the last day prescribed for filing such return, it may modify or set aside such order and also the demand notice, if any, issued thereunder. (3) If a dealer is granted an eligibility certificate under Section 4A of the Uttaranchal (the Uttar Pradesh Trade Tax Act, 1948) Adaptation and Modification Order, 2002 for the period for which an order of assessment or reassessment or an order in appeal has been passed prior to the grant of eligibility certificate, such order may be set aside either on its own or on the application of the dealer, by Assessing or Appellate Authority having jurisdiction within one year of receipt by him of the copy of the order granting such eligibility certificate and a fresh order may be passed according to law: Provided that where the application under this Section has been made by the dealer within the period aforesaid, it may be disposed of even beyond such period.

32. Period of Limitation for making Assessment or Reassessment.

(1) No order of assessment under Section 24 for any tax period of an assessment year shall be made after the dealer has submitted annual return for such assessment year and where annual return has not been submitted by the dealer, assessment shall not be made after the expiry of the period prescribed or time allowed, if extended, for submission of annual return for such period.(2)Except as otherwise provided in Section 28 no order of assessment or reassessment under any provisions of this Act for any assessment year shall be made after expiration of 3 years from the end of such assessment year.(3)Assessment or reassessment order under the provisions of Section 29 may be made within the time prescribed therein.(4)If an order of assessment is set aside and the case is remanded for reassessment by any authority under the provisions of this Act or by a competent Court, the order of reassessment may be made within one year from the date of receipt by the Assessing Authority of the copy of the order remanding the case.(5)If an order of assessment is quashed on the ground of want of jurisdiction of the Assessing Authority or due to improper service of any notice or due to service of improper notice or any other like ground, by any competent authority or Court, fresh order of assessment may be made by the Assessing Authority having jurisdiction within one year from the date of receipt by the Assessing Authority whose order is so quashed, of the copy of the order of such authority or Court:Provided that where any assessment or reassessment order made earlier has been quashed for want of proper service of notice or for want of jurisdiction or for want of service of proper notice, fresh order of assessment or reassessment may be made by the Assessing Authority after serving notice properly and after affording reasonable opportunity of being heard to dealer within the time prescribed.(6)If an order of assessment or reassessment for any assessment year is set aside under Section 31, a fresh order of assessment or reassessment for that year may be made within one year from the date on which such earlier order was set aside.(7)Where the proceedings for assessment or reassessment for any assessment year remain stayed under the orders of any Court or authority, the period commencing from the date of stay order and ending with the date of receipt by the Assessing Authority concerned of the order vacating the stay, shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation provided in this Section:Provided that if in so computing, the period of limitation comes to less than one year, such assessment or reassessment may be made within one year from the date of receipt by the Assessing Authority of the order vacating the stay.(8)The period during which any appeal or other proceedings in respect of any other assessment or reassessment or any other matter of assessee remain pending before the High Court or the Supreme Court, involving a question of law having direct bearing on the assessment or reassessment in question, shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation provided in this Section.(9)Where in the assessment or reassessment of a dealer for any assessment year, any Assessing Authority, -(a)has included any turnover and any superior authority or Court has, in exercise of the powers lawfully vested in it, held such turnover to relate to the assessment -(i)of such dealer for any other assessment year, or(ii)of such dealer under the Central Sales Tax Act,1956, or(iii)of any other dealer, whether under this Act, or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956; or(b)has not included any turnover on the ground that it relates to assessment under the Central Sales Tax Act,1956, and any superior authority or Court has, in exercise of the powers lawfully vested in it, held such turnover to relate to the assessment of the dealer under this Act, whether for such assessment year, or any other assessment year, then nothing contained in this Section limiting the time shall apply to assessment or reassessment whether under this Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act,1956, of such dealer or such other dealer relating to such assessment year or such other assessment year, as the case may be.(10)Where the eligibility certificate granted under Section 4-A of Uttaranchal (the Uttar Pradesh Trade Tax Act, 1948) Adaptation and Modification order, 2002 has been amended or cancelled by the Commissioner under sub-section (13) of Section

76 of this Act, the order of assessment or reassessment for the relevant year may be made within one year from the date of receipt by the Assessing Authority of the copy of the order amending or cancelling the aforesaid certificate.(11)Where any order passed by the Assessing Authority in respect of a dealer for any period is found to be erroneous or prejudicial to the interest of revenue consequent to, or in the light of any judgement or order of any Court or Tribunal which has become final, then notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Assessing Authority may, with the permission of the Commissioner or any officer authorised by him for this purpose, proceed to reassess the tax payable by the dealer in accordance with the judgement or order, at any time within a period of three years from the date of the judgement or order.(12)Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section, where the State Government is of the opinion that due to any extra-ordinary circumstances prevalent at the time in the State or any part of it, it will be difficult to complete assessment or reassessment in any case or class of cases within the time prescribed under this Section, it may, by notification in the Gazette extend the time limit prescribed under this Section for making assessment or reassessment in such a case or class of cases.(13)Where any dealer claims refund of any amount deposited by him as tax or any amount recovered from him as tax or any amount deducted from him as tax under provisions of sub-section (1) of Section 35 and where no assessment has been made within the time prescribed under this Section, notwithstanding anything contained in this Section, the Assessing Authority may, with the prior permission of the Commissioner in writing, make an assessment of the turnover and tax even beyond the time prescribed under this Section for such assessment year towards tax liability in respect of the turnover against which such amount has been deposited or deducted or recovered.

33. Rounding off of Turnover and Tax etc.

(1)The amount of turnover, determined in prescribed manner shall, if such amount is not in the multiple of ten, be rounded off to the nearest multiple of ten rupees, that is to say, a part of ten rupees which is less than five rupees shall be ignored and any other part shall be counted as ten rupees. The amount so rounded off shall be deemed to be the turnover of the assessee for the purpose of assessment of tax under this Act.(2)The amount of tax, fee, interest, penalty or any other sum payable or the amount of refund due under the provisions of this Act shall, where such amount contains part of a rupee be rounded off to the nearest rupee, that is to say a part of rupee which is less than 50 paise shall be ignored and any other part shall be counted as one rupee.

34. Payment and Recovery of tax.

(1)Amount of tax admittedly payable shall be deposited in the prescribed manner alongwith the return of the respective tax period. Amount assessed as tax shall be deposited in the manner specified in and [within 60 days] [Substituted for 'within 30 days' vide Notification No. 1314/XXXVI(4)/2008, dated 31-3-2008.] of the service of order of assessment and notice of demand. Amount imposed by way of penalty shall be deposited in the prescribed manner and [within 60 days] [Substituted for 'within 30 days' vide Notification No. 1314/XXXVI(4)/2008, dated 31-3-2008.] of service of the order imposing such amount by way of penalty. Any other amount [including late fee, if any] [Words inserted vide notification No. 331/XXXVI(3)/2010/52(1)/2010,dated 06-10-2010.] except the amount of tax admittedly payable or assessed and penalty imposed, that may be determined as payable under any provisions of this Act, shall be paid in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time: Provided that where no such time has been prescribed, the period to deposit the due amount shall be deemed to be [60 days] [Substituted for '30 days' vide Notification No. 1314/XXXVI(4)/2008, date 31-3-08.] of the service of the order by which such amount has been determined. (2) [A registered dealer furnishing return under Section 23 shall pay into the Government treasury, in such manner and at such interval as may be prescribed, the amount of tax due from him for the period covered under the return along with the amount of penalty or interest or late fee, if any, or all the three payable by him under Section 23 or late fee, if any, payable by him under Section 25 and shall furnish a receipt from the Treasury or proof of e-payment showing the payment of such amount.] [Substituted vide Notification No. 331/XXXVI(3)/2010/52(1)/2010, dated 06-10-2010.] (3) A registered dealer furnishing a revised return in accordance with subsection (9) or sub-section (10) of Section 23 which shows that a greater amount of tax is due than was paid or payable in accordance with the original return, shall furnish along with the return a receipt showing the payment of the differential amount in the manner provided in sub-section (2). (4) The tax admittedly payable shall be deposited within the time prescribed failing which simple interest at the rate of fifteen percent per annum shall become due and be payable on the unpaid amount with effect from the date immediately following the last date prescribed till the date of payment of such amount. Explanation (1). - For the purpose of this sub-Section, the tax admittedly payable means the tax which is payable under this Act on the turnover of sales, or as the case may be, the turnover of purchases or of both, as disclosed in the accounts maintained by the dealer or admitted by him in any return or proceeding under this Act, whichever is greater. Explanation (2). - "Month" shall mean thirty days and the interest payable in respect of period of less than one month shall be computed proportionately. (5) The amount of tax assessed under this Act in excess of amount of tax already deposited along with the interest payable according to the provisions of this Act shall be deposited in the manner specified in and within 30 days of service of order of assessment and notice of demand. (6) If the tax (other than the tax admittedly payable to which sub-section (2) applies) assessed, reassessed or enhanced by any authority or Court remains unpaid for three months after expiration of the period specified in the order of assessment and demand notice, a simple interest at the rate of nine percent per annum on unpaid amount calculated from the date of such expiration shall become due and be payable: Provided that the amount of interest under this sub-section shall be recalculated if the amount of tax is varied on appeal or revision or by any order of a competent Court. (7) The amount of interest payable under sub-sections (2), (3), (4) and (5) shall, without prejudice to any other liability or penalty that the dealer may incur under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force, be added to the amount of the tax and shall also be deemed for all purposes to be part of the tax. (8) Where an order of assessment or reassessment referred to in sub-section (4) of Section 32 or an order of assessment or reassessment referred to in sub-section (6) of Section 32 has been made and tax payable is enhanced the dealer shall be liable to pay interest on such enhanced tax as if it was enhanced in the order of assessment made for the first time and for this purpose the date of service of the order of assessment and demand notice shall be deemed to be amended accordingly. (9) Where realisation of any tax remained stayed by order of any Court or authority and such order of stay is subsequently vacated, the interest referred to in sub-section (6) shall be payable also for any period during which such order remained in operation. (10) Any tax or other dues [including late fee if any] [Words inserted vide notification No. 331/XXXVI(3)/2010/52(1)/2010, dated 06-10-2010.] payable to the State Government under this Act, any amount of money which a person is required to pay to the Assessing Authority under sub-section (14) for which he is personally liable to the Assessing Authority under sub-section (17) shall, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force and subject to any special or general order of the State Government be recoverable as arrears of Land Revenue, or in the prescribed manner by the Assessing Authority or any other officer authorised by the State Government in that behalf and such authority or officer shall, for the purposes of such recovery-(a)have all the powers which a Civil Court has under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the purpose of recovery of an amount due under a decree;(b)have the power to require the Assessing Authority or such authorised officer having jurisdiction in any other area to make such recovery if the defaulter is or has property within the area of such other Assessing Authority or officer and there upon such other Assessing Authority or officer shall proceed to make recovery in the prescribed manner.(11)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-Sections (4) and (5) and notwithstanding any judgement, decree or order of any Court, Tribunal or other authority, where any notice of assessment and demand in respect of any tax or other dues under this Act, is served upon the dealer by an Assessing Authority and an appeal, revision or other proceeding is filed in respect of such tax or dues then -(a)where as a result of such appeal, revision or other proceeding the amount of such tax or other dues is enhanced , the Assessing Authority shall serve upon the dealer a fresh notice in respect of the amount by which such tax or other dues are enhanced, and any proceeding in relation to the amount specified in the notice already served upon him before the disposal of such appeal, revision or other proceeding may be continued from the stage at which it stood immediately before such disposal ;(b)where as a result of such appeal, revision or other proceeding the amount of such tax or other dues is reduced-(i)it shall not be necessary to serve upon the dealer a fresh notice but only the reduced amount shall be realised;(ii)if any recovery proceedings are pending before any officer or authority other than the Assessing Authority, the Assessing Authority shall intimate such reduction to such officer or authority;(iii)any proceeding initiated on the basis of notice or notices served upon the dealer before the disposal of such appeal, revision or other proceeding, including any recovery proceeding may be continued in relation to amount so reduced from the stage at which it stood immediately before such disposal;(c)no fresh notice shall be necessary in any case where amount of the tax or other dues is not enhanced (with reference to the amount assessed by the Assessing Authority) as a result of such appeal, revision or other proceedings.(12)In respect of any sum recoverable under this Act as arrears of Land Revenue, the Assessing Authority may, after 90 days of the service of the order of assessment and notice of demand, forward to the Collector a certificate for recovery under his signature specifying the sum due. Such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the existence of the liability of this amount on the person who is liable and the Collector on receipt of the certificate shall proceed to recover from such person the amount specified therein as if it were an arrear of land revenue:Provided that no such certificate for recovery shall be issued before giving a notice to the person/dealer to this effect;Provided further that without prejudice to the powers conferred by this Section the Collector shall, for the purpose of recovering the amount specified in the certificate shall have also all the powers which-(a)a Collector has under the Revenue Recovery Act, 1890; and(b)a Civil Court has under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 for the purpose of recovery of an amount due under a decree.Explanation. - The expression Collector includes an Additional Collector or any other officer authorised to exercise the powers of Collector under the law relating to land revenue for the time being in force in the State.(13)Where any amount of tax or penalty is recoverable under this Act from the owner of a vehicle and recovery certificate has been issued, the officer competent to execute the recovery certificate may take the assistance of police and other officer or officials of the State Government in locating such vehicle or other vehicles of the same owner. If so required by the recovery officer such other officer or officials shall be empowered to detain such vehicle. Whenever any such vehicle is detained by any officer or official he shall give the cause of detention in writing to the person in charge of the vehicle at the time of detention and shall immediately inform the officer executing the recovery certificate. Officer executing the recovery certificate shall proceed with according to law to realise arrears against such owner of vehicle: Provided that if amount recoverable is paid after detention of vehicle, the vehicle shall be set free; Provided further that if at the time of detention some goods are loaded on it and owner of such goods is a person other than the owner of the vehicle, the owner or the person in charge of the goods shall be allowed to remove such goods from such vehicle if he so desires. (14) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law or contract to the contrary, the Assessing Authority may, at any time or from time to time, by notice in writing the copy of which shall be forwarded to the dealer at his last address known to the Assessing Authority, require- (a) any person from whom any amount is due or may become due to the dealer, or (b) any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of the dealer, to pay to the Assessing Authority- (a) forthwith upon the money becoming due or being held, or (b) at or within the time specified in the notice not being before the money becomes due or is held, so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due from the dealer in respect of arrears of tax or other dues under this Act, or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount. Explanation. - For the purpose of this sub-Section, the amount due to a dealer or money held for or on account of a dealer by any person shall be computed after taking into account such claim if any, as may have fallen due for payment by such dealer to such person and as may be legally subsisting. (15) The Assessing Authority may at any time or from time to time amend or revoke such notice. (16) Any person making any payment in compliance with notice under subsection (14) shall be deemed to have made the payment under the authority of the dealer and the receipt of the Assessing Officer shall constitute a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of such person to the dealer to the extent the amount referred to in the receipt. (17) Any person discharging any liability to the dealer after the receipt of notice referred to in sub-section (14) shall be personally liable to the Assessing Authority to the extent of the liability discharged or to the extent of the amount mentioned in such notice, whichever is less. (18) Where a person, to whom a notice under sub-section (14) is sent, proves to the satisfaction of the Assessing Authority that sum demanded or any part of thereof is not due by him to the dealer, or that he does not hold any money for or on account of the dealer, then nothing contained in this Section shall be deemed to require such person to pay the sum demanded or any part thereof, as the case may be, to the Assessing Authority. (19) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any law for the time being in force, any tax payable under the provisions of this Act together with interest or penalty, shall be due for payment immediately when it becomes payable or assessed in the manner provided in this Act or the rules made thereunder and any such amount payable by a dealer on account of tax, penalty or interest or any amount which a person is required to pay under this Act shall be a first charge on the property of the dealer or such person. (20) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, no tax, fee, interest or penalty under this Act shall be recovered and no refund shall be allowed if the amount involved for any assessment year is less than 10 rupees. (21) The Assessing Authority shall have the powers to- (a) withhold issuing of any Form or Certificate under the Act to a person, or a dealer or a casual dealer, (b) order seizure of goods being transported by a person, or a dealer or a casual dealer, from whom any tax, penalty, interest or any other amount under the provision of the Act is due.

35. Recovery of Tax by way of Tax Deduction at Source.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) of Section 22, every person responsible for making payment to any dealer (hereinafter in this Section referred to as the contractor) for discharge of any liability on account of valuable consideration payable for the transfer of property in goods (whether as goods or in any other form) in pursuance of a works contract, not being a building contract of such class or value as may be notified by the State Government in public interest in this behalf, shall, at the time of making such payment to the contractor, either in cash or in any other manner, deduct ["an amount equal to six percent"] [Substituted the words 'an amount equal to four percent' vide The Uttaranchal Value Added Tax Act, 2005 (Amendment) Act, 2012.] of such sum towards part or, as the case may be, full satisfaction of the tax payable under this Act on account of such works contract: Provided that the Assessing Authority may, if satisfied that it is expedient in the public interest so to do and for reasons to be recorded in writing, order that in any case or class of cases no such deduction shall be made or, as the case may be, such deduction shall be made at a lesser rate: Provided further that where any deduction has been made by a contractor from the payment made to his sub-contractor in accordance with sub-section (3), the amount of such payment shall be deducted from the amount on which deduction is to be made under this sub-Section. (2) Where under an agreement of transfer of right to use any goods for any purpose (whether or not for a specified period) the lessee to whom the right to use any goods is transferred, is—(a) a registered dealer, or (b) the Central Government or any State Government; or (c) any local authority, any corporation or undertaking constituted by or under a Central Act or a State Act; or (d) any Co-operative society or any other society, club, firm or other association of persons or a company, whether incorporated or not, the person responsible for making such payment to the lessor (who is transferring the right to use any goods) for discharge of liabilities under such agreement, shall at the time of making such payment to the lessor, either in cash or by credit or any other manner, deduct an amount at the rate of four percent of such sum towards part or, as the case may be, full satisfaction of the tax payable under this Act on account of such transfer of right to use any goods: Provided that the Assessing Authority may, if satisfied that it is expedient in the public interest so to do and for reasons to be recorded in writing, order that in any case or class of cases no such deduction shall be made or, as the case may be, such deduction shall be made at a lesser rate: Provided further that where any deduction has been made by a contractor from the payment made to his sub-contractor in accordance with sub-section (3), the amount of such payment shall be deducted from the amount on which deduction is to be made under this sub-Section. (3) Any contractor responsible for making any payment for discharge of any liability to any sub-contractor in pursuance of a contract with the subcontractor for the transfer of property in goods (whether as goods or in any other form) involved in the execution of a works contract or for transfer of right to use any goods for any purpose, whether wholly or in part, of the work undertaken by the contractor, shall, at the time of such payment or discharge, in cash or by cheque or draft or by any other mode, deduct an amount equal to four percent of such payment or discharge, purporting to be a part of full amount of tax payable under this Act on such transfer from the bills or invoices raised by the sub-contractor as payable by the contractor: Provided that no deduction under this sub-section shall be made on the amount on which deduction has already been made under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2). (4) The amount deducted under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or subsection (3) shall be deposited into the Government Treasury by the person making such deduction before the expiry of the month following that in which deduction is made. (5) The person making such deductions under sub-Section (1) or sub-Section (2) or sub-Section (3) shall, at the time of payment or discharge furnish to the person from whose bills or invoices such deduction is made, a certificate in such form and manner and within such period as may be prescribed. (6) The person responsible for making the payment to the contractor or subcontractor shall submit such return of such payments at such intervals, within such period, and in such manner as may be prescribed, but the Assessing Authority may, in its discretion, for reasons to be recorded extend the date for the submission of the return by such person. (7) Any deduction made in accordance with the provisions of this Section and credited in the Government Treasury shall be treated as payment of tax on behalf of the person from whose bills or invoices the deduction has been made, and credit shall be given to him for the amount so deducted on the production of the certificate referred to in sub-section (5), in the assessment made for the relevant assessment year. (8) If any such person as is referred to in sub-section (1) or in sub-section (2) or in sub-section (3), fails to make the deduction or after deducting fails to deposit the amount so deducted as required in sub-section (4), the Assessing Authority may, after giving such person an opportunity of being heard, by order in writing, direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum not exceeding twice the amount deductible under this Section but not so deducted and, if deducted, not so deposited into Government Treasury. (9) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (8), if any such person fails to make the deduction or, after deducting, fails to deposit the amount so deducted, he shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of fifteen percent per annum on the amount deductible under this Section but not so deducted and, if deducted, not so deposited from the date on which such amount was deductible to the date on which such amount is actually deposited. (10) Where the amount has not been deposited after deduction, such amount together with interest referred to in sub-section (9) shall be a charge upon all the assets of the person concerned. (11) Payment by way of deduction in accordance with sub-section (1) or subsection (2) or sub-section (3) shall be without prejudice to any other mode of recovery of tax due under this Act from the contractor or the subcontractor, as the case may be. Explanation. - For the purpose of this Section, "Assessing Authority" means the officer having jurisdiction over the place where the place of business or residence of the person is located. (12) Nothing contained in this Section shall prevent the Assessing Authority from making an assessment of tax payable by the dealer in accordance with other provisions of the Act and notwithstanding anything contained in this Section the dealer shall be liable to pay tax according to other relevant provisions of the Act. (13) [ (i) Every person responsible for making tax deduction at source in accordance with the provisions of this Section, if he is not registered dealer, shall submit an application in the prescribed form to the Assessing Authority for allotment of Tax Deduction Account Number. The application shall be disposed of by the Assessing Authority in such time and manner as may be prescribed; (ii) if the application is in order and particulars given therein are correct, the Assessing Authority shall allot him a Tax Deduction Account Number; (iii) Tax Deduction Account Number shall be mentioned in all the documents pertaining to deposit of tax and in all correspondence and returns filed. No person other than a registered dealer can make tax deduction at source unless he has applied for a Tax Deduction Account Number; (iv) if any person referred to in clause (i) above fails to apply for Tax Deduction Account Number, he shall be liable for penalty as per the provisions of this Act.]

Chapter V

Refund and Adjustment

36. Refund.

(1) Subject to other provisions of this Act and the Rules made thereunder, the Assessing Authority shall, refund to a person the amount of tax, penalty and interest, if any, paid by such person in excess of the amount due from him: Provided that the amount found to be refundable shall first be adjusted towards the tax or any other amount outstanding against the dealer under this Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956, or the Uttaranchal (the Uttar Pradesh Trade Tax Act, 1948) Adaptation and Modification Order, 2002 and only the balance, if any, shall be refunded. (2) Where any refund is due to any dealer according to the return furnished by him for any tax period, such refund may provisionally be adjusted as per the provisions under sub-section (10), sub-section (11) or sub-section (12) of Section 6. (3) [ If any amount is found to be refundable in accordance with sub-section (1) or sub-section (2), the refund shall be made in the prescribed manner including electronic methods within one month from the date of order of refund or the date of receipt, of the order of refund by the Assessing Authority, if such order is passed by any other competent authority or Court. If the refund is not made within sixty days of the date of such order or, as the case may be, the date of receipt of such order of refund, by the Assessing Authority, the dealer shall be entitled to simple interest on such amount at the rate of nine percent per annum from the date of expiry of such period to the date of refund; Provided that if any amount is found to be refundable in the cases deemed to have been self assessed in accordance with sub-section (3) of Section 25, the refund shall be made within one month of the expiry of one year from the last date prescribed for filing the annual return relating to the particular assessment year or the actual date, when the annual return is filed, whichever is later. ] [Substituted vide Notification No. 331/XXXVI(3)/2010/52(1)/2010, dated 06-10-2010.] (4) Notwithstanding any judgement, decree or order of any Court or authority no refund shall be allowed of any tax or fee due under this Act on the turnover of sales or purchases or both, as the case may be, admitted by the dealer in the returns filed by him or at any stage in any proceedings under this Act. (5) Notwithstanding anything contained contrary in this Section any dealer to whom refund of any amount is allowed, may, before the date such refund is made, apply to the Assessing Authority for withholding the amount of refund for adjustment towards his future liabilities either under this Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956. If the dealer has presented his application for withholding amount of refund, the Assessing Authority shall withhold amount of refund. In such a case the dealer shall not be entitled for interest. Explanation (1). - The expression "Refund" includes any adjustment under the proviso to sub-section (1). [Explanation (2). - If the refund is made electronically the date of refund shall be deemed to be the date on which the refund is made otherwise the date of refund shall be deemed to be the date on which intimation regarding preparation of the refund voucher is sent to the dealer in the manner prescribed.] [Substituted vide Notification No. 331/XXXVI(3)/2010/52(1)/2010, dated 06-10-2010.]

37. Provisional Refund in case of Exporters.

(1) If a registered dealer has filed returns as required by or under this Act, and the returns show any amount to be refundable to the dealer on account of sale in the course of export, then the dealer may after the end of every quarter, apply in the manner prescribed, to the Assessing Authority for grant of provisional refund, if any, pending assessment. (2) [The said dealer shall furnish a Bank Guarantee or other security or documentary evidence of export of goods to the satisfaction of the Assessing Authority, for an amount equal to the amount of the provisional refund. On receipt of such guarantee or other security, or documentary evidence of export of goods the Assessing Authority shall, subject to the provisions of this Section and the rules, grant the dealer within thirty days a provisional refund that may be found as refundable. The dealer shall keep the bank guarantee or security furnished by him valid up to the date of recovery of excess amount, if any, after final assessment: Provided that if the amount found refundable is not refunded to the dealer within the period prescribed, the dealer shall be entitled to simple interest on such amount at the rate of nine percent per annum.] [Substituted vide Notification No. 1314/XXXVI(4)/2008, dated 31-3-2008] (3) The assessment under this Act of such dealer in respect of the year containing the period covered by the said return will be taken up as early as practicable and the provisional refund against tax due, if any, as a result of the assessment shall be adjusted. (4) If, on assessment, the provisional refund granted under sub-section (2) is found to be in excess, then the excess amount of refund shall be recovered from the dealer along with interest as if it were tax admittedly due from the dealer under this Act. (5) Interest will be charged at the rate of fifteen percent per annum from the date of grant of provisional refund, till the date of payment of such amount.

38. Refund of Tax in case of sales to Embassies, International Organizations or to units established in Special Economic Zone.

(1) Any person or a dealer or embassies, international organizations listed in Schedule V of this Act, shall be entitled to claim refund of tax paid by him on the purchase of goods and notwithstanding anything contained in Section 36, the amount due for refund shall be refunded within 45 days of the presentation of the claim for refund. (2) Any unit established in Special Economic Zone shall be entitled to claim refund of tax paid by it on the purchases from any unit established in Domestic Tariff Area and such dealer shall be eligible for refund of such amount as in case of exporters and the provisions of Section 37 shall mutatis mutandis apply in such case

39. Power to Withhold Refund in certain cases.

(1) Where an order giving rise to a refund is the subject matter of an appeal or further proceeding or where any other proceeding under this Act is pending, and the Assessing Authority is of the opinion that grant of such refund is likely to adversely affect the revenue and that it may not be possible to recover the amount later, the Assessing Authority may, with the permission of the Commissioner or any officer authorized by him, withhold the refund till such time as he may determine. (2) Where a refund is withheld under sub-section (1) and as a result of the appeal or further proceeding or any other proceeding, dealer becomes entitled to any refund, the dealer shall be entitled to interest as provided under sub-section (1) of Section 41 on the refundable amount: Provided that if any refund has been withheld under this Section, and if any amount out of the refundable amount is adjusted towards any tax liability of the dealer, the dealer shall not be entitled for any amount of interest for the relevant period on the amount so adjusted.

40. Disbursement of Amount Wrongly Realized by Dealer as Tax.

(1) Where any amount is realized from any person by any dealer, purporting to do so by way of realization of tax on the sale or purchase of any goods, in contravention of the provisions of Section 22, such dealer shall deposit the entire amount so realized in such manner and within such period as prescribed therein. (2) Any amount deposited by any dealer under sub-section (1) shall to the extent it is not due as tax, be held by the State Government in trust for the person from whom it was realized by the dealer, or for his legal representatives, and the deposit shall discharge such dealer of the liability in respect thereof to the extent of the deposit. (3) Where any amount is deposited by any dealer under sub-section (1) such amount or any part thereof shall, on a claim being made in that behalf be refunded in the manner prescribed, to the person from whom such dealer had actually realized such amount or part thereof, or to his legal representative and to no other person: Provided that no such claim shall be entertained after the expiry of three years from the date of order of assessment or one year from the date of the final order in appeal or revision, if any in respect thereof, whichever is later. (4) Where any amount has been deposited by any dealer in accordance with the provisions under sub-section (1), the dealer shall not be entitled to allow refund of such amount to the purchaser of goods. Explanation. - The expression "final order on appeal or revision" includes an order passed by the Supreme Court under Article 32, Article 132, Article 133, Article 136 or Article 137 or by the High Court under Article 226 or Article 227 of the Constitution.

41. Interest.

- [Any dealer or a person entitled to refund in pursuance of any order under this Act (including assessment under Section 24, Section 25, or Section 26) or in pursuance of any order by any court, shall subject to rules, be entitled to receive, in addition to the refund, a simple interest at the rate of nine percent per annum if the refund voucher/ electronic intimation of refund is not sent to him as per the provisions of Section 36.] [Substituted vide Notification No. 331/XXXVI(3)/2010/52(1)/2010, dated 06-10-2010.] (2) The interest shall be calculated on the amount of refund due after deducting there from any tax, interest, penalty or any other dues under this Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act, 1956. (3) If as a result of any order passed under this Act the amount of such refund is enhanced or reduced such interest shall be enhanced or reduced accordingly. option, request the Appellate Authority in writing for summary disposal of his appeal, whereupon the Appellate Authority may decide the appeal accordingly.(b)The manner and procedure of summary disposal of appeal shall be such as may be prescribed.(c)No appeal or revision shall lie against an order passed in appeal which has been disposed of summarily.(3)Where an appeal under this Section has been filed by any dealer or any person against an order referred to in sub-section (1) and where due to filing of such appeal the Commissioner cannot revise such order passed by the Assessing Authority on the point of legality or propriety of such order under Section 52, the Commissioner may move an application to the Appellate authority to examine the legality and propriety of such order on such point or points as may be mentioned in the application. A copy of such application shall be served on the dealer or such other person, as the case may be:Provided that-(a)No application under this sub-section shall be entertained after the expiration of four years from the date of the order in question,(b)No application for examination of legality and propriety under this subsection shall be entertained after the disposal of appeal filed by the dealer or other person, as the case may be,(c)Where the Commissioner has filed an application under this Section and the dealer or other person withdraws the appeal filed by him or any other application for disposal of appeal summarily under sub-section (2), it shall be deemed for the purpose of Section 52, as if no appeal has been filed, and in such a case the period commencing from the date of filing application by the Commissioner and the date of the Appellate Authority's order on the application of the dealer, shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation provided in Section 52, and(d)If after computing, the period of limitation comes to less than six months, the revision under Section 52 may be made within six months from the date of receipt by the Commissioner of the relevant order of the Appellate Authority.Explanation. - For the purpose of this sub-Section, the Commissioner shall include an officer authorized to file an appeal on behalf of the Commissioner before the Tribunal under Section 53 of this Act.(4)No appeal against an assessment order under this Act shall be entertained unless the appellant has furnished satisfactory proof of the payment of the amount of tax or fee due under this Act on the turnover of sales or purchases or both, as the case may be admitted by the appellant in the returns filed by him or at any stage in any proceeding under this Act, whichever is greater.(5)The appeal shall be in the prescribed form and shall be verified in the prescribed manner.(6)The Appellate Authority:(a)shall in a case where the appellant makes a request under sub- Section(2) and(b)may, in any other case on the application of the appellant and after giving the Commissioner a reasonable opportunity of being heard, stay the realization of the amount of the tax, fee or penalty payable by the appellant till the disposal of the appeal;(7)No application under clause (b) of sub-section (6) shall be entertained unless it is filed along with the memorandum of appeal under sub-section (1) and no stay order shall remain in force for more than forty five days unless the appellant has deposited the balance amount within thirty days of receipt of stay order or the time allowed in the order of the Assessing Authority under appeal whichever is later and before the expiry of the said period, furnished security to the satisfaction of the Assessing Authority for payment of the amount, the realization whereof has been stayed:Provided that where the amount stayed is less than rupees twenty five thousand, the dealer shall not be required to furnish the security in respect of such amount;Provided further that where an order under appeal does not involve any dispute about tax, fee or penalty, the Appellate Authority may stay the operation of such order till the disposal of appeal subject to such conditions as he may deem fit.Explanation. - Rejection of similar application for stay by any authority for want of jurisdiction shall not by itself preclude the Appellate Authority from entertaining such application.(8)The Appellate Authority may, after calling for and examining the relevant records and after giving the appellant and the Commissioner a reasonable opportunity of being heard or, as the case may be, after following the procedure under sub-section (2), - (a) confirm or annul such order; or (b) vary such order by reducing or enhancing the amount of assessment or penalty, as the case may be, whether such reduction or enhancement arises from a point raised in the grounds of appeal or otherwise; or (c) set aside the order and direct the Assessing Authority to pass a fresh order after such inquiry as may be specified; or (d) direct the Assessing Authority to make such inquiry and to submit its report within such time as may be specified in the direction or within such extended time as it may allow from time to time and on the expiration of such time the Appellate Authority may, whether the report has been submitted or not, decide the appeal in accordance with the provisions of the preceding sub-clauses: Provided that nothing in this sub-section shall preclude the Appellate Authority from dismissing the appeal at any stage with such observation as it deems fit where the appellant applies for withdrawal of the same and no request for enhancement of the assessment or penalty has been made by the Commissioner, Provided further that before making an enhancement the appellant shall be given an opportunity of being heard on the proposal of enhancement; Provided also that the appeal shall be disposed off within such time as may be prescribed. (9) An order passed under this Section shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be final. (10) If the amount of the tax assessed, fee levied or penalty imposed is reduced by the Appellate Authority under sub-section (6) he shall order the excess amount of tax, fee or penalty, if realized, to be refunded. (11) Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1963, shall apply to appeals or other applications under this Section. (12) The Appellate Authority shall be under the superintendence and control of the Commissioner: Provided that in the exercise of such superintendence and control of the Commissioner, no order, instructions and directions shall be given by the Commissioner so as to interfere with the discretion of the Appellate Authority in the exercise of its appellate functions. (13) Appeal filed by the dealer and the application filed by the Commissioner arising out of the same cause of action in respect of an assessment year shall be heard and decided together: Provided that where any one of such appeal or application has been heard and decided earlier, and if the Appellate Authority hearing the remaining appeal or application considers that such decision may be legal impediment in giving relief in such remaining appeal and application, he may recall such earlier decision and proceed to decide the appeal and the application together, after giving a fresh hearing.

52. Revision by Commissioner.

(1) The Commissioner or such other officer not below the rank of Joint Commissioner as may be authorized in this behalf by the State Government by notification may call for and examine the record relating to any order, (other than an order mentioned in Section 56) passed by any officer subordinate to him, for the purpose of satisfying himself as to the legality or propriety of such order and may pass such order with respect thereto as he thinks fit. (2) No order under sub-section (1) affecting the interest of a party adversely shall be passed unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity of being heard. (3) No order under sub-section (1), shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (3) of Section 51, be passed - (a) to revise an order, which is or has been the subject matter of an appeal under Section 51, or an order passed by the Appellate Authority under that Section, (b) before the expiration of sixty days from the date of the order in question; (c) after the expiration of four years from the date of the order in question. Explanation. - Where the appeal against any order is withdrawn or is dismissed for nonpayment of fee specified in Section 74, or for non compliance of sub-section (1) of Section 51, the order shall not be deemed to have been a subject matter of an appeal under Section 51.(4)No dealer or any other person shall be entitled to file an application under this Section.

53. Appeal to the Appellate Tribunal.

- [(1) Any person aggrieved by an order passed under Section 51(other than an order referred to under sub-section (2) of that Section), under Section 52, or under Section 76, or a decision under Section 57; or a direction under subsection (8) of Section 43; or an order passed under sub-section (7) of Section 43(A); or an order passed under sub-Section(10) of Section 48; or an order passed under sub-section (7) of Section 48(A) may; within ninety days from the date of service of the copy of such order, decision or direction on him, prefer an appeal to the Tribunal:(2)Explanation. - For the purpose of this sub-Section, the expression "any person" in relation to any order passed by an authority other than the Commissioner includes the Commissioner and, in relation to any order passed by the Commissioner includes the State Government.] Substituted by The Uttaranchal Value Added Tax Act, 2005 (Amendment) Act, 2012.(a)Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where the disputed amount of tax, fee or penalty does not exceed two thousand rupees and no question of law is involved, the appellant may, at his option, request to the Tribunal in writing for summary disposal of his appeal, whereupon the Tribunal may decide the appeal accordingly;(b)The manner and procedure of summary disposal of appeal shall be such as may be prescribed;(c)No revision shall lie against an order passed in appeal which has been disposed of summarily.(3)Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1963 shall apply to appeal or other applications under this Section.(4)The Tribunal may at any stage, after giving the appellant a reasonable opportunity of being heard, dismiss the appeal.(5)The Tribunal may, if it has not already dismissed the appeal under subsection (4), after calling for and examining the relevant records and after giving the party a reasonable opportunity of being heard or, as the case may be, after following the procedure prescribed under sub-section (2):(a)confirm, cancel or vary such order, or(b)set aside the order and direct the Assessing or Appellate or Revising Authority or the Commissioner as the case may be, to pass a fresh order after such further enquiry, if any, as may be specified,(6)If any amount of tax, fee or penalty is reduced by the Tribunal under subsection (5), he shall order that any money as may have been realized in excess of the due amount, be refunded according to the provisions of this Act:Explanation. - The power to vary an order referred to in clause (a) includes the power to vary the order by reducing or enhancing the amount of assessment or penalty. However before increasing the tax or other amount the dealer shall be given an opportunity of being heard on the proposal of increasing the liability.(7)Where an appeal under this Section has been filed, the Tribunal may, on the application of the appellant moved along with the memorandum of such appeal after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard, stay the operation of the order appealed against or the recovery of disputed amount of any tax, fee or penalty payable, or refund of the amount due, or proceedings for reassessment under the order appealed against till the disposal of the appeal:(8)No application for stay of recovery of any disputed amount of tax, fee or penalty shall be entertained unless the applicant has furnished satisfactory proof of the payment of not less than one third of such disputed amount in addition to the amount required to be deposited under sub-section (4) of Section 51:Provided that where the amount in dispute in appeal is less than rupees twenty five thousand the dealer shall not be required to deposit the one third of such disputed amount: Provided further that the Tribunal may, for special and adequate reasons to be recorded in writing, waive or relax the requirements of this subsection regarding payment of the one third of such disputed amount; (9) Where the Tribunal passes an order under this Section for the stay of recovery of any tax, fee or penalty or for the stay of the operation of any order appealed against and such order of the Tribunal results in the stay of recovery of any tax, fee or penalty, such stay order of the Tribunal shall not remain in force for more than forty five days unless the appellant has deposited the balance amount within thirty days of the receipt of the stay order and has furnished security to the satisfaction of the Assessing Authority concerned for the payment of the amount, the realisation whereof has been stayed: Provided that where the amount stayed is less than rupees twenty five thousand, the dealer shall not be required to furnish the security in respect of such amount; (10) (a) An appeal against an order of the Appellate Authority under Section 51 shall be heard and disposed of (i) by a bench of two members, when such order is passed by an Additional Commissioner (Appeals), or the amount of tax, fee or penalty in dispute exceeds two lakh rupees; (ii) by a single member bench, in other case. (b) An appeal against an order passed under Section 52, or against direction given under sub-section (8) of Section 43 shall be heard and disposed of by a bench of two members; (c) An appeal against an order under sub-section (13) or sub-section (16) of Section 76 or a decision given under Section 57 shall be filed before the President and shall be heard and disposed of by a bench of three members. (d) The President may, if he so thinks fit (i) direct an appeal to be heard and decided by a larger bench; (ii) transfer an appeal from one member to another member. (e) In a case before a bench consisting of two or more members, any order other than an order finally disposing of the case may be passed by any one of the members constituting the bench. (11) Any member who has previously dealt with any case coming up before the Tribunal in any other capacity or is personally interested in any case coming up before the Tribunal shall be disqualified to hear that case. (12) All appeals arising out of the same cause of action in respect of an assessment year shall be heard and decided together: Provided that where any one or more of such appeals have been heard and decided earlier, and if the bench hearing the remaining appeals considers that such decision may be legal impediment in giving relief in such remaining appeals, it may, if the earlier decision was given (a) by a smaller bench or a bench of equal strength, recall such earlier decision and proceed to decide all the appeals together; (b) by a larger bench, refer such remaining appeals to such larger bench having jurisdiction and thereafter such larger bench may recall such earlier decision and proceed to decide all the appeals together. (13) The decision of a case heard by a bench shall be in accordance with the opinion of the majority. Where the members are equally divided the President of the Tribunal may (a) if he was not a member of such bench, give his own opinion or refer the case for the opinion of another member, whereupon the case shall be decided in accordance with such opinion: or (b) form a larger bench. (14) Where any case is heard by a Bench consisting of two members and the members are divided in their opinion on any point and the other member or the members of the Tribunal are disqualified under sub-Section (10) to hear the case or there are for the time being only two members including the President, the Government may appoint a person qualified to be appointed as a member of Tribunal, as an additional member to the Tribunal and the point shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of majority of the members of the Tribunal who have heard the case (including those who first heard it). - Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained elsewhere in this Act, and without prejudice to Section 58 a person who issues a false or wrong certificate or declaration prescribed under any provision of this Act or the Rules framed thereunder, to another person by reason of which a tax leviable under this Act on the transaction of purchase or sale made to or by such other person ceases to be leviable or becomes leviable at a concessional rate, shall be liable to pay on such transaction an amount which would have been payable as tax on such transaction had such certificate or declaration not been issued:Provided that before taking any action under this Section, the person concerned shall be given an opportunity of being heard.Explanation. - where a person issuing a certificate or declaration discloses therein his intention to use goods purchased by him for such purpose as will make the tax not leviable or leviable at a concessional rate but uses the same for a purpose other than such purpose, the certificate or declaration shall, for the purpose of this Section, be deemed to be wrong.

64. Objection to Jurisdiction.

(1)No objection as to the territorial or pecuniary jurisdiction of any Assessing Authority shall be allowed by any Appellate or Revising Authority or the Tribunal unless such objection was taken up before the Assessing Authority at the earliest possible opportunity and unless, in the opinion of the Appellate or Revising Authority or the Tribunal, as the case may be, a failure of justice has in fact been occasioned thereby.(2)Where any assessment is set aside or quashed merely on the ground of want of territorial or pecuniary jurisdiction of the Assessing Authority or on any other ground of a like nature not affecting the substance, any tax already paid by the assessee, to the extent of the liability admitted by him, shall not be refundable to him, in consequence of the assessment being so set aside or quashed.

65. Certain Presumptions in Affixing Tax Liability.

(1) Where any goods relating to business are—(a) traced to a dealer and are found in a building or place but the dealer has not accounted for such goods in his books of account; or (b) traced to a dealer and are found in a vehicle, whether belonging to the dealer or not, such goods are not accompanied with the documents prescribed under any provision of this Act; or (c) found in the custody of any person who claims to carry on any profession other than business but fails to prove that such goods belong to some other person or dealer, it shall be presumed that such goods have been imported or purchased within the State by such dealer or person with a view to evade payment of tax on sale of such goods or if the goods found are for use in manufacture, the tax on the sale of goods to be manufactured by using such goods.

(2) Where at a check post or any other place inside the State it is found that any taxable goods for the purpose of business, are being imported without a form of declaration prescribed under Section 48, unless otherwise proved after furnishing proper and sufficient evidence, it shall be presumed that—(a) such goods are being imported with a view to evade payment of tax under this Act; and (b) such goods are being imported with a view to evade payment of tax on sales of such goods under this Act: Provided that if goods are meant for use in manufacture of any goods, it shall be presumed that goods are being imported with a view to evade payment of tax on sale of goods to be manufactured by using such goods.

(3) Where any books or accounts or documents are found in any place or building or vehicle, unless the person in charge of such place or building or vehicle, after furnishing proper and sufficient evidence, proves that the same belong to some other person or dealer, such books, accounts or documents shall be deemed to belong to such person, and such person shall be deemed to be a dealer in respect of such transactions relating to business of purchase and sale of goods, as may be found in such books, accounts or documents.

(4) Where any transactions of sale and/ or purchase of any goods relating to a dealer are found recorded in any books or accounts or documents of any other dealer and if such transactions are not found recorded in the books or accounts or documents maintained by the former dealer in the ordinary course of business, it shall be presumed that the transaction related to such former dealer and that such goods have been imported or purchased within the State with a view to evade payment of tax on sale of such goods or if the goods recorded in such books, accounts or documents are for use in manufacture, the tax on sale of goods to be manufactured by using such goods.

(5) Where in respect of purchase or sale of any goods within the State, the challan or transport invoice referred to in sub-section (10) of Section 59 is required to be issued or obtained or to accompany the goods during transit and if such provisions have not been complied with or the goods in whole or part are not covered by such documents, it shall be presumed that such goods have been sold, or as the case may be, purchased with a view to evade payment of tax on purchase or sale of such goods or, if the goods are for use in the manufacture, the tax on the sale of goods to be manufactured by using such goods.

(6) Where a dealer obtains any Sale invoice from a registered dealer without making purchase of goods shown in such Sale invoice, it shall be presumed that the dealer obtaining such documents has purchased goods shown in such document from other person with a view to evade payment of tax on purchase of such goods in the circumstances in which tax can not be levied on the person selling such goods and tax shall be payable under the provisions of this Act on such purchases by the dealer purchasing the goods.

(7) Where the Assessing Authority is satisfied that a "scheme" has been entered into or carried out such that a person, in connection with the scheme, has obtained the tax benefit resulting in—(a) a reduction in the liability of any person to pay tax ; or(b)an increase in the entitlement of a person to an input tax credit or refund; or(c)any other avoidance or postponement of liability for the payment of tax, it shall be presumed that such person or persons who carried out or entered into the scheme did so for the sole and dominant purpose to enable such person to obtain the tax benefit, and the Assessing Authority may determine the liability of such person who has obtained the benefit as if the scheme had not been entered into or carried out.Explanation. - The "scheme" includes any agreement, arrangement, promise, or undertaking whether express or implied and whether or not enforceable, or intended to be enforceable by legal proceedings, and any plan, proposal, course of action, or course of conduct.

66. Burden of Proof.

(1)In any assessment proceeding, when any fact is specially within the knowledge of the assessee, the burden of proving that fact shall lie upon him, and in particular, the burden of proving the existence of circumstances bringing the case within any of the exceptions, exemptions or relief under any provisions of this Act, or that he is eligible for input tax credit under Section 6, shall lie upon him and the Assessing Authority shall presume the absence of such circumstances.(2)Where any dealer claims that he is not liable to pay tax in respect of any transaction of sales or purchases, the burden of proving the existence of facts and circumstances on the basis of which he claims such exemptions form liability shall lie upon him.

67. Additional Evidence in Appeal.

- The assessee shall not be entitled to produce additional evidence, whether oral or documentary, before the Appellate Authority or the Tribunal except where the evidence sought to be adduced in evidence, which the Assessing Authority had wrongly refused to admit or which after exercise of due diligence was not within his knowledge or could not be produced by him before the Assessing Authority, and in every such case, upon the additional evidence being taken on record, reasonable opportunity for challenge or rebuttal shall be given to the assessing authority.

68. Indemnity.

- No Suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against any servant of the Government for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or rules made thereunder.

69. Bar to Certain Proceedings.

- No assessment made and no order passed under this Act or the Rules made there under by any authority shall be called in question in any Court, and save as is provided in this Act, no appeal or application for revision shall lie against any such assessment or order.

70. Certain Information to be Confidential.

(1) All particulars contained in any statement made, return furnished or accounts or documents produced under the provisions of the Act or the Rules made there under, or in any evidence given or affidavit or deposition made in the course of any proceedings under the Act or the Rules made thereunder, or in any record of any proceedings relating to the recovery of a demand prepared for the purpose of the Act or the Rules made thereunder shall be treated as confidential. (2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to the disclosure of any such particulars:- (a) for the purpose of any investigation of, or prosecution for any offence under this Act or under the Indian Penal Code, 1860, or under any other enactment for the time being in force; or (b) to any person acting in the execution of the Act or the Rules made thereunder where it is necessary to disclose the same to him for the purposes of the Act or the Rules made thereunder; or (c) occasioned by lawful employment under the Act or the Rules made thereunder of any process for recovery of any demand; or (d) to a Civil Court in any suit to which the Government is a party which relate to any matters arising out of any proceedings under this Act or the Rules made thereunder; or (e) occasioned by a lawful exercise by a public servant of his powers under the Indian Stamp Act, 1899, to impound an insufficiently stamped document; or (f) to an officer of Central Government or the Government of any State for the purpose of enabling that Government to levy or realise any tax imposed by it; or (g) to an officer of the Central or the State Government for the purpose of making an enquiry against any Government servant; or (h) or purpose of audit of public accounts; or (i) for any other lawful purpose under this Act or the Rules made there under. (3) Nothing in this Section will apply to publication of any information relating to a class of dealer or class of transactions, if in the opinion of the Commissioner, it is desirable in the public interest, to publish such information. (4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section, if the State Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient in the public interest to publish or disclose the names of any dealers or other persons and any of the particulars relating to any proceeding under this Act in respect of such dealers and persons, it may publish or disclose or cause to be published or disclosed such names and particulars in such manner as it thinks fit. (5) No publication or disclosure under this Section shall be made in relation to any tax levied or penalty imposed or interest levied or any conviction for any offence connected with any proceeding under this Act, until the time for presenting an appeal to the appropriate Appellate Authority has expired with-out an appeal having been presented or the appeal, if presented, has been disposed of. Explanation. - In the case of a firm, company or other association of persons, the names of the partners of the firm, the directors, managing agents, secretaries, treasurers or managers of the company or the members of the association, as the case may be, may also be published or disclosed, if, in the opinion of the Government, the circumstances of the case justify it.

71. Powers to make Rules.

(1) The State Government may make Rules to carry out the purposes of this Act. (2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, such Rules may provide for- (a) all matters expressly required or allowed by this Act to be prescribed; (b) the registration of persons engaged in the sale or purchase of goods and the imposing of conditions in respect of the same for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this Act and fees for registration; (c) the determination of

(2) Subject to such conditions and restrictions, as may be deemed fit - (a) the State Government may permit any dealer or other person, against whom any amount of tax penalty or other dues is outstanding to pay the amount in such number of monthly installments, as it may consider proper in the circumstances of the case; and (b) the Commissioner may likewise permit any dealer or other person, against whom any amount of tax, penalty or other dues aggregating not more than two lakh rupees is outstanding, to deposit the same in such number of monthly installments, not exceeding twenty, as he may consider proper in the circumstances of the case. (3) Where such dealer or other person fails to furnish, within thirty days of the receipt of the order referred to in sub-section (2), adequate security to the satisfaction of the Assessing Authority concerned for payment of outstanding amount, or fails to comply with the conditions and restriction imposed in such order, the amount due shall be recoverable at once.]

76. Moratorium for Payment of Tax.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, where the State Government is of the opinion that it is necessary so to do for increasing production of any goods or for promoting the development of any industry in the State generally or in any district or part of a district in particular, it may on application or otherwise in any particular case or generally, by notification declare that to the dealers running new units whose date of starting production falls on a date prior to the date of commencement of this Act and dealers owning manufacturing units which have undertaken expansion, diversification or modernization or backward integration prior to the date of commencement of this Act and if such dealers hold an eligibility certificate issued under the provisions of Section 4-A of the Uttaranchal (the Uttar Pradesh Trade Tax Act, 1948) Adaptation and Modification Order, 2002, rules made or notifications issued there under, moratorium for payment of admitted tax in lieu of exemption from tax on sale of goods whether wholly or partly or at reduced rate, will be allowed subject to the conditions given in this Section and such other conditions as may be prescribed or as the State Government may, by notification in the Gazette, specify: (2) Dealers who have been granted facility of moratorium for payment of admitted tax before the commencement of this Act, such facility shall continue and shall be deemed to have been granted under this Act, and to that extent the provisions of Uttaranchal (the Uttar Pradesh Trade Tax Act, 1948) Adaptation and Modification Order, 2002 shall be deemed to be part of this Act. The facility granted under this Section shall be subject to such conditions as given in this Section and such other conditions as may be prescribed or as the State Government may, by notification in the Gazette, specify. (3) Any application pending at the time of commencement of this Act, before the Commissioner of Trade Tax, for issue of orders for moratorium for payment of admitted tax under the Uttaranchal (The Uttar Pradesh Trade Tax Act, 1948) Adaptation and Modification Order, 2002 shall be deemed to be pending under the provisions of this Act before the Commissioner and the same shall be disposed of according to the provisions of that Act as it was in force on the date on which the application was presented before the Commissioner. (4) Notwithstanding anything contained contrary to the provisions of this Act and in particular to the provisions of Section 4-A or sub-section (2-A) of Section 8 of the Uttaranchal (the Uttar Pradesh Trade Tax Act, 1948) Adaptation and Modification Order, 2002, Rules made or notifications issued there under (a) application for grant of eligibility certificate presented on a date prior to the date of commencement of this Act before the competent authority under that Act shall be deemed pending before the prescribed authority under this Act, (b) dealers owning new units whose date of starting production falls before the date of commencement of this Act and dealers owning such units as have undertaken expansion or diversification or modernization or backward integration before the date of commencement of this Act, may apply for grant of eligibility certificate under the provisions of Section 4-A of the Uttaranchal (the Uttar Pradesh Trade Tax Act, 1948) Adaptation and Modification Order, 2002 within the time prescribed under that Act before the prescribed authority under this Act. (5) Applications for grant of eligibility certificate under sub-section (4) shall be disposed of by the prescribed authority according to the provisions of the Uttaranchal (the Uttar Pradesh Trade Tax Act, 1948) Adaptation and Modification Order, 2002, the Rules made and notifications issued there under, as applicable on the date of commencement of this Act, and the dealer, if found eligible, shall be granted eligibility certificate, and such dealer shall be entitled to moratorium for payment of admitted tax to the extent and for the period provided in sub-Section (6). (6) Subject to other provisions of this Section, the dealers holding eligibility certificate either granted under the provisions of the Uttaranchal (the Uttar Pradesh Trade Tax Act, 1948) Adaptation and Modification Order, 2002 before the date of the commencement of this Act or who may be granted eligibility certificate under sub-section (5), shall be eligible to tax concessions or, as the case may be, for the facility of moratorium for payment of tax in lieu of exemption from tax, as per provisions of Section 4-A of the repealed Act and the Rules made or relevant Notifications issued there under, subject to the following conditions and restrictions, namely:-(a)the dealers who had opted for moratorium for payment of tax in lieu of exemption from tax, shall be eligible for the facility of moratorium to the extent of aggregate amount of hundred percent of the amount of exemption from tax mentioned in the eligibility certificate and fifty percent of the amount of fixed capital investment mentioned in the eligibility certificate less aggregate of such amount in respect of which facility of moratorium for payment of tax has been availed during the period before the commencement of this Act, for the period remaining on that date out of the maximum period mentioned in the order of moratorium.(b)the dealers who were enjoying exemption from tax for any period before the commencement of the Ordinance, may, either(i)continue to do so for the period remaining on that date out of the maximum period mentioned in eligibility certificate, and to the extent of remaining balance amount (amount of exemption from tax mentioned in the eligibility certificate less the aggregate of amount of exemption from tax as has been availed before the date of commencement of this Ordinance); or(ii)opt, in the prescribed manner, for benefit of moratorium for payment of tax in lieu of exemption from tax and such units shall be eligible for facility of moratorium to the extent of aggregate amount of hundred percent of the amount of exemption from tax mentioned in the eligibility certificate and fifty percent of the amount of fixed capital investment mentioned in the eligibility certificate less the aggregate of amount of exemption from of tax as has been availed before the date of commencement of the Ordinance, for the period remaining on that date out of the maximum period mentioned in the eligibility certificate:Provided that if the dealer does not choose either of the two options, within 30 days of the commencement of this Act, it shall be presumed that the dealer desires to continue as per provision (i) above.(c)[ any taxable dealer purchasing goods from such dealer holding eligibility certificate and who is exempted from tax, whether wholly or partially, shall be entitled to Input Tax Credit of the amount of tax charged in the sale invoice of the selling dealer and for this purpose the selling dealer shall append the following certificate in the sale invoice regarding- [Substituted vide Notification No. 1314/XXXVI(4)/2008, date 31-3-08.]Certificate"Certified that the dealer is entitled to exemption from tax @ ----- as per Eligibility Certificate No-----dated----- according to which the exemption amount in this Invoice comes to Rs.-----."(7)Under moratorium for payment of admitted tax under this Section, the amount of tax for each assessment year, which a dealer would have been liable to pay as admitted tax payable on sale of goods if exemption had not been granted, less any amount of admitted tax payable according to the conditions of eligibility certificate for the assessment year, shall be deferred for a period of seven years. Such period of seven years shall be computed from 1st May of the assessment year subsequent to assessment year to which such amount of tax relates. The amount of tax for each assessment year for which moratorium is granted shall be paid by the dealer in lump sum within one month of the expiry of the period of moratorium:Provided that the total amount payable shall be paid in lump sum within three months of its becoming payable when the moratorium ceases as per the provisions under sub-section (14) of this Section.(8)Moratorium shall be allowed only to those manufacturers who hold eligibility certificate and who obtain certificate of moratorium from the prescribed authority.(9)Moratorium shall be admissible in respect of tax on sale of goods mentioned in the eligibility certificate and shall not be available in respect of tax payable on purchases of goods, if any, and in respect of sales of goods for which eligibility certificate is not applicable.(10)Moratorium shall not be admissible in respect of amount of tax assessed in excess of tax admittedly payable and shall be limited to the amount of tax and for the period mentioned in sub-section (6).(11)Moratorium shall be available to only such manufacturers who create first charge on their property in favour of the State Government sufficient to cover the amount of tax for which moratorium has been granted.(12)Moratorium shall be subject to such conditions as the State Government may, by notification in the gazette prescribe.(13)The Commissioner may, by order in writing, before or after the expiration of the period of exemption or reduction, amend or cancel the certificate of eligibility in the following circumstances-(a)where there is any legal or factual error in issuing such eligibility certificate; or(b)where the unit is not entitled to such facility or is entitled to such facility for a lesser period or from a different date; or(c)where the dealer has misused the certificate of eligibility in any manner; or(d)where the dealer has acted in contravention of any conditions of eligibility certificate; or(e)where the dealer has not paid any amount of tax or penalty due from him either under this Act or under the Central Sale Tax Act, 1956; or(f)where the dealer is involved in the evasion of tax under this Act or under the Central Sales Tax Act,1956; or(g)where the dealer has discontinued business, and in any such case the facility of moratorium shall be withdrawn with effect from the date specified in the order and such date may be prior to the date of such order, so however, that in cases of misuse or breach, the cancellation of eligibility certificate shall have effect not before the date of such misuse or breach;Provided that no order under this Section shall be passed without giving the dealer a reasonable opportunity of being heard.(14)The moratorium shall cease and the total amount shall become payable-(a)on the date on which the dealer discontinues business; or(b)on the date on which the dealer violates any of the conditions subject to which eligibility certificate has been granted; or(c)on the date on which the order of cancellation of certificate of eligibility under sub-section (13) is served on the dealer, and the amount shall be paid in lump sum within three months of its becoming payable.(15)When any dealer fails to pay the amount due under the provisions of subsection (7) or sub-section (14) of this Section within the time specified therein, he shall, notwithstanding his liability under Section 58 be liable to pay interest at the rate of fifteen percent per annum for the period of default:Provided that no penalty under this sub-section shall be levied without giving the dealer an opportunity of being heard.(16)If there is discontinuation of business, within the meaning of clause (e) of sub-section (7) of Section 3, of the manufacturer who was eligible for exemption from or reduction in rate of tax under this Section, and if he is succeeded by another manufacture by means of sale, license, contract, lease, managing agency or in any other manner, such successor manufacturer may, subject to the provisions of sub-section (13), apply to the officer competent to grant eligibility certificate, within sixty days of such succession, for the grant of facility under this Section for the un expired portion of the period for which the facility was or could be granted to the former manufacture:Provided that the aforesaid officer may, in its discretion and for adequate and sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing, entertain an application moved within six months of the date of the expiration of the period specified in this sub-Section;Provided further that such manufacture and successor manufacturer for the purpose of liability of tax shall be treated as the transferrer and transferee under sub-section (4) of Section 9;Provided also that in computing the un-expired portion of the period, the period during which the production of successor manufacturer remains closed on account of an order passed by any Court or Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction or Appellate Authority for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction shall be excluded.(17)The State Government may, by notification in the gazette, withdraw this facility of moratorium for payment of tax under this Section, where it is of the opinion that it is no longer in public interest: Provided that this facility shall not be withdrawn retrospectively. Explanation. - The expression "new unit" and "unit which has undertaken expansion, diversification, modernization or backward integration" and "eligibility certificate" shall have the same meanings as are assigned to them under Section 4-A of the Uttaranchal (the Uttar Pradesh Trade Tax Act, 1948) Adaptation and Modification Order, 2002.

77. Facility for Sick Industrial Units.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 34 and Section 75, but subject to such conditions as may be deemed fit to be imposed, the State Government may allow the deferment of payment of any existing or future dues payable by an industrial unit under the provisions of this Act or allow payment of such dues in such number of installments as may be specified, if such industrial unit is declared a sick unit in accordance with the guidelines specified in this behalf by an authorized body constituted by the Central Government or the State Government in connection with rehabilitation of sick industrial units and is approved for rehabilitation by an approved agency, appointed by the Central Government or the State Government. (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 31, the State Government may set aside an order of assessment or penalty passed ex parte against a sick unit and direct fresh disposal of the case in accordance with law.

78. Power to collect Statistics.

(1) If the Commissioner considers that for the purpose of better administration of this Act it is necessary so to do, it may, by issuing a circular and or by publication in the news paper or by notification in the Gazette, direct that statistics be collected relating to any matter dealt with, by or under this Act. (2) Upon such direction being made, the Commissioner or any person authorised by it in this behalf, call upon all dealers or class of dealers or a particular dealer to furnish such information or returns or statements as may be stated therein relating to any matter in respect of which statistics are to be collected. (3) Dealer or dealers shall be liable to furnish such information within the time allowed.

79. Power to remove difficulties.

(1) Where any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provision of this Act, the State Government may, by notification in the Gazette, make such orders not inconsistent with this Act, as may appear to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty. (2) No order under sub-section (1) shall be made after the expiration of three years from the date of commencement of this Act. (3) Every order made under sub-section (1) shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be laid before the State Legislative Assembly while it is in session, for a total period of not less than fourteen days, extending in its one session or more than one successive sessions, and shall, unless some later date is appointed, take effect from the date of its publication in the Gazette subject to such modifications or annulments as the State Legislative Assembly may during said period make. However any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done there under except that any imposition, assessment, levy or collection of tax or penalty shall be subject to the said notification or annulment.
