3. Bar of suits and applications.

(1) No suit for recovery of a debt shall be instituted, and no application for execution of a decree in respect of a debt shall be made, against any agriculturist in any civil or revenue Court before the expiry of four months from the commencement of this Act. Explanation I. - Where a debt is payable by an agriculturist jointly or jointly and severally with a non-agriculturist, no suit or application of the nature mentioned in this sub-section shall be instituted or made either against the non-agriculturist or against the agriculturist before the expiry of the period mentioned in this sub-section. Explanation II. - For the purposes of this Act, a suit in which a decree in respect of a debt is prayed for shall be deemed to be a suit for the recovery of a debt notwithstanding that other reliefs are prayed for in such suit and a decree shall be deemed to be a decree in respect of a debt notwithstanding that other reliefs are granted in such decree: Provided that a suit for possession of land shall not be deemed to be a suit for recovery of a debt by reason merely of mesne profits being also prayed for in such suit: Provided further that nothing contained in this section shall apply to any portion of a decree other than that relating to a debt. (2) Where a creditor files a suit for recovery of a debt during the period specified in sub-section (1) or after the agriculturist has paid or deposited into Court the sums and instalments specified in sub-section (1) of section 4 and during the period when he is so entitled to pay, the Court shall in decreeing the suit, direct the plaintiff to bear his own costs and pay the costs of the defendant who is an agriculturist: Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall be a bar to the Court passing any order as to costs as between the plaintiff and other defendants who are not agriculturists.

4. Payment of debt in instalments.

(1) Notwithstanding any law, custom, contract, or decree of Court to the contrary, an agriculturist shall be entitled to pay within four months of the commencement of this Act the interest due on any debt due by him up to the commencement of this Act and one-eighth of the principal outstanding or one-fourth of the total amount outstanding, whichever is less, and the balance of the debt in three equal annual instalments on or before the 1st July of each of the succeeding three years with the interest due on such instalment up to that date. Explanation. - In the case of a decree, the amount decreed shall be deemed to be the principal. (2) Where in respect of a decree for debt passed before the commencement of this Act, a debtor fails to make any one of the payments specified in sub-section (1), the decree holder shall be entitled to execute the decree in respect of the instalment which is in default. (3) In any suit filed after the commencement of this Act, the Court in decreeing the suit shall provide for the immediate payment of such instalment or instalments as would have become due [under the provisions of] [Substituted for the words under provision of by section 3 of and the Second Schedule to, the Tamil Nadu Repealing and Amending Act, 1955 (Tamil Nadu Act XXXV of 1955.)] sub-section (1) and the balance in further instalments as specified therein. (4) Where in any suit for the recovery of a debt pending at the commencement of this Act, the debtor claims to be an agriculturist, the Court shall, if the debtor is an agriculturist, pass a decree for immediate payment of such instalment or instalments as would have become payable under the provisions of sub-section (1) and the balance in further instalments as specified therein. (5) Nothing contained in this Act shall bar the Court from passing a decree or making an order in an application for execution of the decree under such terms and conditions as may be more favourable to the debtor than those provided for in this section either of its own motion upon a consideration of all the circumstances of the case or upon an agreement between the parties.(6)Where in any suit to recover a debt or in any application for the execution of a decree therefor, the debt is payable by an agriculturist jointly or jointly and severally with a non-agriculturist, the Court shall pass a decree or make an order for the payment, of the debt found due from the agriculturist as provided in this section as against the agriculturist and make such provision in the decree or order against the non-agriculturist as the circumstances of the case may warrant.(7)The provisions of sub-section (1) shall, for purposes of execution, be deemed to be a subsequent order of Court within of the meaning of [clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 48] [Substituted for 'clause (b) of section 48' by section 3 of and the Second Schedule to, the Tamil Nadu Repealing and Amending Act, 1955 (Tamil Nadu Act XXXV of 1955).] of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908).

5. Deposit of debt into Court.

(1)An agriculturist may deposit any of the instalments as provided in section 4 into the Court having, jurisdiction to entertain a suit for recovery of the debt or into the Court which passed the decree, as the case may be, and apply to the Court to record part-satisfaction of the debt.(2)Where any such application is made, the Court shall pass an order recording part-satisfaction of the debt if the amount deposited is the correct amount(3)The Court shall dismiss the application-(a)If the applicant is not an agriculturist,(b)If the liability is not a debt, or(c)if the amount deposited is insufficient and the applicant on being required by the Court to deposit the deficit amount within a time fixed by the Court, fails to do so.(4)Any agriculturist entitled to make such deposit may, before the date on which any instalment is due, apply to the Court having jurisdiction under subsection (1) for an extension of time for making the deposit of the whole or any portion-of such instalment and the Court may, after notice to the creditor, extend the time for payment of such instalment or part thereof for such period as it thinks fit.(5)The procedure laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908), for the trial of suits shall, as far as may be, apply to the applications under this section.

6. Appeals.

- An appeal shall lie from an order passed by a Court under section 5, as if such an order relates to the execution, discharge or satisfaction of a decree within the meaning of section 47 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908).

7. Presumption as to transfer of immovable property of the debtor.

(1)Every transfer of immovable property made by a debtor entitled to the benefits of this Act after the 1st October 1953 and before the complete discharge of his debt, shall, in any suit or other proceeding with respect to such transfer, be presumed, until the contrary is proved to have been made with intent to defeat or delay the creditors of the transferor.(2)Where a debtor entitled to the benefits of this Act has allowed, in collusion with another, his immovable property to be sold after the 1st October 1953 through Court with a view to defeat or delay his creditors, the sale shall be voidable at the option of any. creditor so defeated or delayed.

8. Exclusion of time for limitation.

- In computing the period of limitation for a suit for recovery of a debt, or an application for the execution of a decree in respect of a debt, the time during which the institution of the suit or the making of the application was barred under section 3 shall be excluded.

9. Effect of payment or deposit under section 4 or section 5.

- Where a debt is payable by an agriculturist either by himself or jointly or jointly and severally with a non-agriculturist and where the agriculturist makes payment or deposits amount towards that debt as provided for in section 4 or section 5, a fresh period of limitation shall be computed from the time when the payment or deposit was made both against the agriculturist and non-agriculturist.

10. Power to make rules.

(1)The State Government may make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.(2)The rules so made shall be placed on the table of [the Legislative Assembly] [Substituted by paragraph 3(2) of the Tamil Nadu Adaptation of Laws Order, 1987.] as soon as they are published and shall be subject to such modification whether by way of repeal or amendment as the Legislature may make during the session in which they are so laid.
