26A. [ [Substituted vide Orissa Gazette Extraordinary No. 1263, dated 15.11.1995, SRO No. 1260/95.]

On the date fixed for presentation of nomination papers, each candidate intending to stand for the election as a ward member or for the office of Sarpanch, as the case may be, shall deposit or cause to be deposited a sum of rupees fifty and hundred, respectively other than the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes with the Election Officer. In case of candidates belonging to Scheduled Tribes and Scheduled Castes the amount of deposit to be made with the Election Officer shall be rupees twenty five and fifty, respectively. The candidate shall be given a receipt in Form No. 5 prescribed under the Orissa Grama Panchayat Rules, 1968 for the amount so deposited. No candidate shall be allowed to contest or deemed to be duly nominated for election to the said office unless proper receipt in support of such deposit is annexed to the nomination paper.]

26B.

If a candidate by whom or on whose behalf the deposit referred to in Rule 26-A has been made is not elected and the number of votes polled by him does not exceed one-sixth of the total number of valid votes polled, the deposit shall be forfeited and credited to the Panchayat Fund.

26C.

If the nomination in respect of a candidate by whom or on whose behalf the deposit referred to in Rule 26-A has been made is rejected or declared invalid, or if he withdraws his candidature in the manner and within the time specified in Rule 34, or if he dies before the commencement of the poll or if he, though not elected, does not forfeit his deposit under Rule 26-B, or if he is elected, the deposit shall be returned to the candidate or to the person by whom the deposit was made on his behalf or in the event of the death of the candidate to his legal heir.

26D.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, a deposit made under Rule 26-A shall not be returned unless a claim is preferred by the person who made the deposit or by his legal heir, as the case may be, to the Grama Panchayat concerned as soon as may be after the publication of the result of the election.

26E.

After the publication under Section 15 of the Act, of the names of members elected, the Election Officer shall send a list to the Grama Panchayat concerned showing separately the names of candidates to whom the deposit made by them under Rule 26-A shall be returned and of those the deposit made shall be forfeited to the Grama Panchayat.

27.

No person shall be eligible to be a candidate for election as a ward member unless his name finds place in the electoral roll for the ward. No person shall also be eligible either to be a proposer or a seconder in respect of a candidate for ward membership unless his name so finds place in the electoral roll for the ward.

28.

No person shall be eligible to stand as a candidate for the office of Sarpanch unless his name finds place in the electoral roll of the Grama. No person shall similarly be eligible to be either the proposer or seconder of a candidate for the office of Sarpanch unless his name finds place in the electoral roll of the Grama.

29.

(a) The Election Officer shall at the appointed time, date and place receive nomination papers separately for the office of members and Sarpanch in Form No. 4 and scrutinise them in the presence of the candidate, their proposers and seconders, if any, who may be present. If he finds that the candidates are duly qualified in accordance with the provisions of Section 11 and not disqualified under any of the clauses of Section 25 of the Act, he shall approve their candidature. Objections, if any, filed in the course of scrutiny shall be enquired into summarily by the Election Officer and his decision accepting or rejecting the nomination papers shall be endorsed on the body of the nomination papers with reasons for the decision. (b) The election Officer shall not reject a nomination paper merely on account of some discrepancy between the age, name or other particulars of a candidate or his proposer or seconder as given in the nomination paper and in the electoral roll; provided that the Election Officer is otherwise satisfied that the identity of a candidate is not in doubt and the question of eligibility is not involved.

30.

If no nomination is filed [or if all the nominations are rejected] [Inserted vide Orissa Gazette Extraordinary No. 1263, dated 15.11.1995, SRO No. 1260/95.] for the office of Sarpanch of the Grama Panchayat or for the membership of any ward, a notice for fresh election shall be issued as laid down in Rule 24. If there is a failure of the election so held for the second time the Election Officer shall forthwith report the matter to the [Sub-Collector] [Inserted vide Orissa Gazette Extraordinary No. 1263, dated 15.11.1995, SRO No. 1260/95.] for nomination of a person under Section 13 to fill up the vacancy. The provisions of this rule shall be applicable for election to the office of any member of the Grama Panchayat, Sarpanch or Naib-Sarpanch.

31.

If after scrutiny under Rule 29 the Election Officer finds that there is only one candidate each duly nominated for the office of Sarpanch of a Grama Panchayat and for the office of member from each ward of a Grama Panchayat, there shall be no poll and the Election Officer shall immediately declare the person so nominated to have been duly elected.

32. [ [Substituted vide Orissa Gazette Extraordinary No. 1263, dated 15.11.1995, SRO No. 1260/95.]

(1)The Election Officer shall, immediately, after the scrutiny, prepare a list of the nominated candidates in Form No. 5 and arrange the names in Oriya alphabetical order.(2)* * *A copy of the list of the validly nominated candidates shall be published in the notice board of the Grama in Form No. 5 at least [three weeks] [Substituted vide Orissa Gazette Extraordinary No. 903, dated, 15.5.2001 SRO No. 228/2001.] before the date fixed for Election.(4)A validly nominated candidate for any ward or for the office of Sarpanch may withdraw candidature by presenting an application in Form No. 9 personally to the Election Officer within forty eight hours after the list of validly nominated candidates has been published under Sub-rule (3).[Provided that the Election Officer shall verify the signature of the candidate before allowing the candidature to be withdrawn.] Inserted vide Orissa Gazette Extraordinary No. 903, dated, 15.5.2001 SRO No. 228/2001.Immediately after the withdrawal of nomination under Sub-rule (4), the Election Officer shall publish the final list of contesting candidates [and allot symbols to each of them in Form No. 5 at least two weeks] [Substituted vide Orissa Gazette Extraordinary No. 903, dated, 15.5.2001 SRO No. 228/2001.] before the date of Election.(6)If there were only two contesting candidates including the person withdrawing his candidature under Sub-rule (4), the other candidates shall be declared July elected uncontested.(7)The Election Officer shall proceed with election if, upon withdrawal of candidature under Rule (4), the number of validly nominated candidates exceeds one.

33.

(a)A validly nominated candidate who has not withdrawn his candidature under Sub-rule (4) of Rule 32 dies and a report of his death is received by the Election Officer, before publication of the list of contesting candidates; or(b)A candidate dies after the publication of the final list of contesting candidates under Sub-rule (5) of Rule 32 and before the commencement of poll;the Election Officer shall, upon being satisfied of the fact of the death of the candidate, countermand the poll and report the fact to the Commissioner.

34.

If at an election, a candidate dies at any time on or after the date of the poll but before publication of the result under Section 15, there shall be no countermanding and the result shall be declared as if the candidate has not died.

35.

In case upon declaration of result of the election, the deceased candidate as referred to in Rule 34 declared to have been duly elected, the Election Officer shall forthwith issue a notification to the effect that casual vacancy has occurred and the provisions of these rules for conducting bye-election to fill up the casual vacancy shall be applicable in such cases.]

36. Conduct of polling.

- After the procedure for acceptance of nominations is completed, the Election Officer shall supply to the Presiding Officer appointed for each polling station the following papers :(a)A list of validly nominated candidates in Form No. 5 separately for offices of Sarpanch and ward members concerned;(b)A working copy of the electoral roll for the ward for use of the Presiding Officer;(c)Another copy of the electoral roll of the ward to be exhibited at the polling station;(d)Required number of ballot-papers for the office of Sarpanch as also ward members in Form (No. 6);(e)Form No. 7 for ballot-paper account;(f)Form No. 8 for recording the results of counting;(g)Form No. 8-A, for recording the results of counting of votes to the office of Sarpanch.

37.

It shall be the responsibility of the Presiding Officer to proceed to the polling station well in advance of the time fixed for the poll and make the required arrangement so as to ensure that polling commences exactly at the time notified.

38.

Shortly before the commencement of the poll, a copy of the list of contesting candidates for each office arranged in alphabetical order together with a description of the symbol assigned to each shall be exhibited prominently at the polling station. A copy of the electoral roll, a notice specifying the polling station, area and the date and time of poll shall also be exhibited.

39.

The Presiding Officer shall examine the authority of the polling agents authorised by the candidates and decide the admissibility according to rules. He may also fix up one or two local persons who may be of assistance in identifying voters.

40.

Immediately before the commencement of the poll, the Presiding Officer shall demonstrate to the candidates and the voters present that the ballot-box is empty and is either locked up or so secured by any device that ballot-papers can be inserted therein but cannot be withdrawn except by breaking or otherwise tampering with the box.

41.

(a) Polling shall then commence at the appointed hour. (b) As each voter approaches the Presiding Officer, he shall check up the eligibility with reference to the working copy of the electoral roll and issue a ballot-paper to the voter for the Office of Sarpanch after putting an indelible ink mark on his left forefinger. The Presiding Officer shall clearly explain to each voter the procedure to be followed in putting his mark. The voter shall then proceed along with the ballot-paper to the enclosure and [affix a cross mark] [Substituted vide Orissa Gazette Extraordinary No. 903, dated 15.5.2001 SRO No. 228/2001.] secretly against the candidate whom he wishes to vote either with the stamp provided for the purpose or by any other method as may be decided by the Presiding Officer. After affixing the mark the voter should fold the ballot-paper on the inner side so as to maintain secrecy of the vote and proceed to the Presiding Officer and insert the folded ballot-paper into the box specified for the purpose. (c) The Presiding Officer shall then issue another ballot-paper for the office of ward member. At the time of issuing such ballot-paper, the voter shall on being asked allow his left forefinger to be marked with indelible ink if no such marking is already made as per the foregoing sub-rule. The voter shall then proceed along with ballot-paper to the enclosure and affix a mark secretly against the candidate whom he wishes to vote either with the stamp provided for the purpose or by any other method as may be decided by the presiding officer. After affixing the mark the voter should fold the ballot-paper on the inner side so as to maintain secrecy of the vote and then wilt insert the told ballot-paper into the box specified for the purpose. (d) Any reference in this rule to the left fore-finger of a voter shall, in the case where the voter has his left fore-finger missing, be construed as a reference to any other finger of his left hand and shall in the case where all the fingers of his left hand are missing, be construed as a reference to the forefinger or, as the case may be, any other finger of his right hand and shall in the case where all his fingers of both the hands are missing, be construed as a reference to such extremity of his left or right arm as he possesses.

42. [ [Substituted vide Orissa Gazette Extraordinary No. 1263, dated 15.11.1995, SRO No. 1260/95.]

In case of a voter who is physically incapacitated or is blind the Presiding Officer shall, at the request of such voter, allow him to take a companion to the place set apart for voting ]

43.

After the issue of the ballot-papers, the Presiding Officer shall tick-mark the name of the voter in the working copy of the electoral roll.

44.

[(1)] [Re-numbered vide Orissa Gazette Extraordinary No. 1263, dated 15.11.1995, SRO No. 1260/95.] Any contesting candidate or his authorised polling agent may object to the identity of a voter on the only ground that he is not the person he claims to be as per entry in the electoral roll. For every objection a fee of Rs. 2 shall be deposited with the Presiding Officer. The Presiding Officer shall decide the objection summarily and his decision shall be final. If the objection is rejected the deposit shall be forfeited. Every nomination paper shall be presented by the candidate himself or his proposer or seconder to the Presiding Officer at the meeting; (e) After expiry of the time allotted for receiving nomination papers, the Presiding Officer shall proceed to scrutinise the nomination papers. Scrutiny shall be made only with a view to check if nomination is duly proposed and seconded and also accepted by the candidate. It shall be open to the Presiding Officer to get omissions rectified then and there. No objections on any other ground whatsoever shall be entertained in respect of nominations; (f) If only a single candidate is nominated, he shall be declared elected forthwith; (g) In case no nomination is filed within the time allowed the Presiding Officer shall allow one more hour for filing nominations and this shall be treated as an election for the second time. If no nomination is filed on the second occasion also, the Presiding Officer shall report the result to the Election Officer who shall thereupon move the [Sub-Collector] for nomination of the Naib-Sarpanch; (h) In the event of there being a contest, the Presiding Officer shall announce the names of the contesting candidates and shall proceed to hold the poll then and there.

77.

Every member present and wishing to vote shall be supplied with a ballot paper in Form No. 10 which may be either printed or in manuscript and duly authenticated by the signature of the Presiding Officer. Names of the duly nominated candidates shall be printed, typed or cyclostyled or legibly written in ink on the ballot-paper in the alphabetical order. It shall not be necessary to assign symbols.

78.

The voter shall then proceed to a place set apart for voting and secretly put a cross-mark either with a stamp that may be supplied by the Presiding Officer or by any other means against the name of the candidate to whom he wishes to vote. He shall then fold the paper so as to conceal the vote and deposit the same in a ballot box placed in the view of the Presiding Officer.

79.

The procedure outlined in Rules 14 to 16, 18, 19, 40, 41 and 47 regarding the description of the ballot boxes to be provided, the exhibition of boxes before commencement of the poll, the arrangements for ensuring secrecy of ballot, the opening of boxes after the close of poll, the counting and scrutiny of ballot-papers and the presence of candidates shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Election of Naib-Sarpanch.

80.

Immediately after voting is over, the Presiding Officer shall count the votes in the presence of the members, as may be present and declare the candidate securing the order number of valid votes to have been elected. In the event of there being an equality of votes, the Presiding Officer shall draw lots. The candidate whose name is first drawn shall be declared to have been elected. The Presiding Officer shall thereupon communicate the result forthwith along with the connected election papers to the Election Officer. The election papers shall be forwarded in sealed packets and the provisions of Rule 56 regarding preservation of these papers shall apply.

The Election Officer shall thereupon publish the name of the Naib-Sarpanch duly elected or nominated in the notice board of the Block office as required under Section 15. He shall forward a copy of the notification to the Collector as also to the Grama Panchayat concerned.
