(1)Notwithstanding any provision in the Fundamental Rules to the contrary, a person on probation if he is not already in permanent Government service, shall be allowed his first increment in the time scale when he has completed one year of satisfactory service and second increment after two years service when he has completed the probationary period and is also confirmed :Provided that if the period of probation is extended on account of failure to give satisfaction such extension shall not count for increment unless the appointing authority directs otherwise.(2)The pay during probation of a person who was already holding a post under the Government shall be regulated by the relevant Fundamental Rules :Provided that, if the period of probation is extended on account of failure to give satisfaction such extension shall not count for increment unless the appointing authority directs otherwise.(3)The pay during probation of a person already in permanent Government service shall be regulated by the relevant rules applicable generally to Government servants serving in connection with the affairs of the State.

22. Criteria for crossing efficiency bar.

- No person shall be allowed to cross the efficiency bar unless his work and conduct are found to be satisfactory and his integrity is certified.

Part VIII – Other Provisions

23. Canvassing.

- No recommendations, either written or oral, other than those required under the rules applicable to the post or Service will be taken into consideration. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to enlist support directly or indirectly for his candidature will disqualify him for appointment.

24. Regulation of other matters.

- In regard to the matters not specifically covered by these rules or special orders, persons appointed to the Service shall be governed, by the rules, regulations and orders applicable generally to Government servants serving in connection with the affairs of the State.

25. Relaxation from the condition of service.

- Where the State Government is satisfied that the operation of any rule, regulating the conditions of service of persons appointed to the Service ensues undue hardship in any particular case, it may notwithstanding anything contained in the rules applicable to the case, by order, dispense with or relax the requirements of that rule to such extent and subject to such conditions as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in a just and equitable manner :Provided that where a rule has been framed in consultation with the Commission that body shall be consulted before the requirements of the rule and dispensed with or relaxed.

26. Savings.

- Nothing in these rules shall affect reservations and other concessions required to be provided for the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders of the Government issued from time to time in this regard.
