The Punjab Nurses Registration Act, 1932 Punjab Act No. 1 of 1932 Statement of Objects and Reasons. - "It is felt that the time has come when the interests of the increasing number of trained nurses, health visitors, midwives, nurses, dais and trained dais and of their clientele should be protected, and this can be best achieved by the registration and proper control of such nurses, health visitors, midwives, nurses, trained-dais and dais. Moreover, registration in itself supplies an incentive to take training and thereby improves professional standards. It is accordingly proposed to enact measures on the lines of the law in force in Great Britain where there is a Council which deals with various questions relating to nurses, such as the training, examination, registration, etc., of nurses and their removal from the register maintained under the authority of the Council. Provision also exists in the English Act forbidding any unregistered person from practising as a nurse and also penalising the use by an unregistered nurse of any title or name suggesting that such nurse is a registered nurse.² The Madras Nurses and Midwives Act, 1926, which is based on the English Act, has already been passed into law, and a Bill for the Punjab, has been made on the provisions of the English and Madras Acts". Received the assent of His Excellency the Governor on the 14th April, 1932, and that of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General on the 21st May, 1932, and was first published in the Punjab Gazette, Extraordinary, of the 7th June, 1932. An Act to provide for the registration and better training of Nurses, Health Visitors, Midwives and dais in [Punjab.] [Substituted for the words 'East Punjab' by the Adaptation of Laws (Third Amendment) Order, 1951.] Preamble. - Whereas it is expedient to provide for the registration [and holding of examinations] [Inserted by Punjab Act 16 of 1953.] of nurses, health visitors, midwives and dais in [Punjab] [Substituted for the words 'East Punjab' by the Adaptation of Laws (Third Amendment) Order, 1951.] and to secure their better training, and whereas the previous sanction of the Governor-General under section 80-A of the Government of India Act has been obtained; it is hereby enacted as follows :-
