Rules under the M.P. Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960Published vide Notification No. 2949-545/28-62, Madhya Pradesh Rajpatra, Part 4 (Ga) dated 26-10-1962 at p. 788Notification No. 2949-545/XXVIII-62, published in M.P. Rajpatra, Part IV (Ga) dated 26-10-1962 at p. 788. - In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 50 of the Madhya Pradesh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960 (No. 20 of 1960), the State Government hereby makes the following rules, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (3) of Section 50 of the said Act, namely :

1. Definition.

- In these rules, "the Act" means the Madhya Pradesh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960 (No. 20 of 1960).

2. Issue of notice.

(1)Every notice under the Act shall be in writing, in duplicate and shall be signed and sealed by the officer issuing it or by such person as he empowers in this behalf, and it shall specify the time and place at which the person therein named is required to attend, and also whether he is required to give evidence or to produce a document.(2)A notice to produce documents may be for the production of certain specified documents or for production of all documents of certain description in the possession or power of person named therein.

3. Service of notice.

(1) Every notice under the Act shall be served by tendering or delivering a copy of it to the person concerned personally or to his recognised agent : Provided that, where the recognised agent of the person concerned is a pleader, the notice may be served by leaving a copy thereof at his office or at the place of his ordinary residence and such service shall be deemed to be effectual as service on the recognised agent personally. (2) Where the person concerned cannot be found and has no recognised agent, service may be made on any adult male member of the family of the person concerned, who is residing with him. Explanation. - A servant is not a member of the family within the meaning of this sub-rule. (3) Where the serving officer delivers or tenders a copy of the notice to the person concerned personally or to an agent or other person on his behalf, he shall require the signature of the person, to whom the copy is delivered or tendered to an acknowledgment of service endorsed on the original notice. (4) If service of the notice cannot be effected in the manner provided in sub-rules (1), (2) and (3) a copy thereof may be affixed at the last known place of residence of the person concerned or at some place of public resort in the village in which the land to which the notice relates is situate or from which the land is cultivated. (5) Where a copy of the notice is affixed as provided in sub-rule (4), the serving officer shall return the original copy of the notice to the officer who issued it with a report endorsed thereon or annexed thereto stating that he has so affixed the copy, the circumstances under which he did so, the name and address of the person in whose presence the copy was affixed and where the copy is affixed at the last known place of residence of the person noticed, the report shall also contain the name of the person by whom the house was identified. (6) If the person to whom a notice is to be served resides in another district, the notice may be sent by post to the Collector of such district for service.

4. Contents of order.

- Every order under the Act shall be in writing and contain a concise statement of the case, the points for decision, the decision thereon and the reasons for such decision.

5. Final order.

- No final order shall be passed to the detriment of any person without giving him an opportunity to be heard and hearing him if he so desires and where the conflicting rights and interests of two parties are concerned, they shall both be given such an opportunity.

6. Delivery and communication of order.

- Subject to the provisions of the Act, the following procedure shall be followed by a Revenue Officer and competent authority in respect of passing orders under the Act; (1) (a) After arguments are heard, a definite date may be fixed if possible, for passing of the order, and signature of parties or counsel shall be taken on the order-sheet in token of their having been informed of the date. (b) On the date so fixed, the order shall be delivered. If parties or counsel are present, their presence shall be recorded. If they are absent, the order sheet should indicate their absence in spite of having been intimated of the date of the order and no further communication of the order to the parties shall be necessary.(2)(a)In case where it is not possible to fix a definite date for passing of the order, the case may be closed for orders after argument.(b)When the order is ready for delivery, intimation in the following form, in duplicate shall be served on counsel where they appear or on parties where there is no counsel : "Order in case No of 20 will be passed on of 20...."One copy of the form shall be returned after signature by Counsel or parties, as the case may be.(c)On the date fixed for delivery of the order in the notice, the presiding officer shall proceed to sign and deliver the order. If counsel or parties are present, their presence shall be recorded; if they are absent, their absence, in spite of notice having been duly communicated, shall also be recorded and no further communication of the order to the parties shall be necessary.(3)In either of the cases, referred to in sub-rules (1) and (2), the order shall be delivered on the date fixed. If, however, this is not possible for any reason a fresh date shall be fixed, and notice thereof shall be given to the parties or their counsel.(4)No order shall be delivered in any case, unless the acknowledgment by counsel or parties of the notice fixing a date is on record. The date fixed for passing of the order shall accordingly be determined, having due regard to the time required for return of the notice.

7. Enforcement of the order.

- An order under the Act shall be enforced in the manner provided for the enforcement of the order of the Revenue Officers and Revenue Courts in or under the Madhya Pradesh Land Revenue Code, 1959.RulesNotification No. 2950-756/XXVIII-62, published in M.P. Rajpatra, Part IV (Ga), dated 26-10-1962 at p. 790, as amended by Notification No. 1085-1471-XVIII-74, dated 3-7-1974, published in M.P. Rajpatra (Asadharan), dated 6-7-1974, p. 1430. - In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (i) of sub-section (2) of Section 50 read with section 43 of the Madhya Pradesh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960 (No. 20 of 1960), the State Government hereby makes the following rules, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (3) of Section 50 of the said Act, namely :

1. Definition. - In these rules,-

(a)"Act" means the Madhya Pradesh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960 (No. 20 of 1960);(b)"Section" means a section of the Act.

2. Court-fee. - Every application or memorandum of appeal or an application for revision under the Act shall bear a Court-fee stamp of the value specified in the Schedule appended to these rules.

RulesNotification No. 3129-4320-XXVIII-63, published in M.P. Rajpatra, Part IV (Ga), dated 13-11-1964, p. 689, as amended by M.P. Rajpatra, (Extraordinary), dated 6-7-1974, pages 1448-49. - In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) and clause (h) of sub-section (2) of Section 50 read with Section 35 of the Madhya Pradesh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960 (No. XX of 1960), the State Government hereby makes the following rules, the same having been previously published as required by sub-section (3) of Section 50 of the said Act, namely:-

1. In these rules-

(a)"Act" means the Madhya Pradesh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960 (No. XX of 1960);(b)"Form" means form appended to these rules;(c)"Section" means a section of the Act.

2. As soon as the Competent Authority has published the final statement under sub-section (6) of Section 11, it shall prepare a statement in Form I, giving particulars of all surplus land vested in the State Government situated in each village and send it in duplicate to the Tahsildar,concerned.

3. On the receipt of the Statement in Form I, in the Tahsil Office, the Tahsildar shall forward the duplicate copy to the Patwari concerned through the Revenue Inspector with directions to carry out the necessary corrections in the land records papers.

4. Simultaneously with sending of the copy of the statement to the Patwari, the Tahsildar shall cause a register in Form II prepared by the Kanungo in respect of all surplus land of each village in the tahsil vesting in the State Government. All statements in Form I shall be carefully preserved in a file.

5. The unit of surplus land for allotment to each individual landless person shall be as follows :

- | | |
|--|----------------------|
| (a) Rice tract | 10 acres of dry land |
| (b) Wheat, Juar, Cotton tract | 15 acres of dry land |
| (c) Kodon, Kutki or minor millet tract | 20 acres of dry land |

Explanation. - For the purpose of this rule, one acre of wet land shall be reckoned as equivalent to two acres of dry land.

6. Surplus land shall be allotted by the Sub-Divisional Officer.

7. An allottee shall pay full land revenue assessed on the land in question from the next agricultural year

8. The following procedure shall be followed in respect of allotment of surplus land vested in the State Government under these rules :

(i) Immediately on receipt of the copy of the statement in Form I, the Patwari shall issue a proclamation in Form III in the village in which the land is situate inviting applications within 15 days from the date of issue of the proclamation. All such applications shall be made to the Tahsildar in Form IV, in case of an individual, and in Form V in case of a society and shall each be affixed with a Court-fee stamp of the value of Rupee 1. (ii) After the date fixed for the receipt of applications, the Tahsildar shall prepare a list of all applications stating in brief the particulars of land applied for by each and forward it to the Gram Panchayat or Gram Sabha, as the case may be, with a notice in Form VI, asking it to furnish within 15 days of the date of the receipt of the list, on the suitability or otherwise of the applicants for the allotment of land. The Gram Panchayat or the Gram Sabha, shall send its recommendations to the Tahsildar within such period. The Tahsildar shall visit each village, if possible, or suitable centre, one week after the notified date of receipt of such reports and whether a report is received or not, he shall hold a meeting of the residents of the village in which the land to be allotted is situate, on the date and at the place to be announced by beat of drum at least three days before the meeting. If the land to be allotted is situated in an uninhabited village, such meeting shall be held in any one of the neighbouring village after giving wide publicity in respect thereof in other neighbouring villages also. (iii) On the date and at the place announced for the meeting the Tahsildar shall read out the list of the applicants and particulars of land applied for to the people assembled and explained in short the principles of the allotment contained in the foregoing rules. The Tahsildar shall then invite the opinion of the people assembled on the applications by show of hands. He shall note on the applications whether they carry the unanimous verdict of the people in favour of the allotment or are recommended by the majority. If there is no unanimous verdict or recommendation of the majority, the Tahsildar shall try to find out whether any agreement can be reached among the applicants themselves in the matter of allotment. Failing such agreement he shall make recommendations on the applications, due considerations to the report, if any, of the Gram Panchayat or Gram Sabha. In all cases, however, the Tahsildar shall decide any objection summarily. (iv) The Tahsildar shall call the individuals or the representatives of the society, as the case may be, and ascertain from them whether the amount of premium will be paid by them in a lump sum or in instalments and shall mention the wishes so ascertained in his report to the Sub-Divisional Officer. (v) The Sub-Divisional Officer may accept the proposal of the Tahsildar, or, for the reasons to be recorded in writing, may make such modifications therein as he may deem fit, and pass orders accordingly within one week of the date of receipt of the proposal from the Tahsildar : Provided that any person who had preferred a claim or objection may apply in writing to the Sub-Divisional Officer for a hearing upon which the Sub-Divisional Officer shall hear him before passing final orders.

9. Where more than one person is allotted a portion of a big plot, each portion shall be demarcated and assessed immediately, after the allotment is made.

10. Where the allottee wishes to pay the premium in instalments, he shall execute an agreement in Form VII and thereafter the Sub-Divisional Officer shall issue a certificate in Form VIII to each individual allottee and cause him to be placed in possession of the land allotted.

11. Immediately on receipt of the orders of the Sub-Divisional Officer for allotment of land to a Society and in case the society has opted to pay the premium in instalments, the Tahsildar shall ask the Society to execute an Agreement in Form IX and thereafter the Sub-Divisional Officer shall issue the Certificate in Form X and cause the Society to be placed in possession of the land allotted.

12. As soon as the Certificate in Form VIII or X has been issued, the information about allotment of the land shall be communicated to the Patwari for completion of his records and the original allotment case sent to the Kanungo for completing the entries in the Register in Form II.

13. The original case shall then be sent to' the Wasil Baki Navis who shall take note of the premium whether payable in lump sum or in instalments in the Register of Form XI. It shall be the responsibility of the Wasil Baki Navis to intimate timely, action for the recovery of the annual instalments of the premium and interest due thereon as and when they become due.

Rajpatra, Part IV (Ga), dated 10-9-1976, p. 658. - In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) and clause (i) of sub-section (2) of Section 50 read with Sections 17, 18 and 20 of the Madhya Pradesh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960 (No. 20 of 1960) the State Government hereby makes the following rules, the same having been previously published, as required by sub-section (3) of Section 50 of the said Act, namely : Preliminary

1. In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires-

(a)"Act" means the Madhya Pradesh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960 (No. 20 of 1960);(b)"Form" means a form appended to these rules;(c)"Section" means a section of the Act.

2. As soon as possible after the final statement under sub-section (6) of Section 11 is published, the Competent Authority shall, subject to the provisions of the Act and the rules made thereunder, proceed to determine-

(a)the compensation to be paid to a holder in respect of the land declared surplus and vested in the State;(b)the apportionment of such compensation between the holder and the lessee, if any, as referred to in Section 20;(c)the secured debt of the land-holder in accordance with the provisions contained in Chapter V; and(d)the manner of payment of compensation, of the amounts apportioned under Section 20 and of secured debt out of compensation.

Part II – Determination of Compensation and Additional Compensation

3. The compensation to be paid in respect of the land declared surplus and vested in the State shall be calculated according to the scale given in Schedule II appended to the Act. In addition to this, additional compensation payable under sub-section (2) of Section 16 shall be calculated for the [standing trees and the improvements] [Substituted by Amending Notification dated 6-7-1974] existing on the land vested in the State Government on the date of vesting.

3A. [The additional compensation for the standing trees shall be calculated according to the scale given in Form A-2 appended to these rules The holder claiming additional compensation for the standing trees shall file a statement in Form A-I. The Competent Authority shall get the statement checked by the Tahsildar who shall verify the nature of trees, measurement of girth and other particulars and calculate the value of trees on the basis of scale given in Form A-2.] [Substituted by Amending Nottn. dated 6-7-1974]

4. With a view to facilitate the determination of the additional compensation for improvements existing on the land vested in the State, the land-holder shall be noticed to furnish statement in Form A supported by relevant documents.

- 5. On receipt of this information the Competent Authority shall proceed to determine the depreciated value of the improvements on the date of vesting of the land in the State. A report from the Local P.W.D. Officer not below the rank of Assistant Engineer, shall be obtained in respect of the cost of the construction, repairs, etc. as given in the statement, life of improvements, probable duration of the effects of such improvements, etc. and its depreciated value in the light of these facts on the date of vesting of the land in the State.
- 6. The depreciated value so determined shall be the additional compensation payable in respect of the vested land on which the improvement exist.
- 7. According to Section 13 (ii), all arrears of revenue cases other than in respect of land vested in the State under Section 12 and due by the holder for any period prior to the date of vesting are to be recoverable from such holder and shall be realised by deducting the same from the amount of compensation payable to him under the Act. A statement in Form B in duplicate in regard to arrears, etc. in respect of the vested land should be obtained from the Tahsildar of the Tahsil concerned in which the vested land is situate.
- 8. On receipt of the statement in Form B from the Tahsildar, the holder shall be noticed in Form C enclosing a copy of the statement to show cause why the arrears should not be deducted from the compensation payable to him in respect of vested land.
- 9. If the land-holder objects to the deduction questioning the correctness of the statement, the Competent Authority shall forward the same to the Tahsildar for deciding the objection and communicating the results within a period of two months.
- 10. The Competent Authority shall then deduct all such arrears of revenue cases or other dues from the amount of compensation according to the provisions of Section 13.

11. The amount determined to be so deducted under Section 13 (ii) shall be adjusted by book transfer, be credited to the appropriate head of account by debiting to the head "92-Payment of Compensation to land holders, etc. on the Abolition of the Zamindari System-A Compensation-Compensation to land-holders on vesting their surplus land to the State under the Madhya Pradesh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960". Four copies of the challan shall be prepared in respect of each type of dues, one to be retained in treasury, one to be filed with the cesses, one to be forwarded to the Tahsildar concerned and one to be given to the holder.

12. The Competent Authority may then draw up an order for the payment of remaining amount of compensation after deduction of the amount determined as due under Section 13 (ii) in as many instalments as considered necessary in accordance with the Scheme contained in Section 17 of the Act.

Part III – Apportionment of Compensation under Section 20 of The Act

13. Apportionment of compensation where leases in respect of the surplus land vested in the State are granted by the holders falling in the categories mentioned in Section 20, in pursuance of the provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 168 of the Madhya Pradesh Land Revenue Code, 1959 shall relate only to the period for which such leases run beyond the date of vesting.

14. On publication of the final statement under sub-section (6) of Section 11 all persons claiming under Section 20 a share in the compensation to be paid for the surplus land to the holder shall represent their claims before the Competent Authority in Form D within 60 days of the date of such publication.

15. On the receipt of claim under Rule 13 the Competent Authority after hearing the holder and making such further enquiry, as may be considered necessary, determine the admissibility of claims of such persons to apportionment of compensation.

16. In respect of claims which are admitted by the competent authority under Rule 15, the share of the claimant may be calculated in the same ratio as the lessees profit bears to the gross value of the produce of the land in the manner given in the illustration below :

Illustration. - Where-P. Value of gross annual produce of the land.L. Amount of annual lease money payable by the lessee to the holder;G. Gross amount of compensation determined under Section 16 (1) and (2);X. Compensation for a year to which the lessee is entitled; andY. Number of years for which the lease is to run after the date of vesting; then
$$X = \frac{P-L}{P \times C / 20}$$

17. This compensation shall be paid in as many equal annual instalments as the number of years (Y) unless the value of Y is more than 20 in which case the total compensation viz. $\frac{P-L}{P \times C / 20} \times Y$ shall be divided into 20 equal instalment and paid in such annual instalments.

18. The Competent Authority shall draw up specific order determining the total amount to which the lessee is entitled, the number of annual instalments in which it shall be paid and the amount of such instalments.

Part IV – Determination of Secured Debt of The Holders

19. The secured debt determined under Section 26 shall be payable from the amount of compensation according to Section 29 before an amount of the compensation is paid to the holder.

20. While drawing up the final order regarding the disposal of the amount of compensation payable to the holder, the Competent Authority' shall take into consideration the order of priority of the secured debts determined under Section 28 and the instalments in which these debts are to be payable out of the amount of compensation, as per orders passed under Section 29.

Part V – Manner of Payment of Compensation

21. After the apportionment to be made under Section 20 and the instalments of secured debts to be paid are determined, the Competent Authority shall draw up the final order in Form E regarding the amount of compensation payable to the holder and its disposal. A copy of this order shall be handed over to the holder.

22. An order shall also be drawn up in Form F in favour of the land holder/creditor/lessee authorising him to receive the payment of compensation in terms of the final order passed by the Competent Authority under Rule 21.

23. Interim compensation under Section 18 shall be paid to the holder on his furnishing an indemnity bond with security bond in Forms G and H.

24. The Competent Authority shall prepare a register in Form I separately for each holder. The register shall form part of the of the register to the Collector of the district where the payment is ordered to be made.

25. The payment of compensation shall be ordered to be made in the district in which the land is situate. Where, however, the land is situate in more than one district, the Competent Authority shall give an option to the holder to select one of these districts, where he wants the payment of compensation to be made and authorise payment accordingly; provided that the holder shall not be allowed to change the district so selected any time later for any reason whatsoever.

26. If on appeal, etc. the order of the Competent Authority is reversed or modified in any manner, entries in Register I filed with the relevant case shall be corrected by the Competent Authority accordingly and in doing so he shall invariably call back the copy of the register sent to the Collector wherein such correction shall be carried out by the Competent Authority under his signature simultaneously.

27. The first instalment of the compensation shall be due to be paid on the first day of the month next following the month in which the final order under Rule 21 is passed. The subsequent instalments shall be due for payment on the first day of May every year.

Part VI – Miscellaneous

28. The account of payment of compensation shall be maintained in the district in a register in Form J.

29. As soon as the register in Form H is received from the Competent Authority entries in respect thereof shall be made in the appropriate columns in the register maintained in Form I, separate pages being allotted for every holder.

30. The holder/lessees/creditors shall, every year on or after the date on which the payment of the instalment falls due, present the copy of the payment in Form F issued by the Competent Authority to them to the Collector of the district where payment is to be received during working hours on any working day.

31. The Collector shall, then prepare a voucher in Form K separately for every claimant and hand it over to payee concerned, along with the treasury voucher slip for encashment at the district treasury.

32. After the receipt of the treasury voucher slips from the Treasury Officer, the entries in the register maintained in the Collectorate shall be completed.

33. While preparing the voucher under Rule 31 interest at the rate of 3 per centum per annum on the unpaid amount of compensation shall be calculated till the date on which the concerned annual instalment is due to be paid and the amount of the compensation and interest shall be indicated separately in the body of the voucher.

In calculating the interest-(a)the amount less than 50 paise shall be disregarded and 50 paise or more shall be taken as a rupee; and(b)the amount of interest shall be rounded to the nearest multiple of 5 paise.

34. The amount of compensation shall be debited to the head "92-Payment of compensation to land-holders, etc. on the Abolition of Zamindari System-A-Compensation-Compensation to land-holders on vesting their surplus land to the State under the Madhya Pradesh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960," and interest to the head "16-Interest on debt and other obligations-A-Interest on Public Debt and other obligations-3-Interest on other obligations. Miscellaneous-Interest on compensation to land-holders on vesting their surplus land in the State Government under Madhya Pradesh Ceiling on Agricultural Holdings Act, 1960."

(1)The order under Rule 22 shall not be issued until the period of appeal against the order of the Competent Authority passed under Section 11 (6) is over.(2)If an appeal is filed against an order of the Competent Authority under Section 11 (6) and is still pending by the time when order under Rule 21 is passed, the Competent Authority shall by a specific order in writing, withhold the issue of the payment order under Rule 22 until the decision of the appeal is known.

(1)The payment of any sum authorised to be made under orders passed under Rule 22 shall be made only to the person so authorised therein and not to be messenger on this behalf.(2)The payment may also be remitted to the payee through the authorised agent if he so desires on production of the payment order and power of attorney.

37. If the person entitled to receive the payment out of compensation does not present himself personally or through his authorised agent for receiving payment on the due date, no interest will accrue on the instalment after that date.

38. If the holder, creditor or lessee entitled to receive the payment out of the compensation dies, his legal representative will be entitled to receive the amount on the production of the requisite succession certificate; provided that if the total amount to be paid to a claimant is Rs. 500 or less, the Collector may in his discretion dispense with the usual legal formality and make payment on execution, by the legal representative of an indemnity bond with such sureties as the Collector may require, if he is satisfied of the right and title of such legal representative and considers that undue delay and hardship would be caused by insisting on the production of letters of administration.

39. A monthly statement in Form L. showing the amount of compensation paid during the previous month, shall be forwarded by the Collector to the Accountant-General, Madhya Pradesh, Gwalior and to Secretary to Government, Madhya Pradesh, Land Reforms Department through the Commissioner of the Division by the 10th of the succeeding month.

40. A statement in Form M for the financial year showing the amount that fell due for payment during the year and the amount of interest that was not disbursed shall be forwarded by the Collector to-

(i)The Accountant General, Madhya Pradesh, and(ii)The Secretary to Government, Madhya Pradesh, Land Reforms Department through the Commissioner of the Division, by the 15th of May.

41. The Collector shall submit a statement in Form N to the Secretary to the Government of Madhya Pradesh, Land Reforms Department, through the Commissioner of the Division, not later than the 15th of October, in each year, for making provision in the budget for the next year.
